

Chapter 197

"How dare you hit me! I'll kill you!" Rebecca screamed. This was the fourth slap Rebecca had taken on this very day!

Her face was contorted in fury. She stretched out her hand and was about to grab Laura's face.

But at this moment, she heard a cacophony of exclamations ringing out from her side!

"Laura... Laura Koo?"

"She's the celebrity, Laura, isn't it?" asked a girl softly while covering her mouth.

"Wow! It's really her! I did not expect her to show up at our center! Come on! Take your phone out to have a photo with her!"

The bystanders took out their phones one by one as if they had been put a spell on, their eyes burning with excitement.

Rebecca was totally flabbergasted.

Laura Koo?

The woman in front of her, whom she called a little b*tch, was Qena City's most famous celebrity, Laura!

Rebecca could not put down her hand that was hung mid-air.

If she acted rashly, Laura's fans would probably tear her apart right there and then.

At the same time, Felicity was also completely stunned.

This girl who wore a mask and a pair of sunglasses turned out to be Laura!

Felicity knew most of the celebrities in Qena City but Flavia was the only celebrity whom she adored.

Although frankly Felicity did not like Laura, she still respected Laura.

Who could have known that Laura would come here?!

How did William get to know her?

Felicity's head was spinning!

It seemed that she had to interrogate this little b*stard when they went back home later.

Not only did he know Flavia but also Laura.

Why would he have encounters with so many celebrities?

No, it should be 'encounters with beautiful ladies'!

Including Melissa that little b*tch!

Felicity's thoughts had gone astray; she was completely lost in her own thoughts.

Laura smiled at the crowd around her and said, "I'm here to visit the Genuine Care Medical Center as I have some matters to attend to. Please do not mind me."

It was impossible for Laura, who was so prideful, to admit that she came here to look for William.

Hence, she could only make up an excuse.

After all, it was understandable for a person like Laura to come here as the famous Henry worked here.

Everyone nodded their heads and responded loudly, "Sister Koo, we'll always support you! We love you!"

Laura then requested them politely to leave the room. Right then, she looked at Darren and asked, "Why don't you get out of here?"

Darren was extremely reluctant.

He had completely lost his dignity.

He had yet to avenge himself. He was just fired in the morning!

However, when he wanted to frame William a while ago, Laura actually saved William. He was only a step away from success!

These humiliating scenes came across his mind one after another, his eyes turned bloodshot instantly.

He knew that once he left this room, he would never get to meet Felicity again.

No way!

He would not let this end so easily!

It was all thanks to William and the Bai family that Darren ended up in this stage. How could he leave now?

Thinking of this, Darren became furious again. Since he was fired, he did not need to be afraid of Laura!

Darren asked Rebecca in a low voice, "Auntie, are you really going to be so forgiving?"

Rebecca's face was cold. She yelled, "Get out of here! I don't want to see you anymore!"

As the last shred of hope in him shattered, his face turned exceedingly ferocious. He shouted, "Well! Since you're so heartless, let's get even then!"

"For what?" Rebecca could not help but ask.

"Huh, for what? You are indeed a genius in playing dumb! Did you forget that I have promised to help you to get the sponsorship rights for the movie? I wish to do your family a favor, but now it seems that you guys do not need it anymore. Let's do some math and figure out how much this sponsorship is worth!" Darren hissed fiercely.

Felicity's heart skipped a beat!

Sure enough, Darren was going to make them pay for his favor sooner or later.

Rebecca responded coldly, "Well, how much is it? Tell me."

Darren stretched out a finger and answered, "Ten million yuan!"

"What?!" Felicity's face changed instantly!

Ten million yuan!

Ten million yuan was indeed a market price of having one appearance in the movie as a sponsor.

But she refused to pay that much of money to this b*stard!

When if the Bai family were really given the sponsorship rights, he would definitely ask them for another ten million yuan!

Absolutely no way!

"That's impossible!" Felicity rejected it immediately.

"Hmph, think about it. Do you think your family has the ability to get sponsorship rights without my help? Since you are going to let such a precious chance slip away, I'll inform the Lunanica Media to take your name away," Darren replied coldly.

Felicity's face fell once again.

She knew the Bai family's status in Qena City.

With the Bai family's current abilities, they would not be able to get sponsorship rights.

Ten million yuan that Darren mentioned was equivalent to bribing him for his help!

What an exorbitant price they had to pay!

Darren was delighted at Felicity's uncanny expression.

Since he could not make her his, he might as well blackmail some money out of her!

But at this time, William chortled. "Okay, then go ahead and inform Lunanica Media about it. As far as I know, you were fired by Martin, weren't you?"

William's words once again stirred everyone left in the room up.

Fired?

Darren was fired?

Darren's face changed instantly.

He got carried away!

For a moment, he forgot that when he was fired in the morning, William was also present.

But...

Darren buffed up again and said firmly, "What a joke! I'm all fine in Lunanica Media. How could I be fired? Even if they want to fire someone, it should be you! You're just a little security guard. Who would believe what you have just said?"

The notice of dismissal was in Darren's hands.

As long as he did not take it out, William would not be able to do anything about it.

Besides, William was but a security guard. How could William prove that he was fired?

William nodded, but he was not mad at all. He simpered and responded, "Okay."

Everyone was baffled. They did not understand what tricks William was pulling.

Felicity hesitated for a while. Then, she said to Darren, "We don't want this sponsorship right anymore!"

But before Darren could speak, Rebecca nudged Felicity, panicked. She asked, "Felicity, do you know what you're talking about? If your Grandma learns that we have rejected this precious chance, she will be infuriated! I'll give her a call to ask her what we should do next."

Then, ignoring her opposition, Rebecca called Yasmine immediately.

Felicity was so frustrated that her little face was flushed red!

Yasmine's power in the Bai family was practically above the law!

Felicity was indeed the head of the Bai family and also the director of the Bai Group.

However, the Bai family did not care about her at all. They always referred to Yasmine for further instructions on everything.

It was obvious that she did not have any authority at all in this family!

D*mn it!

After the call went through, Rebecca told Yasmine about Darren's request. Yasmine was furious, rebuking, "How dare she ask us to give up when we are about to succeed? Dream on! Tell Felicity, this is what our family deserves! No one can take it away from us! Under no circumstance will I agree to hand over the sponsorship even if we were to offend Darren and the Liu family!"

"Whoever causes this fixes it! This is the Bai family's law! No one is allowed to break it!" Yasmine was positively irate on the other side of the phone.

"Ask that little b*tch to kneel down to Darren and beg for his forgiveness. He is a magnanimous man. With Felicity's pretty face, he will give her another chance!"

Chapter 198

The phone call was on speaker mode. Hearing such shameless words, Felicity was so furious that her ears turned red!

She grabbed the phone and chucked it out forcefully!

She fumed inwardly, "What a stubborn, unbending, selfish lady Yasmine is!"

From the beginning to the end, she had only cared about the Bai family!

She had gone too far!

Meanwhile, when Darren heard this, he straightened his back before he guffawed loudly and said to Felicity, "Felicity, oh Felicity, you really should consider your grandmother's suggestion."

"As long as you kneel down and apologize to me, I can consider giving you a chance!"

"In your dreams!" Felicity rejected instantly.

She looked at William, her eyes full of determination, and asked, "William, do you have money?"

William smiled faintly and answered, "I have plenty."

Rebecca, who was standing at the side, suddenly burst into laughter. She mocked, "You have plenty?"

Hey, how come I don't know about it? Take it out and let me have a look. Is it a few hundred or a few thousand yuan? I truly need a good laugh now."

William took a glance at her.

Rebecca's wild laughter came to an abrupt end.

Once again, the fear of being slapped by William emerged in her heart.

She viciously glared at William. Then, she did not dare to speak again.

Felicity whispered to William, her face solemn, "William, looking at Grandma's reaction, she will never allow me to pay Darren using the company's fund. I've used up all my money to buy the Emperor's Flower for you before. I'm really broke now, so I can only ask you for money."

William replied with a gentle smile, "Isn't it normal for a wife to ask her husband for money? However, I'm afraid that that brat won't even dare to accept this money even if I pay him."

William's words made Darren titter again. Darren responded, "Hahaha, there is no money that I don't dare to accept! I'm really looking forward to how much money you can offer! Take it out! Pay me today or you are a p*ssy!"

Felicity's heart was about to jump out of her chest.

It was definitely impossible for William to fork out ten million yuan at once.

She didn't want William to turn to Melissa for help either, not to mention Laura who seemed to be covetous of William.

D*mn it.

What should she do?

When Felicity was deep in thought, she suddenly saw two people appear at the door slowly.

At the sight of these two people, all the people present were stupefied.

When Darren saw these two people, he was dumbfounded. One of them brought a great wave of shock to him.

As if facing the end of the world, he suddenly couldn't breathe.

One of the people who came was Melissa.

Of course, she was beautiful and glamorous.

As for the other one, she was wearing an attractive skin-tight black suit, which wrapped her body tightly. She was voluptuous and was very well-proportioned.

She was Janet!

When Janet and Melissa walked in, their gazes were ignited with roaring fire when they saw William!

This coward!

They called him and wanted to know the outcome of the negotiations this morning so they could provide him some ideas.

They didn't expect that the little b*stard didn't even answer their phones!

What a despicable b*stard!

Janet was positively irate. She wondered if William, who had worked in the Genuine Care Medical Center before, would be here.

Hence, she gave Melissa a call. Sure enough, she found out that the little b*stard was indeed here.

Janet, who was infuriated, sped to her at once and was ready to teach this little b*stard a lesson.

Unexpectedly, as soon as she entered the room, she saw Darren laughing wildly at William.

Janet's anger sprung up to a greater height instantly.

She felt as if William had been scolded by an outsider. No one else except her could reprimand William!

No one should even think about it!

After all, this coward was the director of the company. How can he let Darren give an attitude to him?

Besides, William didn't know how to protect himself from Darren!

What a yellow-bellied, scaredy cat!

She strode to the front of William, facing Darren.

Darren's face turned as pale as a sheet when he saw her!

Janet asked indifferently, "Why does a former employee of Lunanica Media talk so much here? Do you have any issues?"

With just one sentence, the atmosphere on the scene changed in an instant!

Previously, everyone still did not believe it when William said that Darren had been fired.

Janet who also appeared out of nowhere also mentioned that Darren was fired!

They had no idea who Janet was.

Felicity, on the other hand, was thinking of something completely different.

She looked at the beautiful and generous Janet, jealousy rose in her heart again.

F*ck!

What a little b*stard! How many beautiful girls did he know?

Why was each of them more beautiful than the other?!

Felicity swore to torture him this very evening!

"Miss Ching, I-I-I..." Darren stammered. After he spat out the words 'I' three times, he could no longer speak.

Since Miss Ching was also here, what was the point of him quibbling on?

Laura sneered and asked, "Hmph. So you've long become the lost dog. How dare you continue to play dumb in front of me?"

After that, Laura gave Darren another kick.

Her sharp heels landed on Darren's abdomen directly. Darren bowed his whole body on the ground and broke out in a cold sweat.

Laura looked at Janet with hostility in her eyes.

They didn't like each other at all.

They had been holding a grudge against each other even since the meeting with the new director two days ago.

Since they were each other's enemies, of course, they would become enraged.

Laura scowled at Janet fiercely and asked in a cold voice, "When are you going to let me meet the director? I haven't seen him until now!"

After hearing that, Janet was dumbfounded.

William was clearly standing in front of Laura. How could she ask such a thing?

Could it be...

This little b*tch who was too proud of herself didn't know that William was the director at all?

That was right!

William was as cowardly as a dog. He had been keeping a low profile, hence it was normal that Laura didn't know him.

Thinking of this, Janet couldn't help but have a mischievous idea. She glanced at William intentionally and asked, "Well, I am not going to introduce him to you. What are you going to do with me?"

Laura was so pissed off that her entire body was trembling. "D*mn you, Miss Ching!"

"Let's wait and see! Once I have control over the new director, the first thing I will do is to ask him to fire you!" Laura threatened Janet in a low voice.

After William, who was next to her, heard this, he could not help but quiver.

He wondered, "Why does she always want to hook up with me? Why hasn't she given up this idea yet?"

Would Felicity even agree with it?

"What are you looking at? Get lost!" Laura yelled. She was so furious when she saw that Darren was still looking on.

But since Darren already knew that he had nearly zero chance to turn the table, he decided to press on. He retorted, "I won't go! The Bai family owes me ten million yuan! Otherwise, I will risk my life to ask Mr. Zhang to withdraw the sponsorship rights the Bais will have! I know one of his secrets!"

In Darren's view, Martin must be planning on a conspiracy against the new director since he had chosen not to report the fact that the negotiation had succeeded. If he took this to threaten Martin, Martin would definitely be his personal puppet.

Martin would have no choice but to suppress his anger.

But at this time, Janet's lips curled up into a mysterious smirk all of a sudden. She asked, "Do you really think that the sponsorship rights were given to Bai family by Martin and you?"

Chapter 199

Darren froze. Then he continued without a second thought, "Nonsense. Of course, it was me who suggested it to Mr. Zhang. He gave the sponsorship rights to me."

For Darren, he found nothing suspicious or arguable about this matter.

The day after the Bai family mentioned the sponsorship rights, Lunanica Media announced that they would give the sponsorship rights to the Bai family. If this was not his contribution, whose could it be?

Could it be that good-for-nothing?

What a joke!

However, Janet couldn't help but laugh upon hearing that. "Who do you think you are? How worthy do you think your name is? Since you are so curious about it, allow me to tell you the truth."

As she spoke, Janet suddenly pointed at William and continued, "We, Lunanica Media, have given the sponsorship rights to the Bai family for William's sake."

Everyone present was shocked at her words.

They all looked at William in disbelief!

It was for William's sake!

So the sponsorship rights were given to the Bai family because of William? It was never Darren's or Martin's contribution!

"Is William some big shot?" a man at the scene wondered.

This was beyond their imagination!

Felicity's eyes widened.

She couldn't comprehend what just happened. She was in disbelief.

She couldn't wrap her head around it. Did William really have such influence?

After all, William was still young, and he didn't have much experience. To put it into perspective, he was just a low-level security guard in Lunanica Media.

However, Felicity suddenly recalled what William had asked her that night.

He asked, "Tell me, do you want the sponsorship rights?"

That was right; he had asked her that question before.

She was sure that her answer was yes at that time.

William...

Felicity looked at William in a daze, but she noticed that William remained indifferent. It was as if he was not affected by the current situation at all.

At this time, Darren shouted directly, "Impossible! This is impossible! He is just a small security guard of Lunanica Media. How could he possibly do it when I can't even achieve it?! Janet Ching, you are making a baseless statement!"

Darren would rather die than believe that the sponsorship rights were given to the Bai family due to William's sake.

It was impossible for William to do a 180!

This was preposterous!

Janet retorted coldly, "William did us a favor before. Besides, it's not up to you to believe it or otherwise. As long as William orders it, I will definitely retract the sponsorship rights."

Everyone's gaze fell on William again.

Rebecca wanted to add in some words, but she decided not to.

She didn't believe that it was William who made them obtain the sponsorship rights.

Instinctively, she wanted to taunt William.

However, she was consumed by fear instantly.

She was afraid that William would really instruct this woman named Janet to withdraw the Bai family's sponsorship rights.

D*mn it!

This feeling of getting choked on a leash was too stifling!

On the other side, Laura was silently sizing up William.

She didn't believe it was William's contribution either.

However, she believed in his medical skills.

Wasn't she the living example?

Could it be that Janet, that little b*tch, was also suffering from some kind of illness and was treated by the b*stard William?

Had she also been stripped off her clothes?

Thinking of this, Laura's eyes were gleaming with schadenfreude.

"What else do you have to say?" Janet asked as she looked at Darren, who was dumbstruck.

Darren glared at William, both his eyes red from anger.

His entire being was filled with hatred.

To this day, Darren didn't even reap any benefit at all!

On the contrary, he was beaten up several times. His body was going to be scrapped!

All of this was caused by William!

If William didn't die, Darren wouldn't give in!

He continued to criticize William as he thought of that, "You have the guts! Hooking up with the two of them! We'll wait and see!"

After that, he dragged his badly beaten body and hauled out of the room in pain.

He took out his mobile phone again and asked cruelly, "Ben! How's the men I asked you to hire for me?"

"It's all done, it's all done! Mr. Liu, I've given it my all this time. I've hired a big shot's subordinate, and he'd given us more than 30 people. They are all first-class soldiers. We're waiting for your order," Ben answered.

Darren's expression was furious as he hissed, "Great! Wait for my news!"

After hanging up the phone, Darren cast a fierce look at the Genuine Care Medical Center and left without looking back.

As soon as Darren left, two people came into the ward.

Felicity had no time to ask William what was going on. She widened her eyes and couldn't help but call out, "Grandma, why are you here?"

The people who just came were Yasmine and Steven.

Originally, Yasmine didn't want to come to the Genuine Care Medical Center at all.

However, when Steven heard that Felicity had nearly lost the sponsorship rights, he became restless.

In the past few days, he had been waiting silently for a chance to make a comeback.

Now, the wait was over!

As long as Felicity screwed up the sponsorship, his chance would come, wouldn't it?

Hence, he begged Yasmine to come to the Genuine Care Medical Center with him to confirm the matter in person.

Steven's eyes instantly lit up when he realized that there were quite a few beautiful women there.

Fortunately, Laura had put on her mask again.

Steven's heart was burning in excitement, but he didn't forget why he came here. He questioned Felicity, "Where is Darren?"

Felicity looked at him in annoyance, and replied indifferently, "He left."

"What?! How can you let him go? You! You! Grandma! Look at this! We actually have such an unappreciative person as the head of our family. Who knows how she is going to damage our reputation in the future?!" Steven told Yasmine exaggeratedly.

Yasmine looked at Felicity and asked, "I've told you on the phone earlier. Were you not listening?"

Felicity wanted to reply to Yasmine, but William stopped her.

William stood up and smiled faintly. He said, "It's true that we didn't hear it clearly. Would you mind repeating it again?"

Upon seeing William rebuking Yasmine for the first time, several people around, including Rebecca's couldn't help but be in awe. Their hearts skipped a beat at that!

Melissa and the others looked at each other. The scene almost brought goosebumps to their arms.

This little b*stard had been enduring all the mistreatments in silence all this while, but there was one thing that would trigger him in an instance.

It was none other than his precious darling, Felicity.

If anyone dared to make things difficult for Felicity, he would transform into a fierce beast instantly and fight against them!

It seemed that Yasmine and Darren were going to suffer a great disaster!

Yasmine looked at William in disgust and rebuked in a low voice, "Whoever caused this mess should be responsible for fixing it up! This is the rule of our family! No one is allowed to break it!"

"Just now, I've ordered Felicity to kneel before

Darren and beg for his forgiveness to win back the sponsorship rights. Don't you guys keep my words in your mind at all?" Yasmine questioned.

The air was still in an instant.

William chuckled. Unexpectedly, he started to clap his hands. "You're right. Whoever caused the trouble should be responsible for fixing it. Sure. So the problem is still with the sponsorship rights, right?"

William continued, "In order to win back the sponsorship, if I may request you, Yasmine, to lower yourself—"

He paused for a while and drawled, "And kneel down before Felicity to beg for her forgiveness!"
