

Chapter 154

William and Felicity smiled as their gazes met, their eyes full of adoration for each other.

When Felicity saw William's expression, she cackled even more.

It seemed that she had guessed it correctly...

It also seemed to be the first time that Felicity understood what William meant.

The crowd almost went crazy looking at the scene unfold before them.

What was going on now?!

Even at this very moment, they were cracking up together. Didn't they know that they were in deep trouble?!

Moreover, how dared she pass such an important thing to William!

Speaking of which, William had previously been authorized by Melissa too. He had managed to turn the situation around.

And now, he was going to explain the entire situation on behalf of the Bai family again!

What would be the outcome of this round then?

All of a sudden, everyone was filled with anticipation.

They could not help to see how William would turn the table again!

They were hoping to see how the Zhao family would be further humiliated.

Melissa sighed as she looked at Felicity.

"Since when did this little girl become so mature?"

Melissa wanted to comment that Felicity was merely seizing the opportunities given by William, and repeated whatever she had just said earlier.

But looking at Felicity's sparkling eyes, Melissa's heart melted in an instant. She could not ignore the gentle gleam in Felicity's gaze.

That was probably a special connection owned by Felicity and William – the way they grew more fondly of each other in all these adversities.

Everyone was looking at William as he stood on the stage.

William said with a faint smile, "Okay then, I will say a few words on behalf of the Bai family."

"Fine! I'd like to see what you have to say! If you dare spit any nonsense here, I will not forgive you! I have evidence to prove the three crimes stated earlier after all!" Nathan looked at William as bitterness filled up every chamber of his heart.

William nodded and looked at Lydia.

Lydia immediately took out a laptop and then connected it to the LED screen.

After preparing himself, William started, "What is the first crime again? The Bai family had spread false information, huh?"

Steven spoke up at once, "D*mn! It's not the Bai family that spread the false information! It is all Felicity's doing! This has nothing to do with us!"

William did not retort, but said to the crowd, "You want evidence, don't you? Lydia, show it to us."

After he finished his words, Lydia opened a folder, and then clicked on a photo!

Everyone was shocked and their eyes widened when they saw the photo!

What the f*ck!

Impressive!

William was absolutely impressive!

What appeared in front of them was a bank transaction slip!

But it was different from the photo shown by Nathan before.

This time, the party who remitted the money was the Zhao family!

And the amount was 50 million yuan!

It was transferred to various newspaper outlets and media in just a few days ago!

They weren't as angry when they saw the transaction slip of the Bai family a while ago. However, what was written by the Zhao family in the note made the crowd fumed at once, their blood quickened by fury at once! On the note, it read 'fees to hype the issue about the Heption Herbs'.

This was exactly irrefutable evidence as requested by Nathan!

When Nathan saw the photo, his face turned livid!

"H- h- how did you get this?" Nathan pointed at William as his voice broke.

William chuckled softly. "Since you could get the transactions of the Bai family, why can't I get it from your family too? Or perhaps, do you own the bank too?"

His words rendered Nathan speechless!

D*mn it!

D*mn!

He had been tricked by this kid with the same move he used!

Even if he wanted to accuse William of stealing trade secrets, he couldn't do it too!

After all, the Zhao family did the same too!

William was just doing tit for tat!

As everyone looked at the transaction, they shouted out in unison!

"D*mn it! I didn't expect that it was the Zhao family that secretly added fuel to the fire! You're going to die a terrible death!"

"You knew that the Heption Herb is poisonous, but you purposely hyped it up! You even pretend to be a good Samaritan in front of us! Your hearts are truly hideous!" A lady in her fifties pointed at Nathan as tears welled up her eyes.

"The Zhao family is much more deplorable than the Bai family! They were the most despicable bandits here!"

The voice of the crowd was colored with rage!

Agony materialized into a pair of gigantic hands and clasped him!

What the f*ck!

He could only go all in now!

No matter what the outcome was, the Zhao family would not be able to escape from its fate!

Even if he died, he would make sure none of them get away easily!

He did not mind dragging them down along with him!

"So what if we did it! The Bai family is also involved! We're all in this! If the Zhao family is guilty, don't you think that they're equally guilty as well?!" Nathan roared madly.

William smiled again.

When Nathan saw William's smile, he felt a chill run down his spine!

He realized that he would always shiver whenever he saw William's smile.

This boy was really unfathomable!

"What's he laughing at again?"

He could not help wondering if there was any flaw in what he said a while ago.

At this moment, William voiced, "Can anyone still remember the date when the Bai family made every transfer?"

Those with good memory immediately said, "It was on December 13th. All of which were done within a day."

William nodded with satisfaction. "Then look at the ones made by the Zhao family."

Everyone looked at the picture, confused. "It's from December 13th to 15th. What's the matter with it?"

William explained calmly, "On December 13th, the Bai family made the first transfer. Do you still remember the effect of the hype on that day?"

Everyone frowned as they tried to recall it. "I think the news sounded too fake on the first day so I didn't buy it."

"Well, I didn't believe it either."

Everyone's opinion was surprisingly in unison.

William smiled. "So, the first hype was a complete failure. Then, the Zhao family had spent as much as 50 million yuan to bring the news up again. So, my dear friends, who were the ones that actually spread misinformation about the Heption Herb?"

Everyone's eyes lit up. "D*mn it! It's the Zhao family! The money the Bai family spent did not yield any results! But, they ended up being the scapegoat for the Zhaos! The actual perpetrator is the Zhao family! "

All of a sudden, the audience burst into cheers!

Nathan's heart was aching when he heard this!

What kind of monster was William?!

He could actually figure out so many things just from the time of transfer!

Ordinary people wouldn't have paid such attention to these details!

"It's over!"

No one noticed that Harper and Hugo, who were on the second floor, were also stupefied when they heard how William had resolved the matter by just using the dates.

"You old goat, would you manage to think that much?" Harper shook his head.

"D*mn! Why do I feel like I'd been slapped in the face by this boy? I feel so ashamed of myself!"

They exchanged glances and burst out laughing. "Well, it is true that the Bai family is wrong for spreading false propaganda. However, they only have to bear a small portion of responsibility. The Zhaos should take the most blame!" Then, William continued with a final tone, "Does anyone have any objections?"

Of course, the crowd wouldn't have any objections after looking at these concrete evidence.

"If there are no objections, then let's talk about the second crime. You accused us of murder, right? And that we did it for money?" As William finished his sentence, his eyes suddenly turned steely.

"The Bai family was only responsible for spreading false propaganda as they didn't know that the Heption Herb was poisonous! The public overconsumed it by mistake. Since the Bais didn't know it, how could they be held responsible for this mistake? Now, let me ask everyone who is present today a question."

He turned to the crowd and continued, "The Zhaos knew that the Heption Herb is poisonous yet they poured in money to publicize the herbs. Their action eventually led to overconsumption. Doesn't this make them a murderer too?"

He then pointed at Nathan. "When these patients were sent to the ICU, the Zhao family fed them with an antidote. But, they did it for their own personal interest while being watched by everyone in this city. This made every citizen of Qena City the witnesses of their crime!"
