

Chapter 681

Although the two of them had left the mountain, during their journey down, the more they thought about it, the more uneasy and unsatisfied they felt.

Therefore, that night, the two quietly crept back up the mountain and slipped into the old man's room with the intention of stealing the manuscript of the Secret Dual-Wielding Technique.

However, they searched for a while and not only did they not find the manuscript, they accidentally woke their master up.

When he realized that the two had come back to steal the manuscript, he flew into a rage, wanting to eradicate their martial arts skill and expel them from his training.

The two immediately knelt down and apologized, begging for mercy. They admitted their wrongdoings and begged their master to let them go just this once.

Since he had been guiding and nurturing the pair for more than ten years, the old man's heart went soft and he let them go. However, they were banished forever.

They agreed and proposed to bow and pay respects to their master before leaving.

But once their master let his guard down, the two launched a surprise attack, heavily injuring him and forcing him to hand over the secret manuscript of Dual-Wielding technique.

19:19

The old man never thought that his own two disciples would be so cunning and cruel as to betray him. He was heartbroken and deeply disappointed.

After getting forced into it, the old man finally told them why he would not teach them the dual-wielding technique.

It turned out that this technique required the user to have a calm conscience and mental state, as well as perfect balance and synchronized movements of both hands. The user would need meditation and training balance to even begin learning the technique. As long as any of the requirements were not fulfilled, no matter how much one tried to force it, they would still be unable to learn it.

Since the beginning, the old man had already seen through the temperament of the two disciples, and he knew that they would not be able to pick up the technique. Therefore, based on their strengths, he taught them each a weapon, hoping that they would continue training to the highest level and turning it into a powerful skill.

However, he never thought that they would get so greedy, even to the extent of blaming him for withholding his teachings and making them weak. In the end, they performed the most heinous act ever by killing their own master.

When they first heard his explanation, they were both dazed. In a panic and out of greed, they chose not to believe their master and forced him to give them the manuscript.

But they were afraid that the old man would spread the news and take revenge on them, so the two decided to be ruthless and murder him upon obtaining the manuscript. Next, they fled.

After fleeing, the two studied the manuscript bitterly. They wanted to learn the art of dual-wielding no matter what. Therefore, they trained for years, only to learn that it was exactly as their master had predicted. They were unable to even grasp the technique of dual-wielding, and it turned them even more distraught, affecting their original skills.

The two felt hopeless and they searched for other ways, combining two people into one, both of them acting as a single entity. One held the sword while the other held the blade, effectively becoming a dual-wield. After training like this, they realized that the results were still decent. But no matter what they did, it was nothing compared to the old man's dual-wielding technique.

But when the two cooperated and fought in sync, their strength was formidable. Especially when they first achieved the early stage of the Black Level, their combined sword and blade technique was nothing less than powerful. Many Yellow Level fighters were no match for them anymore.

As a result, the two gradually became famous. Their names were Blade Yang and Sherry Liu, known as Blade and Sherry by martial artists.

However, it was not long after the two rose to fame that certain people discovered the truth about the death of the old man. Blade and Sherry, who had just become famous, instantly lost their reputation and were regarded as scum by the martial arts world.

Many friends and acquaintances of the old man, as well as those who were righteous, had come out to hunt both of them, determined to avenge the old man.

Because of the circumstances, the two had been on the run ever since, evading death. Finally, five years ago, they managed to escape the radar and disappear.

Some said they were killed, others said they escaped. Some thought Blade and Shery lived far away in a secluded area, hiding from the world. Some even said they managed to escape abroad.

No one knew which of the various theories was true. However, as time went by, the two of them were no longer sighted, and everyone slowly forgot about them.

No one expected them to show up at Master Xu's residence.

Moreover, judging from the aura they gave off, it was obvious that their strength and skills had improved a lot, perhaps reaching Mid-stage Black Level.

When the first two started using their joint technique, they easily beat many middle-stage Black Levels. Now that they themselves were of middle-stage Black Level strength, higher Black Levels did not pose a threat to them anymore.

For a moment, everyone in the room was excited. They looked at Fade as if he was a dead man.

Because, no matter how strong this kid was, even if he was Black Level, he would only be at the Early-stage of the Black Level at most. In this case, he had no chance of winning against Blade and Sherry.

Gary was also full of confidence. He looked at Fade and said, "You, it's your honor to stand before these two, Blade and Sherry!"

After all, it was almost impossible that masters like Blade and Sherry would follow Gary as bodyguards. But because the Yao family saved them when they were fleeing, they decided to stay with the Yao family.

Gary was worried about his safety during this current trip to Bay City, so he used his cousin Hector's identity to persuade these two to protect him.

After all, even in the Yao family, there were not many masters of their level. They would not protect him a second time.

Because of this, Gary decided to hide them until they were really needed. He didn't want to waste them on a small fry in a small city like this.

In addition, the two of them had long surpassed the rules of the Stealth Team in terms of being Black Level fighters, so it would not be ideal to bring them out as he pleased. Besides, given the incident with their master, their reputation wasn't stellar either.

Gary didn't want them to make a move too soon.

Unexpectedly, he was forced into this situation by Fade, so he had to ask them to come forward.

Blade and Sherry glanced at Fade from the corner of their eyes. Then, with a look of disdain, they said to Gary, "You want us to fight this lousy type?"

Gary smiled, embarrassed as he said, "Sorry to trouble you!"

"Then make it quick. One move is all we need." The two nodded, and then they looked at each other.

Next, they looked at Fade and smiled. "Boy, it's your honor to die by our hands!"

As they spoke, the two of them grinned hideously, and their blade and the sword moved at the same time.

However, at this moment, Fade looked at the two of them with no fear at all.

On the contrary, Fade frowned and said to them with disgust, "Fighting with you is simply degrading. You notorious betrayer!"

Fade's words silenced the crowd. Everyone held their breath as they stared at Fade in shock.

Chapter 682

Gary and his men looked at Fade in disbelief. Then, they couldn't help but smile, and they were about to burst into laughter.

"That kid is courting death. No one can save him now."

"Blade and Sherry hate bringing up the issue of their Master's murder years ago, and yet, he is deliberately mentioning this. This guy is definitely seeking death."

"Haha, now, it's not about whether he will die or not. It's about how he will die. Blade and Sherry do not use ordinary means to torture people."

.....

Gary's subordinates were all smiling as if they had already seen the ending when Blade and Sherry tore Fade to pieces.

Hearing Fade's words, Blade and Sherry's expression turned frigid.

The two of them stared at Fade coldly, and there was a chill in their eyes. Their eyes were like sharp arrows about to shoot through Fade's body.

"Kid, at first, I decided against mutilating your body when you die. Now, I regret it."

"I really hate hearing about the incident when we killed our master."

19:19

Despite facing two infuriated and murderous people, Fade remained calm. He put his hands behind his back and said, "If you don't withdraw now, you will regret it later."

"What an arrogant thing!" Blade shouted. A chilling light shot out of his eyes. His right hand swung his large serrated sword. With the sound of the wind, he slashed hard at Fade's head.

The blade carried a powerful aura and it swung at an extreme speed. It was virtually unavoidable.

Even the others, who were several meters away from Blade, could feel the horrors of his blade. They felt like the outcome was already set in stone. Fade would be lying in a pool of blood with his body split in two.

However, what happened next caused them to be dumbfounded.

Fade narrowed his eyes, raised his right hand, pinched his thumb and middle finger together gently, and flicked Blade's attack away.

The action stunned everyone present, and then they burst into laughter.

"Is that guy stupid? He used his hand to block that huge big blade."

"Haha. How dare you pretend to be an expert when you're on the brink of death? Keep on pretending!"

"He didn't dodge either. He faced the attack head on. He's really stupid."

Even Gary, who was full of smiles at the moment, said "Blade, don't kill him with a single strike. Keep your breath and torture

Right after Gary finished shouting.

Bang! There was a loud sound of metal clanging.

Everyone was shocked when they saw clearly that Fade's finger had actually hit the blade.

After flicking the blade that was approaching at high speed, his movement sent vibrations through the blade and it started to shake and tremble, emitting the sound of metal clinking.

As the blade continued to shake, a crack appeared across the blade. Blade's weapon split cleanly into two and fell onto the ground with a clink.

All the people present were dumbfounded. They looked at what was happening in front of them with a look of disbelief. All of them were stunned and almost speechless.

"Sh*t, it's broken! Blade's weapon is broken!"

"He broke it with one finger! Did my eyes deceive me?"

"What the hell is going on? Is the boy really that powerful?"

.....

Gary, who had a smile on his face just moments ago, was stunned. He shook his head and murmured, "Th-this is impossible! I..."

Blade came to his senses first and he glared at Fade with anger and embarrassment on his face. He gnashed his teeth and said, "You! How dare you... Kid, I'm going to kill you."

19:19

As he spoke, Blade's feet landed heavily on the ground. His body was like a fierce tiger, aggressively leaping toward Fade. But at this moment, Fade didn't even raise his head. He flicked his right hand slightly again, and an unseen strength burst out, catching Blade mid air and sending him flying. He landed hard on the ground and spat a mouthful of blood out.

"This..." Everyone was shocked again.

Sherry, who was holding a thin sword and watching the show, changed her expression when she saw this. She pulled out the thin sword, brandished a complex sword sequence, and stabbed at Fade. "If you dare to hurt my husband, I'll kill you."

Unlike Blade's huge broadsword, Sherry's thin sword was not hard and fierce. Instead, it was agile.

At this moment, she attacked Fade rapidly. Countless slashes flew through the air and those watching could hardly see her attacks.

At a time like this, Sherry was a greater threat than Blade.

However, when faced with Fade, she still stood no chance.

Watching the dancing sword slash in front of him, Fade snorted softly. Then, leaned his body slightly and threw a punch.

His fist accurately hit Sherry's wrist.

Sherry couldn't bear the strike. With a crack, her bones were broken. The thin sword in her hand flew away and fell to the ground. Her whole body stumbled and she fell down.

Without waiting for her to reach the floor, Fade kicked Sherry away and sent her flying. She crashed next to Blade and also spat out a mouthful of blood.

19:19

Blade and Sherry were defeated within a single move from Fade.

The scene stunned all the people present and they had extremely shocked expressions on their faces.

After all, Blade and Sherry were martial artists of the middle stage of the Black Level. And if they worked together, their strength was no less than the late stage of the Black Level.

But now, Fade defeated them so easily, and it was unbelievable.

Especially Gary who was confident just a moment ago. At this moment, as he looked at Fade who was approaching, his face was full of horror. He trembled and said, "You, don't you walk over. I..."

Fade snorted and walked toward Blade and Sherry. He gathered his strength in his right hand and was ready to end their lives.

They were scum in the martial arts world, bullying and killing their own master, stealing manuscripts; they should have died a long time ago.

Seeing Fade's surging desire to kill, Blade and Sherry suddenly became nervous and they cried out in alarm.

"You want to kill us?"

"You should have died a long time ago!" Fade said coldly.

"No, we are from the Yao family. You can't kill us," the two shouted.

Fade did not pay any attention to the Yao family at all. He was about to end both of them with a stroke.

At this moment, there was a loud cry, "Stop, Mr. Chen!"

As the person spoke, Fade felt a force and he had to withdraw his hand to meet the attacker. He blocked the man's attack and then looked over.

Chapter 683

Following Fade's gaze, everyone turned to look at the source of the voice.

The leader was a man in his early thirties. He was tall with short hair and bright eyes. He gave off a fierce aura. It was obvious that he was not a simple man.

Behind the man, there were four uniformed men, all in their mid-twenties. Each had the same menacing aura.

Looking at the men's uniforms, everyone was shocked, then their faces lit up with joy. "The Stealth Team! They are from the Stealth Team."

Gary, who was extremely horrified, suddenly smiled when he saw the short-haired man. He ran over in a hurry and said, "Brother Ding, you are here!"

Richie Ding, the short-haired man, nodded at Gary and said, "Young Master Haymitch asked me to take care of you. Since you are in danger now, of course I have to come over."

Hearing this, Gary was even more relieved. He smiled and said, "Cousin, you are so thoughtful. After I return home, I must show my gratitude to both of you with a round of drinks."

Richie smiled then glanced at Fade and said, "Don't worry. Let's solve the problem at hand first."

Then, he strode toward Fade.

19:19

But at this moment, Fade glanced at him and then turned his eyes to Blade and Sherry. He raised his right hand again and was about to finish them off.

Seeing this, Richie's eyes turned cold as he fixed his eyes on Fade and yelled, "Now that I'm here, you still dare to attack?"

As he spoke, Richie was about to attack Fade from behind.

Even though Fade had heard the attack coming, he had no intention of even turning around. He continued to finish the two off.

Although Richie's attack was not slow, Fade had already started his attack, and he was closer to Blade and Sherry.

Consequently, there were two loud slaps. Fade's palm had landed on top of Blade and Sherry's head.

Then, there were two loud cracking sounds. Blade and Sherry's neck tilted, and the light in their eyes quickly faded. They fell onto the ground, breathless.

Fade ended both of their lives with just two slaps from his palm!

The scene caused all the people present to gasp, their faces were painted with incredulous shock.

After all, Blade and Sherry had been a notorious pair for a long time. They had escaped from many warriors hunting them down in the martial-arts world for many years. Now, the pair had died at the hands of a young man. It was an incredible feat.

Gary's face was ashen as well, and he couldn't tell what he was feeling.

Blade and Sherry were highly respected by the Yao family. Even his cousin Hector had to give them the respect they deserved. It was not easy for Gary to have borrowed them as bodyguards for this trip. But now, both of them were dead.

This was a great loss for the Yao family. Therefore, Gary was extremely worried. At the same time, he resented Fade even more.

At this moment, Richie was furious.

It was the kind of anger that ignored all logic; it was hatred beyond all reason.

Richie did not care that Blade and Sherry were killed, nor did he care what arrangements the Yao family would make later on. What he did care about was his pride and dignity. After all, he was second-in-command of the South Bay City Stealth Team and also a middle-tier Black Level fighter.

Although Richie had tried to stop the fight, Blade and Sherry were still killed by this young chap, a nobody!

All of a sudden, his rage grew and his eyes were burning with hatred. He stared at Fade and with a rumble, he burst toward Fade in a fury.

Just as Richie was about to strike Fade, another loud voice echoed in the room. Next, a figure approached him at high speed.

"How dare you?!"

Just before Richie could get a good look at the figure, he felt a heavy pair of arms about to attack him. Feeling an enormous presence approaching, he instinctively took a few steps back.

Richie stabilized his body and his face grew dark as he looked at the figure that was rushing toward him.

The person who was rushing toward him was a middle aged man in his forties. After repelling Richie, he did not look at him anymore. Instead, he turned around to check on Fade. He politely greeted Fade, "Mr. Chen, are you alright? I..."

Fade looked at the nervous man, waved his hand, and said, "I'm fine."

At this moment, Richie also recognized the middle aged man who attacked him. It was not just anybody but Tyler Qin, the head of the Bay City Stealth Team.

Suddenly, Richie's eyes cooled down and his voice was a little harsh. He asked, "Tyler, I want to hear your explanation. What is the meaning of all this?"

At this moment, Tyler's tone also sank. He glared at Richie and said, "Hmm. I should be the one asking this question, right? As the second-in-command of the South Bay City Stealth Team, how did you cross the border and come to Bay City?"

Richie's face changed slightly, and then he looked at Gary, Blade, and Sherry. He said, "They are from South Bay City. We came here for them. Is there anything wrong with that?"

"What's wrong?" Tyler snorted and said. "They came to Bay City and acted recklessly. Now, you are helping them. I'd like to ask if there is anything right with this?"

Richie was in the wrong and his expression was stiff.

At this moment, Gary thought of something and he quickly whispered in Richie's ear.

Richie nodded, then pointed to Fade and said, "Before I explain myself, I would like to ask how you, Tyler, have allowed something like this to happen?"

"It has been clearly stated that we, the Stealth Team, must not allow any Black Level fighters to participate in territorial disputes."

"In the end, not only were the Black Level fighters partaking in fights, but they even acted on regular citizens. And you as the leader of the Stealth Team have neglected your duties and even tried to cover it up privately."

"I'd like to know how you plan to explain this," Richie questioned in a harsh voice.

Hearing this, Tyler's face darkened immediately.

After all, he had told Fade before that a Black Level master was not allowed to participate in these things. Yet, Fade did get involved. Accurately speaking, he did violate the rules.

Seeing Tyler's expression change, Richie's tone became harsher. He shouted, "Can't explain? Then I will. Your people in Bay City have colluded with each other in order to protect your own territory. You deliberately allowed a Black Level fighter to assist in fights like this!"

"This is a serious violation of conduct. I will report this to the superiors and have them deal with it seriously," Richie said sternly.

Hearing this, Tyler's face darkened as he looked at Fade.

Chapter 684

Richie looked at Fade, pointed at Blade and Sherry, then said, "And you, on your own, killed two innocent people right in front of me. Even if you are a master of the Black Level, you will not be able to escape punishment for such a crime."

Upon hearing this, Fade's expression was cold. He glanced at Blade and Sherry and said coldly, "They deserved to die!"

Then, he looked at Gary again. He stepped forward and said "And you! You will surely die."

As he spoke, Fade raised his right hand and generated a gust of energy on his palm. He was about to make his move.

Seeing this, Gary was so frightened that he quickly hid away.

Richie was extremely angry as he shouted in a cold voice, "How dare you kill people in front of the members of the Stealth team!"

Fade completely ignored Richie as he continued to attack Gary.

Richie had to attack Fade to stop him. Meanwhile, he looked at Tyler and said sternly, "Tyler, as the head of the Stealth Team in Bay City, why don't you stop the martial artists who kill innocent ordinary citizens?"

Tyler knew Fade's identity and strength, so he didn't dare to stop him at this moment.

However, Fade did violate the rules when it came to attacking ordinary citizens. For a moment, he felt conflicted.

He didn't understand why Fade would get involved in this kind of thing.

19:20

Just as Tyler hesitated, Richie struck Fade with his palm. However, Tyler blocked the hit that was meant for Fade.

Right then, his eyes were filled with killing intent, and he didn't hold back anymore. He rushed at Fade with full strength and shouted, "Get out, you arrogant s*um!"

Boom! Their two palms met.

However Fade did not go flying like Richie had envisioned. On the contrary, huge power surged through Fade's arm, causing Richie's arm to tremble. With a snap, Fade broke Richie's arm.

After what happened, Richie was thoroughly shocked. He held his arm in agonizing pain and expressed rage and shock, staring angrily at Fade. He never expected Fade to be this strong, nor did he expect Fade to try anything on him.

Fade was prepared to strike Gary again.

At this moment, Richie could not stop him at all.

Right then, Richie's subordinate handed a phone to him. "Boss, Principal Liu's is on video call."

As Richie heard the words, he was immediately overjoyed. He quickly answered the phone and told Principal Liu about what had transpired.

Upon hearing this, Principal Liu, who was on the other side of the phone, immediately shouted, "Tyler, Fade, you are too bold. Why are you so arrogant?"

Hearing his voice, Tyler's face changed. He looked at the man in the video call and his expression was somewhat unnatural. "Liu, Principal Liu."

Principal Liu was one of the leaders of the South Bay City Stealth Team.

Although both of them were leaders of their own city's Stealth Team, South Bay City was considered a sub Capital City, and it far outranked a small city like Bay City.

Therefore, Principal Liu was considered a step higher than Tyler was.

According to the rules of the Stealth Team, Principal Liu could command Tyler.

And so he did. He shouted from his end of the line, "Tyler, respond now. If Gary dies, there will be an investigation into the entire Stealth Team in Bay City."

Hearing this, Tyler's face changed. He looked at Fade and shouted, "Mr. Chen."

Fade heard the voice and understood Tyler's predicament. He didn't want Tyler to be put in a dilemma. He turned around and his palm turned into a claw. He grabbed Gary and threw Gary at his own feet. Then, he looked at Principal Liu who was on the screen of the phone.

Principal Liu saw that Fade was still behaving arrogantly and he got really angry. He shouted, "As a Black Level warrior, you ignored the rules of the Stealth Team and participated in the fight among the territorial forces without authorization. You even attacked ordinary citizens. Do you understand the gravity of your behavior?"

"Tyler, didn't you tell him that he is not allowed to get involved in these things?" Principal Liu shouted at Tyler again.

Tyler's face darkened and he didn't know how to answer.

At this moment, Fade said, "It's none of Tyler's concern. It's my business."

"How dare you! You know that the rules prohibit it, and yet you insist on killing people in front of us!" Principal Liu shouted angrily.

Fade said coldly, "Because they deserved to be killed."

"Y-you..." Principal Liu was really angry. "You're too bold and arrogant! It seems like you really don't take the Stealth Team seriously. Who allowed you to intervene in the power struggles of the local forces?"

"Who said I have intervened because of their power struggles?" Fade said coldly.

Hearing his words, everyone's face changed, and their expressions were a little strange. After all, they assumed that Fade did what he did because he wanted to help Jimmy defeat Gary.

"Isn't that so?" Principal Liu was stunned, and then he said in a low voice.

Richie felt that something was wrong. He glanced at Gary and immediately said, "Director Liu, don't listen to his lies. Send someone to arrest this criminal immediately."

Fade lifted Gary up, and then said in a cold voice, "The reason I'm doing what I'm doing is because he sent people to harass my wife."

"I will not act kindly to those who dare to hurt my friends and relatives," Fade said.

Upon hearing this, everyone looked at Gary. "Is it true?"

Gary hemmed and hawed and did not dare to speak.

19:20

Fade shouted coldly, "Master Neo and you sent people to find a car. Do you want me to tell the whole story?" Gary was startled and he quickly shook his head. Then, he explained that he had sent people to kidnap Quin.

After he finished speaking, there was a sudden silence. Even Principal Liu was not able to speak.

After all, doing things like kidnapping another person's relatives would make anybody furious. Given that, it was reasonable if Fade did something to Gary. Moreover, there were special regulations for such things within the Stealth Team.

For a moment, Director Liu's attitude was also relaxed.

Next, Tyler spoke up for Fade.

Seeing that the situation was not good, Richie quickly said, "Principal Liu, Gary is the cousin of Hector, Master Yao. They have a close relationship. If Master Xu gets hurt, I'm afraid that the Yao family would not be happy. Moreover, he has already killed two people from the Yao family."

Hearing this, Principal Liu's face changed and he said, "Even so, as a Black Level master, you can't attack ordinary people at will. Because rules are rules and they can't be broken."

Hearing this, Fade's eyes flashed with anger, and he said in a cold voice, "According to you, even if a martial artist's friend is harmed, he is not allowed to act? I don't remember the Stealth Team having such a rule."

Chapter 685

Principal Liu's face darkened and he said sternly, "You're just an insignificant martial artist. What do you know about the rules of the Stealth Team?"

"Now, turn yourself in, and I may spare your life."

"Spare my life!" Fade sneered and then snapped. "I used to think that the Stealth Team was fair and just, so I didn't expect this power abuse for personal gain."

As he spoke, Fade kicked Gary and said, "He has harmed my family and friends! But because he's related to the powerful Yao family, you keep making excuses for him, so that you can bend the rules and restrain me. You're forcing me to endure such oppression!"

"Nonsense!" Principal Liu's face darkened and he shouted angrily.

However, before he could finish speaking, Fade's eyes turned cold and his expression became serious. He slapped Gary on the head and said coldly, "However, I will not tolerate this."

Bang! Gary's neck made a crisp sound, and then it broke. His head fell to the side and he fell to the ground, losing his breath.

Seeing this, everyone was stunned and they looked on in disbelief.

Richie looked at Fade dumbfounded, and then he looked at Gary, completely speechless. At first, Principal Liu, who was on the other end of the line, was shocked. Then, he was so angry that his whole body trembled. He glared at Fade and said angrily, "How dare you to kill people in front of me! Richie and Tyler, I order you to arrest him and keep him under strict supervision. I want to interrogate him myself."

When Richie heard this, he waved his hand to instruct his men to take action. At the same time, he looked at Tyler and said coldly, "Tyler, this is an order. What are you waiting for? Do it!"

Tyler's face froze and he looked at Fade.

Fade said blandly, "Don't panic. I'll handle it."

Seeing this, Richie sneered and said, "Well, you two colluded with each other. Principal Liu, did you see that? They..."

Just as Richie and Principal Liu were flushed with anger, Fade calmly produced a certificate and showed it to them. He said coldly, "Now, do you still dare to arrest me?"

"Why not? We..." Richie did not look closely before he started shouting.

However, Principal Liu, who was still on the video call, could clearly see the big red seal on Fade's certificate, along with the title 'Special Instructor' printed by the Stealth Organization.

Suddenly, Principal Liu shivered and shouted in a hurry, "Stop, Richie, stop!"

"Principal Liu, I..." Richie was a little confused.

Principal Liu was about to jump out of the mobile phone. He yelled at Richie, "Look properly. It's the special instructor's certificate of the Stealth Team. H-he is our superior!"

19:20

When Richie heard this, he looked at it carefully. After taking a look, he was suddenly dumbstruck.

As a member of the stealth team, he certainly knew how difficult it was to become a special instructor in their organization.

First of all, there was no need to even talk about the strength of his martial arts. As a special instructor, his strength must be at least the highest of the Black Level.

Moreover, this was the lowest requirement. There were other factors such as birth, family background, and contribution to the Stealth Team. Basically, the number of people who could meet these conditions were less than the fingers on your hands.

Any one of these high-ranking people in the Stealth Team was unimaginable. Even the first-in-command of the Capital City could not compare, let alone someone like Principal Liu. When next to a special instructor, even they had to greet him politely and regard him as a superior.

Therefore, when they saw that Fade was actually a special instructor of the Stealth Team, Richie and Principal Liu were completely stunned.

Thinking of what they had just done to Fade, they felt a cold breeze. Their faces were trembling and they couldn't say anything.

"Inst-Instructor Chen, nice to meet you! We are sorry about just now, I..." Principal Liu stammered.

Richie also squeezed out a smile that looked uglier than a crying face. He looked at Fade and bowed.

Fade waved his hand coldly and interrupted them, saying, "You don't have to apologize. The Stealth Team has its own rules. Your affairs will be dealt with according to the rules of the organization. Of course, someone else will handle it."

With this, Fade looked at Tyler and said, "You can report everything that has happened here."

Tyler nodded. He immediately took his phone out and began to report the situation. Seeing this, Director Liu and Richie's faces were livid and they almost burst into tears.

That day, not only did they use their powers for personal gain, but on top of that, they had offended a special instructor. They will probably be severely punished and their careers in the Stealth Team would come to an end.

Looking at their weeping faces, Fade turned around and he was about to leave.

However, after a few steps, he suddenly thought of something. He turned around and said, "By the way, don't intervene in the Yao family's affairs. If they want to take revenge, let them come to me."

After that, Fade turned and left, and Tyler immediately followed behind him.

As for Principal Liu and Richie, their faces were full of tears and they couldn't speak at all. Initially, they wanted to give the Yao family a heads up in exchange for some help or benefits. But when Fade warned them, they dared not act rashly.

As for the Yao family, they could only hope that they would not be blinded by anger and do something stupid to retaliate.

With Gary's death, the battle in Bay City, which lasted for many days, finally came to an end. Jimmy successfully took control of Bay City again.

Then, Jimmy immediately began to check the places and streets where people had been harassed. He stabilized the chaotic underground world of Bay City.

Jimmy and the others dealt with all that; all Fade did was enquire.

After resting for a few days, a guest arrived at Fade's house. It was none other than Elder Sun, along with Yuri Zhang.

19:20

It turned out that after a few days of persuasion, Yuri was quite moved. She was ready to join the Long City Music School and be Erasmus Sun's last disciple. Of course, Elder Sun was happy, so he wanted to seize the opportunity to set the arrangement in stone.

Therefore, he looked for Fade again, hoping that Fade would use a little more persuasion to win Yuri over.

Meanwhile, Elder Sun had asked Fade to help his student, the Prince of Love songs, Barrett, who was going to hold a concert. Scott's father, Troy Huang, also helped with the arrangements, and Barrett's concert was going to be held very soon.

As a result, Elder Sun also expressed his gratitude to Fade for this. He gave Fade a few tickets to the concert and invited Fade and Yuri to go to the concert site together.

Fade had never been interested in this kind of concert before, so he wanted to refuse. However, Elder Sun intended to introduce Yuri to his student Barrett so that Yuri could get into the inner circle of singers.

Yuri was introverted and not used to settings like this. She was a little timid, so she wanted Fade to accompany her. When he learned the truth, Fade immediately agreed.

Chapter 686

It was the evening. There was still an hour to the concert. The entire stadium was filled with people, both inside and outside the venue.

There were still lines of people waiting outside. Many fans were holding LED lights and all kinds of posters, waiting excitedly for their tickets to enter the stadium.

Over the last few years, Barrett Lin had been quite popular, although he couldn't compare to the top artists who had achieved fame for quite some time already, he had his own group of fans. And in a small city like Bay City, he was considered very popular.

The procession continued as Erasmus led Fade and Yuri into the stadium. As expected, they didn't have to line up. Barrett had instructed his agent to bring them in.

Inside the stadium, everything was in order. All kinds of equipment were in the final stages of preparation work. Scott's father, Troy, was quite experienced in this field. Within just a few days, he actually managed to organize this large-scale concert.

Seeing that everything was running smoothly, Elder Sun couldn't help but smile. He told Fade, "Barrett's concert is a success, all thanks to you. When we meet up later, I shall let him know so that he can properly thank you."

Looking at the smile on Elder Sun's face, Fade knew that he was also very proud of his disciple.

Under the guidance of the agent, they went backstage.

The room was bustling with people. All the staff were helping with make-up and rehearsal, making final preparations.

The agent walked over and said something to Barrett. Next, Barrett immediately walked out and greeted Elder Sun with a smile. "Teacher, you are here."

Erasmus nodded, patted Barrett on the shoulder, and said to Fade and Yuri, "This is Barrett. You should know him."

Fade and Yuri nodded. Barrett was sort of a second-tier singer. From time to time, he could be seen on the Internet and TV, so Fade and Yuri were quite familiar with who he was.

In contrast to the passionate persona of his videos, his real appearance was just mediocre, and his face was full of smiles, unlike the emotional prince of love songs of his music videos.

"Good to meet you, President Lin!" Yuri was a little excited as she greeted Barrett cautiously.

Fade also nodded slightly.

Barrett glanced at Fade and then rested his eyes on Yuri. With joy in his eyes, he said, "Teacher, is this Yuri, my junior?"

Erasmus nodded with a smile and said, "Yes, she is Yuri Zhang. Yuri's voice is very melodious and she will have a bright future. Today, I brought her here so that you two can meet in advance. I'm also hoping that she can familiarize herself with this atmosphere."

"I'm ready to learn from you, Brother Lin," Yuri said respectfully.

Barrett smiled and said, "Yuri, don't be nervous. Not many people manage to get praised by our teacher. Other than Susie, you are the only one."

Of course, Erasmus was the proudest of his disciple, Susie Song. She was one of the top-notch stars among the singers. Her stage presence was excellent, and she had the ability to improvise and speak well. She could be considered a fantastic all-rounded artist.

She was not yet thirty and already nicknamed "Queen of Music". Her status was a level higher than Barrett's!

In the face of such praise, Yuri was somewhat at a loss. She just nervously tugged at the corner of her dress.

Seeing this, Elder Sun smiled and then introduced Fade, saying, "This is Fade, a friend of Yuri. He is also your benefactor."

"My benefactor!" Barrett was a little surprised. It seemed like he didn't understand. He looked at Fade and then looked at Elder Sun.

Elder Sun smiled and said, "Fade is the reason your concert is a success."

Hearing this, Barrett remembered. His face was full of smiles. He stretched his hand out and said, "Mr. Chen, I'm sorry. Over the course of this concert, Mr. Huang has mentioned you many times. Thank you."

Fade smiled gently and reached out to shake hands with Barrett. He said that it was nothing. After a few polite words, Barrett withdrew his hand.

Elder Sun immediately said, "Barrett, you must have many friends from your circle here. There is still time. Take Yuri to meet everyone first."

Elder Sun's reason for visiting was to let Yuri familiarize herself with the circle and get to know them in advance. At this moment, he brought it up.

19:20

Hearing this, Barrett nodded and said, "Well, teacher, my friends are in the private room. Let's go there now." Then, they went to the private room on the first floor of the stadium.

These were the VIP seats, separated by a small private room that was used to entertain important guests.

At this moment, the atmosphere in front of the private room was lively. Many people were chatting among themselves with wine glasses in their hands.

With the arrival of Barrett and Erasmus, all the people there rushed over and greeted Elder Sun, one after another. After all, he was Barrett's teacher and also a big shot among the domestic music circle.

After the greeting, Barrett immediately introduced Yuri to everyone with a smile.

When everyone heard that Yuri was the last disciple of Elder Sun's, and when it was Barrett making the introductions, they did not neglect her. They greeted her with a smile.

After walking around, Elder Sun waved goodbye. After all, this circle was made up of young people. Therefore, he was a little out of place. Moreover, he had several old friends who wanted to see him, so he left for a moment.

Barrett personally helped Elder Sun down the stairs. After saying goodbye, he turned around and told the crowd, "Thank you for your support."

Then, he went to Yuri's side and handed her a glass of red wine. He said, "Yuri, these are all your seniors. Come on, let's toast and get to know each other."

With this, Barrett brought Fade to a man of about 28 years old who was with a small band. He made the introductions, "This is Haward Xu, a talented songwriter. He is also famous in the industry. You should toast him."

19:20

Yuri held the wine glass in her hand. Although she was not used to it, she still clinked her glass against Haward's and said, "Nice to meet you, Mr. Xu."

After that, Yuri drank a big mouthful of red wine and her pretty face suddenly became a little flushed.

Haward looked at Yuri's rosy and beautiful face. He smiled and reached out a hand to pat Yuri's shoulder. At the same time, he smiled and said, "You don't have to be so courteous. Besides, I'm not very much older than you are. You can call me Brother Haward."

Yuri didn't like other people touching her. When she saw Haward put his hand on her shoulder, she couldn't help but frown and step back, causing Haward's hand to land on empty space.

Haward, who had been smiling, could not help but look displeased at that moment. He snorted coldly and said, "Barrett, your junior sister is a little arrogant!"

Chapter 687

After hearing what Haward said, Barrett's expression sank. He shouted at Yuri with displeasure, "What's wrong with you? Haward is your senior. Patting you on the shoulder is his way of showing trust and motivation, so why are you avoiding him?"

"I-I..." Yuri looked wronged and she wanted to explain.

However, Barrett did not give her a chance to finish. He said, "There's no need to explain. Apologize to Haward!"

As he spoke, he waved his hand and took her drink, replacing it with a full glass of wine, saying, "Go ahead!"

Yuri held the wine in her hand and was disappointed, but she didn't know what to do since she had never really been in this position before. Furthermore, she had a low alcohol tolerance.

Seeing Yuri's hesitant look, Haward snorted softly and said, "You don't want to?"

When Barrett saw this, he frowned and said to Yuri, "Why are you still in a daze? Let's toast!"

Yuri's eyes reddened. She bit her lip and stepped over, ready to drink and apologize.

Fade, who was standing next to him, couldn't stand it anymore. He strode over and took the wine glass from her hand. He looked at Barrett and Haward and said, "Yuri can't drink very well. Let me drink this glass on her behalf."

With that, Fade picked up the glass and indicated to Haward that he was about to drink it all.

19:20

Seeing this, Haward's eyes turned cold. Then, he snorted disdainfully and said, "Who are you? I don't know you." The words caused Fade's face to darken, and so did Yuri's.

Barrett's eyes flickered when he saw this. He thought of how Fade had helped him once, and that Erasmus had brought him over. Barrett had to give him some face.

So, Barrett stood up and said to Haward, "Haward, this is Fade Chen. He knows my teacher."

After listening to this, Haward snorted softly, looked at Fade and said, "Since you know Elder Sun and Barrett, I'll give you face this time."

After that, Haward picked up the glass gently and took a sip. Then, he looked at Fade and said, "Let's drink."

Fade's eyes darted around and Yuri, who was next to him, also felt his disdain. She tugged at his clothes and whispered, "Brother Chen, I don't need..."

Fade smiled at Yuri, gently pinched her cheek, and said, "Don't worry. It's just a glass of wine. It won't be difficult for me at all."

After he finished speaking, he took the full glass of wine and drank it in one gulp. His face wasn't red nor did his heartbeat quicken. He had a great tolerance for alcohol.

Haward noticed how intimate Yuri was with Fade, compared to how she had completely given him the cold shoulder earlier. So, Haward started sulking and his expression got gloomier.

Noticing this, Barrett realized that Fade and Yuri must have had a disagreement with his own friends. They would not get along well.

Barrett did not continue with the introductions around the room. He said to Yuri, "Miss Zhang, we still have something to tend to. Why don't you go to the private room to rest up first?"

After that, Barrett instructed a staff member to take Fade and Yuri out, while he explained his observation to Haward.

Even though they kept their voices low, Fade's hearing was good enough that he could hear them very clearly.

"Barrett, the newcomer you brought is pretty. But in terms of how she treats others, her performance was sub-par!"

"Yes, what was that reaction to Haward when he tried to pat her shoulder? Given Haward's status in the inner circle, so many women would never get the chance to be touch by Howard."

"Haha. She's just a little girl. She'd been fooled by that kid next to her."

"Barrett, if it weren't for your sake today, I wouldn't have let this slide so easily." It was Haward's voice.

Barrett said, "I can't do anything about it. My teacher brought him here, so I've got to give him some face."

"Ah, your teacher is so old, and for the longest time, he had no apprentices. I have no idea what his thought process is – recruiting someone like her as an apprentice."

The surrounding people immediately echoed with sighs.

"I think Elder Sun is getting older, so he's a little confused."

"Maybe that little girl has some kind of relationship with Elder Sun. Maybe he wants to do one last good deed for a relative before he finally retires."

"Haha. Maybe it's not a relative relationship, but perhaps... After all, the little girl is quite lovely..."

19:20

Then, the room burst into laughter. All men would know what their laughter meant.

Barrett laughed a few times, and then he felt that it was not appropriate to talk about Elder Sun behind his back. Therefore, he said, "Well, that's it. The concert will begin soon, so I'm going down now."

"Young Master An will be here later. Please take good care of him for me," Barrett instructed.

Haward and the others smiled and said, "Barrett, you don't need to worry! No matter who this Young Master An is, we will take care of him."

"We have to establish a good relationship with Young Master An. From now on, our inner circle will become more powerful. Barrett, you are taking steps toward stardom, and you will be there soon enough."

"Haha! Then I'll leave it to you guys." Upon hearing this, Barrett laughed and then left.

After listening to this, Fade and Yuri also made their way to the private room next door.

As he sat on the sofa, Fade couldn't stop frowning. His impression of Barrett had worsened drastically within that short amount of time.

When Yuri noticed this, she thought that it was because Haward seemed displeased with her. She went over to Fade. "Brother Chen, it's all my fault. Because of me, they mocked you, and now I cannot be a singer anymore."

When Fade heard this, he laughed. He patted Yuri's head, "Silly girl, I'm fine. And I don't have the time to care about Haward either."

"You like singing and you have the talent. Not pursuing your dream would be a waste," Fade reassured her.

19:20

"But I don't like what just happened today, they..." Yuri was worried.

Fade smiled and replied, "Those people there imposed their own inner circle rules and did obscene things. You are different from them, and you should be yourself. Sing the songs you want to sing. Let me handle everything else."

Yuri was moved and her eyes were a little red.

Fade smiled and wiped away the tears from the corner of Yuri's eyes. He smiled and said, "Let's watch the concert. Yuri, you should learn as much as you can now and become a singer soon. I can't wait to attend your concert."

"Okay!" Yuri nodded with a determined expression.

Fade and Yuri were waiting in the private room for the concert to start.

At this moment, the adjoining private room was very lively.

Haward and the others had gathered around a young man in a white suit, complimenting the man with smiles on their faces.

Chapter 688

"Master An, you're finally here."

"Barrett told us to treat you well. Today, we must make sure that you have a good time."

"Master An, it's an honor to have you here at this concert!"

.....

The compliments from the crowd caused the man in the white suit to smile uncontrollably as he savored every bit of praise.

After eating and drinking, Young Master An sat on the large sofa and sighed. He said, "It's boring here. Is there anything fun to do?"

Hearing his request, many people rushed over.

"Young Master An, why don't we play cards? Let's gamble a little. It will be fun."

Young Master An waved his hand and said, "It's boring gambling with small amounts, but any bigger and none of you will be able to afford it"

"Well, let's sing. The facilities here are good."

Young Master An said, "Sing? Is that a joke? I'm here to listen to Barrett's singing. Forget about your singing."

19:21

"Well, then..." Nobody knew what to do. At this moment, someone's eyes lit up and he said softly, "Young Master An, why don't we invite a few young women to accompany you?"

At the talk of young women, Young Master An's bored face lit up. He smiled. "Let's see what you've got."

The man quickly said, "Young Master An, don't worry. It will be good. These are Barrett's backup singers and dancers. All of them are from music academies at the universities and not from other fields. I guarantee that you will enjoy them."

After that, they quickly gave instructions for a few young women to be sent in.

Soon, several girls were in their private room. Young Master An looked at them with an expectant look, but it soon faded away. He waved his hand and said, "This is what you consider good? How can you say they are university students? They are no different from the cheap girls at the clubs. All of them have been used and played with already!"

"Are you trying to fool me with these kinds of cheap girls?" he said unhappily.

The person who previously spoke was dumbfounded. He waved his hand and signalled for the girls to leave. Then, he smiled apologetically and said, "Master An, I'm sorry. We are not well prepared and we could not find anyone to please you."

Young Master An said, "Then tell Barrett to start as soon as possible. I'll leave after listening to a few songs. Otherwise, it'll get boring."

When they heard this, they looked a little anxious. After all, Barrett had told them to treat Young Master An well, and they didn't want him to leave like this. Moreover, they wanted to please Young Master An to benefit themselves.

Everyone racked their brains and tried to find a way to make Young Master An stay.

It was at this moment that Haward hatched an idea. He spoke up, "Young Master An, there is one girl here that might be suitable. Both her looks and personality are to your liking. And I promise you that she is not like the girls we brought in just now. I promise you that she is innocent, and she might very well be a virgin too."

Young Master An's eyes lit up. He became interested as he said, "Where do I find such a girl?"

Haward pointed to the next room and said, "In the other private room."

"The other private room? Is she also a guest?" Hearing this, Young Master An looked a little hesitant. Although he was lecherous, he didn't want to cause unnecessary trouble.

Once the others heard Haward speak, they immediately figured out who he was talking about. They began to chime in, one after another.

"Young Master An, although the girl is a guest, it would not be difficult to get her to come over."

"Besides, Young Master An, if you reveal your identity, maybe that girl will pounce on you on her own!"

.....

Then, Haward told Young Master An about the girl's situation.

When Young Master An heard this, he immediately smiled happily and said, "Barrett's junior is also in this circle? That is easy. Get her to come and accompany me. After this, my company will definitely sign her!"

When Haward heard this, he smiled happily and said, "Young Master An, don't worry. I'll go and fetch her right away."

Right after that, Haward went over to the other room where Fade and Yuri were. Obviously, the person he was talking about was

Yuri.

After knocking on the door, Fade and Yuri opened the door and saw that it was Haward. Their faces suddenly turned blank. "What are you doing here?"

Haward held back his anger at Fade. He smiled and told Yuri, "Miss Zhang, a few big shots from our circle have arrived. Please come with us to meet them."

Yuri frowned upon hearing this. Thinking of what had happened moments ago, she shook her head and said, "Thank you, but it's not necessary. I'm fine here."

Haward didn't expect Yuri to refuse. He paused for a moment and then said, "Miss Zhang, the people who arrived are all famous people in the circle. It will be of great benefit to your future development in the music circle if you come with me. It will be a real pity if you miss the opportunity."

"Besides, Barrett and Elder Sun mentioned that we should introduce you to the people in the circle. Now that you have the chance, are you going to forfeit it? Wouldn't that be a waste of the effort that Barrett and Elder Sun has put in for you?" He continued to persuade her.

After hearing what he said, Yuri was conflicted. Both of them had put in good words for her, especially Elder Sun who had done so much for her.

Seeing her hesitant look, Haward immediately took out his phone, dialled a number, and spoke to Barrett for a while. He passed the phone to Yuri and said, "Barrett is on the line. You should speak to him."

Yuri hesitated for a moment, then she answered the phone, "Hello, Brother Barrett."

19:21

At this moment, Barrett, who was on the other end of the line, was a little excited. He said, "Yuri, about what happened just now, it was Haward and the rest who were in the wrong. But this time, don't waste this opportunity! The people there are really important people in our circle. If we have a good relationship with them, our career and future will be smooth sailing."

"But, I-I'm not used to..." Yuri said.

Barrett persuaded, "Yuri. If you are going to enter the music circle, you have to learn to adapt to these things. Besides, you are just going to meet and get to know each other, nothing else."

"But, I..." Yuri was still hesitant.

Barrett quickly said, "Yuri, why don't I call our teacher and get him to talk to you? You don't know how much the teacher has done for you in private and how many people in the circle he got in touch with. Now that your chance is here but you are not willing, he might be devastated if he finds out."

Upon hearing this, Yuri suddenly couldn't refuse. After all, Elder Sun really had spent a lot of effort and energy on recruiting and training her.

Even without considering the multiple phone calls he made to convince Yuri, Elder Sun had also personally gone to the school to persuade her. Furthermore, this concert was proof of his efforts.

Chapter 689

Thinking of this, Yuri nodded and said, "Okay, I will go."

Barrett, who was on the other end of the call, rejoiced and said, "Hurry up and go with Haward. Don't make them wait too long."

"Okay!" Yuri immediately handed the phone back to Haward.

Haward took the phone and quickly said a few words to Barrett. Then, he hung up the phone and told Yuri, "Miss Zhang, let's go."

Yuri nodded and left with Haward.

At this moment, Fade followed behind.

Seeing this, Haward's eyes turned cold. He looked at Fade and said, "What are you doing?"

Fade looked over at Yuri and then at Haward. "I'm a friend of hers. I'll go with her."

Yuri also nodded and said, "Brother Chen and I are close."

Hearing this, Haward frowned and said, "Miss Zhang, these people are big shots and distinguished guests in the entertainment circle. They are a little arrogant and don't like outsiders getting involved in their affairs. So, this..."

"This..." Yuri hesitated again.

Haward went on to say, "Miss Zhang, you don't have to worry about anything. He is a VIP in the circle. As long as he is present, nothing untoward will happen."

"Or, Miss Zhang, do you doubt the moral standing of all the people in the private room?"

Haward's question was so serious that Yuri quickly waved her hand and said, "N-no. I'm just..."

"Miss Zhang, you don't have to hesitate. If you let the VIP wait too long, not only you, but even Barrett and Elder Sun will get embarrassed. After all, this VIP came here because of both of them."

"But now that he's here, you're refusing to see him even once. As a result, I'm afraid that he won't be happy," Haward persuaded.

These words undoubtedly hit a soft spot in Yuri's heart. She couldn't help but nod and agreed, "Okay, lets go."

Then, she looked at Fade and said, "Brother Chen, I'm okay alone. You can rest here."

Fade stared at Haward for a moment, then nodded and said, "Well, you go ahead. Call me if you need anything."

"Okay!" Yuri nodded and then left for the big private room with Haward.

Watching their backs as they left, Fade's ears perked as he listened carefully for a while. He frowned slightly, took out his phone, and called Elder Sun.

While Fade was on the phone, Haward entered the private room with Yuri.

As Yuri entered the private room, Young Master An, who was surrounded by a crowd, looked at her.

The lazy and bored Young Master An's eyes lit up the moment he saw Yuri. With a surprised look on his face, he stood up straight and said with a smile, "Not bad; not bad!"

At this moment, Yuri noticed Young Master An's gaze and she looked at the strange expressions of the people in the room. She felt that something was wrong and she turned around to leave. "I want to go back."

However, Haward closed the door of the private room, and then pushed Yuri toward Young Master An. He made the introductions, "Miss Zhang, this is Young Master An, Laird An. The An family is a business tycoon in the media and entertainment industry. They carry a lot of weight and power in this circle."

"Aren't you going to toast to Young Master An?" Haward said as he brought her a glass of red wine.

Yuri frowned and said, "I don't drink."

Haward wanted to say something, but Laird had already walked over and said with a smile, "If you don't drink it's okay. Miss Zhang, what do you like? Let's have fun together."

As he spoke, Laird took advantage of the opportunity to put his arm around Yuri's shoulders with the intention of touching her.

Yuri was shocked. She leaned away and dodged Laird's arm. Then, she said with a vigilant look, "Don't you dare try anything dumb."

This rarely happened to Young Master An, so he frowned and looked unhappy.

Haward quickly glared at her and said, "Yuri, this is Young Master An. If you please him, it will be advantageous to your career."

The others also hurriedly started to persuade her.

However, the more Yuri listened to them, the uglier the expression on her face became, and the more determined her refusal was. "No, I want to go back."

Her attitude caused Haward and others to get anxious and angry. Beside them, Young Master An was also a little impatient. He frowned and said, "I won't beat around the bush with you. Accompany me for some fun now, and I will use the An family resources to fund and promote your career. I promise that you will be right at the top within a year's time. What do you think?"

Yuri shook her head fiercely and said, "I don't want to. Get out of my way. I want to leave."

Haward and the others quickly stopped Yuri, trying to persuade and threaten her.

Young Master An was also a little annoyed. He had an emotionless look as he said, "Bring her over here now. In this day and age, I don't believe that pure women still exist. After I'm done playing with her, she will be obedient and tame! She will come begging me for more!"

As he spoke, Young Master An had already taken off his white suit jacket. It seemed like he preparing to force himself on Yuri.

Haward and the others went all out. They forcefully dragged Yuri over to Laird.

Yuri was anxious and angry. She struggled, but she was no match for these men. She wanted to call for help, but someone covered her mouth before she could do anything.

At this moment, Young Master An had stripped his upper body naked. With an evil smile on his face, he was about to get on top of her.

At this moment, with a loud bang, the locked door of the private room flew over and smashed into the wall, shocking everyone in the room.

Everyone looked over and saw a figure standing at the door of the private room. It was Fade.

"What are you doing here?"

19:21

"Get lost!"

"Kid, don't spoil our fun."

.....

There was shouting and when Yuri finally saw Fade, she was crying and screaming, "Brother Chen, I..."

Fade stared them down and yelled, "Let her go now!"

Upon hearing this, Young Master An's expression turned cold. He waved his hand and said, "What are you talking about? Take him away and don't spoil my fun."

As he said that, Haward and a few others rushed over, trying to throw Fade out.

Fade looked at them and shouted, "Get lost!"

When Haward heard this, he was stunned and he shouted, "B*stard, that's Young Master An. Leave now before it is too late."

Bang!

With a punch, Haward, who was rushing forward, hit his head. Immediately, he felt dizzy and fell to the ground with a bang.

As for the others, they were no different from Haward. Fade's strikes smashed them to the ground and they couldn't stop crying in pain.

Fade strode toward Young Master An.

When Young Master An saw that Fade had knocked everyone down, he couldn't help but panic. He repeatedly waved his hand and said as he stepped back, "Y-you! Don't come near me."

Chapter 690

Fade swung his leg and knocked Young Master An in the stomach.

Young Master An flew backward from the huge force. He fell hard against the wall and slipped down.

Then, Fade walked to Yuri's side and hugged the shivering girl. He was very concerned and said softly, "Are you okay?"

Yuri nodded gently and told Fade, "Brother Chen, I'm fine."

Hearing this, Fade patted her gently on the back, then turned his head and looked coldly at Young Master An, Haward, and others who were getting off the ground.

When they saw Fade looking over, their bodies trembled and their faces with full of fear.

"Wh-what are you going to do?"

"Don't act recklessly!"

.....

Fade snorted, looked at the few people, and said, "Am I acting recklessly, or are you acting recklessly?"

"As for what happened just now, explain yourself!" Fade said.

The people looked embarrassed as they moved their mouths, but they couldn't make a sound, nor could they explain.

19:21

However, at that moment, Young Master An endured the pain, glared at Fade, gnashed his teeth, and said, "You dare to hit me? Listen carefully, I will never let you go."

Fade frowned when he heard this. Fade stepped forward and slapped Young Master An across the face, turning his cheek red and swollen. Fade said coldly, "If you want revenge then come at me."

As he spoke, Fade was about to punch and kick Master An again.

Seeing this, Haward quickly stood up. At this moment, he tried to play peacemaker and said, "Mr. Chen, you've gone too far!"

Hearing that, Fade turned to look at Haward and said, "Have I gone too far?"

Haward nodded gently as if Fade really had gone overboard. He said, "Young Master An is our distinguished guest. You are being disrespectful to us because you hit him!"

"Respect?" Fade snorted. "How dare you talk about that in front of me now?"

"You deceived Yuri and helped Young Master An bully her. But now you accuse me of going too far?" Fade said.

Haward's expression changed slightly, and then he explained, "Bully Yuri? Mr. Chen, there has been a misunderstanding. Yuri is Barrett's junior and Young Master An is our distinguished guest, so we just wanted them to get to know each other a little better. We didn't cross any line doing that."

Hearing him spew nonsense, Fade was not bothered enough to continue listening. With a punch, he nailed Haward on the face and made him bleed. "This is also my way of getting to know you better. It's not crossing any lines either!"

"You! I tried to persuade you in good faith, but you attacked me instead. Let me tell you, you cannot attack us! I..." Haward covered his face and looked at Fade with resentment.

Fade punched again. "I cannot attack you? It seems, I need to do it again."

As Fade spoke, he landed on Haward a series of punches and kicks. Haward's nose was bruised and his face was swollen. Blood gushed out. He lay down quietly with only enough strength to moan.

The scene stunned all the people in the private room. They were all dumbfounded, and then they stepped back in horror, unwilling to become Fade's next target.

Fortunately, Fade turned his attention to Laird and they sighed with relief.

As Laird saw Fade walk toward him, he was horrified and pale and started inching backward, away from Fade.

However, Fade continued to close the gap. Seeing that he had pushed Laird into a corner, he was about to take action.

At this moment, the sound of hurried footsteps entered the private room, and then a voice said, "Mr. Chen, stop!"

When Fade heard the voice, he turned around and saw Barrett who was dressed in his stage costume, standing right there in the private room.

With a serious look, he frowned and stared at Fade, and there seemed to be deep dissatisfaction in his eyes.

Seeing Barrett's expression, Fade was displeased.

He then turned his head and punched Laird. Laird hit the ground hard and blood gushed out as he let out a scream.

Seeing this, Barrett walked over quickly. He hurriedly helped Laird up, glared at Fade, and questioned, "Mr. Chen, what are you doing?"

19:21

Fade glanced at Barrett coldly and said, "I'm teaching him a lesson. Can't you see that?"

As he spoke, Fade was about to attack Laird again.

Upon seeing this, Barrett was very annoyed. He stood in front of Laird and started at Fade. "Young Master An is our distinguished guest and you attacked our innocent guest. You owe me an explanation."

"Innocent? Explanation?" Fade sneered, and then his eyes turned cold. He pointed to Yuri and told Barrett, "The so-called distinguished guest of yours almost molested Yuri, so I'm teaching him a lesson now. Do I need any other excuse?"

Once he heard what Fade said, Barrett looked at Laird, at Haward, and at the others. After seeing their looks, he immediately realized what had happened, so he frowned and fell silent.

Then, he looked up at Fade and said, "Molest?! Mr. Chen, that's a bit too much. Young Master An is an important person in our circle. Having him interact with Yuri is to her benefit in the entertainment circle. They're just getting to know each other! You're overreacting, Mr. Chen!"

After that, Barrett seemed to take what he said for granted. He looked at Yuri and said, "Yuri, what are you waiting for? Come and apologize to Young Master An."

At this moment, after hearing Barrett's words, Fade's expression instantly changed. Rage burned in his chest and his eyes turned red.

"Getting to know each other?" Fade sneered at Barrett. "Then I'll go to your house next time and take your mother to bed and caress her! I guess that is a form of getting to know her better too! When that happens, you better not overreact!"

Hearing this, Barrett's expression turned livid. He glared at Fade and said, "Mr. Chen, I am here to mediate the situation for you, but you insult me instead. I demand that you apologize to me immediately, otherwise, even if you are Yuri's friend, I will not let it go."

"Mediate? Ridiculous! Laird was about to molest Yuri. Your friend even helped him, but in your eyes, it's no big deal. On the contrary, when I take a stand and defend Yuri, I am the one overreacting?!"

"I'd like to ask you, isn't this so-called mediation just to help that An guy get away?" Fade questioned in a harsh tone.

Barrett's face turned pale. He glared at Fade and wanted to say something, but he didn't. He turned his eyes to Yuri and said, "Yuri, I can't seem to make it clear to your friend. You should understand. Come and apologize to Young Master An immediately, and I'll help you clean up the mess."
