

Chapter 219

"One million yuan a catty! You've got to be kidding me!" Kaleb yelled. He was so enraged that he stood up from the chair.

"You know that I am a tea collector. I bought these Sakura Tea from the black market for more than 500,000 yuan some time ago. It's up to you whether you want it." The person on the phone then hung up.

Kaleb was so irate that he grasped the phone and chucked it away!

"D*mn it! These people are taking advantage of me while I'm at my worst!" Kaleb cursed as his face turned grim.

Rebecca comforted him for a while before he calmed down.

Two days passed in a blink of an eye.

In the end, Kaleb had no choice but to sell all of his belongings and spent a million to buy a catty of Sakura Tea from his friend.

He knew he had to do this; the support Klutz had scared him.

He sold everything off to save himself.

Besides, if this deal went through, he should be able to get some commission from it after Klutz collected the outstanding debts.

Then, he could make up for the loss.

When he got the Sakura Tea, his hands were trembling.

His heart was bleeding at the sight of this catty of tea and the thought of the 30 sachets that he and Rebecca had wasted!

Just then, William walked out and saw the Sakura Tea in Kaleb's hand. He smiled slightly and spoke, "Oh, you really managed to buy it."

Kaleb was infuriated in a trice. He waved the tea at William and responded sarcastically, "Yea, what can't you buy with money? The only thing I'm afraid of is that I don't have money. Am I right?"

William smiled and answered, "Yes, you're right. That's why the tea I get is a gift from others."

Kaleb sneered. "How can a gift be any better? I'll deal with you later, you imbecile. Rebecca, let's go."

Kaleb hurried back to his home with Rebecca because Klutz had just called him and said he was leaving towards his house.

When Klutz was at Kaleb's house and saw that Kaleb had the Sakura Tea, he could not help but look at him with admiration. "Nice! You're awesome! Alright! I look forward to working with you."

Kaleb was about to urge Klutz to stay, but Klutz turned around and left at once.

"Mr. Klutz, please stay and have a meal together!" Kaleb shouted.

Why would Klutz have time to have a meal with Kaleb?

Now that he had gotten his hands on the tea, he should give it to William to butter him up.

He waved his hand and rejected, "No need. I'm in a hurry to deliver these teabags to my brother."

Rebecca, who was behind him, clicked her tongue, "My dear, these tea leaves cost millions of yuan. Klutz is actually giving it away. How awesome that person is!"

Kaleb chortled and replied, "You don't know how the rich interact with each other. Let's go back to your place. I do not have time to mock that brat earlier. I will not swallow my anger if I don't knock his head off."

When they returned home, they saw William and Felicity sitting at home.

Rebecca swaggered over and squeaked, "Felicity, you didn't see what happened earlier. Kaleb just gave away millions-of-yuan worth of tea leaves as a gift. This is the first time I see such a generous person."

Felicity glanced at Kaleb, who was smirking arrogantly, and frowned.

"Why? Hard to believe?" Rebecca asked as her face fell.

"Well, Mom, I really don't believe it. Besides, what does it have to do with me and William?" Felicity asked displeasingly.

She never saw eye to eye with Rebecca's decision to date Kaleb.

After all, her father was still alive; he only ran away from home.

Felicity felt overwhelmed to see Rebecca dating other men.

Upset, Rebecca questioned, "What do you mean by this?"

Just as Rebecca was about to argue with Felicity, the doorbell rang.

Kaleb went to open the door.

He was stunned after he opened the door.

The person who was standing at the door was Klutz, holding the tea leaves!

The two looked at each other and asked simultaneously, "Why are you here?"

When Rebecca saw Klutz from the inside, her lips spread into a prideful smile immediately. "Do you see that? Kaleb gave the tea leaves to this big shot. He's such an amazing person that he comes and thanks us personally. Kaleb is now a well-respected man in Qena City."

Felicity studied the fierce-looking man standing at the door and was a little afraid.

William rubbed her head gently and comforted softly, "Don't be afraid. Everything's fine."

Klutz was not familiar with the area here, therefore, he took a detour.

Klutz was also dumbfounded too when he saw Kaleb at the door.

But immediately, Klutz saw William sitting inside.

Happily, he pushed Kaleb away and marched in immediately.

Rebecca stepped forward and greeted Klutz with a smile, "Mr. Klutz, here you are. Come on in, let's have a seat upstairs. Just ignore those two things who can't tell chalk from cheese."

Klutz's brows furrowed.

Although he was a straightforward person, he was not dumb.

Rebecca was clearly looking down on William!

He pushed Rebecca away. "Go away!"

In Kaleb and Rebecca's shock, he walked up to William before he handed the tea leaves to William respectfully, saying, "Mr. Lu, I brought you the tea leaves."

William smiled slightly. "Thank you."

Felicity was stupefied when she saw this scene.
What on earth was happening?

Kaleb and Rebecca looked for this tea so frantically and bought it for this person.

But he instead gave the tea to William.

With utmost respect!

What was going on?

Kaleb and Rebecca were rendered wordless too as if they had been struck by lightning!

This was the Sakura Tea that they worked so hard to buy for a million yuan!

Yet, Klutz gave it to William without any hesitation!

In other words, they bought it for William!

Kaleb could not help to think of what William said earlier, "The tea I get is usually a gift from others.."

This sentence, like a huge slap in his face, made Kaleb dizzy!

William did not lie. He indeed received his tea from others.

Kaleb had just shown off how much money he had to William.

So what if he bought it?

In the end, it was given to William.

D*mn!

Kaleb felt aggrieved, his blood boiled in exasperation!

Rebecca, on the other hand, had a savage look on her face.

She was talking about how amazing Klutz was and how honored Kaleb was to personally know Klutz.

Now, this amazing person treated the imbecile of the family with such respect, and even gave him such an exorbitantly-priced tea!

This ghastly sight was making her anger smolder within her!

The more Kaleb thought of it, the more frustrated he became. He hurried over and grabbed Klutz, asking, "Mr. Klutz, what are you doing? This is the tea I bought you."

"Since you bought it for me, don't I have a say as to who I give to?" Klutz asked. His imposing demeanor was intimidating enough to make Kaleb take a step back.

Just then, Klutz changed his tone and asked William, "Mr. Lu, didn't I give you a catty the last time? You finished it so quickly."

William looked at Kaleb and replied, "Oh, they used it to cook herbal tea eggs."