

Her Wicked Ceo (Abigail and Liam)

Chapter 331

Ted took a look at his phone and turned to look at Liam. “She calls me!” He immediately answered it.

“Hello...”

Hearing a strange voice on the phone, Abigail frowned and said, “Hello, I’m Abigail. Did you call me just now?” Ted smiled, “Yeah...”

“May I ask who you are? What’s the matter?” Abigail asked, feeling a little familiar with the voice.

At this moment, she did not notice the figure walking in slowly at the door...

“I called to apologize!” Ted said as he looked up at Liam, who was opposite him. He couldn’t help but smile and wanted to see Liam’s reaction.

Nate and Elon were also sitting there. They smiled and were more like on-lookers.

Abigail was a little confused. “I’m sorry. I don’t quite understand. Can you make it clear?” Abigail said politely.

om...”

“Mmm...”

Before Ted could finish his sentence, he heard a strange sound. Then he heard the crashing sound of the phone hitting on the floor.

Ted was shocked.

Looking at his strange look, Liam looked at him. "What's wrong?"

Ted looked at Liam with a serious expression. "Something seems to have happened to Abigail..." As he spoke, he immediately called back, but he failed to get through.

"What did you say!" Liam immediately stood up and looked at Ted. He believed what Ted said because he knew Ted would never joke about it.

"There was a strange sound on the phone just now. I feel that something happened to her..." The next second, before Ted could finish speaking, Liam had already run out.

Ted, Nate, and Elon looked at each other silently.

Liam got into the car, started it, and took out his phone to call Abigail, but couldn't get through.

With a "crash", the phone was thrown aside by him. His handsome face was frighteningly cold at this moment.

He slammed on the gas and the car sped out.

He was filled with fear!

At this moment, he had only one thought. “Nothing has happened to her!”

With that in mind, he sped up faster than usual. It took only eight minutes to get to the hospital.

He rushed to the ward.

Sure enough, there was no one in the room.

Even her phone was gone.

Liam stood there. His face darkened and his eyes were extremely cold.

He ran out to look for Abigail.

At this moment, a nurse heard the noise and immediately stood up. She looked at Liam.” Sir, it’s at night now. You’re not allowed to visit the patient.”

Liam turned around and glared at her with his bloodshot eyes. The nurse was shocked.

At this moment, Liam looked like he would kill others at any moment. The nurse was so scared that she shut her mouth.

“Where’s the patient in number 101? Did you see her?” Liam asked.

“101...” The female nurse murmured. “She should be resting in the ward!” As she spoke, she walked that way.

She seemed not to know what had happened.

Liam clenched his fists, not knowing what to do.

Chapter 332

The nurse came out. "I saw her go in just now. Why is she not there?" "Check the surveillance video immediately!" Liam shouted.

Realizing that something was wrong, the nurse obeyed him and led him into the monitoring room.

The video showed that Abigail walked into her ward an hour ago and that she was followed by a man wearing a hat and a mask.

Though he didn't see the man's face, Liam could tell that he was Frank from his figure!

Liam should forget about him!

Seeing that Frank had made Abigail senseless and taken her out, Liam clenched his fists. The nurse got into a panic because she was to blame.

"Change the view to the entrance of the hospital!" Liam said.

The people in the monitoring room did not dare to say anything more but obeyed him.

A car stopped outside. Frank walked out of the hospital with Abigail on his shoulder. He opened the door and got her in.

The car had no number plate!

Taking deep breaths, Liam tried to compose himself.

Suddenly, it occurred to him that he seemed to see this car on his way here.

He got solemn and immediately ran out.

Ted, Nate, and Elon arrived at the hospital after Liam had just left.

They came to help him, only to be told that he had gone after watching the surveillance video. So they also looked at it.

Then they exchanged a look.

Although it was a car without a number plate, there was another clue.

So they went out immediately.

Four cars were speeding on the road.

His phone ringing, Liam groped for it and answered the call.

“Hello!”

“Liam, it’s me!” Nate said sternly, his voice devoid of the usual slackness and teasing tone.

“We four can search for her separately. Where are you now?”

“I’m on the west road!” Liam replied as if he had known they would come!

“Okay, let’s look for the car independently. Any news, I’ll let you know. Keep in touch!” He made his words concise.

“Okay!” Liam hung up the phone.

He steered his car according to his vague memory.

Anyway, he had to find her!

She must be in danger!

His chest ached in anxiety.

Abigail, hold on! I was coming!

I was coming soon!

After the phone call, Nate thought of another person. Taking out his phone, he dialed a number. “Hey, it’s me!” “I need your help now. No matter what method you use, locate a car for me!”

“It’s a black nanny car without the number plate. Now!”

“Okay, I’ll wait!”

Putting away his phone, Nate set off.

Obviously, Liam cared much about that woman. Nate would do his best to find her!

That night, the four young masters of big companies were racing on the road in their limited-edition cars, only to search for a woman named Abigail!

Chapter 333

Nate’s phone rang a few minutes later and he answered it immediately.

“Hello...” “A black unlicensed car appears on the fork road in the west!” The person on the phone said.

Hearing these words, Nate immediately replied, “Okay, I see. Thank you, my bro. Let’s talk about it later!” Then he hung up before the one on the other side could answer.

Nate called Liam and soon got through.

“Liam, the car is heading to the fork road in the west!”

Then, Liam didn't even answer but stepped on the accelerator in that direction.

He chose this direction too!

Abigail slowly woke up in the car and found herself in the car. Then she was in a trance for a while before she remembered what had happened.

She looked at the driver and remembered what had happened in the hospital. Only then did she realize that something had happened to her!

She moved and wanted to leave here. However, her hands and feet were all tied, so she could not move. Moreover, her mouth was sealed and she could not make any sound at all!

She could only make a continuous whimper.

Hearing the noise behind, Frank knew that she was awake.

He sneered and said gloomily, “Are you awake?”

He tilted his head slightly and only then did Abigail see him clearly. It was Frank!

He finally found her!

She then moved even violently thinking of this. She would rather fall out of the car than be caught by Frank.

Frank seemed to realize her intention. He curled up the corners of her mouth and said, "You didn't expect me to come back to you, did you? Abigail, you made me lose everything. Today, I'm going to use you to exchange for everything I once had!" Frank said word by word.

Abigail wanted to say something, but she couldn't.

However, Frank didn't want to know what she said. He just wanted to kill her and then get the money to leave here! He sneered gloomily.

Abigail's hands and feet were tied and her mouth was sealed. Therefore, she could not move at all. Now no matter how anxious she was, it was useless. She had to calm down.

However, she couldn't think of any way out! Especially now that she was unable to move, it would be difficult for her to escape even if she had a chance later.

This time, would she be as lucky as last time and be saved?

Somehow, when she thought of Liam, she gradually calmed down.

Liam...

Liam stepped on the accelerator to the bottom and his sports car went unexpectedly fast. Soon, he caught up with that car and he was somehow a little excited when he saw it.

The car honking made a piercing sound behind and it sounded a little scary in the quiet night.

Frank frowned when he saw Liam's car through the rearview mirror.

"Damn it!"

He didn't expect Liam to catch up again!

Then, Frank also stepped on the accelerator hard to drive forward.

Abigail seemed to realize something and she was so excited when she turned around and saw the sports car behind.

It was Liam!

It was his car!

He was here!

Chapter 334

Liam also saw Abigail. He had been on tenterhooks all the way. Seeing that she was fine, he breathed a sigh of relief. Then he slammed on the accelerator and continued to chase forward.

The car horns kept ringing.

They were all speeding along.

However, how could a business car be as fast as a sports car? The two cars were almost stuck together soon.

It was a one-way street. If Frank didn't give away, Liam couldn't get past it at all. Moreover, they were driving on the road in the mountain, where cliffs were on the other side. In this case, they would fall from the cliffs if they hit each other fiercely.

Liam looked at Frank's car and kept honking to ask him to stop. But Frank drove even faster.

No matter how fast he drove, it couldn't be faster than Liam's sports car.

Liam followed closely behind.

Seeing that Frank didn't stop, Liam rear-ended the business car to force it to stop.

Frank looked through the rearview mirror and found Liam was crashing into his car again and again.

"Lunatic!" Frank cursed and drove faster.

Abigail was sitting inside and getting bumped. When she turned around and saw Liam, it was as if an invisible hand had grabbed her heart tightly.

She was not afraid, but she had an indescribable feeling when she saw Liam's expression.

It was as if she had nothing to fear with him by her side.

Seeing that Frank had no intention of stopping, Liam kept crashing his car.

An expensive sports car was constantly rear-ending a broken business car on a one-way road. This scene was frightening.

Frank was angry. The car would be broken under such crashes even if it didn't hurt someone. But now, he had no choice but to drive the car forward.

Liam did not give up and continued to crash into the business car. He must save Abigail!

The two cars kept making the sound of banging.

Frank was trying to keep the balance, but his car could not run against Liam's car at all.

Just then, Liam drew back a short distance from Frank. Then he suddenly stepped on the accelerator and crashed the business car into the mountain.

Frank leaned forward on the steering wheel by the crash, and blood was oozing out of his forehead.

Abigail also leaned forward against the seat, which was not very hard. But the inertia carried her bumped into the glass window.

Liam got out hurriedly and ran over to the business car. He was anxious about Abigail's safety, but he couldn't open the car door.

Seeing that Abigail fainted inside the car, he punched on the glass window and broke it up, then he reached out and opened the door from inside without noticing the injury on his hand.

Chapter 335

Abigail leaned against the left glass, with her whole body tied, her mouth sealed, and her eyes slightly closed.

"Abigail!" Liam shouted. He looked worried and nervous. "Abigail..." He kept calling her name.

There was a voice in his heart, "You'll be fine! You'll be okay!"

He gently patted her face. Finally, after a while, Abigail responded and slowly opened her eyes. However, when she saw Liam, there were tears in her eyes.

Seeing that she had opened her eyes, Liam immediately reached out and tore the tape on her mouth off. Then he examined her whole body. Except for a knock on her forehead, there was no injury. Liam was relieved and looked at her. "How are you?" Liam asked worriedly.

"I'm okay!" Abigail shook her head and tried to hold back her fear.

"Don't be afraid. I'm here!" Liam looked at her and said gently.

Abigail nodded and miraculously calmed down. At this moment, Liam reached out and untied Abigail's hands.

Just then, Abigail looked up and was shocked when she saw the person behind Liam.

"Liam, watch out..." Abigail shouted.

But by then, it was already late. Before Liam could react, Frank hit Liam fiercely with a stick.

At that moment, Liam suddenly covered Abigail with his body.

Abigail was stunned.

She felt as if her breathing was about to stop!

She looked straight at the back of Liam's head.

"Liam..." Abigail called his name softly...

At this moment, Frank pulled Liam out, pushed him aside, and then pulled Abigail out.

"What are you doing? Frank, let me go!" Abigail shouted.

"You made me lose everything. As long as you die, everything can be over!" As he spoke, he dragged her to the side of the road.

"I don't want you to die in this way, but this is what you deserve. You can only die here today!" Frank said and looked at Abigail.

"If you die, your ghost shouldn't come to me. Go for Olive!" He pushed Abigail down.

He did it so quickly that Liam had no time to fight with Frank and could only pounce on Abigail.

She felt like she was about to fall, but she was grabbed by someone. When she looked back at Liam, Abigail was in a daze.

"Liam..."

Liam looked at her and said, "Hold me tight!" He tightly held Abigail's hand, and his face turned red.

Abigail looked at him, not knowing what to say.

At this moment, Frank looked at them with a sneer and his face twisted. "It seems that you two really love each other. I only wanted to kill one person, but now... I will make you a good couple!" As he spoke, he walked over and suddenly pushed Liam down.

“No...” Before Abigail could finish speaking, Liam had already fallen down.

At the moment of rolling down, Liam reached out and pulled her into his arms. Then they rolled down together...

Chapter 336

They rolled down for a long time, Abigail could only feel her head and body were held tightly in his arms...

Finally, they stopped.

Liam hit somewhere and let out a muffled grunt of pain.

A few seconds later, Abigail came to her senses and stuck her head out of his arms. It was night, so she couldn't see Liam clearly, but she could vaguely see his face at such a close distance. When she saw his closed eyes and injured face, she said softly. “Liam, how are you?”

He did not move.

“Liam...” Abigail shouted again, but there was still no reaction.

Abigail was a little scared and looked at him. “Liam, wake up. Wake up...” Abigail said with a trembled voice. She didn't even know where to put her hands since she was afraid of touching his wounds.

Liam did not move.

At that moment, Abigail panicked.

She knew that when they rolled down from above, he held her to protect her...

Thinking of this, she trembled with fear. She managed to support herself with her hands and sat up. Only then did she see Liam's wounds.

He had wounds all over his arms and wrists, and there were bright red bloodstains. Abigail was so flustered that she didn't know what to do.

"Liam..." She cried, tears rolling down her face.

However, Liam still closed his eyes and was unresponsive as if he could not hear her voice.

"Wake up, wake up..." Abigail shouted. Her face turned pale with fear.

She was used to him being indifferent, scheming, and screwy, but she didn't expect him to be severely injured to save her.

Even though she was always rational, she was panicking now.

If something happened to Liam because of her...

She dared not even think about it!

She couldn't even imagine what would happen and what she should do without Liam!

She put Liam's head on her lap, looked at him, and kept calling his name, "Liam, wake up. Aren't you very good? Wake up..." The tears fell on his face as she spoke.

Fear and some unknown feelings came on Abigail. She shed more and more tears, but she tried her best not to make a sound.

At this moment, Liam's eyes moved slightly, and he slowly opened his eyes.

Sensing Abigail's tears, he struggled to say in a weak voice, "Stop crying. You're ugly!"

Hearing Liam's voice, Abigail was shocked, then she stared at him and was overjoyed. "Liam, are you conscious?" She didn't want to argue with him. And she didn't care about what he said now.

"Yes, I'm conscious, but I don't know when I'll faint again!" Liam said slowly in a weak voice. He was not joking.

He didn't know when he would faint again after rolling down from above and being hit by a stick.

Abigail, "How are you? What should I do?" She stared at him and asked because her mind went blank at present.

She didn't know what to do. It was so dark that she didn't know where they were now. Occasionally, she could hear the chirping of insects.

Chapter 337

Liam looked at her and said, "Stay here and wait for someone to save us."

"But... You are wounded... It's so late. Could anyone know that we are here?" Abigail asked. She was fine, but Liam must be injured since he had rolled down from such a high place.

"I'm fine!" Liam said, but he kept his body unmoved. If he hadn't been talking and blinking, Abigail would have been really scared.

Abigail stared at him and did not dare to move.

At this moment, Liam looked at her and almost whispered in a weak voice, "Were you crying for me just now?"

Hearing his voice, Abigail paused and then answered, "If anything happens to you for me, I will feel guilty for the rest of my life!" "Guilty? Is that all?" Liam frowned and asked unhappily.

Abigail was shocked. In the dark night, she could not see anything clearly, but only his eyes, like obsidian. He was serious.

"Yes!" Abigail said.

The next second, Liam pulled her over with unexpected strength, "What are you doing..."

Before she could finish her sentence, Liam moved his body slightly and kissed her on the lips...

Abigail was dumbfounded at once.

With long eyelashes fluttering gently, she did not know what to do.

Liam kissed her gently, not be like the usual punishment kiss.

His tongue gently touched hers...

When Abigail calmed down and stood up and glared at him, "Are you crazy?" How could he be in the mood to do this? "But you enjoyed it just now, didn't you?" Liam said with a teasing smile.

"You seem to be fine since you can still joke!" Abigail said and blushed. She avoided looking straight at him.

Seeing her blush, Liam was in a good mood and smiled, "Abigail..." "What?" "If I really died, would you be sad?" Liam suddenly asked seriously.

Looking at his serious expression, Abigail was in a daze for a moment and then said, "I won't answer such a hypothetical question!"

"Do you want me to see me die?"

"Can you stop saying these unlucky words?"

"I won't stop if you don't answer me!" "I told you not to ask me such hypothetical questions!" Liam was furious!

"Abigail, do you have to talk to me in this way? Didn't you cry sadly just now?" Liam questioned her angrily, tugged at the wound on his body, and snorted.

Looking at him feeling hurt, Abigail frowned, "Are you okay? Where are your wounds?" She immediately leaned over and showed her concern.

Looking at her caring expressions, Liam was indescribably happy, but instead of showing it, he said, "It hurts everywhere!" Hearing his words, Abigail was even more worried, "Then what should we do?"

“Answer me!”

“What?”

“Answer my question!” Liam said persistently and would never give up until he got her answer.

Chapter 338

Abigail felt very speechless. She looked at him and finally nodded with resignation, “Yes!” “What? What do you mean by yes? Will you be sad or not if I’m dead?” Liam continued to ask.

Abigail was silent. She rolled her eyes at him and said, “Yes! I’ll be sad!”

The corners of Liam’s mouth curled up.

Abigail said, “Now let’s think about how to get out of here!” She looked up and couldn’t see anything at all. It was dark all around.

“We don’t even know where we are now!”

“We were surrounded by grass. It must be a place like a forest or a field!” Liam said.

Abigail frowned, “If that’s the case, will there be beasts?” Abigail asked.

“Beast? I’m not sure, but there must be snakes in the grass!”

Snakes?

Hearing this, Abigail could not help but have a shiver. She got goosebumps and subconsciously grabbed Liam.

Seeing her actions, Liam frowned, "Are you afraid of snakes?"

Abigail pretended to be calm and replied, "Not really!"

"Then why are you holding me?"

"I'm afraid something will come and take you away!"

"Are you a woman?"

"Can't you see if I'm a woman!" Abigail asked.

Whenever they talked, they could talk endlessly. When they talked about this, they suddenly stopped.

Liam looked at her lustfully and said, "I'm not sure about this. Well, let me verify it." Abigail's face turned red again as she said, "Liam, are you still in the mood to joke?" Unexpectedly, he suddenly sat up.

Abigail was shocked and frowned at him, "You... you're pretending to be wounded?"

Liam gave her an irrelevant answer, "Abigail, it's dark all around. Aren't we going to do anything?" Even though he was injured, he still maintained his unique attraction. His eyes were evil and charming, which seemed to be able to seduce others' souls.

Abigail was bemused for a moment and then shouted, "Liam! It's dangerous here! Are you still in the mood to joke?"

Liam ignored what she said.

They were in such an emergent situation. She couldn't believe he was still in the mood to make merry.

"Liam, you'd better get up quickly!" Abigail looked at him and said in anger.

"Shush..." At this moment, he made a gesture towards Abigail to make her keep quiet and then said, "If we don't do anything now, we would waste the golden opportunity!" As he spoke, he slowly approached her.

Abigail watched him get closer slowly, "Liam, you'd better..."

The next second, Liam had already leaned over and kissed her on the lips.

"Hmmm... hmm..." Abigail's protest was all swallowed up by the kiss.

She was going crazy!

In this emergent situation, Liam even had the mood to do this!

Chapter 339

The next second, Abigail bit his lips.

“Mmm...”

The next second, Abigail pushed him away with her hand.

Liam suddenly fell to the ground and snorted.

Abigail was shocked when remembering that he was hurt. However, she remembered what he looked like just now and then said, “Liam, enough!”

Liam lay there. “Abigail, you’re really not a woman!”

“Yes, I don’t need to tear you gently!” Abigail said.

Thus, Liam did not say anything anymore.

He remained silent for a long time.

Abigail was in a daze. She frowned and looked at him. “Hey, Liam, stop pretending!”

Liam remained silent and still lay there. Abigail was a little scared and leaned over. She was a little angry when she saw Liam’s eyes open. “You...”

The next second, Liam reached out and grabbed her. “Shh...” Then, Abigail didn’t say anything more and just lay beside him.

“What’s wrong?” Abigail asked softly.

“If you want to leave here, stop speaking now!”

Abigail then became silent and the two of them just lay there.

Originally, they had no interest in watching the stars in the sky. However, they could only do so when lying down there.

After a long time, Liam finally said, “Abigail...”

“Yes!”

“Actually, it’s good to lie here, isn’t it?” Liam asked.

Abigail thought for a moment. “It would be good if we are not in such a situation!”

Liam smiled hearing her words.

“Liam, let’s find a way to get out of here quickly!” Abigail was really worried about his injuries.

“Do you want to leave here?”

“Nonsense, of course, I do!” Who wanted to stay in this godforsaken place?

“Kiss me!”

“Ah?”

“Kiss me and I’ll take you to leave here!”

“Liam, are you kidding me again?” Abigail said unhappily. He was more seriously injured at this moment by the way.

Right?

“I’m serious!”

“Now, you’re more seriously injured. I can leave you behind here easily!” Abigail said.

“Then will you leave me behind?” Liam asked.

Abigail was speechless, “Can you be serious?”

“I’m serious. Kiss me and I’ll take you to leave here!” Liam said.

Abigail looked at him doubtfully.

“If you don’t kiss me, we’ll be stuck here!”

Finally, Abigail looked at him doubtfully. “Are you serious?”

“When did I lie to you?” Liam asked.

Abigail was speechless.

Liam also looked at her. "Abigail, believe me, no matter where or when!" For some reason, Abigail believed these words!

She believed in Liam!

She believed him from the bottom of her heart!

Maybe it had something to do with him risking his life to save her.

How could she not believe a person who dared to risk his life for her? Finally, Abigail nodded. "Okay!"

"Kiss me!" Liam said rashly again.

Abigail was speechless. However, she slowly leaned over and kissed him on the face.

"Kiss me on my lips!" Liam said.

Abigail frowned. "Liam, don't push your luck!"

"If I push my luck, I'll eat you up just now!"

Abigail was speechless.

"Hurry up!"

Under such duress, Abigail could only lean over and kiss Liam on the lips.

Chapter 340

It seemed that Liam was in a good mood.

Abigail's being so obedient gave him a sense of achievement.

"Happy?!"

"If this was a French kiss, I'll be even happier!" Liam said with a smile.

"Liam, have you heard a sentence? If you don't do stupid things, they won't come back and bite you in the ass!" Liam was speechless.

"Can we leave now?" Abigail looked at him and said.

"Lie down!" Liam looked at the place beside him and said.

Abigail could only do as he asked.

Then Liam raised his hand and said, "Press a button on my watch!"

"Can't you do it yourself?"

"If I still have strength!"

Hearing this, Abigail was surprised. Then she reached out and touched his watch.

“This one on the left?”

“Yes, press it hard!”

Abigail did as he said.

His watch suddenly flashed green.

“Liam...” Abigail said.

“Good job. People will be here soon. The only thing we can do is to wait!” As he spoke, Liam put his hand around her shoulder and let her lean against him.

“It’s done? So easy?!” Abigail looked at him and asked.

Liam nodded.

“You obviously have a way, but you didn’t tell me until now!” Abigail complained. She knew that Liam must know how to leave here.

And as she had expected, he did know!

Liam smiled, “I just want to spend more alone time with you!” As he spoke, he smiled and closed his eyes.

Abigail’s heart thumped. After thinking for a long time, she smiled too.

Abigail looked at Liam's watch and asked, "Press this button once, and they will receive the message? Are you sure?" Liam replied weakly, "Yes!"

"Ted, Nate, and Elon have this watch too. A special chip is installed in it. As long as you press the button, no matter where we are, they will receive the signal and get the location, so they will find us soon!" Liam said.

Abigail nodded and complained, "It's so good to be rich. You have everything!"

Liam moved up the corner of his mouth with difficulty.

Liam talked to Abigail for a while although he was on the verge of unconsciousness.

Abigail realized something was wrong with him.

It was because he was being increasingly incoherent.

Abigail looked up at Liam and asked, "Liam, are you okay?"

Liam didn't say anything. Abigail frowned and panicked. "Liam... Don't scare me. What happened to you?"

She called him twice, and then Liam responded. With his eyes half-open, he looked at her and said, "I'm fine. There are no snakes here. Don't be afraid..."

For some reason, Abigail felt a lump in her throat, her eyes growing misty again.

“Liam, wake up. Don’t sleep...” Abigail looked at him and said, calling his name over and over again.

At this point, the sound of cars rang out.
