

Chapter 11

“What the fu...” Tina exclaimed, “Really?”

“Yes, I met him just now,” Abigail said.

Hearing this, Tina was even more surprised. “Did he recognize you?”

“Not yet, but I think he will recognize me sooner or later.”

“Then what should you do? With Liam’s temper, he will definitely give you a hard time.” Tina said worriedly over the phone.

“Yes, so I’ve decided to resign.”

“I support you,” Tina said over the phone.

“All right, I’m going to write my resignation letter. See you after work.”

“Okay, I’ve made a reservation and I’ll send you the address later.”

“Cool.”

With that, Abigail hung up the phone. She went back to the Design Department, sitting in her own work position.

She didn't expect that her first task was to write a resignation letter.

Although she was a little bit reluctant to quit the job, given its nice working environment, Abigail still decided to leave in order to live a quiet life in the future.

Thus, she spent the afternoon writing the resignation letter in her seat. While doing that, she was listening to gossip.

It was about Liam.

From his career to affairs, there was a lot of gossips.

Unexpectedly, after just two years, Liam had different tastes, from model to actress and socialites.

Moreover, he had changed his way of doing things by keeping a low profile. Now they had no idea who Liam's girlfriend was, but they knew that recently he had been very close to Olive Miller, the daughter of the Miller Group's boss.

Olive was the very woman she saw in the office just now.

So, rumor had it that Olive was Liam's current girlfriend. Although they attended various occasions together and were questioned by the media frequently, Liam never admitted it.

An idea hit Abigail. She quickly googled Liam to check on it.

Lots of information came out but most of them were related to the Powerline Group, his business success rather than his personal affairs.

It took him one year to start the company and one year to operate it. In barely two years, the Powerline Group grew from an unknown small business into an international big one under Liam's management.

She had to admit that Liam was a genius in business. And now the Powerline Group had surpassed the Jones Group, his identity as Mr. Jones was more recognized than that of the young master of the Jones Group.

He had done a great job in the past two years. He was no longer frivolous. Instead, he was more mature and steadier, with the mannerisms of a charming and mysterious man.

It was obvious that Liam had been living a good life based on these achievements.

The divorce seemed to have made his life a little smoother.

Thinking of this, Abigail was even more determined to resign.

It would be good for both of them!

Otherwise, things would really get out of control when the truth was revealed.

Chapter 12

After typing the resignation letter, it was almost time to get off work. She had no choice but to hand it to the HR manager tomorrow.

Thinking of this, she packed up and prepared to leave.

She made an appointment with Tina to go shopping and buy some daily necessities.

Following the address sent by Tina, Abigail rushed over right away.

As soon as they met, Tina asked Abigail about the situation, so Abigail told her the whole story without neglecting any details.

After she heard it, Tina couldn't help but say, "Oh come on! It's so cliché!"

"I know, but that's the truth," Abigail said as she ate to calm herself down. Even she felt a little surprised when she remembered what happened in the afternoon.

"He really didn't recognize you?"

Speaking of this, Abigail thought for a moment and said, "I don't think so. If he does, he wouldn't have that kind of reaction!" According to Liam's character, if he really found out, he would tear her apart. Definitely!

Tina immediately perked up and put a spoon in front of Abigail as a microphone. "Dear Miss Swift, can I give you a simple interview?"

Looking at Tina, Abigail smiled cooperatively and said, "Sure."

“So, what were you thinking when your ex-husband didn’t recognize you?”

Abigail thought about it and said seriously, “I’m glad he didn’t recognize me!”

Tina, “Aren’t you a little disappointed?”

Abigail shook her head seriously. “Not at all, my dear.”

“That’s awesome.”

Hearing this, Abigail smiled. “Come on. Stop it.”

Tina smiled, retracted her joking face, looked at her, and said, “After all, you were once a couple, and you’ve not been recognized, there will definitely be a trace of unease in your heart. It’s okay if you feel unbalanced. I won’t laugh at you, girl.”

“I was thinking of leaving at that time, and I didn’t have so many feelings and insights!” Abigail said.

Tina smiled. “What are you going to do? Resign?”

“Yes, I will hand in the letter tomorrow.”

“Looking for a new job?”

Abigail nodded with certainty. “Well, as for my resume, it’s not a problem to find a job here.” Of course, Tina believed that. “Well, no matter what decision you make, I will support you.” Hearing Tina’s words, Abigail smiled and raised her glass. “Cheers!”

“Cheers!”

“Abi, I’m going to the bathroom.”

“Okay.”

So, Tina got up and walked in the direction of the bathroom.

At the same time, the waiter walked by, carrying something that somehow spilled on a woman.

“Ah—” The woman shouted.

Hearing the sound, Tina and Abigail looked over there almost at the same time.

The woman was sprinkled with coffee. The style and material of her dress looked like high-end clothes, expensive and beautiful.

Tina stood there, not knowing what was going on.

At this moment, the woman in front of her raised her head, looked at Tina, and said unreasonably, “What are you doing? Are you blind?”

At the moment she looked up, Abigail saw the person in front of her clearly.

It was her.

Olive Miller. Her boss or her ex-husband’s lover!

When Tina heard this, she frowned unhappily. Knowing that it was her fault, she quickly apologized. “I’m sorry. Its my fault.

Chapter 13

Her Wicked Ceo (Abigail and Liam) - Chapter 13

Chapter 13

“That’s it? Do you know you ruined my day? Do you know how expensive my dress is?” Olive said angrily as she looked at her dirty dress.

‘What a spoiled rich girl! Drama queen.’

Tina was not a pushover. Respect should be mutual. Why should she respect someone who offended her? Tina smiled. “Miss, I’ve apologized. What else do you want?”

“Apologize? Does your apology help? Do you think it is enough?” Olive said angrily.

Tina was really pissed off when she heard this. “Well, since it’s helpless, then forget it,” Tina said.

Tina’s words angered Olive even more.

As soon as she was about to explode, she saw Abigail aside.

She hadn’t forgotten what happened at the company today. She didn’t expect to meet her here.

It seemed that Abigail was with the woman in front of her!

Olive became furious when she thought of this. “Is that you?” When Abigail saw Olive’s gaze, she could only stand up and look at her with a smile. “Miss Miller, my friend didn’t mean to...”

“Too much for a ‘didn’t mean to’! I think you did it on purpose!” Abigail’s words were interrupted by Olive before she could finish speaking.

While Abigail heard Olive’s words and her tone, she also frowned discontentedly. Interrupting others’ words was really rude.

Abigail was about to say something when a figure came in from the door.

He walked straight to Olive.

That person was none other than Liam.

Abigail was even more upset when she saw him.

Enemies were bound to meet on a narrow road.

When Tina saw him, she was surprised. She turned around and looked at Abigail.

Abigail just stood there, looking extremely calm.

Tina was impressed.

‘Girl, you are too damn calm.’

Liam did not notice Tina, but he saw Abigail looking at him at once as if she did not want to see him.

Liam felt a little mutated when he saw through her feeling.

'Hmph, I won't let you get your own way, Abigail Swift.'

"What happened?" Liam turned around and asked. It was obvious that he was asking Olive.

Olive heard Liam's words, she pouted unhappily. "Liam, they've ruined my dress. You sent it to me. I rarely wore it!" As soon as she saw Liam, Olive seemed to act differently and said coquettishly.

Tina could not help but get goosebumps from that disgusting voice.

"Really?" Liam looked at them when he heard this. He gazed at Abigail.

When Abigail saw Liam's eyes, she just stood there and was not in a hurry to speak, but Tina said, "Miss Miller, I've already apologized. What else do you want?"

Olive didn't say anything, but she was clearly dissatisfied.

At this moment, Abigail spoke up, "Miss Miller, how much is your dress? We'll pay you back!"

Olive sneered when she heard this. "Liam gave it to me. It is priceless!"

She was clearly looking for trouble by saying that.

Tina looked at her. "What do you want?"

At this moment, Olive glanced at Tina, and her gaze finally fell on Abigail...

Chapter 14

“Miss Swift, didn’t you and your friend do this on purpose?”

Hearing this, Tina was dissatisfied and was about to speak, but at this moment, Abigail spoke in advance. Abigail was not angry, but smiled, “Miss Miller, why should we do this on purpose?”

“Exactly!” Tina echoed.

Hearing this, Olive snorted. “Who knows?” After that, she gave Abigail a provocative look.

Looking at Olive’s arrogant expression, Tina couldn’t stand her anymore. She wasn’t as patient as Abigail. “Miss Miller, are you delusional?”

No one had ever said that to Olive. Hearing this, Olive frowned and looked at her unhappily. “What did you say?”

“Aren’t you? I suggest you should see the doctor as soon as possible. It’s a disease and it needs to be treated.”

“You,” Olive was so angry that she turned to look at Liam who was beside her, “Liam, look at them. They are bullying me...” Looking at Olive’s angry face, Liam seemed to be calm. He glanced at Tina and Abigail and smiled. “Oli, why are you angry with them? You don’t need to lower your status because of them...”

Hearing this, Olive was enlightened. She immediately lifted her chin proudly. “Yes, you’re right. They don’t deserve my anger.” Tina was furious. The fire was burning in her eyes. But Abigail kept a decent smile on her face and remained calm.

At this moment, Olive looked at Liam. "What about my dress? I can't have dinner like this."

"I'll buy another one for you later."

"Well, thank you, Liam," Olive said, not forgetting to step forward and kiss Liam on the face.

She even looked at Abigail with a strong sense of provocation.

Standing there, Abigail thought that Olive was so strange. They had only met once, and Olive's hostility towards her was so strong.

'Oh, women!'

Looking at the ostentatious Olive, Tina was very angry. So, She took out twenty bucks from her bag and put it in front of them.

"Miss Miller, no matter what, it's our fault that we make your clothes dirty. The twenty bucks will be your dry cleaning fee."

Looking at the money, Olive pursed her lips, showing her disgust. "Twenty dollars? Do you think it is enough?"

"No, but the key is that you only deserve this price..." After saying that, Tina turned to look at Abigail. "Abi, let's go!"

Abigail didn't say anything, just following Tina out.

When Olive realized what had happened, they were already far away.

“It is true that birds of a feather flock together. They’re really impolite.” Olive said angrily.

‘Damn it, how could they say that to me?’

Looking at their backs, she frowned.

‘Abigail, you’d better not forget what happened today. I’m not done with you!’

“Liam, look...” Olive shook Liam’s arm angrily.

“Why are you angry with them? Don’t forget, you’re a noble and elegant lady. Why do you have to care about them?” Liam opened his mouth, but then looked at the figure outside the door. His eyes were full of wonder...

Chapter 15

Well, what Liam said was true, but Olive couldn’t swallow her anger without fighting back. As long as she thought about it, she would be just fuming with indignation.

At this moment, Liam looked back at her. Seeing she was still in a rage, he said, “Forget it. I’ll buy you another one.” Liam comforted her carelessly.

Since Liam finally comforted her, she could say nothing but nod in dismay. “Okay.”

Outside the door.

As soon as Tina and Abigail went out, Tina said with a broad smile, "I feel so good looking at that woman suck it up."

"Damn her. What a drama queen!"

Hearing Tina's words, Abigail smiled slightly. "You're amazing!"

"Oh, I just feel bad to waste my twenty bucks. I wanted to give her ten, but I didn't have one on me."

Abigail joked, "Well, you are so generous. If I were you, I would only give her one dollar."

Hearing Abigail's words, Tina smiled and said, "It's not a big deal. But I believe if she finds out that you are Liam's ex-wife, she will go crazy."

Hearing this, Abigail smiled. "It's better to keep it a secret. Otherwise, she will definitely not let me off."

"Hahaha, I just feel so good in seeing her pissed off. Who does she think she is? And that Liam, I never expected him to be such a vile guy."

Hearing Tina's words, Abigail pondered for a moment and then nodded. "Indeed!" Both of them burst into laughter and then got into Tina's car.

At this moment, Abigail suddenly thought of something. She reminded Tina, "By the way, Tina, remember not to talk about me and Liam with anybody!"

"I know. Don't worry. I won't talk about it with anyone." Tina said with a smile.

"I just don't want any trouble!" "Don't worry. Your secret is safe here." Tina made a gesture of zipping her lip.

Looking at Tina, Abigail smiled. "I trust you!"

The next day.

Abigail went straight to the Powerline Group.

The series of events made her even more determined to not stay in the company.

Walking in, Abigail handed her resignation letter to the personnel department.

Emily, the HR manager, was a little confused. "You just got hired yesterday and you are going to resign today? Miss Swift, are there any difficulties in your work?"

Looking at Emily, Abigail smiled. "I'm really sorry. It's due to my personal reasons. It has nothing to do with the company!"

"Well, what a pity!" The HR manager said.

"I'm sorry!" Abigail said sincerely. Emily was a nice person, and Abigail respected her very much.

Emily thought for a moment and said, "I need to hand your resignation letter to Mr. Jones first!"

"OK!" Abigail nodded.

Then Emily went to the president's office and came back shortly after.

"Miss Swift!" Emily said. "Mr. Jones wants to meet you."

Hearing this, Abigail frowned. "Do I have to?"

"Yes. Mr. Jones has your resignation letter now. He said he wants you to talk with him in person." Emily said.

Abigail had no choice but to nod in agreement. "Okay, I got it. Thank you, Emily!"

"I just hope you can stay if possible."

Abigail smiled and did not say a word. She took a deep breath and walked towards the president's office.

She didn't know what would happen to her...
