

Chapter 211

“You...”

Liam looked relaxed and said naturally, “I saw an acquaintance just now and you did me a favor.” Abigail was speechless.

He was on purpose.

It was an imitation of what she had just done!

Abigail clenched her fists and stared at him, but there was nothing she could do.

Thinking for a while, she gave a nod and said, “Okay, then we don’t owe anything to each other.” With no more words to say, she walked out directly.

Liam stood there and didn’t stop her, but there was a smirk hovering on his lips.

After Abigail went out, Leo was looking for her. He walked towards the balcony as soon as he saw she left. However, at this time, he noticed that Liam also came out from there. His expression slightly changed.

He looked up into the provocative gaze of Liam.

The expression on his face changed all of a sudden. But when he saw Abigail walking towards him, he concealed his anger.

“I’m sorry, are you looking for me?” Abigail went close to Leo and said.

“Yeah.” He nodded and asked casually, “Where did you go?” As she came closer, he gazed at her lips and was shocked to see that her lipsticks were smudged.

“Forget it. I just had a chat with my friend.” Abigail answered blandly. She didn’t want to tell Leo that she had been with Liam.

But Leo also had already seen them...

He could even guess what they had done!

Even if he was in a bad mood, he still smiled at her.

“What’s up?” Abigail found something wrong with Leo as well.

“Nothing.” Leo gave a slight smile and used his hand to gently wipe her lips.

Abigail was completely frozen.

It was because Leo rarely did this to her. At most, he would hug her decently. But now, he acted as if they were a couple...

Abigail felt awkward, but she didn’t dare to move. She could only watch him with her long and thick eyelashes fluttering up and down.

Nevertheless, Leo seriously looked at her face and used his thumb to slowly wipe her lips. It seemed that he wanted to erase his unhappiness and the marks and breath of Liam.

Abigail stood there without moving. Suddenly, she remembered one thing.

That was the image of Liam kissing her. She thought her lipsticks must have been smudged...

With her face blushing instantly, she stared at Leo. He didn't say anything but smile faintly. "It's done." Abigail forced a smile, but she had severely scolded Liam in her heart.

She got extremely embarrassed, but she had to pretend that she was calm.

However, Liam saw that Leo wiped her lips and glared at him with rage.

'Leo!'

The battle between men was getting started!

Liam stood there casually with a glass of champagne in his hand, but his eyes were fixed on them...

He would never give up so easily!

Chapter 212

Leo and Abigail stood there, talking and laughing. Even when they were dancing, they cooperated very well.

However, Abigail did not notice that someone was glaring at her with eyes filled with hatred.

Liam and Olive were also dancing. Liam looked at Abigail from time to time. The anger in his eyes hurt Olive.

Although Liam was dancing with her, his eyes never fell on her.

At the thought of this, she felt a sharp pain in her heart.

'If Abigail disappears, Liam will fall in love with me again.'

She took a determined look at Liam in front of her.

After the dance, Abigail looked at Leo and smiled. "I'm going to the bathroom."

Leo nodded.

Abigail went to the bathroom, and Leo stood there, looking at her with a satisfied smile...

Liam saw Abigail walk to the bathroom and said to Olive, "I'm going to the bathroom." Then he was about to leave, but just as he took a step, Olive grabbed his hand.

Liam frowned and looked back at her.

Olive held his hand tightly. "Liam..."

Looking at Olive's pleading eyes, Liam suddenly felt pitiful. "What happened?"

Olive was surprised and then said, "I feel terrible... I feel terrible..." As she spoke, she fell on him in pain.

Liam immediately held her. "What happened?" He didn't notice anything wrong with her.

Olive was leaning against him. "Liam, I'm not feeling well. Can you take me home..."

Looking at Olive's pained expression, Liam looked up in the direction of the bathroom. Finally, he frowned, looked at the woman in his arms, and said, "Okay, I'll take you home."

"Thank you." Olive nodded weakly.

Liam was driving, and Olive leaned against the passenger seat, looking very uncomfortable.

"Hold on, I'll take you to the hospital." Liam looked at Olive and then sped up.

Olive said, "I am fine. I'm just not feeling well. I don't have to go to the hospital."

"But..."

"If we go to the hospital and are photographed by the reporters, we will make the headlines again tomorrow," Olive said.

Liam knew she was right, but...

He frowned.

He had known Olive for so long, and the rumors about them had never stopped because Olive had arranged it on purpose. He knew that she wanted to tell others that they were in a relationship, but now she was afraid that they would make the headlines.

He was at a loss why she changed a lot.

“When were you afraid of making the headlines?” Liam suddenly asked.

Olive was shocked. Her long eyelashes trembled and she said, “This is a critical time. I don’t want to cause you any trouble.” ‘This reason is far-fetched.’

‘Very far-fetched!’

Liam put on a slight smile and did not continue the topic. Instead, he asked, “You really don’t want to go to the hospital?”

Chapter 213

“Yes!”

“Are you sure? Where are we going then?” Liam asked.

Olive slowly leaned against Liam's arm. "As long as you are by my side, I'm OK with any place." Hearing it, the man turned and glanced at Olive, without rejection. Then, he drove straight to her house.

Seeing that Liam did not move away, Olive leaned against him to rest with her eyes closed and a smile. It had been a long time since she had smiled so happily.

However, such a wonderful time would never be permanent.

"We've arrived." Liam suddenly said.

Hearing it, Olive immediately opened her eyes, only to find that they had arrived at the door

She didn't expect Liam to drive so fast.

In a daze, Olive said, "Liam, let's go inside together. My parents aren't at home now..."

"No." Liam refused decisively. "I still have something to do. I have to leave!" Liam rejected.

Noticing his indifference and impatience, Olive frowned. "Are you busy, or are you missing someone?" Hearing the question, Liam looked up at her. "What do you mean?"

Olive suddenly smiled bitterly. "Nothing. You can go." Then, she unbuckled her seat belt, about to get off.

Liam sat there, looking at Olive who was walking inside, in silence.

Just as she was about to open the door, she suddenly turned around and kissed his lips.

"Liam, no matter what, I want you to remember that I love you the most." She glanced affectionately at Liam, then turned around, pushed the door open, and entered the house.

The man sat still and frowned, thinking about what Olive had done just now.

In a daze for almost a minute, the man suddenly came up with something and started the engine.

The party was almost over.

Liam drove as fast as he could. When he arrived, many people were leaving.

The man stopped the car, stood still, with his eyes focusing on the gate, waiting for someone. A lot of people were coming out, except for the person he was waiting for.

Liam frowned, but he kept waiting patiently.

Leo's party was extremely grand, with many guests attending. It was not surprising that it took plenty of time for the guests to leave. As a result, Liam continued to wait in the car.

Most of them had come out, except for Abigail, which made the man frown uneasily.

When Liam was confused, Leo came out, looking bad. Most importantly, Abigail was not with Leo.

'Could it be that Abigail had left?'

'It is impossible...'

Thinking about it, Liam pushed the door open and got out of the car.

“Leo!” He called out.

Leo was standing there waiting for the car. Seeing Liam coming over, he frowned.

“What’s the matter?” Leo asked, showing no kindness to Liam.

Chapter 214

“Where’s Abigail?” Liam asked directly, not wanting to talk too much with him.

Hearing this, Leo was in a blank and looked at him, “Didn’t she go with you?”

“Of course not,” Liam said. At this point, he was dazed and looked at Leo, “What do you mean?”

“She disappeared. I thought she left with you.” Leo said. He had been unhappy for a long time because of this.

His words made Liam’s expression change, but Leo seemed to be serious. “I indeed left. Because it was Olive who was with me, not Abigail!”

both of them were shocked.

They looked at each other, feeling something bad had happened.

The next second, the two of them ran into the hotel in tacit agreement.

“When did you see her last time?” Liam held back his anger and said with a sullen face.

“She said she was going to the restroom. And then I never saw her again.”

“It seems that the time we last saw her was the same.” As he spoke, the two of them walked to the restroom in a hurry.

A cleaner was cleaning up in the restroom. Leo and Liam rushed in without any consideration.

The cleaner was dumbfounded.

After they broke in, they saw there was no one inside.

“Abigail!” Liam shouted. The two of them searched everywhere but found no sign of Abigail.

“Sir, this...this is the lady’s room!” At this moment, the cleaner stood at the door and said timidly. Because both of them looked like rich men, she could not afford to offend them, so she could only speak tactfully.

Hearing her words, Liam spoke up, “Have you seen a woman in a white gown? She has long hair and carries a bag!” Liam looked at her and asked.

His nervousness scared the cleaner a little.

She shook her head in fear, “No.”

Hearing this, Liam clenched his fists and didn't know what to do.

Leo walked over and looked at her, "Where's your manager?" "Out...outside..."

"Tell your manager to come here right away," Leo shouted.

"Okay." she nodded and ran out for the manager.

Leo and Liam also came out.

Both of them looked very worried and anxious but were holding back their emotions.

Two minutes later, the manager rushed over.

Seeing it was Leo and Liam, he trotted over.

"Mr. Jones, Mr. Harris." the manager greeted nervously.

"Someone is missing in your hotel tonight. What do you think you should do?" Liam looked at the manager and asked.

Hearing this, the manager was getting nervous, sweat sliding down from his forehead, "Missing?"

He was in a blank and then asked, "I don't know who it is. Can you make it more clear, Mr. Jones?"

Liam then described Abigail to the manager, and the latter asked everyone to look for Abigail.

“Mr. Jones, Mr. Harris, if she is still in the hotel, we can definitely find her.” The manager comforted them instantly.

Chapter 215

Liam didn't listen to these words at all and just wanted to find Abigail earlier.

“Hurry the f*cking up,” Liam said fiercely.

The manager was so scared and sweating.

Leo was also anxious and didn't say anything since Liam was angry now. At this moment, Leo frowned when noticing there were no surveillance cameras in the corridor. “Don't you have any surveillance cameras in your hotel?”

The manager quickly nodded. “We just removed the broken one here and didn't install a new one. There are security cameras everywhere else.”

Liam understood Leo's meaning and immediately said, “Then show me the surveillance video.” “Oh, okay. Come with me!” The manager nodded repeatedly and took them to the surveillance room.

They watched the surveillance footage from tonight in which Abigail walked towards Liam.

Then they began dancing. Finally, Abigail walked to the bathroom.

“This is the time,” Liam said.

Leo nodded. "This is the last time I've seen her."

After walking into the bathroom, Abigail never came out again. And the camera didn't record what had happened in that corridor.

"Damn it." Liam lost his patience. He scolded.

Leo continued to watch the surveillance video.

Then Liam carried Olive away. But Abigail never came out.

Leo and Liam both knew that Abigail would not leave with a French leave.

As both of them were deep in thought, the manager got the walkie-talkie.

"Manager, we searched around the hotel, but we didn't find Miss Swift!" A man said on the other side of the walkie-talkie.

Liam and Leo heard it clearly.

The manager noticed that Leo and Liam were angry.

"Mr. Jones, Mr. Harris, my workers have searched all over the hotel, but still didn't find Miss Swift. Could it be..."

"No!" Leo said firmly.

"What? Is your hotel trying to shirk responsibility?" Leo looked at the manager and asked coldly.

The manager was shocked and then said, "No."

"Is there an exit from the toilet?" Liam looked at the surveillance video and asked the manager.

Liam had to calm down at this moment.

The manager paused and nodded. "There's a safe exit."

Liam immediately asked, "Where does it lead to?"

"Inner court!"

"Is there a surveillance video over there?"

"Yes." The manager nodded immediately.

"Find it now," Liam said.

Chapter 216

The manager immediately nodded, then told the person in charge of the surveillance system to play the footage of the inner courtyard.

At first, nothing unusual happened. Liam and Leo were confused about if they were wrong.

Just as they thinking about it, a car appeared on the screen. It drove in and went straight to the exit.

Liam and Leo were surprised, and then they kept looking at the car. The people in the car did not move. They could not see clearly who were inside at all because of the darkness, nor could they see what the people inside were doing.

They focused carefully on the surveillance footage.

At this moment, three people came out of the exit.

Two men and one woman. The woman was leaning on one man's shoulder. The other man opened the door and helped her in.

Nothing could be seen clearly, but they immediately recognized Abigail through her dress.

It was her.

Definitely.

They were shocked. Although they could not see Abigail's face, they were so sure.

How could Abigail be with them?

So, obviously...

This was a kidnapping.

"How do you explain this?" Liam looked at the picture and asked the manager firmly.

The latter didn't know what to say for a moment.

Now the facts proved that the person disappeared from their hotel.

“Sorry, I’ll tell the general manager to deal with it right away.” The manager said quickly.

After all, the person was missing in their hotel and they were responsible for that.

Liam and Leo were both silent with an annoyed look. The manager glanced at them and quickly walked out.

Neither Liam nor Leo gave up. Instead, they walked over and asked. “Can you see the plate number?”

“Let me see.” The person in charge of the surveillance video answered.

Almost a minute later, he said, “I found it. This is it.”

Seeing the plate number, Liam immediately grabbed his cell phone and took a picture of it. After that, he dialed a number.

“Hey, Jason, investigate a plate number. Be quick!”

“Okay.”

“I’ve already sent it to you. Hurry up!”

“Got it.”

Just as he hung up, the general manager of the hotel came in.

When he saw Leo and Liam, he quickly walked over. "Mr. Jones, Mr. Harris."

"Should there be an explanation for this?"

"Don't worry, we've already sent persons to investigate and called the police. We can find her soon."
The general manager said.

Now, this was the best way.

Although Liam and Leo were worried and angry, they could not blame him now. Even if the hotel was blown down, Abigail could not be discovered.

Now the only way to find Abigail sooner was to cooperate properly.

"If you fail, I would make you lose your hotel," Liam warned.

He just vented his anger for worrying so much.

The general manager was so scared that he nodded repeatedly. It was not easy to run a hotel. Why did such things happen to him?

Chapter 217

After thinking for a while, the general manager looked up. "Mr. Jones, Mr. Harris, I have an idea."

"Try me," Leo replied.

“Maybe Abigail knows those people, so...”

“Shut up.” Before the manager could finish, Liam shouted in anger.

Leo didn’t look pleased as well.

Liam said furiously, “Are you now shirking responsibility for your hotel?”

“No, no, I didn’t mean that, Mr. Jones... I just heard my colleague say that Miss Swift looked very drunk, so could it be possible that she left with her friends...”

“Shut up. Did you hear me?” Liam roared again.

This time, the general manager closed his mouth.

Even Leo was surprised that Liam was so irritated. It was obvious that Liam really cared about Abigail...

Meanwhile, Liam sneered, “Do you know who the missing Miss Swift is?”

Confused, the general manager subconsciously asked, “Who?”

“The Swift Group’s princess and my wife!” Liam introduced slowly.

Although Abigail was Liam’s ex-wife, in Liam’s opinion, Abigail was still his wife.

Hearing it, Leo was unhappy, but he didn’t rebut. What he added would only serve as a stain on Abigail’s reputation.

As expected, after listening to Liam's introduction, the manager was stunned and desperate.

"So, general manager, think about it. If the Swift Group works with the Powerline Group to fight against your hotel, the consequence is evident."

The general manager was shocked. "Mr. Jones!"

"I hope to receive the news within two days. Otherwise, just wait for the loss." After that, Liam left directly.

"Why did you kidnap me?" Abigail suddenly looked at the man beside her and asked. Although she knew the reason, she wanted to know more about the details.

The man was shocked and looked at Abigail, "Because you have offended our boss." "Who's your boss?" Abigail asked immediately.

"Of course Mr. Fr..." The man suddenly stopped, as if he realized he had said too much. He stared at Abigail with an unhappy look, "Don't you know who you've offended?"

Chapter 218

Abigail did not answer directly, "Are you talking about... Frank?"

The man's expression changed, "When did I say that?"

“Just now,” Abigail said and looked at the man very calmly. Now it was the man who became nervous.

Abigail felt very funny that such a man should be a kidnapper.

Sure enough, after hearing Abigail’s words, he became awkward. Frank had told him not to talk too much.

“Nonsense.” At this moment, he roared at Abigail.

His expression made Abigail confirm one thing.

She was right.

“You know it very well whether I’m talking nonsense or not. What if Frank knew you betrayed him?” Abigail looked at him and asked.

“Shut your f*cking mouth up.” The man shouted angrily at Abigail.

“Whether you say it or not, he will come to see me in the end. By then, I can frame you.” Abigail looked at him and said word by word.

Abigail’s words sounded reasonable. Moreover, he knew that Frank was always a suspicious person. If Abigail told him, he would definitely fire him. It would be okay if he was fired, but he was afraid...

Thinking of this, he did not dare to continue. He looked at Abigail, “What do you want?”

“I just want to know where I am.” Abigail looked at him and said coldly.

“Impossible!” The man said decisively.

“Well, then I’ll tell Frank that you betrayed him and even wanted to let me go because you were afraid of getting into trouble...” Abigail looked at him and said.

“You...” The man looked at Abigail with eyes widely open, but he didn’t know what to do with her.

“Actually, my request is very simple. I just want to know where I am. Now that I’m tied up by you, I can’t escape even if I want to.

It doesn’t matter if you tell me, right?” Abigail was good at persuading people. She always felt that she was qualified to be a psychologist.

Hearing Abigail’s words, the man frowned and asked, “How could I believe you?”

“Even if you don’t believe me, don’t you believe your own ability? Do you think I can escape when tied up?” Her words made the man somewhat satisfied.

Of course, he believed in his own ability.

“Okay, since you can’t escape, I’ll tell you. But you should promise that if I tell you, you won’t tell Frank.” The man warned her word by word.

Abigail sat on the bed and nodded, “Okay, I swear, I won’t!” Looking at Abigail’s sincere look, the man finally said, “Here is South Bay District!” ‘South Bay District?’

Hearing this, Abigail was shocked. It was a key development area far from the city center.

Chapter 219

“In which part of the South Bay District?” Abigail asked immediately.

“You ask too much!” The man stopped answering Abigail’s question now. Instead, he looked at her. “I’ve told you the location now. Don’t blame me for being rude if you try to escape.”

Abigail was sensible and did not ask any more questions as he had warned her.

She was just thinking about how to let out the news and get someone to save her.

Seeing that Abigail had stopped talking, he walked aside.

“Hey...” Abigail shouted from behind at the moment.

“What?”

“When will Frank come to see me?” Abigail asked.

To be honest, Abigail felt that he was a dangerous person ever since she met him last time.

“He’s busy now. He’ll come when he is free.” The man said.

Hearing this, Abigail breathed a sigh of relief.

She now wanted to see Frank soon but at the same time, she didn’t.

After all, she didn't know what Frank would do to her.

The man did not leave. He sat far away and looked at Abigail, afraid that she would run away.

Abigail sat on the bed doing nothing. She was just thinking about how to leave or how to send a message outside.

Two hours passed unknowingly.

Abigail felt extremely nervous when she heard the door open.

Her intuition told her that the person who came was Frank.

Just as expected, Frank walked in. Abigail frowned and tried to look calm when she saw him.

"Frank." Seeing he come in, the guard at the side immediately walked up and greeted him.

"Is she awake?"

"Yes." The man nodded and said something in Frank's ear. Abigail tried to hear them clearly, but because they were far away and talked in a low voice, she failed.

After that, Frank nodded and walked straight to Abigail.

Abigail sat on the bed and watched him walk over.

Until he walked up to Abigail and saw her, Frank raised a sneer and said. "Miss Swift, long time no see."

Abigail sat there and looked straight at him. "Frank, it's been a long time. I didn't expect you to be more and more powerful now and kidnap me."

Frank couldn't tell Abigail was a very powerful woman from her appearance but he could easily know this from her words and deeds.

"Abigail, I didn't even settle accounts with you for what you did to me last time." Frank looked at Abigail and gritted his teeth.

Abigail frowned looking at him. "Frank, is it because I didn't inform your wife of what you have done? If I did, then I'm not gonna take the blame?" Abigail asked.

"You!"

"Frank, should all women be defiled by you?" Abigail looked at him and asked.

Chapter 220

Frank wore a solemn expression. The person behind him was standing there. Although he did not know what was going on between Frank and Abigail, he knew very well about Frank. At this moment, it seemed this lady was one Frank wanted to rape but failed.

Moreover, Frank had been tricked by her.

Listening to Abigail's words, Frank looked angry. If it weren't because her eyes looked like another person's so much, he would have strangled her to death.

"What a glib tongue. I'd like to see how long you can keep your composure."

After that, Frank turned to look at the person behind him, "You go out first."

The man nodded and turned to leave.

Abigail didn't feel danger until she saw the man walk out of the room.

She looked at the angry Frank in front of her, who was looking at her with his burning eyes.

Abigail also looked back at him, "What do you want to do?"

"What do I want to do?" Hearing this, Frank sneered, "Huh, are you afraid?"

"I'm telling you, you'd better not hurt me." Abigail looked at him and warned him. What they had said before echoed in her mind.

He didn't want to kill her, but to rape her.

Looking at Abigail's nervous look, Frank felt very happy.

"It turns out that you have fear." Frank looked at her and asked.

"I didn't expect you to do this. Kidnapping is against the law, Frank." Abigail sneered.

Hearing Abigail's sarcastic words, Frank narrowed his eyes and looked straight at her...

Her eyes looked more and more like...

They were exactly the same.

Even the look in her eyes was the same.

Seeing that he was staring at her, Abigail felt a little flustered. She clearly knew what kind of person Frank was. She had heard of him long ago.

He was so notorious. Everyone knew about his character.

How could she not be afraid and worried?

"Oh, so what? As long as I teach you a lesson, I'll have a way to shut you up." Frank looked at Abigail and warned her word by word.

"Then I'm telling you very clearly that unless you kill me, I will never let you go," Abigail told him firmly.

Hearing Abigail's words, Frank felt funny, "You don't think I dare to kill you?"

"I didn't mean that, Frank. I just want to tell you that you can't get away with it. I believe they will catch you." Abigail told him with certainty.

"They? Who?" After hearing Abigail's words, Frank frowned and looked at her.

'Who...'

This question stumped Abigail.

She didn't know who she was expecting, but she seemed to have a belief in her heart.

"Of course, there will be someone." Abigail looked at him and said firmly.

Looking at Abigail, Frank was dazed for a moment and then smiled, "Really? Then I want to see who will come to save you." As he spoke, he slowly walked towards Abigail.

Abigail sat there and watched him walk towards her step by step. She frowned and looked at Frank warily with her beautiful eyes. "What are you going to do?"

Frank did not speak. His eyes narrowed and he stared straight at Abigail's face.

Abigail looked at him and wanted to step back, but she couldn't move a bit.

"What the hell do you want to do?" Abigail tried to break free from the shackles that chained her hands and feet, but she could not.
