

Chapter 710

"Retreat!"

Finally, she had told them to retreat!

Then, she immediately left with the remaining soldiers from the New World army.

As their enemy retreated, everyone at the Wishing Star Tower cheered!

Some of them laughed cheerfully.

"We have defended our land!"

Everyone's face was filled with excitement and relief. Finally, they had managed to defend the city; Donghai City and its people were safe.

Sigh!

Darryl was still weak and could not speak. He let out a long sigh and tried his best to force a smile onto his face.

"You are so powerful, my brother! That palm was something, alright!" Dax was so excited as he rushed toward Darryl and punched him on his shoulder.

It was only a light punch, but it almost killed Darryl!

Chester walked toward them too and looked at Darryl. Then, he nodded. "Well, we've managed to defeat the New World army today. Besides the Seven Fairies' help, your palm technique had a huge contribution too!"

Everyone nodded at that because it was the truth.

A palm mark on the ground that was a few thousand meters wide was an exciting sight, indeed!

It was at least 20 feet deep.

Someone suddenly shouted. "Why is there a coffin here?"

Everyone looked at where the voice came from, and they were stunned.

There was a coffin there.

It was apparent that the coffin had been buried in the ground earlier. It must have resurfaced due to the impact from Darryl's Immortal Energy Palm.

The cover of the coffin had been smashed open, and a woman's body was in it. She had a huge stomach—she was pregnant! It seemed like she was quite near to her due date as well.

"Oh, no, who is this lady? She died when she was pregnant; how pitiful!"

"Two lives lost."

Everyone sighed at that moment.

Suddenly, someone from the crowd screamed.

"Rebecca, Rebecca!" Jackson roared; he was devastated.

The pregnant lady was his wife—Rebecca Song!

"No!"

Jackson wailed as he ran like a crazy man toward the coffin.

At the same time, Abbess Mother Serendipity and Aurora looked at each other as both of them furrowed their brows.

Did she not run away from home? She left a letter that said she was pregnant with Darryl's child. She was too ashamed to face Jackson, and that was why she had to go.

Why was she buried there?

Abbess Mother Serendipity immediately looked at Florian and Yumi.

Oh, no!

Florian panicked, and he sweated all over; he did not know how to react.

"Rebecca, Rebecca..."

Jackson stumbled beside the coffin. Then he hugged Rebecca's body as his body shook violently!

He could not believe that Rebecca had died.

"Rebecca, please don't do this to me! I am begging you! I am begging you, please..." Jackson held her tightly as he continued to cry uncontrollably.

Everyone stared at Jackson; they felt terrible for him.

"Rebecca, you have promised me to spend your whole life with me—" Jackson's voice cracked. "You lied to me. Why didn't you keep your promise? You must be here with me. Tell me, why did you break your promise? You said you want to get some new clothes after you have the baby; I haven't bought them yet, how could you leave me? Rebecca..."

Jackson's voice was coarse; he was utterly devastated.

Everyone felt uncomfortable. A few of them tried to pull him away so that he could calm down, but he would not move.

Jackson hugged Rebecca tightly; he could not stop his tears.

As they struggled, someone else shouted, "Look! There are some words in the coffin. It seems like Rebecca had written it with her own blood!"

Chapter 711

Words in the coffin?

Jackson's body shivered as he rushed towards the coffin. He was stunned and completely in shock!

There were some words in the coffin, it was obvious they were written by Rebecca using blood for her fingers before she died. They were in striking red color.

'Florian is a beast. He raped me, destroyed my life, and blamed Darryl.'

"What?"

"Florian was the one who raped and killed Rebecca!"

"Wow!"

Everyone's eyes were locked on Florian, filled with surprise and anger!

"Florian, so it's you!" Abbess Mother Serendipity could not hold it anymore as she pointed toward Florian and scolded, "You're a monster!"

Abbess Mother Serendipity's body shook as she exclaimed, "He must not be forgiven!"

Abbess Mother Serendipity wanted to kill Florian.

However, she had completely used up her internal energy while fighting against the New World Army and was unable to do so.

“You’re a monster for raping and killing your brother’s wife!”

“This bastard should be killed!”

Abbess Mother Serendipity’s anger lit the fuse to a bomb as everyone started pointing and scolding Florian.

Everyone—especially those major sects—was furious! They turned and looked at Darryl feeling emotional and unsettled while they scolded Florian.

Everyone felt terrible for blaming Darryl.

At that moment, a loud sound was heard as Jackson kneeled in front of Darryl!

“Brother, I’m sorry for the misunderstanding and accusations toward you...”

He kept bowing and knocking his head to the ground until it started bleeding!

“Brother, I was wrong. I was wrong.” Jackson’s tears were rolling down as his heart clenched. He felt so guilty while everyone else felt sad for him.

Darryl sighed in relief but he could not speak as he was too weak.

On the other hand, Master Reed stood up, lifted his sword, and pointed at Florian!

“Bastard!”

“How could you still live with all the terrible things you’ve done!”

Master Reed charged towards Florian after speaking. However, his sword was weak and slow from being badly injured.

Florian shivered and avoided the sword while sweating profusely.

‘How? What to do now?’

He had never expected Rebecca would have written those words in her blood inside the coffin before dying. He had also never expected Darryl capable of extracting the coffin with merely his skills!

Florian panicked and looked at Yumi for help.

Yumi was also worried but when her eyes met Florian, she suddenly had an idea and blinked at Florian.

Yumi then pointed at Florian and started scolding, “Y-you bastard! How did I marry someone like you? What have you done? You don’t deserve to live.”

As she spoke, her face was full of sadness and disappointment as she spoke and cried loudly.

Yumi knew everyone would hate Florian once the truth was out.

She must break relations with him and make everyone feel that she was innocent. That was the only way for her to remain in the Darby family! Once Florian left the family, she would be the one in control of the family.

Yumi rushed towards Rebecca's body and pretended to cry with those thoughts in mind. "Sister, I'm sorry Sister. I've married a bastard without knowing that you had been violated."

Yumi sadly cried.

"Haha..."

At that moment, Florian laughed loudly while looking around and acting weirdly. "Yes, I was the one who raped Rebecca and buried her in the ground!"

Florian knew that the truth was out, hence he tried to assume all responsibilities.

Florian's eyes looked evil as he continued, "It's a mistake, I've made a mistake. How would I know she would get pregnant? If I don't kill her, should I wait for her baby to be born? Haha..."

Florian was acting crazy then, but his mind was still clear.

Yumi had blinked at him and he understood what his wife was trying to do.

Honestly, it would be easier if he assumed all the responsibility with the truth out instead of implicating them both. One of them could escape and they might have another chance later.

“Bastard!”

Chapter 712

“You deserved to die!”

Everyone was furious when they heard Florian’s confession and each of them wanted to kill him!

“Florian...” Jackson was devastated and furious. “You killed Rebecca. I’ll avenge her by taking your life!”

After he spoke, Jackson’s eyes turned red as he ran forward with a long blade and charged toward Florian.

Jackson could not think clearly at that time as he only had one thought in mind—to kill Florian and avenge his wife!

“Haha, kill me? Are you capable?”

Florian was laughing coldly while looking at Jackson. Following that, his internal energy started rising as he strongly punched Jackson.

Bang!

Florian’s punch only contained about 80 percent of his energy, but Jackson could be heard shouted while he flew about dozens of feet away before landing heavily on the ground.

After cultivating the Mysterious Godly Scripture, Florian's powers had substantially increased and upgraded to Level One Martial Marquis.

Besides that, Florian was merely watching from the side when all the sects were busy fighting against the New World Army earlier. He was not injured nor had he used any of his internal energy at all!

The Master General Jackson was without a doubt no match for Florian.

“How dare this bastard fight back!”

Everyone was furious seeing Jackson being defeated.

“Emei Sect disciples heed my orders, attack and kill Florian!”

Abbess Mother Serendipity's face was cold.

Although she had depleted her energies, there were still dozens of Emei Sect members still standing among her.

“Shaolin Sect disciples heed my orders!”

“Wudang Sect disciples heed my orders, immediately kill Florian!”

Master Reed and Master Leonard had also used all their internal energies at that time. Both of them could not fight, but they both gave the kill order.

Instantly, around a hundred of those major sect members raised their weapons and charged toward Florian.

“Haha...”

Florian was not worried at all even though he was surrounded by the masses. He gave an evil smile. “Abbess Mother Serendipity and Master Leonard, I don’t think you’ll be able to kill me today with all of you being so exhausted. Do you want to kill me with just these disciples? You must be dreaming!”

Bang!

As he spoke, Florian started gathering his internal energy and a shiny black shadow could be seen in the air surrounding him.

In the next second, a huge creature appeared beside Florian.

It was a giant black leopard made out of internal energy. Its eyes were evil while its body was surrounded by black air.

Florian used his special technique from the Mysterious Godly Scripture.

The Mysterious Godly Scripture’s first level could produce different grades of evil beasts.

Over time, Florian’s power had tremendously increased and he had perfectly mastered that level.

He was fearless of any Level Three or Level Four Martial Marquis with the Mysterious Godly Scripture combined with his Level One Martial Marquis cultivation.

“Roar!”

The black leopard roared as it charged against the crowd under Florian’s order.

“Ah...”

Shouting voices could be heard among the sect disciples as all of them started shouting in pain and dropped into a pool of blood.

“Florian, you bastard!”

Everyone was furious when they saw what had happened.

Florian just laughed coldly at that time as he leaped and jumped on the black leopard’s back. “Everyone, I have to excuse myself for now. I’ll see you soon!”

He rode on the black leopard and was about to leave. However, as he was leaving he unexpectedly reached out to grab both Monica and Yvonne!

“Ah!”

Yvonne and Monica had not expected Florian to attack both of them as they screamed!

Florian’s lefthand grabbed Monica while his right grabbed Yvonne before leaving!

“Bastard, let go of them.”

“Ridiculous, this is ridiculous!”

Everyone scolded and wanted to rush over.

However, their internal energies had not recovered and they would not be fast enough to chase after Florian.

‘Yvonne...’

‘Cult Mistress!’

Darryl struggled to stand and stop him, but it was too late. Due to the accumulated stress, Darryl’s vision darkened and he soon fainted.

“Haha, how could there be no beautiful ladies to keep me accompanied in my long journey.”

Florian laughed upon grabbing both Monica and Yvonne before leaving on the black leopard’s back. In a blink of an eye, all three had disappeared from view.

Chapter 713

“Seven Palace Masters, can you please help Darryl to chase down Florian?”

Dax was worried as he asked the Seven Fairies.

Dax had suffered serious injury and was furious when he saw Darryl's women being grabbed by Florian. He ended up vomiting a mouthful of fresh blood!

Dax knew that Darryl would be devastated if the Cult Mistress and Yvonne were abducted.

Everyone had no energy left and the Seven Fairies were their only hope of going after Florian!

The Seven Fairies looked at each other and sighed upon hearing Dax's words.

Everyone thought the Seven Fairies had not suffered any injury, but the truth was they had used all of their internal energy in their battle with Sloan earlier. No matter what, Sloan was still a Martial Emperor and the Seven Fairies were barely holding on. How could they still have the energy to go after Florian?

Florian was a Level One Martial Marquis who had cultivated the Mysterious Godly Scripture. Only a Level Four Martial Marquis would be able to defeat him. Even if he had not escaped from the battle, it would need at least a Level One Martial Marquis to stop him!

All the martial marquises present had depleted all their energies in the earlier battle.

Dax sighed as his brain continued spinning. His heart was aching when he looked at the unconscious Darryl.

On the other hand, Florian rode the black leopard and left everyone's sight.

Haha!

At that moment, he was so excited with an itching heart when he looked at the Cult Mistress and Yvonne.

Florian had decided his best option was to surrender and join the New World since he was at that moment notorious. There would be nowhere in the World Universe that he could live.

The New World Army had retreated not long ago and would not be too far. He should be able to catch up with them soon.

Florian sneakily laughed as he spoke, "Beautiful ladies, don't worry. I'll bring you to the New World for a good time.” He then sealed their acupoint and rendered both of them unable to move.

The Cult Mistress was still so beautiful and attractive even though she was pregnant.

...

At the Darby Residence the following day.

Drake was shaking in the middle of the hall as he looked at the Darby family member. “What did you say? The one who raped and killed Jackson’s wife was Florian?”

Earlier when the Darby family went as reinforcement to the Wishing Star Tower, Drake felt that was a perfect chance for him to prove himself and to elevate the Darby family’s name. Once he managed to help those major sects to defend the Wishing Star Tower, the Darby family would then be recorded in history as a hero of the World Universe.

Drake was waiting at home for the good news but did not expect to receive such a terrible report instead.

The Darby family member in front of Drake nodded with difficulty, “Yes, Sir. Rebecca’s body was discovered just now at the hill behind Wishing Star Tower. Florian had confessed his actions in front of the major sects before escaping...”

Drake’s face turned pale when he heard that and fell a few steps backward before scolding, “B-bastard! How could I have such a bastard son!”

After he cursed, Drake turned and kneeled in front of the ancestors’ altar and cried, “Father, I’m guilty and ashamed for bringing up a bastard in the Darby family. Father, I deserve to die for not raising the bastard well!”

Drake was very emotional as he spoke while self-slapping his face.

Chapter 714

At the other end.

In a wide sea, a few hundred large ships were sailing silently.

It was the New World Army's ship returning to the New World.

The army numbered 200,000 when they first came to attack the World Universe, but there were less than 50,000 left at that moment. They had suffered a terrible loss!

In one of those sailboats, Florian stood quietly on the deck with a relaxed appearance.

Florian had since caught up with the New World Army's ships after leaving the Wishing Star Tower. He had met the female Commander-in-chief Sloan and explained his surrender to join the New World.

Sloan initially doubted Florian's sincerity as Darryl had previously done such.

However, she believed him when she saw those two hostages Florian brought along.

Both hostages were Darryl's women—Yvonne and Monica.

New World's defeat was all because of Darryl.

All of them hated Darryl to death regardless of the Commander-in-chief Sloan or the New World Warriors!

As such, she no longer doubted his sincerity when Sloan saw Florian had abducted Darryl's women. In addition, Sloan felt that Florian was talented for reaching the Martial Marquis at such a young age hence she accepted him.

Furthermore, Florian would know everything about their society since he was a person from the World Universe. The New World needed more people like Florian.

At that moment, Florian stood on the deck and took out his cellphone. He quickly dialed Yumi's number upon noticing the signal was getting weaker.

The call soon connected.

“Dear, how are matters going on at your end? Did they doubt you?” Florian immediately asked when the call connected.

Florian was still worried about Yumi although he had taken all the blame.

Yumi squeezed her brows at the other end of the line and impatiently said, “How dare you ask me?!”

This entire issue was due to your pruriency.
Marrying someone like you was my misfortune!”

Yumi sighed and continued, “Now all the sects had left along with those families. For the time being, they did not suspect or distrust me.”

Sigh!

Florian sighed in relief when he heard that. “That’s great. I’m now with the New World Army heading to the New World. I’ll come to bring you over once I’ve settled down at the New World. We can then live a wonderful life in the New World. Dear, who knows I might even get a good position here. By that time, I’ll bring you over here and assign a few hundred servants to serve you.”

Florian had nothing good but his mouth which was always trying to please his wife.

What woman would be able to handle his sweet words?

Although she knew Florian was good for nothing and only caused trouble all the time, Yumi still loved him with all her heart and was truly happy at that moment. However, she then warned him, “Florian, let me warn you. You cannot touch that Cult Mistress and Yvonne. You must immediately get rid of your terrible lust!”

She knew her husband too well as he would not be able to control himself when seeing beautiful women.

“Haha...”

Florian smiled and answered, “Don’t worry. Dear, how could I have feelings for other women when you’re so beautiful. I’m arriving in the New World soon and the signal is getting bad, bye.”

“You...” Yumi wanted to speak but the call had been disconnected.

Visit my YT channel! 'za zza'
For more novels and updates!

Chapter 715

On the other hand, at the Elysium Gate's Main Altar.

Darryl had finally regained his consciousness.

He felt his head was about to crack when he opened his eyes.

Previously, he had used the last single bit of his internal energy when battling against the New World Army while his body had hundreds of wounds. He was just too weak.

"Sect Master."

"Brother Darryl, it's great that you're finally awake."

At that time, many people surrounded him. All of them were members of the Elysium Gate. The Dixon quadruplets, Henry Bi-Generals, Ten Heaven Masters, and others were there.

Everyone was shocked when Darryl fainted earlier. Thank God, the Sect Master had woken up.

Darryl used all his energy to sit up on the bed and looked around. His heart sank.

The Cult Mistress and Yvonne were not there. He was afraid that Florian had abducted them and no one managed to rescue them.

Darryl's heart was in great pain as he tightly held his fist.

“Sect Master, how are you feeling? Is your body alright?” Levin asked.

Darryl waved his hands indicating he was fine. He felt terrible upon seeing the injured Elysium Gate disciples with one worse than the other.

Darryl felt his heartache when he thought about the more than ten thousand Elysium Gate disciples who had died in the battle.

“Zephyr, do you know what did you do wrong?”

At that moment, Darryl slowly crawled out of bed, looking at Zephyr, and scolded.

Zephyr's body shivered and immediately kneeled. “Brother Darryl...”

Darryl looked sternly at him with an aching heart but was furious nonetheless. “When I asked you to secretly release my parents the other day, did I tell you to fight against the Six Sects? If you didn't fight with the Six Sects, the New World won't be able to attack us by surprise. We wouldn't have lost so many disciples and neither would the other sects too!”

Darryl got angrier. “We almost lost Donghai City because of you. Do you know what you’ve done wrong!?”

Zephyr was fully wrapped up like a mummy due to the hundreds of wounds all over his body. He was lucky to be alive but was really weak at that moment.

Darryl’s heart was in pain when he saw him. He knew Zephyr had fought with the Six Sect just to save his parents. It was that fight that nearly caused them to lose Donghai City.

He did not want to punish Zephyr, but he needed to!

“Sect Master, I know I’m wrong. You can punish me in whatever way and I’ll not complain,” said Zephyr while still kneeling.

Zephyr knew he made a huge mistake, but he did not regret it.

Darryl sacrificed his parents' to save their society. How could he as his subordinate not take action?!

“Fine.”

Darryl took a deep breath and clearly said, “The punishment will be a hundred strokes of the cane.”

What?

One hundred cane strokes.

Henry Bi-General and Nimbus were instantly shocked.

Zephyr had sustained countless injuries when bravely fighting against the New World Army earlier. It was lucky he was still alive, but one hundred cane strokes might cause Zephyr to lose his life!

The next second, everyone kneeled in unison and begged for forgiveness.

“Sect Master, please forgive Zephyr.”

“Yes, please let him go as he had fought with his life to defend the Wishing Star Tower.”

“Brother Darryl.”

Darryl sighed when he saw everyone begging for his forgiveness. After around half a minute of silence, he opened his mouth and said, “Zephyr, the mistake you made was huge, but you’ve fought all out to defend Donghai City. I shall lighten your sentence to twenty cane strokes instead of a hundred.”

Darryl then waved his hand. “Bring him away.”

As he spoke, two Elysium Gate disciples came and carried Zephyr away.

“Thank you, brother Darryl.” Zephyr did not show any fear and only replied tearfully.

His mistake was huge as he could have caused Donghai City to be conquered. According to Elysium Gate's rules, Darryl could have him executed but instead only sentenced him to twenty cane strokes. He had already treated him kindly.

...

On the other end, the New World.

Florian followed the New World Army back to the New World.

Florian was really excited upon stepping down the ship onto the New World's soil.

There were no cars, airplanes, or even high rise buildings in the New World. Florian felt he had gone back to ancient times.

The size of the New World was larger than the World Universe with each city being unique not to forget the beautiful scenery along the way.

Sloan rode on the Blood Horse, leading 50,000 New World Army, walked for several days before arriving at the Royal City.

Florian felt so excited from seeing the grand palace buildings.

The New World Palace looked similar to the World

Universe Palace with the difference being its area was several times wider.

All the soldiers patrolling the palace were Great Warriors.

At that moment, the Cult Mistress and Yvonne were completely tied up.

Sloan led Florian, the Cult Mistress, and Yvonne into Full Energy Hall.

The grand and royal Full Energy Hall was where the New World Emperor would meet his subjects to discuss the country's matters.

Once they stepped into Full Energy Hall, they saw about a hundred ministers standing orderly at both sides of the hall with each of them looking stern and serious.

In the middle of the hall, a big-bodied person dressed in a golden dragon robe sat on the large dragon chair with a stern face. He looked regal and seems to be well-respected.

Chapter 716

He was the New World Emperor.

Next to the New World Emperor sat a beautiful lady dressed in a phoenix robe. The robe showed her perfect body while her beautiful features and energy gave the impression that she was the queen of the world.

She was none other than the Empress.

Florian's heart raced as he was intimidated by the Emperor's energy.

However, his heart melted the next second when he looked at the Empress.

'Wow.'

'That's the Empress. How beautiful!'

At that moment, Florian momentarily lost his mind as he took a deep breath.

Both Yvonne and Monica were also nervous when they saw that.

They were at the New World Palace and before their eyes were the Emperor and Empress.

Both Yvonne and Monica felt the whole situation happening before them was a nightmare.

“Your Majesty.” Sloan approached with a bow.

As the Warrior Goddess of the New World, Sloan’s position was unique, and did not need to kneel in front of the Emperor.

The New World Emperor nodded as he looked at Sloan and smiled. “Sloan, you were leading our army to conquer the World Universe. Why did you return so soon?”

Although Sloan was a lady, she was his most trusted commander-in-chief. The New World Emperor had high hopes for her conquest of the World Universe. Sloan felt ashamed and smiled bitterly. “Sloan is ashamed, I’ve let Your Majesty down.” Sloan then went on to inform him in great detail about their attack on Donghai City.

In the end, Sloan showed a depressed face. “Your Majesty, our defeat to the World Universe was truly closely connected to that Darryl.”

‘What?’

‘The Warrior Goddess was defeated?’

The ministers standing at both sides instantly started whispering.

Sloan was the Warrior Goddess who had won countless battles all these years and had never been defeated.

It was unbelievable that she did not manage to conquer such a small Donghai City on her World Universe conquest!

The New World Emperor was curious and he looked at Sloan. “You’re saying that Darryl is very powerful?”

Sloan looked down feeling embarrassed. “Not too powerful, he’s only at the Martial Saint level.”

The New World Emperor squeezed his brows and again asked, “Then, could he fight well? Is his formation very strong?”
Sigh!

Sloan took a deep breath with her face completely turning red and bitterly said, “His leadership in the war was normal.”

Sloan then continued, “However, this person has many connections with many strong people coming to his assistance.”

After she spoke, the New World Emperor then looked at Florian and others. “These three people are...”

Before he finished, Sloan spoke, “Your Majesty, this man is Darryl's brother, Florian who had a conflict with Darryl. He wanted to surrender and join our New World."

"Greetings Your Majesty, I am Florian."

Florian bowed and quickly said, "I am from a family in Donghai City and swear to be loyal to Your Majesty till I die."

"Fine, fine..."

The New World Emperor smiled and nodded. "As long as you remain loyal and contribute to the New World, I'll guarantee all the wealthy for you to enjoy."

Florian was so happy upon hearing that and bowed before saying, "Thank you, Your Majesty."

Yvonne and Monica felt disgusted with Florian's actions.

Florian was really the perfect traitor candidate.

Sloan then continued introducing, "These two ladies here are Monica and Yvonne. Both of them are Darryl's women. Florian had abducted them as presents to Your Majesty."

'What?'

'Both of them are Darryl's women?'

At that moment, not only the New World Emperor

but also all the ministers looked towards the Cult Mistress and Yvonne.

The Cult Mistress was wearing a pencil skirt.

Although her tummy was big from the pregnancy, her body shape was still alluring.

As for Yvonne, she was only wearing a pair of jeans, and yet all the men could not stop looking at her curves.

All women in the New World wore long dresses and as such the ministers had never seen such beautiful clothes before. The two women's clothes were way too sexy for them.

At that moment, Florian rushed forward and politely said, "Your Majesty, I've abducted these two exceptionally beautiful women as an offering to Your Majesty."

Florian felt regrets upon saying that.

He kept thinking about the two beautiful women when he was at sea. Florian had attempted many times to find opportunities and enjoy their beauty.

However, Florian decided to offer them to the New World Emperor after further thoughts. Once he had gotten the New World Emperor's recognition, he would later be rich and there would be many other women for his enjoyment.

Florian smiled with that thought in mind.

“Good.”

The New World Emperor nodded and said to Florian, “I can feel your sincerity and loyalty.”

As he spoke, the New World Emperor could not divert his eyes away upon laying eyes on both Yvonne and Monica.

In truth, both Yvonne and Monica were goddesses that even the Emperor with so many mistresses could not help but sighed. Both of them were like fairies with much better faces and bodies in comparison to the Empress.

The New World Emperor slowly rose as he stepped down and walked in front of the Cult Mistress and Yvonne.

The New World Emperor nodded after admiring them closely. He could no longer control himself as he lifted a finger and touched Yvonne’s face before squeezed her chin. He then went very close towards Yvonne’s ears and softly said, “Beauty, do you want to be my woman?”