The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2260

This is actually a father's love for his daughter.

No matter what his daughter chooses, he will support it.

"Dad, don't force Levilia for now, Levilia will consider it carefully!"

Levilia said.

"No, I will support you whatever you choose!"

Levi Garrison touched Levilia's head.

The ancestors in the dark were happy when they saw it.

"Jun-Jun This child is really good, obviously heart has been selected, afraid of hurting his father's face, deliberately think about it."

"Ah, that children want equal justice ah! Ye monarchs do not want to hurt! Children are good My child, it's just such a father!"

Several ancestors sighed.

In their opinion, Levilia will definitely rely on their practice.

After all, what they teach ignores the development of the times.

No matter how the times change, they are the strongest.

Next, Levi Garrison saw old friends.

Three years have passed.

Things are wrong.

These people have all changed and become strong.

In addition to these people, there are many, many people.

They are all people who came to crusade Zoey and see Levi Garrison…

The call for killing Zoey in Erudia and the whole world is getting louder and louder.

The tragic killings caused by Zoey in the past three years have been revealed one by one.

Videos, pictures, text…

A complete description of Zoey 's killings.

Some people also made a list of deaths.

The number of people is shocking.

…The

situation is getting worse.

Zoey aroused public anger.

Become a public enemy of the world.

Everyone can't wait to kill and then hurry up, can't wait to dye plums and peel off the skin cramps and drink up her blood.

The anger is the hardest to quell!

The situation got worse, and countless people petitioned Zoey to die.

Zoey was immortal, and the anger was unquenchable…

Looking at the development of the situation, Levi Garrison looked solemn and frowned.

He understood that all of this was deliberately instigated by the dark God behind the scenes that caused the current state of affairs.

Although Zoey killed everyone, everything he did was instigated by the dark god behind him.

But Zoey killed someone after all!

She did kill the humans, and she couldn't get away.

Must give an explanation!

"Have you seen? This is how your master plans everything behind the scenes, inciting the public to kill you!"

Levi Garrison said to Zoey .

Zoey shook his head, "Impossible! Besides! I did all this for you! How could I kill so many people if it weren't for revenge for you? Are you talking ridiculously at this time? Even making up a master's lie ! "

" hey! "

Ye monarchs sighed.

Overnight.

There are hundreds of thousands of strong people gathered in Jiangbei, and the number is still increasing.

It is estimated that hundreds of thousands of people will come in the end.

Everyone formed an alliance of exterminating demons.

To hold a demon extermination conference in Jiangbei.

We want to dye plums and kill them!

Levi Garrison has been with Kirin (Qilin) and the others.

"Boss, it may be difficult for us to keep you and my sister-in-law at that time! But we should be able to open a passage! Let you and my sister-in-law escape! Then you will stay away from Erudia and find a place where there is no one to avoid the limelight!"

"Yes, boss, we Everyone is desperate to protect you from leaving! You believe in our strength!"

Everyone expressed their opinions.

Huo Yun Cthulhu looked at everyone with disdain.

This one needs your protection?

Levi Garrison interrupted, "By the way, Kunlun Industry is developing well now! But how did I hear that Kunlun Industry has changed its owner? It is owned by the Young Master Tiance?"

"This…"

As soon as the question came out, everyone's expressions changed. Changed. Commoner kill Shinto "Mr. It's something I explain it …… day become the Kunlun industrial policy Marshal in fact, it is the best! He helm effect Kunlun industry for all to see!
