

Chapter 724

Dax gathered his thoughts, quickly carried Nancy, and rushed out the door.

“Dear, you’ll be fine. You’ll be fine.”

After he left, everyone could still hear Dax’s cries from afar.

Chester’s eyes turned completely red as he looked at Darryl and coldly said, “Darryl, this must have been done by someone in the Darby family. Did you notice just now that Nancy’s hand was holding on to a piece of cloth? That was the same cloth she used to wrap the Supreme Mystery Scripture.” Chester had calmed down at that moment as he started looking around.

He was right. The Supreme Mystery Scripture was gone...

Darryl’s body shivered as someone appeared in his mind!

Yumi!

That’s right. In the entire Darby family, she would be the only one who would do such heinous acts.

Darryl rushed out of the room with that thought in mind.

Bang!

He kicked open Yumi's room only to discover that the room was empty and Yumi was nowhere to be seen.

The room was a mess! Yumi's clothes and pants were all over the floor with some of her jewelry scattered on the floor too.

It was obvious that Yumi had run away in a hurry.

“Sh*t Yumi!”

Darryl held his fist tightly and hit the wall. He was furious!

There was no need to think further, it must be Yumi. It was her!

“Yumi, I'll find you no matter where you run to.”
Darryl roared as he left with his eyes completely red.

Just as he walked out of the mansion, he saw a beautiful shadow walking towards him.

It was Megan!

Megan's hand was holding onto a piece of clothing that was shining under the moonlight. It was Darryl's Celestial Silkworm Armor.

Abbess Mother Serendipity had handed Megan the armor to return to Darryl earlier.

She had misunderstood Darryl earlier and Abbess Mother Serendipity did not want to take further advantage of Darryl. At the same time, she was too prideful to personally return the armor to him.

“Darryl!”

Megan happily called and walked over as she bit her lips and softly said, “My good brother, Master has asked me to return you the armor.”

Megan handed over the Celestial Silkworm Armor as she spoke.

Darryl took the armor before turning and left as he did not wish to speak.

“My good brother...” Megan worriedly followed him and said, “Dear Brother, are you still angry at me? I know I’m wrong. Please forgive me.”

Darryl did not even look at her and coldly said, “Leave, I don’t want to speak with you.”

She knew she was wrong? What was the point now?

Would Chester’s wife return alive? Darryl’s heart ached the moment he thought of Megan killing Chester’s wife at the Eternal Life Island.

There was no remedy to that and he would never forgive her his whole life!

Feeling Darryl's coldness, Megan added, "Dear Brother, I know I was wrong and treated you badly. I abducted your parents to the Wishing Star Tower and treated them without respect. I know I'm wrong. Why don't I apologize to them a few days later? Is that alright?"

Megan's eyes were full of hope as she spoke.

After the New World Army retreated from the battle at the Wishing Star Tower, the Elysium Gate disciples had sent Darryl's parents to the Carter family.

All of the sects were present, Megan also knew it and felt so regretful. She hoped for Darryl's forgiveness.

As long as he could forgive her, she would immediately go over to the Carter family and apologize to his parents.

"Dear Brother, please forgive me." Megan did not know what else to do. She walked closer and hugged Darryl.

She hugged him tightly and stuck her red lips on Darryl's ear as she softly begged, "Dear Brother, I beg you. Please don't be angry..."

Chapter 725

“Let go!” Darryl coldly said.

Darryl smelt a nice scent while being tightly hugged, but the anger was still burning in his heart.

“Let go! You don’t have to speak anymore. We’ll never be able to return as before.” Darryl said strongly before pushing Megan away.

After he spoke, Darryl turned and left.

“Brother...” Megan was disappointed. “Dear Brother, I kneel and apologize to you. Please.”

“No, thank you.”

Darryl turned and left without turning back after he spoke.

...

Meanwhile, on the shores of Donghai City.

In the darkness, a woman with an alluring body was walking along the beach. Her unique face was filled with fear.

It was Yumi.

Yumi initially planned to stay with the Darby family for a longer time and wait for Florian to settle down in the New World before meeting him.

However, she could not resist the allure once she saw the Supreme Mystery Scripture. She had nowhere to go at the moment with her only option was to take the risk and travel toward the New World.

Yumi mumbled as she walked, “Florian, you’re lucky to have married me. You’ll be so happy when I find you at the New World and pass the seven scriptures volumes to you.”

Yumi held the seven scriptures tightly and was beyond excited. There was a rumor saying that one who gathered all seven scriptures would be able to rule the world!

While she was excited, she was also puzzled about journeying to the New World. She had heard there was the Sea of Death between the World Universe and the New World with nothing able to float on it—not even a leaf. What should she do?

Yumi was still thinking and suddenly smiled as walked faster ahead.

She saw there were some sailboats not far from the shore. The sailboats were left behind by the New World Army when they retreated.

200,000 army troopers came, but only several ten thousand remained when they returned, hence there were many unused sailboats abandoned at the shores.

All the sailboats were specially made by the New World Emperor. It was unsure what materials were used, but it could cross the Sea of Death.

Yumi tightly held the scriptures before picking the largest boat and jumped into it.

Once she was on board, she heard a man's voice behind her.

“You want to head over to the New World?”

Yumi was startled upon hearing the voice. She turned and was stunned.

There was a handsome twenty-odd-year-old man dressed completely in black who stood quietly behind her.

“W-who are you?” Yumi was in shock and trembled as she asked.

The man smiled. “Beauty, don't worry. For you to jump onto this boat, are you perhaps heading to the New World? I'm also heading there. Shall we go together?”

Darryl would have been shocked if he saw the man.

The man was none other than Donoghue Dixon, the Dixon family's young master who escaped when his family was destroyed.

That was right. He was the person who bought a lot of presents for Lily and also the one that had Dax stabbed thirty-six times!

Ever since the Dixon family was destroyed, Donoghue had been wandering around while upgrading his powers and planning to seek Darryl for revenge at Donghai City. However, he had not expected Darryl to be so powerful now.

After some debate, Donoghue decided to postpone his revenge and head to the New World for further training before returning to Donghai City.

He met Yumi when he had decided to head to the New World, hence he approached her to see if they could travel together.

However, Yumi was too worried and hugged the seven scriptures even more tightly. She thought Donoghue was a petty thief with bad intentions and coldly replied, "I'll not travel with you. Get lost! Let me warn you, I'm from Donghai City's Darby family so don't you even dare to do anything funny. Otherwise, I'll get someone to kill you."

In Yumi's opinion, the Darby family was the city's top family and anyone including that person would tremble in fear once she mentioned that.

Donoghue's face turned dark upon hearing her words!

'The Darby family?'

Chapter 726

Donoghue pursed his lips. “You’re a member of the Darby family?”

“That’s right,” said Yumi arrogantly as she thought he was frightened.

Donoghue clenched his fist tightly and squeezed a few words from his mouth. “Who is Darryl to you?”

Yumi bit her teeth and thought, ‘Darryl’s name is famous now. His Immortal Energy Palm during the Wishing Start Tower battle was famous. I must use his name to scare him away.’

With that train of thought, Yumi smiled and said, “Darryl is my second brother and I’m his sister-in-law. Go away if you know what’s good for you!”

“You’re Darryl’s sister-in-law?” Donoghue was furious as his eyes turned completely red.

Donoghue instantly reached out his hand and pressed on Yumi’s acupoints with his lightning-fast fingers.

Yumi could not react and was rendered immobile.

“You!” Yumi clenched her teeth as she did not expect that man would still take action after announcing Darryl's name.

“Darryl's sister-in-law right? You have a good body figure.” Donoghue's eyes were completely red at that moment and started the ship toward the middle of the sea. He then carried Yumi onto the deck while admiring her from up close.

There was only a single boat in the deep sea with only Donoghue and Yumi in the boat.

Donoghue's eyes were like a monster as he looked at Yumi.

Yumi who wore a short skirt had a very seductive and sexy body.

“Hey, what are you doing?!”

Donoghue's eyes stopped on the bag which Yumi was holding in front of her chest.

He opened the bag and was stunned as he saw its contents.

It was the Supreme Mystery Scripture.

All seven volumes?

Donoghue's brain went blank!

“Haha, this God is blessing me. Not only have I captured Darryl's sister-in-law, but also obtained the complete Supreme Mystery Scripture!”

Donoghue could not stop laughing even after a few seconds as he was beyond excited and kissed Yumi on her red lips.

“Go away!” Yumi shouted, but her acupoints had been sealed and she could not even move an inch. She felt like dying!

Donoghue then went further as voices of Yumi’s resistance could be heard in the middle of the sea.

Under Donoghue’s attacks, Yumi could not hold on anymore and soon gave in to him.

...

Meanwhile, at Carter's mansion.

The dining table was filled with delicious food as six people were seated around the table—the four Carter family members and Darryl’s parents.

Daniel and Zoran had known each other for more than twenty years. They just have so much to tell each other at that moment when they gathered together.

Sara loved Darryl’s parents as she lovingly greeted them as Uncle and Auntie.

On the other hand, Rachel was sitting quietly and dissatisfied on the side. She was already annoyed when Darryl stayed with them but Darryl’s parents were there at that moment. They looked like just villagers with their poor-looking attires. Rachel was annoyed just from looking at them and sat there with her dark face.

After a few rounds of drinks, Zoran was laughing as he put down his wine glass and said to Daniel, “Daniel, there’s one thing you can never forget. Remember about our prior agreement on the arranged marriage? Rachel should be marrying Darryl by right.”

Darryl’s battle at the Wishing Star Tower was famous in society then and it would be lucky if his elder daughter Rachel could marry Darryl.

“The arranged marriage agreement, you still remembered about it!” Daniel laughed as he replied.

Zoran’s face was serious. “I remember of course. It was not a game as we both swore on it.”

As he spoke, Zoran waved at Rachel and said, “Hurry Rachel, come over here and serve tea to your uncle and auntie. You’ll have to soon call them Father and Mother. Haha!”

Rachel’s face turned pale at that moment. She felt disgusted by the sight of Darryl’s parents.

Chapter 727

Rachel stomped her feet and said, “Father, I’ve told you many times that I’ll never marry Darryl. The person I like is Ewan.”

She then turned and ran away.

News about Darryl’s battle against the New World Army at Donghai City had spread to the whole society.

Although Rachel had also heard of it, her heart could never like him no matter how capable Darryl was as she just did not like him.

“You...”

Zoran was angry, but could not do anything in front of Darryl’s parents.

“My daughter is stubborn, but her heart is kind. I apologize that you had to see that.” Zoran laughed awkwardly at Daniel.

Daniel nodded. “That’s alright, young people all have the same characters.”

Rachel upsettingly ran out of the door and looked blankly into the sky.

She could not understand why her father wanted her to marry Darryl.

It looked like Darryl's parents would be staying there for a long period of time.

No, she could not stay there anymore.

She reached out to her cellphone and dialed Ewan's number with that train of thought. "Ewan, please take me away..."

...

Meanwhile, at the Elysium Gate Main Altar.

Darryl sat there feeling annoyed.

Darryl had just ordered Zephyr and the rest to look for Yumi.

It had been three hours and there was still no news.

"Sect Master!"

Just at that moment, an Elysium Gate disciple rushed in and politely said, "Sect Master, there's a Priest outside wanting to meet you."

'A Priest?

'From Wudang Sect?'

Darryl waved his hand as he thought. "Let him in."

The disciple went out again and returned with a Priest beside him.

The Old Priest was very skinny and weak. His robe was old yet clean and he was holding a Buddhist whisk.

It was obvious he was a priest who ventured around society.

Once the Priest stepped closer, he slightly bowed and said, "Greetings to Elysium Gate Sect Master, I am Samuel Hyde."

He sounded polite.

Darryl looked at him and asked, "Samuel, what do you want from me?"

Darryl could clearly feel that Samuel was only a Level Five Master General. His power was not high, but his energy was admirable.

"I hear the Elysium Gate Sect Master is very generous. Anyone that joins the Elysium Gate will be awarded an elixir. I also heard the Sect Master has a lot of Godly Pills." Priest Samuel then smiled and slowly said, "I am here to ask for the Godly Pill."

Darryl looked at him and lightly said, "I see. You can head toward the registration area and once you've joined Elysium Gate, I shall grant you a Godly Pill."

Chapter 728

Darryl waved his hand as he spoke, “You may go now.”

However, Samuel did not move at all. He instead smiled and said, “Sect Master, you have misunderstood me. I am a freethinker and never have the intention to join any sects.”

What?

He wanted the Godly Pill but did not want to join Elysium Gate?

Darryl furrowed his brow from displeasure.

Levin who was standing beside Darryl scolded, “Hey, Priest. Are you teasing us? The Sect Master will award you with a Godly Pill if you joined the Elysium Gate. You do not wish to join any sect but you want a Godly Pill. Are you crazy? Leave...”

Levin walked forward to chase him away as he spoke.

Samuel was not nervous at all as he shouted towards Darryl, “Sect Master Darby, I won’t just take your Godly Pill for free. I’ll exchange something with you in return.”

“I am born with a free soul and do not wish to join any sect. I am here today to ask for a Godly Pill to help me make a breakthrough into the Martial Marquis level. I’ll have no regrets if I could reach the Martial Marquis level. I offer this in exchange for your Godly Pill.”

The Priest reached out his wrist as he spoke and an amulet appeared in his hand.

The amulet was shining softly.

Darryl was stunned when he saw that and asked, “Did you generate the amulet yourself?”

Darryl looked closely at Samuel as he spoke.

There were many types of cultivation for example—elixir production, amulets production, weapons production, and many others.

The most commonly seen were those that produced elixirs. On the other hand, the ones that produced amulets or weapons were rare.

Samuel smiled and shook his head. “I do not have the capabilities to produce amulets. This amulet was passed down to me by my ancestors.”

Darryl was curious. “Please tell me what the amulet does and why do you think you can trade it for a Godly Pill?”

The Godly Pill may not be worth much to Darryl, but it was every cultivator's dream to have one.

Samuel smiled and looked at Darryl. "Sect Master Darryl, this amulet is called the Wonder Travel Amulet. You can channel your internal energy into the amulet when in danger and it'll send you away. This amulet could save your life when you're in danger."

Samuel then continued, "I'm unsure if my amulet is worth trading a Godly Pill."

'Interesting.'

Darryl squeezed his brows and said, "I just need to channel my internal energy into the amulet and it'll send me away when I'm in danger?"

"That's right." Samuel nodded.

"Where will it send you to?" Darryl asked.

Samuel touched his chin and said, "I'm not sure. The world is so vast that it can send you anywhere. It could perhaps send you to any part of the world."

Send anywhere?

Darryl laughed and thought, 'What if I'm in danger and channeled all my internal energy into the amulet only to be sent to the middle of the sea? Or perhaps sent me thousands of meters up in the sky.'

At that time, I'll die from the fall instead.'

The world was so vast with countless dangerous places. There was a high possibility one could be sent to a dangerous place instead.

“That’s fine, I don’t want your amulet.”

Darryl already had the Celestial Silkworm Armor on top of his powers as a Martial Saint. It was a slim chance for him to be in danger, hence he did not need the amulet.

Samuel then flipped his hand again and revealed two more amulets. “Sect Master Darby, what if I add -on another two Obedient Amulets? I just want a Godly Pill.”

Chapter 729

Obedient Amulet?

Darryl was interested. “What is an Obedient Amulet?”

Samuel laughed and said, “Sect Master Darby, these two Obedient Amulets are something very useful. You just need to stick the amulet on the person’s body and they will be obedient to you. Its effect can last for ten minutes!”

Samuel had stayed at Level Five Master General for a long time and did not manage to make a breakthrough so far. It was his dream to get the Godly Pill!

In truth, the two Obedient Amulets and Wonder Travel Amulet were all he had.

The two Obedient Amulets sounded interesting as Darryl laughed. “Fine, I shall exchange with you.”

‘What?’

‘Brother Darryl agrees to the exchange?’

Levin’s face changed as he softly said, “Brother Darryl, could this Priest be lying?”

Darryl waved his hand. The Old Priest was only a Master General. He would not dare cheat the Elysium Gate Master unless he did not want to live.

Samuel was really excited and quickly stepped forward to hand over the three amulets.

Darryl also walked over with a Godly Pill.

Samuel then happily thanked him and immediately left.

After he left, Levin could not help but asked, "Sect Master, the three amulets are rare but it's quite a waste to exchange a Godly Pill for them."

Darryl laughed. In other people's viewpoint, his actions of exchanging three amulets with a Godly was a big loss.

No matter what, the Godly Pill was the dream elixir of all cultivators.

However, in Darryl's opinion, he did suffer a loss as producing the Godly Pill was a relaxing task.

Levin did not speak further.

At that time, Darryl put the three amulets into his clothes and ordered, "Levin, please send my orders to Elysium Gate disciples. We must locate Yumi. Keep her at the Elysium Gate Main Altar once she's found!"

Darryl then left the Elysium Gate Main Altar.

The next most important thing was to rush to the New World. Dax would not be able to join them as his wife had suffered a serious injury and he needed to take care of Nancy.

As such, Darryl headed toward Donghai City to meet Chester before embarking on their journey.

...

Meanwhile.

A sailboat was moving on its own in the middle of the sea.

There were two people on the boat—Donoghue and Yumi.

Visit my YT channel za zza
For more novels and updates!

After their sessions, Donoghue put on his clothes and lit a cigarette from his pocket before taking a deep breath.

Not far away, Yumi was crying while looking at Donoghue with killing intent.

She was raped by him.

Donoghue finished his cigarette and threw the bud into the sea before walking over to Yumi and lifted her chin with his finger. “Beauty, don’t look at me like that. This is still very far from the New World and the journey is still very long. We need to rely on each other, haha.”

Darryl's sister-in-law was indeed really sexy.

What they had just now was really memorable.

"Go! Go away!" Yumi clenched her teeth with eyes full of anger.

Yumi wanted to slice Donoghue into pieces.

"You want me to leave? Not only I won't leave, but I'll also torture you every day." An evil glimmer could be seen in Donoghue's eyes as he gave Yumi a big slap!

Slap!

Donoghue used his full strength when he slapped Yumi who then shouted in pain. A bright red mark appeared on her face.

"Y-you'll soon be dead!" Yumi was furious and upset as she shouted at Donoghue.

"Haha, I'll be dead? One day, I'll make sure everyone in the Darby family dies!" Donoghue laughed coldly. "Let me tell you, Darryl's sister-in-law. You're sent to me by God for redemption. Understand?"

As he spoke, Donoghue went forward one more time and gave a few tight continuous slaps.

Slap! Slap! Slap!

Each slap could be heard loud and clear.

Visit my YT channel 'za zza'
For more novels and updates!

Chapter 730

The loud sounds from the slaps were rather intimidating!

The slaps were heavier than the one before.

Yumi could not stop shouting. She wanted to struggle but her acupoint was sealed, hence she could not move at all.

At that moment, Donoghue reached his hand out and grabbed her hair before he coldly said, “The truth is that I’m Donoghue Dixon, the young master of Yunzhou City’s Dixon family.”

What?

Yumi was shocked as she stared blankly at Donoghue.

The news about the Dixon family’s destruction was heard by every family in Donghai City. Yumi naturally heard of it too.

“Did you know that it’s your second brother Darryl who destroyed my family? If not because of him, I won’t be wandering around like a zombie!”

“How should I treat you then since you claimed to be Darryl’s sister-in-law after all?”

Donoghue held his fist as he spoke.

Yumi looked blankly at Donoghue without saying a word.

The bastard Darryl created troubles, but she was the one suffering on his behalf. What bad luck!

Yumi was furious as her tears could not stop falling. She then shouted at Donoghue, “You should go after Darryl instead since he’s the one who destroyed your Dixon family. What kind of man are you to rape a weak woman!”

Donoghue smiled. “You can stop pretending to be pure. Your reactions did not look like you were suffering when I touched you earlier. Don’t worry, I’ll let you taste more since you enjoyed it.”

“You!”

Yumi’s body was shivering with a blushed face. She could not fight back and had lost hope.

...

Meanwhile.

Darryl who arrived at Donghai City headed to the Oriental Pearl.

Darryl had called Chester a moment ago and they had agreed to meet at the Oriental Pearl before heading to the New World.

Darryl furrowed his brows as he had just stepped out from the cab in front of the Oriental Pearl.

He sensed some anger from not far away and He looked around before seeing Abbess Mother Serendipity leading a few female disciples coming from not far away. All of them looked angry.

“Darryl!”

Abbess Mother Serendipity quickly walked closer. “I ’m asking you, where’s Megan?”

Megan?

Darryl was stunned and replied, “I no longer have any connection with Megan. How will I know where she is?”

Darryl had never had a good impression of Abbess Mother Serendipity and was even more annoyed seeing her attitude.

Abbess Mother Serendipity was furious as she pointed at Darryl and scolded, “Stop pretending, Darryl. I sent Megan yesterday night to return the armor to you and she hasn't returned till now. Tell me what did you do to her?”

Abbess Mother Serendipity’s eyes showed worry apart from rage as she spoke.

Megan was her favorite disciple.

The few female disciples behind her also came forward once she had spoken.

“Speak, where’s Sister Megan?”

“You must’ve captured Sister Megan.”

All of them had concluded that it must be Darryl who had captured Megan.

Regardless, Megan had killed Chester’s wife and since both of them were godbrothers Darryl was definitely the main suspect for Megan’s disappearance.

However, they did not know that Megan felt horrible from the rejection yesterday night when she returned the armor to Darryl and begged for his forgiveness.

She shut off her phone, sat by the shore, and was enjoying the sea breeze.

Darryl laughed. “Abbess Mother Serendipity, did you forget to take your medicine when you leave home today? You lost a disciple and came looking for me to find her? What type of ideas are you having? I have no time to waste with you as I have something important to do. Get out of my way!”

Darryl then pushed the two Emei Sect disciples and walked away.

“Darryl, stand there!”

Just as he took two steps away, he heard Abbess Mother Serendipity shouting behind him.

The next second, Abbess Mother Serendipity turned her body and charged towards Darry. “Don’t even think of leaving if you don’t hand Megan over today.”

Visit my YT channel 'za zza'
For more novels and updates!