

Dragon Husband

Chapter 1472

Before Wiliam came up, the elders at the entrance had a lot of scenes they were about to see in their hearts.

For example, Wiliam was carried out by life, and his blood was flowing into a river, not like a man.

For example, the two princesses wept bitterly, mourning Wiliam's miserable situation.

However, when reality happened in front of them, they were completely confused.

They first heard a hustle and bustle at the entrance.

Then I saw the figure of a person.

A closer look, isn't it the absolute actor Wiliam this time!

Wiliam actually walked out by himself, was he carried out?

And looking again, Wiliam held Wenrenqing's armpit with his left hand, and his right arm was around Wenrenqing's small waist.

I was so tired and broke my heart for the two princesses.

Everyone was even more dumbfounded.

What the hell!

What's the situation!

It feels like the two princesses have been underneath for fifteen days!

"What's going on!" Wenren Tiange asked first, walking towards Wiliam without stopping.

After all, this is his biological daughter.

Wiliam returned the two princesses to Wenren Tiange, and then wiped the sweat from his forehead in relief, "I'm exhausted."

Someone hurriedly explained later: "It was too dangerous just now. The two princesses went down, accidentally not paying attention, and were suppressed by the coercion leaked from the seventh floor..."

"Don't talk about it later, okay!" Wen Renqin's face was pale, and she interjected abruptly.

Do you want to be so embarrassed?

Obviously he went down to save people.

It's okay now, no one was saved, but he was saved by others.

Kneel on your knees or something, don't say it in the public, okay!

The two sisters Wenren were slowly placed on the chairs, and they both spoke with faceless self-esteem for a while.

At this time, everyone turned their attention to Wiliam again.

Well, this man who suddenly raised the record of fragrant flowers to an unattainable height, is doing stretching exercises at the moment.

Move your feet manually.

It looks like a ghost who is not tired underneath, bringing the two sisters up but getting tired.

There was silence at the scene, and no one knew how to describe this guy.

"Wiliam, have you really stayed down for 30 days?" Wenren Tiange couldn't help asking.

Wiliam nodded, and said naturally, "Yes, I almost died below."

Hearing this sentence, everyone's hearts were slightly balanced.

That's right, who do you look down on when you look alive?

"How did you do it!" Some elders immediately followed up and asked.

Wiliam thought about it seriously, and said sincerely: "It's just holding on below."

Impeccable.

It makes sense.

Everyone was crying.

Of course it is holding on!

The key is that the concubines can't support it!

"Do you have any other methods for you to live through?" asked another person with a gloomy mind.

Wiliam shook his head and said, "You should also know that the coercion below is directly facing the human body. There is no other way to speculate."

He lied without blushing.

But everyone nodded and said yes.

Because Xianghua has experienced so many years, I have already known some of the mysteries below.

If there is a way, it would have been thoroughly studied.

Wen Ren Tiange looked at Wiliam strangely, and suddenly felt something was wrong.

After a while, he patted his forehead and asked, "I ask you, did you break through below?"

This is the problem.

The aura on Wiliam's body at this moment is still in full bloom.

This is unscientific!

You know, Wiliam had used a blood crystal from the earth to forge his bones before.

But unfortunately, there is no advancement.

This is extremely rare.

But even if there is no advanced level, it should not be far away.

And he has been here for thirty days now!

You know, the previous elder, after staying here for fifteen days, successfully advanced.

Wiliam's time has doubled, but his realm hasn't moved at all!

This is too damn bullshit!

A light flashed in Wiliam's eyes, and he shook his head, "No."

This answer caused another uproar at the scene!

They simply don't know how to evaluate Wiliam.

Let's say he is a genius genius, who can stay here for 30 days is definitely a genius among geniuses.

And it seems right to say that he is trash.

After undergoing bone forging and body tempering, there is no advanced level.

Even if you throw a dog in, it should become a snarling dog, right?

This kid is so strange.

Wenren Tiange was also beeping a dog in his heart.

This kid is just a piece of chicken ribs.

It's a pity to eat tasteless and discard it.

The depression in his heart made him want to drink again.

"That's all, Wiliam stayed below for thirty days at any rate, and it was a reorganization of our fragrant records. It's worth celebrating, and putting wine!" Wen Ren Tiange said.

The people at the scene trembled fiercely when they heard the word arranging wine.

Don't tell me about wine, there are shadows!

But Wiliam got interested, "Oh ho, there is wine to drink, okay. Then thank you Sect Master."

After that, he really picked up a jug of wine and drank it.

I'm not afraid of people laughing when I say it.

The biggest problem Wiliam faced below was not the coercion of life and death.

It was almost starved to death.

There was no food and drink for 30 days, but in the end it was purely supported by the spirit.

Seeing that Wiliam really sat down to eat and drink, everyone at the scene stared at each other.

Originally this is a very shocking fact.

But this kid has a kind of weird magic.

One thing, it seems that he can't do it, but he can just fall through everyone's glasses and do it.

After doing it, it was exciting at first, but it can't stand scrutiny, so I think it's the same thing.

It was like this before burying bones to compete for the first place, but the bone forging was unsuccessful.

The same was true for defeating Li Nianyi, and I don't know how he won.

He is like a ball of cotton, people don't know how to vent all kinds of emotions towards him.

"Drinking!" Some elders were also panicked, seeing this kid more and more want to beat him.

Dukang is the only way to relieve worries.

After drinking for three rounds, the sisters Wenrenqingxin finally recovered a bit of strength.

They sat beside Wiliam, looking at Wiliam with annoyance.

What a boy, stepped on the shoulders of the two princesses?

We kindly went down to save you, you pitted us to death?

Why don't you die?

Unable to bear the eye knife of the two sisters, Wiliam hurriedly took a few mouthfuls, and then looked like his body was hollowed out, "I think I should go back and rest first, I can't hold it anymore."

It's just that the acting is worrying, no one can believe it.

"Boy, you don't want to act anymore. How about you and us in Versailles?" Li Nianyi couldn't help but speak out!

But William raised his head and glanced at Li Nian, "Oh, where are you, I almost forgot you. Have you forgotten a very important thing?"
