

The establishment of the security company was considered to be finalized. Wang Yunqian would be responsible for company-related matters while Lin Wenjing would be responsible for taking on Bei Tian Society.

Chu Ling was also on the right track. She had followed Lin Wenjing's advice to appropriately let go of some of her business matters and not assume tremendous workload. Slowly, she started to relax and was less busy everyday. Her mood gradually became wonderful.

However, she had been a bit uneasy for the past few days. She felt like someone was secretly watching her but everytime she turned around, she didn't see anyone. It was a horrible feeling.

Chu Ling didn't tell Lin Wenjing about this because she thought that she was probably imagining things.

It seemed like Lin Wenjing was right. She indeed needed a bodyguard.

As she walked out of the company building today, a little girl suddenly walked up to her and passed her a piece of paper as she said, "Miss, there is someone looking for you."

Chu Ling was startled and she looked around but didn't see anyone suspicious. Curious, she asked, "Hey little girl, who is looking for me?"

The little girl said shyly, "The pretty lady said that you will know who she is when you see her."

"Pretty lady?" Chu Ling was momentarily shocked before she frowned. Was it the sexy lady she had met when she was shopping for clothes the other day?

She gritted her teeth and secretly scolded Lin Wenjing in her heart. Did he really get into trouble with the ladies?

However, she just smiled and kneeled down as she said to the little girl, "Little girl, what is the pretty lady's name? What does she look like? Is she really sexy?"

The little girl shook her head and said, "The pretty lady didn't tell me her name. She is very beautiful and she wore red clothes but she doesn't smile much. Miss, hurry up and go meet her. The pretty lady is waiting for you. I'm going to head home to finish my homework now. Goodbye!"

With that, the little girl skipped away.

Chu Ling frowned even harder. She opened the piece of paper and saw that an address was written on it. It was the address of a park not far away from here. The note also said that she would be waiting for Chu Ling beside the lake.

Her handwriting was extremely pretty. Every single word looked like they had a life of its own and would fly away as soon as she let go of the paper.

When she saw her penmanship, Chu Ling felt a sudden pang of jealousy. Her own handwriting was considered nice, but it was nowhere near as nice as the pretty lady's. Subconsciously, this increased her curiosity toward who the pretty lady was.

However, she didn't rashly rush to the meeting point. She was no longer the silly and naive person she once was. Now, she was more cautious in handling things for it was better to be safe than sorry.

So, she ordered two subordinates to accompany her and told them to immediately call the police if anything happened to her.

Chu Ling could have ignored the message but she had a vague premonition that this person would not hurt her. It was her sixth sense that made her decide to meet this person herself.

Soon, she arrived at the park. Sure enough, beside the artificial lake stood a red figure, and her dress flowed with the wind. She had her back toward Chu Ling.

The figure exuded an air of mystery. Chu Ling hesitated for a moment before she finally decided to go over there.

Chu Ling told her two subordinates to wait for her here and ordered them to call the police immediately if something happened to her.

Chu Ling was only relieved after everything was in place and she walked toward the red figure. As she walked up to her, Chu Ling said, "I'm Chu Ling. Are you looking for me?"

The red figure turned around and Chu Ling was instantly captivated by the beauty of the woman in front of her. She was gorgeous! For an instant, Chu Ling even felt ashamed of her own looks!

This was unbelievable for Chu Ling had always been confident about her looks. No matter what pretty woman she bumped into, she was always confident that she could compare. However, she didn't have the confidence to compare herself to the woman in front of her.

She was stunning and beautiful, and her face was absolutely perfect and flawless. Chu Ling had never seen a woman like her before.

This applied to her temperament as well. She looked otherworldly, just like a fairy. Chu Ling even suspected that if she blinked, the pretty lady would immediately disappear from her sight and go with the wind.

This woman was naturally Qing Shu. She had come to find Chu Ling.

When Chu Ling was sizing her up, she was sizing Chu Ling up too. Secretly, she nodded in satisfaction. The woman that Wenjing found was considerably pretty; at least she was prettier than most of the women in Sumeru Heaven.

She glanced at the two subordinates behind Chu Ling and smiled as she said, "I never thought that you would be cautious enough to ask two subordinates to watch over you. However, you are still too careless. If I really wanted to hurt you, your subordinates wouldn't be able to help you."

When she said this, Chu Ling was immediately nervous. She wanted to give her subordinates a signal for them to call the police but she resisted the urge. Her sixth sense was telling her that this pretty lady had no hostility toward her.

"Who are you?" Chu Ling asked seriously.

A gorgeous woman like her with such outstanding temperament was definitely not someone ordinary and would definitely never find her without reason!

Qing Shu said, "My name is Qing Shu. I'm Lin Wenjing's sister."

This surprised Chu Ling. From what she remembered, Lin Wenjing was an only child and he didn't have a sister.

"Are you kidding? Wenjing is an only child. He doesn't have a sister," Chu Ling said.

Qing Shu didn't try to explain and just said,

"I'm only here to see you. You don't have to be afraid."

Chu Ling straightened her back and replied, "Who said that I'm afraid?"

With a slight smile, Qing Shu said, "To be honest, you are not good enough for my brother but he loves you very much. Now that I've seen that you're not too bad, I won't interfere. You may leave now."

Chu Ling was baffled and she said, "Did you ask me to come just to tell me this?"

"No. I just wanted to see you," Qing Shu said. "By the way, be prepared. My brother is going to be extraordinary and he will accomplish great things, but his life will also be chaotic."

In her mind, Chu Ling thought that Qing Shu was bullshitting her and complicating things deliberately, but deep down, she believed in what Qing Shu said. Combined with the accomplishments Lin Wenjing had recently, Chu Ling also believed that Lin Wenjing would achieve great things in the future, and the time he would have to accompany her would lessen gradually.

Chu Ling was smart and she already knew what Qing Shu really meant. She said, "Don't worry. I have chosen Lin Wenjing, so I will accompany him for the rest of his life. Besides, are you really Wenjing's sister? Why haven't I heard of you?"

Qing Shu replied, "He hasn't met me yet."

Chu Ling was stunned.

She wanted to say something but Qing Shu cut her off and said, "Well, you can leave now. Remember what you just told me."

Then, Chu Ling felt her sight go blurry. When she re-opened her eyes, Qing Shu was already gone. She opened her eyes wide because she thought that she had just seen a ghost!

After a while, she returned to her senses and cursed silently in her heart, then walked back.

“Did you see the lady in red who was speaking to me earlier?” Chu Ling asked both of her subordinates.

Both of them acknowledged that they did, but their expressions did not show much surprise or abnormality, and they behaved like how they always did.

This made Chu Ling feel a little suspicious, but she didn't actively pursue the answer to it.

Full of doubt and suspicion, Chu Ling returned home and was greeted by Ling Wenjing who put away his newspaper, got up from the sofa and went to help her put away her bag.

Chu Ling felt very touched by the warm manner in which Lin Wenjing treated her.

There were many occasions where Chu Ling wanted to ask Lin Wenjing if he had an older sister, but every time the words were in her mouth and she was about to ask him, she would swallow them back down and put it off for later. Lin Wenjing was attentive and he could tell that something was bothering Chu Ling, so he asked, "Did you want to ask me anything?"

"Huh? Not really." Chu Ling shook her head and continued to eat her food with her head lowered.

She had given herself away with the way she acted, so Lin Wenjing paused what he was doing and asked her in a serious manner, "What happened? Tell me."

Chu Ling raised her head and pondered about it for a while, then decided to ask anyway. "Do you have an older sister?"

This question surprised Lin Wenjing for he had always been an only child his entire life, so how on earth could he have a sister?

"Nope. I'm an only child." Lin Wenjing then thought of something and asked, "Has someone impersonated themselves as my sister and went to look for you?"

Chu Ling nodded and said, "She claimed to be your sister. She looked very pretty and she said her name was Qing Shu."

“Qing Shu?” The frown on Lin Wenjing’s forehead deepened, for he had never heard of this name before. What was more, he did not have an older sister.

“Is that so? Did she say anything to you?” Lin Wenjing asked curiously.

Chu Ling then related the events that happened today, and a glint of ferociousness flashed in Lin Wenjing’s eyes as he listened to it.

She was truly a skilled master in the Innate Realm because she had managed to disappear in the blink of an eye right in front of Chu Ling.

The first thing that popped into Lin Wenjing’s mind was that the person was someone from Bei Tian Society, but he brushed that idea aside instantly because he knew that if the person was someone from Bei Tian Society, they would never have let Chu Ling go so easily. Moreover, as formidable and arrogant masters of the Innate Realm, how could they bring themselves to do something so degrading?

In that case, there could only be one possibility. This person who claimed to be his sister must be someone from Sumeru Heaven!

As he thought of that, Lin Wenjing couldn't help but feel nervous.

For a while now, Sumeru Heaven had been like a large and lofty mountain that pressured him to constantly improve himself.

Previously, Lu Dongbin who had shown up was already quite powerful, and now, yet another mighty person of the Innate Realm had also shown up! How could Lin Wenjing let his guard down? More importantly, he didn't know whether the other party was a friend or a foe.

When Chu Ling saw Lin Wenjing's grave expression, she asked, "Wenjing, is she not your sister?"

Lin Wenjing mulled it over for a while and then said, "She might be a long-lost sister of mine... I believe she will come find me one of these days, but you don't have to worry. Things will turn out fine."

Chu Ling relaxed herself when she heard this and said, "That's good then."

Chu Ling should be informed of such things so she would not be worried.

Early next morning, Lin Wenjing set off to find Master Grim and got straight to the point. "Who is Qing Shu?"

Ling Wenjing fixed his stare on Master Grim.

A fleeting emotion of shock flashed through Master Grim's eyes. Has Miss Qing Shu come over to pay Lin Wenjing a visit?

"Did Miss Qing Shu go looking for you?" Master Grim asked.

When Lin Wenjing heard Master Grim's tone of voice as he said that, he relaxed himself because he knew that it meant that she was at least not an enemy to him. "No, she didn't. She went to look for Chu Ling."

Master Grim was surprised once again and he said, "Miss Qing Shu is the Saint's adopted daughter, and she is your godsister. At the same time, she is also a member of Sumeru Heaven."

Lin Wenjing quickly understood the main point of what was said and he asked, "Was she sent over by my mother? Do you know where she is currently? Take me to see her.”

Master Grim shook his head and said, “I do not know where she is, unfortunately. She comes and goes as she likes with no trace, and this information isn’t privy to me.”

Lin Wenjing frowned slightly at this. He could tell that Master Grim was not lying, so he didn’t ask why he hadn’t informed him earlier that Qing Shu would come over to find him. Master Grim had never been a loyal subordinate of his.

Lin Wenjing didn’t question him any further for he knew that it would be useless to ask. The lady named Qing Shu would come to him again when the time was right.

He didn’t have any more questions, but Master Grim did. He asked, “Young Master, did you stir trouble at the branch office of Bei Tian Society yesterday?”

“That’s right.” This matter was not a secret, and Lin Wenjing had no need to hide it.

Master Grim said, “That place is Gu Ze’s territory, and Yan Chuang is Gu Ze’s subordinate. Now that you’ve gone over to disturb their territory, you have humiliated Gu Ze. I believe he will soon come to take revenge on you.”

Lin Wenjing just shrugged and said nonchalantly, “Isn’t that what you guys have always wanted to see?”

Master Grim said seriously, “It is not easy to deal with Bei Tian Society, especially that highly-skilled martial arts practitioner, Gu Ze. He is enigmatic and many people are under the impression that he has already reached the Innate Realm. Young Master, do be careful.”

Lin Wenjing stopped fooling around as he felt that Master Grim had said all that for his own good. He nodded and said, “Don’t worry, I will be cautious. I believe that the first person who will come looking for me is Gu Hanxing. Tao Sanniang has informed me that Gu Hanxing has consumed a grade A Soul Cleansing Pill, so he might also have reached the Innate Realm.”

“Tao Sanniang?” Master Grim grew curious immediately.

Lin Wenjing rolled his eyes and said, “Don’t make any assumptions. My relationship with Tao Sanniang is very pure. We met each other by chance, and she took the opportunity to tell me about it.”

Master Grim then nodded and said to Lin Wenjing seriously, “Tao Sanniang is quite a remarkable lady indeed, and she is born with charm. I heard that she practices the Solid Yin Technique and has kept herself chaste for many years. She is very desirable to men, and she is like an elixir especially to those skilled Innate Realm dwellers. If you could perform dual cultivation with her, it would be extremely beneficial to the advancement of your martial arts skills.”

Lin Wenjing almost wanted to kick him and he yelled, “Shut your trap! What dual cultivation?! Do I look like that sort of shoddy person? I’m f*cking married!”

However, Master Grim did not laugh and continued with a serious expression, “Young Master, I’m being serious. I’m not joking with you. Ever since the ancient times, highly-skilled martial arts practitioners have always had many wives and mistresses. Young Master, you are the Saint’s one and only child, and you are uniquely gifted. You certainly shouldn’t be spending the rest of your life with one woman.”

“Say that one more time, and I will end you!” Lin Wenjing yelled at Master Grim with a harsh glare. This man was spouting a whole load of nonsense. Did he really take him to be such a person?!

Master Grim shut his mouth and didn't say anything else after that.

Meanwhile, Gu Hanxing had arrived at the branch office of Bei Tian Society and finished listening to Yan Chuang's report. He squinted his eyes and slammed the table in anger, shattering it upon impact. He yelled furiously, “Lin Wenjing, you d*mned rascal! How dare you run around causing trouble in my territory? I will end you!”
