

Chapter: 101

Surprise Visit

After working on a few articles with her former editor's friend, Su Ruan was finally getting comfortable with writing as a freelance.

Seeing the payment for her first article was in her account made her thrilled. Although the amount was not as much as her salary working full time, Su Ruan thought that this amount was good enough.

Perhaps after writing a few more articles and making her name, she would get more money and could stop worrying about money.

As the thought came to her mind, Su Ruan was feeling a little excited.

She recalled seeing a few freelance websites and decided to register to look for future opportunities. Su Ruan was in the middle of browsing through the website when the phone on her table rang.

A hint of surprise appeared in her mind upon seeing the name on the caller ID. Then, her lips turned into a smile and Su Ruan picked up the phone call.

"Su Ruan?" The man spoke her name the moment the phone call was connected.

"Hello."

The frown on his face disappeared when he heard her voice. "I will be arriving at your grandpa's orchard in ten minutes."

"Ah?" Her eyes widened. Su Ruan was not expecting that Long Fei would call to tell her that he was coming to her grandfather's orchard. "You're back?"

Long Fei chuckled at her reaction. "Uh-huh. Do you want to come out and see me?"

Su Ruan looked out the window and saw a group of her grandpa's workers who were busy carrying some boxes.

There were a few of her family members who were in the orchard. As she thought of Long Fei running into any of her family members, Su Ruan began to panic.

She still did not want them to run into her family members and figure out their relationship.

Su Ruan snapped out of her thoughts.

That's right. What sort of relationship did she have with Long Fei?

They were only friends!

Still... Su Ruan did not want to let anyone know that she was closer to Long Fei. She was not prepared to answer any questions from her family members.

Was this considered a surprise visit?

"Then, can you just park outside? I'll come over to meet you," Su Ruan spoke. Worried that he might figure out something was wrong, Su Ruan quickly added, "Everyone in the orchard is busy with preparing for the carnival. It's better if I meet you outside."

"Then, I'll wait for you outside," Long Fei said. "I'll tell you when I arrived."

Su Ruan heaved a sigh in relief. She was about to turn around and headed downstairs when she saw her reflection in the mirror.

Because she was working alone in her bedroom, Su Ruan did not pay much attention to her appearance. It was only now that she realized that her hair was a mess and her face was a little pale.

Swiftly, Su Ruan tidied up a little and patted her cheek to give her face a little color. Seeing that she looked presentable, Su Ruan quickly headed downstairs to wait for Long Fei.

She had to tiptoe quietly as she was worried that she was going to run into someone.

Just then, the phone in her hand buzzed,

Her eyes widened in surprise, upon seeing Long Fei's message that he had arrived outside her grandpa's orchard.

Just now, he told her that he was going to arrive in another ten minutes but it looked like he had arrived a little earlier than that.

Worried that he will have to wait for a long time, Su Ruan hasten her pace. As she approached the black 4WD, Long Fei alighted with a frown on his face.

"Why are you rushing out?" Long Fei asked as Su Ruan stopped in front of him.

Su Ruan panted slightly. She had jogged over because she was worried that she was going to run into anyone. "I didn't want to let you wait for a long time."

Her answer made him feel a little warm. Perhaps, because she was running over, her cheek turned a little pink. Long Fei was slightly in a daze when he saw the look on her face.

"I thought you were supposed to return in a few more days," Su Ruan said.

Long Fei smiled. "My work ended earlier than planned."

He realized that he could not be apart from Su Ruan for a long time and had worked hard to finish his job. Once he had settled everything important, Long Fei had handed his job over to his assistant just so he could return earlier.

Now that Su Ruan was right in front of him where he could see and hear her clearly, his heart was finally at ease.

He really could not be away from her for a long time.

Long Fei made a note to himself to work on his relationship with Su Ruan before he have to travel elsewhere again. This way, he would have an excuse to bring her along with him.

"Did you come over from the airport?" Su Ruan saw the suit and tie on his body and guessed that he had just returned from Capital City.

He did not return home and came to look for her first?

Long Fei answered her with a smile. "Do you want to come inside?" He pulled the door and motioned for the girl to enter.

Su Ruan glanced inside his car and hesitated. "I haven't told anyone that I'm coming to see you. I don't want them to worry."

"Don't worry. We are not going anywhere." Long Fei glanced at the sky. "It's a little hot today. Let's continue and talk inside."

"Then... Alright." Su Ruan nodded. She slid into the car and Long Fei followed him after.

Su Ruan glanced at the driver and nodded to him as her greeting. Then she turned to Long Fei who was seated beside her.

Because they were seating too close, Su Ruan could smell the cologne on his body. She had always thought that the cologne on his body gave off a fresh smell.

Long Fei turned around and grabbed a bag. He handed it over to Su Ruan and smiled. "For you."

Su Ruan stared at the paper bag and a thought came to her mind. "Did you come over to give this to me?"

"Uh-huh."

Her lips turned into a smile. "What is this?" Su Ruan looked at the paper bag but could not guess at the content. However, her nose could pick up the smell of something sweet.

"Why don't you look at it first?"

Chapter: 102

Famous Dessert

Su Ruan watched the man beside her and blinked. She waited for him to tell her what was inside the bag or at least give her some clues. However, Long Fei remained silent.

After a brief hesitation, Su Ruan peeked inside the paper bag and pulled out a pastel pink box. Inside, there were selections of delicate desserts. Each of them looked appetizing. From the way they were presented, Su Ruan could tell that a skillful person had prepared them.

Su Ruan raised her head and shot an inquiring look at Long Fei.

"Didn't you ask me to bring back something delicious?" Long Fei explained.

It was then that Su Ruan recalled their conversation a few days ago. She had actually forgotten about the request for him to bring back something delicious.

"I didn't know what you like, but I heard that the desserts from The Orchid Hotel are considered the best," Long Fei said.

"These were from The Orchid Hotel?"

Long Fei looked at her expression and guessed that Su Ruan should have heard about the famous desserts as well. "You know about them."

"Of course." Su Ruan nodded.

She had always heard about The Orchid Hotel's pastries and cakes. Back then, Su Ruan and her friend, Lin Qing had often said that they should save money to try the cakes from the hotel. However, the two of them never get the chance to try them.

His eyes narrowed. "I guess the cakes are very famous."

"They are." Su Ruan laughed. "Isn't that why you bought them?"

Long Fei flashed her a smile. It was actually Lu Xun who had recommended the cakes to him. Although Long Fei had frequently stayed in The Orchid Hotel each time he visited Capital City, he had never tried their cakes or heard about them.

Seeing that Su Ruan continued to peek at the box of cakes with a pair of admiring gazes made him a little dumbfounded.

It was only a box of cakes. Did she have to react this way?

Still, Long Fei could not help but think that the expression on Su Ruan's face at this time was quite adorable. At this time, he was glad that he had listened to Lu Xun's recommendation.

"Are you not going to try them?" Long Fei asked.

Su Ruan tore her gaze away from the box and turned to Long Fei again. "Are you really giving this to me?"

Long Fei chuckled. "Otherwise?"

"But they are so expensive. One slice of these cakes would be enough for my three days meals. And now, there are nine of them."

Su Ruan stared at the cakes with longing. She wanted to taste them but her conscience was telling her that she could not afford to accept something as expensive as this.

His brow rose, finding that Su Ruan's reaction was amusing. He did not expect that she would be worried about the price of the cakes.

"I can still afford them."

"But I don't dare to accept them."

A soft laugh escaped him. "The owner of the hotel is someone that I am familiar with. I didn't have to pay a lot of money for them."

Su Ruan still thought that she could not accept them.

"Moreover, if you didn't eat the cakes, then I will have to throw them away."

"Ah?" Su Ruan stared at the man in shock.

"There wouldn't be anyone who wanted to eat them anyway."

Su Ruan's hand gripped the boxes a little tighter when she heard his words. Such pretty and delicate cakes. It would be a waste to throw them away. Her heart was aching just thinking about it.

It seemed that she will have no choice but to accept them.

But Su Ruan still hesitated. "Then, why don't we share?"

"It's fine. I'm not really a fan of sweet stuff."

Su Ruan pursed her lips into a thin line as she pondered over what she should do. After a while, she opened the box and the sweet smell of the cakes filled the car.

"Which one do you like best?"

A trace of helplessness appeared on his face. Long Fei peeked into the box and finally pointed to the one that did not seem overly sweet. "This one."

Su Ruan took out a slice of cake with its paper liner and brought it closer to him. However, what she did not expect was that Long Fei was going to lower his head and took a bite at the cheesecake from her hand.

His movement was too sudden, making her unable to react.

Once she finally snapped out of her trance, Su Ruan quickly lowered her head to hide her expression. A hint of a blush crept on her neck and ears. This action was too intimate and it reminded her of the last time he had put her finger in his mouth to stop the bleeding.

"It actually tasted good and not overly sweet," Long Fei commented. He was unaware of the turbulence going through Su Ruan's heart at this moment.

"Then, you eat it." Su Ruan pushed the slice of cake in her hand into his.

Long Fei was about to tell her that he did not want it anymore but noticing her red ears, he decided not to say anything.

It would be wise not to tease her too much. Otherwise, it would be difficult for him if she run away. He had finally reunited with her again after years. Long Fei did not think that he could bear to have Su Ruan leaving him again.

"Are you not going to taste them?" Long Fei asked.

"The cakes are too pretty. I feel bad to eat them."

Long Fei chuckled. He could not understand Su Ruan's thinking. She was not going to eat the cakes just because they were pretty?

"Then, you could take a photo first," Long Fei said. "If you don't eat them, the cakes are going to spoil."

Su Ruan heaved a sigh. She still thought that it was a shame to eat such pretty cakes. After a while, she made up her mind and took out her phone to snap a few pictures.

There was one empty spot as the cake was eaten by Long Fei, but using some angle, the empty spot was not that noticeable.

Under Long Fei's gaze, Su Ruan finally picked up one piece of the cake. She took a bite and heaved with satisfaction. The cakes really tasted good.

A smile curled on his lips when he saw that Su Ruan seemed to enjoy the cakes. Seeing that she had finished the slice, Long Fei then asked, "Are you free tomorrow?"

Chapter: 103

The Continuation Of The Legend

In the evening, Su Ruan switched off her laptop and quickly changed her clothes to get ready for her appointment with Long Fei.

After applying a layer of lip balm, Su Ruan headed downstairs and ran into her mother who was working on the computer.

Hearing that her daughter was going out with that young master again, Ma Zheng Zheng was not worried. Until this time, she still believed that her daughter was going to meet the young master to discuss work matters.

Su Ruan heaved in relief when her mother did not ask her questions that she did not know how to answer.

Su Ruan had thought that she was no longer in trouble but who would have thought that the moment she stepped outside, she would run into her cousin, Ma Yu Xi.

The girl stared back at her with excitement written on her face. "Sister Ruan! Guess who I just saw outside?"

Hearing her question, Su Ruan already had a premonition.

"It's Young Master Long Fei!" Ma Yu Xi exclaimed. There were twinkles in her eyes. "I wonder why did he come over to our orchard again?"

Su Ruan pursed her lips, wondering how was she supposed to tell her cousin that the man came to pick her up.

Until now, Su Ruan still did not know how she should explain her relationship with Long Fei. She was aware that the man was interested in her but they were not lovers.

Su Ruan coughed as she tried to find an excuse to escape his situation.

It was at this time that Ma Yu Xi sensed something from her cousin. "Sister Ruan, you are all dressed up. Are you going somewhere?" Her gaze fell on the pair of sneakers on Su Ruan's feet.

Su Ruan took a deep breath and decided to tell the truth. "That... Young Master Long is here to pick me up."

Ma Yu Xi stared at her cousin with her eyes wide. A thought came to her mind, and her mouth opened slightly. It seemed that she had something to say but did not know where to start.

"Yu Xi, let's talk about this later." Su Ruan stepped aside, preparing to make her escape. "I don't want to make him wait."

Before Ma Yu Xi could ask any question, Su Ruan had already escaped. Ma Yu Xi narrowed her eyes and planned to come over earlier to ask a few questions from her cousin.

When Su Ruan almost reached Long Fei's 4WD, the man stepped out of the vehicle and looked at her with a deep frown on his face. "Why are you running again?"

"It's nothing." Su Ruan laughed softly, not wanting to explain about her escaping from her cousin. "Where are we going?"

At a time like this, it was better to change the subject.

"The lake. I told you that I will take you to a few scenic places."

"Alright." Su Ruan naturally did not have any objection.

Long Fei helped her with the door and watched her as she slid into the passenger's seat. Then, he walked around the car and climbed into the driver's seat.

As Long Fei started to drive, the two of them chatted about the article that Su Ruan was requested to write for Blue Media.

In the past few days, Su Ruan has been exchanging some emails with the editor to talk about the articles that she was going to write. Since Long Fei is the top management of the company, Su Ruan thought that it would be better to get his opinion on some matters as well.

After driving for a while, the vehicle finally pulled a stop.

Su Ruan had thought that Long Fei was going to take her to the town center and the two of them were going to take the boat. But this time, Long Fei drove around the lake and finally stopped at a quiet spot.

Looking around, Su Ruan saw that they were surrounded by nature. At the side was the tall mountain and a few meters ahead was the lake water.

Su Ruan pursed her lips into a thin line, wondering why did Long Fei always brought her to a quiet place each time they go out.

She wondered if she should start to be aware of her safety.

"Come on. I promise you that this place is very safe."

Su Ruan watched as Long Fei alighted from the driver's seat and soon followed him out. After going out with Long Fei a few times, Su Ruan thought that he was someone that she could trust. Su Ruan believed that he would not do anything that will harm her.

The two of them walked for a certain distance and finally stood at the side to watch the lake water.

"Why did you bring me here?" Su Ruan looked around. Although she could not deny that the place had beautiful scenery, there were a few other spots with a prettier scene in this town.

"I remember that you seemed interested in the legend in this town." Long Fei smiled as he observed her expression.

"The lake dragon?"

"Are you still curious to know the continuation of the legend?"

Su Ruan nodded. The story was related to her little dragon. Of course, Su Ruan would want to know more.

"Last time, I told you that someone had rescued the dragon after he was captured by a group of greedy villagers." Long Fei walked along the lake and finally stopped. "According to the legend, this was the place where the dragon was locked up."

Her eyes widened when she heard his words. She looked around and tried to imagine where did those people had kept the dragon.

"Did you see that place?" Long Fei pointed his finger to one spot where it was surrounded by tall trees. "There is an entrance to a cave behind those trees. Years ago, the dragon was dragged into the cave where he was not given any food or water. As a lake dragon, he grew weaker when he had to stay away from the water."

Su Ruan imagined her little friend being captured by the hunters and had to experience the same thing. Her heart ached and Su Ruan found that it was a little difficult to breathe.

"Do you think that the lake dragon really exists?"

Chapter: 104

His Ancestor

Long Fei turned slowly and his lips curled into a smile. "What do you think?"

"I don't know." Su Ruan naturally would not mention her meeting with that little dragon. "Since there was such a legend, perhaps the lake dragon really exists?"

"I think so as well," Long Fei said. "Perhaps, hundreds or thousands of years before, a creature such as a dragon existed. Otherwise, how would people know about its existence?"

There was a complicated look on Su Ruan's face as she listened to Long Fei's words.

This was not the first time that Long Fei had mentioned the lake dragon. From the beginning, Su Ruan had suspected that Long Fei would know something about her little friend.

Her heartbeat accelerated as she wondered if Long Fei knew of her connection with the dragon.

"Do you find it strange that I continued to talk about the legend?" Long Fei saw the change in Su Ruan's expression and worried that perhaps he had scared her again.

Su Ruan shrugged. "Sort of." There was a sheepish smile on her face.

Long Fei laughed. "You should remember that I have mentioned how someone among the villagers had snuck into the cage and helped the dragon to escape."

Su Ruan nodded.

"The person who had helped the dragon to escape... is said to be my ancestor."

Her eyes widened in surprise. "That was why you often talked about the dragon."

Long Fei smiled. "Uh-huh. This was perhaps the reason why our family flourished in this town. It was said that the dragon had blessed our family. In exchange, the Long family has to stay in this town and protect it from outsiders who wanted to disturb the lake."

"Then, the first time you told me about the dragon, were you trying to warn me not to disturb the lake?" Su Ruan tilted her head and stared at him inquiringly. "After all, I am an outsider."

"You are thinking too much." The look on his face turned gentler. "I was genuinely wanting to initiate a conversation with you."

Seeing the carefree look on his face, Su Ruan decided to believe his words. "It was really a strange topic to talk about with the person you just met," Su Ruan mumbled to herself but her words were still audible to the man.

Long Fei turned around suddenly and turned to Su Ruan. "I can't help it. After all, I have never been in a relationship before or chased after anyone. You are the first."

They were initially talking about the lake dragon but the topic had suddenly changed.

Su Ruan stared back at Long Fei with a dazed look on her face. The thought that she was the first person that someone like Long Fei wanted to chase was shocking.

As someone who had stayed in his position, surely, Long Fei had encountered a lot of good and talented women.

Then, why would he be interested in her?

She was not the prettiest or the most talented.

Moreover... didn't he tell her that he wanted to get to know her? When did it change to chasing after her?

Her heartbeat accelerated and Su Ruan did not dare to look at Long Fei's face at this time. She walked close to the lake and looked into the water, seemingly trying to enjoy the scenery.

Initially, Su Ruan wanted to ask Long Fei a little bit more about the legend and find out if he knew anything about the little dragon. But she had forgotten everything she wanted to ask.

In the end, the two of them continued to stay around the lake while enjoying the scenery. Their conversation now revolved around the scenery.

Before the sky turned dark, Long Fei had taken Su Ruan to leave the place and the two of them headed to the town center. The two of them had their dinner at the restaurant where they once had breakfast together and left.

After she returned to her room, Su Ruan stood in front of her window and let the cold air blow to her face. She waited for the little dragon to show up, but the little dragon did not show up as she had hoped for.

Disappointed, Su Ruan closed the window and went to bed.

The next morning, Su Ruan found that her cousin, Ma Yu Xi was already waiting for her at the dining table. Ma Yu Xi waited for Su Ruan to have her breakfast patiently. The moment Su Ruan put down her cutlery, Ma Yu Xi quickly dragged her to a quiet part in the orchard to talk.

"Sister Ruan, tell me what is going on between you and Young Master Long?" Ma Yu Xi's face was full of excitement. "My aunt said that the two of you were going out to discuss some work matter. Really?"

After running into her cousin who was on her way out to meet Long Fei, Ma Yu Xi had tried to get the answer from Long Yu Heng, but the man told her that he did not know anything about them as he was currently not in town.

Ma Yu Xi's curiosity would not let her be at ease until she figured out the answer. Therefore, she came over to find her cousin first thing in the morning.

Su Ruan let out a cough. "Well, my mom isn't wrong. I am going out to discuss a few work matters with that young master."

Ma Yu Xi narrowed her eyes. The look on her face told Su Ruan that she did not believe her words.

"You should know that he owned a media company. Last time, he heard that I have previously worked for a magazine. He wanted to offer me to work at his company."

"Ah? Sister Ruan, are you leaving D Town soon?"

"No. It's just freelance work. I can still write while staying here."

Ma Yu Xi heaved in relief. It was not easy for Su Ruan to return to this town. She did not get to show her around as much as she liked. It would be too sad if Su Ruan had to leave soon.

A few seconds later, Ma Yu Xi quickly noticed that there was something wrong.

It seemed that a certain someone had deliberately tried to change the subject.

Before that person could escape, Ma Yu Xi had grabbed her arms, stopping Su Ruan from leaving. Seeing the guilty look on Su Ruan's face confirmed her suspicion. "Sister Ruan, what are you not telling me?"

"Well, there is another thing..." Su Ruan laughed awkwardly. Her voice turned to whisper as she spoke, "We are sort of in the process of getting to know each other."

Ma Yu Xi sucked in a deep breath upon hearing the news. What 'getting to know each other'? Wasn't that the same as dating?

Chapter: 105

The Carnival Begin

Two days before the carnival began, Ma Yu Xi's brother, Ma Wei returned to D Town to help out with the preparation.

In the past few days, Su Ruan has been busy helping everyone around to set up their orchard's booth. It was the first time that Su Ruan had joined such activities and she was excited about it.

On the day of the carnival, the members of the Ma family woke up early in the morning to prepare their booth. Su Ruan took Ma Yu Xi's pickup truck and the two headed to the town center with boxes of their orchard cherries.

When they arrived at the center, the atmosphere around them was very lively as there were a lot of people coming to set up their booth.

As Ma Yu Xi parked her pickup truck at the side, her brother, Ma Wei came over with a little trolley to carry the boxes. He peeked into the trunk and raised a brow at his sister. "Is this all?"

Ma Yu Xi nodded. "This is all that left. I think it would be enough."

Ma Wei nodded. He transferred the boxes onto the trolley and pushed them over to their booth. As the three cousins walked along the street, there were a few of the townspeople stopping by to greet them.

Previously, they have heard that Old Man Ma's granddaughter was visiting the town. Now that they finally get the chance to see her face to face, the townspeople could not help but to shoot a few glances at her.

"Sister Ruan, I think you are quite popular today," Ma Yu Xi said as she poked Su Ruan on her waist.

Su Ruan chuckled. "What popular? They were only curious because most of them have never seen me before."

Ma Wei glanced at Su Ruan and spoke, "Su Ruan, I think it would be better if you stand at the counter today. If anyone tries to chat up with you, you can ask them to buy our products."

Su Ruan laughed upon hearing her cousin's words. "Cousin brother, are you trying to take advantage of me?"

"Why not?" Ma Wei shrugged. "Perhaps, with you around, we might be able to sell everything we bring along."

Ma Yu Xi rolled her eyes. "Brother, just admit it... You are only lazy to carry those boxes back to the orchard."

Su Ruan watched as the siblings exchanged their banter and laughed.

The smell of baked goods wafted in the air as they reached the bakery's booth. Su Ruan glanced at Ma Yu Xi and smiled when the girl had suddenly turned silent.

From the corner of her eyes, Su Ruan could see how Ma Yu Xi was glancing at her crush, Sun Cheng.

Ma Yu Xi was usually very talkative but in front of the person she liked, the girl suddenly turned very quiet. Su Ruan could not help but think that this side of Ma Yu Xi was very cute as well.

"Cousin brother, are you hungry?" Su Ruan asked. "I'm going to buy some bread. Would you like one?"

Ma Wei glanced at the bakery's booth and nodded. "Sure. Just grab anything for me. I'm not picky."

Su Ruan grabbed Ma Yu Xi's arms and the smile on her face widened. "Then, you go ahead first. We'll come over soon."

"Sister Ruan, what are you trying to do?" Ma Yu Xi looked at her with her eyes wide. She could guess what Su Ruan was planning to do and it was making her anxious.

"I'm only going to buy some bread, why are you so anxious?" Su Ruan shot her an innocent look. Before Ma Yu Xi could escape, Su Ruan had already dragged her over to the booth.

Coincidentally, Sun Cheng was arranging the bread from the cafe on the table. He looked up and was surprised to see the familiar faces in front of him. Sun Cheng quickly recovered and flashed a smile at Ma Yu Xi. "Good morning."

"Good morning," Ma Yu Xi held Su Ruan's hand tighter as she tried to calm down. "Brother Sun Cheng, I thought you were supposed to be in the bakery today?"

"I only dropped by to deliver some fresh goods. Afterward, I still have to return to the bakery and continue to work on the dough," Sun Cheng said. "Would you like some bread? We are selling them at a slightly cheaper price today."

Ma Yu Xi poked at Su Ruan's waist. "Sister Ruan, quickly pick which one you like."

"I haven't seen you up in the mountain for a while," Sun Cheng said. "You're not going up the mountain anymore?"

"Mmm... After the discovery of that giant snake, I think it's better to stop going up the mountain for a while."

"It seemed that people had stopped climbing up the mountain after that. But I think it's very safe up there."

At the side, Su Ruan watched as the two chatted while choosing the bread slowly. Seeing that Ma Yu Xi was shooting her a look, Su Ruan finally handed her tray to the cashier.

After paying for the bread, the cousin left the booth.

"Why are you so shy? Last time we were on the mountain, I did not see you this shy." Su Ruan poked at cousin's arm.

Ma Yu Xi heaved a sigh. "Sister Ruan, I was not prepared to meet him today. I needed at least a few minutes to prepare myself mentally before I can face the person I like."

Su Ruan shook her head. She could not understand what was going on in Ma Yu Xi's mind.

"Sister Ruan, you laughed at me now. Later, when Young Master Long came to find you at the booth, let's see how you will react," Ma Yu Xi whispered.

Hearing her reminder, Su Ruan began to panic. She had agreed that she was going to meet up with Long Fei at the festival, but now, Su Ruan was worried about this meeting.

Long Fei was considered a big celebrity in this town. If people saw them together, they would definitely talk about it.

At this time, other than Ma Yu Xi, no one knew that she was close to Long Fei.. Su Ruan did not know how she should explain her relationship with the man to her family.
