Her Wicked Ceo (Abigail and Liam)

Chapter 401

Maybe Leo had broken down with her, or he had done something wrong to her.

Otherwise, she wouldn't have done that.

Hearing this, Liam frowned. The woman he liked crushed on somebody else, which was undoubtedly a blow to him!

"Abigail, do you have to be so stubborn? You should be able to tell that he's crushing on you!" Liam looked at her and said ina loud and angry voice!

He didn't allow any man around Abigail to covet her.

Especially Leo! Because he had an intuition that Leo was not easy to deal with.

Abigail frowned and said with unpleasantness, "Liam, I have no idea whether he likes me or not. We are not together yet, and you can't restrict me from doing anything. Remember, I have not agreed yet!" Abigail stared at him and said seriously.

Liam's face darkened immediately.

Although Abigail did not agree to be Leo's girlfriend, Liam could feel that she did not hate Leo's affection. How could he, such a proud person, bear her words?

"Abigail, you'd better remember what you said!" After saying that, Liam slammed on the brakes and left.

Seeing him leave, Abigail frowned slightly.

They had been fine just now, but now it was different.

Abigail sighed, about to turn around when a voice came from behind.

"Abigail!"

Abigail was in a daze for a moment, but when she saw Leo, she was more confused, "Leo…"

Leo, in black, stood in front of her, looking a little lonely.

Abigail thought, 'Did he hear the conversation just now?"

"Why are you here?" Abigail looked at him and asked. For the first time, she felt a little guilty facing him.

Leo stood there, looking at her tenderly, and said bluntly, "I'm worried that I can't find you, so I'm here to wait for you!" Abigail's heart skipped a beat.

She knew Leo was nice to her, but she would never cross that line if he hadn't said it.

She didn't want to make a change.

Abigail apologized with a smile. "Sorry, I left halfway in today's meal!"

Leo didn't care. Instead, he walked over and looked at her. "He didn't do anything bad to you, did he?"

Abigail shook her head. "Nothing serious!"

"Good!" Leo said.

Abigail could see that he was unhappy. Having no idea what to say, she said with a smile, "I'll treat you another day!" "Okay!" Leo nodded, not showing much joy.

Abigail looked straight into his eyes. "It's late now. Have you been waiting here for a long time?"

Leo nodded, his eyes on her, "Is what he said real today?"

"Hmm? What?" Abigail was a little overwhelmed. Leo made her feel inexplicable stressed.

He looked straight at her. "Is what Liam said over there a real thing? Do you fall in with him?"

Chapter 402

Hearing this, Abigail didn't know how to answer for a moment.

Seeing her reaction, Leo smiled bitterly. "Okay, it's too late. Go upstairs!" Leo did not continue to ask, because if he did, he would only get hurt.

Looking at Leo, Abigail gave up explaining. She nodded. "Well, you may go back early too!"

Leo nodded and Abigail went upstairs.

However, Leo stood there, looking at the back of Abigail. He felt that she was getting further and further away from him…

Everything was fine before today. But the appearance of Liam destroyed everything.

At the thought of Liam, a trace of rage flashed through his eyes.

Liam!

He would never lose to Liam!

Never!

After Abigail went upstairs, she walked to the balcony and saw Leo slowly get into his car.

She did it on purpose.

She had planned to do it!

According to Liam's suggestion, if Leo loved her, he would take her hint.

She just wanted to be friends with Leo.

Looking at Leo's back, Abigail felt unspeakable bittemess.

Sometimes, feelings could be rather complicated.

She preferred their pure friendship.

But she also knew that there was nothing immutable in this world.

At the thought of this, she breathed a sigh of relief. After seeing Leo off, she went to the bathroom before going to bed.

That night, Abigail had a dream.

That was a dream about Liam.

[The next day.]

Early in the morning, somehow, Abigail was in a good mood.

Maybe it was because she slept well last night.

Wearing her favorite clothes and having simple makeup, she went downstairs to go to the company. However, as soon as she got downstairs, she saw Leo standing there.

Abigail paused for a moment and then walked over.

"Leo, you…"

"I still want to keep you safe until Frank is found. Let's go. I'll take you to the company!" Leo looked at her and gave her a gentle smile.

Leo was like a sun. No matter when and where, no matter what had happened, he would always smile gently at Abigail and never threw a temper.

This made Abigail feel at ease.

Abigail also showed a smile and got into the car bluntly.

As Leo was driving, Abigail asked, "Have you had breakfast?"

Leo shook his head. "Not yet. I'll eat later when going back to the company!"

Looking at Leo, Abigail nodded. "Well, don't forget. Your stomach is weak!" Sometimes, the concern of Abigail would make Leo feel warm.

The corner of his mouth curled up into a smile. "I didn't expect you to remember that!"

Abigail smiled. "Sure. When we were in London, you often felt uncomfortable because of your stomach. Without me, you would have gone to hospital many times!" Abigail said.

Chapter 403

Speaking of this, Leo smiled gently, "Yep. I appreciate you for this!"

"Once, you got seriously sick and sent a message to me, I skipped the class to bring medicine to you. After I came back, I was scolded by the professor!" Abigail recalled.

The foreigners were quite open-minded.

But Abigail skipped class, which showed a flagrant disregard for the professor.

The professor was at a loss, "Was my lecture so boring?"

Speaking of this, Leo beamed, "I owe you a favor!"

"More than one!" Abigail joked.

They felt relaxed when reminiscing about the past.

Memories were always pleasant.

"It seems that I have to take better care of you!" Leo said.

"Of course!" Abigail looked ahead. Her mind had strayed back to the carefree days they spent in London.

Her lips curved up in a smile.

Leo looked at her from the comer of his eye. She looked in a good mood, which made him feel better too.

They chatted all the way to the Powerline Group.

When they reached the entrance, Abigail turned to look at him, "I get off here. Remember to have breakfast!" Leo nodded, "I know!"

When Abigail was about to get out of the car, Leo suddenly stopped her, "Wait a minute!"

She looked back at him, "What's wrong?"

Leo slowly reached out his hand to Abigail. Abigail sat there still and blinked, without knowing what Leo wanted to do.

At this moment, Leo took something from Abigail's hair and cracked a smile.

"How can you leave crumbs on your hair?"

Hearing this, Abigail was relieved, "Well, I'll go back to work first!" She opened the door and got out of the car.

"Be careful on your way!" Abigail waved at Leo.

Leo smiled and drove away.

And this scene happened to be seen by Liam behind her.

His face darkened with rage.

Abigail turned around and saw Liam. She didn't expect him to be here.

"Mr. Jones!" She greeted him as usual and went straight to the elevator.

Seeing that Abigail treated him as a passer-by, Liam stood rooted to the spot by displeasure.

He had just calmed down, but he saw this scene so quickly.

Liam was quite annoyed.

"Abigail!"

Abigail turned around from far.

It was rush hour. Many people were crowding around the elevator. Liam stood at the door of his dedicated elevator and said to Abigail, "Come with me. I have something to talk about with you!"

Everyone had clearly heard Liam's words! They were all casting an envious look at Abigail.

Abigail was calm. if she refused in front of so many people, it would definitely make Liam unhappy. She didn't want to get herself discussed about.

Chapter 404

After thinking about it, Abigail walked over.

Just then, the elevator door opened. Liam walked in and stood inside waiting for Abigail. Abigail then walked in.

His assistant Dan said tactfully, "Boss, I suddenly remember that I forget something, so I am gonna get that first…" "Sure!" Liam replied coldly. Dan smiled and left.

He felt so proud of himself…

He dealt with this situation so well. Thinking of this, Dan left while humming a tune to himself.

The door of the elevator slowly closed. Abigail stood inside, holding the materials in her hand, and said nothing.

However, the longer Abigail remained silent, the unhappier Liam became. He turned to look at Abigail, "Don't you have anything to say?"

Abigail was surprised by his question. She glanced at Liam and shook her head. "No!"

This answer made his blood boil.

"Abigail!" As he spoke, he directly pressed her against the wall of the elevator. Abigail was stunned and stared at him. "Liam, you…"

"Do you know my name now? Didn't you call me Mr. Jones just now?" Liam glared at her and gritted his teeth.

Liam wanted to bite her head off.

Abigail frowned. "We are in the company!" She looked up at the security camera. "There's a camera here!"

"So what?" Liam said angrily, "Leo drove you here this morning?"

Abigail nodded and answered boldly, "Yes!" She did not feel there was anything wrong or that she should hide anything. He had seen it all!

"Abigail, do you think I wouldn't mind?" Liam said angrily. The scene of them in the car flashed through his mind, and he wanted to teach Abigail a lesson.

Hearing this, Abigail was even more puzzled.fWomen needs love, especially woman like Miss Swift.

"Mr. Jones, I don't understand what you mean," Abigail said coolly.

"I don't want you to hang out with him, but you still keep in touch with him. He even drove you to work. Do you want everyone to misunderstand that you two are a couple?" Liam roared.

"What are you trying to say?" Abigail looked at him and raised her eyebrows. "Leo gave me a ride because he was afraid that I would be in danger. Frank hasn't been found yet. Was it wrong for him to drive me to work?" Abigail asked.

"Or, Mr. Jones, do you want something terrible to happen to me?" Abigail stared at him and asked.

"You-" Abigail was so eloquent that Liam didn't know what to say.

"You can call me!" Liam said.

Abigail's lips curved in a barely perceptible smile after she heard this. "Mr. Jones, you're pursuing me now. How can you blame others for taking the initiative just because you didn't do it?"

Liam was speechless and frowned deeply.

The elevator door opened.

Abigail broke free from Liam. "Mr. Jones, if you didn't think of this yourself, why should I remind you? Everything depends on how much you value me!" Then, Abigail walked out of the elevator directly.

Chapter 405

Liam was left in the elevator, frowning at Abigail's words.

It all depended on whether he cared…

Thinking for a moment, Liam turned around and walked out of the elevator.

He glanced at Abigail, but she did not look over, so Liam walked straight to the office.

He sat in the office, thinking about what Abigail had just said.

In fact, he felt that it made sense.

If it didn't make sense, he would have denied it.

Just as he was thinking, Dan walked in.

"Boss, this is the information you need for today's meeting!" Dan said.

Liam nodded.

Dan put it down and was about to go out.

But after a few steps, Liam's voice came from behind, "Dan, wait a minute…" Dan turned around and looked at him. "Is there anything else, boss?"

Liam tilted his head, thought for a while, and finally said, "Well, how to pursue a woman…" As he spoke, his expression was a little funny.

Hearing this, Dan was bemused and looked at Liam in disbelief. "Boss, you…" Dan felt that he had misheard.

Liam was a little impatient. "Do you know it or not!"

"Of course!" Dan immediately spoke, walked over, and said with a mature look, "Boss, that should be right. Women need love, especially woman like Miss Swift. In fact, it's easy to deal with her!" With that, Dan walked over and sat down at the table.

However, at this moment, Liam glanced at him. When Dan realized his gaze, he immediately understood something. He came down from the table and said with a smile, "Boss, I'm good at this!"

"Cut the crap and get straight to the point!" Liam said.

Dan immediately leaned over and began to impart to Liam…

Although Liam had been in love affairs for so many years, Dan only knew that he knew nothing in chasing women.

However, he was also the envy of all men, because he never needed to chase women…

One day, it was in the middle of noon.

When Abigail was working, someone at the door shouted, "Who is Miss Abigail?"

"I am!" As she spoke, she looked up at the door. Just then, a courier came over with a bouquet.

"Hello, Miss Swift. Here are your flowers!" The courier said.

This time, everyone looked at her.

"Just sign here!" The courier said.

"Who sent it?" Abigail asked as she signed.

"I don't know, but there's a card on it!" The courier said.

Abigail nodded, signed it, and handed it to the courier, who gave the flowers to Abigail.

After the courier left, Abigail opened the card and looked at it.

There was a line on it.

Lunch together–Jones

Was this a gift from Liam?

When she saw the name marked at the back, Abigail frowned. Was it from Liam?

Chapter 406

At this moment, Jane leaned over and said, "Wow, another pursuer. Who is this guy?"

Abigail quickly put away the business card and said, "I don't know!"

She didn't want anyone to know her relationship with Liam yet!

Jane's eyes narrowed into slits to look at Abigail suspiciously. "Abigail, to be honest, did you fall in love secretly?" Abigail smiled. "It's a secret. I won't tell you!"

"Well, I knew you would do this!" Jane said.

Looking at her expression, Abigail smiled, "I am not in love. If I am, I will tell you!" Abigail said.

"Really? I will hold you to that!"

Abigail immediately lifted three fingers to promise to her. "I swear!"

"Okay, I will take your word for it!" Jane said.

Abigail smiled at her.

"Well, now, get to work and later have lunch together!" Jane said.

'Lunch together?"

Hearing this, Abigail was in a daze for a moment. When she recovered and wanted to say something, Jane had already returned to her seat. 'Fine. Let's talk about it at lunch.'

As she sat down, her phone rang.

When she saw that it was Liam's number, Abigail frowned and answered, "Hello…"

"Have you received the flowers?"

Abigail, "Yeah!"

"Lunch together!" Liam said directly.

Abigail froze for a moment and then said, "I have no time!"

"You can't refuse me. I made a reservation at noon. That's it. Bye!" After finishing speaking, Liam hung up the phone.

Abigail took the phone and scowled. Ridiculous man. She put down the phone and continued to work.

At noon, Jane came over. "Abigail, we can go eat!"

When Abigail stare blankly for a moment and thought back to Liam's words, she was hesitating when Liam walked over from the side.

"I'm afraid she can't. She has to have lunch with me today!" Jane froze there by his words.

"What…" She looked at Abigail. 'What's going on?'

Abigail was also stupefied and then said, "I have something to do with Mr. Jones this afternoon. I'm afraid we can't eat together!" Abigail said with a smile.

"Ah…" Jane nodded. "I see!"

Hearing Abigail's explanation, Liam glared at her but said nothing.

"Well, you go ahead. I'm going to have lunch!" As he spoke, Jane winked at Abigail and turned to leave.

Abigail stood there, and when she saw Jane's look, she knew that Jane had misunderstood.

To be exact, she found something.

At this moment, Liam looked at her. "Can we go now? Miss Swift!"

"Okay, Mr. Jones!"

They talked politely and walked into the elevator one after another.

Sitting in the car, Abigail looked at Liam and said, "Mr. Jones, you know what you said just now will cause a misunderstanding!" Abigail said.

Liam drove and raised his eyebrows casually. "No misunderstanding. They'll know sooner or later anyway!"

Abigail was speechless.

She rolled her eyes at Liam. There wasn't anything between them now, but if there was, what were they going to do? Never mind. Abigail didn't argue with him. She just went with her heart.

The car was driving. Abigail didn't ask where to go but only waited to eat.

Chapter 407

At this moment, a smile was drawn on the lips of Liam.

Noticing his smile, Abigail asked, "Why are you smiling?" "Are we dating?"

Abigail replied, "No!"

"Why?" Liam asked.

"Because I haven't agreed yet!" Abigail said word by word.

"When do you plan to agree?" Liam continued to ask.

"Till when I want to agree!"

Liam laughed and did not say anything more, because for Liam now, whether she agreed or not, it was all the same. He would stop his action.

He was confident that he would get Abigail.

They arrived at a western restaurant and entered it.

The environment was romantic, while there were many couples, which created an illusion for Abigail that they were really dating! Liam gazed at her and asked, "What are you thinking about?"

"Nothing. I just wonder… why did you treat me to dinner?" Abigail replied.

Hearing this, Liam got closer to her. "Because I want to chase you!"

Abigail was speechless.

Was he chasing her?

"So, no matter what I do, you must cooperate!" Liam declared word by word in a seemingly arrogant tone.

Abigail burst into laughter. "It depends on what you do!"

"No matter what I do, you can't reject!"

"No way!" Abigail continued eating.

Looking at Abigail's expression, Liam warned, "If you dare to reject, I may get crazy!" "Is this a threat?" Abigail asked.

"It works!" Liam looked confident.

Abigail got speechless.

She glared at him and continued to enjoy the food.

In fact, the atmosphere was relaxing.

However, a woman came in and found that Abigail and Liam were having a meal together. She was soon filled with rage.

She wanted to ignore them, but their voice and movements always caught her ears and eyes.

"Liam…" The woman stood over there and called with a low voice. She looked straight at Liam. It seemed that there was only Liam in her world.

Hearing this, Liam and Abigail looked at the woman at the same time. They saw Olive standing there, who looked elegant and tender.

Liam paused for a moment and glanced at Abigail, but found that Abigail pretended to hear nothing.

Since Olive had ignored her, she wouldn't greet her either.

Besides, she wouldn't forgive how Olive hurt her. Sooner or later, she would find the evidence.

"Why are you here?" Liam asked.

"Just hang out with friends. Are you eating?"

Liam nodded.

"Well, then I won't disturb you!" After that, Olive forced a smile and left.

Chapter 408

"Okay!" Liam nodded and did not urge her to stay. Olive turned and left.

Abigail sat there without saying a word throughout their interaction.

After Liam returned to his seat, he looked at Abigail. He thought for a moment and said, "I've broken up with Olive!" Hearing this, Abigail paused for a moment and continued to eat, "Oh!"

Seeing Abigail's reaction, Liam frowned and said unhappily, "Abigail, is that your reaction?"

Hearing this, Abigail looked up at him, "What reaction do you expect me to have? Slapping the table and yelling at you? Accusing you of your connection not being completely cut off?"

Hearing Abigail's words, a smile suddenly appeared on Liam's face, "If this is your reaction, I will be very happy!" Abigail looked at him and smiled, "I didn't expect you to like such a shrew. Unfortunately, I'm not!"

"Even if you are really with her now, I won't behave like a shrew, let alone you're still in touch!" Abigail said leisurely, continuing to eat as if she really didn't care.

Hearing this, Liam stared at Abigail unhappily for a long time with his sharp eyes. He suddenly thought of something, and the corners of his mouth turned up, "Really? Then why did you look unhappy just now? Could it be that… You were jealous?!" Hearing this, Abigail was amused and almost spewed the red wine.

She looked up and gave Liam a reproachful look. She wiped her mouth and said helplessly, "Can you stop joking?"

"Do I look like I'm joking?" Liam was unhappy.

"Yes!"

"Abigail!"

Abigail looked at him impatiently. "Mr. Jones, confidence is good, but narcissism is not!"

Looking at the glib-tongued Abigail, if it wasn't in public, Liam would have chosen to shut her up in his way!

He glanced at her fiercely and continued to eat.

After lunch, the two of them went straight back to the company.

Olive looked at the back of them at the roadside and felt indescribably aggrieved and sad…

Why did they do this to her?

She felt so upset, but they were so happy together!

No!

Absolutely not!

If she couldn't have him, no one else could!

Looking at their backs, Olive's face showed a fierce look.

Liam and Abigail returned to the company. They had just walked in and someone greeted them.

"Mr. Jones!" "Mr. Jones!"

Abigail followed behind him, feeling people looking up and down at her. After thinking for a while, she said, "Mr. Jones, if there's nothing else, I'll go back to work!" As she spoke, she smiled and walked into the elevator under Liam's gaze.

Looking at Abigail's back, Liam frowned. Once the woman returned to the company, she would keep a distance from him.

Everything was fine just now!

Dan received the call and immediately came to Liam's office.

He knocked on the door and walked in directly, "Boss, are you looking for me?!"

"Come in, and close the door!" Liam said.

Dan immediately closed the door, and walked in.

Chapter 409

"Boss, what's wrong?" Dan walked over, looked at Liam, and asked.

Liam thought about it, putting wrinkles in his brows. Then looked up at Dan, "Is there a more effective way?" Dan was confused and looked at him. "Doesn't it work?"

Then Liam told Dan what happened today.

Hearing this, he analyzed it and said, "Mr. Jones, you can't be too hasty in pursuing a woman, especially an intelligent woman like Miss Swift. Besides, she is willing to have lunch with you today, which means that she accepts your pursuit, so be patient!"

His words made sense, but how could he not be hasty?

Leo also got his eye on her!

"Isn't there any other good way?" Liam frowned and asked. That innocent and helpless expression showed him a different boss.

It was so interesting!

Dan thought for a moment, then looked at Liam and suddenly remembered something. "Mr. Jones, are you not fully recovered yet?"

Liam frowned and nodded.

Then Dan curled his lips and whispered something in his ear.

Then he retreated and said, "Boss, there's one more trick that works best!"

"What?" Liam looked at him with disdain and wondered how Dan had learned all these tricks.

"As long as a woman says something you don't like to hear, you pounce on her, kiss her and gag her. Get a woman, and start with the kiss," Dan said persuasively.

As Liam listened, he felt embarrassed.

[..]

After getting off work, Abigail had just walked to the door when a car stopped in front of her.

The window rolled down, revealing Liam's handsome face. "Get in the car!"

Abigail said, brow wrinkled, "No need. Someone will come to pick me up!"

"Leo?"

"Yes!" Abigail said with a smile.

"I'm afraid he won't be able to pick you up from work today!" Liam said confidently.

"What do you mean?"

"He's in a hurry to sign a contract. I'm afraid he doesn't have time to pick you up!" Liam said, grudging every word.

Abigail glanced at him. Just as she was about to say something, her phone rang. Seeing it was Leo's number, she took out her phone and answered it immediately.

"Hello…"

"Abigail, I'm sorry. I have something to do at the moment. I might not be able to get to you on time. I'll ask my assistant to pick you up. Don't worry," Leo explained over the phone.

Hearing this, Abigail looked at Liam, who sat in the car with his mouth slightly curled up confidently.

"No, I'll take a taxi home myself. Do not bother!" Abigail said to the phone.

"But…"

"It's okay. I'm fine. I've already taken a taxi. There's no need to bother!" Abigail said.

"Well, I'm sorry, Abigail…"

"There's no need to apologize!" Abigail smiled.

"Well, call me when you get home and call me without hesitation if you need anything!" Leo said.

Chapter 410

Hearing this, Abigail said yes and then hung up.

Listening to their conversation, Liam sat in the car with the corners of his mouth curled up, looking confident.

"Well, am I right?"

"Fine. You can foretell like a prophet!"

"Then get in the car quickly!"

Abigail smiled. "No need, Mr. Jones. I'll just go back myself!"

As she spoke, she waved at him. "Mr. Jones, see you tomorrow!"

"Abigail!" Looking at her actions, Liam shouted out in the car.

Abigail looked back at him. "Anything else for me?"

"I'll give you two choices. Get in the car yourself or I'll get out of the car now and pull you into the car!" Liam said domineeringly.

He looked at her and it seemed that he would rush down and pull her up at any time.

Abigail frowned and gave an angry look at him.

She believed that Liam would definitely do what he said.

Abigail finally walked back helplessly and sat in after opening the door.

"You are a fascist!"

Seeing her sit in obediently, Liam curled up the corners of his mouth and said, "If I am really a fascist, you would have been my woman now!"

Abigail was speechless.

She decisively chose to end the topic.

The car drove slowly on the road. Abigail did not speak. Liam glanced at her and then curled up a smile.

It was better to be domineering to Abigail sometimes!

It always worked well.

Those flowers and roses which Dan once mentioned didn't work at all!

His method was the most useful.

"Go eating something?" Liam raised his eyebrows and asked.

"No need, send me home!" Abigail said.

However, though she said this, she could not change Liam's action.

Liam drove directly in different directions.

"Liam, I said I was going home!" Abigail protested unhappily.

"Shh, be quiet, or I'll kiss you!"

Abigail was speechless.

She really didn't say anything more!

[On the other side]

Rick received the call and rushed to the police station.

More than half an hour later, Rick and Leo walked out.

"Mr. Harris, how could this be?" Rick asked. He never expected Leo to go into the police station because of a rear-end collision.

Mr. Harris's driving skill was not the best but he definitely drove quite well. How could he cause a rear-end collision? Leo sat in the car, pinching his lips. He was a little gloomy. Only he knew that something was wrong.

The man was unreasonably troublesome just now when the rear-end collision happened. However, he then acted as if nothing had happened.

It was weird.

It was as if someone had done it on purpose.

However, he wouldn't say anything without evidence.

He looked up at Rick and said, "Well, is Abigail home yet?"

Speaking of this, Rick shook his head. "I saw Liam take her away when I arrived so I come straight over because I was so worried about you!"

Hearing this, Leo frowned and let out a sneer.

Rick also noticed something was wrong. "Mr. Harris, could it be Liam…" "Drive back now!" Leo said coldly.

Seeing that Leo was showing an unpleasant look, Rick did not continue to ask but drove away…
