

Chapter: 111

The Mood Had Disappeared

After Yu Zhi Yi had left, Su Ruan could not help but feel awkward around Long Fei.

She could tell that Yu Zhi Yi has been quite rude towards Long Fei but she did not know how to explain Yu Zhi Yi's behavior.

In fact, Su Ruan could not understand what was going on with her best friend. His action was very... strange.

"I'm sorry."

Long Fei's voice snapped her out of her trance.

Su Ruan turned around and saw him flash an apologetic smile at her. Her brow rose as she wondered why was he apologizing to her.

"I saw that the man was making you uncomfortable," Long Fei said. "I understand if you are angry that I have overstepped my border."

It took her a while to understand what Long Fei was apologizing for. Previously, he had introduced himself to Yu Zhi Yi as her boyfriend.

Her face turned warmer but Su Ruan quickly suppressed her feelings. "It's fine. I... don't mind it."

In fact, Su Ruan was relieved that Long Fei's words had made Yu Zhi Yi leave.

After seeing him with Shen Yue early that morning, Su Ruan had decided that she did not want to meet him until his wedding day.

She did not want Shen Yue to misunderstand her relationship with Yu Zhi Yi. Since he had found the person that he loved and was going to marry, she should keep her distance from him.

Long Fei stared at the woman in front of him with a mixed feeling. He wanted to continue their talk from earlier. However, it doesn't seem like a good time to do so.

The mood from earlier had already disappeared.

That person... had already ruined everything for them.

Long Fei turned to the direction where Yu Zhi Yi had left earlier and asked, "That man... is he an ex-boyfriend?"

Hearing his question, Su Ruan turned and stared at him for a long time. After a while, she let out a laugh. "No. He's not. He's... only a friend. It was just that... I'm trying to keep my distance from him."

Long Fei raised a brow at her words.

"He's getting married soon and his fiance did not seem to like that another woman was close to him," Su Ruan explained.

"So, it is like that." Long Fei heaved a breath with relief upon knowing that Su Ruan and Yu Zhi Yi's relationship was not as he had thought. A faint smile curled on his lips. Long Fei took a deep breath and spoke, "Should we continue and head to the square?"

Su Ruan nodded. "Let's go. Otherwise, we might not get a good spot to enjoy the performances."

The two of them continued to walk towards the square. Long Fei lowered his head and put on a mask to cover half of his face. He glanced at Su Ruan and smiled. "I hope you did not mind me putting on a mask."

"Mmm... I heard that you are very popular in the town. I understand if you did not want to be recognized."

Long Fei laughed. As they walked further toward the square, it was getting difficult for them to move around without bumping into another person.

A few children were running around in the street. Noticing that one of them was about to bump into Su Ruan, Long Fei wrapped his arms around her shoulder and pulled her closer to him.

Her eyes widened in surprise and her heartbeat accelerated at his sudden action. Su Ruan bit her lower lips as his fresh and familiar scent entered her nose.

However, a few seconds later, Long Fei had already released his grip around her shoulder.

Su Ruan took a deep breath to calm down. However, the next moment, Long Fei had already clasped her hand in his. Su Ruan was starting to feel a little dizzy with everything that happened to her.

Her heart was jumping around and she had no time to calm down.

"There are many people around. Let's walk like this. Otherwise, we might get separated."

Su Ruan raised her head to look around. There were indeed a lot of people around. If they are not careful, they might get separated.

She nodded and let Su Ruan hold her hand tightly.

After walking for a certain distance, Su Ruan had finally gathered her thoughts and calmed down. They finally reached in front of the big stage where the townspeople gathered and waited for the Old Master Long to appear.

Long Fei led her to a spot where they could get a clear view of the stage.

The people around them were whispering and discussing the next events.

Su Ruan turned to Long Fei and tried to initiate a conversation. "I heard from my cousin that Old Master Long will come over to give his speech."

"My grandfather?"

Su Ruan touched the tip of her nose and coughed.

How could she forget that the person is Long Fei's grandfather?

"Are you curious about him?" Long Fei raised a brow.

"Of course." Su Ruan laughed. "I heard from my cousin that he is someone who was loved by everyone in this town. Everyone in this town was looking forward to hearing his speech."

Soon, the townspeople began to cheer and a group of four men was seen escorting an older man on stage.

Seeing how everyone was treating the old man with respect, Su Ruan quickly made her guess that this man was no other than Long Fei's grandfather.

Although she was too far and could not get a clear look, Su Ruan could tell that Long Fei's grandfather was someone who was very healthy. His hair was white but his body stood straight on the stage.

Su Ruan glanced at the man beside her and noticed that the air around him seemed to change when he saw his grandfather on the stage.

On the stage, Long Yuan watched the townspeople cheering and raised both hands, signaling them to keep their voice down.

In just a few seconds, the lively square turned silent.. Long Yuan stood at the podium and began to give his speech.

Chapter: 112

Jealous

Yu Zhi Yi returned to the lodging as soon as he parted with Su Ruan.

As he walked back, Yu Zhi Yi was unable to stop thinking about his meeting with Su Ruan. His heart was uncomfortable each time he thought about the man beside her.

Su Ruan had a boyfriend?

Why didn't he know about it?

The girl who would always tell him everything had suddenly kept a secret from him. It was not a pleasant feeling.

When did things start to change between them?

"You're back."

The familiar voice snapped him out of his trance. Yu Zhi Yi turned and saw that his fiance, Shen Yue was looking at him with her arms crossed on her chest. Still, she could not mask the trace of surprise in her eyes as she looked at him.

Yu Zhi Yi had left the hotel not too long ago after their argument.

However, Shen Yue did not expect that the man would return quickly.

Shen Yue has been observing her fiance ever since he walked into the room. Seeing that his expression does not seem right, she could not help but wonder what had happened.

When Yu Zhi Yi had left, Shen Yue had thought that the man would be looking for Su Ruan.

However, looking at him now, Shen Yue began to doubt her instinct. If Yu Zhi Yi had gone to look for Su Ruan, he would not return this quickly.

"Hmm..." Yu Zhi Yi lowered his gaze. "There were too many people outside. It was hard to walk around without bumping to anyone."

Shen Yue hesitated. She walked to her fiance and spoke, "Zhi Yi, I'm sorry. I... shouldn't have said those words to you. I, shouldn't doubt your feelings towards me."

Yu Zhi Yi looked up when he heard her words. The uncomfortable feeling in his heart deepened.

When he had argued with Shen Yue earlier, he had stressed that his relationship with Su Ruan was nothing more than a friend. He had told her that he did not have such feelings for Su Ruan.

But why would his heart feel heavy after watching Su Ruan and that man?

Yu Zhi Yi did not have much time to ponder on this strange feeling. When Shen Yue wrapped her slender arms around his body.

"Zhi Yi, I shouldn't doubt your love." Shen Yue inhaled a deep breath. "I know that you love me the most. It was just that... when I see you getting closer to another woman, my heart starts to ache. I got jealous."

His eyes flickered at her confession. "Shen Yue..."

"I won't feel that way anymore." She looked up to meet his gaze. "Zhi Yi, let's not argue anymore alright?" As she tiptoed to kiss his lips, Yu Zhi Yi's earlier thoughts began to scatter.

...

Meanwhile, thunderous applause echoed around the square as Long Yuan finished giving out his speech.

Long Fei stood at the spot and watched his grandfather from afar. Looking at the way the townspeople were cheering on him, Long Fei could see just how much they adore his grandfather.

"Your grandfather's speech was pretty good," Su Ruan commented and watched Long Fei turn to look at her. "I can see that you have inherited his charisma."

"Are you complimenting me?" His lips curled into a teasing smile.

Su Ruan chuckled. She was complimenting his grandfather's speech. When did she compliment this man?

On the stage, a group of beautiful girls went up and started to dance after Long Yuan had left.

The festivity atmosphere continued. Some stayed to enjoy the performance and some left to walk around the square.

Su Ruan did not answer his question. "Would you like to stay around and watch the performance or walk around this place?"

Long Fei looked in the direction where his grandfather had left earlier. "Let's walk around the place. It's the first time that we have both come to this carnival. It would be a waste if we did not walk around."

Su Ruan quickly agreed. She stepped forward, wanting to leave the spot but stopped again when Long Fei had called her name.

She gave him an inquiring gaze and noticed his stretched hand towards her.

Su Ruan recalled that many people were attending the carnival and how she had bumped into a lot of people as they walked among the crowd. After a brief hesitation, Su Ruan put her hand in Long Fei's and let him lead her.

The corner of his lips tilted up into a smile as he let their hands intertwine.

Perhaps, someone had come to ruin the moment between them earlier. However, this was also good. Long Fei believed that as long as he continued to be patient, Su Ruan would accept him sooner or later.

The two of them walked around without saying a word. After a while, they finally reached a less crowded road. Still, Long Fei made no move to let her hand slip away from him.

"Are you hungry?" Long Fei asked. "Should we go and get something to eat?"

"Alright."

Su Ruan recalled that her cousin had mentioned a few famous foods around the carnival. However, with Long Fei's identity, it would not be safe if he appeared at a place where there would be a lot of people. It would be uncomfortable for them to have their meals.

"Let's just go to the place where there are lesser people. This way, we don't have to wait for a long time," Su Ruan said. "Then, we could find a quiet place to watch the firework. My cousin said the firework display is the highlight of the night. We shouldn't miss it."

Long Fei nodded. "I will follow your arrangement."

Su Ruan felt the heat creep up her face.

Why does it feel as if there was something wrong with his words?

As they walked past a few stalls, Su Ruan noticed one that was selling a lot of small figurines and sculptures. Noticing a familiar figurine on the table, Su Ruan quickly pulled Long Fei's hands towards the stall.

Her eyes twinkled as she watched the dragon sculptures. Many of them resembled her little dragon.

"Miss are you interested in the sculpture?" The old man asked. He watched as Su Ruan looked up and noticed that she was not a local. "Actually, this town is very famous for its legend of lake dragon. However, as time passed by, the people have started to forget it."

Su Ruan glanced at the person beside him and laughed. She could not help but recall the time she ran into him at the café. It seemed that Long Fei had said the same words.

Long Fei seemed to understand what was on her mind and began to laugh as well.. "If you like them, choose a few and bring them home as souvenirs."

Chapter: 113

Caught

Su Ruan was already planning to buy a few of the sculptures. Hearing his words, Su Ruan let go of his hand leaned over to look at the few sculptures on the table. Each one of them was too adorable that she did not know which one she should choose.

At the side, Long Fei's eyes grew warmer as he watched Su Ruan look at the dragon with a twinkle in her eyes. Seeing how she had touched the dragon with the tip of her fingers reminded him of the night he had spent with her.

He always visited her room at night in his small form. Then, Su Ruan would touch him the same way she had touched the dragon's sculpture.

His eyes turned darker and he could feel his body turn warmer.

A strange feeling rose and traveled all over his body. It was something that he had never experienced before and it was making him restless.

However, he did not like these strange feelings.

The feeling only made him want to get close to her.

"What do you think of this one?"

Her question snapped him out of his thought. Long Fei looked at the few sculptures that she had chosen and smiled. "Not bad."

"I think so too." Su Ruan stood up straight and looked at the stall owner. "Boss, how much are these sculptures?"

After paying for the items, the two of them left the stall and continued to look for a place to eat. Su Ruan looked at the small sculpture in her hand with a faint smile on her face.

The more she looked at it, the more she missed her little dragon.

She could not help but wonder what he was up to these days.

"It seemed that you really liked the dragon's sculpture," Long Fei commented. He glanced at Su Ruan's hand and wondered how he could find the chance to hold her hand in his again.

"Mmm... perhaps, after listening to your story, I began to take interest in the story,"

Long Fei laughed when heard her words. "Then, I'm glad."

After walking around for a while the two of them finally arrived at the street where there were food stalls lining up.

Because they did not want to let anyone recognize Long Fei, the two of them chose to buy a few snacks that they could eat while walking around.

Following Long Fei's lead, the two of them reached a higher part where they could get a clearer look at the firework show.

Fortunately, there were not a lot of people around the place. The two of them sat down on the ground and began to eat the snacks they bought earlier.

His gaze fell on her hand which was an inch away from his. If he move a little bit, their hands would be touching.

Long Fei looked away and chuckled. He wondered when did he become this hopeless. To think that he would seem this desperate just to touch her hand...

The longer he spent time with her, the more he would feel this way.

He did not know whether getting close to her was a good thing or not.

"Will this food be enough?" Long Fei asked. He needed to find another topic to divert his attention. "You didn't get to have a proper meal because of me."

"It's fine. I had a heavy lunch earlier. It's good to have something lighter. Besides..." Su Ruan flashed a smile. "Next time, you're going to treat me to something delicious again, right?"

"I'll make up for it."

Now that he has a reason to ask Su Ruan out again, Long Fei would not waste this chance.

The firework show started almost midnight. The two of them watched the show that lasted for almost fifteen minutes and decided to leave the place before the crowd would build up.

Long Fei send her back to her grandpa's orchard afterward.

Seeing that it was already late, Long Fei did not try to delay Su Ruan from returning home. After exchanging a few words, he then left.

Su Ruan heaved a sigh of relief as walked into the house.

Her face turned redder as she recalled how Long Fei had teased her about changing their relationship status. Calling him her boyfriend would be too much for her. Su Ruan did not think that she was ready for that change. After all, they did not know each other for a long time.

Fortunately, he did not mention this matter after Yu Zhi Yi had appeared.

Since she had made her decision to move forward and forget Yu Zhi Yi, Su Ruan wanted to keep things low and steady. She did not want to have any regret.

The moment she entered the house, Su Ruan noticed that someone was sitting in the living room. Her movement halted when she realized that it was her grandpa.

"You're back." Ma Hao Dong looked at his granddaughter with a serious look on his face.

Su Ruan had a premonition.

Usually, her grandpa would already be in bed by this time.

Taking a deep breath, Su Ruan walked over to her Grandpa's side and spoke, "Grandpa, it's getting late. Why are you not sleeping?"

A deep frown appeared on his face. "You still know that it's getting late."

Su Ruan flashed him an awkward smile. "Grandpa, I was walking around the town center. It was the first time that I visited the carnival. I lost track of time."

"Did you have fun?"

"It was not that bad."

Ma Hao Dong chuckled. His eyes grew stern as he looked at her. "I was at your eldest uncle's place earlier to discuss a few matters about the orchard. And guess what? I ran into your cousin, Yu Xi. Apparently, the two of you were not together at the carnival. Your cousin returned earlier without you."

Her scalp went numb. Su Ruan quickly figured out that her Grandpa had uncovered her plan with Ma Yu Xi.

She had thought that she could hide that she had gone out with Long Fei. However, it seemed that her grandpa had found out the truth and she was caught.

"Su Ruan, tell me... who was that person that send you back just now?"

Chapter: 114

Ma Hao Dong Was Suspicious

Ma Hao Dong noticed the change in her granddaughter's expression and realized that he might have sounded a little strict.

He let out a cough and spoke, "Grandpa is not angry. I am just worried about you. It hasn't been a long time since you came to this town. Other than your cousins, you did not know a lot of people in this town. Grandpa was worried that you might be tricked by some rascals." This time, his tone was gentler.

Her heart warmed, knowing that her grandpa was only concerned about her.

"What did my cousin tell you?" Su Ruan asked.

Ma Hao Dong frowned when he recalled his conversation with Ma Yu Xi. "Nothing. Your cousin was really good to keep a secret from me."

Su Ruan smiled. It was good to know that Ma Yu Xi was someone who can help her to keep a secret.

"Grandpa, don't be angry. I promise you that I am not getting tricked by some rascals."

"You are not going to tell me about that person?"

Su Ruan hesitated. "It's not that I am not going to tell you. After all, that person is someone you know."

Ma Hao Dong looked at his granddaughter inquiringly.

"It's your neighbor. Long Fei." Su Ruan held her breath as she waited for her grandpa's reaction.

It took Ma Hao Dong to process her granddaughter's words. "When did the two of you get so close?"

Ma Hao Dong was aware that their family came from a different background. The thought that his granddaughter was close to this young master made him worry.

After all, Young Master Long Fei was someone he was not familiar with. The man often stay in the old mansion each time he was staying in D Town.

There were not a lot of things that he know about Long Fei. There were a lot of people who look after him, but because he did not try to mix in with the townspeople like his grandfather or father, Ma Hao Dong had thought that Long Fei was a stuck-up child from a rich family.

That was it until that man had saved his granddaughter from drowning.

A thought came to his mind.

Ma Hao Dong finally recalled that Long Fei had often visited his orchard and was seen with his granddaughter after that incident.

"Well, we ran into each other previously. Then, he found out that I used to work with that magazine and helped me to get a writing job."

These past few weeks, Ma Hao Dong has been busy with the matter of his orchard that he did not have time to look at what Su Ruan was doing.

Of course, he was unaware that Su Ruan had gone out with Long Fei a few times under the pretense of discussing work matters.

Still, Ma Hao Dong did not believe that the two of them would go out, enjoying their time together to attend the carnival to discuss work. Moreover, he had never heard that Long Fei had ever attended the carnival before.

Ma Hao Dong was suspicious.

That young master surely had some intention towards his granddaughter.

However, seeing that Su Ruan did not want to mention her relationship with that young master, Ma Hao Dong decided not to ask.

"Grandpa, I know what I am doing." Su Ruan held her grandpa's arms and flashed a cute smile. "Don't worry about me, alright?"

It seemed that he had forgotten that his granddaughter was now a grownup. Perhaps, because Su Ruan often stayed with her father, Ma Hao Dong often thought of Su Ruan as a little child.

He had not many chances to watch her grow up and now, she has already grown up this big.

Ma Hao Dong looked at her and finally heaved a sigh. "Forget it. As long as you know what you are doing then it's alright. Grandpa only wanted you to be more careful."

"Un. I know." Su Ruan hugged her grandpa's arms and smiled. "I know that you cared about me very much."

Ma Hao Dong looked at her granddaughter helplessly when she started to act coquettishly with him. "It's late. Go back to your room and get some rest."

After saying a few more words with her grandpa, Su Ruan went back to her room. She took her phone and saw the message from Long Fei, telling her that he had reached home.

Su Ruan quickly replied to his message, telling him to rest early.

Her movement halted as she placed her phone on the side table. Her heart skipped a beat, thinking that their interactions that night were very similar to a couple.

As the feeling came, Su Ruan quickly suppressed it. She needed to take things slow. She did not want to get hurt again.

Meanwhile, after sending a message to Su Ruan, Long Fei picked up his pace and headed to his study. Once he was sure that he was alone, he dialed a number and waited.

"Hello? Ah Fei?" Long Yu Heng's groggy voice came from the other line.

Long Fei glanced at the clock and realized that it was past midnight. "You were sleeping? Sorry to disturb you."

"It's fine." Long Yu Heng coughed. "You wouldn't call me unless it was something important. What happened?"

According to his knowledge, Long Fei had gone to the carnival with Su Ruan. It couldn't be that this man was calling him to brag about his date, right?

"That old man's granddaughter is here in D Town," Long Fei said.

"That old man? Who is it? Professor Chen?"

"Mhmm..."

Hearing his words, Long Yu Heng sat up on his bed quickly. His sleepiness quickly disappeared. "What? What is she doing there?"

"I don't know." Long Fei's expression turned darker.

He only met Yu Zhi Yi briefly and heard that the girl, Shen Yue came to the town with him. Because he was accompanying Su Ruan around, he did not have the chance to investigate. Moreover, he still needed to be cautious, especially after that old man had almost caught him not too long ago.

"Yu Heng, help me to check if they are making any suspicious movement."

"Un. I know.. Ah Fei, you need to be careful."

Chapter: 115

Su Ruan Is In A Relationship

The next morning, Su Ruan went into the dining room for breakfast and was relieved when her grandfather had not said a word about last night.

As soon as she finished eating, her cousin, Ma Yu Xi dragged her to a quiet corner. "Sister Ruan, how was it? What did Grandpa ask? Did he make trouble for you?"

Su Ruan laughed, noticing the panic in Ma Yu Xi's eyes.

However, Ma Yu Xi was too anxious. "Sister Ruan!"

"It's alright. Grandpa did not make trouble for me." Her lips curled into an amused smile. "I'm already an adult. What do you think Grandpa was going to do to me?"

Ma Yu Xi heard her words and thought that her words made sense.

"But Yu Xi, I really would like to thank you. I heard from Grandpa that you haven't mentioned anything to him."

Ma Yu Xi sighed. "I can only tell him that you were going out with some friends and assure him that you would be safe. Sister Ruan, this is your private matter. How can I tell Grandpa anything without your green light."

Su Ruan was really satisfied with this cousin. Previously, although they often make contact, they were not that close. But after she came to live with her grandparents, her relationship with this cousin had improved a lot.

"Then, how did you explain to Grandpa?"

Su Ruan coughed. "I only tell him that I went out with Long Fei. Grandpa did not ask much after he heard his name. I think this is good enough."

"You didn't tell him about your relationship?"

"What relationship? We are only in the phase to get to know each other, right?"

Ma Yu Xi rolled her eyes at the answer. She was almost convinced that this cousin was in denial. The two of them continued to chat for a while. Then, Su Ruan went back to her room to finish her article while Ma Yu Xi went to help their grandpa with the inventories.

After yesterday's farmer market, they would be busy rechecking their stock.

When Su Ruan returned to her bedroom, her phone on the side table began to chime. She glanced at the caller ringtone and her expression changed the moment she saw Yu Zhi Yi's name.

The memories of their conversation yesterday evening came to her mind. Su Ruan was uncomfortable remembering how Yu Zhi Yi had acted.

After a brief hesitation, Su Ruan quickly picked up the phone call.

"Su Ruan?" Yu Zhi Yi's voice was almost like a whisper. "Are you there?"

"Mhmm..." Su Ruan adjusted her mood and spoke, "Sorry, I just came in and saw your call. What's up? Are you still in D Town?"

Yu Zhi Yi chuckled. "Actually, I was planning to visit your grandparents' orchard and look around. I saw your post on your social media and thought that the place was very beautiful."

Su Ruan clenched on her the phone tightly. She was actually not ready to meet him again.

"However," Yu Zhi Yi continued. "It seemed that I would not be able to visit this time. Shen Yue and I will have to return to Capital City. Shen Yue is still busy with her work. We can't stay for too long."

A breath of relief escaped her. Su Ruan was glad that Yu Zhi Yi will be leaving the town. Initially, the reason why she decided to come to this town was to escape him as well as to pull herself back up. However, with Yu Zhi Yi around, Su Ruan did not have the confidence that she could go on and forget him.

It was better if she distances herself from him.

"It's fine. Maybe there is next time. Anyway, my Grandpa's orchard is not going anywhere."

Yu Zhi Yi chuckled at her answer. "Alright. Next time, I'll definitely inform you when I came again."

"Mmm... By then, I'll know this town better. Perhaps, I can be a better tour guide for you."

"Su Ruan," Yu Zhi Yi spoke again. His voice softened. "Congratulations. You have to ask your boyfriend to attend my wedding as well. I will send him an invitation."

"I will ask him. But I can't promise that he will be able to attend. He's... a busy man."

Yu Zhi Yi hesitated. He wanted to ask Su Ruan about her boyfriend and why did he seem very familiar. But then, he stopped himself. From the corner of his eyes, he could see Shen Yue walking out of the bathroom and smiling sweetly at him.

Thinking of their argument last night, Yu Zhi Yi felt guilty that he was talking to Su Ruan. If Shen Yue knew that he was talking to his best friend, then, his fiance would be jealous again.

"Hey, Su Ruan I have to go." He watched as Shen Yue approached him slowly and finally hung up without waiting for her reply.

Shen Yu stopped in front of her fiance and tilted her head. The sweet smile on her face stayed. The memories of how he had coaxed her last night resurfaced in her mind. Her body tingled and Shen Yue wrapped her arms around his body. "Who are you talking to?"

Yu Zhi Yi was going to tell her a lie, but he quickly stopped himself, knowing that Shen Yue could still check his caller history. After their argument last night, lying would only worsen their relationship.

"Su Ruan."

The moment she heard the name, Shen Yue's expression shifted. However, it was only temporary. Shen Yue quickly recovered before Yu Zhi Yi could notice anything.

Seeing that his fiance had not lashed out like she did yesterday, Yu Zhi Yi finally heaved a breath of relief.

"I told her that we will be going back to Capital City," Yu Zhi Yi said. "We have to tell her that we are leaving. Otherwise, she would be worried."

Shen Yue raised her hand and touched the man's thin lips with her finger. "You don't have to explain to me. Zhi Yi, I trust you." She suppressed the unhappiness in her heart and continued to smile.

"I know." Yu Zhi Yi leaned over to peck on her lips. "Yue Yue, you don't have to worry about my relationship with Su Ruan. Su Ruan, she... is now in a relationship."

Her eyes flashed. Shen Yue stared back at her fiance in shock. "Really?" Her woman's instinct told her that Su Ruan had feelings for her fiance. Shen Yue did not believe that it would be easy for Su Ruan to change her mind and like someone else.

"Mhm..." Yu Zhi Yi pursed his lips. He did not want to tell Shen Yue how he had run into Su Ruan and her boyfriend last night. His instinct told him that Shen Yue would not be too happy knowing that the reason he returned earlier to their room was because of Su Ruan.

"I already invited her and his boyfriend to attend our wedding. Then, you don't have to worry about our relationship Su Ruan and I are only... friends.." There was a stabbing pain in his heart as he spoke those words.
