Chapter 1665 Blood Marrow Inheritance

William's face suddenly changed.

He looked at Petite Rou in disbelief, "What did you say!"

Petite Rou still carried that complicated expression, and said lightly, "Your wife's blood and marrow are completely destroyed, this is an indisputable fact."

"But, do you know what the so-called blood inheritance is?"

William shook his head.

He still doesn't know much about it so far, and has never had a comprehensive system.

Petite Rou pondered for a while, as if thinking about how to explain this blood inheritance to William.

After a while, she said: "The bloodline inheritance you know is the bloodline inheritance in the broadest sense, that is to say, pass on the essence of my bloodline to the next one."

"But in fact, there are two types of blood vessels. One is like the blood vessels on your body, which are inherited from blood essence. In theory, this blood essence inheritance can be passed on to many people. Those who accept the blood essence inheritance, blood vessels. It cannot be compared with the first generation, it can only be infinitely close to the first generation of inheritors."

"Moreover, as it is passed down from generation to generation, the blood will become thinner and thinner."

William nodded, the blood inheritance he understood was like this.

Just like many sects today, the bloodline of ancient strange beasts has been passed down from generation to generation, which is also the reason.

"Then there is another one?" William asked again.

Petite Rou said bitterly: "There is another kind, which is the most extreme blood inheritance. It is also called blood marrow inheritance."

"Blood marrow inheritance!" Wiliam's eyes lit up, feeling as if he understood something.

"Well, blood marrow inheritance. Blood marrow inheritance, as the name suggests, is to pass the blood marrow of one generation directly to the next generation instead of blood essence. The most essential difference between blood marrow inheritance and blood essence inheritance is that blood marrow inheritance can only be passed on. to one."

"However, there are very few people who inherit the blood marrow! Because the conditions are extremely harsh."

"First of all, the bloodline properties of the two should be highly similar and ensure compatibility."

"Secondly, you also know the importance of blood marrow to a person. After the blood marrow of the previous generation has been inherited, it means that you have no blood marrow, which means you lose your vitality. For many people, this condition is a natural moat. How can there be such a thing? What a good person, willing to pass on his blood and marrow at the cost of his own life."

Hearing this, Wiliam frowned.

Petite Rou speaks the truth.

From a medical point of view, the same is true.

Humans cannot survive without blood marrow.

Although Feng Xue met the first condition, her bloodline was infinitely close to that of Petite Rou.

But this second condition is the difficulty of ascending to the sky.

How could Wiliam be so embarrassed to ask Petite Rou to give up her life to save Feng Xue.

For a while, Wiliam also fell into contemplation.

Things seem to be turning around, but there is still no way out.

"Wiliam, let me tell you the truth. I feel the same way about what happened to you and your wife. I really want to save her..." Petite Rou sighed and said to Wiliam.

And Wiliam was waiting for the turning point behind her words.

"Can you promise me two things?" Petite Rou said suddenly.

William was stunned for a moment, but the expected turning point did not come.

You said." William asked.

Petite Rou stared at William, as if she was struggling mentally.

She finally said: "You are the one chosen by Xiao Taohua, and I should trust you. But I can't bear my life, and I still want to save this life to find Xiao Taohua."

"So the two promises are, first, if I am willing to save your wife by means of blood marrow inheritance, I will be able to put myself to sleep for half a year and hang myself. Therefore, you need to find someone within half a year. People who also have the ultimate bloodline will inherit the blood marrow to me..."

William's eyes narrowed.

This condition...

How difficult it is to find someone with the same bloodline.

within half a year.

"Don't worry, it doesn't have to be the most extreme bloodline, as long as it's the most extreme bloodline. I have lived for so many years, I believe I can withstand other extreme bloodlines..." Petite Rou added another sentence.

But William still frowned.

"So, your time is only half a year. After half a year, I will die completely. William, I am willing to trust Xiao Taohua and entrust my life to you. Do you dare to promise this promise?" Petite Rou's voice gradually became serious.

William didn't answer directly, but looked at Petite Rou.

Xiao Xiaorou suddenly laughed and said, "Actually, you don't have to choose, don't you? Your wife can only live for ten days at most by relying on the roots of her grandmother. However, if the blood marrow is inherited, I can Sleeping for half a year. Ten days versus half a year, a very simple comparison."

William shook his head.

Not so.

This is not a simple math problem.

Instead, the threat of death was directly passed on to Petite Rou.

“What about the second promise?” Wiliam asked again. Without absolute certainty, he wanted to weigh it.

“The second promise is simpler. It has something to do with the first promise, and even the promise you made to Xiao Taohua.” Petite Rou said slowly.

“You must also find the Jiangshan Prayer Seal within half a year, and after resuscitating me, take me out of the Cang Python Heaven.” Petite Rou said.

This condition is not really a condition.

Wiliam had promised her before.

“Then why do you say it has something to do with the first promise?” Wiliam asked.

“Previously, Xiao Taohua told me to use the Jiangshan Prayer Seal to save me, but he actually only said half a sentence. The following is that we must find a person of extreme blood at the same time, and then replace me with the Jiangshan Prayer Seal. And that person, then It will become the new guardian spirit of Cang Python, and the soul must not leave here.”

“So it’s just right. Anyway, you have to find a person of extreme blood for me, so I’ll tell you all. Now the choice is in your hands.” After Xiao Xiaorou finished speaking, she looked at Wiliam as if waiting his choice.

Wiliam has a very complicated feeling in his heart.

If there is a person with extreme bloodline willing to come out, the price for this person is very high.

Not only do you have to donate your own blood, but also your soul.

This kind of price is greater than the pain Fengxue is bearing now...

easier said than done...

After a while, Wiliam suddenly raised his head and asked, “I ask you a very important question, you must answer me truthfully.”

“You say it.” Petite Rou nodded and motioned Wiliam to continue.

“If, I mean if. If I can’t find such a supreme bloodline or a prayer seal to save you within half a year, then do you think this possibility will work?”

“Can my bloodline, or Fengxue’s bloodline, be re-inherited to you, everything, back to the situation like today, you won’t die?”
