

Chapter 1241

‘How did Meg know about this?’

In the past seven years, Aurora had never told anyone about it apart from Mister Red Leaf.

"Slap!"

At the same time, Abbess Mother Serendipity dashed forward and slapped Megan's face without warning!

Abbess Mother Serendipity trembled and coldly said, "Meg, are you crazy? Do you know what you're saying? How could you slander your sect master? Why did you do that?"

Abbess Mother was disappointed in Megan!

"Sect Master?" A sneer crept across the corner of Megan's mouth as she had one hand over her mouth and the other pointing at Aurora before shouting, "Is she worthy of that title?"

Megan's gaze locked onto Aurora without being able to conceal her contempt. "Aurora, it doesn't matter if you don't admit it. Are you willing to do a paternity test with Eira in front of everyone?"

Megan's eyes swirled with the pleasures of revenge.

Megan felt horrible upon realizing her feelings for Darryl in the last few years — she had long fallen for him.

Aurora ended up cut into the line and gave birth to Darryl's child just when she was struggling to mend her relationship with Darryl.

More importantly, Megan should be the one taking over the position in the future as the Emei Sect Senior Sister.

However, Aurora had decided to pass on her position to her illegitimate daughter.

Hate!

Megan was consumed with feelings of hate!

Whoa!

The audience was silent!

It was so quiet even the sound of a needle dropping on the floor could be heard!

Those guests who were initially skeptical of Megan's words were immediately convinced after seeing Megan's confident face!

Megan would not have dared asked Aurora to perform the paternity test without a certain level of confidence after all.

Hum!

Megan's aggressiveness caught Aurora off guard who was rooted on the spot while trembling and remained speechless.

"Megan! How dare you do this!"

Abbess Mother Serendipity furrowed her eyebrows in anger while glaring at Megan before saying, "Sect Master has always been good to you. Is that how you repay her?"

At that moment, Abbess Mother Serendipity began to ponder if Megan's words might contain some truth.

Otherwise, her Senior Sister would not have remained silent.

However...

That day was Emei Sect's Millennium Event. How would Emei Sect maintain their respectable image after Megan aired their dirty laundry to the public? How would other people perceive Emei Sect from that day onward?

Megan ignored Abbess Mother Serendipity as she looked toward Aurora with a strange smile before pretentiously saying, "Sect Master, I'm sorry, and do trust me when I say I don't want to do this either. Your careful teachings shaped me into who I am today when I joined the Emei Sect at sixteen after all. I've always been very much grateful and respected you, but I can't accept the fact that you had an affair with Darryl as the Emei Sect Leader and gave birth to his child—bringing down the Emei Sect's reputation along with yours."

Megan contemptuously glanced at Eira. "And now, you want to pass the Emei Sect Master's position to your illegitimate girl. Do you think your action is worthy of the Emei Sect's reputation?"

Aurora's face flushed and said nothing.

"Stop it..."

Abbess Mother Serendipity was so unstopably angered that she unsheathed her sword while screaming and was about to stab Megan.

Abbess Mother Serendipity was certain that her Senior Sister must have her difficulties even if Megan was telling the truth. Otherwise, why would Aurora choose to hide it from everyone for the last seven years!

However, she was angered by the fact that Megan brought up the incident before so many visitors and ruined Emei Sect's reputation.

Abbess Mother Serendipity was disappointed to have a disciple like Megan who stirred up a disaster and thought of immediately killing Megan!

However...

Aurora stopped Abbess Mother Serendipity before she could take action. She bit her lips so hard that they almost bleed before saying, "Sister Serendipity, stop."

Aurora bit her lips tightly and whispered, "Megan is right! Eira is indeed a child of Darryl and mine."

Whoa!

It was breaking news that could stir up a storm!

Chapter 1242

The entire Emei Sect was in a tumult with every elite martial arts present in an uproar!

"She admits it! Sect Master Aurora admitted that Eira is her daughter with Darryl..."

"Alas, this is so unexpected! Sect Master Aurora looks lofty and chaste but she had an affair with Darryl behind her husband's back! How could she do that to Mister Red Leaf? How could she have a daughter with Darryl? Sigh..."

"This is unacceptable from the Emei Sect Master!"

Everyone was passing comments which kept coming in like the ocean tides. Aurora glanced around and said, "I was pregnant with Eira before marrying Mister Red Leaf. I've never met Darryl again after marrying Mister Red Leaf."

"Haha..."

Megan interrupted with a cold smile before Aurora finished speaking and nodded with an exaggerated expression. "Oh...you were pregnant before marrying Mister Red Leaf. Oh...now I understand what you mean. Do you mean to say that you made Mister Red Leaf responsible for the mistake you committed with Darryl? Such a shameful act!"

Megan's face was full of contempt when she said that before looking at the Emei disciples next to her. "Everyone, is this shameless woman qualified to be our Sect Master?"

Silence!

The entire Mount Emei fell silent and none of the Emei disciples responded. They were no longer meeting Aurora's gaze with awe and admiration and wore a complex expression on their faces instead!

The Emei Sect had always been reputable among the martial arts community which made the Emei disciples proud! They were not sure how to feel after learning their sect master was pregnant with someone's child before marrying Mister Red Leaf. Such deviant behavior!

At the same time, members from the other sects present were also in a heated discussion!

"Tsk tsk... I never expected that Aurora would do such a thing. Hasn't she always been cold and desolate?"

"Ice Goddess? Haha..."

"I've always regarded her as a goddess. F*ck, it's disgusting to think she hooked up with Darryl before the wedding..."

Many people started speaking ill of Aurora.

Aurora used to enjoy a high status in the hearts of the people from the community, but her beautiful image collapsed in that instance.

Debra and Yvonne who were seated among the guests flushed as they felt awkward to be in such a situation.

They thought it was just a farce.

Unexpectedly, Megan's words turned out to be true.

"Everyone!"

Aurora looked around at this moment and bitterly smiled. "I've embarrassed the ancestors of Emei Sect and am indeed not qualified to be the Emei Sect Master."

Aurora took a deep breath to put up her best front as she made the announcement. "I hereby announce that I'll relinquish the Emei Sect Master position and would now have nothing to do with the Emei Sect!"

Aurora squatted down and gently caressed Eira's face after saying that with tears shining in her eyes. "Eira, I'm sorry for keeping this a secret from you these seven years to protect my reputation. I haven't been doing a good job as a mother for the past seven years."

"Mother..."

Eira felt Aurora's warmth as she recovered from her shock and called out to Aurora before plunging into Aurora's arms.

Aurora gently comforted Eira before taking Eira's hand and turned to leave.

Aurora was a very decisive woman.

She felt it was time for her to let go of everything at that time.

Everyone was stunned and at a loss for words as they watched the silhouettes of Aurora and Eira leaving.

Chapter 1243

"Senior Sister!"

Abbess Mother Serendipity stomped her feet, chased after Aurora, and was heard shouting, "Senior Sister, the Emei Sect can't do without you!"

Abbess Mother Serendipity had a complicated expression and felt extremely uncomfortable at heart as she said that. She adored Aurora and was torn to see Aurora end up in such a miserable state.

More importantly, Emei Sect had flourished over the years under Aurora's leadership. Although Emei Sect members consist of only women, no one in the community dared to trifle with them.

That was Aurora's achievement!

The Emei Sect had lost its backbone after Aurora's departure with their future seeming bleak!

Aurora turned around and smiled at Serendipity after hearing Serendipity calling out to her. "Junior Sister, don't be sad and don't worry. The Emei Sect is still one of the five orthodox sects even without me."

Aurora stopped speaking once she said that before holding Eira's hand and gracefully leaped up—disappearing from everyone's sight in the blink of an eye.

"Senior Sister..."

Abbess Mother Serendipity trembled and staring blankly in the direction where Aurora disappeared with her tears silently streaming down.

Silence!

The entire plaza was silent.

Everyone present had not expected the course of events in the Emei Sect to turn out like this during the Millenium Event.

However... No one sympathized with Aurora.

They thought of her as a laughing matter after what she had done.

"Megan!"

Abbess Mother Serendipity trembled as she pointed at Megan. "You... You rebellious scum, why did you do this?"

Abbess Mother Serendipity was deeply disappointed rather than angry.

One should not air dirty laundry in public. Megan's actions had destroyed the Sect Master's and Emei Sect's reputation!

Megan did not panic at all when she clearly felt Abbess Mother Serendipity's fury and sneered, "Master, am I wrong to act as such? Aurora secretly did this for seven years—having a child with Darryl and hiding that from us. She has embarrassed the Emei Sect, yet has the cheek to pass the Sect Master position onto her illegitimate daughter!"

"You..."

Abbess Mother Serendipity almost exploded with her flushed face, but could not find words to refute Megan.

Abbess Mother Serendipity took a deep breath and looked at Megan with disappointment a few seconds later. "You shouldn't force her to leave even if you're right. Do you know what Aurora has done for us? There would be no Emei Sect today without her. What should we do now that she's gone? Have you thought about it?"

Abbess Mother Serendipity became more agitated and continued. "Senior Sister is the Emei Sect's pillar. What will we do without her? What should we do in case Emei Sect faces a disaster!?"

The Emei disciples started to ponder upon hearing that.

Yes!

The Emei Sect lost its backbone along with Aurora's departure. Would they be able to stand against a strong enemy without Aurora?

Megan said indifferently with a chuckle, "Master, you're too pessimistic. The world is currently peaceful and prosperous, what disaster will the Emei Sect face? Could it be...that the Emei Sect will fail without Aurora? That's ridiculous! Emei Sect has stood proud for thousands of years! We'll only get better and better without Aurora!"

Chapter 1244

"Traitor! Traitor!" Abbess Mother Serendipity looked at Megan while her body trembled in anger! She was thoroughly disappointed in Megan!

Abbess Mother Serendipity pointed at Megan and sarcastically said, "Meg, you are really my good disciple! Senior Sister and I have been teaching you for years and hold great hopes in you. I never expected you to betray us! Today is an important day for the Emei Sect with these elites here to celebrate the event with us, yet you chose to make the Sect Master leave! Why don't you lead the Emei Sect in this case? I'll have nothing to do with Emei Sect from today onward!"

Abbess Mother Serendipity did not hesitate to leave after saying that. She leaped up into the sky and flew into the distance under everyone's gaze!

Oh...

Everyone present exchanged looks of confusion.

The Emei Sect was celebrating their Millennium Event. It was initially a lively and festive martial arts event but turned chaotic at the end with both Aurora and Abbess Mother Serendipity leaving Emei Sect. The other Sect Masters present were momentarily placed in an awkward situation. They wanted to say something but were unsure if it was appropriate to do so.

Outsiders should not interfere with the Emei Sect's internal affairs after all.

The huge plaza fell silent with an awkward and dull atmosphere!

Whoa!

Zoran was the first to stand up and announce to those Emei Sect disciples. "I recalled there's something I need to do back at home. I'll make a move first!"

Zoran felt complicated when he said that.

Aurora was a woman of the world. However, she was forced by Megan to withdraw from Emei Sect.

More importantly, the root of the issue was related to Darryl who was Zoran's adoptive son which only made Zoran more embarrassed to stick around.

Debra, Yvonne, and Monica had also stood up at the same time.

Just like Zoran, they felt extremely embarrassed being Darryl's women and had mixed feelings after witnessing Darryl's scandal.

They wished to leave the awkward scene as soon as possible!

Zoran, Debra, and the others soon left.

Those who left next were Elysium Gate disciples, Flower Mountain disciples, and Eternal Life Palace Sect disciples. Every sect that was related to Darryl soon left.

Darryl was the center of the sensational news after all. The Flower Mountain and Eternal Life Palace Sect who were Darryl's Elysium Gate allies thought it would be meaningless for them to stay on.

Megan could not care less even those three sects had left!

She was rather pleased on the contrary!

Both Aurora and Abbess Mother Serendipity had left Emei Sect.

She was the most qualified among those of the younger generation and also probably the one in charge from then on.

Megan was complacent just thinking about it as she went to the Emei Sect's secret chamber and took out the Emei seal before holding it up high.

"Fellow Emei Sect disciples, we don't have a leader now so I shall be the interim Sect Master from today onward. Does anyone disagree?" Megan held the seal as her voice resonated throughout the entire area.

The few hundred thousand Emei Sect disciples were silent with no one speaking. One of the disciples slowly stood up after what seemed like a long time and said, "Senior Sister Megan, we have no objection to you being the Sect Master!"

The Emei disciple who spoke was Jocelyn Ludwig. Someone close to Megan.

Usually, the others would follow suit after someone stood up and spoke in such circumstances. All the other Emei Sect disciples soon knelt on one knee. "We pledge reverence to Sect Master Megan!"

Megan was their Senior Sister which every Emei Sect disciple had a good relationship with, hence all of them agreed to her being the Sect Master after Aurora and Abbess Mother Serendipity left the Emei Sect.

Megan held the Emei seal and gently raised her hand. "Disciples, please rise."

Chapter 1245

The other sects present looked at each other after a long time before they applauded.

Emei Sect was a prominent sect and every other sect wanted to befriend Megan who was the next Sect Master, so they applauded and congratulated her.

A satisfied smile appeared on Megan's face.

In the woods dozens of miles away from Mount Emei at that moment.

Aurora was slowly walking hand in hand with Eira!

Aurora was rather angry at first when Megan revealed her secret. However, she had come to terms with it after calming herself.

She felt she was a failure as a mother as she had not been very motherly to her daughter over the years for the sake of her fame and reputation.

She could finally watch her daughter grow after stepping down from the Sect Master position.

Aurora looked tenderly at Eira who was next to her with that thought in mind.

"Mas..."

Eira wanted to say something upon feeling the warmth from Aurora and habitually called Aurora 'Master' which she quickly corrected herself. "Mother... Where are we going?"

Eira blinked her eyes and curiously asked, "Are we going to find Father?"

Although Eira was only seven years old, she knew a lot about the occurrences within the community.

Especially the development of the Elysium Gate Sect.

In recent years, the Elysium Gate Sect had developed rapidly and became the World Universe Continent's top sect and Darryl being the Elysium Gate Master was equally well known.

Eira was astonished and delighted upon learning Darryl was her biological father.

Should she not be happy to have someone so famous as her father?

Huh!

Aurora's face suddenly turned cold. "Eira, you don't have a father nor are you allowed to mention Darryl's name in the future, alright?"

Aurora's eyes flashed with resentment as she resolutely spoke.

She would not have ended up so miserably if it were not Darryl!

Although she had come to terms with her situation, she remained unforgiving toward Darryl.

Eira blinked her big eyes and puzzly asked, "Why, Mother? Didn't you just admit it? You said that you're my mother while Darryl's my father."

Aurora interrupted Eira before she could finish what she was saying. "I've said not to mention him again, don't you understand?"

"Oh..." Eira hurriedly shut her mouth and lowered her head as grievances filled her.

'Why?

'Why doesn't Mother allow me to meet Father? Why is she reluctant to call his name?'

Aurora realized she was being too emotional when she noticed Eira suddenly became quiet. She then softly said, "Eira, Mother is previously wrong to have not recognized you as my daughter. Don't you worry, I'll take good care of you from today onward... You'll have to listen well and practice hard as we travel the world together, alright?"

Chapter 1246

"Sure, Mother! Eira will definitely listen to you." Eira nodded with a smile on his face.

Aurora took Eira's hand and the mother-daughter duo moved forward.

...

Meanwhile at the Emei Sect.

The jovial atmosphere suddenly became a little gloomy after Aurora, Abbess Mother Serendipity, the Elysium Gate Sect, and several other sects had left.

The Millennium Event hastily ended.

Megan and her several other junior sisters were at the gates—sending the guests off.

"Amitabha!"

Sect Master Endless said to Megan, "Sect Master Megan, Shaolin Sect shall make our move now. You've just taken over the Sect Master position today and I should give you a congratulatory gift for your new journey but I don't have anything on me at hand today. I'll bring you a gift on the day of the Elixir Competition three days later."

Three days later, there was a grand Elixir Competition in Mid City which was organized by the Elixir Association. All Elixir Masters in the World Universe Continent were participating at a competition scale much larger than the previous Elixir Competition held in Donghai City.

"Okay, Sect Master Endless. We shall meet again at the Elixir Competition in three days," said Megan softly.

Sect Master Leonard also came up to say goodbye. "Sect Master Megan, Wudang Sect will also be doing the same. We'll bring a generous gift for you three days later at the Elixir Competition. We'll see you in Mid City three days later."

The other sects also came forward to bid Megan farewell. Megan was the interim Emei Sect Master, hence each of them wanted to please and flatter her.

Megan also excitedly sent off everyone with a smile.

The Elixir Competition was held in Mid City three days later.

The Carter family was residing in Mid City. Darryl who lived in the Carter family for many years would also most probably appear at the Elixir Competition...

'Does Darryl still hate me after so many years?'

Megan's heart was racing after she thought of that!

"Huh? Whose child is this?"

A surprised voice came to her while Megan was thinking about that secretly in her heart.

Everyone's eyes looked toward Mount Emei's entrance immediately after.

A little boy only about ten years old was slowly approaching while wearing a black chinese jacket which gave away a mature and calm demeanor.

He was none other than Ambrose!

Ambrose had been traveling and experiencing life. He had recently arrived at the World Universe Continent!

He heard about the Elixir Competition upon arriving at the World Universe Continent and became interested.

His master, Matteo was severely injured by Darryl. Fortunately, he was able to recover with the help of worldly treasures. Ambrose was grateful to Matteo for his education and had always pondered on completely healing his master.

Ambrose learned that there was a rare pill called the 'Seven Exquisite Elixir' that could completely heal Matteo's injury, so he went searching high and low for the elixir but to no avail.

Therefore, Ambrose wondered if he could meet someone that could refine the Seven Exquisite Elixir at this conference after learning that the World Universe Continent was about to hold an Elixir Competition.

The Elixir Competition was the string that attracted every Elixir Master in the World Universe Continent together after all. He thought he could snatch the elixir from the Elixir Master who was capable of formulating the Seven Exquisite Elixir.

However, the Elixir Competition was three days later and his thoughts chanced upon Eira out of boredom.

The two shared a closed relationship after they went through a few rounds of trials. Ambrose promised Eira that he would travel to Emei Sect and find her when he arrived at the World Universe Continent.

Ambrose had come to the Emei Sect and planned to play with Eira for three days before attending the Elixir Competition.

Everyone around did not take Ambrose seriously—thinking that he was just a child from the villages nearby who trespassed by mistake!

Chapter 1247

Many villagers had come to watch the Emei Sect's Millennium Event after all.

"Hey kid, you aren't allowed in here!"

An Emei Sect disciple approached Ambrose and said, "Hurry up and get out!"

Ambrose smiled and politely said to the disciple, "Sister, you've misunderstood me. I didn't trespass by mistake. I'm here to look for someone!"

'Looking for someone?'

Suddenly, everyone was taken aback.

It was strange for a little boy to come looking for someone at Emei Sect. The Emei Sect had never accepted male disciples. In addition, Emei Sect disciples were told to stay away from men!

Who was the kid looking for?

The Emei Sect disciple smiled and asked Ambrose, "Kid, who are you looking for?"

Ambrose ignored the gazes around him and slowly said, "I'm looking for Eira!"

Ambrose popped his head around to scan the crowd but secretly frowned when there was no sign of Eira.

'Why isn't Eira here?'

Everyone present was instantly uproared when they learned of Ambrose's intentions.

It turned out he was looking for Aurora's daughter!

Megan stepped up and looked at Ambrose with a faint smile, "Hey, boy. Why are you looking for Eira? What's your relationship with her?"

"Eira and I are friends!" Yue Wuya didn't even think before responding then he looked at Megan and asked, "Beautiful Sister, where is Eira?"

'Friend?'

Megan was stunned before she sneered and angrily said, "That illegitimate girl has been expelled from Emei Sect and left with her shameless mother! I'm afraid you are bad at choosing your friends! I'd advise you to stop looking for her!"

Megan cracked a mean face while she said so.

The surrounding people's faces became complicated.

Many Emei Sect disciples felt she was a bit too much, but what she said was also true...

Aurora and Darryl had secretly given birth to a child who she kept a secret for seven years. Everyone had seen and heard from Aurora herself.

"What did you say?"

Ambrose was shocked as the smile on his face instantly disappeared and he closely stared at Megan. "You shouldn't say that about Eira! She's not an illegitimate daughter!"

On the ancient battlefield, he met Eira who offered him help when he was in trouble.

She was a kind-hearted girl with a strong sense of justice. What a pity she was put in such an unpleasant situation.

Ambrose was furious!

Ambrose was even more upset at the sight of the sarcastic Megan.

Megan ignored Ambrose's uncomfortable expression and continued with a sneer, "You'll know if I'm telling the truth by just asking the people around you. Her shameless mother had admitted it herself just moments ago."

Pfft!

Ambrose sucked in a deep breath and stared at Megan before asking, "I don't want to hear about this. All I want to know is Eira's whereabouts."

Ambrose had lost his cool while trying to manage his anger!

He had no idea how Eira had offended the Emei Sect, but Ambrose knew in his heart that even if everyone was against Eira and rejected her...he would not do the same to her!

Chapter 1248

Megan was disgruntled that Ambrose was not leaving yet and impatiently said, "Whose child are you that you can't even understand human language? I've told you that the illegitimate child had left Emei Sect with her shameless mother. How do I know where they have gone! Don't come to Emei Sect if you want to find Eira as she's not here!"

Ambrose's face turned ugly as he clenched his fists and pointed at Megan. "I'll smash your b*tchy face if you dare curse Eira again! I'll also ensure your Emei Sect won't have peace!"

Ambrose was filled with strong emotion as he threatened.

Whoa!

The surrounding people were shocked to hear him.

They were surprised that a child was speaking in such an assertive tone that did not match his age. How dared him being so assaultive at the Emei Sect?

What made him so courageous?

At the same time, many Emei Sect disciples glowered at Ambrose.

How could they possibly let a ten-year-old child run wild in their own territory?

Megan flushed with anger and yelled at Ambrose, "How dare a wild child like you play up at our Emei Sect? I'll teach you about life today on behalf of your parents!"

Megan waved her hand. "Emei Sect disciples, take this child down!"

Huh!

A dozen disciples instantly came over and surrounded Ambrose!

Megan was the Emei Sect Master, hence her orders were well received by the disciples!

"Are you guys mobbing me?"

Ambrose smiled coldly without panicking when the female disciples surrounded him!

Whoosh!

In the next second, Ambrose leaped up into the air and concurrently pulled out the Tyrant Hammer!

"Hum!"

A dazzling burst of light filled the sky like a blinding sun when the Tyrant Hammer was pulled out!

Everyone in the entire Mount Emei was immediately stunned and could not hide the shock in their eyes!

'What's that hammer-like weapon in that kid's hand?'

They could sense a powerful energy wave coming from it!

'Is that a Grand Weapon?'

Megan trembled as her eyes locked onto the Tyrant Hammer in Ambrose's hand with eyes shone like the scorching heat. "Take him down! Hurry and take him down..."

Megan could feel the powerful aura coming from the Tyrant Hammer.

Megan had been worried about how she would command the crowd as their competent Sect Master with her strength being a far cry from Aurora's.

She was excited that a child had brought along a Grand Weapon!

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

The dozens of female disciples gracefully rose into the air before aiming straight at Ambrose!

Those female disciples formed an Emei sword formation while surrounding Ambrose in a short time. The energy burst twisted the atmosphere!

"You made me do this, beauties. Don't complain about me being rough with you ladies!"

Ambrose sneered and warned while tightly holding onto the Tyrant Hammer before flinging it down!

"Hum!"

A thunderous vibration diffused from the Tyrant Hammer. In the next moment, a dazzling light spread out toward the surrounding dozens of Emei disciples!

Bang! Bang! Bang!

In the blink of an eye, those disciples felt their bodies were held in place—unable to move or dodge the attack. They were then sent flying by the tyrannical force!

Ambrose had only utilized the Tyrant Hammer's first power level because his opponents were women and there was no enmity between them!

Those disciples would have definitely been unable to endure had he used its full strength!

Gasp!

Megan and the other disciples drew in a sharp breath of cold air!

Oh...
