

Dragon Husband

Chapter 1437

Seeing the two sisters look like idiots, Wiliam couldn't help but say: "I said, what sisters are you going to talk to, can you go back to your own room?"

"It's your shit! Go away." Wen Renqingqing was domineering at this time and directly gave birth to Wiliam.

Wiliam Yihan suddenly stopped talking.

But he was complaining in his heart, saying my great achievements in front of me, I would be ashamed.

Don't let me die on the scene of a large community.

"Then I'll go." Wiliam threw out these words, and wanted to walk outside.

"Why don't you go, don't go. I have something to tell you later. You also sit down. You said that you want to invite me to drink." Wen Renqing said again.

Wiliam beeped the dog in his heart.

It's you who let me go, and you who let me stay.

Ho, woman!

Wiliam sat down across from them and began to take wine.

Wen Renqingqing deliberately assumed that Wiliam was not there, and started to hold Wen Renqin's hand, starting from the beginning.

From the time Wiliam still entered the place where the bones were buried, he began to pull hatred.

Going to the place where the bones are buried will arouse public anger, and then slip away.

Then he started hunting wildly for the blood crystals of the earth bone.

The eagle-winged eyeless snake in the half-step innate realm, he played so hard.

Then he talked about going deep into the barren valley of the cemetery and facing the ancient beasts in the innate realm.

That was really a life of nine deaths and blood boiled over.

Wenrenqingqing is a very qualified young storyteller.

She talked and even helped Wiliam figure out what he thought at the time.

Wiliam didn't have much psychological activity at the time.

She was filled with passion and impassioned by her brain.

Especially Wiliam's conversation before entering the blue barrier—

"My Wiliam's fate! You can't count! Fragrant flowers can't be counted! Neither world is counted!"

"If there is no cold, how can spring come."

"Just wait here, if I come out, please drink!"

"But if you haven't come out!"

"That's not out!"

The thin clouds of justice she said seemed to change the color of the heavens and the earth.

Wen Renqing said that his face was red, and his body trembled slightly with excitement.

Wenren listened intently with tears in his eyes.

When Wiliam heard it, he wanted to get under the table and face to see people.

He really wanted to say that he really didn't think so much at the time.

Woman, you love to add drama to yourself too much.

Just as Wiliam was trying to stop the death scene, Wen Renqingqing suddenly looked at Wiliam, "It's your turn."

Eh?

Just say, what's up with me?

Want me to boast and talk about my experience?

The concubine can't do it.

"Quickly tell us how you got this terrifying piece of blood crystal from the green blue barrier? And what was the lingering voice of the world before?" Wenren Qingqing still remember Wiliam stepping into the blue barrier. The voice heard before.

Said that Wiliam is his descendant.

"In fact, there is nothing, that voice is an old ancestor of my bloodline, and I got the blood crystals from the bones after I entered." Wiliam was simple and clear.

The two women's eyes widened.

Compared with Wen Renqingqing's fierce statement just now, Wiliam's words are too flat and straightforward! not over, !

Fail the composition, okay!

“So pale, bad review!” Wen Renqin didn’t help Wiliam anymore.

Obviously the emotions have been laid to this point, this kid pouring cold water down is what’s going on.

But Wenren loved to know that Wiliam had the blood of the ancestor of the ancient unicorn.

He didn’t even think of coming to the outer world, he still had the opportunity to see the blood crystals of the old ancestor’s bones.

“Forget it, I know he can’t spit out ivory from his dog’s mouth, dog than!” Wen Ren Qingqing cursed Wiliam, and continued to hold Wen Renqing’s hand.

Wiliam felt cold sweat coming out.

Is she really a dog in her eyes?

Wenrenqingqing then began to speak again.

After Wiliam came out, the place where the bones were buried collapsed.

It was said that Wiliam pretended to be an unknown master and peddled the blood crystals on the spot.

Of course, the focus here is on Wiliam’s intrigue.

She thought she was holding Wiliam’s IQ to the core, and she analyzed Wiliam’s plans again and again in detail in front of Wen Renqin.

Wen Ren Qingqing tried to arouse her sister’s surprise.

Unfortunately there is no such thing.

When Wen Renqing heard that Wiliam was calculating them, don’t say he was surprised, would you not be surprised?

In the mundane world, Wiliam counted the sky and the earth and the air.

Anything is more vigorous than a little calculation like the buried ground.

Sister has never seen the world, right?

Where is this?

If this continues, it is estimated that she will be captured by Wiliam, Chunxin?

Wenren Qingqing saw that his sister’s eyes were complex and emotional, and asked: “Aren’t you surprised?”

In order to hold her sister’s presence, and for her sister’s so much saliva and expression, Wen Renxin quickly applauded, “ Wiliam is great!”

It's just that this perfunctory expression was seen by Wiliam.

Tsk tsk, compared with the elder sister just now, her acting skills are scumbags.

They were still hurting each other in shock, and Wiliam also fell into contemplation during this boring time.

This time the burial of fame is a great harvest for him.

The most important thing is to obtain and refine the blood crystal of the ancestor of the Azure Kylin, and also get the line buried here by grandfather.

The next step is to find out what hands and feet Grandpa did on Xianghualixue's side.

After all, Wenren said that his grandpa had been here before, and he seemed to have done something.

As for the welcoming of the beasts, the ancient tombstone of the realm drove the sky, and the place where the bones were buried collapsed. This series of visions appeared.

Well, it's hard work, big brother.

After all, he carried it by himself when Yingdu was recruiting talents.

As our younger brothers, our reputation and reputation are the unbearable weight of our lives.

I think the second brother should think like me, after all, we are all younger brothers.

Now the realm has reached the half-step innate, and there is only the innate secret realm on it.

According to Wiliam's observations during this period, the nine sect masters and some sect elders are all innate secret realms.

It's just that there are high and low levels in the same realm.

So what kind of majesty is the third ring of the outer world?

Okay, the next two things.

One, look for clues that Grandpa stayed in Xianghua and drained his blood.

Second, explore what kind of realm there is above the innate secret realm to live up to the ancestors.

When you have free time, you can also visit the old man Qingfeng. The old man is very interesting, saying he is a historian and archaeologist.

Maybe you can get more information from him.

Wiliam was smug when he thought of this.

On the other side, Wenrenqingqing and Wenrenqingxin have also concluded the story. In the middle, they focused on the standpoint of Li Nianyi and tried to figure out the careful thinking of a weak chicken.

Don't say, this is a sister, too special to think about the problem from the perspective of others, it is easy to go deeper when thinking about it.

Wenren Qingqing grabbed the wine on the table and poured it fiercely, as if venting the comfort in his heart.

She suddenly looked at Wiliam, grabbed a bag of things and smashed it on the table, revealing a mysterious and arrogant smile.

"Goubi, after all, what are you going to do with these babies?"

That's how it is said, with four big characters written on his face.

Those who see it have a share!
