

Chapter 309

When William, Liu Tigger, and the others were fighting on the phone, all of them were broken, and there was no signal in the village.

They had completely lost contact with the outside world.

And previously, Sirius, who was brimming with confidence, had already laid down a trap in front of the expedition against the Lantern Village.

After that night, the news of Liu Tigger's death spread in Qena City.

When Liu Tigger's men heard the news, they were disheartened and did not want to compete for hegemony.

Although Sirius's men couldn't get in touch with Sirius, they still acted according to plan and took over the entire Qena City.

Over at Bernard's side, after hearing the news of Liu Tigger's death, the whole person of Bernard was excited!

It turned out that Sirius was telling the truth!

That was to say, William was also dead!

Okay!

His chance to make a name for himself had finally come!

Next, it was time to get even with that little bitch Felicity!

He quickly went to find Sirius's subordinates and spent a large sum of money to get rid of them. They had agreed to attack Felicity's home together early the next morning.

He had ruthlessly trampled on Felicity!

At about ten o'clock in the evening, William finally woke up in the Lantern Village.

When Sharon saw William opening her eyes, she was overjoyed. "William! You're finally awake! I'm so worried."

William glanced at Sharon.

At this moment, Sharon was so haggard that she was almost disfigured. She was no longer arrogant.

The dark circles under her eyes were very heavy, but her eyes were very bright now.

"How long have I been in a coma?" William asked weakly.

"Three days, three whole days!" Sharon's eyes turned red.

William was shocked. "Three days, so long!"

If Felicity didn't contact him in three days, he didn't know how anxious he would be.

"Call your father over." William said to Sharon.

Sharon nodded and quickly walked outside.
William glanced around the surroundings.

At this moment, the place where he was at was obviously a newly built thatched cottage.

He also carefully checked his body, but he didn't know whether he should be happy or sad.

He could clearly feel that the toughness of his body had improved and improved greatly compared to before.

This should be the effect brought about by breaking through to the third chapter of the 'The Scripture of Tranquility'.

In other words, he was at the threshold of External Strength.

In the eyes of the world, External Strength should be the realm of some Hengqiang Masters.

His skin and bones were extremely tough.

And he was also shocked to find that his blood seemed to be different from before.

When he completely calmed down, he felt as if he could hear the sound of his blood flowing through his body.

It was like a great river running without end!

It was a very strange feeling.

William thought about it for a while and didn't know why. In the end, she could only think about whether it was because she was drinking a lot of blood in the Immortal Pond.

"He's got a blood change?"

Somehow, he had a feeling that his unsolvable fate with blood had been solved.

As soon as he thought of the blood, he thought of his own Needles of Ruby Flower.

The more he thought about it, the more anxious he became.

He remembered that in the final moment, he had struck the Needles of Ruby Flower out.

"That's my grandfather's relic!"

But he immediately saw the Needles of Ruby Flower standing next to his pillow.

The color of vermilion on it was faintly flashing with cold light.

It should be Liu Tigger who knew the importance of this Needles of Ruby Flower to him, so he specially asked the villagers to collect all of them...

William was happy and held the Needles of Ruby Flower in his hand.

The Needles of Ruby Flower in his hand gave him a warm feeling.

William couldn't help but think of the feeling of connection with the Needles of Ruby Flower. He didn't know when this connection would appear again.

However, as long as he kept practicing, sooner or later, he would be able to integrate with the Needles of Ruby Flower.

"William! You're awake!" A voice interrupted William's thoughts.

Liu Tigger rushed in.

William nodded. "Well, get ready. I want to go down the mountain immediately."

Liu Tigger was stunned. "But your body..."

"It's fine. You should still be able to walk." William said.

Liu Tigger finally nodded. "Okay, we haven't contacted the outside world for three days. Your family must be worried about you. It's estimated that Qena City is in chaos now. It's time for us to go back."

William nodded.

At this time, Liu Tigger suddenly knelt down in front of William and said in a low voice, "William! I, Liu Tigger, have no way to repay your great kindness. For the second half of my life, my life is yours. I am a mountain of blades and a sea of fire. You can send me whatever you want!"

Liu Tigger had intended to serve William when William appeared with a lamp on his own.

In the back, William was even risking her life. What reason did Liu Tigger have to go through fire and water for William?

William looked at Liu Tigger's firm eyes and was not polite to him.

After all, subduing Liu Tigger was part of William's plan.

Seeing William agree, Liu Tigger felt less guilty on his face, and he helped William up.

William was still wrapped in bandages. With the help of Liu Tigger, he put on his clothes and tried to walk a few steps.

Fortunately, walking was not a problem. It was just that her body was sore.

It should be an injury, plus the result of serious overdrawing of physical strength.

When he walked outside, he was stunned.

At the moment, the places where the Lantern Village was scorched still existed.

However, many thatched cottages had been rebuilt in the ruins.

The new home was right in front of them.

On the square, a huge bonfire was lit.

However, it was dark in Lantern Village.

Many people saw William coming out. They stood at the door of their home one after another and bowed to William.

William looked at them with a little comfort in her heart.

In the darkness, they could still see the light in their eyes.

The look in their eyes was quite different from before. It was a look of a freshman.

It was also a pair of eyes full of hope for the future.

As long as there was such a look in his eyes, he should not be afraid of any disaster.

"We have filled up the Immortal Pond. From then on, there won't be any Immortal Pond in the Lantern Village. We will only live for ourselves!" Liu Tigger said to William in a low voice.

William nodded, this was good.

With the help of Liu Tigger, he slowly walked forward.

At this time, William noticed that Liu Tigger seemed to want to say something but stopped on a second thought.

"Brother Tigger, what's the matter?" William asked.

Liu Tigger scratched his head and showed an embarrassed expression. "Well, over the past three days, the villagers made a decision without your consent. I'm too embarrassed to tell you."

William looked at Liu Tigger with a funny smile. "What's there to be embarrassed to say? I have been through thick and thin with everyone. Now that we are family, you can just say it directly."

Hearing William's words, Liu Tigger's eyes lit up. "Do you really think that we are a family?"

William nodded. "Well, I hated them a little before, but now I think I'm the same as them. Isn't it just a rebirth?"

Liu Tigger clapped his hands. "That's great! Let's go down the mountain!"

William looked at Liu Tigger for no reason, and the two of them continued to go forward.

The place where they used to live was the original home of Village Chief, which was located in the innermost part of the village.

He had to pass through all the villagers' doors when he went down the mountain this time.

When William stepped on the First Family's door, a red light suddenly emerged from the house.

A hundred-year-old lamp made of fragrant blood was carried out by the family and inserted in the doorway of the house.

When William saw this red light, she was stunned on the spot.

On the blood-soaked century-old lamp, there was a word "Lu" written!

@vamp20w0111

Chapter 310

William looked puzzled when he saw this lantern.

There was only one word on the lantern, but it was very particular.

Generally speaking, for customs, the surname on a lantern should be written.

When William came before, the villagers didn't have a family name.

Liu Tigger also specially explained that they were generations of servant craftsmen of the Lantern Village, who thought they were not suitable for their surnames.

"Now, I'm going to write a letter on Lu..."

William thought of this and glanced at Liu Tigger.

Liu Tigger's eyes were full of pride.

"The villagers of the Lantern Village have a family name!"

William's heart trembled. It seemed that she had understood something. For a time, her heart was full of sorrow.

They continued to walk forward.

Every time they passed by the door of a house, the family would put a lantern at the door.

Without exception, there was a word "Lu" written on the paper!

Rows of red lanterns were like fire dragons, extending with William's footsteps.

The surnames of Lu, one after another, seemed to be slowly birthing with William's footsteps.

Wherever William passed, it seemed to be given a surname.

In the blink of an eye, William had passed through all the doors and arrived at the bonfire in the square.

He couldn't help but turn around and look at the red light road.

He looked at the Lu character on it, and the corners of his eyes were wet for a moment.

How many years had it been?

"How many years has it been since I last saw this surname?"

It wasn't that William didn't have a family, but that his family couldn't be returned.

Now, seeing so many Lu's lanterns all of a sudden, in his heart, he felt as if he had returned to his hometown.

Affability and warmth.

This was the warmest gift the villagers had given to William.

Village Chief was standing in front of the bonfire, and all the villagers had gradually gathered here.

They knew that William was leaving.

"I don't know when we'll meet again after this year's retirement."

Village Chief came in front of William with an item in his hands.

Seeing that William was still looking at the lantern, Village Chief smiled and said, "William, I know that you hate us to belittle ourselves. I'm sorry, during the three days when you were in a coma, we had to sacrifice our blood together again. However, I swear that this is the last time!"

"They used their own blood to make the last lantern of the Lu family in this Lantern Village. The remaining blood, with our skills passed down from generation to generation, was condensed into this jade pendant. You are the eternal benefactor of our Lantern Village. Your little heart is not worthy of respect."

As Village Chief spoke, he passed the small jade pendant in his hand to William.

William took over the jade pendant and suddenly felt a sense of warmth in his palm.

The jade pendant was entirely emerald-green in color, but there was a little bit of devilish blood flowing in the middle!

These strands of blood even sparkled under the light of the fire.

William was surprised. This group of craftsmen really had unique skills. They were able to condense the blood of so many people into a few pieces!

This showed just how pure these wisps of blood should be.

"This jade pendant should have some miraculous uses. You'll naturally find out in the future," Village Chief said sincerely.

William nodded, thanked him, and then put away the jade pendant.

At this time, Village Chief motioned for someone to bring over a bowl of water.

The others, as if they had long been prepared, held up the newly made wooden bowls in unison.

"People who show respect for their benefactors! Flames and incense are passed down from generation to generation! Forces grow and leaves scatter! There are hundreds, thousands, families, and Lu!" After the village chief finished speaking, he gulped down the water in one gulp.

The others also shouted, "Respectful benefactor! I'll burn incense for generations! I'll make a clean sweep of the land! I'll see hundreds, thousands, and tens of thousands of households!"

William was moved in his heart. Looking at this re-built Lantern Village on the ruins, he was full of lofty sentiments in a moment!

He held the wooden bowl high and said piously, "The Incense Lamp! The name of the incense is fragrant! The Five Valleys and Fengdeng! The peace and harmony that has lasted for thousands and thousands of generations!"

The water was not like wine, but it was more romantic than wine.

After finishing the bowl of water, William went home with Liu Tigger.

Behind him, the chorus of "Third Kingdom of the Jade Dragon" sang by the villagers was heard again.

"Ah, ah, ah... ah, ah, ah..."

"I held your hand in the breeze and kissed your face in the rain..."

"In this bridge, filled with the fragrance of flowers and flying snow, along the river..."

"The legend says that you and I will never be separated. In the song, you and I love each other till we die..."

"The Third Kingdom of the Jade Dragon, where we roamed the clouds and sea of clouds together..."

"Oh... I love you, love you until the jade dragon flies to the sky..."

"Oh... Love me, love Li Shui until it doesn't flow..."

"Believe me. Follow me. I will get the entire mountain of Snow Lotus to bloom for you..."

"Let's fly. Let's drift. We're in the Third Kingdom of the Jade Dragon..."

This song ran through the lives of the villagers in the Lantern Village.

William heard it for the first time. Her voice was sad, and she had no desire or concern for death.

For the second time, the voice was sad and shrill, like a torment butterfly in a raging fire.

Now, when she heard it again, she felt that the singing was cheerful, and there was no end to her yearning for life.

This should be the eternal life belonging to the Lantern Village.

Because Sharon's hand was injured, Liu Tigger, who had the lightest injury, was driving. The night was dark and there was silence.

"William, take a rest. We should come to Qena City early tomorrow morning," Liu Tigger said.

"Okay." William said, with her eyes drifting to the trunk, where there was a strong smell of blood.

Liu Tigger seemed to be aware of William's doubts and said, "That's Sirius's head! This time back to Qena City, I'm going to uproot all of his remnants!"

William nodded and then closed her eyes.

Early the next morning, Bernard waited at the door.

After waiting for a while, a group of people came aggressively.

This group of people were Sirius's subordinates.

The leader was a middle-aged man called Falcon.

He had been living a free and easy life these days.

He quickly took away Liu Tigger's entire territory by virtue of his quick and forceful actions.

During the days when Sirius was not around, he had vaguely become the leader of Qena City.

Bernard had spent a lot of money inviting him to take charge.

Bernard hurriedly nodded and bowed, carefully serving Falcon while they ate breakfast. Then, the group of people hurriedly drove towards Felicity's home.

In Felicity's home, Felicity's entire body was haggard, as if he had completely lost the glory of the flower that could topple a city.

Her eyes were red, and she curled up on the sofa, staring at the mobile phone on the table.

Three days, William had been missing for three whole days, and there was no news from him at all!

This was something that had never happened before!

In the past three days, Felicity crazily dialed William's number and sent people to inquire about William's news everywhere.

However, there was no communication message.

After that, she found out that William finally left with Liu Tigger and was going to inquire about Liu Tigger's news.

But there came the grievous news of Liu Tigger's death.

This bad news was like a clap of thunder, making Felicity unable to recover for a long time.

William went with Liu Tigger. If Liu Tigger died, then William...

At the thought of this, Felicity's tears came out again.

She suddenly realized that without William by her side, how fragile she was, how isolated and helpless she was...

"William, where are you? I miss you so much. Why don't you come back? Without you, I wouldn't have been able to survive either..." Felicity muttered bitterly.

At this moment, there was a loud thump at the door!

@vamp20w0111

Chapter 311

The sound of the door being kicked was so loud that Felicity and the others were awakened.

She looked at the door in shock. The wooden door had already been broken into pieces!

Fear gripped her heart, so she ran to the door hurriedly and shouted in horror, "Who? Who are you?"

The door didn't answer, and there was only the sound of a knock on the door.

"Bang!" The wooden door finally shattered.

A group of people flocked in!

Seeing the person in front of him, Felicity's heart skipped a beat!

It was Bernard!

Bernard's eyes were filled with ridicule as he slowly walked in and stood in front of Felicity.

Falcon, on the other hand, held a dagger in their hands. They stuck out their tongues and licked the dagger lightly.

His eyes were fixed on Felicity.

Even though Felicity was extremely haggard at the moment, in the eyes of Falcon and his subordinates, she was still beautiful and moving.

What's more, there was a trace of jade burial flower, which made her delicate and touching.

The Flower of Qena City indeed lived up to its reputation.

"Bernard, what are you doing!" Felicity forced himself to shout.

Bernard sneered, "What are you doing? Haha, of course I'm here to take good care of you for your dead husband."

"What did you say?" Felicity's face changed on the spot.

Bernard casually lit a cigarette and said with a smile, "Don't you know that your husband has already died in the hands of Brother Sirius?"

Felicity felt as if he had been struck by lightning!

Even if she had always suspected it, but no one told her clearly, she still didn't believe it in her heart.

Now, Bernard actually said it out loud.

"Could it be that William has already..."

At the thought of this, tears welled up in her eyes.

"Ow, I'm going to cry, I'm going to cry. It's so pitiable," Bernard said with a proud smile.

"Three days ago, your husband and Liu Tigger had already died in Brother Sirius's hands. Today, I'm here. Let's get revenge." Bernard's face suddenly became ferocious.

Seeing Felicity, he thought of the scene when he was humiliated by William on the election!

"I can't look back!"

"Bernard, it's such a pity to kill such a little beauty in one go. Let us live for a few more days." Staring at Felicity's tearful pretty face, the falcon swallowed.

Bernard did not dare to resist. He quickly said, "Brother Ying, everything is up to you today. As long as this woman can live a life worse than death, I will be satisfied. Maybe I will have fun with you."

Hearing the shameless words of this group of people, Felicity's face turned pale.

However, she felt as if her heart had sunk into an icehouse.

She sat on the sofa with disappointment and frustration. Her whole body seemed to have lost her soul and her eyes were glassy.

Did William really die in their hands?

If not for this, how would Bernard dare to come over with such fanfare...

William...

Thinking of William, she could no longer hold back her tears and fell down on the spot.

"Hehe, let me have a good time first." One of the younger brothers couldn't bear it any longer when he saw the scene of white snow and pear blossoms dripping with rain. He rushed straight towards Felicity.

His hand was about to carry Felicity.

But at this time, an unexpected thing happened.

Felicity, who had been in a daze, suddenly grabbed a glass cup on the table.

She smashed the glass with a tap, and then quickly inserted the glass fragment into the guy's chest!

"Aooo!" Who would have thought that Felicity, who was still so weak just now, seemed to have changed into another person at this moment.

How dare he commit murder in front of so many people!

What's more, they were outnumbered by both sides!

"You're really looking for death!"

For a time, the scene became quiet, leaving the little buddy covering his bleeding chest and screaming.

Everyone stared at Felicity in a daze.

Felicity stood up slowly with a broken glass that was still dripping with blood in his hand.

She suddenly looked at Bernard!

For a moment, his eyes were extremely fierce!

This was not like a woman's eyes at all!

This was clearly the craziness of a wild beast to choose and eat!

Felicity Feng had gone mad!

"Felicity, how dare you hurt Brother Sirius's subordinate! You don't want to live!" Bernard roared.

"Life? Heh heh, if my husband dies, my heart will also die. What's the point of living?" Felicity gave a bitter laugh, but he was determined to live.

"You'd better think about it carefully. I came here today to ask you for your face. If you admit defeat, I can spare your life!" Bernard looked at Felicity's eyes and did not dare to act rashly. He could only pacify Felicity first.

However, Felicity and snow suddenly let out a sneer.

"William has been pure all her life. If she died, she would be absolutely upright. As his wife, if I were to be afraid of death, wouldn't that be a joke?" As Felicity spoke, he suddenly put the bloody glass fragment against his neck!

For a moment, her eyes were lonesome, but they made people feel brave and cold.

All of a sudden, all the people present did not dare to act rashly.

But right at this moment, a cold sneer rang out.

Falcon stepped forward.

He looked Felicity up and down. The more he looked, the stronger the desire to conquer was in his eyes.

He slowly walked towards Felicity.

However, Felicity and snow didn't retreat or dodge. The broken pieces in his hands were faintly trembling.

Seeing that the falcon was about to walk up to her, she suddenly sighed.

There was a hint of death in his eyes.

William, I'm here to keep you company. Don't go too fast...

As Felicity thought so, the fragments were raised high and were going to stab him in the neck!

But at this moment, Falcon began to move.

He had caught Felicity's wrist in the blink of an eye!

Felicity's heart skipped a beat!

As for the falcon, it looked at Felicity with a playful expression. It actually grabbed her hand, but its tongue gently licked the blood on the glass fragment.

"Do you want to die? I, the falcon, want you to live, but you can't. It's a pity for such a beauty to die. Let's play with us first." Falcon chuckled, grabbed the pieces, and pushed Felicity and snow onto the sofa.

Two of his men immediately rushed up and held Felicity down.

"Take off her clothes for me and let's take a good look at her." Falcon laughed coldly.

Felicity's head slammed into the air!

He wanted to die, but he couldn't.

"Am I really going to be humiliated like this?"

If William is here, you little thieves and rascals, dare to touch me!

At the thought of this, tears welled up in her eyes.

Biting the tongue!

When she was about to bite her tongue, a hubbub came from the door!

Falcon were stunned. Their hands, which were about to tear off their clothes, immediately hovered in mid-air.

Suddenly, a scream sounded at the door!

A figure flew in from the door and lay in front of everyone!

Footsteps came from the door!

"Who is it!" The Falcon Eagle frowned and shouted in a stern voice.

"Felicity of Qena City, even the king is unable to move!" A cruel voice came from the door.

@vamp20w0111

Chapter 312

As this voice fell, a group of people appeared in front of everyone.

Seeing the coming person, Falcon frowned deeply.

It was Frandick, the president of the Medicine Association!

Frandick looked at Bernard, and the anger in his eyes was almost about to burst out!

Recently, Frandick had been sending people to keep an eye on Bernard. When his subordinates reported to him that Bernard had brought a group of people to Felicity's family, Frandick's face turned pale from fright.

Recently, there had been rumors that William was already dead. How could there be any good news when Bernard brought someone to Felicity's house?

Frandick would never forget William's great kindness to Frandick.

He immediately gathered his men and headed for the house of Felicity.

Finally, at this critical moment, he stopped Falcon.

"Bernard! You're courting death!" Frandick shouted.

However, Bernard laughed out loud.

"Looking for death? Frandick, you think too highly of yourself! I am not your subordinate long ago, and I can tell you clearly that I am already a member of the medical association. If you dare to touch me, you will provoke a conflict between the two families. You can try to kill me!" Bernard laughed and said.

Frandick's face froze.

The contradiction between the current Medicine Practitioner and the Medicine Practitioner Association had reached the point where it was on the verge of breaking out.

If the two families really broke out into a fight because of this fuse today, it would only make things worse for Qena City, which was filled with storms and storms.

Bernard saw Frandick's conflicted expression and became even more pleased. He pointed at the sneering falcon by his side and said, "And don't you even take a look? Who is this person beside me? He's Brother Sirius's right-hand man, the Falcon! I'm sure you already know about what happened in Qena City in the past few days. What's the matter? Do you still want to challenge Brother Sirius?"

Frandick's pupils constricted and he took a step back!

This man turned out to be the head of Falcon in Qena City these days!

In the underground of the Medicine Association and Qena City, people never interfere with each other. Now that Sirius was involved, things became complicated.

In the past few days, the power of Sirius had swept through the entire Qena City, and everyone knew about it!

Right now, even the entire Medicine Association had to be wary of Sirius.

Damn it!

If William was there, would you dare to be so arrogant!

"They're just a group of bullying slaves who can only take advantage of their power!"

After thinking for a while, Frandick made up his mind!

"I have to repay William's help!"

"My Frandick's words are right here! If you dare to touch Felicity today, I will use my medicine to fight you to the death!" Frandick said chillingly.

The men behind him smashed the sticks in their hands to the ground in unison!

For a time, his momentum was unparalleled!

Falcon had brought ten men with them, while Frandick had brought more than twenty!

Frandick had the absolute advantage in numbers.

However, the falcon was not afraid at all. It sneered and said, "Well, Frandick, I remember your words. If you want to fight, let's fight. The power of the Sirius is matchless in the city. Come on!"

With an angry roar, Falcon also began to roar in unison.

The sword was drawn, and it was on the verge of breaking out!

The situation suddenly came to a standstill. No one dared to move first.

Felicity looked at the scene in front of him and burst into tears.

Although William was dead, the remaining prestige was still there.

At this time, an old but domineering voice came from the door again. "Master Hoo, you really live longer and longer. In my eyes, anyone who causes Felicity, just kill them."

The sound of hurried footsteps could be heard.

The tigers and wolves held the butcher's knife and rushed straight to Falcon without saying a word!

The scene was instantly ignited!

As for the last person, he slowly walked in, and his eyes were full of overbearing anger!

Qena City, Hugo!

Liu Tigger was Hugo's subordinate. Rumors had it that Liu Tigger was dead, and Sirius's subordinate had swallowed Liu Tigger's territory with great fanfare. Falcon and others had long been targeted by Hugo.

Therefore, when Hugo heard that Falcon were heading for Felicity's family, he immediately led his men to rush over.

When Falcon saw Hugo, their hearts skipped a beat!

In the early years, everyone was afraid of Hugo!

It was just that in the past few years, Hugo was getting old and his health was not good.

His remaining power gradually died down in Qena City.

Now, looking at Hugo's bright and energetic eyes, Falcon actually felt a little scared!

It was as if Hugo had regained his youth and was on the battlefield!

"Hugo He! Do you really think that I'm afraid of you? You just showed off your power in Qena City with Liu Tigger in the front! Now Liu Tigger is dead, and you are just an old man whose teeth have been pulled out! You really want to go against Brother Sirius!" Falcon kicked a man in front of him and shouted at Hugo.

However, Hugo did not reply.

In fact, the look in his eyes was that of superiority!

He didn't put Falcon in his eyes at all!

What a joke! Hugo had fought a bloody battle for decades in Jianghu, and he had seen all kinds of heroes!

Falcon were merely clowns.

Not to mention Falcon, even if the Sirius was standing in front of Hugo, Hugo would not lose his courage!

This was the pride that belonged to Hugo, who was ambitious and not in his prime!

Blood was spurting from the scene. Watching this scene, Hugo even had a kind of stirring in his heart.

"You want to fight in Jianghu?"

He would fight another hundred years!

Meanwhile, he had this type of body and bones, this type of bravery, this was all bestowed upon him by a young man!

If he didn't have the divine needle to continue his life, how could his blood light appear again and cause a chill to run through Jianghu!

In an instant, Falcon' men had been wiped out by Hugo He's men.

Half of Felicity houses were dyed in blood.

Felicity had never seen such a bloody scene. She was so scared that she began to tremble.

Hugo seemed to know the fear of Felicity. He walked to Felicity and said kindly, "Nephew Felicity, you are frightened."

Felicity looked at Hugo, who was arrogant but kind to him at the moment, and didn't know what to say in his heart.

The relationship between William and Hugo was actually so good!

Hugo, who was able to wash his hands, drew his knife again!

What's more, Hugo didn't hesitate to offend Sirius!

"Who on earth is my husband?"

His background might be a shocking secret!

It was a pity...

Thinking of William's death, Felicity couldn't help crying.

She suddenly said to Hugo in a low voice, "Old Master Li! Thank you for saving me. I have a request, but I don't know if it's convenient for you..."

Hugo was stunned and said, "Nephew Felicity, you can just say it."

Felicity suddenly turned his gaze to the trembling Bernard beside him and the unreconciled Falcon!

His voice was cold and bone-chilling!

"I want you to spare their lives!"

His words made all the people on the spot stunned.

Spare their lives?

What was Felicity and what the hell was he trying to do!?

When Bernard heard that they were going to spare his life, he was just about to rejoice when Felicity's gritted teeth's voice rang out again!

"I, Felicity, will cut off their heads personally!"

"Revenge for my husband!"

Chapter 313

His words sent a shiver down everyone's spine!

Everyone looked at Felicity in disbelief!

He was obviously the weakest person on the scene!

But he said the cruelest sentence!

For a moment, Hugo was shocked by Felicity!

Judging from her trembling face just now, it was obvious that she was extremely afraid of the killing on the spot.

But now, she spoke firmly and wanted to avenge her husband with her own hands!

What kind of hatred!

How much love she had for him!

To be able to make a woman tremble with blood say such a thing!

Raising one's saber and killing one's target was a sin that would haunt one's inner demons for a lifetime!

Felicity was crazy!

But he was really angry!

Looking at Felicity's angry but unusually calm eyes, Hugo suddenly burst into laughter.

He suddenly looked up at the sky!
It was as if he was looking at someone.

William, if you have a soul in heaven, and see Felicity like this, you should rest in peace.

"You are lucky to have married such a good wife who loves you so much."

"And Felicity didn't let you down. He was crazy for you."

"Good! Come on! Clean the knife for Felicity and open the soul for Felicity!" Hugo suddenly roared, his voice was so loud that it made people deaf!

His men immediately brought up a bloody long knife, grabbed a bottle of water from the table, and poured it on the knife.

The blood on the knife's body was immediately washed away.

The cold light glittered, and the killing intent was chilling!

Felicity and Snow grabbed the knife and felt his hand sink.

It actually made him feel dizzy.

William, is this the knife that you raised for me last time?

It was heavy, very heavy.

But it made people move forward with indomitable will.

But she didn't want to let him go.

She grabbed the knife and walked toward Bernard.

Bernard had been scared out of his wits ever since the day when he was about to seek revenge for his husband.

Was this still the flower of Qena City?

She was exactly like a second- reincarnation Asura!

A woman actually dared to be so arrogant and indecisive!

Bernard's eyes were blank as he watched Felicity and snow approach!

It seemed that he saw another arrogant person on Felicity!

It seemed that that person gave Felicity infinite courage to let her commit crimes and let her be innocent!

Gradually, the two figures overlapped.

The cold knife was right in front of Bernard. He seemed to be able to feel the sharp killing intent from the knife.

He was so scared that his face turned blue. Although he was held down on the ground, he still kowtowed to Felicity and snow desperately.

"Felicity, it's my fault. I shouldn't have come for revenge. I was blind. Please let go of me! I swear, I will be the most powerful person in the rest of my life to repay you!" Bernard cried in a trembling voice.

However, Felicity's knife was already on Bernard's neck.

The knife was so sharp that it immediately cut his neck.

A stream of blood came out along the blade.

The blood was very red, making Felicity's hands tremble.

A smile suddenly appeared on her face, as if she was thanking Bernard.

"Bernard, if you apologize, go to the Yellow Springs and tell my husband." Felicity smiled and suddenly raised his saber!

Blood spurted out!

"Ah!" Bernard screamed out in pain, as if he had gone mad!

One slash and he didn't die.

After all, Felicity was a woman. Her power was not enough for her to cut off Bernard's head.

However, Felicity and Snow suddenly laughed again.

One slash and he didn't die.

"This is good!"

If one strike was not enough, then one more!

One strike was too short, and one thousand strikes would make one happy!

"Felicity, you're going to die a tragic death! You're going to die a tragic death!" Bernard seemed to understand something from Felicity's smiling face.

At this moment, standing in front of him was not a beautiful woman at all.

It was a female devil!

She was a crazy female devil!

One stroke!

Another strike!

After five strikes, Bernard died!

However, he wasn't killed by Felicity.

He was scared to death by Felicity's crazy action of cutting off his head!

Felicity saw him lying limp on the ground and suddenly let out a sigh.

He died too quickly, as if he was feeling regret.

She looked at the saber in her hand, which was stained with blood, and tears fell silently again.

William, was this killing?

As long as he had faith in it, he was not afraid of karma at all!

I finally got it.

"I'm finally closer to you."

It's a pity that you're farther away from me.

As for the scene, it was as silent as death!

Even though Hugo had been fighting on the battlefield for decades, when he saw Felicity and snow's move, he was stunned.

What kind of woman was she?

William, oh William, if you see the current Felicity, you must be distressed to death.

Frاندick smacked his lips and looked at Felicity with a different expression.

He had a kind of horrible idea.

A resourceful William died in Qena City.

Now, I am afraid that there is another woman named William who is decisive in killing!

This kind of white Felicity was truly terrifying to the extreme!

In the silence, Felicity and snow dragged their knives and slowly walked toward Falcon that had been pinned down.

Falcon gazed at Felicity, a strong killing intent emanating from their eyes.

"Felicity, let me try if you dare to touch me! My Qena City has tens of thousands of brothers! If you attack me today, my brothers and I will massacre your entire family someday! You still have family members, right?" Falcon cried out ferociously.

"Family?" Hearing this, Felicity and Yang laughed.

He smiled bitterly.

"How can I, Felicity, have any family? My only family was killed by you all. So what if there are over a thousand brothers? They are not as powerful as my William." Felicity stood in front of Falcon.

When Falcon heard this and looked at the cold saber that was raised high up above them, they finally felt a bone-chilling fear!

This woman was serious!

She came here with the belief that they would not stop until one of them was dead!

He suddenly looked at Hugo and roared, "Hugo! This woman is crazy! Do you also want to act alone with her? Do you know the consequences of killing me? I swear! As long as you kill me today, my Bro Sirius and my brothers will do violence in Qena City! At that time, the whole Qena City will be buried with my death!"

Hugo, however, looked at Felicity and did not speak.

However, at this moment, Felicity's hands slightly trembled.

"Was Qena City buried with Falcon?"

This kind of sin was too serious.

Felicity understood Hugo's eyes. "The big shot of Qena City gives me a chance to make a choice."

If he killed Falcon today and caused Qena City to become a river of blood, Hugo would be responsible for such a sin!

If he didn't kill Falcon today, he would be protected by Hugo for the rest of his life!

It was up to him to decide.

But it was obvious, wasn't it?

Felicity made a deep bow to Hugo, as if to thank him for his kindness.

Then, she looked at Falcon and laughed very crazily!

"Falcon? You're wrong. You're not the one who's going to bury the entire Qena City!"

"It's William!"

"Crazy! Hugo! She is crazy! Who is that William? What's his identity? Why are you so partial to him! Have you thought about the consequences? Can you afford the consequences?" The Falcon shouted hysterically at Hugo when he saw the fear in Felicity's eyes!

Hugo still didn't answer.

However, someone answered for him.

A mournful but proud voice sounded outside the door.

"This old fool can't afford it! How about I, Harper, do it as well!"

"Don't you want to know William's identity? I'll tell you a secret!"

"I, Harper, serve King William! Generation after generation, forever loyal!"

Chapter 314

An old figure slowly appeared in Felicity's home.

With tears in his eyes, he clenched his fists!

Behind him stood more than a dozen men in black with knives and sticks!

A deathly stillness hung over the scene!

They were not shocked by Harper's arrival.

After all, Hugo was the first to arrive and Harper was the first to arrive, so they would not be shocked.

What they were truly shocked of was Harper's words just now!

"I, Harper, serve King William! Generation after generation, forever loyal!"

Harper's status was so noble!

He was as famous as Hugo and Li He in Qena City, and he was known as the twin heroes in Qena City!

How many years had it been? He alone was the most powerful, looking down on Qena City!

But now, what did they hear!

Harper actually served William as a king!

And 100 generations of loyalty!

What a shocking sentence!

Not to mention Falcon, even Hugo and Felicity were shocked!

Felicity looked at Harper in shock. This old man was old, but now his eyes were filled with grief and indignation.

"My husband is actually his master!"

In other words, William had already covered Qena City!

Thinking of this, Felicity and snow couldn't help but shudder!

This should be William's secret!

If this wasn't the case, how could Harper come out to help him time and time again?

All of this was William's silent support behind him.

Felicity's eyes reddened again.

And Hugo also looked at Harper with horror. Up to now, he still couldn't believe what he just heard.

Although William had the great power of Bhadanta, Harper was also arrogant. He had never seen him yield!

Just what method did William use to make Harper accept him as his disciple?

Hugo rushed to Harper in a flash. When he was surprised, he even directly grabbed Harper's clothes.

He asked eagerly, "You bastard, do you know what you are talking about? When will you become a follower of William?"

Harper said nothing, as if he was recalling something.

However, Hugo was still not reconciled and continued to say, "Although we made a bet in the changes of the Medicine Association a few days ago to see who fell into William's hands first, it only took a few days for you to fall into William's hands?"

This time, Harper finally spoke.

With a wry smile, he said to Hugo, "I'm sorry. In fact, I have concealed something before. William was the lord of Harper. William, I was the servant of his generation. William died, but I, Harper, still did not change my original intention. I'm willing to use my life to serve Felicity to repay the young master."

Little Young Master...

Upon hearing that remark, Hugo was stunned.

William, what else is there that I don't know...

He was the young master of an aristocratic family, someone who could make Harper remain so loyal to him for the rest of his life.

At this time, Harper walked to the front of Felicity.

He looked at Felicity, and suddenly his eyes reddened again.

With a "plop", he knelt down in front of Felicity and snow.

At this point in time, Felicity was jolted awake. She quickly stretched out her hand, wanting to help Harper up.

"Mr. Wang, what are you doing? I can't stand it."

However, Harper continued to kneel upright and said with tears in his eyes, "Young Madam, it was me, Harper, who did not do well! I didn't protect Little Young Master well and let him die. Please punish me, Young Madam!"

What he said made Felicity not know how to answer.

A powerful man in Qena City knelt down to her.

She didn't even dare to imagine such a scene!

But now, it really happened in front of her.

What a great honor!

It was clear who was in charge of the ups and downs!

It was William who gave it to her.
Unfortunately, William was not there.

What was the point of this kind of world-catching glory?

Felicity reached out his hand and silently supported Harper. He choked and said, "Mr. Wang, you get up first. I don't blame you. I believe William will not blame you either if he is under the netherworld. Although I don't know all about him, I know his character. He is a person who will die without regret."

Harper slowly stood up and once again said, "Young Madam, in the future, I, Harper, will treat you as my master. I will go through fire and water without hesitation!"

Felicity and snow gave a wry smile, but didn't say a word.

"Will there be a future?"

Today, she killed her enemy with her own hands. She was afraid that her wish had been fulfilled, and she had no motivation to live.

At this time, Harper walked to the front of Falcon, their eyes looking at each other!

A strong killing intent burst out from Harper's eyes!

Falcon had been committing murder for more than ten years, but in front of an old man, they were timid!

His heart was shaking violently!

He finally knew what kind of devil he had provoked!

He thought that William was just a good-for-nothing in Qena City!

The reason why they came here today was just to earn some pocket money.

But he didn't expect that he would meet an unforgettable iron plate here today!

William, was she someone that she could afford to provoke?!

Frاندick didn't have to worry about that.

With Hugo's status, he personally led the troops to protect Felicity!

Now, there was even Harper who publicly announced that William was his master!

If this news were to spread out, the entire Qena City would definitely be shaken!

In the future, no one dared to look down on William!

"I didn't expect that a dead man could cause such a turmoil!"

This William was simply extremely horrible!

Falcon slowly lowered their heads towards Harper, their voices also becoming weak and powerless.

"Old Wang, I really didn't participate in the killing of William. It was all done by Mr. Sirius. It has nothing to do with me. Can you spare my life? Just tell me how much money you want." At this time, the falcon didn't dare to stand on the side of Sirius easily.

After all, if Qena City's two powerhouses were to join forces, even Sirius would be wary of them.

What's more, the furious Harper in front of him seemed to be going to fight with the Sirius to the death.

"I know that it has nothing to do with you, but what's wrong is that you are Sirius's person. Sirius's person is the same as Sirius's!" Harper said domineeringly.

Falcon looked at Harper in disbelief. "Old Wang! Don't tell me you really want to incite a civil strife in Qena City!"

"Heh heh, young master's ascension to heaven means that I have no meaning of living. So what if there is infighting? Guards!" Harper commanded!

One of his subordinates delivered the butcher's knife!

Harper sighed as he looked at the blade in his hand.

However, he still sought Felicity's approval.

"Young Madam, killing this fellow will dirty your hands. Would you like me to clean it up for you?"

Felicity's heart was full of frustration at the moment. What else did he have to say?

But just as everyone's attention was focused on Felicity, Falcon on the ground suddenly shifted their gazes!

He used all the strength in his body to break free from the restraints of the two people!

Then he grabbed a knife from the ground and rushed straight toward Felicity!

"I'll go all out with you! Even if I have to die, I'll drag you down with me!"

There was a burst of exclamation on the scene!

Just when everyone was unprepared, a sharp wind-breaking sound came from the door!

"Ding!" The machete in the Falcon's hand fell to the ground.

Everyone fixed their eyes and saw that the knife that fell to the ground with Falcon was a strange silver needle!
