

Dragon Husband

Chapter 1440

William stared blankly at the back of Wen Ren Qingqing leaving, for a moment he didn't know what to say.

This woman with a cold appearance and a soft heart.

He picked up another jug of wine and took a sip, as if responding to her who had left.

Well, only this time, not as an example.

And at this moment, in a smoky place.

An old gray-haired man stood silently, his figure a little rickety.

The eyes are surprisingly clear.

The old man Qingfeng.

After a while, the air opposite him suddenly appeared seven ripples.

Immediately afterwards, seven ripple images slowly appeared in front of him.

In the ripple picture, there are seven people sitting.

These seven people were wearing black and gold robes, and their faces were completely covered by large hoodies.

But this black gold robe is particularly eye-catching.

There is a strange pattern tattooed on the heart of their robes.

A line resembling a ship is horizontal, and a line resembling a boat is standing upright.

In this outer world, everyone knows the nine sects, six methods, and three heavens.

Three of them, as the highest sect, are in charge of the order of this outer world.

However, few people know that it is not Sandingtian who is in charge of the order of this outer world.

It is these seven people who are above the three heavens.

In other words, the mysterious force formed by these seven people-Seven Star Ferryman.

However, no one knows who these seven people are and where they come from.

Even the old man Qingfeng didn't know where these seven people came from.

The seven people sat silently, without talking for a long time.

But Old Man Qingfeng didn't show much humbleness in the face of this highest and most mysterious force.

He just watched these seven ripples quietly, waiting for their questioning.

In the end, a deep voice came from the ripples.

"In the past few days, the blue python screamed sadly, the beasts He Xian, the ancient tombstone of the realm rose to the sky, and the buried place collapsed. Qing breeze, what is the reason for this?"

The old man Qingfeng pondered for a while, and slowly said, "Probably a great opportunity has come to our outer world. It is said that a great sage has come out."

He said this vaguely, avoiding the importance and neglecting it.

But Qixing Ferryman did not continue to ask.

As if there is a mystery in Xie Zhong, they knew it well.

"It is rumored that the third of the four mysterious blood crystals of the buried bones came out, how do you explain?" Another erratic voice came from the ripple picture.

The old man Qingfeng shook his heart, knowing that this was the point they wanted to ask.

He said faintly: "It's still related to the great sages. Those four blood crystals of the earth bones dominate the world, and people who are not predestined can't get it."

"Who is the great sage? Who is the destined person? Also, have you still not broken the secret with those four earth bones and blood crystals?" Seven Star Ferryman's voice appeared again.

"Sorry, my ability and vision are limited. The seven of you haven't learned the secret of the four bones and blood crystals. I am afraid I can't do anything." The old man Qingfeng lied without changing his face.

"Where is the great sage?" Seven Star Ferryman asked again.

"Well, this, I know one or two. The most likely is that a young man named Liu Lang who is now devoting himself to Chuanyun Jinglong." The old man Qingfeng said firmly this time. not over, !

After all, if you lied, you have to throw some dry goods.

As for this dry stuff, many people probably guessed that it was the kid named Liu Lang when they were recruiting.

So there is no need to conceal it.

On the contrary, concealing words will make Seven Star Ferry people uncomfortable.

As for throwing the pot to the kid named Liu Lang.

Well, it's a hard work as a brother, and I've bothered to take care of the two younger brothers.

What was uttered at that time, but now we have to carry it back with tears, isn't it?

This is an excellent brother.

"Liu Lang? Maybe you can pay attention." Seven Star Ferryman said slowly, "Do you have anything else to say?"

The old man Qingfeng shook his head, saying that he knew everything and said nothing.

The atmosphere at the scene fell into silence again.

At this time, the Qixing Ferryman suddenly said: "A few days ago, Yueshui Huajing shed tears."

Only this sentence.

But it made the atmosphere at the scene even more depressing.

Even the old man Qingfeng was stunned.

Moon water flower mirror is crying!

How can it be!

Moon Water Flower Mirror is not already...

"Go check that surnamed Lu." Seven Star Ferryman said again.

Then, the seven ripples appeared again with waves of ripples.

In the blink of an eye, the projection of the Seven-Star Ferryman in front of Old Man Qingfeng had disappeared.

The old Qingfeng who was still sluggish was left behind.

The surname is Lu.

Could it be that the Qixing Ferryman already knew the existence of Wiliam...

The big thing is not good.

The old man Qingfeng stayed in place for a long time before turning back and leaving.

And time flies by.

On this day, Wiliam was still meditating, and he heard a knock on the door outside.

Wiliam got up to open the door, and the two sisters stood in front of the door.

"Wiliam, let's go." Wen Renqing was wearing a floral skirt today, with a pair of big long legs in full view.

Wen Renqing dresses more conservatively, a pure white loose and elegant gown, which hides her graceful figure well.

"Where to go?" Wiliam asked.

Today, it should be a sect person who wants to pass on some of his techniques, to see if he can adapt to the road of martial arts, or can go further on the road of divining.

Wen Ren glared at Wiliam, and said, "You lack the eyes! I didn't tell you two days ago that some of the treasures that you snatched and grabbed have been sent to the 'Yuntian Auction House', and it was a mystery. Treasure auction."

"Now the auction is about to begin. Don't worry, Yuntian Auctions will keep our identities secret, and they have done enough gimmicks in the past two days. I believe they will sell for a good price. Also, you will watch it when the time comes. Seeing that there are things that are not needed at the auction, they can be bought or exchanged." Wen Ren said with heart.

Wiliam nodded. After adapting these days, he has probably adapted to the environment of the outer world.

Wen Renqing said that he should buy a good plus money, and the price is very particular.

Two currencies in circulation are popular in Outer World.

A kind of ordinary paper money similar to humanity, used in daily life.

The other is Tianshan Lingjing.

This is a spar that can help cultivation, and can also be used as coins to buy some precious treasures.

For these sects, Tianshan Lingjing is their mainstream currency in circulation.

Wiliam was also intrigued by what he heard, and said: "Okay, let's go, it's okay to open your eyes."

Wen Renqing secretly glared at Dogbi, and complained in his heart that those babies you took out are already under the bottom of the box. I used to grow woolen yarn.

The three of them walked together, and as soon as they walked to the door, they heard a familiar and resentful voice, "Oh, this is not a violent thing, the first in history to forge bones and have a successful Lu Niubi."
