

Her Wicked Ceo (Abigail and Liam)

Chapter 491

Diamond ring?

Abigail was bemused and asked Leo, "What kind of ring?"

Leo shook his head and said, "I don't know. I just heard it from someone inside. I didn't ask in detail!"
Abigail stared at him. "Can you tell me what it looks like? Give me a description, or a photo!"

Finding she was so nervous, Leo knew that there must be something else. "I'll try my best to get it for you!" Abigail nodded. "Thank you!"

"Is there something wrong?" Leo asked her.

"I don't know, but I have a strong feeling that the ring is an important clue!" Abigail said.

Hearing this, Leo promised, "I'll help you find it!"

"Okay!" Abigail nodded.

After chatting for a while, Leo took a sip of coffee and said leisurely, "I saw the news that you were with Liam. Is that true?" Although he didn't want to believe it, their tacit understanding forced him to believe it when Liam took her hand to announce the news.

That was an intuition.

It was a man's intuition.

Abigail stopped herself and nodded. "Yes!"

No matter how unwilling he was to believe it or see her admit it, he still saw her nodding.

Leo's hands clenched.

He held back his rage and maintained his demeanor. "Why did you make the same decision?" Abigail did not notice his anger and said slowly, "It's not the same decision. What happened two years ago was inevitable for us.

Now, I'm just doing it for love!"

Love...

What Leo was most afraid of was she fell in love with Liam!

It was more terrifying than any other possibility!

"Love? What if he abandons you again? Do you believe him?" Leo asked her in a low voice, trying his best to suppress his anger. He could not lose his demeanor.

"Yes, I do!" She continued as soon as he stopped.

Leo frowned and looked straight at her with his deep eyes...

"I believe he won't lie to me!" Abigail said.

“Abigail, you’re too naive. You’re no match for him, let alone know his nature...” Leo said.

Abigail frowned, “Why do you say that?”

Leo paused for a moment and then said, “I can only tell you that Liam is not simple!”

Abigail smiled for his answer. “From the first day I met him, I knew that!”

“I mean...” Leo wanted to say something else, but he stopped himself since he found that Abigail looked at him inquiringly.

He paused for a moment and finally said, “You will definitely be hurt by him in the end!”

Abigail thought about it for a while. In fact, she did not know what to say, but she was such a person that she would break up if she didn’t love him. Once she loved him, she would try her best to believe and love him.

“Fine, as you said, if that’s the end, then I have nothing to say!” Abigail said.

“Abigail, you...”

“At least, for now, I can’t ignore his love and earnestness towards me. Even if I can’t see through his nature, at least he’s attentive to me now. I won’t lose anything...” Abigail said.

Leo was speechless.

He would never have thought that Abigail would say this.

In his opinion, Abigail had always been very calm and wise. She was smart enough to know what she wanted, what she could and couldn't, but now...

After all, Abigail believed in Liam!

That was the reason.

She believed him!

Leo suddenly felt a little ridiculous. He didn't know if it was a kind of sadness or not.

But he felt unspeakable loneliness.

He envied Liam!

He was even a little jealous of him!

He was unwilling to admit it, but it was the truth.

Leo's face was gloomy, but he tried to maintain his gentlemanly composure.

Only in this way could he continue to face Abigail.

After thinking for a while, Leo looked at her and said, "If this is your choice, I respect you!" "Thank you!"

"But I want you to be happy!" Leo said.

Abigail was shocked and nodded. "Thank you!"

Leo smiled bitterly and then said nothing more.

The two chatted briefly again. Leo invited her to have dinner together. Abigail declined by saying that she had something to do when she went back. So Leo drove Abigail back.

Downstairs, Leo said, "Don't worry, I'll help you find the ring as soon as possible!"

Listening to Leo, Abigail felt a little guilty about what she had just said to him. After all, he did it for her own good.

However, since she had said it, she could not take it back, and it would be a little awkward to talk about it now. Abigail looked at him and nodded. "Well, thank you, Leo!"

"I like you to call me when something happens, and I don't like you to be so distant and polite!"

Abigail was shocked.

"Abigail, I hope that our relationship will not deteriorate because of Liam. This is my last request!" Leo looked at her and said with a pleading look in his deep eyes.

Abigail was a little shocked. Leo was such a proud gentleman. She found it hard to believe that he said to her with such a tone and eyes. A trace of guilt flashed through Abigail's heart.

She thought of the two years when she was abroad.

That was her most carefree time.

Leo did help her a lot. In that strange country, he was her only support and warmth.

If...

If Liam hadn't appeared, perhaps she would have acquiesced that Leo was by her side.

However, she never thought that she would meet Liam again, and that she would fall in love with him.

Looking at Leo, Abigail finally smiled and nodded. "Yes, of course, you will always be my mentor and my best friend!" Abigail said.

Friends...

He gave a bitter smile.

Leo did not want to just be a friend to her.

But now, he had to compromise.

He nodded. "OK!"

Abigail smiled. "Okay, I'll go back first. Be careful on your way!" As she spoke, Abigail got out of the car, then she saw Liam, who was behind her.

Liam couldn't find her after he came back, so he went downstairs to look for her. He didn't expect to see her get out of Leo's car.

At that moment, he was shocked.

"Liam..." Abigail looked at him and shouted. Her voice was not guilty, and she did not do anything guilty. She was just a little awkward on this occasion.

Chapter 493

After all, Liam and Leo were not on good terms, which she knew very well.

Liam's eyes fell on her, and he was wordless.

Leo was sitting in the car. Seeing Liam, Leo pushed the door open and came down. "Mr. Jones, I asked Abigail to go out today for something to do!"

Leo eased the situation for Abigail, afraid that they would be unhappy because of him.

Of course, Leo was not such a noble person. He had his selfish motives.

He wanted to defeat Liam.

Hearing Leo's explanation, Liam looked at them for a moment. Then, he smiled, took a step forward and reached out to hold Abigail in his arms. "Mr. Harris, you don't have to explain to me. I know very well what Abigail is like, and I trust her!" As he spoke, he turned around and looked at Abigail with a smile.

Leo didn't buy it.

Why did Abigail's smile so strange?

But she didn't say anything but smiled calmly.

Leo stood there and looked at his hand on Abigail's shoulder. He tried to be calm and spoke like a gentleman, "That's good. I'm afraid that you will misunderstand us!"

"Leo, what are you trying to insinuate? I won't misunderstand you!" Liam said with a smile.

Leo was speechless.

Liam always spoke like this, leaving no room for others.

Abigail was a little embarrassed.

Seeing the two looking at each other, Abigail stood there, not knowing what to say.

At this moment, Leo smiled, "Okay, I see!"

Liam also smiled, but that smile was full of provocation. "I'm glad you understand. It's getting late, so I won't invite you to go up for coffee. Abigail and I will give you a treat another day!"

He announced his ownership of Abigail.

Leo stood there and finally nodded, "I also have something to do. I'll go first!"

As he spoke, he looked at Abigail and said, "I will do what I promised you. I'll go first!"

Abigail nodded, "Be careful on the road!"

"OK!"

Leo didn't say anything more. Instead, he went around, got in the car, smiled at Abigail, and drove away.

Liam's face darkened because of what Leo said before he left.

What did he promise her?

What was it?

It was not until Leo was far away that Abigail said, "Go up!"

As soon as she left, she found Liam motionless. She turned around and looked at him. "Let's go!"
"Abigail, aren't you going to explain to me?" Liam looked at Abigail and asked word by word.

Abigail frowned and looked at him. "What?"

"What happened between you and Leo!" Liam said word by word.

"Didn't you say you trust me? Why should I explain?" Abigail asked.

Liam's face twitched and he walked up. "I just wanted him to hear it. I am very jealous now. Why don't you explain it to me right away?"

Looking at Liam's expression, Abigail was shocked and then laughed.

Chapter 494

"Mr. Jones, since you're so jealous, don't make it so clear then!" Abigail beamed at him.

"Are you making fun of me?" Liam frowned and threatened her in a low voice.

"No, no, I think you look cute when you're jealous!" Abigail smiled.

"Hmph, don't butter me up. I'm not going to let you fool me. Tell me honestly, what did you do with him? Did he hold your hand?" "No!"

"Did he hug you?"

"No!"

"Did he flirt with you?"

"No, no, no..." Abigail answered all his questions as she walked in.

She opened the door and walked in.

As soon as Abigail walked in, the next second, Liam reached out and pressed her against the wall.

“Really?” He asked in a low voice.

Abigail nodded and stared at him with her clear eyes.

The next second, Liam leaned over and kissed her lips domineeringly.

At this moment, he cared about her more than ever and felt more excited than ever.

He trusted Abigail, so he didn't want to ask anything else.

[It was the next day.]

Something unexpected happened.

Olive actually went back to work.

That day, she told Liar that she might not go back to work, but today, she appeared at the company.

Olive looked radiant as if she had returned to her normal state.

She smiled at everyone except Abigail.

When she saw Abigail, she chose to ignore her.

At this moment, people in the office began to gossip again.

There was a good show to watch again.

The onlookers were never afraid of stirring up trouble. Before, Olive was Liam's girlfriend, but now Abigail was Liam's wife.

This good play would always be talked about.

At this moment, seeing Abigail coming, Jane leaned towards her and said in a voice that only two people could hear, "You're late this morning. Olive is going to make trouble again!"

Hearing Jane's words, Abigail turned to look at Olive. She hadn't seen much of Olive since she had last seen her in the hospital.

Now Abigail felt that Olive had changed in the last few days.

Abigail turned up the corner of her mouth and said nothing.

"Didn't she say she wouldn't come? Why did she come to work again?" Jane continued.

Abigail shook her head. "I don't know!"

"This is definitely a conspiracy. We can see the fun in our office again!"

Abigail looked at Olive and said nothing more.

Fortunately, Olive didn't do anything bad all day. She just occasionally spoke to her colleagues, whom she had never spoken to before. This surprised everyone, but she still spoke to them happily and tirelessly.

Olive's attitude towards her colleagues changed a lot. No one knew what had happened to her! Abigail didn't think much and didn't know why Olive suddenly came back to work. Olive ignored her, and so did she.

While Abigail was resting in the break room, Olive walked in.

"Abigail, are you surprised that I'll come back to work?" Olive looked at her.

Chapter 495

After pretending to be a stranger to Abigail for a whole day, was Olive finally gonna talk?

With her back to Olive, Abigail curled her lips when hearing Olive's voice, "I'm not surprised!"

"I won't be surprised by anything you do now!" Abigail said.

Hearing this, Olive frowned. "What do you mean?"

Abigail smiled and turned to look at her with certainty, "I think you know what I mean better than I do!"

Olive looked at Abigail as if she could see right through the latter.

She looked away and smiled coldly, "Really? Then you'd better be prepared because I can replace you at any time!" Hearing this, Abigail smiled, "I'll wait and see!" As she spoke, she walked past her with coffee in her hand.

As soon as she reached Olive, she suddenly remembered something and looked sideways at her. "Miss Miller, do you believe that justice has long arms?"

Olive was a little shocked at Abigail's whispering in her ear. "What do you mean?"

"It's nothing. I just want to tell you that I believe it!" With that, Abigail smiled and walked out.

Olive was left astonished and looked at Abigail's back, wondering if Abigail knew something.

When it was almost time to get off work, Abigail went to Liam's office to deliver the documents.

Liam sat in a swivel chair, wearing a black shirt with half of his sleeves rolled up, revealing half of his strong arms.

He was full of the unique charm of a man at work.

"Miss Swift, it turns out that there are times when you are infatuated with men!" Liam knew it was Abigail without looking up.

Hearing that, Abigail took a step forward and said, "How do you know it's me?"

Liam looked up and smiled. He stood up and walked over. "If you like someone, you can feel her smell, her footsteps, and even her breathing!" As he spoke, he reached out and hugged her.

Abigail looked at him with a smile. "Where did you learn these disgusting words?"

"It's true!" As he spoke, he leaned closer to Abigail and gently sniffed at her.

"You have a special fragrance on you!" He said.

"Nonsense, I never use perfume!"

"It's not the smell of perfume, but a unique smell that belongs to you, so as long as you are near me, I will definitely smell it!"

"Mr. Jones, you're becoming glibber and glibber now!" Abigail looked at him and said.

Liam smiled, "Do you want to try?"

"Try what?" Abigail asked.

"Didn't you say I was glib? Then don't you want to try?"

Abigail was speechless.

She gave him a disdainful look. No matter what the topic was, he could bring it to sex!

At this moment, Abigail smiled at him, "Mr. Jones, it's time to sign it!" As she spoke, she handed the document to him and placed it between the two of them.

Liam glanced at it and ignored it. He wrapped his arms around her waist and approached her. "Can I sign you?"

Hearing his words, Abigail smiled slightly. "Mr. Jones, I have work to do, so I'm gonna go..." As she spoke, she slowly pushed Liam away and was about to leave.

The Novel will be updated daily. Come back and continue reading tomorrow, everyone!

Chapter 496

However, Liam pulled her back and stared at her. "Don't you have anything to say to me?"

Abigail looked at him and narrowed her eyes slightly. "What?"

He continued, "Nothing?"

Abigail kept silent.

At this moment, Liam fixed his eyes on her and said, "About Olive..."

When he mentioned this, Abigail twitched her lips. "Is Mr. Jones going to explain to me?"

"Of course!" "Well, I'm all ears!"

Looking at Abigail's eyes, how could Liam not know those rumors? Even though Abigail did not ask, he still wanted to explain.

Liam said, "I didn't expect her to come back again of a sudden because she had said she wouldn't come back to work. You know, I can't fire her now!"

Abigail raised her eyebrow slightly. "Is it because you feel guilty?"

"I just think that it's not the right time!" Liam replied. After all, he was the one who betrayed Olive first. It would be a bit unjustifiable if he fired Olive.

This was a common fault of men!

They always had sympathy and pity for women!

Abigail locked Liam with her eyes. "I didn't care about her coming back to work, but Mr. Jones, I have to warn you. If you feel sorry for her, why not go to comfort her?"

Hearing this, Liam frowned. "What do you mean?"

"Literally. That's all. I'm leaving first!" Abigail was about to leave and didn't want to talk about it, but Liam didn't want to give up and reached out to stop her.

He asked, "Are you angry?" "No!" However, Abigail's attitude indeed changed.

After thinking for a while, Liam said, "I have no pity for her, but I did feel sorry for her. I only want to find a suitable opportunity to let her resign."

Abigail said, "It doesn't matter to me whether she resigns or not. The important thing is, Liam, I don't want my man to pity other women or keep an uncertain relationship with someone. If that's the case, then I'd rather kick him out!"

"Abigail!" Liam frowned and looked at her with indescribable feelings.

"Are you breaking up with me?"

"If you were that kind of person, I would!" Abigail said it firmly, which sounded so sure.

She would never want someone who pitied another woman.

If so, it was melancholy for her.

Liam kept staring at Abigail. Seeing that he was silent again, she turned to walk out.

Liam stood inside and peered at Abigail's back. It was the first time they had quarreled, and he had such a feeling.

He felt unhappy!

Sometimes, women fought for feelings, while men talked about intolerance.

Abigail received a call from Leo after work.

Then she went straight to Leo after hanging up the phone.

It was the same place.

Leo frowned when he saw Abigail. "What's wrong? Are you unhappy?" Hearing Leo's words, Abigail forced out a smile. "No!"

Leo continued to ask, "You can't hide it from me. What happened?" "Nothing. Really!" Abigail replied. She didn't want to tell Leo anything about her and Liam.

Seeing that she was unwilling to say anything, Leo did not force her.

"I found the photo!"

Hearing this, Abigail was shocked. "Where is it?"

Leo took out the photo and put it on the table. Then he handed it to Abigail.

She froze when the photo got into her sight.

Chapter 497

Sometimes, intuition was scary.

Because the ring belonged to Olive.

She had seen her wearing it all the time.

Now she saw this ring, and she seemed to have gotten the answer.

Leo looked at Abigail and could tell that something was wrong with her, then he asked, "Have you seen this ring before?" Abigail was shocked. He looked up at Leo and nodded.

"Olive?" Leo asked with a frown.

Abigail didn't know why Leo knew and even guessed right.

Perhaps he asked out of the intuition, but she could not deny it now.

She didn't say anything, but Leo didn't look well.

"I didn't expect it to be her!" Even if Abigail didn't nod, Leo could guess.

Abigail's expression could not be hidden from him.

At this moment, Leo's face was gloomy.

Abigail stood up, saying, "Leo, I'm leaving now. Let's talk another day!" Abigail was about to get up.

"Wait!" Leo said, "I'll go with you!"

Abigail shook her head. "No, I can go by myself. I want to solve this problem myself!"

“But Olive is so ruthless. You can’t beat her. Let’s not talk about anything else. Take Frank’s matter for example. If she really killed him, then she will never be merciful to you!” Leo looked at her and said word by word.

Hearing Leo’s words, Abigail frowned, “I know, but right now, I won’t let her kill me. Leo, I know you’re doing this for my own good and worrying about me, but I want to handle this myself!”

No one could persuade once Abigail made up her mind.

Leo looked at her and knew that no matter what he said, she would not let him help her!

Finally, he thought about it and nodded. “Okay, then you have to promise me that if anything happens, you must tell me. Don’t make me worry!”

Abigail nodded.

Then Leo allowed her to leave.

Looking at her back, Leo narrowed his eyes.

Abigail, if I were Liam, if Liam had nothing to do with Olive, would you allow me to help?

Sitting in the car, Abigail flipped through the photos of Olive. She wanted to see whether the ring was hers.

However, when she found her photos and looked at her ring in the photos, she found that the two rings were the same!

She could be sure that it was Olive.

There wouldn't be such a coincidence in the world. Ever since Frank said those words to her last time, she had been suspecting it.

And now, the ring was the evidence she left behind!

She was thinking about how to deal with it.

Everyone should pay the price for what they did. The person behind it was Olive, so she should pay the price for this!

Olive had wanted her life more than once!

Even if Abigail was indifferent and didn't want to care, she didn't want to keep someone who always wanted to take her life.

Along the way, Abigail was thinking about how to solve this problem, so much so that she didn't know how she got home.

Looking up, she saw Liam.

He stood there waiting for her. He was dressed in black, and he was so tall. The night lengthened his figure, but it did not reduce his aura.

Thinking of their argument during the day, Abigail stood still and did not walk over.

Chapter 498

Liam walked up when he saw Abigail stop. "Are you back? Have you eaten? Are you hungry?" His voice was as warm as ever, as if nothing had happened during the day.

Abigail stood there and said, "Not yet!"

"Let's go back and eat!" As he spoke, Liam took her hand and walked inside.

Abigail didn't say anything, but let him hold her.

Looking at his profile, Abigail did not say anything more and followed him in.

"You rest first, I'll cook!" Liam said.

He was going to cook?

Hearing this, Abigail was a little surprised and could not believe what she heard.

Thinking of his "great achievements" in the kitchen last time, Abigail stopped him. "Let me cook!"

Hearing this, Liam was shocked, but Abigail had got up and walked towards the kitchen.

Liam stood there, looking at Abigail's back and frowning slightly.

Until the meal was made, the two did not talk much during the meal, so they had a bad appetite and ate only a little.

After cleaning up, Abigail stood on the balcony. Liam watched from behind, then walked up and hugged her from behind.

“Still angry?”

Hearing this, Abigail was in a daze before she answered, “No!”

“I’ll fire her tomorrow, okay? I swear, I won’t have any pity for her anymore. Don’t be angry, okay?”
Liam asked.

Liam’s words were also beyond Abigail’s expectations.

This was the first time they had quarreled. With Liam’s proud character, he would never give in, so she was a little surprised to hear him say this now.

Her long eyelashes trembled. She looked back at Liam. “I’m not angry!” With a slight movement, Liam understood her.

“Do you have something on your mind?”

Abigail nodded.

“What’s the matter?”

After much hesitation, Abigail decided to tell him.

“Did you know that a ring was found at Frank’s crime scene?” Abigail asked.

Liam was also shocked. He looked at Abigail with a trace of shock in his eyes. “You know?” Liam’s words shocked her even more.

She frowned slightly. “You already knew!”

Liam did not deny it and nodded.

For some reason, Abigail’s heart sank. “Then why didn’t you tell me?” she asked.

“Because until now, there is no evidence that the ring has anything to do with Frank’s accident!” Liam said.

Taken aback, Abigail smiled, “It’s because this ring has something to do with Olive!”

Liam frowned as he watched her retreat.

“You don’t believe me?”

“Why didn’t you tell me?” Abigail asked.

“I just want to tell you after I find the evidence!”

“Really?” Abigail looked at him and asked.

He had a sense of foreboding. At this moment, Liam stepped forward and said, "I know that no matter how I explain this, you will not believe it. But I want to tell you that I am not hiding this from you for Olive!"

Abigail looked at him without saying anything.

Her mind was in a mess and she didn't know what to do.

At this moment, Liam looked at her and said, "Let's not quarrel, okay? I don't want to quarrel because of this. I admit that it's my fault to hide this from you. But I didn't tell you for your safety!"

Chapter 499

"If Olive really did this, then she will definitely find a way to deal with you. I don't want you to be in danger again. That's my purpose!" Liam said.

Abigail stood there angrily, but after hearing Liam's words, she trusted him.

There was nothing else.

Only the scene of him dying to save her kept flashing through her mind.

Abigail took a deep breath to calm herself down.

She reminded herself not to be too emotional!

“What if Olive really did that to Frank?” Abigail looked at Liam and asked.

“It has nothing to do with me about Frank. I just want to know if the person who ordered Frank is Olive!” Liam said.

Hearing this, Abigail looked up at him.

It turned out that he was also suspicious.

It wasn't just her!

“That's the answer I want to know!” Abigail said.

She had to know who wanted to attack her over and over again!

“I wanted to tell you after I dealt with this, but I didn't expect you to know it so soon!” Liam said.

Hearing this, Abigail looked at Liam. “I think I have one more thing to tell you!”

“What's the matter?” Liam looked at Abigail and asked.

“Do you remember what happened to us last time?”

Liam nodded.

“The next day, Olive went to the hospital to see you. At that time, I said something to her!”

Liam's eyes furrowed slightly as he remembered this.

"When Frank pushed me down, he said something. I was going to die. If I wanted to find him, I would look for Olive. Don't look for him. This sentence was not to scare her. It was true. After that, I began to doubt her!" Abigail said.

Hearing this, Liam suddenly frowned. "Are you serious?"

Abigail nodded. "That's why I want to know the truth so urgently!"

Liam's face darkened. "I thought you said that on purpose!"

Abigail looked at him. "I never talk nonsense. I'm just worried that you won't believe me even if I say it!"
"Yes!"

As soon as she finished speaking, Liam spoke.

He hugged her, lowered his head, and looked at her with deep eyes.

"Abigail, maybe you don't believe me. From the first time I saw you, I believed you. That kind of trust was born with me, as if it had been in my bones for many years. As long as it was what you said, I believed it!"

Listening to Liam, Abigail also looked at him. "Thank you!"

"I hope you will believe me too!" Liam said.

Abigail nodded.

“As for Olive’s...” Halfway through, his eyes darkened. “If she really did it, she must pay for it!” [The next day]

Abigail came out of the room after looking at the old lady. Just a few steps later, she saw a familiar figure walking towards the elevator.

She frowned and was very sure that the woman was Olive.

But why did she come to the hospital?

Abigail felt something was wrong. At this moment, she walked into the medical room where Olive came out.

Chapter 500

“Doctor, may I ask what happened to the person who just walked out?”

The whole hospital now knew that Abigail was from the Jones family. Who dared to offend her? However, they were still in a dilemma.

“Miss Swift, this is the patient’s privacy. It’s not convenient for us to reveal it!”

“Doctor, I’m her friend. I’m just concerned about her injury. There’s no other reason!” Abigail said.

The doctor looked at Abigail. Although he was a little embarrassed, he still let go.

“Miss Miller is injured. She just came here to change her dressing!”

“Injured? What?”

“She was stabbed in the abdomen, but she’s fine now!” The doctor said.

Hearing this, Abigail was dumbfounded.

A knife in the abdomen?

Being stabbed was a big deal, but Olive didn’t say anything and even went back to work at the company...

Obviously, Olive wanted to hide it.

But why did she do so?

Something must have happened!

And she couldn’t let anyone know!

When Abigail came back to her senses, she looked at the doctor and nodded. “I see. Thank you, doctor!”
The doctor nodded and Abigail walked out.

However, she always felt something was wrong.

Olive was injured and didn't want anyone to know, and Olive's ring was left at the scene...

Maybe... The answer was really coming out!

[Inside the company]

Abigail was drinking in the coffee shop downstairs with her legs crossed. She looked elegant.

At this moment, a figure slowly walked over.

"Miss Swift, what's the matter with you?" Olive walked over to look at Abigail and asked.

It was the first time Abigail had taken the initiative to meet her, which surprised her.

Abigail turned around and glanced at Olive. She was dressed very beautifully, and there was a light smile on the corner of her mouth.

If she hadn't seen Olive in the hospital, she wouldn't have known that Olive had been hurt.

"Sit down!" Abigail said.

Olive glanced at the seat next to her and said, "Miss Swift, what a surprise! I didn't expect you to be in charge of this."

"Look for me!" As she spoke, she pulled out a chair and sat down. "Tell me, why do you look for me?"

Abigail put down the coffee and looked at Olive. "Of course, I have something to talk to you about!"

"Then let's get straight to the point!"

“In that case, I won’t beat around the bush. Do you know Frank Green?” Abigail was direct.

Hearing Frank’s name, Olive was still shocked.

She would never mention the person’s name in her life.

It was like a nightmare!

Olive put away her astonishment and said with a smile, “Frank is a famous bastard. No one in the business world can deny him.

Yes? But wasn’t he dead? I wonder what you mean by asking me that!”

“I just want to know if you have any personal contact with him!” Abigail said.

Olive frowned. “Abigail, what do you mean?”

“It’s not interesting. I’ve just remembered that Frank said something when he attacked me!”

“What are you talking about?” Olive asked nervously.

The Novel will be updated daily. Come back and continue reading tomorrow, everyone!