

Chapter: 56

Not A Dangerous Man

After exchanging a few words with her cousin and ensuring her that she was alright, Su Ruan followed Long Fei to climb down the mountain.

The man was leading her while his cousin and assistant were walking at the back.

Fu Xing watched Su Ruan and finally turned to Long Yu Heng. They have walked around the mountain for a while and he could no longer suppress his curiosity.

"Yu Heng, tell me... Is President Long is wooing Miss Su?" Fu Xing whispered once he was sure that they were far enough to be heard.

Long Yu Heng glanced at the two people who were walking in front of them but did not say anything.

"Are you not going to tell me anything?" Fu Xing asked again. "I overheard your conversation with President Long earlier. Were you guys talking about Miss Su?"

"Fu Xing, there are certain things that you cannot say out loud." Long Yu Heng continued to look at Long Fei, wondering if this sharp-eared man was listening to their conversation.

Fu Xing heaved a sigh and decided to ask again when the two of them were alone. Meanwhile, his gaze was still on Su Ruan. His intuition was telling him that he had made the right guess.

Meanwhile, Su Ruan continued to be wary around Long Fei.

Although this man had saved her from drowning once, Su Ruan thought that she needed to be cautious around this man after he had mentioned the story about the lake's dragon. She couldn't help but think that Long Fei was not a simple person.

Of course, Long Fei was aware that someone was watching him. Su Ruan's gaze was too penetrating and he couldn't ignore her.

However, her attitude towards him had confirmed his suspicion. Su Ruan was indeed a little afraid of him. He thought about the dreams she had been having the past few days and frowned.

Long Fei had never thought that the reason Su Ruan had never shown up in D Town again was that she had seen him shift during their childhood.

Back then, she had promised that she would come back to visit him again.

The young him would often sneak into the orchard just to find her. However, he had never seen her again. Later, he began to suspect that perhaps, the girl he was looking for was not related to the Ma family.

Because of that, finding her got more difficult. He had almost given up until he pick up the scent of her blood in her friend's car.

"This isn't the trail that we use to climb up." Su Ruan broke up the silence between them.

She has been keeping her eyes on Long Fei for a long time and finally realized that the trail that Long Fei had used was different.

Long Fei turned around and smiled. "There are a few trails that would lead you to the peak. I'm not sure which trail did you and our friends had taken when you climbed up earlier. But rest assured, this trail will also lead you to see your cousin."

Su Ruan smiled. She hoped that this young master would not misunderstand that she had thought of him as a trafficker.

"Actually, this was the easiest trail to climb down from this mountain. The trail is not that steep and this will save a lot of time for us to climb down."

Since Su Ruan had spoken, Long Fei wanted to use this chance to continue to speak with her. Perhaps, he could prove to her that he was not a dangerous man.

Long Fei slowed down to let Su Ruan catch up so that the two of them would be able to walk closer. His lips curled into a smile when Su Ruan got closer to him. The blood in his body grew warmer as he felt her presence.

"Miss Su, you have been in this town for a few days now. Have you visited a lot of places?"

"Not really. These past few days, I have been accompanying my mother and grandparents," Su Ruan answered.

Initially, she did not want to engage in any conversation with Long Fei. However, this man was helping her and she did not want to be seen as rude.

Saying a few words would not do her any harm, right?

"Then, I hope that you are planning to stay in this town longer. There are a lot of interesting places in this town. It would be a shame if you did not visit them all."

"Mhmm... I've heard my cousin and grandpa mentioned a few attraction places. I will surely visit them before I leave."

Long Fei pondered for a while and spoke "If you need someone as a tour guide, you can always ask me. I know a lot of good spots to visit and activities to do."

From the corner of his eyes, Long Fei could see that Long Yu Heng was trying to sneak and listen to their conversation. He shot him a warning glance and Long Yu Heng quickly gave up on his idea.

That busybody...

"I shouldn't trouble you."

"It's not a trouble. After all, I'm on holiday and did not have many things to do."

Su Ruan was finding his words hard to believe. How could a big boss such as Long Fei had not many things to do.

"We will see." Su Ruan did not want to make a promise.

The two of them continued to walk down the mountain. Long Fei lowered his head to hide his smile. It seemed that he needed to think of something to trick Su Ruan to go out with him.

Otherwise, how else could the two of them get closer?

After walking for almost twenty minutes, the group finally arrived at the parking lot where Ma Yu Xi had parked her pickup truck.

The moment Ma Yu Xi saw her cousin, she quickly lurched forward and pulled Su Ruan into a tight hug. She was still feeling guilty that she had lost Su Ruan in the mountain.

It was Su Ruan who had to help Ma Yu Xi to calm down.

Just as they were planning to leave the place, Ma Yu Xi realized that there was another problem.

Since Long Fei and his group had accompanied Su Ruan down, it would be difficult for them to return to their residence. After all, Long Fei and his group had climbed up the mountain through the trail closer to his place.

After thinking for a while, Ma Yu Xi decided to offer the men a lift with her pickup truck.

Chapter: 57

Have Breakfast Together

Ma Yu Xi glanced at the rearview mirror and felt a surge of exhilaration upon seeing the three handsome men sitting in her pickup truck.

She couldn't help thinking how her days had gotten a lot stranger after her cousin, Su Ruan had returned to this town.

It was strange enough for her to be sitting at the same table as this young master and now, she was giving him a lift.

The atmosphere in the car was quiet. Ma Yu Xi wanted to break the silence but was afraid that she was going to make the young master upset. After all, she had often heard from the others that Young Master Long's temperance was not that good.

Ma Yu Xi glanced at her cousin beside her but the girl was busy with something on her phone.

"Miss Ma, if it's convenience, you can drop us over at the town center," Long Fei spoke as the pickup truck made a turn.

"Ah? The town center?" Ma Yu Xi snapped out of her thought and looked into the rear mirror again to watch the man nod. "Alright. Coincidentally, my cousin and I are heading in the same direction."

Long Fei rubbed his fingers together and smiled. "That's good. We won't be causing too much trouble for you, then."

"It's not a trouble at all. Young Master Long, you and your friends had helped my cousin down the mountain. If it's not because of you, I really did not know what I should do." An idea suddenly came to her mind. "If you don't mind, how about joining us for breakfast?"

Su Ruan turned her head to her cousin and stared at her with her eyes wide, wondering what she was up to. Why would this girl suddenly invite the men for breakfast?

But of course, Ma Yu Xi did not notice her cousin's look.

"It will be my treat. It's the least I can do to thank you for your help," Ma Yu Xi continued. However, the moment she finished her words, Ma Yu Xi began to reflect whether inviting the men for breakfast together would be a good idea.

Someone like Young Master Long Fei would not possibly want to join them for breakfast, right?

"Alright."

Long Fei's answer surprised everyone in the vehicle.

Ma Yu Xi glanced at the man again, wondering if she had misheard his answer.

"If you don't mind, I would like to recommend a place," Long Fei said. Since Su Ruan's cousin had given him this chance, it would be too foolish for him to throw it away.

A light flashed in Ma Yu Xi's eyes upon hearing the man's words. It seemed that she really did not mishear his words. This young master had agreed to have breakfast together.

With Long Fei's direction, the pickup truck finally stopped at the west part of the town center.

Perhaps, the day was still early and there were not a lot of people around. Therefore, no one saw Long Fei come out from Ma Yu Xi's pickup truck.

Ma Yu Xi scanned her surroundings and began to wonder if there would be an open restaurant around this area.

Just then, Su Ruan appeared at her side and poked her on the waist. "What are you thinking?"

Ma Yu Xi blinked. "Sister Ruan, what do you mean?"

"Why would you suddenly ask them to have breakfast together?"

"They have helped you on the mountain. Of course, we will have to be polite." Ma Yu Xi shot a puzzled look at her cousin.

Seeing the girl's pure and innocent look, Su Ruan could only heave a sigh. She still thought that it was a dangerous thing to follow Long Fei and be around him.

If it was Long Fei who had suggested they have breakfast together, Su Ruan would most definitely think that this man bore an intention. However, the person who suggested for them to have breakfast together was Ma Yu Xi.

Meanwhile, Long Yu Heng and Fu Xing were both dumbfounded when Long Fei had suddenly suggested Ma Yu Xi drop them at the town center.

They both understood that this man had a certain agenda but why did he have to drag them along to pick up his wife?

"Ah Fei, how are we going to return to the residence after this?" Long Yu Heng asked.

This was his main concern. After all, the town center was quite far from the residence. It was a fifteen minutes drive from the residence to arrive at this part of the town.

Could it be that Long Fei was planning to ask Miss Ma Yu Xi to send them back to the residence after he got his chance to have breakfast with Miss Su Ruan together?

"What's wrong?" Long Fei raised a brow. "We can just swim back to the residence."

Long Yu Heng's expression stiffened upon hearing his answer.

Not everyone is a good swimmer like Long Fei. The distance was quite far. Long Yu Heng was sure that he could only swim halfway back. Moreover, they still have Fu Xing around. It couldn't be that Long Fei was planning to reveal his other form to this poor assistant?

Fu Xing would definitely pass out from fear.

Long Fei saw the look on the two men's faces and chuckled. "I'm joking with you. We can take a boat to head back after this."

The corner of Long Yu Her's mouth started to twitch.

When did Long Fei know how to pull a joke? It seemed that Long Fei's temperament had indeed changed after spending too much time being around Su Ruan.

Long Yu Heng started to scan around their surroundings. He could only hope that they won't run into anyone from the family today. With Long Fei's change these days it would be hard to continue keeping his secret.

Long Fei led them to a restaurant just beside the lake.

The restaurant was empty when they walked in. Aside from an old man, reading his newspaper at the counter, there was no one else in there.

Su Ruan looked inside and wondered if this place was really open for business.

The old man looked up from his newspaper with a frown. However, the look on his face quickly changed the moment he saw Long Fei.

"Young Master Long," the old man greeted.

"Uncle Liang," Long Fei nodded politely.

The old man glanced at the people who came with Long Fei together.. He flashed them an amiable smile and led them to a table enough to fit five people together.

Chapter: 58

You Know Me Best

Su Ruan hesitated for a brief second before she finally took a seat at the round table.

Fortunately, the old man came over with the menu quickly. Su Ruan heaved, feeling relieved that she could avoid an awkward conversation with the men.

She lowered her head and read the menu seriously, avoiding others' gazes.

Ma Yu Xi was different than her. In just a few minutes, the girl was already conversing with Long Fei's cousin as if they had known each other for a long time.

The corner of her lips started to twitch as Ma Yu Xi and Long Yu Heng were discussing a few scenic places in the town.

Why did she have this feeling as if they were tricked?

The group started to order their food and Su Ruan felt a little at loss having nothing for her to keep her distracted.

Long Fei naturally noticed her mood. He lowered his head and a faint smile curled on his lips. Just how was he supposed to make Su Ruan more at ease and lower her guard towards him.

Most importantly, why was Su Ruan this scared of him?

It couldn't be that the story he had told her the last time had left a scar? Long Fei began to wonder if his approach was wrong from the very beginning.

Of course, as someone who had no experience in dating and such, it was not strange for Long Fei to make a mistake.

He grew up knowing that he could not be with another woman other than the girl he had seen in the orchard. Later, when he saw that he could not find her, Long Fei began to focus on the family and growing their business.

He was prepared from the beginning that he was going to stay single. Where did he have the chance to date or learn how to pick up girls.

He often told Long Yu Heng that he knew what he was doing, but he was only pretending. No matter what, he did not want his cousin to know about his love life. It would be too embarrassing for him.

The sound of a phone snapped him out of his thought.

Long Fei looked up and saw Su Ruan excusing herself to answer the phone call. He watched her through the glass and was in deep thought.

Meanwhile, Su Ruan heaved in relief when her phone started to ring. Without looking at the caller ID, she excused herself to answer the call.

A breath of relief escaped her the moment she stepped outside the place.

However once she saw the name on the caller ID, Su Ruan's face began to change again.

She did not want to pick up this phone call, but she had already stepped outside. After hesitating for a few seconds, Su Ruan finally accepted the phone call.

"Su Ruan," Yu Zhi Yi's voice was heard on the other line. "I saw the picture you posted on your moments. Are you still in D Town?"

"Mhm... My cousin took me around this place and said that the sunrise scenery in this town is quite lovely."

"You made me want to visit you in your hometown as well."

Su Ruan smiled but the smile did not reach her eyes. "Aren't you busy with your wedding preparation? Why would you still have time to visit me?"

Yu Zhi Yi heaved a long sigh but did not say anything for a long time. "Su Ruan, I miss you."

Her heartbeat accelerated and her mind went blank for a few seconds. However, Su Ruan quickly composed herself, telling her not to harbor any hope that she would have a future with Yu Zhi Yi.

When she came to Yu Zhi Yi's party, Su Ruan had decided to let him go. Yu Zhi Yi can only be her best friend and nothing else.

"What's wrong?" Su Ruan asked. "Something happened?"

Yu Zhi Yi laughed. "It was always you who know me best."

Her heart skipped a beat.

Yu Zhi Yi was always good with his words. Otherwise, how could she ever fall for him and wait for him for years? It was his words that always give her the confidence that someday, he would choose her.

"Recently, Shen Yue has been busy with her works and research," Yu Zhi Yi said. "You could say that I'm bored having no one to hang around with me in Capital City."

She walked closer to the lake and leaned on the rails. "You weren't married yet but you are already very clingy?" Su Ruan teased him to lighten the mood.

"Su Ruan, do you think that I have made the right decision when I decided to marry Shen Yue?"

Her expression froze. Never in million years would Su Ruan think that she would hear her friend say something like this.

She took a deep breath and spoke, "Yu Zhi Yi, you have already made your decision. Why are you suddenly asking me this question?"

"Do you think it's a wedding jittery?"

Su Ruan pursed her lips and finally sighed. "I don't know. But Yu Zhi Yi, I have been friends with you for years and watched you date many types of girls. The beauty, the smart, the funny ones. However, I have never seen you with that infatuated expression on your face whenever you talked about Miss Shen."

"You think I'm infatuated?"

"Otherwise?" Su Ruan raised a brow. "At least I can see that you are very in love with your fiance. If you have any issues with her, you should sit down and talk. Stop thinking too much. If your fiance knew what was on your mind, she would be unhappy."

"You are right."

The friends continued to chat for a few minutes and Su Ruan finally hung up the phone call. She turned around, wanting to return to the restaurant, and saw that Long Fei was leaning on the wall, watching her.

This man, was he waiting for her?

The moments their gazes met, Long Fei flashed her a smile and walked over.

"President Long, why are you here?"

Long Fei stared at her face and spoke, "Miss Su, are you afraid of me?"

Su Ruan was taken aback upon hearing his question. "No. Why would you think this way?"

"I had this feeling as if you are avoiding me."

"Then you are wrong." Su Ruan clenched her phone a little tighter as she lied.

Long Fei narrowed his eyes and looked at the lake again. "Miss Su, what do you think about this lake?"

He was changing the subject, making her confused. "It's pretty."

Suddenly, the smile on his face widened. "It's good that you think you think it's pretty." Long Fei opened his mouth as if to say something but in the end, he stopped himself. "Let's get back in the restaurant. I came out to tell you that the food has arrived."

Su Ruan watched the man's back with a puzzled look on her face.

This person.... just what was he trying to do and say?

Chapter: 59

He s Interested In You

When Su Ruan returned to her seat, she found that the table was full of food, and her cousin, Ma Yu Xi was still talking to Long Fei's cousin about a few scenic places in the town.

Hearing her footsteps, Ma Yu Xi turned around and looked up with a smile. "Sister Ruan, come over. We were just talking about a few fishing spots in this town and Mr. Long said he knew a good place and invited us to come over with them."

Su Ruan looked at her cousin with a dazed expression. She had merely left the room a while ago and this group was already making plans to go fishing?

When did Ma Yu Xi and these guys become this close?

Meanwhile, Long Fei lowered his head to hide the smile on his face. He was still thinking of a plan to draw Su Ruan closer to him.

Just now, he was about to find an opportunity to ask Su Ruan out when he overheard the conversation between Long Yu Heng and Ma Yu Xi.

His gaze shifted to his cousin and Long Fei was secretly thankful for this person's unintentional help.

"Your cousin was mentioning about a few fishing spots she had frequently go to," Long Yu Heng said. "I mentioned my favorite spot and Miss Ma said she has never visited them before."

Ma Yu Xi stared at her cousin and blinked. "Sister Ruan, let's go."

The corner of her lips started to twitch. How could Ma Yu Xi easily accept a stranger's invitation?

"Why didn't I know that you like fishing?" Su Ruan asked.

"After working at the orchard for the whole day, going fishing can be very relaxing," Ma Yu Xi said. "In the past, I always followed my father around during our off day.."

Su Ruan had only returned to the town for a few days. There were a lot of things that she was not very familiar with about her mother's side of the family.

"Sister Ruan, I haven't taken you around the lake on a boat, right? We can use this opportunity to bring you sightseeing around this lake."

Su Ruan saw the pleading look on her cousin's face and suddenly had an incoming headache. Ma Yu Xi continued to look at her expectantly and after a few seconds, her resolve began to move.

"Alright," Su Ruan finally gave in. "You know this place best. I'll follow whatever arrangement you have for me."

Anyway, Su Ruan did not think that she would be able to let her cousin go with the guys alone. It would be better if she followed and keep her eyes on her cousin.

Hearing her answer, Ma Yu Xi started to smile happily.

Su Ruan sat down and ate her breakfast. At the side, Ma Yu Xi continued to make plans with Long Yu Heng regarding their fishing trip together.

After their breakfast ended, Ma Yu Xi was surprised that Long Fei had already settled their bills.

Initially, she planned to treat them breakfast as Long Fei and the others had helped Su Ruan to come down the mountain safely. She did not think that Long Fei would be the one to treat their breakfast instead.

"How much is the meal? I'll pay you back." Ma Yu Xi looked at Long Fei anxiously.

Although she was able to get along with Long Yu Heng and Fu Xing well, she still found that Long Fei was a little difficult to get along with. Long Fei was the young master of the Long family and Ma Yu Xi did not dream to be close to someone like him.

"Miss Ma, it's fine." Long Fei flashed an amiable smile at them. "I wouldn't feel at ease to let the lady pay for the meal."

Ma Yu Xi's cheek was tinted pink. "This... wouldn't do. After all, I was the one who invited you to have breakfast together."

"It's fine." Long Fei pondered for a while and spoke, "How about this, if you wanted to thank me, then how about sending over a box of cherries to my place?"

Hearing his words, Ma Yu Xi's expression began to light up. "Then, it's settled. I will ask someone to deliver a box of cherries to you later."

Long Fei glanced at Su Ruan and smiled.

It seemed that to get closer to Su Ruan, he might have to get closer to her family members first. Ma Yu Xi seemed a very good place for him to start. Ma Yu Xi might be a little reserved around him but unlike Su Ruan, she did not have her guards up all the time.

After exchanging a few words, the group finally parted.

As Long Fei and his men had some business in the town center, Su Ruan and Ma Yu Xi did not ask much and turned around to leave.

The window rolled down and Su Ruan leaned in her seat while watching the scenery outside. At the side, Ma Yu Xi was singing along to the song on the radio.

Feeling slightly cold, Su Ruan rolled the windows up and turned to her cousin. Sensing her gaze, Ma Yu Xi turned down the radio and smiled.

"Sister Ruan, what did you and Young Master Long talk about when the two of you were outside?"

Su Ruan recalled turning around after the phone call with Yu Zhi Yi and finding Long Fei waiting for her outside the restaurant. "Nothing much. He said he came out only to inform me that the food has arrived."

Su Ruan definitely did not want to tell her cousin about her strange conversation with Long Fei earlier. She still did not understand why Long Fei would ask her those questions.

"Oh." Ma Yu Xi sighed. There was a hint of disappointment in her eyes.

"What's wrong?" Su Ruan laughed. "Why do you look disappointed?"

Ma Yu Xi glanced at her cousin. After giving a few thoughts, the smile on her face widened. "Sister Ruan, what do you think about Young Master Long Fei?"

Her eyes narrowed. "Ma Yu Xi, don't tell me that you are interested in him?" A teasing smile curled on her lips.

"No way! Sister Ruan, it's not like that." Ma Yu Xi looked at Su Ruan with her eyes wide before she focused on the road again. "I have no interest in him. However, I do think that he is interested in you."

The smile on her face quickly faded away. After a few seconds, Su Ruan began to laugh. "How is that possible? Don't joke around with me."

"I'm not. You didn't know this, but after you leave the restaurant to answer the call, Young Master Long's eyes were on you all the time. From the look at it, I think that he's interested in you. Otherwise, how can he be so kind to treat us for a meal?"

"You're thinking too much. He was being courteous." Su Ruan rolled her eyes, too lazy to listen to her cousin's nonsense.. A few seconds later, she began to ponder about Ma Yu Xi's words again, and then, she quickly dismissed that thought.

Chapter: 60

Buying Fruits

For the next few days, Su Ruan has been accompanying her grandpa and the others in the orchard.

Other than picking up the fruits, there was also a space beside the orchard where a few workers were processing those fruits and turning them into other products. This way, they could prevent the fruit from spoilage.

Su Ruan took a sip of the cherry juice and smacked her lips.

"How was it? Delicious, right?"

She raised her head and saw that her grandpa was looking at her expectantly. The corner of her lips tilted up into a smile. "Un. They are delicious."

"Then, you should drink a little more." Ma Hao Dong turned around and picked up the bottle of juice at the side.

Su Ruan looked at her grandpa and felt as if she was being pampered as if she was a little child. These days, her grandparents have been feeding her a lot of food that she started to feel that she ad gained some weight.

However, the food that her grandparents prepared was too good that she could not say no to them.

"Alright, dad, stop feeding her, or else, she might not be able to eat for dinner." Ma Zheng Zheng appeared at the side and heaved helplessly as she looked at her daughter.

"One more glass wouldn't hurt," Su Ruan said. She winked at her grandpa and watched as he helped her to pour another glass of drinks.

The family was having a good time when they heard a little commotion from the outside.

Ma Hao Dong frowned. He turned around and decided to check on what was going on.

Su Ruan exchanged a look with her mother and decided to follow her grandpa to look at what was going on.

When they came out, Su Ruan was surprised to see a group of people gathering around someone familiar. Su Ruan had thought that she would only see Long Fei again this soon. After all, she was going to see him again in a few days as her cousin had already accepted his invitation to go fishing together.

But, what was this person doing here?

The workers started to make room to let Ma Hao Dong and the others come forward.

"Young Master Long," Ma Hao Dong stepped forward to greet him. "Why are you here?"

"Old Man Ma." Long Fei glanced at Su Ruan who was among the crowd before he looked at Ma Hao Dong again. "I'm sorry. I should have informed you earlier that I am coming to visit."

Ma Hao Dong waved his hand. "It's fine. Young Master Long, you are always welcome to our place whenever you want."

This man was his granddaughter's benefactor. Of course, Ma Hao Dong would be very polite to Long Fei.

"Previously, your granddaughter sent a box of cherries to my place," Long Fei spoke.

A few days ago, Ma Yu Xi had sent him a box of cherries to thank him for his help at the mountain. Long Fei had almost forgotten about this box of fruit until the auntie started to serve it to Song Wei to eat.

An idea came to his mind and he decided to bring this boy to the orchard.

Long Fei glanced at the boy beside him and smiled. "Coincidentally, we are having a guest at our place and he happened to like your fruits. Song Wei, didn't you say that you wanted to bring some fruits for your sister?"

Song Wei stared at the man beside him in puzzlement.

He only came to the town to learn a few things from this young master. Suddenly this man dragged him over to this orchard and said that he had some business.

Song Wei did not remember that he had said anything about buying cherries for his sister.

However, when he saw the look on Long Fei's face, Song Wei decided to go along with his words.

"Yes. That's right. I've tried your fruits and thought that they are too good," Song Wei played along. "I wanted to bring back a few of them for my family."

Su Ruan watched the man suspiciously but she could not find anything wrong.

Ma Hao Dong looked at this new customer and his expression lit up. "Then, let me help you to choose a few boxes of the fruits. How many boxes are you going to get?"

"Five boxes will be enough," Long Fei answered for him.

Song Wei stared back at Long Fei with a dazed look in his eyes.

What was he supposed to do with that many boxes of fruits? How was he supposed to carry them to the airport?

"Then, mister, please come with me," Ma Hao Dong said to Song Wei. "I'll show you around this place. Other than the fruits, we also have other products. If you liked it, you could pack a few of them home. I will give you a huge discount."

"Hmm..." Long Fei turned to Song Wei and nodded. "Go ahead and pick whatever you like. Don't worry about the money. I'll pay for everything."

Song Wei's eyes lit up. Since Long Fei was willing to pay for it, then, he shouldn't be too polite. He followed Ma Hao Dong into the building and found that Long Fei did not come over with him. He was about to turn around and call his idol, but Ma Hao Dong had already ushered him into the warehouse.

As Song Wei walked into the building, Long Fei took out his phone and dialed a number.

Seeing that Long Fei was on the phone, the onlookers began to disperse to give him space.

Long Fei watched Su Ruan from the corner of his eyes and finally hung out the phone call as he watched her turn around, heading into the room.

"Miss Su," Long Fei called before she could leave. He watched as she turned to look at him and smiled. "Is it alright if I take a look around this orchard?"

"Sure." Su Ruan scanned her surroundings, wanting to let one of the workers accompany Long Fei as he walked around. However, she soon found that the others had resumed their work.

"Su Ruan, go ahead and accompany him," Ma Zheng Zheng spoke. "Mom is just afraid that Young Master Long would get lost in there. Just don't go too far into the orchard."

Su Ruan hesitated for a few seconds and finally nodded.
