

Chapter 11

Melissa and Lydia were still in a daze.

William's last move was extremely arrogant!

In order to prove the efficacy of the cream's scar-removing effect, he directly sliced at Mr. Wang's face!

After all, it didn't matter whether his ointment was so magical that it could remove scars.

This was an elderly man's face!

The skin on the old man's face was much older and poorer in texture than that of a young woman!

If William wanted to prove anything, he should have chosen a young woman to prove it!

What's more, he said that it could be proven by the next day!

"This kid actually thinks that the ointment will take effect by tomorrow!"

He was crazy!

Melissa stomped her foot and chased after William.

Lydia also grabbed William's prescription and ran away in large strides.

Lydia was worried about William.

This kid was simply playing with fire!

If the effect was not up to standards the next day, then with the influence of Mr. Wang, it would be difficult for William to stay in Qena City!

However, for some reason, Lydia felt a sense of pleasure.

This brat, William, was really good at irritating and provoking others.

It was obvious that Mr. Wang was afraid of pain, and that he did not trust William, but William still chose Mr. Wang as his target.

"Let him feel pain, let him feel wronged!"

"What if it really works tomorrow, and Mr. Wang kneels down? What would happen then..."

"No, no, no. How could it be possible?"

How could there be such a miracle product in the world...

"Alas, it hurts my head when I see such an arrogant guy."

Melissa and Lydia caught up with William and did not know what to say for a while.

However, William said calmly, "Lydia, come and work for me tomorrow."

His tone was overbearing. It was an order, not a request.

Melissa shouted directly at William, "Do you know when to stop? Lydia is my best friend. I have tried recruiting her for three years, but she hasn't been persuaded yet. You have only known her for less than two hours, and yet you dare to..."

"Yes, William, I'll work for you. I hope you can guide and protect me from now on!" Lydia nodded fervently with her eyes sparkling.

Melissa froze all of a sudden.

It had been three years!

Their three-year friendship seemed to have been destroyed just like this...

Why did Lydia choose William over Melissa? It seemed like she chose a man over their friendship!

"Lydia, you've disappointed me so much..."

"Tomorrow, we will produce a batch of 100 bottles. Lydia, you are responsible for it," William continued.

Lydia quickly nodded and said, "But, as for Mr. Wang..."

"He will bow his head and apologize in person," William said casually.

"Are you really so confident?"

"It's not confidence, it's a fact!" William said indifferently, but he was proud and arrogant, and his eyes were as bright as stars.

When William was about to say goodbye to them and go home, Melissa's voice suddenly came from behind. "Wait a minute, I have something for you."

After Melissa finished speaking, she walked to her car and came back in a while.

An exquisite box appeared in her hand.

Melissa opened the box and said lightly, "I bought this bracelet some time ago. It was originally a pair and I wanted to give it to a pig. But now it seems I can give it to you. Take it back and give it to your wife. Women should be coaxed. You'd better be smart in the future."

William did not take it seriously. He thanked her and then put it away.

But at this time, Lydia shouted, "Fk! This is Claire's Spring Bracelet! It's a global limited edition, worth more than 800,000 yuan. There are none in stock! Melissa, you didn't give it to me, but to this brat Willy?"

Melissa looked at Lydia's distressed expression and felt very happy.

"Hmph, how dare you side with others when you're my best friend? I am doing this purposely to get on your nerves."

When William got home, he saw that the lights at home had been turned off, so he put the bracelet on the sofa in the hall.

After entering the room, he found that Felicity had also fallen asleep.

She had been so exhausted these days.

William didn't want to sleep for the time being, so he began to read the "The Scripture of Tranquility".

He was extremely worried in his heart.

Rejuvenation, The Hanging Pot, Martyr, Demonic Beast, Long Live the King...

These were the names of the first five chapters in the scripture.

Since he was a child, he had been taught the first chapter of the "The Scripture of Tranquility" by his grandfather.

The first chapter contained the contents of the medicinal skills, especially the needle technique and treatment.

It took at most three years for an ordinary person to learn one chapter.

William had learned it for 20 years!

Therefore, William was very familiar with medicine and was able to write the prescription formula at will.

He wanted to skip the second chapter and read the contents of the third chapter, only to find that he was dizzy.

He closed the book in surprise and rested for a while.

Sure enough, the practice of the "The Scripture of Tranquility" could only be carried out step by step. He once again flipped open the second chapter, The Hanging Pot.

This chapter was not only about medical skills but also about how to treat one's own self!

He used the silver needles to activate the 36 major acupoints in the bodies of the people, such as the Divine Sect, the Feng Mansion, to stimulate the potential of the human body and reach the effect of building up a strong body.

William began to study the second chapter according to the instructions of the medical book.

The next day, when William opened his eyes, he felt a sense of relief.

As soon as he clenched his fist, he felt that his strength seemed to be enhanced a little bit.

He looked at the bed and found that Felicity was no longer on the bed.

He suddenly heard someone shout from outside.

He quickly went out and found that Felicity was holding the Claire's Spring Bracelet on the sofa with excitement and love in her eyes.

"William, whose bracelet is this? It's so beautiful..."

Seeing Felicity's happy look, William smiled and walked up to her and said, "This is for you. I'm happy as long as you like it."

He was sincere, but Felicity took a strange look at William. "Are you giving it to me?"

William nodded.

Felicity's heart trembled. "Hey, William, we had a heart-to-heart talk last night, and I have decided not to complain about you anymore."

"You don't have to lie to me..."

"Wouldn't I know if you have money?"

"This bracelet is expensive. Where did you get the money..." Felicity thought in her heart. She was doubtful.

"It can't be a fake glass bracelet, can it?" Felicity couldn't help murmuring.

William smiled and joked, "You dislike fake jewellery, don't you?"

Felicity's little face turned red, but she put on the bracelet and snorted at William with anger. "I want it even if it's an imitation. It's my bad luck to marry you and you didn't even give me a wedding gift. Finally, God made this blockhead open his eyes! Hmph."

Looking at Felicity being so coy and adorable, William's heart was full of tenderness.

Silly woman!

Felicity looked carefully for a long time, and the more she looked at it, the more she liked it. Finally, she reluctantly said, "My mother has gone to my grandmother's house. Let's go after dinner."

"Don't simply talk when you come to Grandma's house. Just listen to me. Grandma has a bad temper..." Felicity said to William with a little worry.

William nodded. To be frank, he could not even care about the Bai family at all. They were nothing to him.

The reason why a magnificent phoenix did not compete with common birds was that it was not worth its time. Common birds could not compare to a phoenix at all!

When they arrived at the Bai family, they saw that there were already a lot of people sitting in the living room.

However, when these people saw that Felicity had brought William here, their eyes changed.

"Felicity! Why does this boy appear here in our home again?" Rebecca shouted immediately.

William had played a trick on her yesterday, and she hated him to the maximum!

However, Felicity's eyes were firm. He even gently held William's hand and said, "I asked him to come. He is also a member of our Bai family. Grandma will hold a family meeting today, so he will be attending it with me."

William felt warmth in his heart.

He had changed.

At the same time, Felicity had also changed.

Now, when facing all these people, William and Felicity were no longer ashamed of their relationship as husband and wife. Instead, they defended each other.

But at this time, Felicity's eyes turned cold. At home, she found a person who should not be there.

Fernando Lin!

He was sitting next to Rebecca and looked at Felicity with a burning look in his eyes.

Fernando suddenly stood up. He walked over to Felicity with a box in his hand.

He opened the box in front of everyone and said to Felicity emotionally, "Felicity, I'm sorry that I didn't help you close the deal yesterday. This is my apology gift. You must accept it, or I will feel guilty."

As soon as the box was opened, the crowd exclaimed.

It was an exquisitely carved jade bracelet inside, which was glowing in a beautiful emerald green colour.

"Wow, Young Master Lin, what kind of bracelet is this? It looks so precious!" The eyes of the Bai family were shining.

Fernando said proudly, "This is a Jadeite Bracelet, it costs more than 100,000 yuan."

The crowd was once again filled with amazement. Fernando's gift was worth more than 100,000 yuan at once. He was indeed a rich man.

Fernando looked at Felicity affectionately. "Felicity, do you like it?"

Felicity frowned slightly, but suddenly showed the bracelet in his hand and said, "Sorry, my husband has also gifted me with a bracelet, so I don't need yours. I appreciate your kindness."

Fernando's expression froze. He looked at the bracelet in Felicity's hand and asked, "Can I have a look?"

Felicity hesitated for a moment, then took off the bracelet and handed it to Fernando.

Fernando looked at it and suddenly sneered. "Ha ha ha, I thought it was some kind of precious bracelet, but it turned out to be a plain glass bracelet. William, are you trying to fool your wife like this?"

Everyone looked at William, who was silent aside. Felicity's heart skipped a beat. All of a sudden, she regretted showing the bracelet to Fernando.

She cherished this bracelet in her heart not because it was real, but because of William's intention.

"It doesn't matter if it's an imitation. I like it and I wear it happily."

But now, the truth was revealed by Fernando in public, which made William lose his face in public.

"I'm sorry, William. I didn't do it on purpose!" Felicity apologized to William in a low voice.

However, William looked at Fernando and asked, "How do you know this is a fake bracelet?"

Fernando said casually, "You can have a look at this jade bracelet. It has a strange shape, and the messy filaments inside the jade look like snot. Isn't it fake? It's horribly fake!"

Everyone looked at it carefully, and sure enough, there were streaks of crystal clear green filaments in the bracelet, which looked quite exquisite...

However, if Young Master Lin said so, then, the bracelet must be an imitation without a doubt.

"Haha, William, you don't even want to buy a good gift for your wife. You want to fool her with a fake bracelet? How dare you!"

"If it weren't for Young Master Lin's sharp eyes, I would have been fooled by you today."

"It doesn't matter if a man is poor. The most important thing is that he must have dignity. What about you? You're a shame to the Bai family!" the bystanders slandered William ruthlessly.

Felicity's face turned red. She was about to snatch the bracelet back.

At this moment, Fernando threw the bracelet at the door.

"Bang."

With a crisp sound, a corner of the bracelet was smashed on the ground and it was chipped.

Felicity flew into a rage. "Fernando, what are you doing?"

Fernando looked disdainfully at the bracelet and said, "Felicity, you're so noble in my heart. How can a fake bracelet match your status? You'd better wear the Jadeite Bracelet I gave you. It's more suitable for you..."

"As for that fake one, how much is it? I'll compensate for it. I'll pay three times the value. Is that okay?"

Everyone sighed with emotion. How could there be such a big gap between human beings?

Rebecca also came over and kept persuading Felicity to accept Fernando's gift.

But at this time, a surprised voice came from the door. "Hey, who threw this bracelet here?"

Then, the voice suddenly sounded very agitated.

"This! What the f*ck! This is the exclusive Claire's Spring Bracelet!"

Chapter 12

There was a woman standing at the door.

She was Felicity's cousin, Xena Bai.

Xena had a hobby, that was, she liked to wear jewelry, and she did much research on jewelry and jades.

When she saw the bracelet on the ground, she didn't take it seriously at first, but when she picked it up and saw it, she was very excited!

Everyone turned to look at Xena.

Xena held the bracelet in both hands and strode in. She asked excitedly, "Who are you? How could you be so reckless to throw this treasure, the Claire's Spring Bracelet, at the door? Give it to me if you don't want it!"

Everyone was stunned.

"Claire's Spring Bracelet?"

Everyone had only heard of the most luxurious jade brand in the world, which was 'Claire's'.

As for the Spring Bracelet, the people present did not have a deep understanding of it, so they were all puzzled.

Rebecca couldn't help but say, "Xena, that's the glass bead bracelet William bought! It's obviously an imitation. Don't you study these jewels very thoroughly? Did you also misjudge it?"

Xena looked at everyone with a strange face. "An imitation? Do I or do you know better? This Spring Bracelet is the most popular limited edition bracelet this year. It was sold out as soon as it came out. It is said that there was a pair of bracelets at the auction in Qena City a few days ago. Unfortunately, someone bought it. At that time, the price seemed to have been raised to more than two million yuan."

Everyone was even more confused.

A pair for more than two million yuan, meaning one was more than one million yuan?

"What kind of Spring Bracelet is so expensive?"

However, Fernando had clearly said...

Fernando looked embarrassed and said to Xena, "Xena, take a good look at this bracelet. There are impurities in it. It can't be authentic. Compared to my Jadeite Bracelet..."

Fernando's words were interrupted directly by Xena. "Haha, impurities? You really know nothing about it! Do you know why the Spring Bracelet has this name? It's because of the natural green silk filaments inside the jade. It's like the spring breeze, blowing life into all living creatures."

"As for your Jadeite Bracelet, it's fake at first glance. It's made of artificial glass beads! If you don't believe me, you can put some weights on it to test it. You were cheated like a fool!"

Xena's words made everyone quiet!

They thought the bracelet presented by William was fake.

Now, it turned out that William's bracelet was real, while Fernando's bracelet was the fake one!

Xena could not suppress the excitement in her heart. She took out her mobile phone, looked for it, and then handed it to everyone. "Hey, look, everyone, this is the bracelet in the auction some time ago. I was also there, but I did not have enough money. Let's see if it's exactly the same as this one."

Everyone looked at it and found that it was exactly the same.

The scene was silent again, and everyone looked at William differently.

Where did this guy get the money to buy such a valuable bracelet!

Felicity's face was flushed with excitement. The bracelet that her husband gave her was real!

"This silly guy really told the truth! And yet he asked me if I disliked wearing fake jewellery?"

"Of course I would have thought that it was a fake! Well, he was obviously poor."

"Oh that cheeky guy! He's bad!"

"But, wait, where did you get the money?"

"When we reach home, I'll make you kneel and scrub the laundry as punishment!"

At this time, Xena was once again distressed. "How could you throw away such a good bracelet? Now it's scratched and chipped, what a waste!"

Fernando shuddered all over all of a sudden!

"That's bad!"

Just now, he didn't know that the thing that William gave to her was actually a bracelet worth millions of yuan!

This was a complete nonsense!

Therefore, he thought that the bracelet was fake and threw it away.

Now, there was a chip in it...

William suddenly looked at Fernando and said faintly, "Didn't someone say that he would pay three times the price? Anyway, he can afford it."

Everyone immediately turned to look at Fernando.

Fernando felt even more awkward than if he had eaten sh*t!

More than one million, three times the price was more than three million!

Although he came from a rich family, if he were to pay more than three million yuan at once...

Especially giving the money to this b*stard! It was worse than killing himself!

"Well, I overlooked it. I failed to recognize it..."
Fernando said in a low voice.

"It doesn't matter. Even if you are blind, it has nothing to do with me. Pay for it." William said indifferently.

Seeing this scene, Felicity couldn't help but laugh out loud.

She hadn't seen William being so scheming for a long time.

It's so cute of him to be so scheming.

Fernando was so angry that blue veins stood out on his forehead. "William! Don't push my limits!"

At this time, Felicity stood up, pulled William over, and said to Fernando, "Well, I don't want you to compensate me. However, let's write off all the previous things."

In fact, Felicity was reluctant to part with this bracelet.

It was not because it was valuable, but because it was the gift that William had given her for the first time.

It was very commemorative.

However, since it was broken now, there was nothing much she could do about it.

If he could use this bracelet to return the favor she owed to Fernando, it could be considered as a win.

However, upon hearing this, Fernando's eyes suddenly turned red!

"Haha, you wants to get out of this bind!"

"Let me tell you, there's no way out!"

"I am your savior. It's not so easy for you to escape unscathed!"

"Good! Three million, right?" He thought.

"I'll pay! I'll ask someone to send the money to you tomorrow!" Fernando said fiercely to William.

Felicity's heart skipped a beat. Sigh, it seemed that Fernando was going to keep her in a stranglehold.

"What should I do now..."

At this time, Xena leaned over to William with a flattering face and held William's arm intimately.

"William, where did you get the Spring Bracelet? I like it very much. Can you help me get one? However, I don't have that much money. I owe you, okay?"

Her flirtatious tone made the people on the scene shudder.

However, William smiled helplessly.

Xena was the only person in the Bai family who more straightforward and honest. She was not a scheming woman.

She was kind-hearted. In the past few years, she had helped Felicity to fight against the rumors outside.

Thinking of this, William said, "Okay, I will buy you one."

After that, William took out the phone and called Melissa directly. "Do you still have another one of the Claire's Spring Bracelet on hand? Give it to me later."

After that, he hung up the phone straight away.

Everyone was stunned!

How could a one-million-dollar luxury bracelet be obtained with only one phone call?

He simply just asked for it, and then he gets it?

Was this William still a good-for-nothing in the Bai family?

This revelation was shocking enough to kill anyone on the scene!

"Is he pretending or is he bluffing?"

Melissa, who was on the other side of the phone, almost threw the phone out, and cursed him in her heart!

"You b*stard, how can you be so shameless? I've worked so hard to conquer the world. It's fine if you take it away, you take away my best friend, and now you even want the bracelet. Are you even human?"

After hearing this, Xena jumped up and wanted to kiss William with excitement.

But she was stopped by Felicity. "Xena, please have some self control! This is my husband!"

Xena, like a little girl, blushed with excitement and bowed to William all the time. "Thank you! Thank you, William! I love you so much! Mua, mua, mua!"

The crowd was still speculating about William's ability, but Felicity's heart was gloomy.

Felicity knew that William seemed to have a rich friend, the one who met him in the Rolls-Royce Phantom before.

This pair of bracelets should have been given by his friend.

"Is it really okay to do so?"

Would William owe his friend too much?

If he owed someone a lot of favors, the pressure would be great.

At the thought of this, she could not help but look at Fernando.

When Fernando saw this, he was furious. Suddenly, he grabbed his Jadeite Bracelet and threw it to the ground!

His goal was to humiliate this brat!

Unexpectedly, not only was he not able to humiliate him, he humiliated himself!

13:41

And he also made himself lose more than three million yuan!

D*mn it!

But at this time, Xena looked at Fernando furiously and said, "Why did you break the Jadeite Bracelet? If you don't want it, give it to me!"

Fernando was stunned on the spot. "Did you not say that it's fake?"

Xena had a sly look on her face. "I was just saying it for fun, and you believed it. I just don't want you to bully William, so I tricked you."

"Where did you buy it? Don't you know if it's fake or real?!"

VAMP2.0 WOI

Chapter 13

Fernando felt as if he had been struck by lightning!

"When pretence receives credence, even the truth cannot be trusted." (This is a famous saying from the Chinese classic Dream of Red Mansions.)

"My Jadeite Bracelet was worth more than 100,000 yuan!" Fernando cried internally in anguish.

Looking at the shattered bracelet on the ground, his heart ached so much that he couldn't breathe!

Just as I said, I personally went to their store to buy it. How could it be fake!

"Xena, you nasty little girl, how dare you fool me!"

The people on the scene looked at Fernando as if they were looking at a fool.

Earlier, he had smashed a bracelet on the floor, claiming it was fake and had to compensate three million yuan.

Now, he smashed another bracelet, and he suffered another loss of 100,000 yuan.

"Shattering things deliberately is a mental disorder, you should see a doctor for treatment, buddy!" William said faintly.

Xena couldn't help but laugh out loud.

William, on the other hand, discreetly gave Xena a thumbs-up.

"This sister-in-law of mine is quite impressive. It's was worth my effort pampering her!"

Xena wrinkled her nose at William, looking cute.

Seeing their playful interaction, Felicity couldn't help laughing.

This husband of hers was crafty and cunning. Paired with her mischievous little sister Xena, they were invincible.

While Fernando was annoyed, Felicity looked at William and said, "William, I'm sorry. I didn't expect such a disaster to happen today."

However, William smiled softly. "I'm sorry. It wasn't easy to get you a gift, but now the gift is damaged."

Felicity suddenly smiled, picked up the broken bracelet and put it on her hand. "I don't mind, I like it."

"I like it too," Xena said humorously.

Xena's behaviour was so exasperating that Felicity almost teared up. "I like this person!" Felicity said.

"Me too." Xena was resolute.

William was speechless.

These two sisters were so crafty!

At this time, an elderly but dignified voice came,

"This is the Bai family. How can such a useless man come and show off here?"

The crowd looked over and saw an elderly woman with grey hair walking out slowly with the help of a nanny.

Everyone quickly bowed their heads to welcome the grandmother of the Bai family, Yasmine Chen.

"Please be seated." Yasmine came out and sat at the conference table.

Everyone quickly took their seats.

As soon as everyone sat down, Felicity noticed that it should have been William's seat, but Fernando had taken it away.

Hence, William stood alone at the side, looking extremely pathetic.

"Now that you are here, you get yourself a stool and sit down to listen. Do you want me, an elderly woman, to get a stool for you?" Yasmine said coldly to William.

The audience wanted to laugh, but they didn't dare to.

Felicity's heart ached. Her grandmother had strongly opposed their marriage three years ago.

Yasmine was definitely the person who hated William the most amongst everyone present.

Felicity was about to help William when she saw William smiling and saying, "No need for that."

After that, he walked to Felicity's seat. "Let's sit together."

Regardless of Felicity's objection, he picked her up and sat down.

Felicity was on his lap.

This shocked all the people present.

Preposterous!

Yasmine had always been highly respected and full of virtue. She attached great importance to the three principles and five common rules of traditional Chinese teaching. She would never allow such disrespectful behaviour in her home.

"This guy is so disrespectful in front of our grandmother. He is simply challenging Grandma's influence!"

As expected, Yasmine's face darkened.

"It is already an honor for a dog to be able to sit together on the table."

"You still want to push your luck so far?"

Fortunately, Felicity immediately adjusted her sitting posture and squeezed into the chair, sitting right next to William.

Feeling the strong and domineering aura of the man beside her, Felicity was a little startled for a moment.

No matter whether William was right or wrong...

She was awestruck at the courage he had just displayed.

For Felicity, he was willing to offend anyone and do anything.

It seemed that the Bai family no longer intimidated him.

"What was the whole fiasco earlier about? I am very curious," Yasmine said.

Xena immediately told the elderly Yasmine what happened just now.

Rebecca's and Fernando's faces turned ghastly pale!

Fernando was going to be shamed again.

However, Yasmine looked at William with a malicious glint in her eyes and said, "That Spring Bracelet is a fake."

Everyone was stunned.

Grandma was saying without even seeing it?

Xena immediately said, "Grandma, it's actually the real bracelet. I made a careful comparison."

"If I say it's fake, then it's fake. Do you have an opinion on that?" Yasmine looked at William with disdain.

Felicity felt a burst of grievance in her heart!

Grandma was doing this on purpose.

She insisted that the bracelet was fake, deliberately making William embarrassed!

It was obvious that everyone had believed it just now, but she still made things difficult for him.

It was a pity that her grandmother's influence at home was too high!

Xena looked pale and lowered her head. "Yes, you're right, Grandma."

Yasmine looked at Fernando and said, "So, the compensation is nonsense. William, please behave yourself from now on. I don't wish to repeat this."

Felicity's eyes darkened in despair.

Yasmine was so powerful in their home. She was truly the head of the family and no one would challenge her power.

Just like now, anyone with a discerning eye would know that Yasmine could get away with murder if she wanted to.

However, William had to accept such an accusation!

Yasmine's words were too powerful and could not be refuted.

Rebecca and Fernando looked at each other and suddenly smiled.

Haha! Even the head of the Bai family was helping them.

Obviously, that good-for-nothing was useless and despised by all.

"Let's get down to business. I've summoned everyone here today mainly for two things." Yasmine had always been in charge of the Bai family's important matters.

"The first matter is about Steven. A few days ago, Steven led a negotiation with the well-known Rx Pharma, and successfully closed a deal to be the exclusive distributor for a brand of beauty products. This is a great honor to our family!"

At this time, a young man stood up and proudly nodded around. "It's all your teachings that came to fruition, Grandmother."

However, everyone looked at Steven Bai in surprise.

Rx Pharma was the most famous drug research institute in Qena City.

Their company had several longtime scientists who often invented amazing medicinal formulations, attracting significant attention from Qena City.

It was not easy to get the exclusive distribution rights from them!

On the other hand, Felicity was in a miserable state.

Bai's Group had three subsidiaries, each of which was taken charge by Yasmine's three children.

In the past two years, the Bai family's elders had trained their descendants, and gradually, Steven, Felicity, and Xena were given positions of power.

Before they got married, Felicity had outstanding abilities and was in charge of the pharmaceutical company, which had always been the best performance amongst the three subsidiaries.

However, since they got married, her performance had deteriorated significantly. This had always been the main reason why the Bai family had criticized her relationship with William.

After hearing these words, William's gaze was slightly cold.

Rx Pharma was the research institute that he went to last night.

Were the beauty products they developed the same rubbish as the previous night?

Yasmine looked at Felicity and said, "Do you see it now, Felicity? Steven and Xena have been doing better and better in the past two years, but you did not make any progress. Next, I will be considering your company's request to have the President replaced!"

Felicity's face changed greatly, and she felt extremely wronged in her heart!

Her father passed away at an early age. In the past few years, she had been working hard to manage the company alone.

Steven and Xena, with the help of their fathers, of course made more progress!

Her efforts were definitely much more than the two of them!

"Haha, Felicity, it doesn't matter. Keep working hard from now on!" Steven chuckled as he flashed Fernando a knowing look.

Felicity forced a smile and nodded. It seemed that with this contract in hand, Steven's company would get first place for three years consecutively...

"Sigh, if only I could have signed the contract with the clinic yesterday..." Felicity sighed in her heart.

At this time, Yasmine spoke again.

"The second matter, is a suggestion of mine."

"I will have Fernando become the son-in-law of the Bai family."

Steven and Xena, with the help of their fathers, of course made more progress!

Her efforts were definitely much more than the two of them!

"Haha, Felicity, it doesn't matter. Keep working hard from now on!" Steven chuckled as he flashed Fernando a knowing look.

Felicity forced a smile and nodded. It seemed that with this contract in hand, Steven's company would get first place for three years consecutively...

"Sigh, if only I could have signed the contract with the clinic yesterday..." Felicity sighed in her heart.

At this time, Yasmine spoke again.

"The second matter, is a suggestion of mine."

"I will have Fernando become the son-in-law of the Bai family."

Chapter 14

Fernando had become the son-in-law of the Bai family.

Everyone looked at Yasmine in disbelief.

Fernando and Rebecca exchanged glances and smiled.

Everything was under their control.

"Grandma, I don't agree!" Felicity stood up right away, her face turning pale.

Yasmine darted a glance at Felicity and added, "You all must be wondering why Fernando is present here today. Allow me to explain it to you."

Yasmine cleared her throat and continued, "Fernando is the most important guest of our family. There are three reasons for his presence here today."

"Firstly, he saved Felicity two days ago and this makes him the lifesaver of our family. We will be forever indebted to him for this great deal he has done."

Felicity could not help but clench her fists upon hearing that.

She felt suffocated.

She knew it.

She knew that the fact he had saved her would become her Achilles' heel.

This was essentially a moral abduction.

All of a sudden, a man down the stage grabbed Felicity's hand gently.

She lowered her head and met William's eyes.

He looked at her with much gentleness in his eyes as if he was not troubled by any of these at all.

Felicity couldn't help feeling bitter.

In fact, she was a little resentful of William.

She whispered in her heart, "William, why didn't you save me on that night?"

She was in a dilemma at this moment.

"As you all know, Fernando is going to inherit the Timber Group. Everyone in the city knows that he comes from a family of doctors. Their family also develops various medicinal products. By saving Felicity, he has successfully proven himself a man skillful in medicine and how much he loves Felicity," Yasmine explained. "Both our families are very similar. This makes him the perfect man for Felicity. They are practically a match made in heaven."

Felicity was about to refute before William stopped her. "Let her finish her words."

Yasmine thought, "Very well. I never expect this guy is sensible enough to stop Felicity from interrupting me."

She sneered and continued, "Secondly, Fernando told me last night the reason he could not get the contact with Genuine Care Medical Center nail down. Perhaps most of you have already heard about it. But, do any of you know the reason?"

The crowd shook their heads.

"It's because the Genuine Care Medical Center has changed its spokesperson yesterday! Word has it that a young man is now the new owner of the Genuine Care Medical Center."

Yasmine took a deep breath and added, "Hence, when Felicity went to look for Melissa yesterday, she pretended to refuse our offer in the name of this good-for-nothing. Well, the truth is she could no longer make any decisions."

The crowd burst into an uproar.

None of them expected a change in the owner of the Genuine Care Medical Center.

Felicity was also surprised to receive this news.

Was that the reason?

No wonder Melissa treated William that way in the previous day. Felicity thought that Melissa had already found out the conflict between William and the Bai family.

Thus, she used this reason not to collaborate with the Bais.

In this way, Melissa had made William the scapegoat. On the other hand, the Bais would never blame Melissa and the Genuine Care Medical Center, too.

Felicity mumbled softly, "Melissa, you are such a scheming, cunning woman!"

"Grandma, who is the new owner? I want to give it a try," Steven blurted out.

Yasmine nodded approvingly. "Calm down, Steven. No one now knows who the owner is. Don't worry. As long as we find out some clues, we will send you to give it a try."

Felicity couldn't help but whisper, "We've been in contact with the Genuine Care Medical Center all along—"

Yasmine interjected Felicity, "Don't you understand, Felicity? Every new sovereign brings his own courtiers. The owner of the center has changed and we have to come out with a new plan. Steven has proven his ability to everyone in recent years. However, you, Felicity, are not trying to improve yourself at all. Should I waste any more of my faith in you? Do you want the scandal yesterday to happen to our family again?" Yasmine's upper lips curled in disdain.

"Lastly, Fernando has brought us good news. In the past few years, Fernando's family has been the biggest drug supplier of the Genuine Care Medical Center. Half a year ago, he had already signed a contract worth ten million dollars with the Genuine Care Medical Center. He had persuaded his father to transfer half of the shares of the contract, which is worth five million dollars of orders, to us."

Yasmine looked at Fernando and added proudly, "He's doing this in order to compensate for the damage inflicted on our family for failing to secure the contract yesterday."

Yasmine threw a glance at Felicity with a smirk, as if she was trying to remind Felicity that Fernando had covered the losses they suffered because of her. That good-for-nothing was no match for Fernando.

"Really?" Felicity's eyes widened.

"However, Fernando's family will only do this on the condition that you divorce this loser and promise to marry Fernando," said Yasmine.

Felicity's face turned sullen and red right away. "No, I won't divorce William! I'm going to keep him by side even if he is a good-for-nothing!"

Her words made every member of the Bai family boil with fury.

Everyone present knew how little William's contribution to the family was in the past few years.

Despite having no talents or skills, he never showed any regards for the Bais.

He should be aware of his own worth as a good-for-nothing.

One of the men in the house roared, "Felicity! This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity! Your company is in danger now. Can't you see Young Master Lin's love for you after everything he has done so much for you?"

The woman next to him added, "Without Young Master Lin's help, I can guarantee that your company will go bankrupt at the end of this year. At that point in time, we'll be the one who cleans the mess up for you too!"

"Young Master Lin doesn't even mind about your current situation and status. How dare you refuse his kindness and suggestions so many times! What are you trying to do? Don't you know it's basically a second chance for our family and you if you were to accept Young Master Lin's proposal? Do you really want to waste your life on this piece of trash?"

Everyone who was present was accusing Felicity for being inconsiderate mercilessly.

Felicity's tears coursed down her cheeks.

William immediately stood up and overturned the round table with a kick.

"Hey, you old woman! Do you have a death wish?"

Everyone was enraged by William's rude attitude towards Yasmine.

A man pointed his finger at William and yelled, "D*mn! You are just a dog owned by our family. How dare you open your mouth?"

"We won't have to go through so many troubles if it weren't for what you'd done yesterday. Don't you know that you've put us in such a difficult situation, you sinner," a middle-aged woman bellowed.

"We have spent our money to raise you for the last decade like a dog. Never do we know that we have raised such an ungrateful brat!"

Another woman ranted, "Because of you, we can hardly keep our heads up in Qena City. The wedding between Felicity and you three years ago was simply a nightmare for us! You didn't even prepare any betrothal gifts. How dare you be so rude! Get out of here, now!"

William took Felicity's hand and went towards the door.

The Bais sneered when they saw William going to leave the house.

Great, he should get the hell out of here!

He should even leave the Bai family as soon as possible!

They could not wait to see William suffer without the protection under the Bai family in Qena City.

Being a well-known dog was the most suitable title for him.

Fernando, on the other hand, was elated.

Haha, this was what he had been waiting to see.

No one would be able to lend a helping hand to William if he left the Bai family.

In the end, Felicity would definitely turn to him and go into his arms.

Very well, very well!

However, at this very moment, a nanny came into the house without warning.

"Grandma Yasmine, the Rx Pharma has sent Mr. Wang here. He wishes to speak to Mr. Lu."

VAMP2.0 WOI

Chapter 15

Surprised, Steven stood up and shouted, "What? Mr. Wang is here!"

Yasmine immediately followed suit and asked, "Mr. Wang is a famous and respectable medicinal master in Qena City. Why would he come here? Right, tell me again who the person he's looking for is."

"He's here for Mr. Lu," the nanny answered with a doubtful look as if she wasn't sure what she had heard a while ago.

"Mr. Lu?"

Everyone present seemed confused.

"We don't have anyone called Mr. Lu in our family," said Steven after pondering for a while. "Hehe, you must have heard it wrong. Mr. Wang must be here for me. A few days ago, I just signed a contract with their research center."

The crowd immediately nodded their heads in agreement.

"Steven, you are really successful! I can't believe that someone as reputable as Mr. Wang would pay you a visit in person," one of the ladies exclaimed.

"He must be here to bring you even better news.

Congratulations!"

Steven slightly bent forward, his face glowed with pride.

The corners of William's lips curled into a smirk.

Mr. Wang?

Well, he was not as unsalvageable as William thought he was.

All of a sudden, Yasmine said, "Why are you guys still here? Go out and welcome him together! Let's go. I'll lead you all. We should not keep Mr. Wang waiting outside for too long."

Yasmine immediately strode towards the door while everyone else followed her excitedly.

Steven glanced at William who remained still and sneered, "What's wrong? Even Grandma Yasmine has personally gone to greet Mr. Wang, but why are you standing there? Do you think you are someone more important than Grandma Yasmine?"

Steven's words made Felicity's face turned pale at once.

She suppressed the anger within her and pushed William. "Let's go and join them."

However, William did not move an inch at all. Instead, he pulled Felicity back to her seat. "He doesn't deserve to be welcomed in this way."

Steven's smile immediately froze on his face.

What an arrogant guy!

How dared William say something so absurd when his grandmother had personally gone out to welcome Mr. Wang?

William must be having a death wish!

"Leave him alone, Steven. He's worse than a lump of sludge!" Yasmine glanced at William and Felicity coldly before she marched out of the house.

Anxiousness consumed Felicity at once as she noticed that they were the only people left in the house. "William, I don't think it's a good idea to wait for them here. We have been on bad terms with Grandma and others. We shouldn't—"

William interjected, "You're right. Our relationship with them is bad, to begin with. Do you think that we can change their minds and save our faces by following them out of the house?"

Felicity was speechless. She knew the answer to William's question very well.

She would never dare to think about regaining the respect she deserved before her prideful husband, William achieved something huge.

Outside the house, Yasmine walked towards Mr. Wang, acting humble. "Mr. Wang, nice to meet you. We are honored to have you as our guest. May I ask what brought you here?"

Steven stood behind Yasmine, deliberately straightened his back, as if he was more superior than anyone else there. He said with a grin, "Nice to meet you, Mr. Wang. I don't expect to see you again. We'd only met each other a few days ago."

Mr. Wang glanced around the crowd and could not find William.

He frowned. According to the information he received, William should be here.

Was there something wrong with the message?

Mr. Wang greeted the Bai family calmly, wondering if he should go somewhere else to look for William.

Yasmine, however, was being enthusiastic. Mr. Wang ended up being dragged into the house.

Mr. Wang was surrounded by the Bais while being flooded by all kinds of compliments they flattered him with.

At this moment, Steven darted a glance at William again and said coldly, "Hmph, have our family raised a dog that doesn't know how to bark? Can't you tell that Mr. Wang is an honorable guest of our family? Come and bow to him!"

Everyone glared at William in disgust. "Hmph, he's hopeless! Leave him alone and perish! Anyway, he's going to break the ties with our family. From now on, he's no longer related to the Bais in any way."

Felicity broke free from William's hand and apologized instantly, "William, I'd better go. Otherwise, you'll be despised by all of them."

After saying that, Felicity immediately went to Mr. Wang and gave him a bow respectfully.

Mr. Wang looked in the direction of Felicity and saw William who did not show much expression.

A chill ran down his spine. He had finally found William!

Of course, he could find William here. He must be getting senile.

William must be someone significant given his vast and extensive knowledge of medicine. Why would he leave the house and welcome him?

Mr. Wang pushed aside all the people who were lavishing praises on him and quickly strode toward William.

Everyone was dumbfounded.

Was Mr. Wang looking for William?

Steven quickly stood in front of Mr. Wang and said, "Mr. Wang, please don't mind him. He's just a dog of our family. If he has offended you just now, I would want to apologize to you on behalf of the Bai family."

Mr. Wang's eyes turned cold at once.

Hmph! A dog of their family?

Who were they to treat William as a dog of their family?

Did they not know what happened the night before? William could tell the contents of Mr. Wang's ointment in his company in one sniff!

However, he was regarded as a dog by them!

These people were essentially ants who could not recognize their king!

Mr. Wang snorted coldly at the thought of this. Once again, he pushed Steven aside and walked toward William.

William raised his eyebrows. Hmph, the show was just about to begin.

Thinking that Mr. Wang was going to make William pay the price of being rude to him, Steven roared at William at once, "William Lu, stand up and apologize to Mr. Wang now! You can't even pay with your own life if you offend him."

However, in the next moment, Steven's yelling came to an abrupt end.

All the people present, including Felicity, were stupefied.

Mr. Wang walked towards William, his brows tightly furrowed. With a bang, he fell down to his knees in front of William.

Apparently, Mr. Wang had scared everyone out of their wits.

Mr. Wang, who was much respected by the Bais, was kneeling down in front of William who was recognized as the dog of their family!

What was wrong with Mr. Wang?

Were they hallucinating?

They rubbed their eyes hard before they looked at William again in shock and disbelief.

William instructed, "Get up. At least you keep your promise."

After hearing that, Mr. Wang immediately stood up.

He knew that it was a humiliation for him to kneel in front of William in public.

However, he had no choice.

He had to kneel down before William.

The previous night, after witnessing William's exceptional sense of smell, he went back home and applied the ointment on the wound on his face.

After applying it, he first felt a slight itch on his face before it started to feel cold at midnight.

The next morning, he went to the mirror and checked out his face right away after he woke up.

Goosebumps ran over his entire body when he saw his face in the mirror.

The bleeding scratchmark on his face had nearly disappeared, leaving only a barely visible scar. It took only one night for this to happen.

Besides, he had only applied the ointment once!

It took only one night to achieve such a miraculous effect. He had spent more than fifty years learning medicine but none of his knowledge was able to explain the effect of this ointment.

He suddenly recalled William's statement the night before. "I'll wait for you to kneel down to me."

He had been in a dilemma for the entire morning before he finally made up his mind to come to William and knelt down to him.

How could William write such an extraordinary prescription without any difficulty? There was no way he was an ordinary person!

Mr. Wang knew that he was practically stepping on William's toes if he chose not to recognize William's talent. He would never be able to keep his head up if William were to become famous in the future.

Mr. Wang was a man who knew when to yield and when not. He immediately looked for William's whereabouts before he rushed to the Bai family.

The Bais, on the other hand, were still left open-mouthed at this very moment.

How could Mr. Wang, who was as mighty as a king kneel down to his ministers?

"Mr. Wang, you, you just..." Steven couldn't help asking, his throat smoldering with flame.

Mr. Wang glanced at them and sneered. "Don't you know who he is?"

VAMP2.0 WORK

Chapter 16

Mr. Wang's question made every single Bai member who was present more confused.

Who was William Lu?

Who else could it be?

He was just a stray dog their family raised.

"Hmph, don't you guys know who he is? He has just won me in a bet!" Mr. Wang's face was livid. He continued with an angry tone, "Last night, he..."

"Hey you, don't you think you are a bit too chatty?" William said calmly.

Everyone's heart skipped a beat.

Hey you? Did William just speak down to Mr. Wang?

How dared he act so rudely to Mr. Wang?

Mr. Wang, however, shrunk his neck and immediately held his tongue upon hearing that.

"A bet? William, when you told me that you had to attend to something important last night, did you go and make a bet with Mr. Wang?" Felicity whispered at William's ear softly.

William pondered for a moment and answered, "Well, I guess you can say it that way."

Although his voice was soft, everyone present could hear him clearly as the room was very quiet. All the Bais were gnashing their teeth so hard that their teeth almost crushed.

Mr. Wang was popular in Qena City for two reasons. Firstly, for his exceptional medicinal skills. Secondly, for his addiction to gambling and putting bets.

Did this brat actually go and make a bet with Mr. Wang?

On top of that, how dared he defeat Mr. Wang in the bet and make Mr. Wang kneel down before him in front of so many people?

If William got on Mr. Wang's nerves, all the contracts they had signed with Mr. Wang would...

As this thought crossed the Bais' minds, they immediately glared at William, their gazes scorching like the sun.

Steven could feel his heart go to his throat. He quickly asked respectfully, "Mr. Wang, what about the contracts we signed with your research institute..."

Mr. Wang stared at William thoughtfully and uttered, "We'll terminate our collaboration."

Mr. Wang's reply was like thunder, blasting in the hearts of every Bai family member.

Mr. Wang wanted to terminate their collaboration. He terminated their collaboration as if it was nothing significant

How could this happen?

Obviously, it was this brat, William who brought this upon them!

Mr. Wang must be furious and had decided to vent his anger on the Bais.

William was indeed an incompetent good-for-nothing who could never do anything right!

"Mr. Wang, please don't!" Steven sounded as if he was about to burst into tears.

It took him a lot of effort to close this deal.

In order to secure this deal, he even embezzled part of the company's money.

If Mr. Wang really turned down the order, all the money he had invested would definitely go down the drain.

However, Mr. Wang did not budge. "Don't make me repeat myself. I will terminate our collaboration. You can bring this to court if you want to."

All the Bais were left speechless and stupefied.

To bring this to court?

No way!

As a pharmaceutical company, the Bais were practically counting on the research institute like that of Mr. Wang to survive in this industry.

Their reputation in this industry would be ruined if they were to bring this to court.

Mr. Wang glanced at William. He was feeling miserable deep inside too.

The night before, if William did not point out the problem in his formula, Mr. Wang would never ever discover it.

Being such a confident person, Mr. Wang would definitely manufacture his product in a huge amount. Besides, he'd even signed the contract.

If the problem in his formula was only identified later, the company would suffer a great loss. Besides, if someone's life was endangered, his reputation and image would be tainted too.

Hence, the reason for his visit and him kneeling down before William was mainly to thank William for saving his life.

The faces of the Bais looked as though they were just fed with feces. Mr. Wang couldn't help but say, "Let me tell you guys something."

Mr. Wang glanced at them and continued, "Build a good relationship with the Genuine Care Medical Center. They now hold the future of Qena City. That's all that I could say. Goodbye."

After that, Mr. Wang marched out of the house.

Like a bunch of traumatized fools, the Bai family was left in a daze and could not come to their senses.

After quite a while, Steven finally regained his composure. He stared at William, his eyes smoldering with anger. "You b*stard! You've been leeching off of our family for so long. Is this how you repay us? By becoming the obstacles that block our way to success?"

Rage stirred within Steven and he continued to roar, "You first made the Genuine Care Medical Center turn down our offer. And now, you even ruin the contract we've made with Mr. Wang, besides creating a conflict between Mr. Wang and us! You will forever be called a sinner in this family!"

Steven's words snapped everyone out of a dazed state. Except for Felicity and Xena, all the people in the Bai family glowered at William with hatred in their eyes.

William did not react to them. William didn't plan all these that happened at all; the Bais were the ones who brought these upon themselves.

"Okay, now the direst thing is to figure out a way to deal with the upcoming problems!" Yasmine scowled at William and returned to her seat.

The bitterness in Felicity's heart grew bigger.

She didn't expect that her husband would have caused this huge trouble.

In the future, it would be harder for them to survive in the Bai family.

Sigh, she shouldn't have brought him here...

Fernando, who had been watching the show, grinned and said, "Hehe, didn't Mr. Wang just give us a piece of advice just now? He reminds us to build a good relationship with the Genuine Care Medical Center."

When Fernando heard Mr. Wang said that a while ago, he was so happy that he almost went crazy.

In his perspective, Mr. Wang must be thinking very highly of the Genuine Care Medical Center.

This explained why Mr. Wang wanted the Bais to ingratiate themselves with them.

Coincidentally, he happened to be holding a bargaining chip that could be used to help the Bais to get on good terms with them.

Sure enough, after hearing Fernando's words, all the members of the Bai family immediately stared at Fernando, their eyes sparkling. "That's right, Fernando. Didn't the Genuine Care Medical Center sign a contract with you? What a coincidence!"

Fernando was immediately worshipped like a god by the Bais.

The contract he had with the medical center cost around five million yuan. Judging from Mr. Wang's words, it was going to be worth more than that. He didn't expect this at all.

Hehe, this was going to be his trump card.

If the Bais wished to get along with the Genuine

Care Medical Center, they would have no choice but to rely on him.

Fernando glanced at the Bais whose eyes were fixed on him and said with a smile, "Hehe, I have already told you guys about this. However, none of you appreciates my kindness."

Everyone present immediately received the hidden meanings in Fernando's words.

They glared at Felicity and questioned, "Felicity, tell us what we should do now. You are the one to be blamed for what happened in these two days. Now there's a chance in front of you to redeem yourself. Make your choice."

Felicity felt wronged. She screamed, "No! No matter what you guys say, I will never divorce William! Don't even think about it!"

All the Bais glowered at Felicity and William, the annoyance and fury became more obvious in their eyes.

In the end, the Bais could not do anything as Felicity did not give in.

Yasmine, instead, announced in front of everyone, "From now on, Felicity will be dismissed indefinitely from her position as the president of her company until she redeems herself from the mistakes she made!"

Hearing this, Felicity's face turned ashen at once.

She felt as if someone was ripping her chest apart and slicing her heart.

All her hard work in the past years was totally wasted because she refused to back down.

She wondered, "My family, is this how you guys treat me? Am I an asset that can be bargained and exchanged with goods?"

William could sense the heartache Felicity felt. He held her hand gently.

He didn't care the fact Felicity had lost her position as the president of her company.

He was going to repay her with a hundred times more than what she had lost.

Infuriated, everyone stamped out of the house with Yasmine.

William stood up and was about to go home with Felicity. However, all of sudden, Felicity mumbled while forcing a smile on her face, "You go ahead first. I will go back home later."

William let out a silent sigh and replied, "I will cook a meal for you then while waiting for you to come home."

"Sure, let's eat together later." Felicity made herself smile at him.

William went home first and made a table full of food, waiting for Felicity to come back home to join him.

He hadn't had the opportunity to spend some quiet time with Felicity for quite a while. This was the first time they had a meal together after they reconciled with each other.

He even took out a bottle of red wine and decanted it into glasses.

However, with each passing second, an air of melancholy gradually surrounded him, replacing the warmth in his heart.

Felicity was not back home yet.

When the food went cold, William couldn't help making a phone call to Felicity.

It was soon connected before William heard a man's contemptuous voice coming from the other side of the phone.

"Haha, this is William, right? Felicity is having a meal with me. Stay at home and wait."

It was Fernando!