

Chapter 205

"How how is this possible?" The three snipers were in disbelief and horror.

How could a person's body block bullets? Moreover, it was a sniper bullet with strong penetrating power.

Whilst they were still in a daze, Fade Chen had already managed to figure out where the other 3 snipers were based on the trajectory.

In an instant, he rushed toward them.

"Boom!"

With a loud noise, a sniper who was hiding behind the wall of the courtyard was buried in the debris from the wall that had fallen over.

"Crack! Crack!"

Two crisp sounds could be heard as the other two unlucky snipers who were hiding in the area around the wooden hut had two wooden blocks pierced through their bodies by Fade's strength. Instantaneously, they were dead.

In less than ten seconds, Fade had managed to kill off four elite snipers.

It was only then that the people in the wooden house snapped awake from their daze. They were dumbfounded and could only gawk at Fade.

"How is it possible? Even snipers can't do anything to him?"

"I wasn't hallucinating just now, was I? He just blocked the sniper bullet."

"Wh-what level is he at?"

Yoshua Hu and Jaeger Hu's faces quickly darkened and their bodies trembled slightly under the loud exclamations.

Fade turned around and looked at Yoshua, who hid behind a group of bodyguards. He sneered and said coldly, "Do you think you can escape?"

Hearing this, Yoshua trembled. He quickly hid behind his bodyguards, afraid to even make eye contact with Fade.

As for the bodyguards, they raised their guns at Fade and bellowed, "Stop and don't come closer! Otherwise, we'll open fire."

Fade snickered softly. He looked at them and asked, "I'm not afraid of sniper rifles. Do you really think your guns can hurt me?"

Upon hearing this, the bodyguards could only tremble in fear. They couldn't move from their spots and could only continue pointing their guns shakily at Fade.

"Don't move a step, or I'll..." The leader of the bodyguards shouted.

Fade's eyes narrowed and he snapped his fingers.

Instantly, an invisible force cut through the air and headed straight for the bodyguard. It planted itself clad in between his eyes, and the man fell to the ground without being able to finish his sentence.

"How dare you?" The man's companion were furious. With shaking fingers, he pulled the trigger and unleashed his bullet towards Fade.

However, he never expected Fade to be able to grab the bullet in mid air and toss it back. Instantly, a bloody hole appeared in the man's chest and he fell to the ground.

"Puff, puff..."

In less than half a minute, the six or seven bodyguards around Yoshua all fell to the ground motionless.

Dead silence hung in the air as everyone was shocked beyond words. No one expected to see this turn of events unfold right in front of their eyes.

Hands clasped behind his back, Fade strode towards the trembling Yoshua.

"Chen, Mr. Chen, I..." Yoshua's voice trembled, and his legs were shaking like leaves in the wind.

Fade raised his right hand and a stream of energy surged from his fingertip. He aimed at Yoshua and was about to release the energy.

When Yoshua saw this, he was so frightened and pleaded, "No, don't kill me."

Fade shook his head and said, "You shouldn't have attacked me."

With those words, he was about to shoot the beam of energy at Yoshua.

Jaeger who had only managed to come about gasped and quickly shouted, "Mr. Chen, please stop. Let go of my cousin."

Fade ignored him and was about to proceed with killing Yoshua.

Jaeger's eyes narrowed and he continued shouting desperately, "Fade Chen, if you kill my cousin, you're guaranteed to start a war with the Hu family. Do you really want that to happen? Think carefully! "

"As long as you stop now, we can pretend that nothing had ever happened here." Jaeger bargained.

Fade shook his head and sneered at Jaeger, "Nothing happened? Now that you've made your move and attacked me, do you really think that I'll accept your pathetic excuse?"

"Fade, how dare you..." Jaeger still wanted to threaten him.

"Nuisance!" Fade's eyes narrowed as he shot a stream of energy from his fingertips. It pierced through the air and hit Yoshua in between his eyebrows.

A stream of blood gushed out from the wound along with the remnants of Yoshua's life. Finally, he fell heavily on the ground with a thud and stopped moving.

"How dare you kill a Hu family member?" Jaeger cried out sternly.

Fade stepped forward, and released the rest of his inner energy. He said coldly, "I haven't killed enough people yet! You're next."

In an instant, a fierce killing intent surged toward Jaeger and he froze in his feet. The courage in his heart quickly disappeared, and his face was ghastly pale with terror. He said gingerly, "I am the heir of the Hu family. If you dare to kill me, the Hu family will never let you off easily."

"Is that so?" Fade retorted coldly, "If the Hu family really dares to come looking for trouble, I won't mind annihilating them."

"How dare..." Jaeger cried out.

"Why not!" Fade shouted as he directed the energy at his fingertips at Jaeger.

Jaeger turned pale with fright and collapsed in his seat with despair.

It was only now that he realized the painful reality of the skills of a martial artist and the impending doom of death.

In the face of death, the only thing that he could feel was remorse. Why did he try to provoke this Lunatic Chen?

After all, this person was someone who could escape unscathed from a sniper rifle, and someone who could easily massacre dozens with just a gesture.

At this moment, Jaeger finally understood what Fade meant by what he said just now. His martial art skills were nothing compared to Fade's. What he was looking at right now were the true skills of a professional.

At the same time, he also realized why the Guo family retreated with just a word from Fade, why Hubert Qian was willing to bow to him, and why Bay City's Wan Family was single-handedly destroyed by him.

It was all because this Lunatic Chen had the absolute power to rule and crush everything in his path. Funnily enough, Jaeger himself had made many speculations on what plans Fade had and which territories he wanted to conquer after coming to Hanover City.

Recalling this, he realized that his so-called analysis were just a complete joke. With Fade's power, he could easily demolish whatever stood in his way with no need for an elaborate plan in place.

Just when Jaeger had finally figured it all, it was already too late. Death was knocking on his doors.

Just as Jaeger closed his eyes in despair, a loud shout could be heard from a distance away. "Young man, it's time for you to stop."

A middle-aged man in his fifties walked in solemnly, a hunched elder following closely by his side.

Chapter 206

Jaeger Hu opened his eyes. As soon as he saw the man, a look of joy appeared on his desperate face. He quickly shouted, "Uncle! You're here! Save me! Lunatic Chen killed Yoshua and he's going to kill me next!"

The people who arrived to his aid were Shawn Hu, the master of the Hu family and his personal guard.

Shawn Hu, who was dressed in a long white robe, looked down at Fade Chen in contempt and spoke, "Lunatic Chen, that's enough. It's time to end this!"

"Really?" Fade turned to look at them with a mysterious sneer as he shook his head slowly and said, "I don't think so."

As soon as he finished speaking, energy sparked from Fade's fingertips and headed straight for Jaeger's forehead. The smile on Jaeger's face was still plastered dumbly due to a sliver of hope of survival when he felt a stream of blood from his nose. In just seconds, his breathing dimmed and he stopped breathing entirely.

Finally, he fell to the ground motionless.

Seeing this, Shawn flew into a rage. Waving his long sleeves, he shouted, "Crazy fool, how dare you kill a Hu family member?"

As he spoke, his robe fluttered around madly as he raised his right arm in fury, the air around them crackling wildly from the pressure and energy.

"Go to hell!" He threw a heavy punch at Fade and released whatever power he had as a peak-Yellow level martial artist. The energy grew like a looming wave and headed straight towards Fade.

Seeing this, Fade raised an eyebrow and casually blocked Shawn's punch with his right palm.

"Boom!"

A loud sound could be heard as the two opposing forces met.

Shawn who was still deep in rage instantly widened his eyes as his expression changed. He could feel a surge of energy rising from Fade's palm to his that was unbearable. The pressure from the blow broke his arm, and with a loud crack the bones in his arm were completely shattered.

"Ah!" He let out a scream of pain and leapt back, cradling his broken arm. His face contorted with a mixture of pain and shock.

Seeing this, the hunchbacked elder beside Shawn quickly supported him, before looking up at Fade and commenting coldly. "Young man, you're pretty strong."

After a pause, he continued steely, "But you shouldn't have attacked the Hu family. Now, I'll give you a chance. Retreat and your life will be spared."

"Spare my life?" Fade snickered. "I think that's what I should be saying."

The hunchbacked elder immediately shouted, "Arrogance makes one ignorant, foolish boy. Do you really think that with your skills, you're invincible? A true martial arts master has skills far beyond your imagination."

"True martial arts master?" Fade shook his head and taunted. "It's ridiculous to hear these words from you."

"You... die!" The hunchbacked elder was furious. With a grunt, he launched himself like an arrow straight towards Fade. His bony arms moved and reached towards Fade's neck as though he wanted to tear it apart.

His speed was clearly a few times faster than that of Shawn. Fade couldn't help but narrow his eyes as he commented, "A Black Level martial artist, I see."

"Not bad, kid." The hunchbacked elder guffawed and continued reaching towards Fade's neck, "But now, it's too late to beg for mercy."

"Who said I'm trying to!" Fade snorted coldly. With a wave of his right hand, a bright ball of energy lit up the sky as the air crackled noisily. As though wielding a knife, he threw it towards the hunchbacked elder.

Upon seeing Fade's move, the man's expression turned grave. In a split second, he had his arms crossed in front of his chest as a move to block the attack.

"Boom! Bang!"

The hunchbacked elder met with the ball of energy in the air and was surprisingly pushed back by some distance before managing to compose himself. He was completely taken aback as he said to Fade, "No wonder you're so arrogant, you're a Black Level martial artist as well."

He continued solemnly in a cold tone, "No matter though, even if you're a Black Level martial artist, you'll still have to die here."

"Is that so?" Fade's expression was calm as he approached the hunchbacked elder.

The elder's strength was indeed formidable. With skills at the mid- Black Level, he was definitely stronger than Shancus Wan. However, that was all. To Fade, there was not much difference.

The elder had no knowledge of Fade's background or skills and could only stare grudgingly at him. All of a sudden, he released a blast of energy that engulfed his whole body and the tired look in his eyes gradually cleared up. Slowly, he straightened up his body and stood tall and proud, a contrast to the frail, hunchbacked look that he had a moment ago.

The originally large robe on him was suddenly expanding in size as waves of energy were released from his body.

Initially, he looked like he was in his seventies or eighties. Now, he looked much younger as though he was in his twenties.

His whole person exuded an unnerving sense of power that engulfed the whole house. The average onlookers with no knowledge on martial arts gasped for breath from the sheer pressure. They were dumbfounded as they watched the whole facade right in front of their eyes.

Even Shawn Hu was shocked by his sudden change. He looked at the tall elder in disbelief and exclaimed, "Brother Zhan, you..."

He looked straight into Shawn's eyes and said, "Brother Hu, you saved my life back then, so I've been indebted to you ever since. These years, I've helped you with many things and stood by you. But today, I'm going to have my last stand, Brother Hu. It's my way of thanking you for your protection."

After hearing the elder's words, Shawn knew that the elder had intentions to leave. He wanted to persuade him, but he couldn't, since there was no way that a person with such skills could bear serving beside him.

His pleads to stay eventually turned to a mere question as he asked, "Brother Zhan, at this last moment, can you tell me your name?"

The elder paused as a thought flashed across his mind and his eyes looked far as though he was reminiscing something in the past. After a while, he mumbled, "My name is...Feather Gu."

"Feather Gu!" Shawn was shocked upon hearing this name. He looked at the elder in surprise and said, "Brother Zhan, you're..."

The elder nodded and announced, "Yes, I am ... Feather Gu ... of the Cloud Clan."

Shawn was taken aback upon hearing his name as he muttered, "Twenty years ago, the Cloud Clan had a major change in power as Feather Gu killed both his master and his peers and escaped. The Cloud Clan chased after him for several months, but returned empty-handed. Since then, he was nowhere to be found..."

Some rich kids who were clueless about martial arts couldn't help but ask, "What were these 'Feather Gu' and 'Cloud Clan' that Master Hu has mentioned?"
