

Dragon Husband 1718 Part 1

Chapter 1718 Wild Ancient Realm

The veins on Wiliam's forehead were beating.

This guy.....

"Hoho, it's so good, then I think I won't eat breakfast, let's go directly." Wiliam said embarrassingly.

Try not to step down the other side.

However, Qin Shengzhong didn't feel that this was a step.

He said solemnly: "It's so good, I've already returned to my heart like an arrow!"

A group of people went towards Arashiyama with such a big fanfare.

The geographical location of Lanshan Zhige is very special.

It is located at the most corner and edge of the common land.

There, there is a mountain called Wild Mountain.

This mountain is also known as the wilderness of ancient times.

The Wild Ancient Realm happened to be leaning against the Cang Python Moat.

One mountain and one river, facing each other, is also jokingly called the love of mountains and seas.

There are many ancient beasts in the wild ancient realm, and even some amphibious ancient beasts will climb out of the blue python and then invade the ancient realm.

Lanshan Zhige is at the foot of the mountain in the ancient wilderness of Manghuang, guarding one mountain.

In this way, the battle line will be drawn very long.

On average, a person has to guard a range of several hundred meters.

So, can they not be short of people?

In the past few years, for some unknown reason, the riots of ancient beasts have been frequent, which has also added a lot of pressure to protect Lanshan Zhige.

For Wiliam to go here, the journey alone will take two days.

This time, he still brought the wind and snow, which was considered to be a glimpse of the world for her.

What's more, the current wind and snow hosting model, um, dare not provoke, dare not provoke.

If you can't open your eyes, just wait to be knocked on the skull to death.

Wiliam will no longer be worried about her safety.

Wiliam deliberately walked very far behind, keeping a distance from Qin Shengzhong who was at the front, expressing that he didn't want to care about Qin Shengzhong.

And Qin Shengzhong didn't even notice that something was wrong with Wiliam.

Just after half a day, Qin Shengzhong suddenly stopped, turned and walked towards Wiliam.

What is this guy doing here again?

Wiliam shuddered in his heart, thinking that there is absolutely nothing good for this guy to come here.

Sure enough, Qin Shengzhong said excitedly: "Brother Lu, my eldest brother called me just now to tell me a good news. He has found a peerless sea doctor to treat my father, so you don't have to shoot. La."

"Peerless sea doctor? I've never heard of it." Wiliam felt strange when he heard the name.

The magician is the magician, and the sea magician.

what the hell.

"Hey, you crossed over, you must know about the cold boater?" Qin Shengzhong suddenly laughed.

Cold boater?

Wiliam frowned slightly and replied immediately, "Could it be that this sea god doctor has something to do with the cold boater?"

"That's natural. It's not only related, but also a big one. It seems that you don't know much about the Cold Boaters?" Qin Shengzhong continued to disregard Wiliam's face and rudely demolished the stage.

Wiliam sneered: "That's what it is, can you tell me?"

Qin Shengzhong suddenly found a sense of accomplishment, and said loudly: "The world knows the Hanzhou people, they are a special group of people who ferry across the land of Cangsheng and Cang Mang Continent. The shelter of the python."

The veins on Wiliam's forehead jumped again.

The nonsense of this stuff is also stinky and long.

I can't talk about the point for a long time.

"However, the world only knows their natural mission of ferrying, but few people know that they are also born healers." Qin Shengzhong said this and paused, wanting to see a hint of surprise in Wiliam's expression .

However, Wiliam's expression management was in place and did not give Qin Sheng a chance.

Qin Shengzhong had no choice but to continue: "Their medical skills are unparalleled in the world, but maybe because of their ancestors' training, they seldom help people to see a doctor. Therefore, everyone only knows the ability of the Immortal Prison, and very few people know how powerful the medical skills of the Hanzhouzhe are. The Hanzhou people who are more skilled in traditional Chinese medicine will be called sea god doctors. Because they have been with the blue python for generations, the word "sea" is a special honorary title for them, in order to distinguish them from other god doctors."

When Wiliam heard this, he understood a little.

That's what happened.

Poseidon Doctor.

interesting.

Wiliam had been thinking about the opportunity to have more contact with the cold boaters.

After all, he still has to get the Jiangshan Prayer Seal from the Hanzhouzhe tribe to rescue Petite Rou.

Thinking of the Jiangshan Prayer Seal, Wiliam suddenly had a flash of light in his head.

pray.....

Is it possible that the cold boaters are called natural healers, and it has something to do with the prayer seal of Jiangshan?

Pray for peace?

Does this ethnic group have any special ability to use the Jiangshan Prayer Seal to exert the ability to pray, so as to achieve the effect of curing diseases and saving people?

The more Wiliam thought about it, the more reasonable he felt.

“So you don’t have to take action this time. If the peerless sea god doctor takes action, my father’s injury will definitely be healed. After all, it is completely unreasonable for them to take action to cure the disease and save people.” Qin Shengzhong said proudly.

“Completely unreasonable? How do you say it?” Wiliam keenly grasped the words in Qin Sheng’s heavy words.

“Because they treat diseases without looking at your disease at all. In the past, they used spells. I always thought that they were not born healers, but born wizards.” Qin Shengzhong explained casually.

A wizard? . . .

It seems that his guess should be somewhat reasonable.

Wizards were also called witch doctors in ancient times.

After all, doctors do not separate families, and neither do witch doctors.

Forget it, don’t think about it, just take a look at it and it will be clear.

Wiliam didn’t pay any attention to Qin Shengzhong, and concentrated on his journey.

Two days later, everyone finally stepped on the edge of the ancient wilderness.

A bloody smell, following the blowing wind, hit everyone’s face directly.

This made the faces of each of them who were caught off guard become ugly.

How to describe this taste?

The wind is mixed with the fishy smell of rivers and seas, as well as the bloody smell of animals.

Anyway, it smells bad.

But when Qin Sheng arrived here, it was like a fish entering the sea, and the whole person felt at ease.

He took a deep breath of the breath from his hometown, and his expression was filled with incomparable nostalgia.

Everyone looked at him one after another, and there were only two words in their hearts for him.

Change. state!

"Finally back! I really can't bear to leave this hot land for a moment!" Qin Shengzhong was still expressing his special emotions.

"Let's go." Wiliam couldn't help but urged.

He couldn't stand the smell.

Bai Fengxue even covered her mouth and nose directly, as if she really wanted to enter the hosting mode, but she couldn't get in, and she looked unlovable.

Qin Shengzhong immediately took everyone to the sect of Zhige in Lanshan.

When they arrived at the gate of the sect of Zhige in Lanshan, everyone's faces became extremely ugly again.

They have seen the world, they have seen many sects.

But this sect in front of them is the first time they have seen each other in their lives!

This horse riding can also be regarded as a sect!

Isn't this a ghetto!
