

Dragon Husband

Chapter 704

On the other side of the phone, when Lu Xiaolu said these words, there seemed to be a thief laughing beside him.

William's expression completely collapsed.

He knew immediately that Lu Xiaolu was with his friends, and now he deliberately made things difficult for himself by Jiujin.

William didn't feel embarrassed to buy such things.

It's just that this is just the beginning of Lu Xiaolu, maybe there are other tricks waiting behind.

"Why? Don't you want it? Forget it, anyway, it's up to you. I have already put my words here and the countdown begins. Goodbye." Lu Xiaolu said confidently, and then he just hung up. Phone.

She didn't believe that William would not come.

Because Lu Xiaolu now faintly knows where William's weakness lies.

Felicity.

Just take this Felicity to make a fuss, is this kid still mermaid?

Just like now, just casually saying that Felicity will do hard work, William on the other side of the phone may be nervous about what it is like.

After receiving the phone, she raised her wine glass and said happily to several girlfriends around her: "Okay, my big adventure is over. Are you satisfied!"

It turned out that they were playing a truth or dare game.

William put away the phone in the dark, and sighed slightly.

Although he has lofty ambitions, how can I bend!

This kind of humiliation will definitely be more in the future.

Can't continue like this...

Forget it, don't want to.

William gently got up to put on his clothes, but unexpectedly, seeing that in the darkness, his eyes flickered, as if they were shining.

Felicity is awake.

William stretched out his hand, gently touched Felicity's hair, and whispered: "Nothing, I'll go out for a while, you go to bed first, be good."

Strangely speaking, Felicity seemed to have become a little girl since she lost the ability to speak.

William even held her in his hand for fear of falling, holding her in his mouth for fear of melting.

Felicity stretched out her hand, grabbed the hand William placed on her head, and immediately put it down.

She didn't know that William would definitely be suffering from this.

The woman named Lu Xiaolu was not a broad-minded person.

Although she was worried about William, she also knew that William would never change her mind.

I just hope that he will not be so embarrassed tonight.

William bought a sanitary napkin in the supermarket outside and took a taxi to the Blue Moon Imperial City.

As soon as he arrived in the Blue Moon Emperor City, he saw the unicorn relief hanging high above the Blue Moon Emperor City.

William frowned slightly.

Kirin potential.

Unexpectedly, the forces of the unicorn power infiltrated Beilin City.

William didn't know this before.

But William immediately thought that it would be better.

In this way, in Beilin City, I finally have a caring.

To cope with emergencies.

When he was about to step into the Blue Moon Emperor City, two security guards suddenly stopped William, "Hello Sir, please show your membership card."

It turned out that this Blue Moon Emperor City has always implemented a membership system.

Those who can enter here are either members or friends brought by members.

In short, if you can get in, you are definitely not the generals.

The two security guards saw that William was dressed poorly, and they were alone. They even had a bag in their hands. They were all convenience stores on the side of the road, so they didn't hesitate to stop William.

They have also been security guards for several years, and their eyes are poisonous. Whoever has money, who doesn't have money, sometimes can tell at a glance.

Just like the kid in front of me, he looks like a social kid who wants to get in.

William looked at the disdainful faces of the two security guards, and said lightly: "My friend is inside, I will come in and give them something."

The two security guards suddenly sneered, "Everyone said that when they came in, do you think we would believe it? Either we're still angry and get out, or just call some of your so-called friends and let them come down. Pick you up."

The two of them directly concluded that this kid must want to fish in troubled waters, and would leave embarrassingly after hearing this.

But unexpectedly, William really took out his cell phone and made a call.

He raised his voice.

The phone was connected quickly, and there was loud music over there.

"Hey, are you here?" Lu Xiaolu's vague and blurred voice came over.

William frowned and said, "I am at the gate of the Blue Moon Emperor City. I need to prove my identity when I enter."

"Ah? What are you talking about! You speak louder! I can't hear you!" Lu Xiaolu seemed to be drunk too much.

William's face turned cold again.

At this time, Lu Xiaolu on the phone suddenly shouted: "Everyone, be quiet, hahaha, the man really came just now, and was stopped by the security downstairs. Hahaha, do you think it's funny? Listen to this call."

Then it gradually became quiet over there.

Lu Yeming knew that everyone over there was listening to the phone, but he had no choice but to repeat what he said just now.

"Hahaha." There was a burst of laughter from there, but the voice was immediately suppressed deliberately.

Lu Xiaolu felt even more happy.

She didn't expect that William would be stopped by the security guard at the door.

Because she was spoiled and spoiled since childhood, she never needed any proof to enter such a place.

How do you know that here, low-level people are not allowed to enter.

Now that William is stopped, doesn't it mean that he is a low-level person? Hahaha.

That's so cool.

Put a hairy score in front of my mother.

Wasn't you hung and beaten into a dog when you entered society?

I can't even get in through a door, it's almost laughing at me.

The two security guards only laughed from time to time when they heard the phone. They thought with their toes and knew that the phone was also laughing at the poor boy.

They suddenly felt sympathy for this kid.

It turns out that this kid was fooled by his friends.

Really froze.

Thinking of this, one of the security guards in his fifties said to Wiliam: "Little guy, it's so late, so let's go back first. As someone who came here, I would advise you that this is not where you should come. Besides, yours Friends, not the person you should meet. Go back."

Wiliam looked at the security guard, but did not speak.

Suddenly hung up the phone.

In his heart, he was indifferent to Lu Xiaolu.

Now there is a trace of disgust.

There are really not many people of this kind that can make Wiliam's indifferent life feel disgusted.

Lu Xiaolu is one of them.

Really poor people must be hateful.

Wiliam turned around to leave when the phone rang again.

Wiliam picked it up and heard Lu Xiaolu grinning on the phone: "You hang up my phone? Are you looking for death? Tell the two security guards that you are a servant of the Beilin Lu family! Ho Ho, this one In this place, although low-level people cannot enter, there are no taboos for the servants and dogs of our Beilin Lu family!"
