

Chapter 1039

Dax and the others were delighted when they heard that there was a way for them to save Little Fairy, but they furrowed their brows immediately after that too.

It was a big world—where would they go to find the Dragon Essence?

The room was in complete silence; one could even hear it if a needle were to drop onto the ground.

"The Dragon Essence?"

Debra continued to say, "I think I've heard it before. Five years ago, when I just became the Artemis Sect's Sect Master, my disciples told me that an exquisite treasure had appeared in Mistloren. I think it was the Dragon Essence!"

There were nine continents in the world, and all nine continents had different names.

For example, the New World, World Universe, Westrington, Great East, South Cloud World and others.

Debra had mentioned Mistloren, and it was located to the north-west of the World Universe.

Wow!

When they heard what Debra had said, everyone there could not hide their excitement!

Darryl was even more thrilled!

Initially, the nine continents had been separated by magical barriers, but those had already disappeared. It meant that it would not be too difficult to get to Mistloren!

That was right!

Felix Blakely and Jade had even ventured to other continents!

They had heard that Mistloren was a modern new society—it was almost the same as the World Universe.

Darryl's hand trembled as he dialed Felix's number.

Soon, the man answered his phone.

"Brother Darryl," Felix said respectfully from the other side of the call.

Even though Felix was a business tycoon, he would always regard Darryl as his superior.

Felix would not be the man he was that day without Darryl's aid.

Darryl took a deep breath and got straight to the point—he asked, "Felix, are you familiar with Mistloren?"

Felix immediately replied, "Yes, I am. You recommended me to make investments in other continents; Jade and I had some sort of an epiphany. So, we decided to invest in Mistloren and we've been doing that for the past month. We just got back two days ago."

Felix spoke with a respectful tone. He could not deny that Darryl had a great business mind. Felix had invested in a property at Mistloren and had already made a lot of money.

However, Darryl was not in the mood to listen to all of those. He replied quickly, "There is an important thing that I need you to do. Please find out about the Dragon Essence in Mistloren. Once you learn more about it, you must get it for me. Understand?!"

The Dragon Essence?

Felix was confused when he heard that name. However, he could hear the desperation in Darryl's voice, so he replied quickly, "Very well. I will get it done."

After they hung up, Darryl sighed in relief. Then, he looked at Little Fairy in the crystal coffin emotionally. "Little Wife, we will save you. Don't worry. I will get the Dragon Essence."

Darryl's eyes were full of anticipation.

"Master, don't worry."

At that moment, Yuan Tiangang smiled. "The thousand-year-old ice in the crystal coffin would preserve her body for three months; her body would not rot. We just need to get the Dragon Essence within these three months, and then everything will be fine."

Three months?

When he heard that, Darryl held his fist tightly. He looked determined as he said, "No matter the cost, I must get the Dragon Essence within these three months!"

Darryl felt much better when they had a plan to save Little Fairy. He began to eat the food that Jewel had brought him.

However, after everyone left, Darryl continued to stay beside the crystal coffin.

The next day.

Darryl sat on the bed in the bedroom to rest.

Ring, ring.

Suddenly, the phone rang. It was Felix; Darryl was delighted when he saw it was, so he answered it immediately.

Darryl laughed.

'He must have gotten the Dragon Essence. He is so efficient!'

Darryl was delighted.

However, once he answered the call, he could hear Felix's apologetic tone. "Brother Darryl, I have investigated the Dragon Essence. It is indeed in Mistloren, with the Box family. I sent someone there last night to offer to buy the Dragon Essence at a high price. However, the head of the family chased my people away without another word."

Felix laughed bitterly. "Then, upon further investigation, I learned that the Dragon Essence had been handed down through generations of the Box family since a thousand years ago. It is their family heirloom, and the current patriarch treasured it more than his life. He would never sell it. Even their family disciples rarely saw it. No one knew where the Box family kept the Dragon Essence—it is a secret. It seems like only the head of their family knows about that."

Sh*t! Why must it be like that?

Darryl felt his hope smashed into pieces when he heard Felix's report.

However, after further considerations, he realized that no one would simply sell off a treasure like the Dragon Essence.

Then, Felix continued to speak with a regretful tone. "Brother Darryl, I am sorry. I have failed the mission."

Darryl sighed and consoled him, "It's alright, don't blame yourself. I have underestimated the matter."

As he said that, Darryl took a longer sigh.

"The Dragon Essence is the only thing that can save Little Fair. It looks like I must travel to Mistloren myself." ❶

Chapter 1040

As Darryl pondered, he asked, "Felix, is there a way for me to sneak into the Box family?"

As long as he could sneak into the Box family, he would have a chance to get the Dragon Essence.

"I do have a way to get you into the family, but—"

Felix sighed. "I heard that the Box family's patriarch is looking to hire a bodyguard for his two daughters. He wants to hire top-level warriors, but they can't be too old. You do fit the requirement, Brother Darryl. However, the post might be below you. I think we should—"

Before he could finish his sentence, Darryl interrupted him determinedly. "That's fine; I can be his bodyguard. Please arrange that for me, quickly."

"As long as I can get into the Box family, I will find the way to get the Dragon Essence for Little Fairy. I am willing to be anything, even a bodyguard, and I will never complain."

"Alright then, Brother Darryl, I will arrange that immediately," Felix replied with a sigh.

After Darryl put down the phone, he stared at Little Fairy and walked out of the room.

A few minutes later, he had gathered everyone at the Carter mansion's main hall.

Darryl sat on a chair in the middle of the hall as he looked at Dax, Chester, Jewel, Debra and the others. He said, "I have to go to Mistloren on my own; I am leaving today."

Wow!

The hall immediately turned chaotic.

No one tried to stop him; they supported his plan. Little Fairy had died to save Darryl, so it was logical for him to want to find the Dragon Essence to save her.

Darryl sighed and said, "I am worried about the Carter family when I've left for Mistloren."

Donoghue had attempted to destroy the Carter family just a few days ago, and he had managed to escape. It would be a disaster if he were to return when Darryl was not around. How could the Carter family defend themselves?

"Darryl!"

Debra knew that Darryl was worried, so she said softly, "Don't worry about the Carter family; go ahead to Mistloren. I will stay here to protect them."

Although Darryl did not say it, Debra knew the reason for his worries.

Then, Dax said, "That's right, Darryl, don't worry, just go on ahead. Chester and I will stay here too. I have told all the Flower Mountain Sect and Eternal Life Palace Sect disciples to come here; we will protect the Carter family."

When Darryl heard that, he felt warm and touched.

Then, Jewel walked toward him and looked at Darryl obediently. "Mister, I will not follow you. I shall stay with Sister Debra."

Jewel pursed her lips. She had wanted to go with Darryl, but she had no power at all. She would only be a burden to Darryl if she were to follow him. Darryl had a serious task to complete; it was best if she did not go with him.

Darryl laughed and stretched his hand to pat Jewel's head. "Good!"

Ever since they met, Jewel had never been away from Darryl. He had been worried when Jewel insisted on following him; it was true that she could only be an inconvenience if he brought her along with him.

He did not expect Jewel to be so understanding.

Darryl still sat on the chair when he addressed the family disciples outside the hall. "Bring me Lindsay Jones!"

Darryl had captured Lindsay at the Wishing Star Tower, and he had kept her locked up ever since.

"Yes, Young Master."

A few family disciples left quickly and returned with a slim figure to the main hall.

It was Lindsay Jones.

They had tied her up; instead of her arrogant and confident expression, her eyes showed only fear.

Lindsay's perfect body trembled when she saw so many people in the main hall.

"The Prime Minister had killed so many of their people; they would never let me go."

"Darryl!"

Dax glared at Lindsay as he shouted, "Let's just kill her!"

Everyone else also shouted furiously.

"That's right, kill her!"

"This is an evil woman; she deserves to die!"

Lindsay's face was pale as she felt everyone's anger. Her legs were weak, and her knees almost buckled.

Darryl raised his hand and said, "Don't kill her first. Let's give her something nice to eat."

Darryl walked coldly toward Lindsay. Then, he retrieved an elixir and forced it down her throat.

Gulp!

Before Lindsay could react, she had already swallowed the elixir.

"What was that? What did you give me?" Lindsay looked at Darryl with fear and anger.

Darryl laughed coldly. "What? Aren't you the Five Poison Sect's Sect Master and an expert in poisons? Are you afraid of poison?"

Darryl sounded cold; he looked straight at Lindsay and said, "Have you heard of the Heaven Cult Elixir?"

That was right; Darryl had let her consume the Heaven Cult Elixir!

"Heaven Cult Elixir?"

Lindsay's flawless body shivered as she started to sweat profusely.

Even though she was the Five Poison Sect's Sect Master and she specialized in poison and elixir production, that was the first time that she had heard about the Heaven Cult Elixir. She did not know what that was, and that was why she was afraid.

"You have one year. If you do not get the antidote before one year is up, then your body will start to rot—you will die. If you don't believe me, try using your internal energy and channel it to your acupoint. Do you feel sore and perhaps, paralyzed?" Darryl said coldly.

Chapter 1041

Lindsay's face changed when she heard his words. "You gave me poison? What do you want?"

Darryl smiled coldly. "I want you to go back to Donoghue and spy on him. Report back to the Carter family every fortnight. Understand?"

Previously, Donoghue had ordered Lindsay to control Yvonne.

So, Darryl wanted to do the same to Lindsay. He wanted her to act against Donoghue.

He wanted to serve that man with his own medicine!

"I understand." Lindsay immediately nodded; she dared not refuse him.

There was no way she could reject his request. When she thought about how her body would rot without the antidote, Lindsay shivered.

Darryl nodded; it was a sign for the family disciples to release Lindsay. Then, he bade farewell to everyone and headed toward Mistloren.

Chester, Debra and the others walked him to the main entrance before they returned to the mansion.

After Darryl left the Carter mansion, he did not head straight to Mistloren. Instead, he had rushed to Donghai City.

He was still worried about another person, and that was Lily.

He arrived in front of Lily Lyndon's residence in only half an hour. When he saw the door shut tight, he shouted, "Lilybud, Lilybud!"

Even though the door was shut, Darryl knew that Lily was home.

Darryl felt as if he could feel her breath.

'Hubby! Why is he here?'

Lily had been resting on the second floor when she heard his shouts; she panicked. Her heart raced and pounded.

Lily wanted to open the door so badly, but she did not have the courage to do that!

Darryl was unsure of how many times he had shouted, but Lily did not respond to him. His heart ached.

"Lilybud, I know you are here. I have to go somewhere far away; I am not sure when I will be back. Please take good care of yourself, and wait for my return, alright? I will visit you immediately after my return."

Then, Darryl turned and left.

Lily quickly walked toward the side of the second-floor window in her stilettos. She looked through the curtain gap. When she saw Darryl's shadow as he left, her heart clenched. Tears wet her face.

"My dear husband, you must take good care of yourself too. I will wait for you; I will wait for you forever." Lily cried as she mumbled to herself.

At Mistloren, Wanhai City.

Wanhai City was one of the largest cities in Mistloren. There were tall buildings everywhere, and the streets were busy—it was a prosperous city.

At that moment, a smart and tidy young man stood on a street in Wanhai City's busiest city center.

He wore a fitted black suit that showed off his tall figure and smart features. He looked really smart from top to toe, and he showed an exceptional aura.

That young man was Darryl.

Darryl held a local mobile phone in his hand. The phone came with a Mistloren phone number.

Felix had arranged the attire and mobile phone for him.

Even though Mistloren and the World Universe were similar technologically advanced societies, they were located on two separate continents. Even though they were connected, their communication network was not merged.

Wow!

Darryl tidied his shirt and looked around the modern streets. He was amazed. "I never imagine the technology in Mistloren is so advanced. At a glimpse, I thought I was in Donghai City."

Then, Darryl's vision landed on the grand golden casino across the streets.

It was the Golden Highland Sky Casino.

It was the largest casino in Wanhai City, and it was the grandest too. Only the rich and famous could afford to gamble their fortune there.

There were rows and rows of luxury cars at the entrance as people entered and left the establishment in either dressy suits or luxurious pieces of jewelry.

Felix had called Darryl on the phone and told him that his identity as a bodyguard had been established. Felix had arranged for Darryl to be the Box family's bodyguard.

The Box family's two daughters loved to gamble at that casino.

"The family's two daughters are here to have fun? How interesting." Darryl mumbled to himself as he entered the casino.

'Sh*t! This place is just too extravagant.'

Chapter 1042

Darryl was stunned the moment he entered the casino—it was grand, elegant and extravagant. It looked almost like a palace!

The main hall on the first floor was a few thousand square feet wide. It had various vending machines, and it was separated into multiple areas—poker, mahjong, pai gow—there was even a dedicated area that broadcasted horse races live.

All the casino games that Darryl knew was there.

The first floor was the gambling area for ordinary guests—it was crowded and noisy.

The Box family's sisters were daughters of an affluent family, so they would not be on the first floor. They would always be at the VIP Zone on the second floor.

After Darryl checked the first floor, he went straight upstairs.

When he reached the VIP zone, Darryl saw two sexy ladies further in the room.

One of the ladies was in deep blue jeans with a pair of stilettos—she looked incredibly sexy, and her beauty suffocated him! However, she also looked cold and unapproachable. She sat at the table, but she did not gamble. She only observed the game quietly.

That lady was the Box family's eldest daughter—Ashley Box.

The other lady was dressed in a short white skirt; she was about 1.63 meters tall, and she also looked beautiful. She even had a dimple when she smiled. The lady gambled happily with the dice with a few other youngsters.

That lady was the Box family's younger daughter—Tiffany Box.

The two sisters were quite famous in Wanhai City; they even had countless admirers. Even though they were sisters, they had different personalities.

Ashley, the elder sister, was cold, but she looked like a goddess.

The younger sister, Tiffany, was extremely extroverted, just like a trouble maker.

Darryl had seen their pictures before, but they looked prettier in real life. Darryl sighed before he smiled as he walked toward them.

Both sisters did not notice Darryl when he approached them.

Ashley was very bored as she sat on the chair; she disliked the atmosphere at the casino, but it was the weekend and a school holiday; her sister had insisted they go out and relax.

Tiffany, on the other hand, was engrossed in her game.

"Come on, place your bet quickly; I will be the dealer!" Tiffany shouted excitedly as she raised her snow-white arm to shake the dice.

Then, a young man with purple hair snapped at her. "Miss Box, you have lost four games in a row; if you were to lose another five rounds, you would have to have dinner with me."

He grinned as he leered at Tiffany's body.

That man was Kai Xyon, a young master from Wanhai City's Xyon family.

The Xyon family was also one of the most affluent families in Wanhai City; they shared a similar status as the Box family.

Kai had lusted after the Box sisters for a very long time, but he had never had the opportunity to meet them. By chance, he managed to see them at the casino that day, so he did not want to miss the opportunity.

As he said that, his friends echoed his sentiment.

"That's right; you must honor the bet. If you lose another five rounds, you will need to have dinner with Young Master Xyon."

Tiffany looked at Kai with annoyance. "Do you think you are the God of Gamblers? You think you'll continue winning? You'd definitely lose now."

Kai smiled as he looked at her. "That may not be the case; I am betting on small."

"If you say it's small, then it must be big!" Tiffany did not want to lose.

She threw the dice and immediately frowned.

Out of the three dice, two showed one dot, and one showed two dots.

That was the smallest value possible!

Kai smiled and looked at Tiffany happily. "So? Well, I said small, so you lose again."

Tiffany said, "I have four more rounds; don't celebrate just yet."

Then, she threw the dice.

Darryl saw that as he walked near her. He shook his head discreetly and smiled bitterly.

The elder sister was cold, so it would be easier to manage her.

With just one look at the younger sister, Darryl knew that she would be the one with weird ideas. He would probably get headaches as her bodyguard.

Then, Darryl smiled at the sisters and greeted them. "Hello, Miss Box. I am Darryl."

Wow.

As he spoke, everyone's eyes focused on Darryl.

Ashley glared coldly at Darryl, but she did not speak. She was as cold as an ice mountain.

"Who are you? Don't you see that I am gambling here?" Tiffany was impatient. She was in a terrible mood as she was on a losing streak. She was not friendly toward Darryl. "Stay away from me."

Tiffany thought that Darryl only wanted to flirt with her.

He smiled at Tiffany and said, "Eldest Young Miss Box, Second Young Miss Box, I am your bodyguard; I just started work today."

Chapter 1043

Tiffany furrowed her brows as she looked at Darryl; she looked annoyed. "I've told them, my sister and I do not need a bodyguard? Why are they so bothersome?"

Tiffany waved her hands at Darryl. "Get lost! My sister and I do not need your protection. Step aside, and don't disturb me."

Oh...

Darryl felt extremely awkward; he was not sure if he wanted to laugh or to cry.

He was the Elysium Gate's Sect Master, as well as a Martial Emperor, but a young lady had sent her away.

Other people would laugh at him if they were to hear about that.

However, Darryl was not angry at all. He smiled as he stood at the side. He continued to watch Tiffany at the games.

At the same time, Darryl was amazed by Ashley. The elder Box sister had such alluring femininity, but she was too cold.

Soon, Tiffany lost another three rounds.

Kai laughed; he was delighted. Then, he smiled and looked at Tiffany. "This is fate. Miss Box, don't forget about our bet. If you lose ten games in a row, you must have dinner with me. How about it? This is the last round; do you still want to continue the bet?"

Kai was extremely delighted.

'I am very lucky today; I've won nine rounds in a row. I just need to win another round, and I will have the opportunity to taste her beauty.'

Tiffany stomped her feet angrily; her face was all red as she bit her lips. She did not speak.

Even though she was playful, she was not stupid. She knew what Kai wanted. If she were to go out to dinner with him, he might have some funny ideas about it. Perhaps, he would spike her food. She knew that Kai was capable of anything.

"Tiffany, stop playing and let's go," Ashley said as she stood up.

As the older sister, Ashley was always rational. It was the last round; if her sister were to lose again, they would need to have dinner with Kai. How could she let that happen?

Of course, Tiffany could not let go. How could she not continue with the game? She and Kai invested three million bucks into each round. She had lost nine matches consecutively, and she had lost about 20 million bucks! She needed to win the money back!

"Hey, come here!"

At that moment, Tiffany waved at Darryl. "Didn't my father hire you as our bodyguard? I am not lucky today. Come here and play the last round for me. If you win this, I will agree to have you as my bodyguard. If you lose, then you will have to go back to where you came from."

"Hey, this is not part of the deal."

Kai was worried. "How can you ask someone else to play for you?"

"Why does that bother you?"

Tiffany was annoyed. "He is my bodyguard, so why can't he gamble on my behalf?"

Kai gulped. It looked like he had to agree with the arrangement. "Fine, let that guy play for you. If he loses this round, then you must honor your promise. Both of you will have to have dinner with me."

Kai looked at Darryl. "Hey, man! Come here, let's finish this quickly."

He looked at Darryl and laughed. "He is just a bodyguard; he might not even have been to a high-class place like here. How dare he gamble against me?"

Darryl could see that Kai looked down on him, but he did not care.

In contrast, Darryl smiled confidently.

Darryl seldom gambled, but he was confident that he would win all of Kai's chips on the table.

Darryl shook the dice in the container and smiled as he looked at Kai. "Big or small?"

"Big!" Kai said firmly; he looked confident.

Darryl smiled and showed them the dice. "I guess it's small."

Wow!

The dice showed two with two dots and another with three dots.

It was small!

No one knew Darryl had used the Ghost Hand on the dice; he had changed them into smaller values.

The Ghost Hand technique was something that Darryl had learned at Elysian Island.

He learnt that because he had to steal the Supreme Mystery Scripture from the Hexad School's principal. He never imagined that he would use Ghost Hand again on a dice.

"Yeah! We won!"

Tiffany cheered; she was delighted. For some reason, she thought that Darryl looked presentable then. She did not feel as annoyed as she had before then.

What? How could it be small?

'I am so lucky today; how could I have lost?'

Kai was not happy. He threw out all the chips he lost and said arrogantly, "This is the money I lost to you. You are lucky this time. We will do it again!"

Darryl ignored him; he looked at Tiffany beside him. "Another round?"

"Of course!" Tiffany said without any hesitation. "Of course, we continue. Didn't you see how much I have lost? I need to get back my capital."

Darryl nodded and continued to gamble with Kai.

They continued to gamble for the next ten minutes, but Kai was like a different person as he went from a confident man to a fearful one.

Chapter 1044

Kai lost fifteen rounds consecutively! He did not only lose all of Tiffany's chips that he won earlier, but he had lost a lot of his own as well.

Soon, only a few chips remained in front of him.

A crowd had gathered around them to watch the game.

At that moment, Kai sweated profusely; he was so furious. He could not hide his anger as he looked at Darryl.

'What's going on? Where did this guy learn to gamble? How can he keep winning? That's wicked.'

He did not know that Darryl had used the Ghost Hand in each round. It was not something the naked eye could see, so it was impossible for him to win over Darryl.

"Aren't you lucky today?" Tiffany was amazed as she looked at Darryl. Her eyes glowed as she said, "You looked quite poor, but you are so lucky."

Darryl smiled as he looked at Kai and asked, "Do you still want to play? You will never beat me."

Sh*t!

When Kai saw Darryl's smile, his face turned red, and his hands trembled.

'Is he teasing me? I am the Xyon family's Young Master; I have never felt so ashamed!'

"Brother!"

At that moment, a lady walked into the room stylishly. Then she said sweetly, "Brother, we have lost a lot. Please stop playing. Save the money for my handbags, please..."

It was Layla Xyon, Kai's cousin sister.

"Shut up!" Kai roared.

He was furious as he had lost a lot of money.

Layla was shocked by his attitude, so she sat quietly beside him. She dared not make another sound.

She was Kai's cousin sister, so she knew Kai's character well. Kai could be a scary man when he was angry. At that moment, no one dared to speak against him.

"Come, let's continue!" Kai said as he pushed all the chips in front of him outward.

'No matter what, I must beat this guy today!'

Darryl smiled gently and started to shake the dice again. "Are you betting on big or small?"

"Small!" Kai said with clenched teeth.

"Then I shall bet on big!" Darryl smiled and removed his hands; the three dice on the table showed six dots!

It was the largest value!

Wow!

At that moment, everyone cheered.

Many people looked at Darryl with amazement.

He had won more than 20 games; he had taken all of Kai's chips and left him with none!

That guy was too powerful!

Tiffany was stunned too.

He was not a bodyguard; he was the God of Gamblers!

The next second, Tiffany gathered her thoughts and smiled as she said, "We have won big, so let's go home!"

She took all the chips on the table into her arms and was about to signal her sister, Ashley, to leave.

"Hang on; we are not done yet!" Kai said coldly.

He looked at Darryl fiercely as if he was an angry monster!

'How shameful it is I just let him leave?!'

"Do you still have money for another round, Kai?" Tiffany laughed. "You don't have any chips left; what would you bet on?"

Kai clenched his fist tightly. It was true that he had no money left; he had lost all of his pocket money. However, he was not happy!

Kai bit his lips as he pulled his cousin sister toward him. "Who says I have nothing? This is my cousin sister, Layla. I will use her as my bet! We shall bet against all the chips you have in front of you. One game to determine the winner. What do you say?!"

Kai stared intensely at Darryl.

Perhaps Kai had lost his mind!

He only wanted a win!

Layla was in shock; her body shook as she held Kai's arm. "Cousin Brother! What did you just say? I don't want to be the bet—"

Before she could finish her sentence, Kai scolded her coldly, "Keep your mouth shut!"

Chapter 1045

What?

Kai wanted to use his cousin sister as the betting chip?!

That was worth a watch.

Everyone was extremely excited. They chatted discreetly; no one dared to make a noise as they did not want Kai to get mad.

At the same time, many people turned their focus on Darryl; they wondered about his reply.

'Who is this guy?'

'He managed to win over Young Master Xyon!'

Darryl ignored everyone's focus on him and turned to look at Tiffany. "Second Young Miss, do you want to continue with the game?"

Tiffany replied casually, "He wanted to gamble with you, not me; you can decide for yourself. However, these chips are my allowance for the week, so if you were to lose the game, then you'll need to pay me back."

Sh*t!

When he heard that, Darryl pursed his lips; he was not sure if he wanted to laugh or cry.

'Such a calculative master; I am absolutely speechless! However, I do need the Dragon Essence one day; it looks like I have no choice but to serve this cheeky girl.'

Darryl looked at Kai and nodded. "Very well, since you are still interested in continuing with the game, I will do it."

"Great!"

Kai smiled coldly and grabbed the dice. "Let me shake the dice this time, and you will guess."

What?

It was Darryl's turn to be stunned.

He could use Ghost Hand to control the values of the dice, but only if he were the one to shake it. He would not have that advantage if Kai were the one to do it. He could only rely on his luck then.

What could he do about that?

"Oh, it is so merry here."

Right at that moment, they heard the voice of a woman. Next, a lady dressed in a formal uniform walked into the room.

The lady looked like she was in her early thirties, and she had exquisite features. She wore a long body-hugging dress that displayed her perfect alluring body—she looked elegant and beautiful.

Once she walked into the room, a pleasant scent wafted from her body.

Gulp!

Most of the men there gulped. Their eyes were on her, but they looked worried too.

That lady was the Golden Highland Sky Casino's general manager, Madelyn Monroe.

Even though she was a lady, Madelyn had a great relationship with all influential Wanhai City players. No one dared to upset her.

Wow!

At that moment, Darryl gasped.

He did not imagine he would meet a sexy and beautiful lady at such a place.

Even though the two sisters beside him were also gorgeous, they lacked Madelyn's maturity.

"Sister Madelyn!"

Kai quickly hid his anger and smiled. "Sister Madelyn, it looks like you have time to come and check up on your casino?"

He could not avert his eyes from Madelyn's body; she looked incredibly sexy in her uniform and black pantyhose.

Kai was a rich young master in Wanhai City, so of course, he knew Madelyn. He was also amazed by her body. However, he knew that she was not someone he could offend.

Madelyn smiled and said, "I heard that Young Master Xyon wants to use his cousin sister as the betting chip; of course, I have to come to take a look..."

"Oh..."

Kai felt embarrassed, so he smiled and said, "Of course, this is a place of bets. Since I am gambling, there is nothing I can't use as my betting chip. Isn't that right, Sister Madelyn?"

As he spoke, Kai glared fiercely at Darryl.

'Sh*t, this guy brings me so much shame."

"Young Master Xyon, of course, I am not against it." Madelyn smiled and nodded. "However, this is a place for people to relax. Let's be happy and maintain a peaceful environment. Why don't I be the judge? I can be the one to shake the dice. Are you okay with that, Young Master Xyon?"

When she spoke, Madelyn intentionally glared at Darryl as if it was a signal of some sort.

Wow!

The crowd started to discuss the latest development.
