

Chapter 341

Some people came over with flashlights in their hands.

“Liam, Liam!” Someone was shouting.

Hearing the voice, Abigail knew that there were people coming. He immediately turned around to shout at them, “Here, we are here...”

At this moment, a few people ran over while hearing Abigail’s voice.

Abigail looked at them. “Help us... Save him...”

Ted and Nate who arrived first frowned when they saw Liam, “Liam, are you okay?”

Hearing their voices, Liam opened his eyes for a moment. When he saw them, he smiled reassuringly and closed his eyes...

Liam was sent to the hospital.

He was sent to the emergency room.

Nate, Elon, Ted, and Abigail were all outside the room.

Abigail silently sat there as if she was waiting for something.

Only Ted met Abigail before. The other two only saw her in magazines or photos.

Liam and Abigail only got a certificate when they got married a few years ago. On their wedding night, Liam ran out to drink with these three friends.

They had no wedding or banquet. So, none of the three showed up.

Therefore, they were not familiar with Abigail.

At this moment, Ted walked over and looked at Abigail. "You'd better go and deal with your own business. We'll keep watch here!"

Abigail shook her head. "It's ok!"

How could she deal with her own things if she didn't hear any good news about Liam?

At this moment, the door of the emergency room was opened.

The doctor came out from inside. Abigail wanted to walk up when she saw the doctor but she couldn't walk at all as her legs were in plaster.

Nate walked over, looked at the doctor, and asked, "Doctor, how is he?"

"There are many wounds on the patient's body, especially on his back, which is the most serious. However, he finally survived.

The cause of the coma is due to excessive blood loss. Fortunately, he was sent here in time, so he is now fine. Things would be different if he was sent here a little later!"

After hearing the doctor's words, the three men were finally relieved.

"He'll be transferred to the ward later. Don't worry!"

Nate nodded. The doctor then left.

At this moment, Abigail, who was behind them, smiled heartily when she heard that Liam was fine.

Fortunately, nothing bad happened.

However, she then closed her eyes and fainted.

[The next day]

[In the ward]

Liam slowly opened his eyes. Apart from his feet, there were almost wounds everywhere on his body.

"Liam, are you awake?" Senior Mrs. Jones said in surprise when she saw him waking up.

Liam slowly regained consciousness. When he saw the person in front of him, he frowned and said, "Grandma?"

“How are you? Tell grandma where it hurts?” Senior Mrs. Jones asked heartbrokenly while looking at Liam.

Fortunately, he was hurt while saving Abigail. If it was for saving someone else, Senior Mrs. Jones would not let the woman go.

“I’m fine!” Liam shook his head and suddenly remembered something. “Where’s Abigail? How’s she?”

Seeing Liam being so nervous, the old lady frowned. “Abigail...” Halfway through, Senior Mrs. Jones stopped.

Looking at Senior Mrs. Jones’s expression, Liam was even more worried. “How is she?”

Chapter 342

“Abigail is fine, but you get injured badly. The doctor said that you must have a good rest.” Senior Mrs. Jones said.

Hearing her words, Liam felt something strange.

“Grandma, please tell me, how is she?” Liam asked seriously. He was worried.

“Abigail is fine.” Senior Mrs. Jones said, but she looked guilty as if she was trying to hide something from him.

The more Senior Mrs. Jones hesitated, the more worried Liam became. He stopped asking and got up to pull out the infusion needle.

“What are you doing!” Senior Mrs. Jones said, and Mrs. Jones behind was also shocked, “Liam, stop!”

Seeing that they both tried to stop him, Liam looked up, “Mom, grandma, since you don’t tell me the truth, I have to go and check it myself”

Mrs. Jones looked at Senior Mrs. Jones and appeared hesitant.

At this moment, Senior Mrs. Jones looked at Liam, “Tell me, are you worried about her?”

Wasn’t that obvious enough?

But Liam did not respond. He frowned and looked at Senior Mrs. Jones.

“Grandma, this is not the time to talk about it. How is she?”

“Answer me first. Do you care about her?”

“Do you value her life more than yours?” Senior Mrs. Jones looked at him and asked.

Liam frowned, not knowing how to reply.

At this moment, the door was suddenly pushed open.

Abigail came in from outside in a wheelchair.

Yesterday, she cut a sorry figure. But now, she looked much better.

Hearing the sound, Liam turned around. But when he saw Abigail, he was dumbfounded.

“You...” Only then did he realize that Senior Mrs. Jones deliberately tricked him just now, so he turned around, “Grandma...” Senior Mrs. Jones turned anxious, “Abigail, why did you come in now?”

“All you need to do is to wait for a few more seconds. Only a few more seconds would be enough.” Senior Mrs. Jones said regretfully.

Abigail blinked, “Did something happen?” “In that way, I’ll know Liam’s feelings...”

“Grandma!”

Before Senior Mrs. Jones could finish, Liam interrupted her.

Senior Mrs. Jones paused and then smiled again, “Actually, even if you don’t say it, I already know. You’ve told us by your actions.”

Liam felt embarrassed. Because of this cute old lady, his family had always been warm and lively.

Seeing them talking and laughing, Abigail also smiled.

At this moment, Senior Mrs. Jones walked up to Abigail and looked at her, “Abigail, how are you going?”

“Thank you, Senior Mrs. Jones. I’m fine. I need to thank Liam for protecting me. Otherwise, I don’t know what will happen to me.” Abigail said sincerely.

Mrs. Jones helped Liam get up and lean against the pillow. After hearing Abigail's words, Liam felt satisfied.

Finally, this woman thanked him.

Senior Mrs. Jones was also delighted. Although she felt heartbroken for her grandson's injury, Abigail's words made her believe that Abigail was a good match for Liam.

"Liam was supposed to do so. If you can't even protect you, I won't spare him." Senior Mrs. Jones said.

Even so, how could Abigail not know what Senior Mrs. Jones was thinking?

Chapter 343

She also knew what Mrs. Jones was thinking.

Liam was the only son in their family, so Mrs. Jones was worried about him.

"Thank you, grandma. And I appreciate it that Mrs. Jones doesn't blame me for Liam's injury!" Abigail said.

"Why are you saying this? The gangster is to blame. Such a sinful evildoer must be punished!" Senior Mrs. Jones said indignantly.

Hearing it, Abigail suddenly remembered Frank's last words to her. He told her to find Olive instead of him...

Did it really have something to do with Olive?

At this moment, Senior Mrs. Jones turned to look at Liam. "Anyway, you must find that evildoer!" Senior Mrs. Jones said.

Liam nodded. "I see, grandma!"

His slack on finding Frank had caused an accident. Now, he had learned from the past, so he wouldn't allow Frank to get away.

Besides, he and Abigail almost died because of Frank. Liam would never let him go!

"Good!" Senior Mrs. Jones said.

Just then, the door was pushed open.

Three young men walked in.

It was Ted, Nate, and Elon.

"How is it? Is Liam awake?"

"He is awake. Fortunately, you helped him. Otherwise, the consequences would be ghastly." Senior Mrs. Jones said.

Looking at the three young men, Senior Mrs. Jones knew that they would support Liam a lot.

When it came to their friendship, it was as firm as iron.

“Grandma, our pleasure!” At this moment, Nate said.

Ted walked over, looked at Liam, and said in a teasing tone, “If I didn’t know it, I would have thought that you two died for each other!”

“You should come a little later!” Liam said.

“Mr. Jones, we received your message and arrived in ten minutes!”

“In ten more minutes, you have to go to the mourning hall to worship me!”

“You know, it took you a long time before you sent a message to us. To be honest, what you did down there?” Ted looked at him and asked.

After he said, the whole ward fell silent.

Abigail blushed.

Why did he ask like that?

Nothing had happened between Liam and Abigail, but as he said, something had happened!

Senior Mrs. Jones was also surprised. It seemed that Ted knew the inside story!

Senior Mrs. Jones immediately ran over to Ted and said, "Ted, tell me, how long it took before he sent you a message?" Ted pretended to ponder and said, "About half an hour!"

"Half an hour..." Senior Mrs. Jones seemed to be plotting.

Elon and Nate pinched their lips.

Abigail didn't know what to say!

Liam looked even displeased. As he was about to speak, Abigail said, "He was unconscious for almost ten minutes!" "What about the other twenty minutes?" Senior Mrs. Jones approached and asked.

Abigail was speechless.

If only she had said Liam was unconscious for twenty minutes!

But after thinking for a moment, she said, "Grandma, he was badly injured. We could do nothing but wait for help!" "Really?"

"Yeah."

"Then..."

"Grandma!" As Senior Mrs. Jones was about to continue, Liam interrupted her.

"Okay, okay. I won't ask anymore!" Senior Mrs. Jones compromised.

At this moment, Liam looked at Ted. "So? Are you three so free? You don't have to go to the company, do you?"

Chapter 344

Hearing what he said, Ted sat by the bed and stood up. "Ah, I feel so sad. We come to visit him, but he doesn't want to see us!" Then, Senior Mrs. Jones raised her eyebrows as if she suddenly realized something.

"Ted, let's go out to talk. Tell grandma what happened!" She said happily and then gave Ted a look. Ted immediately understood.

"Okay, grandma, let's go!"

So, they walked out.

Elon and Nate looked at Liam. "Have a good rest. We'll go out to watch the show!" With the corners of their mouth curled up, they turned to go out.

Halfway, seemingly remembering something, Senior Mrs. Jones looked back at Mrs. Jones, who was standing there, and said, "Linda, come with me!"

Mrs. Jones was confused, but immediately understood and nodded. "Okay!" Then, Mrs. Jones looked at Liam. "Have a good rest. I will come to see you later!" With that, she followed out.

Obviously, they were leaving space to Abigail and Liam.

Only the two of them were left in the room.

Abigail and Liam looked at each other.

They felt awkward.

At this moment, Abigail spoke first, "How is it? Are you feeling okay?"

"If not, will you help me?" Liam looked straight at her and asked.

"Hmm!" Abigail was a little confused.

"I want you!"

"Hmm?"

At first, she was confused, but then she understood what Liam meant. She blushed. "Liam." She said, "Stop flirting with me."

Seeing Abigail's shy face, Liam smiled. "Has anyone ever said that you look like a woman when you're shy?"

"I am a woman!"

"I just found it out today!"

Abigail was speechless.

She didn't have to worry about him since he was so energetic.

He could joke and flirt, so it seemed that he was fine.

Therefore, she became silent.

Noticing her silence, he looked at her and said, "How about you? Have you got hurt?"

"I'm fine. You were protecting me when I fell. I wasn't hurt, not even my leg!" said she.

After saying that, she suddenly realized something.

But he nodded seriously. "Well, you're fine!" For some reason, she had mixed feelings but felt quite warm.

"Fortunately, Ted was informed in time yesterday. Otherwise, if you bled too much, there would be something wrong!" Abigail said.

She was scared when he fainted.

Hearing this, he looked at her. "What? Are you worried about me?"

“Shouldn’t 1?” She asked back.

“Savior, you’ve already saved me twice. If I don’t worry about you, wouldn’t I be too heartless?” She said.

She tried to be relaxed.

“Just because of that?” He asked unhappily.

He didn’t believe that she was worried about him just because he saved her.

“What else?” She turned the question back to him.

Chapter 345

Hearing this, Liam had an urge to pull her over and teach her a lesson.

He glared at Abigail. His cruel look made her so scared. Every time Liam looked at her like this, she knew that he was furious! How could someone as smart as Abigail not understand what Liam meant?

But...

She didn’t know how to define their relationship.

To sum up, their relationship involved very limited time spent with each other and distrust.

This was their current relationship.

In the end, Liam said to her fiercely, "Abigail, if you dare, just wear a mask for the rest of your life!"

Abigail didn't reply to him.

She didn't know what to say to him.

At this time, the door was opened.

Someone barged in.

"Liam, Liam..." Olive barged in like a gust of wind. When she saw Liam lying on the bed, she was heartbroken.

"Liam, how are you?" Olive looked at him and asked.

Liam didn't expect her to come. He frowned and asked, "Why are you here?"

"When I heard that you were hospitalized, I came straight over. How are you?" It was obvious that Olive was worried about him.

"I'm fine..."

Olive stood up. When she saw Abigail, she got very excited. She walked straight over and slapped her face.

She did it without any hesitation.

At that moment, everyone was bemused.

“Abigail, it’s you again. Do you want to kill Liam?!” Olive said furiously.

She blamed everything on Abigail.

When Liam saw this, he frowned and said, “Olive, what are you doing?”

“Liam, are you still defending this woman? She almost killed you!” Olive said. Everything happened because of this woman.

“I was the one who wanted to save her. It has nothing to do with her. Besides, it’s my business. It has nothing to do with you!” A person you cared about very much said that his business had nothing to do with you, which was frustrating.

Olive froze for a moment. She knew that Liam had changed, but now she didn’t want to argue with him. She walked over to him and said word by word, “Why did it have nothing to do with me? Don’t forget, I’m your girlfriend!”

Her words were also coming at Abigail as a way to declare her ownership of Liam.

Then she turned to look at Abigail and said, “Abigail, I won’t let you get away with it next time!”

Abigail didn’t want to disturb them and had planned to leave quietly, but when she heard what Olive said, she gave her another slap.

If it weren't for the inconvenience of her legs now, Abigail would have slapped her back without hesitation.

However, Abigail was not a woman to be trifled with.

Olive had already crossed her line.

She turned around and said to Olive with a smile, "Miss Miller, what do you mean by not letting me get away with it? You have done so many dirty things to me. Don't you remember?"

Abigail's words made both of them shocked.

"What do you mean?" Olive asked.

Chapter 346

A smile spread across her face. Abigail replied lightly, "You know what I mean!" Her attitude was so casual that she seemed to be talking about something irrelevant to herself.

It panicked Olive more.

"Frank was to kill me. Before that, he told me something." Abigail said slowly, her clear eyes fixed firmly on Olive.

The expression of Olive changed suddenly. Arrogance was replaced by fear.

“What... What did he say?” She asked. In the presence of Liam, she had no idea how to handle the situation.

“Are you curious?” Abigail raised his eyebrows.

“Don’t talk nonsense!” Olive shouted before Abigail uttered a word, fearing that Liam would believe her words.

Abigail grinned. She believed that Liam also saw how nervous Olive was.

“Miss Miller, I didn’t say anything. Why do you think it’s nonsense? Are you nervous or guilty?” Abigail casually threw the questions at her, pleased to see her in an awkward situation.

“Please mind your language!” Olive warned her coldly.

She grinned again. “I’m just going to share with you the last words Frank said to me. I really want to ask you of its meaning!” “What did he say?” Liam asked.

“He said, don’t revenge myself on him but on Olive if I become a ghost.”

A look of despair crawled on the face of Olive!

“Miss Miller, can you tell me why he said that?” Abigail pretended not to understand, though what he meant was obvious enough.

Liam knew that she neither told lies nor made trouble out of nothing. If Frank said so, it must have something to do with Olive.

He fixed his eyes on Olive, making her uneasy.

“No, I don’t know what he means. Abigail, don’t slander me. Liam won’t believe what you said!” She glared at her and cried nervously.

But her emotions had already betrayed herself.

“Anyway, the truth will show itself when we find Frank!” Abigail replied relaxedly.

These words stung Olive.

Abigail smiled at her. “That’s it. I won’t disturb you anymore. See you later!” She began to move herself out in the wheelchair.

At the same time, Senior Mrs. Jones walked in.

“I’m afraid it’s Miss Miller who should leave here!”

The three of them all turned to look at her.

Olive was more embarrassed.

“Grandma...” She called her. Though she didn’t like her, Senior Mrs. Jones had never been so harsh.

A smile touched the corners of Senior Mrs. Jones. “Miss Miller, have you ever heard of the saying that evil is rewarded with evil? Please be kind!”

Abigail was surprised to hear that.

She thought to herself that the old lay should know the buzzword.

Chapter 347

“Grandma... What do you mean?” Olive asked. No matter how domineering she was, when she saw Senior Mrs. Jones, her momentum would weaken.

Senior Mrs. Jones smiled, “Think about it yourself. If you can understand, it’ll prove that you are not so stupid!”

Her words were so direct.

At this moment, she could only nod, “I see!”

“Miss Miller, you’d better leave. Don’t get in the way of my grandson and my granddaughter-in-law!” Senior Mrs. Jones said.

Granddaughter-in-law?

Hearing this, Olive was shocked. He looked at Liam in disbelief and then at Senior Mrs. Jones.

“That’s right. Abigail and Liam are in love. I can only agree to their marriage!”

Abigail called, “Grandma!”

As soon as she opened her mouth, she saw Senior Mrs. Jones’s look and stopped talking.

Liam frowned, thinking that Senior Mrs. Jones was too efficient. “Grandma!” he uttered.

“Shut up!” Liam was speechless.

Olive could not believe it. Hearing the old lady's words, she wanted to cry, but she was unwilling. She clenched her fists and looked at the old lady, saying, "But I'm Liam's girlfriend!"

"Miss Miller, listen. Liam is just playing with you. Why should you take it seriously?"

"There are a lot of people who claim themselves to be Liam's girlfriend. However, no matter what happens to Liam, only Abigail is his wife. You can't change the fact!"

"They were married. You should know that, right?" Senior Mrs. Jones asked.

Hearing this, Abigail blushed.

What was she going to do?

Liam didn't know what to say. He could only say that grandma was good at acting.

But he could not bear to see Olive cry. If what Abigail said was true, Olive also touched his bottom line.

"They're divorced, aren't they?" Olive said unwillingly.

"It is normal for couples to quarrel, but now they should be together, and they love each other more than before. Liam can die for Abigail, which proves that they love each other very much. When they get back together, they will remarry!" The old lady said firmly.

It was as if this matter was settled! Abigail was speechless.

She found no chance to explain.

Olive was crying, and she was filled with hatred.

She was misunderstood.

Senior Mrs. Jones looked at Abigail, and she could only shut up.

At this moment, Olive stood there with tears on her face.

Even if she didn't believe it, she had nothing to say when Senior Mrs. Jones said so firmly.

"Miss Miller, forced love won't work out. I believe you will understand!" Senior Mrs. Jones looked at her and said gently. Others could not figure out what she was thinking.

In the end, Olive didn't say anything. She just glanced at Senior Mrs. Jones and ran out crying.

Hearing the door closed, Senior Mrs. Jones breathed a sigh of relief.

Olive's tears did not soften her. the Joneses could not tolerate unscrupulous and ruthless people.

At this moment, Abigail looked at Senior Mrs. Jones, "Grandma, you took advantage of me again today!"

Chapter 348

Hearing Abigail's words, Senior Mrs. Jones smiled. "Although I used you for leverage, this is also my real thought!" Senior Mrs. Jones treated Olive and Abigail differently.

Abigail was speechless, turning her eyes to Liam.

The man was lying there, looking relaxed. Though injured, he was still handsome.

He remained silent as if he acquiesced to Senior Mrs. Jones's words.

"Grandma, the joke is not funny!" Abigail said with a smile.

Knowing that Abigail was easy to be shy, Senior Mrs. Jones stopped the topic. Instead, she walked over and looked at Abigail.

"Come on, let me check your face. How is it? Are you pained?"

"Fine, there's nothing serious!" "This woman is really vicious!" Speaking of Olive, Senior Mrs. Jones was annoyed.

Abigail thought for a moment and smiled. "It's OK, I'm really fine!"

"Your bark is worse than your bite!" Senior Mrs. Jones finished.

Abigail smiled. "Well, grandma, Mrs. Jones, you guys talk first. I'll return later!" Abigail said.

"Okay!"

Senior Mrs. Jones nodded.

Then, Abigail went out.

Watching Abigail go out, Senior Mrs. Jones stepped closer and sat beside Liam's bed.

"Liam, there's something I haven't said, but I'm sure you know it!" Senior Mrs. Jones said baldly.

Half lying, the man nodded in agreement. "Grandma, don't worry. I'll cope with it!"

Senior Mrs. Jones smiled and leaned over. "In that case, let's get Abigail back early so that she can accompany me..."

Looking at Senior Mrs. Jones's varying moods, Liam didn't know how to reply.

The news about the accident that happened to Liam and Abigail yesterday had been quickly spreading.

Frank had kidnapped and escaped the last time. After he committed the attempted murder this time, a warrant was issued.

Not long after Abigail left, Stephen and Laura arrived.

Seeing Abigail, they were worried.

"Abigail, I heard you..." Before Laura could finish her sentence, Abigail interrupted her.

"Mom, I'm fine!" Abigail comforted her.

"But I read the news that it was a close shave. What happened?" Laura and Stephen asked worriedly.

Having no choice, Abigail explained what had happened to her parents.

"That's what happened!" Abigail said, but she didn't tell her parents Frank's words. Abigail would not talk about ungrounded matters. Moreover, she did not want them to worry about her.

Stephen and Laura were frightened, but hearing that it was Liam who had saved Abigail, they had mixed feelings.

Liam had saved Abigail the last time and helped her with the matter of reporters, now...

So, what was going on?

“Abigail, tell mom, you and Liam... Are you two reconciled again?” Laura eyed her and asked.

“No, mom, don’t misunderstand us!”

“Really?”

Abigail nodded firm. “Really!”

Chapter 349

Hearing Abigail’s words, Stephen and Laura had nothing else to say and had to respect her choice.

At this moment, Leo rushed over.

When they saw Leo, Stephen and Laura paused. Laura said, "You guys talk first. I'll go in with your father to see Liam!" Abigail nodded, so Stephen and Laura walked out.

When he saw Stephen and Laura, Leo greeted them gentlemanly.

Laura liked Leo a lot, but she knew that it all depended on Abigail's choice.

After they walked out, Abigail looked at Leo and smiled. "Hi, Leo!"

Seeing that Abigail was fine, Leo breathed a sigh of relief and walked over slowly. "Are you okay?"

Abigail nodded. "Yes, I am fine!"

"That's good..." Leo said, but his tone was meaningful and full of displeasure.

"What's wrong?" Abigail asked.

Then, Leo looked up at Abigail and smiled bitterly. "I was wondering why I wasn't by your side every time something happened to you!"

Abigail paused and looked at Leo.

"Is it destined?" Leo asked, feeling like he was about to lose her.

No.

He had never had her, but now he felt that Abigail was further away from him.

After hearing Leo's words, Abigail pretended to be relaxed and smiled. "Do you want me to have more troubles?"

"That's not what I meant!" Leo explained. Although it was just a sentence, it was forceful.

Abigail smiled. "Easy, I was kidding!"

"What about you..." Leo suddenly looked at her and asked in a low voice.

"What?"

"You and Liam..." Leo didn't know what to say.

As soon as Leo finished speaking, Abigail remembered what happened yesterday. At that moment, Liam held her hand tightly though he was about to faint because he knew that she would be afraid to be alone...

Thinking of this, Abigail did not dare to think about it anymore.

She calmed herself down and looked at Leo. "He saved me!"

"Then you..." At this point, even Leo felt that there was something wrong with his words. "How is he? How's his injury?" "He's seriously injured!" Abigail told the truth.

Leo knew very well that the more seriously Liam was injured, the more Abigail would care about him.

“How I envy his injuries! how I envy him lying on the hospital bed now...” Leo smiled bitterly. At this moment, he envied Liam so much.

Leo would rather be the one who was hurt.

If it were him, Leo could do the same thing and save Abigail, but every time something happened to Abigail, he wasn't around...

Hearing Leo's words, Abigail smiled. “Why? You're envious of getting injured!”

“What I envy is that he got injured and lay in the hospital for you!” Leo said softly. His voice was not loud and his tone was not heavy, but every word could be heard clearly by Abigail.

Chapter 350

Abigail was surprised and looked at Leo in a daze.

“Leo...”

Leo smiled and asked, “If it were me, would you be worried?”

“Even if it wasn't for me, I would be worried if you were hurt!” Abigail said firmly.

“But the feelings might be different, right?”

“They are the same!” Abigail said with certainty.

"I admit, I was touched that Liam saved me, but it's not love. I won't fall in love with him because of this. I'm grateful for him. If you get hurt, I'll be worried too!"

"Really? Are you serious?" Leo asked.

Abigail nodded.

"Can I ask you a question?"

"What?"

"How would you feel if Liam died because of saving you?" Leo asked.

Abigail froze.

However, she suddenly remembered the feeling when they had rolled down and Liam had been faint. At that moment, she had been scared and flustered!

She feared to live in a world without Liam!

"Are you scared? Afraid that you won't see him in this world?" Leo looked at her and asked.

Stupified, Abigail blinked and looked at him.

She didn't answer, but Leo understood her feeling.

"Maybe you haven't realized that you're dependent on him, which means you love him!" Abigail looked at Leo in disbelief, blinking silently!

He was right.

So she loved Liam?

Abigail remained silent, and Leo smiled and said. "You know what? This is my feeling now!" Abigail looked up at him and said, in a daze, "Leo..."

"That was how I felt when you were in danger, so I understand your feeling..." Leo said.

Abigail just looked at him in silence.

Was he confessing to her?

"Now you know why I envy him!" Leo put on a rueful smile. "If I were there, I would do the same thing as Liam, but I didn't even have such a chance!"

"Leo, don't!" Abigail had no idea about her feelings at this moment. It happened so suddenly.

She was unprepared.

Leo smiled. "What? Do you feel stressed?"

"No, I just..."

"No matter what, I won't give up!" Leo said, looking straight at Abigail with determination.

He would never give up.

"I'll make up for what I owe you, Abigail. I hope you can give me a chance before you make a decision!" Leo said.

Abigail blinked, realizing that Leo was different today.

“Is that okay?” Leo asked.

Somehow, Abigail nodded.

Then they talked for a while. Leo was talking for most of the time, while she was listening.

Abigail was a bit shocked because she had never expected Leo to say such words.
