

My Dreamy Old Husband

Chapter 432

Michael found it exciting. It's no wonder they all love to have sex in the tent!

Meanwhile, Sophia was worried that a gust of wind would lift the canvas and expose their act.

As Michael's sweat dripped on Sophia's body, she clenched her hands at his sweaty shoulders as her slender fingers dug into the flesh on his shoulder blades.

Lacking the courage to moan, she kept an ear on the sounds outside. As soon as someone approached, she would tense up.

She's so tight!

Michael pulled her petite figure into his embrace as their bodies pressed against each other tightly. He could clearly feel her every breath and heartbeat as well as all her anxiety.

At that moment, Michael's muscular body was drenched in sweat. Since it was his first time having such an exciting sex, he was on the brink of losing control. However, he gritted his teeth and held it back, for he couldn't disappoint his wife.

All of a sudden, the anxious voice of the director was heard outside. "Is Taylor done with his rest? It's been thirty minutes. Everyone is waiting for him..."

Hale coughed and shouted loudly outside the tent, "Mr. Murray, are you done with your 'rest'?"

Despite getting no reply, the director could hear a faintly discernible rhythm from the tent. Having been a director for years, he was of course familiar with the sound. At that instant, he was speechless. What the heck. Taylor is having sex in the tent! What a piece of shocking news!

Although the director appeared to be clueless and was busy filming the drama every day, he was clear about what was going on in the production site, from things like what happened in the tent to what Taylor ate for lunch.

Taylor's parents had been strict to him since he was young, and he was part of the special forces in the past, so he took a military approach in his acting career. Unlike other actors, he was highly disciplined and upright, thus the director was surprised that Taylor would do such a thing. Who is that woman? Is it the female lead, the second female lead or any other supporting actress?

Curious, the director walked around the site to find out who was absent. To his surprise, all the actresses were around. Suddenly, he had an idea, so he took a look at the supporting actors, especially the handsome ones, but to his disappointment, all the actors were there as well.

Inside the tent, Sophia was nervous because of the director's appearance.

Michael understood that he should place emphasis on his work, and it was now working time. Therefore, he gnashed his teeth together and whispered in her ear, "I don't have a condom with me. Is today alright?"

Hearing that, Sophia opened her eyes suddenly. It's my ovulation period!

Gulping, she said anxiously, "There's a risk of impregnation today... Why don't you hold it back?"

Michael almost burst into laughter, for he was beyond the point of holding it back. "It's too late."

As soon as he finished his words, he convulsed and collapsed onto her body, panting heavily beside her neck. Gazing at the fair neck before his eyes, he found it deeply attractive. Her skin was translucent with faintly visible veins, looking like a delicate piece of porcelain. Unable to resist the temptation, he gently bit on her neck, leaving two rows of teeth marks on it.

Sophia was utterly embarrassed. With Michael's seed inside her body, she was gripped by a strange feeling. Throughout the long time they had been together, Michael had never allowed her to take contraceptive pills as he always wore a condom. Thus, it was the first time he left his seed in her body. Sophia found it weird, but at the same time, she felt warm and happy.

“Go away. It's so embarrassing. The sky isn't even dark yet...”

If she didn't need his help, she wouldn't have been willing to do such a thing in the tent with him.

Content, Michael moved away and started putting on clothes. With his clothes on, he was once again the upstanding idol.

“Don't worry. Since we've done it together, I'll help you sort it out!” Facing away from her, Michael buckled his belt and said those words that sounded like it was a deal between them.

Blushing, Sophia felt like she had been taken advantage of. After putting on her bra, she lowered her head and stroked her abdomen. The idol's seed is inside here...

When Michael was done with putting on his clothes, he walked out of the tent.

After looking around the production site, the director still couldn't figure out who was absent. When he returned though, he saw Michael reading his script in a serious manner. Based on his years of experience, he knew that something must have happened moments ago.

Walking over, he flashed a meaningful smile at Michael and inquired, “Are you done with your ‘rest’?”

Michael nodded. “Yes, it was a good rest. Oh yes, there’s a problem with the female lead’s scene today. I have a suggestion...”

As the director spoke to Michael, he kept glancing at the tent in the corner. Eventually, a woman covered her head with her hands and fled the place.

Seeing her, the director was astounded. Isn’t that Taylor’s young housekeeper? So that’s the kind of woman he likes!

With his head lowered, Michael turned a new page and asked coldly, “Are you done with staring at her?”

The director laughed hollowly and praised, “You have a good taste in women. The first time I met her, I knew that she would achieve great things in life.” Otherwise, Taylor wouldn’t have his eye on her.

Retracting his gaze from the script, Michael nodded. “My wife is indeed beautiful and capable.”

Hearing that, the director was tongue-tied, for he didn’t expect that Taylor would marry such a young woman. Although she’s beautiful, she looks too young... Has she even come of age?

The director knew that the young woman was related to Michael. If Michael never told him about it, he would have thought that the young woman was Michael’s illegitimate daughter.

With Michael’s seed in her body, Sophia held her thighs together and walked carefully, for she was afraid that her husband’s seed might leak out of her body. It’s wasteful if his seed is leaked!

In the afternoon, two scenes were filmed at the same time. The male leads were in Team A, while the walk-ons were in Team B.

For Team B, they were supposed to continue where they left off in the morning. The female lead would break through the threats of the mercenaries and the fire shots before eventually finding her younger sister. Unfortunately, her sister was taken away from her, and she was powerless to do anything while she was on the brink of death.

Meanwhile, the supporting actresses were having a discussion that they would pull a prank on Nicole again to make life hard for her. Unexpectedly, when they returned, they were told that their parts were canceled.

“Canceled?”

This is an important part of the drama! The female lead was powerless to save her young sister, who was just before her eyes. This was the part that was supposed to bring tears to the audience’s eyes and make them tense up.

As walk-ons, their parts were already minimal. If this important scene was canceled, they might as well go home.

The supporting actresses, especially Xyla and Olivia, were discontent, so they questioned the director, “Director, why did you cancel our part?”
