

Chapter 215

None Are Escaping

“How dare you?”

Tommy likewise saw red at the sight of Jared’s present condition, and he punched Falcon without hesitation.

At that moment, he no longer cared whether he was the man’s match.

Pfft!

Snorting, Falcon shot his leg out, sending Tommy flying out of the room.

Walter, William, and the others shot daggers at him, but none of them dared to make a move.

“Haha...”

Clocking their fear, Falcon cackled maniacally. No one here is my match! I’m supreme and invincible!

“Master Erasmus, the frosty energy within Renee has been absorbed by that brat, but her constituent remains the same. Before long, frosty energy will once again accumulate in her body. I’m the only person who can cure her completely! My constituent is the polar opposite of hers, so as long as she marries me, we’ll complement each other, and she’ll be fine!” he declared, looking right at Erasmus.

“In your dreams!”

In response, Erasmus glared at him hotly. How shameless! He had just flirted with Josephine a while ago, yet he’s demanding that Renee marry him now! He sure has no shame! I’d rather Renee die than be ruined at the hands of someone like him!

“Since you refuse to give your agreement, don’t blame me for my discourtesy!”

Right after saying that, Falcon reached out to seize Renee.

“Ahh!” Renee shrieked in terror.

Outrage showed on Erasmus’ face, and he moved to intercept Falcon.

Bang!

He wasn’t the man’s match, so he suffered a grievous injury at that blow, blood trickling out the corner of his mouth.

“Erasmus!” Leonidas cried out, swinging the cane in his hand at Falcon.

Upon seeing that, Erasmus teamed up with him and attacked Falcon in concert despite the agony racking him.

It was two against one, but Falcon wasn’t at all afraid. Instead, he even wore a sneer on his face.

“Quick, run, Renee!” Erasmus shouted at Renee, planning to sacrifice his life to delay the man so that his daughter could flee.

“Dad!”

As Renee looked at the severely-injured man, tears poured down her face like a faucet.

“Quick, let’s go, Renee!”

Darting forward, Walter grabbed her hand and took off. It wasn’t because he was afraid of death, but an ordinary person with no knowledge of martial arts like him would only die in vain if he were to stay at such a time.

William tugged at Josephine as well. “Let’s leave quickly, Josephine!”

“No! I want to bring Jared along!” Josephine howled.

I don’t want to escape by myself and abandon him!

Bang! Bang!

Two resounding thuds split the air as Falcon sent Leonidas and Erasmus flying. In a trice, the man blocked the door and regarded the few of them scornfully. “None of you are escaping today! If you want to live, you’d better come up with a plan to please me!”

Glimpsing the smug smile on his face, Walter, William, and the others backed away.

Right then, no one noticed that minute cracks had begun manifesting on the thick layer of ice on Jared, who had frozen into a block of ice. Subsequently, the cracks increased in size.

Crack! Crack!

As the cracking sounds grew progressively louder, everyone swung their gazes over.

“Look, Dad! It’s cracking! The ice is splintering!” Josephine crowed in exhilaration upon seeing the thick layer of ice on Jared cracking.

On the contrary, Falcon’s brows knitted together even as his expression started turning grave.

Clink! Clang! Clatter!

In no time, the layer of ice on Jared shattered completely, scattering all over the ground and baring his body in its entirety.

Phew!

Without warning, Jared opened his eyes and exhaled a cloud of white mist.

Cultivating the frosty energy had his capabilities improving by leaps and bounds. Initially, he had only started Level Five Energy Cultivation, but he actually went up a level and had attained Level Six Energy Cultivation then.

If he wanted to attain Level Six Energy Cultivation at Dragon Summit at Dragon Bay with the paltry spiritual energy available, that would have taken eons.
