

Chapter 106

Although everyone agreed that Flavia's flirting was cute, she wasn't doing it to the right person.

Felicity looked at the people around her who were gnashing their teeth but she felt warm inside.

She knew William was trying to give her a chance to spend time and talk to Flavia, so she did not hesitate even if everyone hated her.

This silly William!

"Felicity, let's not be bothered by him. We should chat more!" Flavia poked Felicity and said with a smile.

Flavia's words were exactly what she wanted to hear. She was over the moon.

"Sister Flavia, I'm a huge fan of yours. I'm super obsessed with you!" Felicity proclaimed. William was dumbfounded.

No one should say that in front of their idol!

Flavia smiled and said, "I like you too. Should we exchange contacts?"

Felicity was super overwhelmed. The crowd had slowly gotten used to this dumbfounding scene.

The two beauties looked as if they were very in love with each other.

After the two of them had exchanged their contacts, Flavia smiled and said, "We can chat often in the future."

Just as Flavia was saying it, she deliberately glanced at William and joked seductively, "Hey, add me on WeChat, or I will beat you up!"

William didn't want to add Flavia but Felicity gave him a hard pinch under the table. He was forced to grin and obey.

This scene once again made the crowd extremely angry.

Seeing everyone's anger, Flavia smiled slyly and said in a low voice, "Everyone seems like they want to kill us. I'd better go, I have something to do anyway. I'll contact you again in the next few days."

Simultaneously, she raised her glass of drink and politely toasted at the guests.

Although like Elizabeth, Flavia only came for a short while, she was much friendlier.

Her departure had caused a lot of regret and praise.

After Flavia left, the atmosphere was restored.

Nathan had lost his mood and appetite. He kept glaring at Felicity and William.

"Don't even expect me to save face for you when I sign the contract later!" Nathan murmured.

When everyone was enjoying their meal, Nathan suddenly stood up and announced, "To all my guests, I will be signing a secondary agent contract with the Genuine Care Medical Center later in the hall next door. If anyone would like to become my witness, please, you're very welcome to join the ceremony."

His words were very polite and inviting.

Since he was the investor of the alumni's meeting, no one dared to refuse his invitation.

All of a sudden, he was showered with compliments.

"We would definitely like to be your witness! We can't wait to get some advice from you!"

"Yes! We'll probably need your help some time soon!"

"The future star of Qena City has finally emerged! I'm so jealous!"

Nathan heard everyone's support and nodded with satisfaction.

Finally, he had earned back the spotlight.

"William and Felicity, what about you?" Nathan suddenly looked over and challenged them.

Felicity was stunned.

Of course, she was needed at the signing ceremony. If she weren't there, no one could sign that exclusive agent contract.

But she knew that Nathan wanted to humiliate them.

William answered on behalf of Felicity, "Okay, sure, we'll have a look."

Everyone was already very angry with William. After listening to his answer, they couldn't help but laugh, "I bet he doesn't dare to refuse Nathan!"

"Huh, if he refuses Nathan, Nathan would probably refuse to pay for his portion too!"

"Don't be so arrogant just because you know Flavia. In the end, it's your own strength that claims your value in society. Nathan will demonstrate later how to earn your success step by step!"

Nathan nodded happily.

Very well!

If those classmates did not go, he would teach them a lesson anyway!

Everyone finished their meal quickly and rushed to the hall next door.

By then, the hall was already full of people.

After all, there were more than a dozen secondary agents who were signing their contracts.

On the stage, a screen showed "Signing Ceremony For Genuine Care Medical Center Agents".

As soon as the alumni arrived, the hall immediately became lively.

There were not many seats, so they stood at the back, actively supporting Nathan who was sitting in front of them.

They were making a huge scene. The other pharmaceutical companies were very annoyed.

"Is he here to sign a contract or for a big fight?" one of the agents said in annoyance.

Nathan, on the other hand, was obviously very satisfied with the effect.

He felt boosted by the crowd. He purposely asked them to be there, not only to witness his success...

More importantly, to take advantage of public opinion.

Nathan chuckled.

Ten minutes later, someone shouted, "Please welcome Miss. Melissa Wang from the Genuine Care Medical Center."

Everyone moved, making way for Melissa.

Melissa slowly walked over in an elegant suit.

At this event, the alumni had witnessed Felicity's beauty firsthand...

Followed by Flavia's gentle temperament...

And now, they would witness Melissa's enchanting and glamorous face. Almost everyone was amazed by her aura.

"Melissa Wang is so pretty! She's indeed on a par with Felicity," someone from the alumni was astounded.

"How lucky am I today to witness the three greatest beauties in Qena City!"

"She's like the bossy goddess president! I wish I could work for her and get whipped by her!"

Melissa had reached the stage amidst the discussions.

She glanced around and saw William and Felicity among the crowd.

But she didn't slow down.

Seeing Felicity, the pharmaceutical companies all began to gossip about her.

"Finally, the real boss is here! By the way, do you have any idea who will be the exclusive agent this time?"

"We'll know later. Genuine Care Medical Center has kept us guessing."

"Once the exclusive agent is announced later, we better go make some friends. We would probably need to curry favour with the exclusive agent in future."

In his seat, Nathan kept looking back at Felicity after hearing what they said.

The previous exclusive agent was the Bai family.

But they caused their own demise.

He cruelly wanted Felicity to watch her family lose the exclusive agent to somebody else.

The alumni began to discuss the issue of the exclusive agency one after another.

Felicity was the main character in their discussions, and had become the target of everyone's ridicule.

However, at this moment, Felicity's mind calmed down.

"I'll tolerate snobs like you all for just a while more.

"I'll make your jaw drop later!" Felicity told herself.

Soon, the signing ceremony began.

First, it was a secondary agent contract signing session.

Melissa mentioned that the secondary agent signing ceremony was carried out under the permission of the exclusive distributor.

The bosses went on to the stage and quickly signed their contracts.

No one asked which company got the exclusive distributorship. They simply showered praise on everyone there.

Nathan was sitting in his seat, not in a hurry at all.

He only leisurely got up when everyone had finished signing their contracts.

On the stage, he heard the applause from his classmates.

He turned to Felicity, with his eyes full of mockery.

"Felicity, it's showtime!" Nathan said softly with a big laugh.

"Just wait and see how I shut you out, you ungrateful b*tch!" Nathan said evilly.
