

Chapter: 51

The Orchard

Su Ruan followed her grandpa to the orchard and was introduced to everyone they ran into as his granddaughter. Initially, Su Ruan had not thought too much about it. However, after being introduced for the fifth time, Su Ruan began to feel as if her grandpa wanted to show her around to everyone.

She was already this old and it was making Su Ruan slightly embarrassed.

After a while, Su Ruan told her grandpa that she wanted to look around and walked away. A breath of relief escaped her once she got farther into the orchard. Su Ruan looked around and thought that the cherry on the trees was looking especially delicious.

She wanted to go ahead and pluck them. However, Su Ruan did not know whether that was something she could do.

The view in front of her was beautiful. After looking around for a while, Su Ruan took out her phone, snapped a few pictures, and posted them on her social media.

In just seconds, Lin Qing had commented on her photo. "So pretty! Su Ruan, is this the one from your grandpa's orchard?"

A few days before she headed to D Town, Su Ruan had informed her best friend, Lin Qing that she would be heading to D Town to visit her grandparents.

In the beginning, Lin Qing was shocked by Su Ruan's sudden decision to take a long break. However, as she recalled everything that Su Ruan had gone through the past few months, Lin Qing thought that it would be a good idea for Su Ruan to take this break.

Perhaps, once she came back from this break, Su Ruan would cheer up a bit more.

"Mhm... What do you think? Pretty, right?" Su Ruan typed back.

When Lin Qing did not reply to her messages again, Su Ruan decided to continue walking around and enjoying the breeze. However, a couple of minutes later, Lin Qing called her.

"Su Ruan, are you having fun?" Lin Qing asked as soon as the phone was connected.

Su Ruan laughed happily when she heard her question. "Well, it's relaxing and fun over here. Do you want to come over and play?"

"I wanted to. However, the boutique will be busy recently. I don't know when will I have time to come and play."

A faint smile curled on her lips as she heard Lin Qing's disappointed sigh.

"Looking at those cherries dangling on the trees was enough to make me jealous. Su Ruan, sent me over a box of those cherries to help me cheer up."

Su Ruan began to laugh. "Alright. I'll ask around. If it is something that I can do, I'll send you a box of it."

Lin Qing's eyes lit up. "Really? Su Ruan, you're the best. Do you know how much I love you?"

Su Ruan merely rolled her eyes at her friend's exaggerating words.

"How long are you planning to stay there? Are you planning to return to Capital City soon?"

There was a brief silence on Su Ruan's part when she heard the questions. "I don't know. I haven't made any decision yet. Staying in this town is pretty relaxing. Perhaps, I would stay longer here."

"You're not planning to head back to work?"

Su Ruan raised both shoulders into a shrug. "I don't know. Perhaps, I would be looking into a few freelance writing in the time being. Did you miss me?"

"Of course, I miss you. My life is pretty dull without having you around."

Su Ruan laughed again. She pursed her lips into a thin line and spoke, "I will return to Capital City in a few months. After all, I have already promised Yu Zhi Yi that I would attend his wedding as his best woman."

Lin Qing heaved a sigh when she heard that name. She still could not believe that Su Ruan would accept Yu Zhi Yi's request to be his best woman. Sometimes, she wondered if Su Ruan was a fool?

The person that Su Ruan had loved for years was finally getting married but Su Ruan had to attend this wedding and stay close to witness this union up close.

What can be more heartbreaking than that?

Sometimes, Lin Qing thought that Yu Zhi Yi can be quite cruel. But then, she remember that Yu Zhi Yi had no idea of Lin Qing's feelings towards him.

The two friends chatted for a bit before Lin Qing had to get back to work.

Su Ruan looked up and realized that she had walked too far into the orchard. When she remembered the last time she had fallen into the lake, Su Ruan decided to turn around.

"Sister Ruan, there you are."

Just as she had almost reached back to the spot where she had parted with her grandpa, Su Ruan ran into her cousin, Ma Yu Xi.

As she was working in the orchard, Ma Yu Xi was not wearing the bold clothes on her body this time. The girl was dressed in faded jeans and a short sleeve t-shirt. Her hair was styled into the same ponytail to give her some height.

"I've been looking all around for you," Ma Yu Xi said once she reached Su Ruan's side. "Grandpa said that you decided to come and look around."

"Mhm... the scenery over there is quite pretty. I took some pictures to show around to my friends."

Su Ruan noticed the way her cousin was looking at her and knew that the girl was worried that she would get lost in the orchard.

Ma Yu Xi heaved with relief when saw that her cousin was not injured in any way. "Do you want to taste the cherries? We just plucked a few of them from that other side." Ma Yu Xi pointed her finger in a direction.

Her eyes lit up. A while ago, Su Ruan was still thinking about eating those cherries. Now that her cousin had offered her to taste a few of them, Su Ruan was not going to decline.

She followed her cousin to a small shed and saw a few baskets of them.

Ma Yu Xi helped to clean up a few cherries before she was allowed to taste them.

A contented sigh escaped her once Su Ruan took a bite of the fruit. It tasted very sweet and juicy.

"Yu Xi, is it possible if I wanted to send a small box to my friend?"

Ma Yu Xi laughed. "Of course. Sister Ruan, when you send a box to your friend, remember to let her write a review and help us advertise our fruits to her friends. These days, we are trying to sell the fruits online."

The cousins continued to chat a little bit about this website for a while.

"Sister Ruan, tomorrow is my off day. What do you think about hiking and watching the sunrise together?"

Chapter: 52

Impatient Elders

Long Yu Heng was on his way to Long Fei's room when an elder man stopped him on his track. Once he realized who was that person, the look on Long Yu Heng's face turned gentler. "Dad."

The man with salt and pepper hair nodded at him. "Where are you rushing to?"

"Of course, I'm going to find Long Fei." Long Yu Heng coughed. "Dad, is something the matter?"

"These days, you have been spending more time with him." Long Lan's expression turned serious as he spoke to his son.

"Dad, Grandfather had let me stay by Long Fei's side to assist him. If I didn't spend my time with him, who else should I stay with?"

"Your Grandfather said you and Long Fei both have been running around after you returned from Capital City. What are you two up to?"

Long Yu Heng smiled. "What else can we do? Now that Long Fei decided to stay in D Town to recuperate from the last incident, there are a lot of matters that I have to help him with. Dad, the companies under the family is large. It won't be easy for us to manage it from here."

Long Yu Heng was someone who had been spending beside Long Fei for a long time. The moment their grandfather let him stay beside Long Fei as his right-hand man, Long Yu Heng had pledged his loyalty to Long Fei.

As his right-hand man, it was usual for him to deal with the elders who wanted to find out what was Long Fei up to.

But now... Even as he faced his father, Long Yu Heng's expression would not change much. It would be difficult for his father to find out anything from him.

Long Lan thought that his son's words made sense and decided not to think too much about it. He looked around as if to ensure that his surroundings were safe and turned to his son again.

"That girl that Long Fei has been looking for... did he find her yet?"

"Dad, you know that once Long Fei had found her, he would announce it to the elders. After all, this matter concerned the whole family."

Long Lan let out a long sigh. "If it was not because of what Long Fei had done, this matter would not be this difficult. And that Long Fei... he would not tell us anything about that girl. Or else, we could help him."

"Dad, that incident happened a long time ago. He was too young. He did not know her name or remember her face." Long Yu Heng flashed a weak smile. "This time, he could only depend on his instinct as well as her scent to find her. There are millions of people in this world. It won't be easy to look for her."

Long Lan let out another disappointed sigh. However, he knew well that his son was right. There was nothing that they could do other than to let Long Fei manage everything himself.

If only Long Fei did not meet that girl when they were young... perhaps they could introduce her to another girl and let them marry. It would be convenient to their family if Long Fei was married to a woman from a family that understood their history.

Unfortunately...

Long Yu Heng glanced at his father and decided that it was time for him to escape. "Dad, if there's nothing else, I should go to Long Fei's side first."

Long Lan snapped out of his thought and finally waved his hand, allowing Long Yu Heng to leave.

The moment he got farther away from his father, Long Yu Heng released a breath of relief.

It seemed that the elders were getting impatient. Unfortunately for them, Long Fei's fate has long been sealed when he met Su Ruan. Otherwise, Long Fei would have to face the elders and deal with their matchmaking.

"What took you so long?" Long Fei asked when his cousin entered his room.

Long Yu Heng scratched his neck and spoke, "I ran into my father. It seemed that the elders were urging him to find news about you through me. They were especially curious about that girl."

His brow rose. Long Fei put down the pen in his hand and leaned on his chair. "And? What did you tell him?"

"What else can I tell him? Of course, I have to lie."

"Very good. Now is not a suitable time to tell them any news about Miss Su," Long Fei said. "I'm afraid that if the elders found out her identity, they would make it difficult for her." The expression on his face turned serious. "I'm afraid that the reason Miss Su Ruan had not returned to this town to visit her maternal family had something to do with me."

Long Yu Heng frowned. "What do you mean?"

Long Fei frowned.

In the past few days, he has been observing Su Ruan from afar.

When he recalled Su Ruan's expression when he had mentioned the legend, Long Fei realized that the girl was not only rattled because she had accidentally seen his other form under the water. She was really afraid of him.

His instinct told him that it has something to do with their childhood. After that night when he had transformed right before her eyes, Su Ruan had stopped appearing in the orchard.

For a young girl to see something so scary... perhaps she was traumatized.

She was so afraid that she would still have nightmares about it.

This was the reason he had to hide Su Ruan from the rest of his family until she was ready for the truth.

If the elders found her and told her about the family matters, Su Ruan might not handle it well. She might be traumatized again.

He did not want to scare her.

Long Yu Heng watched his cousin and sighed. He knew well that if it was a matter that Long Fei did not want to say, Long Fei would not say it no matter how much he had coaxed him into it.

"Whatever you do, just remember to avoid the elders if you can."

Long Fei snapped out of his trance and looked at his cousin in puzzlement. "Why?"

"Your look... now that you have the chance to get close to Miss Su every day, the look on your face, as well as your temperament, had clearly changed. You're radiating."

Long Fei picked up his phone and turned on the camera to check on his reflection. However, he could not sense anything different.

"If you wanted to keep Miss Su a secret for a while, it would be wise for you to avoid them," Long Yu Heng said. "The elders are not fools.. If they see you now, they would know that you have found her and had spent your time being close to her."

Chapter: 53

Climb Up

Su Ruan sat on the bed as she woke up, thinking about the recurring dreams she had. Just like in the previous dreams, Su Ruan would still see that boy transformed into a dragon.

However, these days, she would also dream about how the dragon would try to talk to her, telling her that he was not going to hurt her.

Her brow furrowed as she wondered why was she having these dreams and what it was trying to tell her.

After thinking about the dream for a while, Su Ruan stood up and walked over to the window.

Habitually, she would open the window to look at the scenery while allowing the cold air to help her clear her mind.

She took a deep breath and paused. Su Ruan scanned around her surroundings but could not find anything strange.

The frown on her face deepened.

Somehow, she had this feeling as if someone was watching her.

However, Su Ruan quickly discarded that thought away. It was still dark outside and she was on the second floor. There was no way that someone would be watching her. Everything should be her imagination, right?

Just then, her phone on the table rang. Su Ruan turned off the alarm and remembered that she had promised her cousin, Ma Yu Xi that they would go hiking on the hills.

The girl had persuaded her to go and watch the sunrise together.

Su Ruan turned around and went into the bathroom. After she had cleaned up a little bit, Su Ruan went downstairs and ran into her grandpa.

Ma Hao Dong was organizing some documents in the living room when he saw his granddaughter. He looked at her in surprise and spoke, "You're up early."

"Mhm...Yu Xi said that she will take me hiking and watch the sunrise."

Ma Hao Dong was finally at ease upon hearing her words. The look on his face turned gentler. "The sunrise scenery is one of the best. It's good that the two of you can get together to watch them. Just be careful when you climb up. Don't force yourself if you are too tired."

Su Ruan smiled. "Grandpa, have you been on the mountain before?"

"Of course, I have." Ma Hao Dong laughed happily. "When I was younger, I used to climb up the mountain with my friends. Back then, I could climb until the third peak without any problem."

Su Ruan stayed to listen to her grandpa talking about his experience in hiking as she waited for her cousin to show up.

When Ma Yu Xi finally showed up, she was surprised to find a fresh-looking Su Ruan chatting with their grandpa in the living room.

"Hey, I thought I was early. I didn't expect that you would wake up earlier and get ready."

Su Ruan smiled. "Didn't you say we would go and look at the sunrise? I didn't know how difficult it would be to climb up. Of course, I have to wake up earlier to get ready."

The cousins exchanged a few words with their grandpa. Once everything was ready, Su Ruan hopped on the pickup truck and ride shotgun as her cousin drove to the entrance.

The journey took them almost ten minutes. When they arrived, there were a few vehicles parked in the parking space.

Su Ruan jumped down from the vehicle and felt the cold air blow on her face. At this time, she was glad that she was wearing thick clothes. There was no doubt that the air on the mountain would be colder.

Ma Yu Xi watched as her cousin jumped around to keep warm and chuckled. "Don't worry. You will feel warmer once we climb up."

"I hope you are right." She grabbed her bag and looked at Ma Yu Xi in puzzlement. "Are we not going up?"

Ma Yu Xi glanced at her watch. "Let's wait until another group shows up. It would be safer to go with another group."

Su Ruan was not familiar with hiking. Naturally, she would agree to whatever her cousin said.

After waiting for five minutes, a sedan parked beside them, and a group of three boys and one girl came out. The moment they saw Ma Yu Xi, their eyes the group started to greet Ma Yu Xi and exchanged a few words.

It turned out that the group was Ma Yu Xi's ex-schoolmates. Seeing that her cousin knew the group, Su Ruan began to feel more at ease.

Su Ruan looked at the group of boys and thought that one of them seemed a little familiar. After pondering about it for a while, Su Ruan recalled that she had seen this boy at the bakery café.

Wasn't this the boy that her cousin had a crush on?

It seemed that Ma Yu Xi had another intention when she invited her to go hiking!

Ma Yu Xi introduced her to the group and after making some preparation, the cousins followed the group to climb up.

Su Ruan poked her cousin with her elbow and sent her a knowing look.

"Sister Ruan, don't look at me like that," Ma Yu Xi whispered "I wasn't aware that they would be the group to show up."

Su Ruan clicked her tongue. "I won't believe your words."

Ma Yu Xi laughed. "Don't be like this. How about I treat you to a nice breakfast after we come down the mountain?"

Her eyes narrowed. "Look at you, trying to bribe me." She rolled her eyes and spoke, "Don't worry, I won't say a word to our family about it."

"Sister Ruan, you're the best!"

The cousin continued to climb up with the group.

Fortunately, the trail was not that difficult or steep. Since she was someone who was not used to hiking, Su Ruan found that this trail was quite good for a beginner like her.

It took them almost forty minutes to reach the first peak.

By the time they arrived, Su Ruan was already gasping for air. However, the moment she saw the scenery before her, the tiredness disappeared. Su Ruan thought that it was worth it for her to wake up early and brave the morning cold to watch the scenery before her.

The group was planning to stay on the first peak to watch the sunrise.

Su Ruan sat at a clean spot to watch the scenery before her.

Her head turned when she heard some movement coming from another side of the mountain. Soon, a few hikers appeared and one of them was a face that she recognized.

It was Long Fei.

Chapter: 54

Sunrise

Su Ruan was not the only person to notice Long Fei and his people's arrival.

"Young Master Long," Ma Yu Xi gasped.

Initially, the others had not recognized him as it was still a little dark. However, once they heard Ma Yu Xi's voice, they quickly stood up with an anxious look on their faces.

No one had expected that they would run into this big shot here and therefore, they did not know how to react.

Long Fei scanned the faces on the mountain and finally, his gaze stopped at Su Ruan and her cousin. "Miss Ma, Miss Su, good morning."

The others started to whisper among themselves. They were suddenly reminded of the news they heard the other day. It was said that this Young Master had shared a table with Ma Yu Xi and her cousin.

"G-good morning," Ma Yu Xi stuttered. "Are you here to watch the sunrise as well?"

"Mhm... Mind if I join you guys as well?" His gaze shifted to Su Ruan.

Seeing that the man was looking at her, Su Ruan had no other choice but to speak, "Please."

Long Fei flashed a smile. But instead of sitting close to her as Su Ruan was expecting him to do, Long Fei brought his friends to sit at a distance away. Then, he started to speak a few words with his friends, ignoring the others' curious gaze.

For the others, even though they wanted the chance to get close with this young master, no one dared to move carelessly. They have lived in this town long enough to know that they should not do anything that would make Long Fei unhappy.

Long Yu Heng glanced at the person beside him anxiously before he stole a glance at Su Ruan. "Is it fine like this? Long Fei, are you sure you're not going over there to create a chance?"

Long Fei chuckled when he heard his cousin's words. "Didn't you warn me that I should be careful? There are too many people around here. It's easy to create rumors and alerted the elders. Yu Heng, don't be too anxious."

Hearing his words, Long Yu Heng could only suppress his urge to curse.

Who was that person who had snuck out in the middle of the night to get close to the woman? His move was too dangerous. If the elders knew what he was doing or where he was heading to, wouldn't it be dangerous for Miss Su as well?

Who was the anxious one?

Moreover... if he did not have the intention to get close to Miss Su, then why was he forced to wake up early in the morning to hike?

"What are you two talking about?"

Fu Xing was out of breath. He had arrived at the residence last night with a few important documents for his boss. He merely got three hours sleep before his boss woke him up and told him that they were going hiking to watch the sunrise.

He wanted to decline but could not say anything to his big boss.

Unlike the trail that Su Ruan and the others had used as the entrance, Long Fei began to walk from the residence. The trail was long and they had to walk for more than an hour.

"Nothing much." Long Yu Heng smiled. "Fu Xing, if you're tired, just take a rest. " He glanced at his watch and spoke, "The sunrise should start in a few minutes."

Fu Xing looked at the two men and decided not to speak too much. He took out his flask and drank the hot tea. A sigh escaped him as his body warmed up.

Long Fei was secretly watching over Su Ruan when a thought came to his mind. "That's right, we're expecting a guest this weekend. Yu Heng, help me to look after him."

It was rare for the Long Fei to receive a guest. Hearing that Long Fei wanted him to entertain a guest, Long Yu Heng became curious. "Who is it?"

"It's that boy." Long Fei looked away, avoiding his cousin's eyes. "Lu Xun's brother-in-law, Song Wei."

"You want me to babysit?" Long Yu Heng felt an incoming headache.

It would not be the first time for Song Wei to visit this town, but that boy was such a fanboy that he would follow Long Fei anywhere he went to. Long Yu Heng really could not understand what was so good about following Long Fei around.

"It shouldn't be too hard. Just don't let him run into trouble."

"But he's coming to this town to see you."

Long Fei raised a brow. "Didn't you say that I should hurry and bring home a wife? I need to work harder before the elders found out about her first."

Long Yu Heng narrowed his eyes when he could not find any words to refute. It was really not easy for him as Long Fei's right-hand man.

Fu Xing overheard this important conversation and stared at his boss with his eyes wide.

President Long Fei is looking for a wife? Did he already have his target?

Fu Xing thought of how hard it was for him to work for Long Fei. Suddenly, he started to pity the woman that his boss had set his eyes on. It would not be easy for her to deal with President Long Fei's constantly changing mood.

Soon, the surroundings around them started to get brighter.

At the side, Su Ruan took out her phone just like everyone else to record this beautiful sunrise.

The chattering voice became livelier, but still, the group did not dare to talk too loud and make the young masters from Long's family unhappy.

After recording a few videos and taking a few pictures, Su Ruan posted them to her social media and slid her phone back into her pocket.

A water flask appeared in front of her and the smell of coffee wafted around her.

"Sister Ruan, have a drink. It will help you to warm up a little."

Su Ruan took the flask and took a couple of sips. Then, she glanced at the boy who Ma Yu Xi fancied. "I saw the two of you chatting earlier. Did you make any progress?"

"What progress? He was only asking if I was familiar with Young Master Long."

"You fool. Since he took the initiative to speak to you, then you should take this chance to continue the conversation."

Ma Yu Xi heaved a long sigh. "Then what am I supposed to do? The moment I saw him up close, I got so scared to talk to him."

Su Ruan chuckled at her cousin's reaction. Why didn't she realize that Ma Yu Xi was this adorable?

At this time, one of the people from the group suggested that they should prepare to head back.. Su Ruan drank her coffee and finally packed up.

Chapter: 55

Separated

Following the group, Su Ruan began to climb down the mountain while listening to her cousin talking to her about their breakfast spot.

Su Ruan had thought that Ma Yu Xi was going to take her to that bakery café again but as the boy she fancied was on his day off, Ma Yu Xi did not see any point to visit that place.

It turned out that the girl was really visiting that bakery to spy on that boy.

Su Ruan watched the boy from the corner of her eyes and thought her cousin really had good taste. The boy was really good-looking.

Someone from the group approached Ma Yu Xi and began to chat with her about their orchard.

Su Ruan took this chance to snap a few photos and planned to upload them to her social media when she got back.

But perhaps, the morning was a bit cold and the trail that they used was filled with fogs. When Su Ruan looked up again, she realized that she has been separated from the group and could no longer hear their voices.

A few cursing words escaped her. Su Ruan stood still at her position and wondered what she was supposed to do next.

Taking a deep breath, she told herself not to panic and observe her surroundings first. Fortunately, the fog was not so thick and she could still see everything around her.

Finding that the trail seemed a little familiar, Su Ruan began to contemplate whether she should head down on her own, or wait on the spot for a while.

If she was not mistaken, there were a few small groups that decided to stay around the peak to take some pictures. Perhaps, if she waited, she would run into them, and then she could follow them down.

Her movement halted the moment she heard a little movement coming from her east. Her heartbeat accelerated, wondering if she might stumble into some animals.

"Miss Su?"

Hearing that familiar voice, Su Ruan did not know whether she should be relieved or worried. Turning around, Su Ruan could see Long Fei and his friends walking over to her.

"Why are you here alone?" Long Fei asked. "Why aren't you with your group?"

Her gaze shifted towards the two men that were walking with Long Fei. If she was not mistaken, one of them was Long Fei's cousin and the other was his assistant.

"I didn't pay attention and got separated from them," Su Ruan answered.

A light flashed in Long Fei's eyes, but it disappeared quickly before anyone could notice them.

Long Fei certainly did not expect that he would have this fate to run into Su Ruan. Initially, he only planned to make his presence when he decided to show up in the mountain.

He wanted to get closer to Su Ruan slowly until she began to trust that he had no bad intention towards her.

"If you don't mind, we can lead you down," Long Fei said.

Long Fei was very familiar with the mountain and knew that Su Ruan and the others should enter the mountain through the entrance gate.

Su Ruan heaved in relief. "Thank you, President Long. This is my first time coming to the mountain. I'm not very familiar with the trail here."

"It's fine." Long Fei waved his hand. "Just call me Long Fei. Hearing you addressing me as President Long made me think that I am back in Capital City."

Su Ruan smiled but did not answer. The last time, her grandpa had mentioned that everyone in this town would call him Young Master Long. She wondered if she should address him as such as well. After all, Long Fei... seemed a little inappropriate.

Her gaze then fell on Long Fei's assistant. Su Ruan could not help but shiver at the thought that she get to be close to this big shot as well.

While she was doing her homework to prepare for that interview, Su Ruan had learned a few things about Long Fei's assistant, Fu Xing as well.

It was said that whenever President Long Fei was not around in Capital City, Fu Xing would control Blue Media Group and help his boss to make a few decisions.

In the business world, a lot of people respected Fu Xing as well.

"Right, let me introduce you to my companions," Long Fei spoke when he noticed that Su Ruan was looking at them. "Miss Su, you might still remember my cousin, Long Yu Heng."

"Hello, Miss Su." A bright smile curled on his lips. Long Yu Heng had thought that he would have to stand at the side and pretended that he did not exist. He did not expect that Long Fei would introduce him to Su Ruan.

These days, Long Yu Heng found that it was getting hard trying to understand Long Fei's mind.

"And this is my assistant, Fu Xing," Long Fei continued. "Fu Xing, this is Miss Su Ruan."

"Hello, Miss Su." Fu Xing went over to shake his hand with the girl. It was then that he realized that the person in front of him seemed familiar.

Miss Su Ruan? Wasn't she's the one that his boss wanted to employ? Previously, his boss had set up an interview just to hire her.

Back then, Fu Xing was arranged to wait for her arrival downstairs and had seen her picture. However, the last time he had seen her, Su Ruan was wearing makeup. Now that she was on the mountain with no makeup on, Fu Xing almost did not recognize her.

His mouth opened to say something but after meeting his boss's penetrating gaze, Fu Xing quickly took a step back and swallowed the questions he wanted to ask.

Fu Xing's thought went back to his boss's conversation with Long Yu Heng on the peak just now. Suddenly, Fu Xing was looking at Su Ruan in a different light.

Just then, Su Ruan's phone started to ring.

Su Ruan accepted the phone call and heard Ma Yu Xi's anxious tone.

"Sister Ruan! Where are you? I turned around for one second and you are no longer behind us. Tell me your location. I'll go and find you right away."

Ma Yu Xi was scared. If something happened to Su Ruan, then she would not have the courage to face her family. After all, it was her idea to come up the mountain to hike.

"Yu Xi, relax."

Ma Yu Xi wanted to cry. How can she relax in this situation?

"I ran into that Young Master Long and his group," Su Ruan explained.

"Ah?" Ma Yu Xi was shocked.

"He said he will help me to get down."

"Miss Su, just tell your cousin that you will meet her at the parking lot," Long Fei said.

On the other line, Ma Yu Xi heard the man's voice and was finally at ease that her cousin was not alone.

"Yu Xi, just stay with that group first. I'll meet you at the parking lot, alright?"
