

The impact of this punch alone sent Fang Yin flying right out. The terrifying initial impact of the punch made Fang Yin's face redden immediately, and the remnant of the impact went right through the rest of his body.

His gaze flickered and he could hardly believe it.

“The Extreme Fist...”

He stared in shock at Jiang Ning and simply couldn't believe that Jiang Ning had reached this level.

This was much higher than whatever the reclusive clans had managed to achieve over all these years!

“How can this be?”

“Nothing is impossible.” Jiang Ning kept his fists away.

He hadn't thrown this punch in order to kill Fang Yin. It wasn't difficult for him to kill Fang Yin, actually.

But it was meaningless to kill him now.

“There's a little error in the information you have,” said Jiang Ning. “You think that the Extreme Fist Technique Manual is useful only when all the pages have been gathered together, but that is a mistake in itself. I might still need you to find that place, but if you remain stubborn like this, I don't mind sending you to hell in advance."

Fang Yin's expression was nasty.

Each of the nine pages of the manual was different, but not everyone could understand the spirit of boxing, and not everyone could truly comprehend and attain enlightenment.

Why! Why?!

When these pages landed in Jiang Ning's hands, it seemed like they had been tailor-made for Jiang Ning and he could understand them so easily.

Fang Yin couldn't understand what was going on anymore.

He stared straight at Jiang Ning and didn't say anything for a long time. But his clenched fists slowly relaxed.

He only understood one thing. Jiang Ning didn't kill him because he just didn't want to.

If Jiang Ning wanted to kill him, it wouldn't be difficult for Jiang Ning to do so.

Fang Yin suddenly felt like Jiang Ning was from a completely different universe and was beyond his comprehension.

It was as if a layer of fog was covering Jiang Ning, so he couldn't see exactly how powerful this man really was.

Was the Extreme Fist Technique Manual so frightening?

"Get in!" Jimmy had driven over and screeched to a halt next to Fang Yin as he looked warily at Jiang Ning.

He didn't expect Jiang Ning to be here, and was even more surprised that Fang Yin was no match for Jiang Ning at all. If this went on, neither of them would be able to leave this place alive.

Fang Yin looked deeply at Jiang Ning but didn't say anything. He got into the car and they drove off.

He didn't want to die. At least not now!

Jiang Ning's face was expressionless and wasn't bothered at all as he watched Jimmy's car drive off.

"Aren't you going to catch them?" said Lance.
"These bastards actually dared to attack my sister!"

"That's your clan's problem," replied Jiang Ning.

“That has nothing to do with me.”

He was concerned with just certain matters, and uninterested in everything else.

With that, Jiang Ning ignored them and walked into the shrine.

Lance froze and just shrugged helplessly. He knew Jiang Ning’s temperament well. Jiang Ning didn’t care about what others thought. He was grateful enough that Jiang Ning was willing to rescue Lana for him.

“Lana, I’m so glad that you are alright!” Lance breathed a sigh of relief. “I was so worried!”

“Who is he?” Lana wasn’t bothered by this. She watched Jiang Ning walk away and couldn’t help but ask, “He actually managed to make the Yamaguchi Syndicate literally walk me out of my room.”

“I don’t know,” Lance shook his head.

“You don’t know either?” Lana was stunned.

Lance didn’t even know who Jiang Ning was and dared to get him to help rescue her?

Her expression suddenly fell. “Did you strike a deal with them?”

There was no other reason why Jiang Ning would take such a great risk and rescue her.

“They’re developing high tech integrated circuits, so I promised to provide them with the technology and...”

“What nonsense are you talking about?!” Lana’s expression immediately paled. “That’s impossible!”

Just as she said this, Jiang Ning stopped at the doorway and turned to frown as he looked at Lana who had gone back on Lance’s word.

Lance immediately panicked.

“Lana, I’ve already promised him!” He glanced at Jiang Ning and wasn’t sure if Jiang Ning was angry.

They were still in Tokyo and were still on the Yamaguchi Syndicate’s territory. If Jiang Ning became unhappy, they could be re-captured by the Yamaguchi Syndicate.

The clan wasn’t going to save them!

“Your promise doesn’t count.” Lana wasn’t backing down.

She looked at Jiang Ning. “Lance has no say in this and cannot make a decision about this. The technology for the integrated circuits is classified information within the family and cannot be shared with others. I hope you can understand.”

Lance nearly fainted.

Hope Jiang Ning could understand?

How was that supposed to happen?

Jiang Ning must have paid a high price to be able to rescue Lana, but now they were going back on their word. That was as good as courting death.

Didn't Lana see how Jiang Ning managed to defeat Fang Yin so easily just now?

Even the Salos would not want to offend someone with such prowess!

Lance really panicked and didn't know how to explain himself now.

He never thought of lying to Jiang Ning. He wouldn't dare to!

"Sure, I understand," Jiang Ning unexpectedly nodded.

He then walked into the shrine without saying anymore.

Lana was a little stunned while Lance went into a daze.

He was so afraid that Jiang Ning would get angry and smite them on the spot.

But Jiang Ning just frowned and walked away without saying anything?

"Lance, you can't just promise others things like this. These are not things that you and I can decide on, do you understand?" Lana took a deep breath. "This sort of classified information is the edge that the Salo family has over everyone else, so how could we give it away?"

“The Salo family? Have they cared about whether you live or die?” Lance shook his head. “I promised Jiang Ning this already. He rescued you, so I have to support him with our technology. This is a fair and equal exchange.”

“To me, nothing is more important than your survival.”

“You’re not thinking straight!”

“You are the one who’s not thinking straight!” said Lance. “No matter what, everyone ought to be a man of his word! If we go back on our word, we won’t be able to bear the consequences of doing so!”

He quickly ran after Jiang Ning while Lana angrily stomped her feet.

“Jiang Ning!” Lance quickly caught up with Jiang Ning and panted heavily. “I’ll definitely do what I promised you. Please don’t be angry, I’m not someone who goes back on his word.”

Jiang Ning barely glanced at him.

“Who knows?”

He didn’t bother about Lance and treated Lance like air. Regardless of what Lance said, Jiang Ning didn’t pay him any attention.

Lance was starting to panic.

But he knew that nothing he said now would work.

Lana's words earlier had clearly offended Jiang Ning.

Since Jiang Ning ignored him, Lance could only sigh and walk back to the main gate where Lana was.

"Why aren't we going in?" asked Lana.

"We can't go in anymore." Lance glanced at her a little helplessly. "He didn't chase us away, but he's not going to care about us anymore."

"It doesn't matter, we don't need him to bother about us," said Lana. "Let's go back to our clan. Once we're back home, everything's going to be alright."

The Salos were one of the top families in the Third World, so once they got back, nobody would be able to hurt them anymore. Lana still felt this way.

Lance wanted to say something but didn't say anything in the end.

He called the bodyguards who came with him to Tokyo to escort them to the airport immediately. He didn't dare to stay too long in Tokyo.

But once they reached the airport, they saw a familiar group of people waiting outside the entrance.

“Heifer?”

Lance frowned slightly. The clan had sent someone here for them?

Lana had just been rescued and someone from the clan was here as if they had arrived a long time ago and were just waiting for them outside the airport.

They were about to go over when a bodyguard held him back.

“Mr Lance, don’t move!”
