

Her Wicked Ceo (Abigail and Liam)

Chapter 361

However, for a long time, Olive did nothing.

David looked at her. “What’s wrong? Why don’t you continue?”

Olive looked at him with a hesitant look in her eyes. No one knew what she was thinking.

“Nothing!” As she spoke, she let go of him.

Seeing that she was about to give up, David was unhappy and grabbed her arms.

“What? You don’t dare to do it?”

Olive didn’t know what to say.

David moved up the corners of his mouth. “It seems that I have overestimated you!” Olive fumbled for her clothes in the car and put them on.

David slowly put on his clothes.

Olive got out.

David followed her and put his t-shirt on his shoulder. "I'm leaving now!" As he spoke, he turned around to leave.

"Wait a minute!" Olive said.

David didn't look back. "What is it?"

"Where do you live? I'll give you a lift!"

"Thank you, but I'll pass!"

"Wait!" Just as he was about to leave, Olive spoke again.

David stood there without looking back, but there was an unusual expression on his face.

"Don't tell anyone... what happened today!" Olive said, feeling a little embarrassed.

David sneered. Without looking back, he said, "Don't worry. I'm not that gossipy!" After that, he ignored her and left.

Chapter 362

Olive stood behind David and looked at his back. She frowned and felt odd...

'Is he angry?'

She thought.

However, thinking of this, she shook her head. What did his anger have to do with her? They had met only twice!

Thinking of this, she got in the car quickly. She wanted to leave here right now. But before she could drive the car, she saw a phone on the side.

Olive frowned and realized it was David's phone. When she turned around, he had left. After thinking for a while, she finally put his phone into her bag.

Thinking about what happened tonight, Olive indulged in the exciting and freewheeling feeling when she was with David. She almost lost control!

At the thought of it, she quickly drove away, trying to forget everything.

It was in the hospital.

There were only Abigail and Liam in the ward.

Abigail felt quite embarrassed to be in the same room with Liam. She thought it weird. Therefore, before Liam fell asleep, she couldn't sleep. So she sat in bed reading.

As for whether she actually read it or not, she didn't know.

Liam's eyes were fixed on Abigail, motionless.

In the end, Abigail couldn't help but look back. "Liam, why are you staring at me?"

Seeing that she finally looked over, Liam said, "I'm hungry..."

Abigail was speechless for a moment.

Hearing this, Abigail frowned and couldn't help but say, "Liam, put away your nasty thoughts. We're in the hospital!" Abigail looked at him and warned.

Looking at her angry expression, Liam couldn't help but laugh. "Well, don't take me wrong. I said I was hungry. I mean that I want to eat some food. What were you thinking about?"

Abigail was speechless again.

Realizing that she misunderstood him, Abigail blushed. "It's you that didn't say it clear!"

"You thought it wrong!" Liam looked at her and said.

Abigail didn't want to argue with him, so she decided not to say anything.

"Or are you expecting me to do something to you?" Liam suddenly spoke in a playful tone, his black eyes shining brightly at this moment.

Abigail turned around and looked at him with a smile. "No, I was thinking too much, okay?" Then she turned back to continue to read.

Liam was dissatisfied with Abigail's eyes moving back to the book.

"Aren't you hungry?" Liam asked. He hated the food in the hospital, so he was still hungry.

"A little!" Abigail said, without raising her head, and concentrated on the book in her hand.

There had been too much going on in the past few days. Apart from the food that Ted had delivered that day, neither of them had eaten much.

Liam smiled naughtily. "Do you want to eat something?"

Speaking of this, Abigail turned to look at him. "Now?"

Liam nodded. "Yes!"

"It's midnight now!"

"So what? Are you really going to be hungry until dawn?" Liam said.

"Then, what else?" Abigail asked.

Chapter 363

Then, Liam picked up his phone and dialed a number, "Please bring me something to eat now."

“Yes, right now!”

“I don’t care. You only have 30 minutes.” As he spoke, Liam hung up the phone.

Abigail knew who he was talking to straightaway. She couldn’t help but say, “It’s too late now. Stop torturing your assistant.” “Today, I didn’t go to work, so he had rested the whole day. Why can’t I order him?” Liam said.

Abigail tended to avoid arguing with him, as Liam always had many reasons. She just nodded and didn’t say anything.

Half an hour later, someone knocked on the door.

“Come in!”

With a creak, the door was slowly pushed open.

Dan slowly walked in.

“Mr. Jones!” He greeted him, but when she saw that Abigail was also there, he immediately greeted her awkwardly, “Miss Swift!”

Fortunately, he knocked on the door. Or if he spoiled their moods, Liam might fire him.

Abigail sat there and nodded at Dan. In fact, she also felt embarrassed. She thought she shouldn’t be in the same ward with Liam!

“Where’s the stuff?” Liam asked flatly and didn’t feel anything wrong.

“They are still outside. It’s out of the visiting hours. I sneaked in!” Dan said.

Abigail remained silent.

“Get them in!” Liam said.

Then, Dan nodded, walked to the door, waved, and let some people come in.

When Abigail saw this, she was astonished.

She finally understood why Ted did that!

They were friends indeed!

The current situation was not better than that day. Abigail looked at him and couldn’t help but say, “Liam, if we’re kicked out of the hospital, are you going to take accountability for that?”

Hearing Abigail’s words, Liam rolled his eyes at her.

Abigail ignored him directly.

At this moment, a few people walked in, set up all the food, and left.

Dan stood at the door and looked at them, "Mr. Jones, please enjoy your meal. If you need anything, please let me know." Liam nodded.

"By the way, I also ordered a bottle of wine for you. It's over there." Dan said.

"How dare you bring wine to the hospital?" Abigail couldn't help but say.

"I thought that since you need some food, you must also need some drinks. Mr. Jones doesn't drink water. And it's not good to drink tea or coffee at night. So I ordered the wine." Dan replied reasonably.

Liam listened to him and nodded with satisfaction, "You're very thoughtful. You can go now."

"Thank you, Mr. Jones." Dan nodded like a child being praised and turned to leave.

Abigail was dumbfounded.

She couldn't understand their crazy minds.

At this moment, a strange scene appeared.

Liam sat opposite Abigail.

There was a board in between. The food was all over the board, and it was Liam's favorite cuisine, Western food.

There was also wine.

They ate and chatted.

“Hey, are we really not going to be kicked out?” Abigail asked as she ate. If it weren’t for Liam, she couldn’t possibly do such a thing all her life.

Not to mention being hospitalized, she even had food and wine in the hospital.

Besides, it was already late at night.

Hearing Abigail’s words, Liam said, “Miss Swift, let’s talk about something pleasant. We’ve started eating. Stop worrying about being kicked out!”

Chapter 364

It also made sense. Abigail nodded and said, “Well, what should I say?”

Speaking of this, Liam smiled and suddenly asked, “Do you think we’re like dating?”

Abigail stopped eating and looked up at Liam. She shook her head immediately and said, “No!” “Why?”

“First, we’re not a couple. This is the most important fact. Second, we are in the hospital now. Have you seen anyone dating in the hospital?” Abigail said.

Hearing this, Liam immediately retorted unhappily, “Have you ever seen anyone drinking wine in the hospital?” Abigail shook her head.

“That’s what makes it unique and memorable!”

Abigail was speechless.

“Miss Swift, from now on, you should watch soap operas!”

Abigail was speechless.

Was she the one to watch soap operas now?

Abigail didn’t want to argue with him, so she just continued eating.

At that time, Liam took his glass of wine and looked at Abigail. “Come on, drink a toast to celebrate the survival of us!” Hearing this, Abigail looked at him and asked, “Can you drink wine?”

“Why not?”

“You haven’t recovered yet!” Abigail said.

Hearing this, Liam curled his lips and said, “It’s just a small injury. No problem!”

“Are you sure?”

“Yes.”

Looking at Liam’s lively appearance, Abigail had to nod and say, “Well, this is really worth celebrating!”

As she spoke, she also raised her glass and cheered with Liam. They began to drink.

In fact, their action was not easy to understand.

Anyone who saw this would be surprised.

They stayed in the inpatient department but could still chat while enjoying food and wine.

Only the two would do this!

“By the way, how did you know I was taken away by Frank?” Abigail suddenly thought of this and asked.

“What your answer to the question?” Liam raised his eyebrows and looked at her.

Abigail shook her head, unable to figure out how Liam got to know.

When Liam appeared, she was really touched.

Liam looked at her and asked, “Who were you calling?”

‘Who?’

Abigail frowned and suddenly remembered that she was calling someone that day. She asked in surprise, “How did you know I was on the phone!”

“Miss Swift, aren’t you very smart? Why are you confused now?” “Mr. Jones, aren’t you very introverted? Why are you so fussy this time?” Abigail replied.

Liam rolled his eyes at her. She was the only one who dared to talk to him like this. If it were someone else, he would have scolded her many times!

“That day, Ted called you and you hung up halfway, so I assume something that happened to you!” Liam said slowly.

Only then did Abigail realize. “Ted called me that day?”

Liam nodded.

“Why did he call me?” Abigail asked.

Speaking of this, Liam was slightly confused and he shook his head. “I don’t know!”

Abigail frowned and asked, “You don’t know!”

Seeing that Abigail was so inquisitive, Liam rolled his eyes at her and said, “Do you want me to call him and ask about it?!”

Chapter 365

“No, thanks!” Abigail said immediately.

Liam glanced at her.

Abigail said as she ate, "Were it not for that phone call, maybe something happened to me, and no one would find out the murderer!"

As she spoke, Abigail nodded. "I want to thank him another day!"

Hearing this, Liam was a little dissatisfied. He looked up at Abigail and said, "Am I not the first one that you should thank?" Abigail was shocked and then said, "Thank you, Mr. Jones!"

"That's it?" Liam was dissatisfied and felt she was too insincere.

"What else?" Abigail raised her eyebrows. Thinking that he always said that he would marry her, Abigail decided to play dumb.

"Abigail, I risked my life to save you, but you just thank me like this. Aren't you too insincere?" Liam said.

"What else?"

Speaking of this, Abigail immediately added, "Don't talk about marrying me. I'm tired of hearing it. Put it another way!" Liam was speechless.

Looking at Abigail's expression, Liam was miffed.

But was he so narrow-minded?

No way!

Liam looked at her with a wicked smile and said, "Since you don't want to marry me, then you can just sleep with me!" Hearing this, Abigail was shocked. "Liam, don't be so vulgar!"

"How can this be called vulgar? It's normal. Miss Swift, you should face this problem!"

Abigail did not answer.

"How is it? Don't you consider about this idea?" Liam smiled at her. She knew it was a joke, but looking at Liam's smile, Abigail felt that her heart lost a beat.

Trying to stay calm, Abigail glanced at him and said, "This joke is not funny!"

"Do you think I'm joking?" Liam asked, and then came closer to her.

Abigail was shocked and took a step back in fear. "Liam, keep off."

Liam did not answer.

What a provocation!

How could a proud man like Liam tolerate a woman's refusal.

Originally, he didn't have such an idea, but now that Abigail said so, Liam had to prove himself.

"Abigail, were you questioning me?" he said word by word.

Abigail was shocked and realized that Liam had misunderstood her.

“No, I mean...”

“Abigail, I’ll prove myself now. Can I do it or not?” Liam said angrily. No man could bear the sex humiliation, especially an arrogant man like Liam.

He could not accept it, and he thought this was a matter of self-esteem!

Liam pushed the baffle aside and pounced on Abigail.

Abigail was shocked and looked at Liam. “Liam, we should continue eating!” Abigail reminded.

“I want you now!”

Abigail said, “I was joking just now. I mean...”

“Don’t explain. It’s useless. Ill let you know if I can do it or not!” As he spoke, Liam pounced on him.

Abigail was going crazy!

Chapter 366

Abigail was really going crazy!

They were both injured and stayed in the hospital now...

Ah!

What did Liam want to do?

Abigail struggled and said, "Liam, stop! We are in the hospital!"

No matter where they were, she could not stop Liam from proving that he was competent.

Liam was reckless, but Abigail did not dare to push him away since he was still injured. He was sure that Abigail could not run away!

Abigail was obsessive about cleanliness, especially when it came to skin touch. But when Liam's lips came close, she did not feel that she was being violated. Instead, she had a very special feeling.

She recalled when they rolled down from above, Liam held her tightly.

Abigail turned to look at Liam and finally reminded him, "Liam, did you forget what your promise? You said you wouldn't force me. You will wait for me!"

"I forgot!" Liam simply replied and continued even without looking up.

Abigail was speechless.

Looking at Liam, Abigail was really helpless and suddenly poked his wound gently.

"Mmm..." Liam felt hurt and immediately sober and then angrily looked up at Abigail.

“You...”

“Does it hurt? Are you much more awake?” Abigail looked at him and asked. Her innocent expression made Liam angry but helpless.

“I’m doing this for your own good!” Abigail immediately said, “You’re seriously injured now. Let’s wait until you recover!” Liam was still very angry, but when he heard Abigail’s words, he looked at her and asked, “Are you sure? After my recovery?” Abigail frowned and said, “Liam, can you not be this stubborn?”

“No!” Liam refused.

Abigail was not easy to deal with. He didn’t know when he would be with her if he didn’t insist.

Looking at Liam’s expressions, Abigail asked seriously, “Liam, can you stop?”

“No, do you know that ever since I met you, I haven’t had sex with any single woman for a long time!” Liam shouted anxiously.

Abigail was stunned and asked, “Are you serious?”

Liam admitted directly, “Of course!”

“Why?” Abigail looked at him and asked though she knew the answer.

Hearing these words, Liam frowned and said, “Abigail, don’t play dumb. Everyone can see such an obvious thing. Can’t you see irre”

Abigail didn’t say a word.

She just stepped back and looked at him.

“I can see it, but you never say it! It’s different.” Abigail said.

She was an insecure person and she would not believe anything that had not been verified.

Chapter 367

Even if Liam lost his name for her, as long as he didn’t say that, she would never be self-righteous.

Even if it was just a matter of a few words!

She needed to confirm it.

Looking at Abigail, Liam slowly leaned over with his deep but serious eyes.

“What do you want to hear?”

“It’s not about what I want to hear, it’s about what you want to say!” Abigail said.

Both of them were smart. No matter who said that first, it proved that they had already begun to compromise.

However...

They looked at each other for a long time.

Finally, Liam looked at her and said, "I want you!"

Abigail was helpless, "... Is that all?"

"What else? What else do you want to hear?" Liam looked at her and asked.

Abigail smiled.

Fortunately, she didn't say much, or else she would have been too self-righteous!

"Nothing!" She got up and pushed Liam away, "Even if you think so, it's your business. I won't agree. You may force me, but I will hate you!" After that, Abigail went straight back to her bed.

Liam stood there and looked at Abigail's smile, his heart indescribably pained.

He wanted to devour his words, but he could never make up for it. Therefore, he could only watch her walk towards her bed.

"Abigail..." He said, trying to add something.

"I'm sleepy. I want to sleep. Enjoy yourself!" With that, Abigail lay down.

Liam stood there, looking at her back, but failed to say anything...

[The next day.]

Early in the morning, when the nurse was making rounds, she sensed the smell of wine and meat.

“Did you drink and eat here?” the nurse asked.

“No, someone else left them here!” Abigail explained.

The nurse nodded and left after finishing her checking.

From the beginning to the end, Abigail did not look at Liam.

On the other hand, the man frowned and gazed at her.

But Abigail never looked over.

After a while, Senior Mrs. Jones came over.

She had arrived at the hospital early in the morning.

Knowing that her grandson and her future granddaughter-in-law were here, how could she not go over?

“Liam, Abigail, how are you? How was your sleep yesterday? I have asked someone to make soup for you. It’s good for your health!” Senior Mrs. Jones said.

In the first half of her sentence, it sounded like asking them about the wedding night.

Senior Mrs. Jones always behaved like this, and Abigail was used to it.

The corner of her mouth was moved up, "Thank you, grandma. I will drink it!"

"Drink more if you like. If it isn't enough, I'll bring you more!"

"Well, I won't stand on ceremony!" Abigail said.

Liam still looked at Abigail. Senior Mrs. Jones looked at him and said, "Liam, you have some soup too!" Liam came back to his senses and nodded, "I see!"

Senior Mrs. Jones vaguely felt that something was wrong between them.

It was as if they had become strangers.

Senior Mrs. Jones looked at the two of them for a while and walked towards Liam.

"Liam, here you are!"

Liam took it. Just as he was about to drink, Senior Mrs. Jones asked, "Did something wrong happen yesterday?" Liam was shocked. Then he looked up at his grandma and shook his head, "No!"

"Don't fool me. Something must have happened. The atmosphere between you is strange!" Senior Mrs. Jones said.

Liam ignored Senior Mrs. Jones and drank the soup. Although he didn't like to drink it, it was much better than discussing that thing with her.

After thinking for a while, Senior Mrs. Jones suddenly asked, "Did you force Abigail yesterday?" Hearing this, Liam almost choked.

Senior Mrs. Jones looked at him, shocked, "Really?"

"Grandma!"

As he spoke, he looked at Abigail.

Senior Mrs. Jones was both happy and anxious for Liam, "How was it? Did you get it?"

Liam, "No!"

"You stupid boy!" Senior Mrs. Jones was anxious for the result.

Liam was speechless.

"Look, Abigail is ignoring you now. I tell you, I only want her to be my granddaughter-in-law. So no matter what you do, you have to possess her!" Senior Mrs. Jones gave the order directly.

"How about having your great-grandson directly?"

"That's great!" Senior Mrs. Jones almost clapped her hands.

Realizing that she was making too much noise, she quickly lowered her voice and looked at Liam warning, "Don't forget what you said!"

After a low warning, she walked towards Abigail.

"Abigail, how is it? Is it good?" She asked.

Abigail nodded, "Yes, it's delicious!"

"Drink more if you like it. Grandma will bring it to you tomorrow!" "No need, grandma!"

"Why?"

"I'll be discharged today, so you don't have to bring soup for me!" Abigail said with a smile.

Senior Mrs. Jones and Liam paused in shock.

Liam immediately looked over.

"Why? why are you discharged so quickly?" Senior Mrs. Jones looked at Abigail and asked.

"I'm almost recovered. The doctor said I can go back and just rest for two days, then I can go to work!" Abigail said.

“How can it be? With such kind of injury, you should take several months to recover. But now it’s only been a few days!” Senior Mrs. Jones said and seemed that she didn’t want Abigail to leave the hospital soon.

Abigail didn’t mind, because she knew that Senior Mrs. Jones didn’t mean that.

Abigail nodded and said with a smile, “Actually, I have no problem at all. It’s just a slight sprain. I could have been discharged from the hospital a few days ago, and it’s been delayed until now!”

“This...” Senior Mrs. Jones didn’t know what to say and really didn’t want her to be discharged now!

Abigail and Liam had only been together for one night.

It was far from what Senior Mrs. Jones wanted!

“It’s not convenient for you to be alone at home when you’re discharged from the hospital. How can grandma let you be alone?” Senior Mrs. Jones said, “Why don’t you come to the Joneses with me so that I can take care of you?”

Hearing this, Abigail smilingly said, “Grandma, I’m not that injured. It’s okay. I can be alone. Don’t worry!” Seeing how insistent she was, Liam said unhappily, “Why didn’t I know that you were going to be discharged?” Abigail smiled after hearing his words, “Now you know it.”

“Why are you discharged?”

“I’m much better now. The doctor said I could be discharged. Do I have to stay here forever?” Abigail answered. Though she did not sound displeased at all, Liam just felt something was wrong.

He frowned and looked at Abigail.

Abigail, on the other hand, was calm.

At this moment, Senior Mrs. Jones said, “Well, then I’ll get someone to help for the discharge and send you back!”

Chapter 369

“No need, grandma. My brother will pick me up today!” Abigail said.

The more she said, the more convinced Senior Mrs. Jones was that there was a conflict between them. Moreover, the problem was serious!

She looked at Liam, who looked straight at Abigail helplessly.

Half an hour later, Abigail went out.

Liam was so anxious that he took out the infusion needle and went out.

“Abigail!” Liam’s voice came at this moment.

After Abigail heard it, she didn’t stop and continued walking.

Liam was dissatisfied, strode up, and grabbed her.

Abigail had just gotten rid of the plaster and could only walk cautiously. Being grabbed by Liam, she turned around.

“Abigail, you...”

“Mr. Jones, can’t you be gentle? Didn’t you see that I just get rid of the plaster?” Abigail looked at him and said in a flat tone.

He looked at her and frowned. He had wanted to scold her, but he was instantly choked by her words and couldn’t say anything.

“Abigail, are you angry with me?” finally, Liam asked.

“I am not.” Abigail looked indifferent and smiled, “Why should I be angry with you?”

“If you’re not angry with me, why are you discharged from the hospital?” Liam asked. He had a strong feeling that Abigail must be angry, and her attitude made him feel extremely uncomfortable!

“I recovered. Why am I not discharged? Besides, what’s good about being hospitalized? I’d rather go back home and rest!” Abigail said.

Liam frowned and wanted to know something from her expression. But in the end, he could only know that she was extremely unhappy.

“Is it because of what I told you yesterday that upset you?” Liam asked.

Speaking of this, Abigail smiled slightly, “Why? I’m about to forget what happened yesterday!” ‘Forget what happened yesterday?’

Hearing this, it was Liam who was unhappy now.

“Abigail...”

“Well, Mr. Jones, come on, it’s easy to cause misunderstanding!” Abigail said, while getting rid of Liam’s hand, and stared at him.

“Let me clarify. I’m not angry. You don’t have to worry about what happened yesterday because, for me, it was just a small talk with no meaning!” Abigail looked at Liam and said word by word.

Liam’s words were stuck in his throat.

He stared at Abigail for a long time. He was so angry, but he could not vent it. He could only look straight at Abigail.

“Are you serious?”

Abigail nodded and smiled. “Of course!”

Damn it!

He didn’t need to see her smile now.

But she just smiled so indifferently!

Liam got an indescribable feeling in his heart.

“Abigail!” Just then, a voice rang from behind.

Hearing this, they turned around at the same time and saw Jacob walking towards them.

“Jacob!” When she saw Jacob, Abigail smiled.

Jacob walked straight over, stood beside Abigail, and looked at Liam. “Mr. Jones, long time no see!”

Chapter 370

Liam did not greet him, but when Liam saw Jacob, he was even more unhappy.

He hated any man standing in front of Abigail. Even though the person beside her was her elder brother, he felt uncomfortable! Liam looked straight at them.

Seeing that he didn't say anything, Jacob continued, “Thank you for saving Abigail.”

“It's me who saved her, not you. What are you doing right here, right now?” Liam suddenly said unhappily.

His tone was too punchy.

When Abigail heard this, her expression changed a little.

Why did he behave like this?

However, Jacob didn't take it seriously. He looked at Liam calmly, "Abigail is my sister. Of course, I have to thank you!"

"If you need any help in the future, I will do my best!" Jacob said.

Hearing this, Liam sneered, "What do you think I need your help with?"

Abigail was speechless.

She couldn't believe his words.

They were really unpleasant.

"No matter what!" Jacob remained calm and said, "I'm taking Abigail out of the hospital now. Mr. Jones, see you!" As he spoke, he looked at Abigail, "Abigail, let's go!"

Abigail nodded, and the two left.

Liam stood there, looking at Abigail's back. There was a feeling indescribable in his heart.

Thus, Abigail packed up and left the hospital.

In the car, Abigail was sitting in the back while Jacob was driving.

"How is it going? Is there really no problem?" Jacob looked at Abigail through the rearview mirror and asked, his eyes full of WOITy.

He had only been on a business trip for two days, but he didn't expect Abigail to be in trouble again. He was scared to death.

Fortunately, she was fine.

Hearing Jacob's words, Abigail withdrew her gaze from the car window and nodded, "I'm fine. Didn't the doctor say that there's nothing wrong?"

"That's good!" Jacob nodded and remembered something, "Abigail..."

"Yes!"

"Mom asked me to take you home."

Abigail was in a daze.

"You're not recovered yet. Why don't you come home to stay with us for a few days? You can leave when you recover and be able to go to work." Jacob asked.

Hearing this, Abigail was shocked and didn't know what to say for a moment.

Looking at Abigail in silence, Jacob said, "Are you still angry about the event that happened a few years ago?" Jacob asked.

It seemed that Abigail did not want to go home.

"No!" Abigail said, "It was my choice. It had nothing to do with my family. Why am I angry?"

“Then why don’t you go home?” Jacob asked. He was getting more and more confused about Abigail’s thoughts. He had no idea what she was thinking.

Abigail smiled, “Nothing, it’s just that I’ve been used to living alone for the past two years, and our home is far from the company, so I want to live by myself.”

“Is that so?” “Of course!”

“Then why don’t you come back with me today? Dad and mom really want you to go home and live there. Just stay with them and take a few days off!”

Jacob said in a pleading tone.

Hearing this, Abigail nodded, “Okay!”
