Her Wicked Ceo (Abigail and Liam)

Chapter 351

After Leo left, Abigail came back to her senses.

She summarized in her head what Leo had said.

First, he said she relied on Liam.

Second, he wanted her to give him a fair chance.

Abigail rubbed her forehead.

"Abigail, you are so stupid!" She shouted inside.

She had been not able to say anything at that time.

When Abigail came out of the ward, she saw Olive right in front of her.

"We need to talk," she said.

Abigail didn't feel like talking with her. They thought in totally different ways. So Abigail refused, "I don't see the need for that." Abigail's arrogant look vexed Olive. She strode towards Abigail and pushed her wheelchair forward.

Abigail frowned. "What are you doing?"

"I said, we need to talk!"

"And I said I don't see the need for that!" Abigail said.

Regardless of her objections, Olive pushed Abigail away.

Abigail was not scared because Olive took her away in public. Olive must be aware of the consequences if anything happened to her.

Abigail wondered where Olive would take her and it turned out that Olive took her to the rooftop of the hospital.

As soon as they arrived, Abigail said, "Olive, do you know that taking someone away against their will is considered as kidnapping? You've done a lot of similar things before!" Abigail glared at Olive.

There was no one on the rooftop. Abigail could enjoy the comfortable wind if Olive was not present.

"Abigail, don't throw mud at me. I won't be fooled by you!" Olive snapped.

Hearing her words, Abigail smiled. "Is that what you think I did, threw mud at you? Come on, your hands are dirty already." Abigail sat in a wheelchair and looked unruffled, which made Olive hit the ceiling.

Olive fought back her fury and ran her fingers through her hair. "I'm not here to talk to you about that."

"Then what do you want to talk about?" Abigail cocked an eyebrow. She looked up at Olive. Although she was sitting ina wheelchair, her position didn't put her at a disadvantage.

"Abigail, you should know that all I said and did to you were all for Liam. As long as you leave him, I can give you anything you want."

'Here goes the same topic again…'

Abigail was fed up with it.

Olive had offered her millions of dollars last time.

Now Olive said she could give Abigail anything she asked.

This was quite interesting.

"Olive, can find a new topic the next time you come to talk with me? I'm tired of hearing you talk about it," Abigail said.

"Then just leave Liam. Once you leave him, I'll stop nagging."

"I told you before, no one is competing with you for him!"

"But Senior Mrs. Jones said you two are inseparable and you're going to remarry him. Don't you feel ashamed to get between us?"

Abigail looked like she was itching to push Abigail down the building.

Chapter 352

"That's what Senior Mrs. Jones said, not me!" Abigail said.

She knew that if Senior Mrs. Jones said that, Olive would definitely trouble her.

She was the one to be blamed once again.

"But you're really going to remarry, aren't you?" Olive asked word by word.

At this moment, when Olive saw the bracelet Abigail was wearing on the hand, she frowned. She walked over and grabbed Abigail's hand.

"Olive, what are you doing?" Abigail was disgusted by her sudden action, but Olive did not let go. Instead, she looked straight at Abigail with a sneer.

"Where did you get this bracelet?" Olive asked.

Looking at her, Abigail frowned, "Do I need to tell you?"

"Abigail, you keep saying that you have nothing to do with Liam, but you secretly make up with him!"

"Watch your mouth!"

"Isn't it? If not, how could this be on your hand? Otherwise, Senior Mrs. Jones won't announce your remarriage!" Olive said.

Abigail frowned. Olive's words meant more than what she said.

Looking at the bracelet, she frowned.

"What do you mean?"

Olive sneered, her beautiful face twisted a little, "Don't tell me. You don't know that this is the heirloom jade of the Joneses. They will only pass it on to the next generation's daughter-in-law!"

Hearing this, Abigail was shocked.

She really didn't expect that.

That was not what Senior Mrs. Jones said when she gave it to her.

Thinking of this, Abigail turned to look at her, "How did you know?"

"Because I've seen it before!" Olive said.

She thought the bracelet belonged to her, but she didn't expect it to be worn by Abigail.

"Abigail, don't act stupid. You don't know? You've been married before. Don't you really know? Do you really think I'm a fool?" Olive looked at Abigail and said word by word.

She really wanted to take the bracelet off her hand.

If it wasn't for Olive's words, Abigail really didn't know.

Even though they had been married before, she had never seen the bracelet at all.

Seeing that Abigail didn't say anything, Olive sneered, "This is the best evidence. Abigail, you date Liam, but now you're lying to me that you don't like him. Abigail, stop playing the fool!"

Hearing Olive's words, Abigail looked up. She knew that no matter how much she said now, in Olive's opinion, it was all an excuse.

But at this moment, Olive looked at Abigail with hatred in her eyes, and her beautiful face twisted...

"Abigail, I hate you..."

[On the other side.]

After Stephen and Laura came out, they couldn't find Abigail.

Hearing the news, Senior Mrs. Jones and Liam were also shocked.

"How did she disappear in broad daylight?" Senior Mrs. Jones asked.

They all had one thought in mind.

Before Frank was caught, Abigail would be in danger at any time, but no one dared to say that.

Abigail and Liam just escaped death. How could they…

Liam's face turned gloomy. When he heard that Abigail was missing, he pulled out the syringe and walked out without saying a word.

Chapter 353

Senior Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Jones looked at him with fear. "Liam, your wound is not healed yet. You can't move…" However, Liam had rushed out.

Senior Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Jones exchanged glances and chased out.

Stephen and Laura were shocked that Liam cared about Abigail so much. For a moment, they didn't know what to say.

So, without saying anything, they quickly went out to look for Abigail!

They went outside.

They had looked for Abigail everywhere, but they failed.

Thinking that Frank had not been caught and Abigail was still in danger, Liam felt his heart tighten.

They decided to go separate ways to look for her.

Liam took out his phone and called Abigail, but her phone was turned off.

Liam stopped a passerby and asked, "Have you seen a woman in a wheelchair? She is beautiful, with a cast on her leg!"

The person happened to be a nurse. She thought for a moment and suddenly realized. "She has long hair?"

Liam nodded. "Yes!"

"I saw a woman come over and push her away. She seemed reluctant, but I didn't see them arguing!" A woman?

Liam frowned and asked nervously, "Do you know where they have gone?"

"They went into the elevator, but I have no idea where they have gone!" The nurse answered.

Liam was dumbfounded.

As he did not ask any more questions, the nurse left.

A woman!

A woman had pushed Abigail away!

Who could it be?

Olive!

That was the only name that popped up in his mind!

He immediately took out his phone and called Olive.

Olive was sitting in the car now, looking embarrassed. Seeing that it was Liam's call, she hesitated for a long time.

The phone rang, and in the end, she answered it.

"Hello…"

"Olive, where are you now?"

"I'm… on my way back. What's wrong?" Olive asked.

"Where's Abigail? Where is she?" Liam cut to the chase.

"IL… I don't know!"

"You don't know?" Liam became more anxious. "Olive, I said that I hate people lying to me the most. Someone saw that a woman had pushed her away. Tell me, where is she now?!" Liam shouted.

Olive was stupified.

She did not expect that Liam would yell at her for a woman!

It was a little ridiculous.

"Liam, it seems that you have fallen in love with her…" Olive said slowly.

"Tell me, where the hell is she!" Liam couldn't wait to see Abigail.

"I killed her!"

"What did you say!"

"I said, I killed her, and you will never see her again!" After that, Olive hung up the phone.

Recalling Liam's tone, she slammed her phone down!

Then she screamed!

Why? Why did things turn out like this!

Thinking of this, she started the car engine in anger, stepped on the accelerator, and drove away!

Chapter 353

Senior Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Jones looked at him with fear. "Liam, your wound is not healed yet. You can't move…" However, Liam had rushed out.

Senior Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Jones exchanged glances and chased out.

Stephen and Laura were shocked that Liam cared about Abigail so much. For a moment, they didn't know what to say.

So, without saying anything, they quickly went out to look for Abigail!

They went outside.

They had looked for Abigail everywhere, but they failed.

Thinking that Frank had not been caught and Abigail was still in danger, Liam felt his heart tighten.

They decided to go separate ways to look for her.

Liam took out his phone and called Abigail, but her phone was turned off.

Liam stopped a passerby and asked, "Have you seen a woman in a wheelchair? She is beautiful, with a cast on her leg!"

The person happened to be a nurse. She thought for a moment and suddenly realized. "She has long hair?"

Liam nodded. "Yes!"

"I saw a woman come over and push her away. She seemed reluctant, but I didn't see them arguing!" A woman?

Liam frowned and asked nervously, "Do you know where they have gone?"

"They went into the elevator, but I have no idea where they have gone!" The nurse answered.

Liam was dumbfounded.

As he did not ask any more questions, the nurse left.

A woman!

A woman had pushed Abigail away!

Who could it be?

Olive!

That was the only name that popped up in his mind!

He immediately took out his phone and called Olive.

Olive was sitting in the car now, looking embarrassed. Seeing that it was Liam's call, she hesitated for a long time.

The phone rang, and in the end, she answered it.

"Hello…"

"Olive, where are you now?"

"I'm… on my way back. What's wrong?" Olive asked.

"Where's Abigail? Where is she?" Liam cut to the chase.

"IL… I don't know!"

"You don't know?" Liam became more anxious. "Olive, I said that I hate people lying to me the most. Someone saw that a woman had pushed her away. Tell me, where is she now?!" Liam shouted.

Olive was stupified.

She did not expect that Liam would yell at her for a woman!

It was a little ridiculous.

"Liam, it seems that you have fallen in love with her…" Olive said slowly.

"Tell me, where the hell is she!" Liam couldn't wait to see Abigail.

"I killed her!"

"What did you say!"

"I said, I killed her, and you will never see her again!" After that, Olive hung up the phone.

Recalling Liam's tone, she slammed her phone down!

Then she screamed!

Why? Why did things turn out like this!

Thinking of this, she started the car engine in anger, stepped on the accelerator, and drove away!

Chapter 354

Liam looked at his phone and recalled what Olive had just said. He had no idea if it was true or not, but he felt unspeakable fear! He called Olive back, but her phone was turned off.

"Darn it!" Liam cursed in a low voice, anxious.

He was considering what Olive just said.

He didn't dare to imagine what would happen!

Then a nurse said, "I saw a woman wheeled another woman onto the rooftop. I have no idea what she is going to do!"

Learning this, Liam was shocked. Without hesitation, he punched the elevator button on the top floor. His worried look confused the two female nurses in the elevator.

"Sir, you…" "Shut up!" Liam shouted indifferently, so the two nurses shut up.

At first, the two nurses admired Liam handsome, but now that they were treated in this way, they were not in the mood to appreciate him at all.

The elevator moved up layer by layer, but Liam wished he could instantly go straight up and stand on the top floor. He never felt his heart had been tortured like this!

"Abigail, be safe!"

"Don't get into trouble!"

He didn't want any peril to happen to her when he had just saved her!

He didn't know how many times he had shouted and prayed in his heart. As the elevator opened, Liam rushed out.

The two nurses inside had no idea what was going on. They felt puzzled, then pressed the elevator button and went down.

[On the rooftop]

Abigail sat in a wheelchair with her eyes closed. The breeze swayed her hair.

When Liam rushed over, he saw such a scene.

He paused.

He stared at Abigail from afar. She had her back to him, exactly, only showing him half of her face.

Seeing her sitting so quietly, Liam had an indescribable feeling.

He moved forward slowly, spending a lot of time in each step.

At this moment, Abigail heard him. She turned around and frowned when she caught sight of Liam. Then she smiled, "Why are you here?"

Liam halted for a second. Then he ran straight over, lifted Abigail from the wheelchair and took her into his arms.

"You…"

Abigail was a little unsteady and leaned on Liam to barely stand.

"Keep quiet!" Liam said in a low voice, as if he had been overwhelmed by a lot of emotions.

Abigail had no idea what he meant. However, She didn't say anything, nor did she push him away. She just let him hold her.

Being hugged so tightly, somehow she felt safe!

She was very touched!

Especially when she saw his expression just now, she was indescribably moved!

Finally, after a long time, Abigail had no choice but said, "Liam, I can't stand for long. My feet are numb!" Hearing what Abigail had said, Liam came back to his sense and let go of her.

Abigail sat back in the wheelchair, then remembered something and fixed her eyes on Liam. "What's wrong with you?" But Liam's eyes drifted around her and he asked, "How is it going? Are you hurt?"

Abigail shook her head and said, "I'm fine. I'm fine…" As she spoke, she looked at Liam. "You know I'm up?" Liam nodded.

"Someone saw you coming up… I had called Olive and she said…"

"What did she say?" Abigail stared at him and asked.

"She said she would kill you!"

Abigail was lost for words.

Liam lowered his head and said, "Fortunately, you're fine!" He was finally relieved!

Chapter 354

Liam looked at his phone and recalled what Olive had just said. He had no idea if it was true or not, but he felt unspeakable fear! He called Olive back, but her phone was turned off.

"Darn it!" Liam cursed in a low voice, anxious.

He was considering what Olive just said.

He didn't dare to imagine what would happen!

Then a nurse said, "I saw a woman wheeled another woman onto the rooftop. I have no idea what she is going to do!"

Learning this, Liam was shocked. Without hesitation, he punched the elevator button on the top floor. His worried look confused the two female nurses in the elevator.

"Sir, you…" "Shut up!" Liam shouted indifferently, so the two nurses shut up.

At first, the two nurses admired Liam handsome, but now that they were treated in this way, they were not in the mood to appreciate him at all.

The elevator moved up layer by layer, but Liam wished he could instantly go straight up and stand on the top floor. He never felt his heart had been tortured like this!

"Abigail, be safe!"

"Don't get into trouble!"

He didn't want any peril to happen to her when he had just saved her!

He didn't know how many times he had shouted and prayed in his heart. As the elevator opened, Liam rushed out.

The two nurses inside had no idea what was going on. They felt puzzled, then pressed the elevator button and went down.

[On the rooftop]

Abigail sat in a wheelchair with her eyes closed. The breeze swayed her hair.

When Liam rushed over, he saw such a scene.

He paused.

He stared at Abigail from afar. She had her back to him, exactly, only showing him half of her face.

Seeing her sitting so quietly, Liam had an indescribable feeling.

He moved forward slowly, spending a lot of time in each step.

At this moment, Abigail heard him. She turned around and frowned when she caught sight of Liam. Then she smiled, "Why are you here?"

Liam halted for a second. Then he ran straight over, lifted Abigail from the wheelchair and took her into his arms.

"You…"

Abigail was a little unsteady and leaned on Liam to barely stand.

"Keep quiet!" Liam said in a low voice, as if he had been overwhelmed by a lot of emotions.

Abigail had no idea what he meant. However, She didn't say anything, nor did she push him away. She just let him hold her.

Being hugged so tightly, somehow she felt safe!

She was very touched!

Especially when she saw his expression just now, she was indescribably moved!

Finally, after a long time, Abigail had no choice but said, "Liam, I can't stand for long. My feet are numb!" Hearing what Abigail had said, Liam came back to his sense and let go of her.

Abigail sat back in the wheelchair, then remembered something and fixed her eyes on Liam. "What's wrong with you?" But Liam's eyes drifted around her and he asked, "How is it going? Are you hurt?"

Abigail shook her head and said, "I'm fine. I'm fine…" As she spoke, she looked at Liam. "You know I'm up?" Liam nodded.

"Someone saw you coming up… I had called Olive and she said…"

"What did she say?" Abigail stared at him and asked.

"She said she would kill you!"

Abigail was lost for words.

Liam lowered his head and said, "Fortunately, you're fine!" He was finally relieved!

Chapter 355

For some reason, when Abigail knew the reason why Liam was worried, she didn't know what to say for a moment.

"I'm fine. Olive wheeled me here and told me something!" Abigail said.

Liam nodded, looking into her eyes, "Don't worry. Olive won't hurt you again!"

Abigail didn't understand what Liam meant, but she nodded.

"More importantly, remember to bring your phone wherever you go!" Liam ordered.

Abigail nodded again.

Abigail and Liam looked at each other, surrounded by a peaceful atmosphere.

At this moment, Abigail suddenly recalled something. She asked out of curiosity, "Why do you come out like this?" "We heard you were missing. Everyone was worried, so we came out!" Liam answered.

"I didn't expect that I would lose my phone. I haven't found it yet. Let's go downstairs. I don't want to make them worry so much!" Abigail suggested.

Liam gave a nod of assent.

With that said, they went downstairs.

Senior Mrs. Jones was relieved to see Abigail and Liam together.

"I'm sorry for making you worry!" Abigail apologized.

"It's okay. As long as you're fine, we'll be relieved!" Senior Mrs. Jones comforted her. She was nice to Abigail.

Stephen and Laura looked at Abigail and asked, "Why did you come to the top floor?"

".

Abigail didn't want to tell the truth because she didn't want to make them worry too much.

"A nurse said that someone wheeled you out. Who?" Laura asked.

Abigail didn't answer.

Unexpectedly, someone told Laura!

"Mom, a friend of mine came to see me!" Abigail stalled her mother off with an evasive answer.

"Why did you talk on the top floor?" Laura asked. Abigail was a terrible liar, so her mother knew something must have happened.

"Because it's empty." With that said, Abigail realized this reason was far-fetched.

When Laura was about to ask more questions, Senior Mrs. Jones said timely, "The most important thing is that Abigail is fine.

Abigail, no matter what happens in the future, you should let us know as quickly as possible!"

Hearing Senior Mrs. Jones's words, Abigail nodded, "I see!"

Abigail felt guilty, looking at Stephen and Laura, "Dad, mom, I'm sorry for making you worry!" Her parents sighed, comforting her, "It doesn't matter. Be careful next time!"

Abigail nodded.

After sharing some confidences with Abigail for a while, Stephen and Olive left.

After they left, Senior Mrs. Jones looked at Abigail and went straight to the point, "Abigail, tell me the truth. Olive wheeled you out, right?"

Abigail suddenly felt that although Senior Mrs. Jones was old, she was smart.

Nobody could hide anything from her.

Finally, Abigail inclined her head and said, "Yes."

Hearing this, Senior Mrs. Jones snorted, "She's adept at scheming!" Then she looked at Abigail. "How are you? Did she harm you?"

Abigail shook her head, "No!"

"Thank God. It's my fault. It's because of my harsh words. Otherwise, she wouldn't have done that to you!" Senior Mrs. Jones felt extremely guilty.

Chapter 356

"Grandma, don't say that. In fact, even if you didn't say those words, she had long regarded me as an enemy. From the first time she saw me, she had always been like this!" What Abigail say comforted her.

Here was what Senior Mrs. Jones said.

"Well, she's jealous that you're so outstanding and beautiful!" Hearing her words, Abigail couldn't help but chuckle.

Increasingly she found that the old lady amusing!

It was not until late afternoon that Senior Mrs. Jones left with Mrs. Jones. "Abigail, please take good care of Liam while I'm not here!"

Abigail nodded. "Grandma, don't worry. I will. After all, he saved me!"

Hearing this, Senior Mrs. Jones was relieved. Then she looked at Liam and said, "When I'm not present, you must protect Abigail!"

Liam was speechless.

Originally, he was taking pleasure in what Senior Mrs. Jones said to Abigail, but when he heard this, Liam replied, "Don't worry, grandma. Even if I sleep, I won't let her be out of my sight…"

It was Abigail who turned speechless this time.

Senior Mrs. Jones was also surprised.

It…

It was too easy to cause misunderstanding!

However, Senior Mrs. Jones smiled and nodded, "Okay, okay, you take care of each other. I am leaving now!" Liam smiled and nodded.

Thus, Senior Mrs. Jones left with a meaningful look at Liam and Abigail.

"Mom, grandma, be careful on the road!" Liam said behind them.

Then they left.

As soon as they left, Abigail rolled her eyes to Liam.

"Mr. Jones, mind your words." Abigail looked at him and said.

"I did. What's wrong with what I said?" Liam asked.

"What do you mean even sleeping, you won't let me out of your sight. People would misunderstand!" Abigail said.

Speaking of this, Liam smiled, "Miss Swift, are you thinking too much? I'm telling the truth, okay?"

"What's the truth?"

At night, Abigail found out that they had been moved to the same ward.

Abigail was unpleasant. "Um, Liam, what are you doing?" So she really realized that promise.

"What's wrong?"

"A man and a woman in the same room, I don't think it's a good idea," Abigail looked at Liam and said. As long as she thought of being here with Liam at night, she felt that she must not be able to sleep!

Hearing Abigail's words, Liam smiled, "Miss Swift, you think too much. Do you think I'll do something to you?" Liam looked at her and asked.

Looking at his dark and bright eyes, Abigail was speechless for a moment.

"It's just that I don't think it's convenient!"

"In the same ward, it's convenient for you to take care of me. And it's convenient for me to protect you. What's wrong with that?" Liam asked.

Anyway, everything, sensible or not, in Liam's opinion, became logical and reasonable.

"But there's no need to be in the same ward!" Abigail said. It was weird to be in the same room with Liam anyway.

Hearing this, Liam frowned and looked at her unhappily. "Are you so unwilling to stay in the same room with me?"

Chapter 357

"It's not that I don't want to…"

Then, Liam got out of bed decisively and leaned over to Abigail. "Or you think I would do something bad to you, so you're afraid?" Liam raised his eyebrows and asked.

"I just think it's inconvenient!"

"Do you know how many people are in the same ward outside, regardless of their gender and age? What is the inconvenience?" Liam asked back.

Abigail was speechless.

What he said was true. But more people in the same ward made more sense in the hospital, unlike them, who were in one ward, which would be really embarrassing.

But now, Liam's words and expression in his eyes made Abigail speechless.

At this moment, Abigail looked at Liam and used a finger to push him away from her, "Mr. Jones, I agree, ok?" A smile touched Liam's lips as he said, "Very good."

Then Abigail said, "Mr. Jones, the company should reimburse for these expenses, right?"

As soon as she finished speaking, Liam rolled his eyes.

What a money-minded woman!

[On the other side.]

Olive went straight to the bar.

At the bar, she sat there again and was drunk heavily.

There was nothing in her mind except what Senior Mrs. Jones had said to her!

She just wanted to be with Liam, with the person she liked. Why did Senior Mrs. Jones do this to her? Was that Abigail really good?

What on earth couldn't she compare to that woman?

Why did everyone defend her?

Even the toughest Senior Mrs. Jones liked her!

Thinking of this, Olive kept drinking at the bar. Her eyes were brimming with tears, but she tried her best to hold back.

Now, even Liam paid all attention to her! Why!

Why was this happening?

Her heart was filled with hatred!

Why did he do this to her!

Olive kept drinking.

People coming here were those who were disappointed in love, those who got problems at work, or those who needed to be indulged.

After all, Olive was an elegant rich lady with good looks. Now that she was at the bar without any company, she naturally became the target of men in the bar.

At this moment, many men went to chat up.

"Hi Miss, are you interested in having a drink together?" A man leaned over and looked at Olive.

Olive was drinking and was in a bad mood. When she saw him, she said coldly, "Get out!"

The man's face darkened and he muttered, "How pure do you think you are!"

Then he left.

Even so, Olive was still their first target in the bar.

Many people still wanted to go and try.

At that time, a few people in the corner gathered and whispered. Finally, one stood up and walked straight towards Olive.

Others looked at him from behind, waiting to see how he would invite Olive.

The man walked over and looked at Olive. "Do you wanna have fun together?" the man also asked directly.

Hearing this, Olive sneered, "Another one who's bold enough!"

As she spoke, she turned to the man, "I'm not interested. I'm in a bad mood now. Stay away from me!"

Hearing Olive's words, the man curled his lips and said, "I didn't expect that you are such a hot-tempered woman!"

Chapter 358

"If you don't go away, I'll let you regret it!" Olive looked at him and said word by word.

Perhaps it was the effect of alcohol, or perhaps because she was used to being arrogant, Olive was not aware of the danger at all.

The next second, the man leaned over and hugged Olive. He was a head taller than her.

The man was plain-looking, but he looked like a thug.

"I like hot girls!" The man looked at Olive and said. It was obvious that he made up his mind to get her!

Olive frowned and looked at him. "Let me go!" She struggled, but the man hugged her so tightly that she couldn't break free.

"Let me go!"

"Since you're here to get drunk, why don't you indulge yourself? I'll make you happy!" The man said with a wicked smile.

Judging from his disgusting look, Olive found that he couldn't compare with Liam at all.

Whether their appearance or temperament, he was no where close to Liam.

Actually, comparing them together was an insult to Liam.

Olive smiled sarcastically and raised her eyebrows. She looked at the man lazily and asked, "You want to hit on me?" The man raised his eyebrows and said, "Of course!" He was not shy at all.

Olive sneered and picked up a bottle of beer on the bar, pouring it directly on the man.

"If you want to hook up with me, look into the mirror first. It's the first time I've seen such an ugly man like you!" As she spoke, she poured the whole glass of beer directly on him.

The man suddenly changed his expression and looked so angry. Olive was insulting him!

"What did you say?" The man asked coldly.

"Didn't I make myself clear? You're not qualified!" As she spoke, Olive broke free from him.

The next second, the man couldn't help but slap Olive.

For the first time, a woman insulted him like this!

"Bitch, you are not better than me. Don't play the innocent in a bar," the man said fiercely.

Olive drank a lot of wine and the man's slap made her dizzy. When she came back to her senses, she looked at him in disbelief and shouted, "How dare you slap me? Do you know who I am?"

No one had ever dared to beat her since childhood!

"I don't care who you are. I'm in charge here. You'd better mind your words!" The man looked at her and warned word by word.

Hearing this, Olive was dissatisfied and suddenly picked up the bottle on the bar. "Do you think you can threaten me?"

As she spoke, she somehow became brave and was about to throw the bottle at the man.

But the man didn't care about her at all.

Just as they were about to fight, the next second, someone suddenly grabbed the man's hand, and Olive also threw the bottle on him.

"Ah…" the man screamed.

Hearing the noise, everyone around them was shocked. They all stepped back and tried to figure out what happened.

A few people sitting in the corner rushed over after seeing this scene. The bar was in a mess. Olive didn't know what was going on, and who this suddenly-appeared man was!

Before she could say anything, the next second, the man pulled Olive up and ran towards the door.
Chapter 359More Crazy 6

Chapter 359

Suddenly, someone stopped them. The man pounced upon them and kicked him over. Several people came at him, but the men kicked them all.

However, though he was good at fighting, he was outnumbered. He knew this, so he did a quick fight. Dumbfounded, Olive watched the man knock them down in front of her.

She found his movements familiar, but she couldn't remember when she had seen this.

While she was still thinking, the man, after knocking all of those down, held her hand again and ran out.
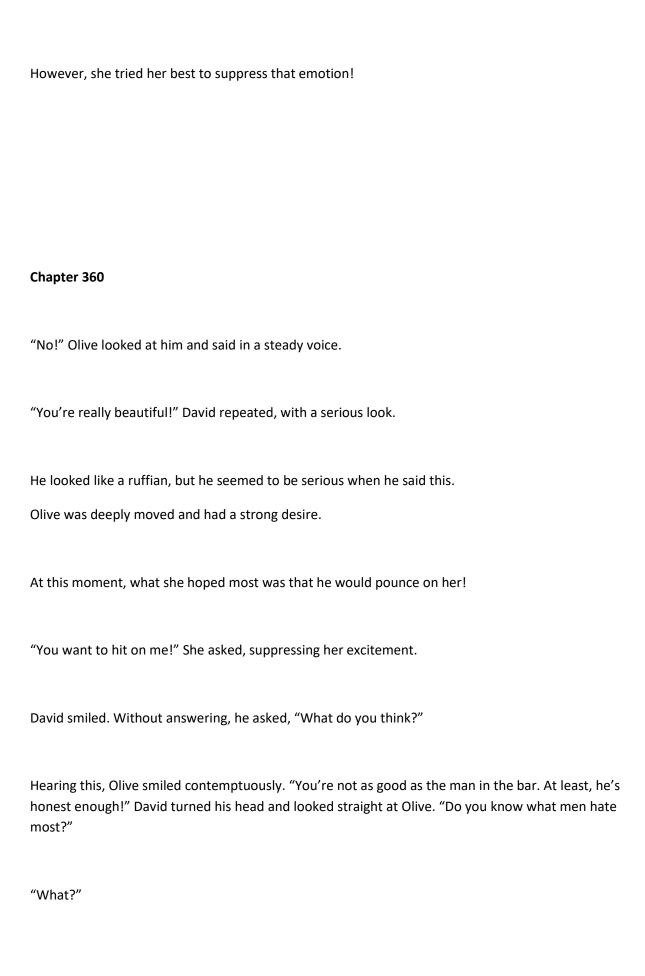

"Which one is your car?" The man looked at Olive and asked, his face handsome, with a wild streak.

Olive pointed to the white one. They ran over, got in the car, started the car, and left.

When the people caught up, they had been far away.

However, the man did not relax his vigilance at all. Through the rearview mirror, he saw those people stand rooted to the spot, and a faint smile spread across his face.

Olive was in the passenger seat and looked behind. "They didn't catch up!"

But that was really exciting!

"How dare you fight alone in there!" the man said.

Olive smiled. In fact, she didn't know why she was so bold.

Looking at her smile and her flushed face because of drinking, the man smiled and floored the throttle.

A while later, the car stopped.

They were by the sea now.

Olive looked outside and then at the man. "Why did you bring me here?"

"It's the only place that popped into my mind. It's quiet here with few people!" the man said.

Olive turned to look at him. After thinking for a long time, she exclaimed, "It's you!"

The man smiled. "You remember me?"

Olive looked at him. This was the man she had met at the bar last time. She didn't even know his name.

"I thought you would call me!" the man said.

"You are being too superior!"

The man smiled. "My name is David!"

"David!" Olive said it. "Nice name!"

David didn't mind this. It seemed that he was fine with everything she said.

"How dare you fight in a bar? Do you know what will happen?" David looked at her and asked.

Olive raised her eyebrows. "Do you know what would happen if you saved me in the bar and fought with those people?" Olive asked.

She sounded arrogant and provocative.

David looked at her, his eyes shining with a smile.

Olive also turned to look at him. Their eyes met, and indescribable feelings took hold of them.

"Has anyone ever said that you look especially beautiful and charming after drinking?" David asked.

Olive usually would be shy and blush when she heard this, but at this moment, under the influence of alcohol, she felt excited, aroused, and an unknown emotion!

She wanted to be crazier!

However, she tried her best to suppress that emotion!

Chapter 360

"No!" Olive looked at him and said in a steady voice.

"You're really beautiful!" David repeated, with a serious look.

He looked like a ruffian, but he seemed to be serious when he said this.

Olive was deeply moved and had a strong desire.

At this moment, what she hoped most was that he would pounce on her!

"You want to hit on me!" She asked, suppressing her excitement.

David smiled. Without answering, he asked, "What do you think?"

Hearing this, Olive smiled contemptuously. "You're not as good as the man in the bar. At least, he's honest enough!" David turned his head and looked straight at Olive. "Do you know what men hate most?"

"What?"

"Being told that he's worse than another man!" David said slowly for emphasis. His eyes narrowed and he looked charming.

Olive also smiled. "I'm just telling the truth!"

Hearing this, David suddenly turned and got closer to her.

The car was compact, but it did not affect David's action.

"Then do you want to hear that I want to hit on you and sleep with you?" David looked into her eyes and asked. Although it sounded aggressive, it was somehow attractive.

At this moment, Olive was looking forward to an aggressive man!

"What? You don't want to do it!" She raised her eyebrows and asked.

That look was undoubtedly an invitation!

If David did nothing, Olive would probably say that he wasn't a man!

"Yes, I do!" As he spoke, David leaned over and kissed her.