

Chapter 143

Jason's eyes fell on the red Ferrari behind Finn!

If this car was given to Cindy, she would not have to take a bus when she went to work, and she would not have to work so hard.

Thinking about this, Jason's mouth showed a certain kind of smile.

However, at that moment, everyone there looked at Jason as if they were looking at a fool.

'Is this man daydreaming?'

'What did he say just now? He wants to compete with Master Finn's car? If he wins, Master Finn must apologize and compensate for the car?'

'What the f**k! This brother is awesome. I'm afraid he doesn't know who Master Finn is.'

'The champion of provincial competition, the continuous three time champion!'

Many people laughed and looked at Jason mockingly, actually feeling rather sad for him.

'What a clown, how dare you try and compete with a prince?'

Finn also sneered mercilessly. He didn't expect that Melissa's new boyfriend would be so overconfident and dare to compete with him in a car competition.

He was looking for trouble!

'Haha, friend, this is your fault. If you had obediently apologized to me, maybe I could have let you go. But for you to say this has made me very uncomfortable.'

A cold smile appeared on Finn's face and his eyes showed arrogance. He poked Jason's chest with his finger and said angrily, 'You're just a loser. How dare you challenge me?'

F*ck!

He was in a bad mood!

How dare such a poor looking man like Jason could challenge him?

And you even want him, Finn to apologize and give you the car?

'Is he a fool?'

Kaiden and others who were standing by the side were also very interested. They mockingly stared at Jason and said, 'Brother, it's not that we are disrespecting you, but you really should get a degree in acting. Our Master Finn is the champion from provincial competition. He will participate in the international racing competition in the second half of the year, the Asia Le Mans competition. Next year, Master Finn will also have the qualification to participate in the F1 competition. You're just a good-for-nothing. How can you boast in front of Master Finn?'

As he said this, Kaiden and others looked at Melissa, who was standing aside with a cold face, and felt all funny.

Melissa, even if she wanted to find someone to refuse Finn's love, She had to find a decent guy and not this unreliable loser.

Melissa's eyebrows were also fuming. She suddenly pulled over Jason and said unhappily, 'Jason, what are you doing? You're crazy! Finn is the best at racing. He's the record holder. No one is faster than him! Are you deliberately trying to get me into trouble? I'm so mad at you! Stop talking and go stand a side!'

Melissa was very unhappy. She was very sure that her father must have been backing the wrong person.

How could a guy like this be any powerful?

Dad even praised him like a God.

'Finn, he's him, I'm me. The thing he agreed to has nothing to do with me. I don't accept your request. Let's go.' Melissa discontentedly said this to Finn, and then waved her hand to get in the car.

However, Kaiden and others obviously would not let Melissa go so easily. They blocked her way immediately and forced her to stay.

'What are you doing? Get out of my way!' Melissa was so angry that her mouth was pouted and her chest kept rising and falling. She turned her head and glared at Finn angrily, shouting, 'Finn, what do you mean by this?'

Finn smiled gently and said, 'Don't worry Melissa. Now that he has challenged me and you told me that he is your boyfriend, how can I turn it down?'

After that, Finn turned his head and looked at Jason arrogantly, 'How do you want to compete?'

At this time, Jason touched his chin and said lightly,

'Since you are the record holder, let's compete in speed.'

'Sure.' Finn smiled confidently.

Six minutes and twenty-seven seconds!

The one who was fastest around the track.

The driver came second was behind him by more than a minute!

This was Finn's strength!

Almost everyone present knew Finn and they were also his fans.

In less than three minutes, the entire racing field of Rock Dragon Mount knew that someone was going to challenge Finn, who was familiar with the track. It was a competition of speed.

'What the f*ck! That dude is just looking for trouble.'

'These people nowadays just like to pretend and show off. They didn't even bother checking Finn's background.'

'Just take it as a show, but that guy's courage is admirable. It's been a long time since anyone dared to challenge Finn.'

The entire racing field was surrounded by people who were enthusiastically discussing the challenge initiated by the one with great disparity in ability.

Of course, everyone was not optimistic about Jason.

He's just a loser.

He looked like a poor man.

Look at him, he didn't even know how to wear a racing suit and required staff's guidance for it.

Many people began to ask questions. 'Has this stupid guy really came here to make a joke of himself?'

The news of Jason's challenge to Finn spread quickly and soon spread throughout this community.

Many people rushed over from various places after hearing the news in Shang Jiang City!

'It's a big event!'

Jason, the loser, challenged Finn, the racing god in Shang Jiang City!

'He's powerful enough to make a fool of himself!'

Therefore, Shang Jiang City was particularly busy today.

On the street, luxury cars, sports cars, and modified cars, one after another, rushed to the Rock Dragon Mount from all directions.

'Mom, why are there so many luxury cars? Where are they going?'

Many childrens on the street were curious to see so many luxury cars buzzing past them.

The adults were even more confused. What was happening on the streets today?

A luxury car party?

In the end, even the people from the Traffic Bureau were dispatched to maintain order on the streets.

There were so many luxury cars. Every one of them was worth above millions. Even the best of the best cars like Aston Martins and Bugatti Veyrons were on their way!

'I can't afford to offend him!'

A traffic jam!

All the rich second generations were blocking the road, cursing behind their steering wheels.

Those ordinary drivers were all so scared that they kept far away from them, and they pulled up dozens of meters away from the cars.

'I'm worried!'

If they bumped into any one of them, they would lose their houses to cover the costs!

'What the hell happened?' The traffic police was also stunned when he heard that there were hundreds of luxury cars on the street.

Meanwhile, the race between Jason and Finn was about to begin.

The track of the entire racing field was clear. Everyone stood at the audience area and watched from the huge digital screen.

The entire track was covered with monitoring cameras. A huge digital screen was broadcasting the competition live.

On the track, Finn was getting ready. He was wearing a red racing suit. Before getting in the car, he also received champagne from a hot car model to congratulate him in advance.

Finn pointed a middle finger at Jason and said with contempt, 'I hope you won't lose too badly!'

After that, he opened the car door and got in.

On the other hand, Jason shrugged his shoulders

helplessly. He didn't even have a car now.

No one was willing to borrow a car to Jason, which had embarrassed him from the beginning.

'F*ck, what the f**k. You don't even have a car. Why are you still here to challenge Master Finn?'

'It's very embarrassing. If it were me, I would have found a hole in the ground long ago.'

'Who the f*ck is this? Who knows who this guy is? He's so stupid.'

Many people continued to mock him.

Jason looked at Melissa helplessly. Melissa said reluctantly, 'I'd lend my car to you. Do you even know how to drive it? Please don't crash it, I don't think you can't afford it!'

Melissa was very unhappy with Jason now. He insisted to race with Finn. What if he lost?

But there was no other way. Jason had been brought here by her. It was not good if she didn't help.

However, beyond everyone's expectation, Jason shook his head and said, 'Forget it. I can't afford to drive your car. If I really damage it, I can't afford compensate you.'

As soon as he said that, all the audiences burst into laughter.

This was a f*cking loser.

Then Jason walked to one side and looked at the 86 car. He said to the brothers next to him, 'Buddy, can I borrow your car?'

The guy looked at Jason and did not care. He said, 'Okay,

I will be a good guy, but you should be careful. This is an AE86, Initial D.'

Jason made an OK gesture and said with a smile, 'Okay, if it's damaged. I'll pay for it.'

When Melissa saw this scene, she was so angry that her teeth felt itchy. 'What's wrong with Jason?'

'My Porsche 911 is not as good as an AE86?'

Soon, the competition began!

Finn was ready. He sat in the car with his eyes full of flames of confidence. He glanced at Jason, who was racing next to him, from the window.

'Hehe.'

Sure enough, he was a loser. He was still trying to get familiar with the car's condition.

In the monitoring room, a group of people surrounded the big screen, and there were all kinds of car data.

These was professional data analysis.

In the room, many analysts from the race industry were also paying close attention to it.

Of course, what they were mainly concerned about was Finn's data analysis, because he would participate in the international competition in the second half of the year and also participate in the F1 World Championship.

The track's live broadcast and vehicle monitoring were also broadcasted on the spot.

Finn, who looked as handsome as ever, attracted a lot of female racing drivers and car models.

The whole surveillance room was filled with the cheers of an anthomaniac girl.

On the other hand, Jason, who was still in the car, was checking the car's condition. While looking at this and that, he muttered, 'To the left, to the right, to the right...'
