“Don’t worry, Fifth Uncle, if I, Omi, don’t have this much skill, how am I capable of stepping into the Void from the mortal realm.”

“Also, the fact that you were able to step into the void from the mortal world is enough to show that you have a strong ability to resolve crises, as well as a very strong sense of luck. In ten days, the people from the Flying Cloud Sect will come to recruit you, I’ll write a letter to my daughter Tang Huan now and ask her to prepare for the reception in advance, I’ll also ask her to take good care of you, although she’s only at the third stage of Body Tempering, she’s always stronger than you are now, I’m sure she’ll be able to protect you.”

“Oh, thank you, Fifth Uncle.” Omi smiled slightly, although Omi protecting Tang Huan was more or less the same, but he was very grateful for Tang Jingtian’s piece of mind.

Tang Jingtian immediately went to write a letter.

Writing a very long letter, telling his daughter that she had an additional cousin, Omi, and that the cousin would be coming to the Flying Cloud Sect for assessment in a while, spilling thousands of words.

And right now, in Tang Hu Lai’s study room.

Tang Hu Lai was also writing letters.

“Cure, Bing’er, how is everything going in the Flying Cloud Sect? All is well at home, don’t worry. But something has happened today that has set me on fire. (5,000 words omitted). If you don’t get rid of him, he will be your biggest competitor in the Tang family, and most of their immortal resources will be taken over by him. If you don’t, you will be the biggest competitor of the Tang family in the future, and the Tang family’s resources will be taken over by this person. Lastly, please don’t think of your family, you guys cultivate at ease in the Flying Cloud Sect, especially Bing’er, you must become a core disciple, and then my father will be doubly honored.”

In the blink of an eye, ten days arrived.

The people of the Flying Cloud Sect came to Tian Bao City to recruit peripheral disciples.

At this moment in Heavenly Jewel City's Moonwatching Building, there had been a line of people from inside the building, all the way to the street. The first website m.kanshu8.net

Omi was also among a line of Tang family children.

This time, there were eighteen people who went with Omi to the Feiyun Clan for the assessment, most of them were between fifteen and seventeen years old, and only Omi was the youngest, only twelve.

The four major immortal cultivation families in Tianbao City, the other three families were the Ancient Nun Family, the Lie Yue Family, the Meng Family, and the Tang Family.

Among these four major Immortal Families, the Ancient Nu and Leye were the strongest, followed by the Meng Clan, and the Tang Clan was the weakest.

Therefore, when it came to registering, the children of the Ancient Slave and Lie Yue Families were the first to register, followed by the Meng and Tang Clans.

Originally, the Tang and Meng Clans were unable to exist safely in Tian Bao City because the Ancient Slave and Lie Yue families were strong, far stronger than the Tang and Meng Clans.

However, the two great families, Ancient Slave and Leyue, checked and balanced each other, and that was why the Meng and Tang Clans were able to survive in the cracks of Tianbao City.

Moreover, the Tang Clan had joined the Ancient Slave Clan and the Meng Clan had joined the Lie Yue Clan, so it formed Tian Bao City, the two dominant clans of Ancient Slave and Lie Yue, and the two small subsidiary clans of Meng and Tang.

It was Omi's turn.

"What's the name?"

"Don Omi."

"How old?"

"Twelve."

"Well?Twelve?"The man in charge of the records was busy looking up.

"Twelve years old?Have you reached the first stage of body refining?"

"Yes."

"Come over and verify it."

Omi walked over, and in the next second, the person who registered said, "Not bad, it is indeed twelve years old, it seems that this year, Heavenly Jewel City is not bad, there are two twelve year olds who have reached the first stage of Body Tempering."

"Uh, Senior, is it possible that in Tian Bao City, besides me, there is someone else who reached the first stage of Body Tempering at the age of twelve?"

"Nonsense, you think you're unique ah, the other person who reached the first stage of Body Tempering is from the Heavenly Jewel City Lie Yue Family. Kid, I'll reveal it to you here, but don't you dare spread it to the outside world."

"Uh, what does senior have to reveal, please say, I promise not to spread it out."

"Hehe, our Flying Cloud Sect, has

A very strong elder, he's also from Heavenly Jewel City, and he's trying to return the favor to his hometown, so this year he wants to take in one of Heavenly Jewel City's children as a Dharma Transmitting Disciple."

"Dharma transmitting disciple? What is this."

"You child, why are you asking so clearly, in short, you, and that person from the Leye Moon Family, one of you, will definitely be accepted as a Dharma Transmission Disciple. Only, I don't know who will be accepted as a Dharma Transmission Disciple, it depends on the chance of the two of you."

"Oh, thank you senior for informing me."

"Alright, you go out, don't spread this news."

"Of course not."

Omi walked out of the Moonwatching Tower.

Omi only gave an unnecessary shrug at this news, if it were someone else, he would have been thrilled.

But what kind of person was Omi, who didn't take it seriously at all.

At this moment, in the Leyue Family.

One person excitedly asked, "Senior Shejun, is he really taking a Dharma transmission disciple?"

"It's a thousand times true, Senior She Jun was also from Heavenly Jewel City four hundred years ago, and in return for his hometown, he was determined to accept a genius son of Heavenly Jewel City as his Dharma disciple. This is good news."

"But, what are his criteria for accepting a Dharma transmitting disciple? Although my grandson stepped into the first stage of Body Tempering at the age of twelve, however, he is only at the first stage of Body Tempering after all."

"Haha, Patriarch Leyue Bi, I'll just reveal to you, Senior She Jun accepts passing on disciples, his vision is different from others oh, in short, your family Leyue Eyes, absolutely one hundred percent, because in the entire Heavenly Jewel City, this year, he is the only one who reached the first stage of Body Tempering at the age of twelve."

"Hahaha, that's good, if my grandson, Leyue Eyes, becomes senior She Jun's passing disciple, then it's a sure thing that he will become a core disciple of the Flying Cloud Sect, hahaha." The Lie Yue Clan's patriarch laughed loudly.

Just at this moment, a man outside rushed in.

"It's bad, Clan Head, Moonwatching Moon Tower has discovered another young genius who stepped into the first stage of Body Tempering at the age of 12."

"What? How is this possible, two appearing in one city? That's by no means possible."

"It's true, that person is from the Tang Clan."

"It's even more impossible, how is it possible that the Tang Clan is a trash family, a vassal of the Ancient Slave Clan."

In short, Omi was on fire in the four major immortal cultivation families of Tian Bao City, and all four major immortal cultivation families knew Omi's name.

After reporting his name, Omi was placed directly on a bird cart, and after the registration deadline this evening, Omi would be heading to the Flying Cloud Sect along with the people from the Flying Cloud Sect.

Tang Jingtian shouted from a short distance away, "Go for it, Omi, I'll wait for your good news."

"Fifth Uncle, I will."

At this moment, the head of the Tang family, Tang Hu Lai, was summoned urgently, "Tang Hu Lai, the head of the Ancient Slave Family has asked you to go there."

"Yes." Tang Hu Lai went respectfully.

"Pay your respects to the Ancient Slave Indominus Clan Chief." After Tang Hu Lai saw the Ancient Slave Clan Chief, he busily kneeled down and was incomparably respectful.

"Tang Hu Lai, I heard that a genius has appeared in your Tang family, stepping into the first stage of body refining at the age of twelve?"

"Yes, his name is Don Omi."

"Why didn't you report this to me earlier?" Ancient Slave Indang slapped the table, blinding Tang Hu Lai.

"This?"

"Hmph, Tang Hu Lai, don't you think that you, Tang Clan, with this genius, will be able to turn over a new leaf in the future, don't you dream, your Tang Clan will always be a subordinate of our Gu Nu Clan."

"Yes yes yes."

After a pause of several seconds, Ancient Slave Indang said, "Tang Hu Lai, if I ask you, to get rid of that genius of your Tang Clan, will you resist me?"

"Uh." Tang Hu Lai was stunned, but in the next moment he realized that the Ancient Slave Family didn't want any geniuses to rise in the Tang Family either.
