

Dragon Husband

Chapter 1486: part 1

Chapter 1486

After cleaning up Wenren's heart, Wiliam collapsed to the ground again, green light lingering on his body, constantly repairing the wounds of his body.

The world is quiet, only devastated.

Wiliam was waiting.

Wait for an answer.

As Wiliam's body gradually recovered, an indifferent voice rang again, "Little baby, it's not bad. You are lucky to come to life from a desperate situation."

Wiliam raised his head, looked at the bald peach trees around, shook his head, and asked, "What's next."

"Well, the next second question." The voice of Lady Peach Blossom was not sad or happy, "Listen well."

"If you and your lover do not know when to meet again in this life, nor do you know whether you can meet again. And there is a woman who has a deep love for you, who will go through all fire and water for you, and do everything for you. Then you choose to be ethereal. Lover, cherish the person in front of you."

When Lady Peach asked the question, Wiliam started to complain again.

Lady Peach is so idle!

Where are so many messy love issues?

This is in the world, isn't it that the rascal girlfriend is asking mother and girlfriend if they have fallen into the water. If you can only save one person, who do you save first?

Should I be mentally prepared to be beaten when I ask this question?

Wiliamzhen answered directly.

Instead, he reconsidered Grandpa's second reminder.

Grandpa's reminder was: "Fool-Zheng Ordinary Master, people want to be immortal!"

So it's very obvious.

If you choose a vague and unattainable lover, you are a fool, and you can only be a mortal master in this life.

But if people want to be immortal...

Choosing the current sex, will you find the immortal in front of you?

In this case, there is still a mystery that has not been involved.

"You go on talking." Wiliam was silent for a long while, then said again.

"You are clever, knowing that there is still something to follow." Lady Peach Blossom's voice was full of jokes.

"This question, I can give you a pointer. If your choice is correct, you will get something from me."

"What?" Wiliam asked.

"My root. According to your words, it is called the root of grandmother." Peach Blossom Lady said quietly.

"What's the use of grandmother's roots?" Wiliam asked again.

"Ho ho, there is a saying called, get my grandmother's roots and escape from the cycle of life and death." Lady Peach Blossom said lightly.

As soon as these words came out, Wiliam's head blew!

Get the root of my grandmother and escape the cycle of life and death!

Wiliam kept thinking, why did Grandpa come to Taohua Wanzhangyuan?

Why does he leave a clue to himself here?

As these words came out, Wiliam understood thoroughly!

The root of grandmother!

Grandpa needs, or grandpa guides himself over here, what he wants is the root of grandmother!

For the current Wiliam, the effect of the grandmother's root is not very clear.

But for grandpa, it's a life-saving baby!

Grandpa knew that he would feign death for a long time!

So the next move was arranged in advance.

As long as you get the roots of your grandfather, your confidence in saving your grandfather's life will increase by several levels!

Maybe you don't need to learn the ninth chapter of "Impermanence Medical Classics" by yourself to change your life, so that grandpa can wake up again!

Yup!

If the root of the grandmother can escape the cycle of life and death, it may be possible to reconsolidate the soul!

Then I only need to learn Chapter 8 Soulcalling!

It must be so!

This is the biggest clue and signal that grandpa left to himself!

Thinking of this, Wiliam trembled all over.

Wiliam has too many things to say to his grandfather!

Before Grandpa died, how could he say enough?

How can I make up for my filial piety when my grandfather is dead!

The root of grandmother!

When Wiliam raised his head again, his eyes had become extremely firm.

"And if your answer is wrong, then the people around you died on the spot." Peach Lady seemed to have taken Wiliam's mind, and added another sentence, still full of jokes.

Wiliam's heart trembled as he looked at Wenren who was unconscious on the ground and fell in love with him.

Will she die because of one of her own answers?

One life for another...

wrong!

According to Grandpa's prompt, he won the game steadily!

People want immortals before their eyes.

As long as you choose to cherish the person in front of you, you will not only be able to get the roots of your grandmother, but you will also be able to save your life.

Kill two birds with one stone!

However, the question is, why would Lady Peach ask a question so simple and so that she can get great benefits?

Pointing?

Wiliam's point of thinking, returned to the three questions.

If it means the heart, what will be your answer?

Wind and snow and love, who to choose?

For a moment, Wiliam hesitated unexpectedly.

"I give you time, you think slowly." Peach Lady's laughter spread throughout this small world.

I don't know how long it took, Wiliam was still thinking, and another voice rang in his ears.

"Wiliam."

Wiliam opened his eyes and saw that Wen Ren Qingxin was awake again.

But this time when he was sober, Wiliam clearly felt that his heart was different.

There are two differences.

First, Wen Renqinxin is no longer as glamorous as before.

Although her face was still blushing with fresh green, but her eyes were surprisingly clear, even with a bit of shame and guilt.

It shows that Wenrenqinxin has recovered his mind for a short time now, and he is not controlled by the * in his heart.

Second, Wiliam found a very strange place.

Wenren, who woke up, fell in love, not knowing whether it was because of the effect of the asceticism or what.

Wiliam only felt that she was shining.

The whole body exudes a kind of charm that makes people want to be together with the mountain and the sea.

In short, in Wiliam's eyes at this moment, Wen Renqing's charm seemed to have suddenly increased many times.

Wiliam actually had the feeling that he didn't dare to look directly.

be terribly upset.

"Wiliam, what's the matter with you?" Wen Ren sat down beside Wiliam with his heart, and gently touched Wiliam.

Wiliam suddenly felt an electric shock.

He looked at Wenren's heart, and he had the urge to knock her out again.

But he held it back.

“What happened? Why did the surroundings look like this?” Wenren looked at the bare peach trees all around, which was much ugly compared to the blushing sky before.

Wiliam took a deep breath and briefly said what had happened before.

When it came to the second question, Wiliam didn't even dare to directly look at Wen Ren's heart.

“In other words, our grandmother wants you to make a choice between me and Fengxue? If you choose me, you will not only pass the barrier smoothly and unscathed, but also get the roots of the grandmother you dream of?” Wen Ren confirmed that he was just now. What I heard.

Wiliam nodded, “Well, it's like this.”

Then he smiled when he heard the people's heart.

Wiliam looked at Wenren in amazement.

Wen Renqingxin finally stopped the damn smile of Qingcheng and became serious.

“So, isn't the choice obvious?”
