

Her Wicked Ceo (Abigail and Liam)

Chapter 391

Just as he had suspected, after hearing this, the girl on the other end of the line was stunned for a few seconds and then said in a softer voice. "Please tell grandma that I don't have spare time today. I'll visit her another day!"

"What are you going to do..."

"I'm sorry, I have something else to do. I have to go!" The phone was hung up. Hearing the beeps on the phone, Liam was almost outraged.

He almost threw the phone out of his hand!

Damn it!

Abigail didn't exactly make it very easy on him.

But when thinking that she would have dinner with Leo, it seemed like a lot of ants walking around on his heart. In another word, he couldn't calm down.

He had no way and picked up his phone to call Senior Mrs. Jones back.

"Grandma, I'm afraid she can't come today. She asked me to tell you that she will visit you another day!" Liam said.

Hearing this, Senior Mrs. Jones said, "Did you quarrel with Abigail?" Liam frowned. Was that a quarrel? He was silent and didn't reply.

At this moment, Senior Mrs. Jones continued, "Liam, let me tell you, I have decided that Abigail will be my granddaughter-in-law.

You have to marry her no matter what you do!"

Liam was speechless.

A few years ago, he disliked Robert saying that. But now, when his grandma did the same, or even forced him to do so, he surprisingly did not feel revolted at all...

"I know, grandma!" Liam said.

"Liam, you should know that maybe you don't realize the importance of her now, but when you're really about to lose her, you can't get her back!" Senior Mrs. Jones said.

The words unexpectedly touched Liam slightly, but he just replied, "I see!"

Senior Mrs. Jones stopped getting caught up in this and asked, "What about you? Are you coming over for dinner?" "I still have to deal with the business in my company, so I won't go. Enjoy your dinner!" Liam said.

The old lady did not force him to come. "Well, that's it!"

After that, she hung up.

Liam sat there, deep in thought. His mind was in a mess, not knowing what to do.

This feeling was killing him.

At this moment, the door was suddenly pushed open.

Dan barged in without knocking on the door.

Liam frowned, feeling unhappy at his behavior and gazing at him with sharp eyes.

He was not in a good mood, and at the moment Dan brought about his own downfall.

Although Dan was afraid of the expression in Liam's eyes, at this moment, he still rushed up. "Mr. Jones, something bad has happened!" Dan said.

Looking at him, Liam said word by word with his face darkened, "Yes, indeed, something bad is about to happen to you!" Dan paused for a second.

Dan gulped and said, "Mr. Jones, please forgive my rudeness. Trust me, it's all for your happiness!" He said that passionately and firmly.

"Then you'd better say in detail. Otherwise, for the rest of your life, I'm afraid you will have no sex life!" Dan paused again.

Damn, what the boss said was too scary!

But Dan continued, "I heard that Leo, Miss Swift, and Miss Swift's family are all having dinner at the Hong's Restaurant tonight.

Don't you think this is the prelude to getting engaged?" Dan said in a worried way. He, the observer, was more anxious than the person involved.

Chapter 392

Hearing this, Liam frowned and turned to look at him, "What did you say?"

"I just heard that Miss Swift has an appointment with Leo and Miss Swift's family at Hong's Restaurant for dinner, and it looks very formal, so do you think..." Dan was halfway through, but what he meant was obvious.

He looked straight at Liam, hoping that he would make a move or react.

Liam frowned and remembered that when she was on the phone with Abigail just now, she hung up in a hurry. Was that the reason?

His expression turned even grim.

"Boss, I know you like Miss Swift, but these days, you haven't done anything. Instead, Leo has taken action. If you still don't do anything, Miss Swift will soon become the wife of the president of Pine Group, and you will probably receive Miss Swift's wedding invitation soon..." Dan said.

As soon as he said his last sentence, Liam looked at him with sharp eyes.

But Dan was bold. Anyway, if Abigail really dated Leo and Liam regretted it again, they would have a hard time.

"I... I'm telling the truth. I can see that Miss Swift also likes you, but now you two are quarreling. Women need to be coaxed.

Once coaxed, they will be fine. If you don't do anything, I'm afraid there will be no chance!" Dan said, thinking in his mind, "Anyway, it's better to die than live in fear in the future."

But as soon as Dan finished speaking, Liam stood up suddenly, and Dan was shocked.

At this moment, Liam turned to look at Dan with a sullen face, "Get me a bouquet immediately!"

Dan was shocked and said, "Boss, are you going to..."

"I want 999 champagne roses!" Liam said word by word.

Dan was shocked and couldn't help but praise, "Great!"

"Send it to the private room that Abigail booked in Hong's Restaurant!" Liam said word by word.

Dan nodded and immediately smiled, "Okay, boss, don't worry. They will be there on time!" Dan said with a smile. He would do it at the appropriate time.

Liam's eyes lit up. He picked up the key on the table and rushed out of the company.

As soon as she got into the car, Liam's phone rang again.

Seeing the number, Liam answered it directly.

“Liam, guess who I saw in the Hong’s Restaurant!” Senior Mrs. Jones asked.

The corners of Liam’s mouth curled up, and then he remembered that Senior Mrs. Jones was also in the Hong’s Restaurant. It seemed that it was really a coincidence.

“Grandma, wait for me there. I’ll be right there!” As he spoke, Liam hung up without any unnecessary nonsense.

Senior Mrs. Jones was in a daze for a moment, but when she thought of Liam’s coming over, she was relieved.

Liam drove the car directly towards the Hong’s Restaurant.

Her mind was filled with what Dan and Senior Mrs. Jones had said.

There were some things that you would regret when it was too late to repent.

At this moment, he was in a good mood.

No matter what, he would not let what happened tonight go smoothly!

Thinking about it, he speeded up.

Chapter 393

[At the Hong’s Restaurant]

Hong's Restaurant was also an extremely upscale Western restaurant.

It offered private rooms and it was elegant and clean with an excellent environment.

Abigail, Leo, and Mr. and Mrs. Swift were having dinner in the private room.

"Leo, thank you for driving Abigail to and from work these days!" At the moment, Laura looked at Leo and spoke.

Hearing that, Leo smiled. "Auntie, I've already said that it's my honor and my duty. If Abigail is okay, I'm relieved!" Leo said.

Every word he said made Laura feel comfortable.

She was getting more and more satisfied with Leo.

Stephen also looked at Leo. "There's nothing that should or shouldn't be done, but we are happy to hear you say so!" Stephen's words were very sincere, and having heard that, Leo smiled.

"Every time you pay a visit to us, we just have a light meal together at home. Today, we'll have a good meal here. Leo, feel at home when you visit us in the future, and don't bring any gift with you!" Laura looked at Leo and said with a smile.

Every time Leo went to visit them, he brought a lot of presents, which really made Laura and Stephen feel bad.

Leo smiled. "It's just a token of my appreciation. Uncle and auntie, please don't mind!"

"Well, don't be so polite. Why don't we have a drink together?" At this moment, Stephen suggested.

“Okay!” Leo replied.

Abigail sat there and looked at them without saying anything.

Although she was supposed to lead the conversation, she could not get a word in edgewise on such an occasion.

She only raised the glass, clinked glasses and drank a little.

Just as she put down her glass, Laura looked at Leo. “Leo, are your parents still in London?”

Hearing that, Leo nodded. “Yes!”

“Any idea when they’ll be back? So that we can treat them to dinner and see how excellent they are to have raised such a son like you!” Laura said with a smile.

“Mom, Leo’s parents live abroad all year round and shouldn’t come back!” Abigail said.

Hearing what Laura and Stephen said, Abigail understood what she meant. She said so to make Laura give up the idea.

Hearing that, Laura was surprised.

Then she looked at Leo. “Really?”

Leo nodded. “But if I get married here, they will definitely come back!” Leo was very sure of that.

Hearing that, Laura smiled again. "When do you plan to get married?"

As soon as Laura finished speaking, Leo looked at Abigail.

In fact, everyone already understood what he meant.

However, no one could point it out.

"I'm not sure about that, but as long as she agrees, I'm willing to marry her immediately!" Leo said.

Hearing what Leo said, and seeing that his eyes were still on Abigail, Laura was more certain of her answer.

"So, you already have someone you like?" Laura asked with a smile.

Hearing that, Leo smiled and did not deny it.

Now, he wanted to ask Laura to trust Abigail to him at ease, but he didn't dare to do so before Abigail agreed.

"Can you tell auntie who she is?" Laura asked.

Hearing that, Abigail frowned. "Mom!"

Chapter 394

"I am just asking. What's wrong? I really want to know whose girl is so lucky to date Leo, an excellent person," Laura said as she was getting more and more satisfied with Leo.

Abigail was speechless.

Abigail sat there. The topic of their conversation made her feel extremely awkward, but she didn't know what to say.

"Don't ask about other people's privacy!" Abigail said.

"What kind of privacy is this? Anyway, Leo will get married sooner or later. I will know sooner or later. Am I right, Leo?" Laura looked at Leo and spoke.

Leo sat there and nodded, "Yes!" "Then can you tell me who it is?" Laura continued to ask, wanting to hear Leo say Abigail's name.

Abigail was a little embarrassed and couldn't sit still. Just as she was about to go to the bathroom, the door of the room was knocked, and the waiter pushed the door open.

"May I ask who Miss Swift is?" At this moment, the waiter asked.

Abigail sat inside. When she heard the waiter's words, she said, "I am!"

At this moment, the waiter waved his hand. Many waiters walked in with a bunch of flowers in their hands. Then they walked in and put them down wherever they could.

Laura and Abigail were shocked.

Leo also looked at this scene and frowned slightly.

“You...” Abigail looked at them. At this moment, one of the waiters came up and said, “Someone gave these to Miss Swift. There are 999 roses in total!”

Abigail found it hard to believe.

She was a little confused.

At this moment, the waiter handed Abigail the champagne roses in his hand and said, “This too!”

“Well...” Abigail looked at the flowers and asked, “From who?”

“Well, the person who sent the flowers didn’t say it!” The waiter said.

Hearing this, Abigail was shocked. “Well, thank you!” Abigail said with a smile.

The waiter nodded, “You’re welcome!” Then he closed the door and left.

Abigail held the bouquet in her arms and was a little astonished. Why did she feel that it was something Liam would do? [Outside]

When Liam appeared, Senior Mrs. Jones was waiting there.

“Liam, do you know that Abigail and her family are eating here with Leo?” Seeing Liam, Senior Mrs. Jones asked directly.

“I know!”

“Did you quarrel with Abigail? Anyway, if Abigail dates another man, I will not recognize you as my grandson!” Senior Mrs. Jones said.

It was obvious that Senior Mrs. Jones loved Abigail more than him, her grandson.

“Grandma, if you say that, I will be jealous!” Liam said jokingly.

“You’re still in the mood to laugh? I’m telling you, it’s a small thing that you can’t win the heart of Abigail, but it’s a big deal for you to lose to Leo. Liam, are you willing to lose to him?” Senior Mrs. Jones asked. She knew how to prod people into action.

She knew her grandson too well.

At this moment, Liam looked at them and said, “Grandma, don’t worry. I will never lose!” As he spoke, a determined smile appeared on his lips, “Grandma, dad, mom, you guys eat first. I’m going in!”

“Go in?” Senior Mrs. Jones looked at him.

Chapter 395

Liam arched his eyebrows and walked straight to their private room.

Senior Mrs. Jones looked behind him and praised, “That’s my grandson! A courageous man!” Robert was speechless.

And so was Mrs. Jones.

“Mom, is that okay?” Mrs. Jones looked at Senior Mrs. Jones and asked.

Hearing this, Senior Mrs. Jones’s face showed the same expression as Liam’s, “Of course! This is the exact way to pursue a girl.

When Robert pursued you back then, wasn’t he crazier than this?”

Mrs. Jones paused for a second. She glanced at Robert, and both smiled.

The happy mood surrounded them.

In the private room.

Laura was talking to Abigail, “Who sent these?”

It was amazing.

Just as Abigail was hesitating, the door was suddenly pushed open, and Liam stood there.

“Its me!”

Hearing this, they looked at the door in unison.

Liam smiled and walked straight inside to Abigail.

“I’m sorry to disturb you, my dear father-in-law and mother-in-law!” Liam said with a smile. His high spirits made people’s eyes light up.

Abigail frowned when she saw Liam. It was really him!

Staring at Liam, Stephen and Laura were also shocked. Why was he here?

“Why are you here?” Abigail stared at Liam and asked, still holding the bouquet of roses.

Liam looked down at the champagne roses in Abigail’s arms, which made her skin look fairer. The champagne roses were more in line with Abigail’s temperament.

Liam took out a rose from inside, sniffed it elegantly at the tip of his nose, and then looked at Abigail, “Of course I’m here to send you flowers!”

Abigail frowned, not understanding what he was up to. “How is it? Do you like it?” Liam asked.

“What the hell are you doing?” Abigail asked in a low voice.

Liam smiled charmingly, “Of course I’m here to see you. I have something to tell you!”

“But I’m busy now!” Abigail said.

Looking at their interaction, Leo’s expression went grim, but he remained confident and calm as usual.

Laura also looked at him, knowing that she couldn’t afford and didn’t want to provoke him. However, looking at his actions, she reminded him, “Well, Mr. Jones... You and Abigail are divorced. It’s not appropriate to call her that!” Laura smiled awkwardly.

Liam did not mind, nor was he angry. Instead, he looked at them and smiled, "I'm here today to officially inform you that Abigail and I will remarry!" As he spoke, he put his hand directly on Abigail's shoulder as if she belonged to him.

An uproar followed his words.

Even Abigail was stunned and turned to glare at Liam, "Liam, what nonsense are you talking about? What do you want?" "Abigail, is he telling the truth?" Laura looked at them and asked, her eyes full of disbelief.

"Mom..." Abigail was about to explain when Liam stopped her before she could finish.

"Of course, it's true!" Liam said.

"Stop messing around, Liam!" Abigail said, "This is not a joke!"

Hearing Abigail's words, Liam looked at her, put away his rascal smile, and looked at her seriously, "I am not messing around, nor did I joke. I mean it!"

Chapter 396

Abigail looked at him, too surprised to say anything.

Liam's change was so sudden that she couldn't accept it.

"Mother-in-law and father-in-law, please give us a chance to talk privately!" Without asking if they agreed, he picked up Abigail and walked out.

"Hey, Liam, you..." Abigail wanted to protest, but there was no chance for her to do that. Liam had grabbed her forcefully.

Just as he was about to leave, Leo stood up and grabbed Liam's arm.

Sensing an extra hand in his arm, Liam turned around. However, when he saw Leo, he frowned.

"Mr. Jones, don't do what you don't want to do to others!" Leo looked at Liam and said word by word.

Hearing this, a wicked smile appeared on Liam's lips, "Mr. Harris, you don't have to make your words tortuously. I've always understood only direct language!" Liam said mercilessly.

Leo's expression changed. His eyes went sharp, and he stared at Liam, "Well, you need her permission before you take her away!"

Liam smiled charmingly, "Leo, don't talk to me like that. You have your way of doing things, and I have my style. If I don't take you away, then shut up!" Liam said fiercely.

At this moment, he wouldn't show respect to anyone. He just wanted to take Abigail away.

He insisted on leaving, but Leo grabbed him, refusing to let him go.

Liam turned around and looked at Leo with a grim expression on his face, "Leo, you have the right to pursue her, but you have no right to stop me. Today, I have to take her away!" He shook off Leo's hand and took Abigail out.

Seeing that they were about to quarrel, Abigail was dragged out by Liam before she could stop them.

Laura and Stephen saw it and immediately stood up and chased after him.

“Liam...”

Just then, Senior Mrs. Jones suddenly walked in from outside and smiled, “Oh, my dear, I didn’t expect that we were so destined to meet here...”

They looked at Senior Mrs. Jones.

Although she had not overseen the company for many years, she still had great prestige in the business world, and anyone who met her had to show respect to her.

Seeing Senior Mrs. Jones, Laura had to smile, “Hi, Senior Mrs. Jones...”

“Liam said he had something to do with Abigail, and he’ll send her back later. Don’t worry too much. It happens that I have something to talk to you about... I haven’t seen you for a long time, and we can have a talk!” Senior Mrs. Jones said.

Laura couldn’t retort her.

Looking at them, Leo stood there with a terrible look on his face.

Liam did not do anything, but now he suddenly took her away. It was clear that he was going to ruin his reputation! He could not let it go.

Liam pulled Abigail out.

Abigail was still holding the flowers in her arms, and she was pulled by Liam. In the restaurant, many people cast a strange gaze at them.

Chapter 397

Liam pulled Abigail out regardless.

“Liam, slow down. Where are you taking me?” Abigail said unhappily behind him, not knowing what he was up to.

“Find a place to talk!” Liam said without looking back. He grabbed Abigail and walked her to the door. Then he walked to the car and opened the door directly. Abigail stood at the door, not wanting to go in. She looked at him and wanted an explanation, but Liam stuffed her in straightforwardly.

Even if Abigail wanted to protest, she couldn't say anything now.

She wanted to see what Liam wanted to do as he pulled her out so publicly!

Liam went around, opened the door, sat in, and drove away.

Abigail glanced at Liam and did not say anything, waiting for him to speak.

Finally, the car drove for about half an hour to a quiet place and stopped.

At this moment, Abigail turned to look at Liam, "Liam, shouldn't you give me an explanation for talking nonsense in front of people and dragging me out again?!" Abigail looked at Liam and said with displeasure.

Laura was obviously displeased at those words just now.

Hearing Abigail's words and looking at her cold face, Liam was very unhappy. But he could not say anything.

At this moment, he looked at her, took the flowers away from her arms, put them aside, and said coolly, "Get out of the car with me!"

Abigail frowned and watched him push open the door and get out of the car. She then followed him too.

By this time, there was no one else by the sea.

The sea breeze blew faintly, making people feel very comfortable.

The car stopped at the side. Liam walked towards the beach, followed by Abigail.

"You're not here to watch the sea with me, are you?!" Abigail looked at him and asked.

Liam stood there straight, his thin lips pursed, and his brows furrowed. He investigated the distance as if he was considering something.

Abigail stood beside him and was not in a hurry. She was enjoying the breeze while waiting for Liam's explanation.

Finally, Liam took a deep breath, turned his head, and looked at Abigail.

He seemed to have summoned up a lot of courage to speak.

“Abigail...” He looked at her with a deep gaze.

“Yes?” Abigail replied and turned to look at him.

“Didn’t you always ask me why?” Liam stared at her and spoke.

Abigail blinked and looked at him. For some reason, Abigail was a little nervous when she saw how serious he was at this moment.

“I can tell you now!” Liam said, looking at Abigail’s eyes with such sincerity.

If he had always been careless and playful before, now he was more serious than ever.

“What?” Abigail looked at him and asked, not understanding what he was trying to say for a moment.

Liam seemed to have mustered up a lot of courage to say, “I know. Two years ago, I was the one who failed you. So, this year, which is two years later, I am punished. I like you, I love you, and I can’t leave you, so I won’t allow you to be with Leo!” Liam looked at Abigail and said word by word. Although he was announcing it, his tone was still domineering.

Chapter 398

Hearing this, Abigail stood there in a daze.

She wondered if she had misheard.

However, looking at Liam, she knew very well that she had not misheard.

She blinked slowly and wondered if Liam was joking again.

After thinking for a while, Abigail said calmly, "Liam, it is not funny!"

"I'm not joking. I'm serious!" Liam said anxiously.

"The last time we were in the hospital, I wanted to tell you, but I didn't know how to say it. I wasn't sure if it was love, so I said I wanted you very much. Indeed, I wanted your body, but I wanted your heart more. Abigail, do you understand?!" Liam looked at her and asked, fearing that she would not believe him.

Never had he wanted someone to believe him so much.

Abigail was shocked.

She stared at Liam and tried to tell if Liam was serious.

However, she couldn't tell.

Looking at Abigail, who was silent and just staring at him, Liam thought for a moment and breathed a sigh of relief. Suddenly, he found that it was not so difficult to say it.

At least, at this moment, he felt relaxed.

It was much easier to speak out than to hold it in your heart.

Liam also stared at Abigail and spoke slowly, "Abigail, I don't know what love is. Before I met you, I didn't know at all, and I didn't know how to express myself. I just wanted to protect my rights and interests selfishly. No matter in business or in relationships, I was very confident. I only did things that were beneficial to myself. I thought I will always be like this, but your appearance has changed everything..."

"When I saw you hurt, I wanted to protect you. When I saw you in danger, I would be willing to take any risk. When I saw you with another man, I would be so jealous... Until now, I'm not sure if this is love. But the only thing I'm sure of is that I don't like you being with Leo. I don't like you being with any man. I want you to be with me!" Liam said word by word. His eyes shone like obsidian.

Every word was spoken from the bottom of his heart.

Even though some words were not appropriate, they could express his heart more clearly. That was him!

Abigail stood there and somehow, she suddenly believed what Liam said.

Although she told herself not to believe him, in her heart, she still believed.

Because she knew that a proud man like Liam never bothered to lie.

Abigail was touched by his words.

Moreover, since the last time he saved her so bravely, Abigail had felt something. But if Liam didn't say it, she would never believe it.

Looking at him, Abigail didn't know what to say for a long time.

At this moment, she was shocked.

“So, give me a chance. I don’t know how long this relationship can last, but I will try my best to protect it!” Liam looked at her and said sincerely.

Abigail looked at him and came back to her senses after a long time.

Chapter 399

Looking at Abigail, who did not say a word but just looked at him, Liam was a little uncertain. He looked at her and said, “Abigail, what’s wrong with you?”

Abigail was speechless.

Her face twitched and she couldn’t help but ask, “Liam, are you telling me that you love me?” “Don’t you understand?”

“Is there anyone who professes love like you?” Abigail frowned and asked. People were always professing love gently, but Liam did the opposite.

“Then how should I profess? Teach me!” Liam said.

“At the very least, if you say that you love me now, shouldn’t you lower your profile?” Abigail said, feeling pleased at the thought of that.

Liam frowned. “Why?”

“Aren’t you afraid that I’ll reject you in public?” Abigail raised her eyebrows, smiled, and asked jokingly.

“How dare you!” Liam said. If she dared to refuse him, he would kill her!

Not to mention that he had never professed, even if he professed, no one would dare to refuse him. This woman dared to refuse him!

“Why not? You’re the one who professes now, not me!” Abigail said casually and raised her eyebrows playfully, showing her playfulness and cuteness.

Abigail rarely showed such an expression. No matter in the company or there, she always looked confident and wise. However, now that she showed such a saucy expression, Liam was tempted.

He took a step forward and hugged Abigail’s waist. Abigail was in a daze and looked up at him.

At that moment, when they looked at each other, an indescribable sense spread between them.

“If you dare to refuse me, I’ll take you to the bed right now!” Liam looked at her and spoke.

Abigail, “...Mr. Jones, are you going to use force?”

“If the use of force can make you surrender, then I will!” Liam said.

Hearing this, Abigail gave him a look of disdain.

But Liam laughed. Abigail knew he was joking, but it was the first time she had seen him laugh like this.

Abigail lowered her eyes.

At this moment, Liam looked at her. “Abigail...”

“Hmm!”

“Are you really going to reject me?” Liam looked at her and asked. In fact, he wasn’t sure because Abigail was not a normal woman.

If it were someone else, he would be very confident, but when it came to Abigail... He thought she was a little unpredictable.

Hearing this, Abigail smiled and looked up at him. “What? So, you’re so unconfident sometimes?”

“I’m not confident. You’re a woman who doesn’t play by common sense!” Liam said.

Hearing this, Abigail raised her eyebrows. “Really? In that case, why do you still like me?”

Looking at Abigail’s expression, Liam looked at her. “Abigail, you’re giving me a hard time, aren’t you?”

“What if I am?”

At this moment, Liam suddenly hugged her. “Don’t challenge my patience. Otherwise, don’t blame me for being rude!” Abigail was lost for words.

It was rare to see such an abnormal way of professing.

“Well, I won’t challenge your patience!” Abigail said.

“So, you agreed!” Liam looked at her happily.

Abigail shook her head decisively, and Liam looked angry again. "What do you mean?"

Chapter 400

Does 401 Count as a Confession? 2

At this moment, Abigail pursed her lips and looked up at Liam. "I don't know, but I feel I lack some feeling for you. Liam, we've already divorced. Although our first marriage didn't start because of love, I don't want to start a new relationship so casually. Do you understand?" Abigail looked at him and spoke.

Hearing this, Liam frowned and seemingly knew Abigail's worries. He looked at her. "What do you want me to do?"

"I don't know. Can you give me some time to think about it?" Abigail looked at him and asked.

According to Liam's character, Abigail's answers would make him kick her butt, but now, he wouldn't.

Liam looked at her and said, "Fine, you want time. I'll give it to you, but Abigail, you have to promise me one thing!" Liam said.

"What?" Abigail asked.

"Before I come up with that, you can't have any relationships with Leo, you can't agree to any of his conditions, and you can't be with him!" Liam looked at her and said domineeringly.

Hearing this, Abigail frowned. "Why?"

"No reason. Abigail, you are destined to be my wife for the rest of your life. If you dare to have other thoughts, I will kill you!" Liam threatened.

Abigail smiled and disengaged from him. "Liam, are you threatening me?"

"No, I'm threatening and warning you!" Liam said.

"I told you, Liam. If you want me to marry you, it depends on how you do. There's no use to threaten or warn me!" Abigail said.

Looking at Abigail, Liam frowned. "How?"

"That's your thing to let me fall in love with you!" Abigail said with a smile.

Hearing this, Liam frowned. He was not good at going after women.

But he was willing to study for Abigail.

At this moment, Liam turned up the corner of his mouth with a confident smile and said, "Abigail, I will make you love me so much that you will never leave me!"

"Liam, you'd better not be too confident!" Abigail said with a smile.

"Abigail, I do have that confidence!" Liam said domineeringly.

Abigail smiled and walked on the beach, and Liam followed her.

They had a small talk, and Abigail felt very relaxed that Liam could respect her and give her time, which she did not expect.

Late at night, Liam sent Abigail back.

After getting off the car, Abigail looked at Liam. "I'm here. See you!"

At this moment, Liam frowned and thought for a long time. Then he looked at Abigail and said, "How many days do you need?" Abigail didn't expect that he was still thinking about this. She said after she had thought for a moment, "Until I figure it out!"

Liam was dissatisfied with her answer, but he could do nothing. He thought for a moment and said, "Then you are not allowed to socialize with Leo!"

Speaking of this, Abigail said, frowning, "Mr. Jones, although I don't know why you don't get along with Leo, socializing with him or not is my thing. Mr. Jones, I'm not a person who will give up friends for love!" Abigail said.

Hearing this, Liam frowned. "You mean you will still contact Leo?"

Abigail stood there, looked at Liam, thought about it for a moment, and nodded. "He is my mentor. He taught me a lot in the two years abroad, and he took good care of me. There's no way that I won't contact him!" Abigail said.
