

Dragon Husband 1696 PART 1

Chapter 1696 Wiliam VS Feng Xue

Lady Peach Blossom really endured it for a long time.

This kid Wiliam is too smart.

In front of him, it seemed like he couldn't hide anything.

Thankfully, Lady Peach Blossom still has a mysterious yellow body, and it feels like she is transparent in front of Wiliam.

After thinking about it, beating him was the most comfortable.

But this beating, it can't be done by Peach Blossom herself.

After all, Lady Peach Blossom, as the elder among the elders, still has a face.

Well, be polite.

Therefore, it is most suitable for Bai Fengxue to beat him.

Fortunately, Wiliam didn't know what Peach Blossom's heart was.

Peach Blossom Lady's heart is this peach blossom fantasy.

Peach Blossom Fantasy can create a world that is almost identical to reality.

In this world, Lady Peach Blossom is the unique king, she can do whatever she wants.

It is not easy for Bai Fengxue to beat Wiliam.

And Wiliam didn't know that, a fat beating was waiting for him.

He only felt that a flower in front of him appeared in a world where peach blossoms were blooming.

This place seems to be filled with peach blossoms.

And after a while, a white light flashed.

Feng Xue's body also appeared beside him.

"Fengxue." Wiliam quickly walked towards Fengxue.

"Wiliam, you scared me to death. I thought where did you go." Bai Fengxue was very happy to see Wiliam.

Naturally, she didn't know that she had become a pawn of Peach Blossom Lady.

Together, the two were amazed at the realism of this Peach Blossom Land fantasy.

Even Wiliam pinched himself, feeling extremely painful.

It seems that the pain in this world has been magnified.

After a while, the two finally remembered what they were doing here.

"Feng Xue, come on, let me see how powerful you are now, and what the hell is your hosting model." Wiliam said to Feng Xue.

"Okay, but Lady Peach Blossom explained when I came in that you can use weapons, and you can also use your Long Live Demon Lotus later." Bai Fengxue couldn't bear Wiliam's loss, and thought about following Lady Peach's instructions. Do things, so Wiliam can also use Long Live Demon Lotus.

"Hahaha, let's talk about it, how long have you been working so hard, can you force out my long live demon lotus?" Wiliam laughed out loud.

"Well, take care of yourself and don't get hurt. I'll take out my weapon." Bai Fengxue said, and her drooping right hand suddenly squeezed lightly.

A weapon appeared in her hands so silently.

And Wiliam looked at the weapon and couldn't help but take a deep breath.

It's really cold.

This weapon is not a conventional weapon, but more like a child's toy.

It seems to be a peach blossom branch plucked from the peach blossom tree on the side.

This peach blossom branch is also dotted with a few leaves and a few peach blossoms.

It's the kind of budding flower.

The only surprising thing is that this peach blossom branch is covered with a layer of crystal clear ice crystals, and the few peach blossoms that are about to bloom are even more delicate.

This is a peach blossom branch hit by frost.

Feng Xue picked up this strange peach branch weapon, smiled and said to Wiliam: "This is the weapon my grandmother gave me. She said this weapon is called Peach Blossom Frost Branch. The peach branch of this weapon itself is made of The peach blossom branch is made of the natal branch of the peach blossom, and the frost on the peach blossom branch is condensed by the petite and soft natal frost. The grandmother said that I can't use it now, why don't you give it to me as a weapon.

Dragon Husband 1696 PART 2

Wiliam was dumbfounded!

This seemingly ordinary and unremarkable peach blossom branch has such a big background!

It turned out to be condensed from the body of life of two ancient bosses.

And it's a love affair between the two.

It seems that this peach frost branch is definitely not simple!

But Lady Peach Blossom actually gave Bai Fengxue the thing of love, which is another meaning...

Just as Wiliam was thinking, Feng Xue suddenly waved the peach blossom frost branch gently.

Suddenly, a lingering breath was uploaded from the peach blossom frost branch, and the temperature around it obviously felt a few degrees lower.

"I'm going to start the hosting mode. I don't know anything about it. I'll say sorry to you before I hit you." Bai Fengxue stuck out her tongue cutely.

Naturally, she wouldn't think that she could defeat Wiliam just after getting used to the blood marrow inheritance.

It's just a scene.

"Well, your weapon is quite powerful, let's get started." Wiliam's eyes were fixed on this peach blossom frost branch, and he felt a strange feeling in his heart.

Even the long live demon lotus, who is now arrogant, can't lift his head in front of this peach blossom frost branch.

Not the same grade.

Strange.

Is Long Live Demon Lotus that weak?

Just thinking about it, Wiliam suddenly saw Bai Fengxue's left hand stretched out and slowly tapped towards his eyebrows.

Her index finger was on her forehead.

Immediately, a blue brilliance bloomed between the eyebrows.

This brilliance was instantly surrounded by wind and snow.

And Feng Xue's body is changing at a speed visible to the naked eye.

Her long, jet-black hair turned icy blue after a while.

And her eyes were completely icy blue, and she couldn't even see the whites of her eyes.

How can I describe this kind of icy blue eyes, it feels very sharp and cold, and it makes people feel a little dazed and sluggish.

With azure blue hair, azure blue eyes, and Fengxue's white dress, she seemed to be the Queen of Ice and Snow, so beautiful that she couldn't be desecrated.

Feng Xue didn't say a word, holding a peach blossom frost branch in his hand, and kicked his feet.

At a lightning speed, a gust of wind was swept towards Wiliam!

This gust of wind was fierce, and there were obvious changes in the air.

The gust of wind actually solidified directly into a frost that came out!

Wiliam quickly stretched out his hand to block it!

"Bang!" Gale Feng Shuanghua slammed into Wiliam's arms in the next second.

Fortunately, Wiliam's body is also extremely tough now. If it were a different person, it is estimated that his hands would have been directly cut off at this moment.

However, Wiliam is not feeling well either!

Although he blocked the attack of Gale Wind Frost China, he couldn't block the bone-chilling chill!

The wind and frost are visible, but the cold is invisible.

On Wiliam's arms, some frost suddenly condensed.

In the blink of an eye, the frost spread, freezing Wiliam's arms.

Wiliam's brows wrinkled, and his arms flexed.

"Drink!" The frost suddenly collapsed and turned into foam.

Wiliam raised his head and looked at Feng Xue, whose eyes were cold and blank.

He laughed out loud.

one move!

The current Fengxue, with just this move, completely mobilized Wiliam's fighting spirit!

Such a blizzard, just in time!

The red light on Wiliam's body is slowly gushing out...
