

Chapter 333

After saying that, Zhang Ruolong fixed his eyes on Liu Tigger.

As for Brother Xiao Dao and Brother Long Mao, they did not dare to say anything else from beginning to end.

Because they had been living in Qena City for a long time, so they knew an unwritten rule.

That was to say, it was better not to talk too much in front of Brother Tigger.

"If I say too much, I'll make a mistake."

It was the best choice to admit his mistake in front of Brother Tigger.

After Zhang Ruolong finished his words, Brother Tigger looked at him in surprise and then suddenly burst into laughter.

This smile made all the people present a little confused.

These words were truly too disrespectful.

After all, Liu Tigger had just become the king of the underground world of Shangqing City in the past few days, and his prestige had reached its peak in a short time.

And if someone said that at this time, didn't it mean that they were cursing Liu Tigger for losing his throne?

How could Liu Tigger bear this?

"It's a little abnormal."

"Brother Tigger, what are you laughing at? Is there anything wrong with what you just said?" Zhang Ruolong forced himself to ask.

Brother Tigger suddenly stopped laughing and said coldly, "That's right."

Zhang Ruolong suddenly became excited. "I said I was right. Brother Tigger, do you think so too?"

However, Brother Tigger suddenly stood up and looked at Zhang Ruolong. His expression became teasing. "I'm not saying that what you said is right. I mean, what William just said, is right."

These words had gone around a lot of lines, causing everyone to be confused.

However, those who came to their senses suddenly widened their eyes and looked at Liu Tigger in disbelief!

Liu Tigger said that William was right.

What William said was that Liu Tigger was his younger brother...

In other words—

"Yes, William is right. I, Liu Tigger, am his subordinate. What, do you have any other opinions?" Liu Tigger did not think that being William's subordinate was a shameful thing at all.

He was even proud of this, hoping that one day, under everyone's attention, he would swear fealty in public to show his loyalty.

When they heard what Liu Tigger just said, all the people present were completely stunned.

They all felt like they were hallucinating.

The person from Qena City, who had been ruling the underground of Qena City for the past few days, was actually a young man's follower?

This was an absurd story!

Zhang Ruolong, on the other hand, did not quite believe what he had just heard.

Didn't he know who William was?

He was the famous good-for-nothing son-in-law of Qena City.

How could a man, who had been living off a woman for more than a decade, be the boss of such a god-like big shot as Liu Tigger?

"There must be something wrong."

Otherwise, Liu Tigger was lying to protect William's face.

But what he said was clear that there was no room for resistance from the people at the scene.

Although the long-haired man and the Knife didn't believe Liu Tigger's words, they immediately became nervous.

Since Brother Tigger had made up his mind to protect the face of this young man, he was afraid that things would not end well today.

"This damn Zhang Ruolong!"

"I don't know where he comes from!"

Not only did he offend the young man, but he also offended Brother Tigger just now. Now he was finished.

Sure enough, after Liu Tigger finished speaking, he handed a file bag in his hand to William and whispered, "William, I'm sorry. I've humiliated you. I'll clean up the house right away."

With this, he looked at Xiaodao and said coldly, "Xiaodao, which hand did you take someone else's money just now?"

Frightened out of his wits, Knife's face turned deathly pale. He curled up into a ball on the ground and did not dare to speak.

"Go back with me and suffer the punishment of losing an arm." After saying that, Liu Tigger left his seat and walked forward.

Behind him, the little knife's body shook violently, and his face was devoid of all hope.

However, he still respectfully said: "Brother Xie Hu, as long as you don't kill me, I am willing to be punished."

Liu Tigger walked out of the tea restaurant with heavy footsteps. Then Knife stood up from the ground and wanted to follow Liu Tigger.

But at this time, the long hair on the ground, almost in a crying tone, said to Brother Xiao Dao, "Brother Xiao Dao, what should I do..."

Brother Xiao Dao's face showed a very ferocious expression!

Just now, it was this long hair that was giving money!

He was the one to bear 70% of the sin!

"From now on, don't let me see you in Qena City." After saying this, Brother Xiao Dao strode outside.

Upon hearing this, Brother Long Mao was dumbfounded.

"It's over, it's completely over."

The wealth and honor that awaited him for the rest of his life had been reduced to smoke.

He thought he could ride on Brother Xiaodao's coattails, but now it was difficult for Brother Xiaodao to protect himself.

Damn it, if it weren't for the fact that he was on good terms with Zhang Ruolong in time, he wouldn't have allowed this idiot to come here together!

It was absolutely a big mistake to bring him here today!

"I've wasted my life!"

At the thought of this, Brother Long Mao suddenly punched on Zhang Ruolong's face, which made Zhang Ruolong scream on the ground.

He hadn't fully recovered from the injury he got yesterday.

The long-haired brother wanted to grab the chair and hit him hard, but considering that this territory was the territory of another boss, he could only give up embarrassingly.

He did not stand up dispiritedly until he had given Zhang Ruolong a good beating.

He looked at William.

From the beginning to the end, this young man had been acting as if he were an outsider.

At this moment, he was calmly looking at the file bag that Liu Tigger had just given him.

"Why haven't I seen this young man in his high health before?"

If Brother Tigger thought highly of Lin Mengya, she would be regarded as a famous person in Qena City.

"Who on earth is he...?"

Unable to figure it out, Brother Long Mao had no choice but to walk out disappointedly.

At the scene, only Zhang Ruolong was struggling to scream on the ground.

At this point, he had nothing left.

He didn't even know what to lose.

He had no money, no power, and no face.

Originally, he thought that he was going to show off in front of his brothers in the next few days.

Now, the long-furred elder brother was bound to cut off all ties with him.

The connection between Brother Tigger and him was completely broken. It was even a question to whether he could stay in Qena City in the future.

The brothers on the ground suddenly burst into tears and kicked at Zhang Ruolong one after another. "You son of a bitch! Didn't you say you could take us to the second half of our lives? Now, our money has been taken away by you!"

"And we have offended such a big shot. How can we live in the future!"

"I'm really blind. Only when I'm deaf will I believe your nonsense and come with you! Otherwise, I'm still covering the sky with my hands when I'm in the village now!"

Zhang Ruolong was also driven mad. He suddenly roared like a madman, "What are you doing? What are you doing! Have I asked you to come over? Don't push me!"

With a roar, he immediately calmed the crowd down.

This group of people was just gangsters. They bullied the weak and feared the strong.

At this time, the shop assistant at the side said coldly, "If you keep making noise, don't blame me to drive you out! Whose territory is this place? Don't you know?"

The speaker was Wuwei, and the listener was 9.5. Zhang Ruolong looked at William, who was looking down at the files, and suddenly came up with an extremely vicious plot in his mind!

Borrow a borrowed knife to kill!

Chapter 334

Zhang Ruolong's heart was already dead.

After all, in his opinion, Brother Long Mao and Brother Xiao Dao were already high and mighty people.

But in front of Liu Tigger, he was like an ant.

He didn't even have the right to struggle.

He even understood why Liu Tigger would let him go.

Because people like him didn't even have the right to let Brother Tigger speak.

The difference in status was too great.

Punishing himself would be a disgrace to Brother Tigger's status.

He watched helplessly as the hair and knife, who he had always been serving as the Celestial Being, were easily dealt with, and his heart was already devoid of any hope of life.

However, when he saw William, he was once again unwilling to accept it.

"Why should I do that?"

A good-for-nothing who lived off a woman could talk to Brother Tigger, and even let Brother Tigger lower himself to tell a lie to absolve him.

As for himself, he could only be beaten up time and time again.

"Why should I do that?"

Zhang Ruolong thought, "Anyway, I can't stay in Qena City anymore."

Even if he were to die, he would not let William have a good time!

If worse came to worst, they would die together!

Thinking of this, Zhang Ruolong suddenly grabbed a few bottles of wine from the ground and threw them at William like crazy!

He even roared crazily, "It's all because of you! You made me lose all my reputation, and I'll kill you today!"

The wine bottle flew toward William in the air, and William's position was just against the wall. There was no way for him to retreat at all.

But at this time, William raised his head and kicked the foot that crossed Erlang's leg!

The big table with yellow pears on it was immediately kicked up by him.

The beer bottles crashed onto the table with a pitter-patter sound.

And the table also slammed to the ground with a "bang".

At the sight of this, Zhang Ruolong suddenly laughed hideously. He had fallen into a trap!

"This kid, you won't die until now!"

Sure enough, when the clerk saw that the table was smashed again, her face changed and shouted to the outside, "Brother Biao, someone is smashing the venue again! Come here!"

The man in black, who had been guarding outside, rushed over again and surrounded Zhang Ruolong and the others.

Zhang Ruolong was not afraid at all at the moment.

It was not him who smashed the table!

He pointed to William and said to those men in black, "Everyone saw that it was him who kicked over the table!"

The leader of the group, the black-clad man called Brother Biao, looked at William and said fiercely, "Brat, you know better than to commit a crime, don't you? You don't know whose territory this is!"

At this time, William had already stood up and put the documents back in the file pocket.

These documents were the property of Liu Tigger and Sirius in Qena City.

He had a rough look at it and found that it was more than six billion.

William looked at Brother Biao and said calmly, "It's Old Master Li's place."

"How dare you do that!" Brother Biao's face darkened and he felt embarrassed at once.

"This table is worth 500,000 yuan." The shop assistant said from the side.

Zhang Ruolong saw it and immediately burst out laughing.

"500,000?" William smiled and suddenly grabbed a chair.

He held the legs of the chair, dragged it to the ground, and slowly walked toward Zhang Ruolong.

Everyone's heart was about to jump out of their throats.

"Is this boy also crazy?"

With so many people present and the prestige of Old Master Li here, did he still want to hit people?

Didn't she want to live in Qena City?

However, everyone didn't even dare to breathe loudly.

They didn't know why they were clearly looking at William dragging the legs of the chair.

But it made them feel like they were hallucinating.

It was as if this fellow was dragging the world instead of the chair, but a great blade that could slaughter the world.

It seemed that he was born to have such an imposing manner of lifting a saber.

The legs of the chair had been raised in front of Zhang Ruolong. William looked indifferent, as if it had nothing to do with life or death.

Zhang Ruolong didn't believe that William would dare to hit him. He smiled ferociously and said, "Come on, hit me. Anyway, I'm going to risk everything today. You're going to have a good fight!"

"Even if I die, you won't survive either!"

Looking at Zhang Ruolong, William's heart was unusually calm.

He didn't bother to argue with this kind of wicked person at all.

It was just because of the snow storm.

This scoundrel had hidden such an important letter for nine years.

During these nine years, William saw Felicity tossing and turning many times in the middle of the night. She cried because she missed her father so much.

William had waited for so many times. When she saw the killing desire of Felicity, it burned again and again, and then extinguished.

If this letter had been here long ago, there was no need for Felicity to suffer such pain of longing.

"This rotten man still hasn't repented."

Thinking of this, William put forth his strength, and the solid wooden chair was smashed on Zhang Ruolong's body!

"You may not know that if I use my money to compensate you, it would be enough to destroy tens of millions of you!" Su Mo said coldly.

With the sound of the chair breaking, the people present clearly heard the sound of Zhang Ruolong's broken ribs.

Zhang Ruolong's face was covered with blood.

But he didn't die.

He continued to be ferocious, "Haha, kill me! You continue to be presumptuous in Old Master Li's place!"

He was staring at the faces of Brother Biao and others.

"The time should be coming soon."

Sure enough, these words made Brother Biao and others feel embarrassed. "You boy, I'll warn you one last time! If you dare to do it again, it won't be as simple as losing money! You are taking Old Master Li as an enemy!"

William didn't even look at Brother Biao and just stared at Zhang Ruolong.

Zhang Ruolong was laughing wildly, and William was smiling lightly.

William grabbed another chair with a faint smile.

Brother Biao finally couldn't stand it anymore. He stood directly in front of William and waved the stick in his hand. "Try it again!"

William finally looked Brother Biao in the eye. He smiled and said, "I know you're responsible. I'll give you two choices. One, resign and leave. This has nothing to do with you. I'll forgive you."

Hearing William's words, everyone on the scene was dumbfounded.

What did he mean?

"Can't this kid see through the current situation?"

Not to mention that Brother Biao had many hands, William was alone.

"It's said that Old Master Li's territory belongs to Old Master Li!"

Someone actually dared to behave atrociously in Old Master Li's place, and even talked nonsense and asked Brother Biao to resign on his own initiative.

"You want to let bygones be bygones?"

"Does he really regard me as an ant?"

Zhang Ruolong even laughed out loud.

"It's done!"

This idiot actually took the initiative to bump into the gun. He didn't need to resort to the battered-body trick at all.

He had successfully provoked Old Master Li.

Brother Biao, on the other hand, was so angry that he started laughing.

It was the first time in his life that he had seen such an arrogant young man who did not know what was good for him!

He became interested and asked jokingly, "Then I'll choose the second one, and what's the second one?"

He chose to be the second without hesitation. This meaning was enough to show his attitude.

Zhang Ruolong laughed again. He even saw that Brother Biao and others were holding the sticks so tightly that they could beat the arrogant boy in front of him at any time.

But at this time, William suddenly took out a black and delicate card from her mouth and gently tapped it on Brother Biao's forehead.

William's voice was like a royal edict!

"The second choice, I'll buy this shop. You'll be my slave and kill him for me."

"Don't have no other way."

Chapter 335

Everyone was stunned by William's sudden move.

They saw William pointing at the card on Brother Biao's forehead and didn't know what the guy was going to do for a while.

He was already dying, yet he still dared to provoke Brother Biao like this?

On the other hand, Brother Biao burst out laughing at William's sudden reaction.

Laughing at this man's craziness!

Laughing at this idiotic man!

"That's the estate under the Qena City's Hugo He's flag!"

This brat actually dared to speak so arrogantly that he wanted to buy this shop.

"Will Hugo agree?"

In Qena City, no one dared to covet Hugo's business.

"Boy, you have successfully angered me." Brother Biao grabbed the card on his forehead with one hand and said fiercely, "No matter how much money there is in this bank card, it's useless. For Old Master Li, it's hard to buy an industry as rich as thousands of dollars!"

As Brother Biao spoke, his gaze naturally fell on the card he was holding.

But when he saw it, he was stunned.

What he saw was the back, and the back was a mass of darkness.

He thought this card would be a bank card.

But he actually wasn't?

If he didn't even have a bank card, how could he expect to buy a shop?

When Zhang Ruolong and others saw the card clearly, they also burst into a chorus of laughter.

Did this guy want to buy Hugo's store with a charging card?

While everyone was laughing, the clerk also wanted to laugh at the arrogant boy.

However, after he saw the card clearly, he suddenly felt as if he had been blown up by a thunder!

There were only four words on the card!

Worldly Peach and Worldly Peach!

As a shopman of a shop under Hugo's flag, how could he not recognize this card?

In other words, who in Qena City wouldn't dare to recognize this card?

It turned out to be the Li family's Yili World

Card!

It was no wonder that this kid was fearless from the very beginning!

With it in hand, Qena City would be conquered!

This guy said that he wanted to buy this shop, but now it seemed that he was not talking nonsense at all!

Thinking of this, the shop assistant looked at William with a completely different look!

All winds and clouds turned into dragons!

He was a dragon amongst men!

Brother Biao suddenly motioned to his men, "Beat him up! I'll take responsibility for the consequences!"

He raised the stick of his subordinate, but suddenly a man appeared out of nowhere!

The clerk almost subconsciously rushed out, grabbed the stick in Brother Biao's hand, and shouted, "Brother Biao! You can't move this man! You can't afford the consequences!"

Brother Biao's face turned fierce. "Can't move? In Qena City, I can't move anyone except Mr. Li's men. Is there anyone else I can't move?"

When the shop assistant saw that Brother Biao still couldn't see the situation clearly, she grabbed the card and pointed it directly at Brother

Biao. Her voice trembled as she said, "Brother Biao, take a good look! What's this?"

Brother Biao's eyes were full of disdain. He said casually, "This one is not even a bank card. It can..."

That's all I'm going to say!

His pupils constricted wildly!

He finally saw the four words on it.

These four words were like four sharp swords, stabbing into Brother Biao's heart!

All the people in the world were as close as Li himself!

"Plop!" Under the public's gaze, Brother Biao actually knelt straight in front of William.

The previous arrogance had completely disappeared.

Looking at the young man in front of him, he was terrified to the extreme!

"Who on earth is he?"

He was so close to Hugo at such a young age, but he was blessed by Hugo!

He didn't believe a word he said, because he would be humiliated if he said so!

"I, I'm sorry..." Brother Biao's voice was trembling.

As for Zhang Ruolong and the others, their faces changed in an instant.

What the hell was going on!?

When he saw that the guy was about to be beaten, why did Brother Biao kneel down?

"Where did all his previous vigor go?"

William was just a woman who lived off a woman. Would your Brother Biao be afraid of him?

Zhang Ruolong couldn't believe what he saw.

The shop assistant trembled as she held the Peach World Card with both hands and handed it back to William. "Sir, your card..."

William took over the card and looked down at Brother Biao.

"I said, you have no other choice." William's voice was like a demon's voice, exploding in Brother Biao's ear.

Left with no other choice?

Brother Biao was in a trance and suddenly remembered what William had said just now.

"You're my slave and you've committed murder on my behalf."

"You've committed murder!"

The hair on Brother Biao's body stood up.

This was a crime.

However, his eyes met William's.

However, he only felt that the young man in front of him was telling the truth and there was no room for negotiation.

This young man gave people the feeling that he was absolutely a man of his word.

Do I really have to listen to him?

Brother Biao's heart was in a quandary.

If you listen to him, you will make serious mistakes, and it will be difficult to turn back in this life.

However, this was also atonement for what she had done just now when she looked down upon him.

What would happen to someone who didn't listen to him?

"This is Hugo's private card!"

Since then, Hugo would not tolerate him, and Qena City would not tolerate him.

Given time, would heaven and earth not allow him to exist?

Thinking of this, his heart ached!

He stood up from the ground and suddenly turned the direction of the stick in his hand, horizontal pointing at Zhang Ruolong!

Brother Biao's eyes were completely red.

He couldn't do anything about it, but there really was no way to go.

Zhang Ruolong was scared to death by Brother Biao's pointing. "Brother Biao, what, what are you doing? I am innocent. What are you listening to this rascal for?"

Looking at Zhang Ruolong, who was shivering in front of him, Brother Biao suddenly had a deep sympathy for him.

He was really ignorant and fearless.

William patted Brother Biao on the shoulder and slowly left the tea restaurant.

Brother Biao already knew what William meant.

He pointed to Zhang Ruolong and ordered, "Take this man away. The others, get out!"

Zhang Ruolong was immediately lifted up and walked toward an underground warehouse of the tea house.

Brother Biao hesitated for a moment. In the end, he took out his mobile phone and called Tyler.

The phone was only through for a minute, but he felt it was like a century.

After he hung up the phone, he couldn't believe what he heard.

Tyler, the second generation in Qena City.

To think that he would say such petty words.

"What am I in front of William? In a few years, my grandfather is nothing in front of William..."

This was Tyler's original words, full of endless bitterness.

Brother Biao smoked a cigarette alone.

Towards the end, he took a deep drag on the cigarette, and then stomped on the ground to extinguish it.

He had already made up his mind.

He pushed open the door of the warehouse and heard Zhang Ruolong shouting inside crazily, "What are you doing? I'm going to call the police!"

Brother Biao walked over and suddenly motioned for the people around him to let go of Zhang Ruolong.

Zhang Ruolong, as if he had been granted amnesty, gasped for air.

Seeing him like this, Brother Biao thought for a while, then took out a cigarette and handed it to him.

Zhang Ruolong was stunned. He didn't expect Brother Biao to be so polite.

Could it be that the scene just now was just an act for William to see?

Zhang Ruolong suddenly felt that there was a possibility for him to leave safely. When he smoked a cigarette, he felt as if he were floating in the air.

When he threw the cigarette butt down, he saw Brother Biao smiling even more politely.

"Before you die, let's make it clear. That William is really Liu Tigger's boss. Even Hugo has to respect him."

@vamp20w0111

Chapter 336

"What, what did you say..." Zhang Ruolong was so scared by this sudden sentence that his legs trembled.

He had millions of shocks in his heart!

There were billions of regrets!

There were even tens of millions of unreconciled souls!

However, there was no time for him to dwell on this matter.

The shocking truth that brought William with him was Liu Tigger's boss, which made his heart ache.

A knife had been deeply inserted in his heart.

"In your next life, remember to wipe the bright spots with your eyes." After saying this lightly, Brother Biao abandoned Zhang Ruolong, who was unwilling to close his eyes, and closed the door of the warehouse, lost his soul.

William left the tea restaurant as if she had never seen Zhang Ruolong before.

First, he went to the Genuine Care Medical Center to find Wang Qingmian and gave some of Brother Tigger's liquid funds to Wang Qingmian and asked her to help take care of it.

Melissa's eyes almost fell out when he saw Brother Tigger's material. "William, did you fucking rob him in the past few days? Why is Brother Tigger's money in your hands?"

"Oh, Brother Tigger serves me." William said lightly.

Melissa's heart skipped a beat.

What the f**k!

In the past few days, Brother Tigger had been devouring Qena City's underground forces like crazy. It turned out that William was behind it.

In other words, William was the old emperor under Qena City.

This little bastard was simply becoming more and more heaven-defying.

Even a person like Brother Tigger could be subdued, and Hugo was even willing to give in to him.

"I'm completely convinced by him!"

William looked at Melissa's dull eyes and couldn't help but joke, "It seems that I have found a shortcut to quickly earn money, which is to accept subordinates."

Melissa scoffed at William's joke, but he couldn't agree with it with his hands and feet raised.

William gave her some instructions and then went to the Lunanica company to find Janet.

Similarly, he handed over all of Sirius's assets to Janet.

Sirius had a lot of assets that couldn't be exposed to the public, and Janet was a real professional manager. Naturally, she knew how to manipulate them and turn black into white.

Janet felt a deep loathing for William, the person who had dumped his hands. "I'm a professional manager, that's right, so don't always put so much pressure on me and keep making me work overtime, okay?!"

William smiled and said, "Your menstruation seems to be getting worse and worse. Come and find me when you have time."

"Go to hell!" Janet had the impulse to kill people in the small team of the ancestral graves.

When William returned home, she found that the snow was not in the living room.

When he walked into the room, he saw that she was lying on the bed in a snowstorm, frowning.

Feeling a chill in his heart, he hurried over and asked with concern, "Feng and snow, what's wrong with you?"

Felicity reluctantly opened his eyes and saw that it was William. He smiled and shook his head. "It's all right. My menstruation is here. It's a little painful."

William touched her hand and found that it was extremely cold.

He cursed himself in his heart. How could he forget about the past few days?

These days, the period of the Felicity had come, and it happened to be the end of the month, so the cold poison in her body would act up again.

So it must be extremely painful when she was in pain.

"Wait here, I'll make you some brown sugar water." William tidied up the quilt on Felicity's body and went out in a hurry.

After boiling the brown sugar water, he would naturally prepare some herbs to make Felicity feel better.

However, it seemed that she was going to suffer in the next few days.

William shook her head. There was still half a year left.

"In a snowstorm, you should be able to get rid of the cold poison in you in half a year."

At this moment, in Yasmine's house.

Everyone was sitting at the round table, discussing how to celebrate Yasmine's 80th birthday.

Bai Cheng said with filial piety, "Mom, it's your 80th birthday. We must make it a great event and let the whole city have a grand celebration."

Others also nodded and said, "Yes, this is a big event of our Bai family, and we can't be sloppy."

Yasmine saw their filial piety and nodded with satisfaction. "Well, I know your intentions, but our main purpose is to let everyone in the city know that Felicity has returned to our Bai family, and our Bai family wants to bring glory to our families in Qena City."

Steven took the initiative to ask, "Grandma, let me be in charge of your birthday banquet. I'll definitely hold it with a lot of influence, so that you'll be able to enjoy a lot of face."

But Yasmine just lazily looked at Steven and said, "You're still injured. I won't bother you to hold a birthday party for me. I'm afraid that I'll lose my life."

Everyone's face froze.

During this period of time, Steven had suffered a lot in front of Yasmine.

"Then why don't we let Xena take care of it?" Someone suggested.

Beside him, Xena curled her lips. She was extremely unhappy.

However, she had no other choice. She knew that she would definitely be the one to deal with it.

"I can't let my parents do these things, can I?"

However, Yasmine said unexpectedly, "There's no need for you to use Xena. I've already thought it through. This matter can only be handled by Felicity."

Everyone was shocked and couldn't help asking, "Get Felicity and snow to do it? She looks so proud now. It doesn't matter whether she agrees or not. Even if she agrees, she won't care about it."

However, Yasmine sneered and said, "Why should we let Felicity return to the Bai family? Isn't it to let everyone know that Felicity ultimately relies on our Bai family? We can see with our own eyes that she is in charge of my birthday banquet. Does she think that Felicity is inseparable from the Bai family? Moreover, she has the power and influence. If we inform them, the high officials and dignitaries will definitely give her face. At that time, our Bai family's gathering will be a grand feast for all the influential families in the city."

When everyone heard this, they all clapped their hands in approval.

Letting Felicity take charge of this matter, not only could she take advantage of her status, but also release the sign that Felicity was still doing his best to work for the Bai family, which was beneficial to the Bai family.

"Rebecca, you go and tell Felicity about this matter. Of course, your attitude is better. It's okay for you to plead with her. Also, help us think of a few things. Tell her that we didn't have time to deal with it. We had no choice but to let her do it." Yasmine said to Zhang Rebecca.

Zhang Rebecca nodded.

Yasmine said again, "Don't worry. After this matter, our Bai family will certainly usher in a new hope for development. When the relationship with Felicity is eased, I'll tell her that there will be many benefits for you if she wants you to move back."

Zhang Rebecca was delighted and immediately agreed.

She rushed back to Felicity excitedly and saw that Felicity was drinking brown sugar in the hall.

She frowned and cursed in her mind, "This little girl pretends to be delicate. She is so sickly. Why doesn't she die?"

Chapter 337

Felicity's face was pale, but for Zhang Rebecca, she had been numb for more than ten years.

Right now, the most important matter was urgent.

So she said to Felicity, "Felicity, I just came back from Grandma's place. Grandma's birthday party will arrive in a few days, but the family's development is very difficult recently. Because we don't get along well with you, everyone doesn't cooperate with Bai family for your sake. Therefore, a lot of the Bai Group's capital chain has been broken, and the company is in jeopardy. Everyone is busy looking for money to prepare for the birthday party. We really don't have enough energy..."

After hearing this, Felicity vaguely understood what Zhang Rebecca was going to say.

"Zhang Rebecca, how dare you put the responsibility of the precarious situation of the Bai family on me after a few words?"

Who's the one who wants to break all ties with me?

"Now that he's almost dead, he shamelessly comes back and puts the blame on me again?"

"Was it my fault again?"

Felicity said with a cold face, "Just say what you want to say."

Zhang Rebecca went straight to the point. "No one has time for a birthday party, so grandma asked me to ask you if you can help her with the party. After all, you are reliable. Since you have promised to make peace with the Bai family, please do it for your uncle's sake. Grandma has promised me that she will never trouble you again in the future."

Felicity immediately showed a reluctant expression.

She did not want to get involved in the Bai family's affairs from the bottom of her heart.

He had already made a clear three-way agreement.

"I didn't expect that Yasmine would ask me to organize her birthday party. She wanted me to take the chance to attend her birthday party."

What was Yasmine's intention? Wasn't Felicity aware of it?

Seeing Felicity reluctant to agree, Zhang Rebecca cursed in his heart.

"That damned little b*tch. She's really hard-boned now."

There was nothing he could do.

Zhang Rebecca suddenly fell to his knees in front of Felicity and said with tears in his eyes, "Felicity, since we've fought, can you please help me? I've already made a military order in front of my grandmother. If you don't agree, I'll be scolded to death by your grandmother. You're powerful and powerful now, and you're not afraid of the Bai family. But my mother is different. I have no ability at all, so I can only rely on the Bai family."

"You don't want me to be homeless on the streets by the Bai family, do you?"

Although Felicity knew that Zhang Rebecca was acting, the scene of his mother kneeling down to her daughter made her extremely uncomfortable.

William, who had been silent, saw that Feng and Feng were in a dilemma and knew what she was thinking.

He said on behalf of the snow storm, "All right, I'll take care of it."

Felicity felt relieved and looked at William gratefully.

But Zhang Rebecca looked at William disgustedly and said in a low voice, "Who do you think you are? This is a grand event of our Bai family's for ten years. How can we leave it to a outsider? It will be a disgrace to our Bai family if we say it out."

Felicity saw that Zhang Rebecca's attitude towards William was still so vile, and he couldn't help but say, "Mom! I warn you, if you dare to say William like this again, then scram right now!"

Zhang Rebecca was annoyed to see Felicity defend William like this, but he dared not to say anything.

"I will do it. If there's nothing else, you can leave," Felicity said coldly.

Seeing that the goal had been achieved, Zhang Rebecca was happy. She immediately stood up from the ground and said against her heart, "Felicity, I really thank you too much. I really don't know what to do without you and me. Right, I see that you look very bad. Are you not feeling well?"

Felicity couldn't bear it and said, "You can go. I'll tell Yasmine when it's done."

When Zhang Rebecca saw that Felicity stopped calling her grandma and called her by her name, he felt even more disgusted.

"What the hell? My wings are hard now, and even my elders are not filial to me."

"If we hadn't asked you for help, who do you think you are?"

She patted her butt and left Felicity's home.

After she left, William looked at Felicity and said, "Felicity, you haven't been feeling well these days. Let me do it."

Felicity hesitated for a moment, then nodded and said, "Well, I don't have anything else to do anyway. I'll book a hotel and arrange for the people to attend the birthday party. I'll inform them later. I'll make a list later, and you can do it for me first. When I get better, I'll do it for you."

Felicity quickly drank up the brown sugar water as he spoke.

When she felt a little warm, she turned on the computer and listed the list of the names of the people who invited her to the birthday party.

As for William, she followed Felicity's instructions and booked a private room in the hotel.

Two days later, Felicity suddenly received a phone call from Yasmine, asking her to go to her house when she had time, saying that she wanted to know the latest developments of the birthday party.

Felicity was still in his period. He didn't want to go over, so he directly explained it on the phone.

Yasmine sobbed, "Feng and snow, you're really the pillar of our Bai family. You've been working hard these days. Sigh, I'm also not feeling well these days. I can't walk now. Otherwise, I'll go to your house. Grandmother, I'm thinking, am I about to die? This is probably my last birthday."

His words were full of bitterness and sadness.

Felicity's heart softened, and he said, "Alright, then wait for us for a while. We'll be there right away."

William, who was at the side, frowned slightly. This old fart.

Usually, when he was so tart and mean, he looked like he could live for a hundred years.

Should he pretend to be sick and die in front of Felicity?

Sure enough, the country is easy to change, and the nature is hard to change!

When they arrived at Yasmine's house, Xena saw Felicity's pale face at a glance. She hurriedly went over to hold the snow and asked with concern, "Sister, is there something wrong with you again?"

Felicity nodded with a smile and said, "Okay, but it's okay with William."

Xena looked at William and suddenly winked at him.

It was as if she was saying that she would not be able to help on this matter. She was truly sorry.

William didn't take it seriously. After all, Xena was alone and weak. Sometimes he couldn't help himself.

Several people sat around the round table. Yasmine pretended to be panting and thanked Felicity for holding the birthday party personally. Then she asked, "Felicity, what's the progress of my birthday party?"

Felicity took out a stack of paper and handed it to Yasmine. Then, he said, "It's basically enough. First, it's the hotel. I've decided on the wealthy hall on the eighth floor of Hilton Hotel. That hall is large enough to accommodate 34 tables. I've also prepared all the dishes."

However, even though it was a reasonable arrangement, Yasmine instantly frowned!

The people present also looked at Felicity, daring not to breathe heavily.

"What's wrong?" Felicity asked coldly.

It was Steven who understood Yasmine's thoughts. He immediately said unhappily, "We're from the Bai Family of Qena City's Family! This is Grandmother's 80th birthday! Not to mention arranging the most luxurious Rollsin bounds Hotel in the whole city, we wouldn't say anything about the Shimao Fang Hua Hotel that time. What are you arranging? It's just an ordinary hotel, and it's the only private room on the eighth floor. Felicity, you're looking down on our Bai Family, aren't you?"

Chapter 338

As Steven's voice faded away, the scene was as silent as a cicada in winter, and all the gasps were gone.

Yasmine didn't say anything on purpose, but the atmosphere became even more serious.

Steven was right. Hilton Hotel was just a relatively ordinary three-star hotel in Qena City.

It was incomparable with the five-star hotel of Laurens and the Shimao Fanhua Hotel.

On the eighth floor of Hilton Hotel, there were two big private booths. They had already booked one of them.

According to the Bai family's view, Yasmine's 80th birthday, at the very least, had to reserve a whole layer of the Bai family's birthday to show the status of the Bai family.

In everyone's eyes, Felicity Feng's arrangement meant that he didn't care about Yasmine's 80th birthday at all.

However, Felicity sneered and said, "Didn't you say that the company's capital is in trouble and it's going to be on the verge of destruction? I've considered your budget, so I decided to stay in Hilton Hotel."

Everyone's face turned pale.

The Bai family's capital chain was really stressful recently, and they couldn't even afford a million yuan.

Steven said immediately, "Our Bai family doesn't have much money for the time being, but this is grandma's 80th birthday. How can it be so hasty! I said I don't agree to this hotel!"

"You don't agree? Okay, give me the money, I'll help you book the Rolls-Royce Hotel?" Felicity said boldly and confidently.

Everyone quieted down again.

At this time, Yasmine came out to mediate the dispute. She pretended to be kind and said, "Well, well, what are you quarrelling about? I am just an ordinary old woman. It is my blessing that I can hold a birthday party. It is also my son's and grandson's filial piety. I don't expect anything. Hilton Hotel is very good. I have no problem with it."

Steven's lips moved but he didn't say anything in the end.

William, who was watching from the side, wanted nothing more than to laugh.

This group of people, not only had no money, but also wanted to put on airs.

He really wanted to be a watch, and at the same time, set up a chaste square.

Then, everyone looked at the list that Felicity had provided.

It was a list of nearly 100 people on five pages.

However, after seeing the list, everyone's face began to look bad again.

Yasmine had always wanted to suppress her anger and pretend to be kind, but at this moment, her face was also livid.

Everyone could see that she was furious.

Steven spoke again and threw the five papers on the table. "What's the matter with this list? Are they all cats and dogs? Felicity, explain it to me?"

Felicity looked at the list and said lightly, "This list is opened by an enterprise that has contacted with our Bai family's business in recent years. I even invited an enterprise boss who has only cooperated once. What's wrong? Do you have any opinions?"

opinions? He had a big opinion on it!

At this moment, Yasmine stood up and began to ponder over the list.

She first asked in confusion, "Felicity, this list looks quite complete, but I feel it's still missing something."

"Which one?" Felicity asked.

Yasmine put her hand on the table and said,

"For example, President Frandick of the Medicine Association."

Felicity's face turned cold, and he heard Yasmine continue to say, "After all, we were invited to take part in Mr. Hoo's change, and Mr. Hoo will be very polite to us at the meeting. We finally know each other. Now my birthday doesn't invite him, doesn't it seem that our Bai family doesn't know etiquette? As the saying goes, it's impolite not to return the favor. I feel that we'd better invite Mr. Hoo."

At the scene, everyone quickly nodded.

According to Felicity's list, the people invited were all business bosses of the Bai family's ordinary business. They were not on the table in Qena City at all.

What would happen to such a birthday banquet in Qena City?

It was no different from an ordinary dinner.

How could this show that the Bai family had a unique status in Qena City?

But Felicity and Snow were so angry that they almost laughed out loud.

Frandick had invited your Bai family?

That invitation letter was obviously for William. It was you who took it from him by force.

"Now, do you still have the nerve to say you know me?"

"Such a preposterous argument!"

Felicity was about to refute, but William held him down.

William looked at the Bai family calmly and said casually, "Okay, then there is more. Is there anything else?"

William agreed to the demands of the Bai family mainly because of Felicity.

In the past few days, Feng and Snow couldn't get any better. He really didn't want Feng and Snow to quarrel with the Bai family again over these trivial matters.

Besides, inviting Frandick was not a problem that could be solved with just one word.

If the Bai family wants your face, I, William, will give you face.

Felicity looked at William in surprise. Obviously, he was very unhappy.

William took her back and whispered, "You haven't recovered yet. Don't be angry. Leave it to me."

Only in the snow did Feng and Feng finally know William's good intention. They looked at William with emotion and nodded gently.

However, when the Bai family heard that William had agreed on behalf of Felicity, they all had an arrogant look on their faces.

"That's the way it should be."

Yasmine looked at William with satisfaction. She continued to ponder for a while and said, "Hugo, I feel that he also needs to be invited. After all, he came to congratulate us on our snowy birthday and even gave us a big gift. We finally have a little friendship with the Bai family."

Beside her, there was a beautiful face as white as frost.

She looked at Yasmine in disbelief.

This old hag had repeatedly changed the limits of her personality.

"Who is Hugo rushing to? Don't you know about the Bai family?"

"He's able to build a friendship with me just like that?"

However, William nodded. "Okay, by the way, does Harper need to be called together? Didn't he also give Feng and Feng Qing Sheng a big gift?"

He had suddenly taken the initiative to volunteer, which caused the Bai family members to be astounded.

When did this guy become so kind?

They looked at William in surprise, but on his indifferent face, no one could see anything wrong.

In the end, Yasmine nodded and said, "That's the best way. We have to return her the favor."

"Do you want to call Liu Tigger who is very popular recently?" William asked again.

Yasmine felt a headache coming over her.

"Sh*t, what's wrong with this guy?"

"This is my birthday party, not a meeting between the tycoons of the underground. Why is he called Liu Tigger?"

William continued to explain, "I finally know Liu Tigger. We have some connections with the Bai family. You invited everyone else, but Liu Tigger was ignored. What if he is in a bad mood..."

Yasmine had goosebumps all over her body. "Please! Please!"

"Then you invited all the leaders of the Medicine Association, right? By the way, Liu Tigger's right-hand men." William said again.

Yasmine felt her head was about to jump out of her head.

This...

The scope of the invitation was beyond her imagination!
