

Her Wicked Ceo (Abigail and Liam)

Chapter 451

Dan was a person with a sunny disposition, and people might feel pleased when they looked at him.

Abigail smiled, "Okay, I got to go."

Dan nodded. Then, Abigail took the elevator and arrived at the parking lot. When she saw Liam's car, Abigail opened the door of the car and got in.

Fortunately, there were not many people there, so Abigail drove out directly without difficulty.

After half an hour, Abigail arrived at the hospital.

The streets were clogged with traffic during the afternoon rush hour. Abigail also bought some desserts for Senior Mrs. Jones, which were her favorites. Thus, it took her more than half an hour to get to the hospital.

The nurse was persuading Senior Mrs. Jones to take the medicine in the ward. However, she refused to take it.

When Abigail entered the door, she heard their conversations.

"I won't take this. Never. That is so disgusting. How am I supposed to take this?"

“A saying goes that food that tastes bad must be good for you. How could you get recovered if you don’t take the medicine? You’d better do as I told.” The nurse was trying her best, but Senior Mrs. Jones still resisted it.

Abigail walked to the door and heard their conversations. She said, “Grandma, it seems that you’re not taking that medicine again!” Abigail complained.

Senior Mrs. Jones immediately turned around and looked at the door upon hearing Abigail’s voice. Her face cracked into a smile when she caught sight of Abigail. “Abigail, you’re here. I haven’t seen you for such a long time. I thought you wouldn’t come to see me.”

Abigail walked towards her, took the medicine directly from the nurse’s hand, and gave the nurse a smile, which was really comforting.

The nurse quickly gave the medicine to Abigail, but she didn’t leave before making sure that Senior Mrs. Jones took the medicine.

At this moment, Abigail walked straight to Senior Mrs. Jones with the medicine and the cup in her hand. Then, she handed the medicine to Senior Mrs. Jones.

Senior Mrs. Jones was sitting there and felt a little bit unhappy with her actions. However, she still reached out her hand to get the medicine.

“This medicine is very bitter!” Senior Mrs. Jones said as she was taking the cup from Abigail, looking very reluctant.

“It’s good for your health. You have to take it!” Abigail stressed.

Senior Mrs. Jones also knew that this time she could not refuse it, so she took it as required.

The nurse, who was standing beside them, watched them and felt quite delighted. She was trying so hard to persuade her but failed. Now that this woman was here, Senior Mrs. Jones actually took it obediently.

“Grandma, it is very lucky of you to have such a good granddaughter!” The nurse said with a smile.

Senior Mrs. Jones paused for a moment when she heard the nurse’s words. She immediately corrected her mistakes, “She is my granddaughter-in-law!”

The nurse was surprised, then smiled, “That’s nice. A great family.”

“Glad to hear that! You are so sweet,” Senior Mrs. Jones said.

The nurse smiled, “Since everything is okay, I am leaving now. Just let me know if you need help.”

“Sure, see you,” Senior Mrs. Jones said.

Then, the nurse went out.

Abigail took out the desserts for Senior Mrs. Jones. “Grandma, can you not tell everyone that I am your granddaughter-in-law?” Hearing what she said, Senior Mrs. Jones took a bite of the dessert. “Why? This is the fact.”

“No! That is not the case!”

“You were with Liam yesterday, right? How is it going? When are you planning to get married?” Then, Senior Mrs. Jones immediately leaned over to look at Abigail and asked her with a meaningful smile.

Chapter 452

Speaking of this, Abigail was in a daze for a moment. Thinking of what Liam said to Senior Mrs. Jones last night, Zia Abigail's blushed slightly.

"Grandma, this dessert is your favorite. It's a little bitter after taking the medicine. Come on, eat this!" Abigail said.

"Don't change the subject. I'm old, but my mind is clear. Tell me!"

"Grandma, you're so gossipy!" Abigail answered.

"I'm just concerned about you. How can it be gossipy?"

"It's not the time yet. We just date for a short time!"

"Not yet? Not even yesterday?" Hearing that, Senior Mrs. Jones asked in surprise.

Abigail stopped, not knowing what to say.

Senior Mrs. Jones was obviously hoping something happened between Abigail and Liam yesterday.

"Yes, not yet, so don't gossip," Abigail said, picking up another piece of dessert and feeding it to Senior Mrs. Jones.

Senior Mrs. Jones, on the other hand, enjoyed Abigail's caring about her. After all, Abigail would be her granddaughter-in-law.

But as she ate, she muttered, "My grandson, he's so disappointing. It's a waste of what he told me yesterday!" Senior Mrs. Jones said bitterly.

Hearing that, Abigail forced a smile.

She didn't know what to answer at Senior Mrs. Jones's words.

"Grandma, how are you today?" She quickly changed the subject, not wanting to talk about this. It was too awkward.

Senior Mrs. Jones sat on the bed. "I'm fine. What's going on? But staying in this room all the time is killing me!"

Looking at Senior Mrs. Jones's expression, Abigail smiled, "Well, have some dessert. I'll go out with you and take a walk, okay?" Hearing this, Senior Mrs. Jones immediately showed a smile, "Okay!"

She was thinking of going out for a walk.

Thus, the two of them chatted for a while, and then went out.

Walking in the corridor, Abigail chatted with Senior Mrs. Jones as if there were endless topics.

Just then, a nurse looked at them and said, "Senior Mrs. Jones, when I came over just now, I heard a cell phone ringing in your room!"

"Really?" Senior Mrs. Jones asked.

The nurse nodded and left.

At this moment, Senior Mrs. Jones sighed, "Oh, I forgot to get my phone!"

Abigail curved up the corners of her mouth and said, "I can go back and get it for you."

"Okay, go, go!" Senior Mrs. Jones urged.

While Abigail looked at her. "But you..."

"I'll wait for you here!"

Finding she was energetic, Abigail nodded and said, "Okay, I'll get it for you right away. Don't walk around!" "Okay, I won't leave. I'll wait for you here!" As she spoke, Senior Mrs. Jones sat in a chair on one side.

Abigail nodded in relief and turned back to get the phone.

Seeing Abigail leave, Senior Mrs. Jones sat there and looked around.

At this moment, Olive came out of the ward.

When recognizing her, Senior Mrs. Jones was curious why she was here. She then got up and walked over.

"Thank you, doctor. I see!" Olive nodded and walked out.

Feeling that someone was following her, Olive walked towards the stairs.

Chapter 453

Olive turned around and looked at the person behind her, "Why are you following me?"

With that said, she saw Senior Mrs. Jones. At this moment, Olive froze, asking in a low voice, "Grandma?"

Senior Mrs. Jones didn't feel embarrassed at all. Instead, she looked at Olive and asked, "Miss Miller, why are you here?" Senior Mrs. Jones glanced at Olive's arm, "Are you injured?"

Hearing Senior Mrs. Jones's words, Olive covered her arm with her hand. Feeling that Senior Mrs. Jones could see through her, Olive answered, "I accidentally hurt my arm!"

"I see." Senior Mrs. Jones nodded, but there was disbelief in her eyes.

"Grandma, why are you here?" Olive was curious.

"I have nothing else to do, so I want to stay here for a few days!"

Olive was speechless.

Senior Mrs. Jones's tone showed that she didn't want to tell the truth, so Olive felt uncomfortable.

"Grandma, I don't understand why you hate me so much!" Olive asked.

"Hate you? Do I?"

"Don't you? If it weren't for you, I would have married Liam!" Olive shouted.

Speaking of this, Olive was a little angry. She thought that Senior Mrs. Jones created difficulties for her. When she and Liam decided to get married, Senior Mrs. Jones postponed their wedding. And it had been delayed several times. Otherwise, Olive and Liam would have been married.

“You are blaming me, right?” Senior Mrs. Jones asked.

“Don’t you feel guilty? I have tried to please you, but you are never nice to me!” Olive said word by word.

Olive had never dared to pour out her grievances. She was afraid that if Senior Mrs. Jones was unhappy, she couldn’t be together with Liam. But now, there were only Senior Mrs. Jones and her, so she blurted it out.

Hearing Olive’s question, Senior Mrs. Jones sneered, “Do you know why I don’t want you to be together?”

“Why?”

“Because you have done everything on purpose. You and Liam don’t match each other!”

“Moreover, if Liam likes you, he will be committed to sticking together despite my objection. However, he shows no disapproval.

It’s because that he knows you will break up sooner or later!” Senior Mrs. Jones said slowly.

Hearing Senior Mrs. Jones’s words, Olive froze, “You say that we don’t match each other, right? We used to be happy when we were together before. Do you know that? Why do you impose your will on us?” Olive shouted back.

Olive was unwilling to admit that Liam didn't want to be with her before!

Senior Mrs. Jones's words were dreadful blows to Olive's pride.

"That's because you're scheming. the Joneses don't want you here!" Senior Mrs. Jones said.

"Do you know that you have ruined my lifetime happiness!" With that said, she became excited. Olive walked towards Senior Mrs. Jones and grabbed her.

If it weren't for Senior Mrs. Jones, Olive wouldn't have been like this!

At the sight of Olive's excited expression, Senior Mrs. Jones was irritated, frowning. She took a step back, "What are you doing? Get off me!"

"Why? Why are you doing this to me? I have tried to please you because you didn't like me. I want to get along well with you, just like Abigail. But you have never given me such a chance. Do you know that? I hate you! I hate you!" Olive shouted, grabbed Senior Mrs. Jones.

Chapter 454

Senior Mrs. Jones frowned and stepped back, but she missed her footing as she looked at her twisted face.

She slid backward.

Olive was taken aback. She could have reached out to grab her, but Senior Mrs. Jones fell down the stairs after her split second of hesitation.

Olive even felt a second of pleasure. Maybe she would be with Liam if she died! Knock, knock.

Senior Mrs. Jones had already closed her eyes and was unconscious when she fell from above and rolled down. Her forehead bled profusely...

Olive was taken aback and a little scared. Her whole body was trembling, and her face was pale. She walked down slowly to see if Senior Mrs. Jones was still alive, but as she approached Senior Mrs. Jones, she heard a shout from outside.

Olive was unconcerned about anything else. She turned around and dashed away.

It was imperative that no one discovered her!

She went straight to the door and into a car when she rushed out of the hospital.

"Let's go!" Olive said.

David frowned as he observed her nervousness. "What happened?" "Go!" Olive yelled, as if she had witnessed something terrible.

David drove the car away without asking any more questions...

[Inside]

Abigail couldn't see Senior Mrs. Jones after she took out her phone.

She looked all over, but she didn't find her on this floor.

She inquired about it and everyone stated that they had not seen her.

Seeing the stairs, Abigail frowned and went over to investigate.

She was surprised, however, when she opened the door and saw the person under the stairs.

“Grandma!” Abigail raised her voice.

She ran down in her three-inch high heels. She was terrified as she looked at the wound on Senior Mrs. Jones’s forehead and her unconscious body on the ground.

“Grandma, grandma!” Abigail tried calling twice, but Senior Mrs. Jones did not answer.

Abigail screamed just then. “Help! Help! Please!”

People outside heard a shout and let a nurse walk in at this point.

Seeing her was like seeing a savior for Abigail. “Hurry up and call someone...”

The nurse gave her several nods while seeing that situation.

Robert and Mrs. Jones were the next ones to arrive.

Their expressions changed in vain when they saw the person on the ground.

“Mom!”

“Mom!”

They both screamed at the same time.

“Uncle, aunt!” Abigail was at a loss for words when she saw them.

“I’m not sure how Grandma’s injury is. So don’t move her. We’ll have to wait for the doctor...” Abigail said.

Robert and Mrs. Jones did not move when they heard her words and simply stared at Abigail.

Despite the fact that Robert had experienced numerous affairs, he couldn’t help but be persuaded by Abigail’s words.

A large number of people, including nurses and doctors, rushed in at this time.

They placed Senior Mrs. Jones on a gurney and transported her to the emergency room.

Chapter 455

Robert, Mrs. Jones, and Abigail were waiting at the door anxiously.

Abigail was so worried that she almost burst into tears.

She didn’t know how it had become like this.

At that moment, Liam ran over. When he saw them, he immediately asked, "What happened?"

Seeing his coming, Robert didn't know what he should tell Liam. He looked at the door of the emergency room and said nothing.

Mrs. Jones replied Liam, "Your grandmother fell down the stairs and was sent to the emergency room. We don't know what's going on yet."

Hearing this, Liam's expression changed dramatically. "Why did she fall down the stairs?"

Speaking of this, Mrs. Jones turned her look to Abigail.

Abigail sat aside, full of worry.

Liam looked over at Abigail and asked her directly, "How on earth did that happen?"

Hearing Liam's question, Abigail replied, "We planned to go out for a walk. A nurse told us that grandma's phone was ringing in the room, so I went to get it. When I came back... grandma was like that!"

Speaking of this, Abigail could not resist shedding tears.

She blamed herself.

If she hadn't left Mrs. Jones alone, perhaps Senior Mrs. Jones wouldn't have fallen like this.

Looking at Abigail's sad face, Liam reached out and held Abigail in his arms.

Abigail snuggled into him and kept worrying. Thinking of how seriously Senior Mrs. Jones had fallen just now, she could not imagine how severe her injury was.

At that moment, the door of the emergency room was opened and the doctor came out. Robert and Mrs. Jones went to him immediately.

“Doctor, how’s it going?”

“Doctor, is she ok?”

They got close to the doctor and asked anxiously.

Holding their hands together, Abigail and Liam stepped forward worriedly.

The doctor took off his mask and stared at them. “The patient came down from upstairs and was injured severely. She needs surgery right now. Otherwise, her life will be in danger!”

Hearing this, they were devastated.

“Doctor, no matter what method you use, please save my mother!” Robert said.

“Doctor, if anything needed, just say it!” Liam said calmly.

There must be a reason why the doctor said so.

It seemed that there was a rational one. The doctor looked at Liam. "Well, there are some risks to the brain surgery. It is fine if the surgery is carried out successfully and she wakes up in two days. If she can't, she may have brain death."

Hearing this, their expressions changed drastically.

"How could this be?"

"I hope you are ready. If you agree, then sign it!" The doctor said so while the nurse behind him handed them a form.

It's a form of 'Consent for Surgery'.

When they saw that consent form, their mind went blank and didn't know what to do.

If they signed, they had to bear the risk that Senior Mrs. Jones might be in a vegetative state for the rest of her life.

Who dared to sign?

They were afraid to do that.

At that point, Liam reached out and got the form, "Give me." As he spoke, he signed it decisively.

Abigail gazed at Liam with an indescribable feeling.

She knew that he was signing for Robert.

Abigail could not tell what she felt. She never expected such a thing to happen.

She didn't know how to comfort Liam, so she could only hold his hand tightly.

Chapter 456

Feeling Abigail's strength, Liam also squeezed her hand.

Liam looked at the doctor. "I hope you can get her in surgery as soon as possible!"

"Don't worry. The operation will be ready soon. By the way, which one of you belongs to the AB blood type?" When the doctor asked this, he was in a daze for a second.

"The operation is about to start. The AB blood type in the warehouse is not enough at the moment. In order to prevent the patient from hemorrhaging, we may need to prepare blood later. If you guys belong to the AB blood type, it will be great!" The doctor said.

Liam and Robert looked at each other. Neither of them was.

And now, Abigail said, "Me!"

Hearing this, Liam turned to look at her. "Abigail..."

Abigail looked at Liam. "I believe grandma will be fine!"

A thousand words stuck in his throat. Liam could not say anything but look at Abigail and nodded heavily.

“Okay, come with me and prepare for it!” The doctor said.

Abigail nodded and followed the doctor and nurse.

The door of the emergency room closed again. At this moment, the people waiting outside were extremely nervous.

When the operation took an hour and a half, every time a nurse came out from it, Liam would ask them worriedly, but the answers were the same every time. “I don’t know.”

Liam got down in the dumps.

He didn’t know how to explain that feeling.

He would rather be the one lying inside than wait nervously here.

At this time, the media received the news. They were all gathered at the entrance of the hospital and fought for the first interview.

Dan was outside dealing with public relations.

Liam’s phone was off that no one could get through.

Ted, Nate, and Elon all came here through specific paths.

“How is it?” Nate looked at him and asked.

Liam shook his head. "I don't know yet!"

"Don't worry. Grandma is blessed. Nothing will happen!" Ted said.

Hearing this, Liam nodded and had to think that way.

Robert looked at them and said, "Thank you for your coming!" "That's all right. Liam's business is our business!" Elon said.

Hearing this, Robert nodded but was not in the mood to chat with them.

At this moment, the emergency room opened.

The nurse wheeled Abigail out. Seeing this, Liam immediately walked to her.

Seeing that Abigail's face was pale and bloodless, Liam asked, frowning, "What's wrong?"

"Something happened during the operation. Miss Swift lost a lot of blood and is very weak. I suggest that she eat more desserts and sugar water now!" The nurse said.

Liam nodded, and the nurse left.

Liam looked at Abigail. "How are you?"

Abigail shook her head with a strained smile. "I'm fine. I just lost some blood. It's okay!" At this moment, Nate immediately picked up his phone and dialed the phone.

"Send some hematinic food here immediately!" Then he hung up the phone.

At that moment, Ted, Nate, and Elon looked at Abigail with an indescribable feeling.

Half an hour later, much hematinic food was delivered here, and Abigail really ate a lot.

Chapter 457

Now that she was too weak and even felt dizzy, she had to eat more.

As she started eating, the door of the emergency room was pushed open again.

All of them walked over.

“Doctor, how’s it going?” Robert asked first.

The doctor took off his mask. “The operation was successful. The patient will be transferred to the intensive care unit now and will be observed for a period. If she can wake up during this period, then she will be fine!” The doctor said.

This was both good news and bad news.

The operation was successful, but there was chance that Senior Mrs. Jones might not wake up.

“Thank you, doctor!” Liam said.

At this point, Senior Mrs. Jones was pushed out of the room to the ICU.

Abigail was relieved a little.

She looked at Liam and said, "Grandma has a healthy constitution. She will pull through!"

Liam nodded.

They stayed in the ICU for a long time, but Senior Mrs. Jones didn't wake up.

Others stayed for almost half an hour before leaving.

Liam and Abigail left not long after they did.

[At the entrance of the hospital]

Liam and Abigail walked out.

When the reporters saw them coming out together, they swarmed over.

Abigail and Liam were surrounded.

"Mr. Jones, I heard that Senior Mrs. Jones fell down the stairs. Is this true?"

"Is it serious?"

"Mr. Jones, please say something!"

“Mr. Jones, you are coming with Miss Swift. So, you are in a relationship now as the rumors said? What about Miss Olive? Have you broken up?”

Being attacked with many questions, Liam got upset. “When everything is settled, I will make an announcement. Now, I have no comment!” As he spoke, he held Abigail’s hand and walked towards the door.

Abigail did not say anything either. After what happened today, she was not in the mood to say anything.

No matter what the reporters asked, Abigail and Liam remained silent, so they could only take pictures of them like mad.

However, all reporters, seeing their held hands, were sure that Liam and Abigail were in a relationship although they didn’t admit it.

Otherwise, who would be holding hands in such a situation!

Liam and Abigail got into the car.

Dan drove away.

On the way, Dan looked at Abigail and Liam through the rearview mirror and thought for a moment before he said, “Mr. Jones, Senior Mrs. Jones will be fine! Don’t worry too much.”

Liam didn’t reply.

Dan looked at Abigail and didn’t say anything.

After arriving at Abigail's neighborhood, Dan stopped the car.

"Mr. Jones, I'll pick you up on time tomorrow morning!" Dan said.

Liam nodded. Just as he was about to go upstairs, something suddenly occurred to him. "Abigail is not going to the company these days!"

"Oh, okay!" Dan nodded repeatedly.

Liam and Abigail went upstairs, hand in hand.

Dan stood there, watching them leave. Only at this point did he realize that they lived together now.

Otherwise, why would Mr. Jones come here? Wasn't this a little too fast?

Chapter 458

After Liam returned, he was not in a good mood, but he was considerate to Abigail.

Dan didn't leave and called and delivered dinner.

There was nutritious food.

Abigail wanted to cook herself, but Liam didn't allow her to cook. And she agreed.

After having food, Abigail took a shower. Liam didn't play with her but kissed her gently.

He said, "Go to bed early!" Abigail nodded.

Liam hugged her on the bed. Before she fell asleep, she looked at him and said, "Granma's operation is successful. I believe she will recover and wake up. Don't worry!"

Liam nodded, "I think so!" As he spoke, he leaned over and kissed her, "Your blood was drawn a lot. Have a rest early!"

"Ok!" Abigail nodded and closed her eyes to sleep without saying anything.

Liam held her in his arms and did not move. He didn't get up and walk out until he felt that she fell asleep after a long time.

He moved gently and silently in case of waking her up.

After he went out, Abigail opened her eyes and looked at his back with a frown.

Liam stood on the balcony with a cigarette in his hand.

Abigail walked slowly over to him and hugged him.

Liam was stunned.

Abigail said, "Don't worry. Grandma will be fine!"

Liam paused and turned to her with a smile, "Did I wake you up?"

Abigail shook her head, "No, I saw you coming out and wanted to accompany you!"

Hearing this, Liam smiled with satisfaction.

“Thank you!” Liam held her face and spoke softly in a low and soft voice.

Abigail transfused much blood for grandma. He could not forget that her face was pale when she walked out.

At that moment, he had a thought.

He would never leave her in his life!

“I should do it.” Abigail said. Grandma liked her so much and she couldn’t stand by.

Liam looked at her and leaned over to kiss her on the forehead.

At this moment, Abigail suddenly remembered something and frowned.

“What’s wrong?” Liam asked.

Abigail thought for a moment and said, “When I left, grandma was in a chair. Why did she fall down the stairs?” Liam frowned and asked, “What do you suspect?”

“I don’t know, but it is strange!”

Liam paused and looked at her, “I will research it. You don’t need to worry about it.”

Abigail nodded. They stood on the balcony for a while. And Liam took her back to rest in case that she was too tired.

Abigail slept soundly, but Liam slept late.

He was pondering something...

Chapter 459

David, Olive were standing to the side. Olive was really scared when they saw the news on TV.

David looked at her and noticed that her reaction was a little bit strange, and then he asked, "What is going on with you?" Olive had been acting really weird since she went out of the hospital.

"Nothing!" Olive tried to reply calmly.

David glanced at her and then looked at the live news on the television, and then he frowned slightly.

Olive turned off the TV directly.

At that time, David looked at her and said, "Are you involved in this issue?"

"Nonsense!" The words were no sooner out of his mouth than Olive shouted at him.

David stared at her and came to realize that she responded in a strange way.

Then, Olive looked at him with a frown. "You don't trust me?"

David was astonished and then shook his head. "No!"

Olive paused for a moment and fell into his arms.

"Don't quarrel with me. Stop doubting me. No one is by my side now except you." Olive whispered in his arms.

David was surprised for a moment when he heard what she said. Then, he reached out his hand and touched her head. "Okay." Olive lay in his arms and did not move for quite a while. It was not until the phone rang that she picked up the phone.

Olive saw an unfamiliar number on the screen. She frowned and answered it.

"Hello."

"Are you Olive?"

"Yes, I am. Who are you?"

"I'm..."

As soon as she finished speaking, Olive's expression changed.

Then, she quickly rose up from David's arms and walked to the other side to answer the phone.

"What do you want?" Olive asked in a low voice. Although her voice was not very loud, David could hear it clearly behind her.

Staring after her, David frowned.

He had a mixed feeling about her.

“Okay, I’ll give it to you, but you’d better succeed. Otherwise, I won’t give you a penny!” Then, Olive hung up the phone.

Olive stood there and took a deep breath.

She turned around and saw David standing behind her. David asked her directly, “Who is it?”

There was a distant look in Olive’s eyes. She said, “A friend.”

“Really?”

“Yes!” said Olive matter-of-factly.

David looked straight into her eyes and did not call her bluff. Actually, he had heard what she said just now.

He knew that it was not about a friend’s borrowing money from her. It might not be that simple. After thinking about it for a moment, David reached out his hand and touched Olive’s hair. “I don’t want you to keep secrets from me.”

“No matter what happened, I will help you, and you should know that I am on your side... ”

Listening to what David said, Olive looked at him with a faraway look on her face. "You mean it?" "Of course!" David said.

Olive thought for a moment and said, "It's Frank. He is threatening me again..."

David's face changed as soon as he heard Olive's words. There was a trace of darkness in his eyes.

At that time, Olive put her arms around him. "You will help me, right? Will you take my side?"

"Yes!" David said in a firm voice.

A day had passed.

Early in the morning, news spread all over A City.

Abigail had expected it all along. she couldn't care so much at that moment. She just washed up and went to the hospital with Liam.

"Do you feel better now?" Liam looked at Abigail, a little worried.

Chapter 460

Abigail shook her head. "I ate a lot of supplements and slept for an entire night. I'm fine now!" "What about taking a day off at home?"

“I can’t stay at home alone because you’re all in the hospital. When Grandma is awake, I can see her immediately!” Abigail expressed her thoughts.

Liam nodded in agreement.

They went to the hospital together.

Since many reporters were found to block the hospital’s entrance, they entered the hospital via the special entrance.

Robert and Mrs. Jones had been stationed at the hospital already.

They arrived earlier than expected.

“Dad, mom!” Robert and Mrs. Jones nodded as Liam walked in and greeted.

“Uncle, auntie!” From behind, Abigail also said politely.

The couple felt a lot more at ease when seeing Liam and Abigail together.

“How is it going? Is grandma still unconscious?” Liam enquired.

Robert shook his head.

“If she can’t wake up today, she might not be able to wake up anymore...”

Liam walked over to Senior Mrs. Jones, sat beside her, and reached out to grab her hand. “Grandma, you will wake up, right?” There was no response.

Liam, on the other hand, was confident that she would awaken!

Abigail walked out after noticing that they were all inside.

Abigail took a stroll down the same road where Senior Mrs. Jones had walked.

She remembered the location of the chair in which Senior Mrs. Jones had been sitting at that time, and the chair was missed.

Then, she took a look at the stairs.

She walked slowly in that direction.

She couldn't figure out why Senior Mrs. Jones would go to the stairs after finding the chair and sitting down.

Elevators were also available. Even if Senior Mrs. Jones had intended to go down, she didn't have to take the stairs.

Abigail approached, thinking about it.

She slowly walked down the stairs after pushing the exit open and looking at the spot where Senior Mrs. Jones had fallen.

All of sudden, a hand grabbed her from behind.

Startled, Abigail turned around. She exhaled a sigh of relief when realizing it was Liam.

"You frightened me!"

Liam fixed his gaze on her. "Take it easy and don't fall!"

"How did you find out that I was here?"

"When I saw you walk out, I knew you were coming here!" Liam replied.

How could he not know it? Abigail was as curious as Liam.

Abigail gave him a warm smile. "I'm just taking a look!"

"Did you come across anything?"

"I'm still perplexed as to why Grandma came here. This is a dead corner with no surveillance video, as far as I can tell. No one can see what happens here!" Abigail remarked.

Liam checked the location and found Abigail was correct.

Liam approached Abigail and hugged her.

"I understand you're still resentful of Grandma, but it's not your fault. Leave it to me, and I'll look into it!" Liam said.

"All right." Abigail nodded after some thought.

Liam and Abigail exited together.

A nurse stood there and frowned when seeing Abigail and Liam walking over...

They stayed in the hospital until noon, but Senior Mrs. Jones remained unconscious, so Liam and Abigail left.

The Novel will be updated daily. Come back and continue reading tomorrow, everyone!
