Chapter 1201

Fade sneered and replied coldly, "Even the real Star Moon Skill of Wushuang Tower would not scratch me, let alone an inferior version of yours. You're the factotum disciple of Wushuang Tower, right?"

"How did you know that we... Who are you?" After Fade pointed out Dorias' identity, the latter's face changed. Dorias was shocked.

"You don't need to know who I am." A bright light shone over Fade's body and a gush of red energy shot out from his fingertips. The red energy transformed into a red sword. The deadly flames on the sword were burning fervently. Fade concluded, "Because all of you are going to... die!"

Fade yelled and the red energy from his fingertips darted across the vicinity. The flaming sword circled the peak of the hill, forming a perfect arch before severing Dorias and the others on their waists.

Dorias and the others looked down and watched as their bodies fell apart. They succumbed on the ground and their faces were filled with shock and horror. "Your power... How is this possible..."

Fade stared at Dorias coldly and replied solemnly, "Did you not think before you attack? Do you think you can defeat someone who could procure Heaven Level martial arts manual?"

Fade's remark landed a final blow on Dorias and the others. Their faces were filled with shock as they were overwhelmed with sudden realization.

However, it was too late for them to come to their senses.

With that, all the Black Level martial arts practitioners were severed from the waist down. They lay in a pool of blood and they were no longer breathing.

Following that, Fade began to search the bodies. He spotted some number plates that belonged to the factotum disciples of Wushuang Tower. He frowned and whispered to himself, "Why would the factotum disciples of Wushuang Tower appear in South Bay City? Why would they do this?"

Wushuang Tower was one of the four Heaven Level forces. The factotum disciples were the lowest level of disciples in Wushuang Tower. In fact, they were treated like slaves and not disciples.

However, the factotum disciples of Wushuang Tower would not simply appear out of nowhere. Moreover, there were over twenty of them that came to rob Fade of his belongings.

After pondering about it, Fade was clueless, hence he gave up.

He clapped his hands together and sparks of flames appeared. They landed on the bodies of the factotum disciples and their bodies were burned to ashes.

After dealing with the factotum disciples, Fade drove home.

Upon arriving home, Fade asked Andrew to investigate the Wushuang Tower's disciples in South Bay City. After all, it was strange for the factotum disciples of Wushuang Tower to appear like that.

Andrew proceeded to carry out the investigation.

Meanwhile, Fade received a phone call from Momo. She complained, "I'm angry, Fade."

"What's wrong, Momo? What happened? Who angered you? I'll teach him a lesson," Fade comforted her hurriedly.

Momo replied furiously, "It's a guy named Fade and he annoyed me. You must teach him a lesson."

Fade's temples throbbed when he heard her and asked hastily, "Ahem, well... What's wrong? What did I do?"

Momo answered, "You're asking me? It has been days since the annual banquet and everyone in South Bay City thinks we're getting married. Yet, look at you. After the banquet, you didn't even visit my family, let alone accompany me."

Fade explained swiftly, "Momo, well... I didn't mean to ignore you. I was just busy, so..."

Momo interrupted angrily, "Humph! I don't want to hear any excuses."

Fade apologized, "Okay, Momo, don't be angry. Well, I'm sorry. I'll make sure to spend time with you, okay?"

"Humph, that's more like it." Momo was no longer angry and she added, "But you don't have to spend time with me. I just need you to come to my family immediately."

"Why would I go to the Soo family?" Fade asked in confusion.

Momo replied, "It's New Year's Eve and we're having reunion dinner tonight. Don't forget that you're supposed to be my boyfriend, so you have to show up!"

"Okay, okay, I'll go right now," Fade said hurriedly.

"Remember to dress up. Some of my distant relatives are coming over too, so you mustn't embarrass me," Momo reminded.

Fade chuckled, "I'm Master Chen, you know. Your relatives would laugh at me?"

Momo replied, "Humph, don't be too proud of yourself. Some of them have been living abroad and they might not know who you are!"

"Okay, okay! I'll dress up and make you proud," Fade chuckled.

"Great, I'll be waiting for you!" Momo giggled and hung up the call.

After the phone call, Fade recalled that he needed to dress up and his temples throbbed. He always wore casual attire and he never paid attention to fashion.

Therefore, he was at a loss when Momo asked him to dress up.

Fade was desperate and helpless when he thought of Lauren. He decided to ask her for help and assist him in dressing up.

Lauren was delighted that she was able to help Fade and she immediately threw herself into work.

However, Fade did not have a lot of clothes, hence no matter how hard Lauren tried, she could not do anything about it.

In the end, Lauren went shopping with Fade and bought a new set of clothes for him. Following that, they went to a professional hairstylist to style Fade's hair.

Lauren managed to find an Armani suit for Fade and a famous hairstylist in South Bay City gave him a brand new hairstyle. After the makeover, Fade transformed into an attractive young man.

Back then, Fade never cared about his looks but people were attracted to him because he was a martial arts practitioner.

Fade was good-looking, hence he looked handsome after making some effort to dress up. Moreover, his temperament as a martial art practitioner accentuated his charm and he was dashing.

Instantly, many women turned to gawk at him in the shopping mall. There were even some wealthy women who took the initiative to hand him their business cards.

Lauren ogled at Fade in surprise.

Previously, she respected and liked Fade because he was a capable and influential man. Currently, Lauren was enchanted by his face and she could not snap out of it.

05:59

Chapter 1202

"What? You're charmed too!" Fade cleared his throat and joked.

Lauren blushed and she lowered her head hurriedly. She muttered, "It's almost time for lunch. Let's go and eat. I know a nice restaurant nearby."

"Well, let's go!" Fade replied.

The duo strode off. Along the way, Lauren kept her head down. Her cheeks were flushed and she dared not to look at Fade.

Meanwhile, the passersby thought Fade and Lauren were a couple. It seemed like a handsome boyfriend was spending time with his beautiful and shy girlfriend. Immediately, everyone praised them for being a match made in heaven.

Fade was immune to those remarks. On the other hand, Lauren's turned pink when she heard it and she was shyer than ever.

They were approaching the restaurant when a young man suddenly called, "Lauren, you're here too!"

Lauren and Fade turned to look and spotted a man in his late twenties. The young man in fashionable clothes was Wallece Soo.

"Lauren, I asked you out but you said you're busy, right? Why are you..." Wallece strode over and asked Lauren.

Lauren glanced at Fade, who was next to her, but she had yet to explain.

Suddenly, Wallece glimpsed at Fade and his face darkened. Wallece asked coldly, "Who are you? Why are you with Lauren?"

05:59

Fade frowned when he noticed Wallece's menacing gaze and unfriendly tone. Fade replied coldly, "What does my identity have to do with you?"

Lauren added hurriedly, "Wallece, Fade is my friend. Don't be ridiculous."

Wallece was furious when he heard Lauren. He snapped icily, "Lauren, we're childhood friends, right? I came back from abroad and asked you out countless times but you kept turning me down. Well, it turned out that you're flirting with a pretty boy, huh? What are you up to? Are you looking down on me?"

Upon hearing that, Lauren turned blank but anger crept on her face. However, she held back her anger and tried to explain, "Wallece, I told you that we can't be together, so I turned you down. I hope you understand."

"Can't be together?" Wallece scoffed and continued disdainfully, "Are you telling me that I'm no match for this pretty boy? He's no match for my status, power and looks. Well, could it be that he's very good in bed?"

"You... You're shameless!" Lauren was enraged as she glared at Wallece. She snapped, "Go away! I don't ever want to see you again."

"You're telling me to leave?" Wallece sneered and approached Lauren. He added, "Well, I don't feel like leaving. I'm going to teach this pretty boy a lesson today and show you what I can do."

Wallece waved his hand and two tanned and skinny men behind Wallece rushed to Fade.

Wallece folded his arms and scoffed, "Cripple this pretty boy. How is he going to seduce women after this?"

"Wallece, what do you think you're doing?" Lauren hissed furiously as she shot a glare at Wallece.

Wallece could not care less as he replied disdainfully, "What? I haven't even made my move. If we were abroad, I would have killed this brat."

Lauren calmed down and stared at Wallece coldly. She retorted, "Wallece, if you touch him, you'll regret it."

"Regret? Are you kidding me? I just came back from abroad and so what if I want to teach him a lesson? Why can't I touch him? What could he possibly do to me?" Wallece chortled.

Lauren did not explain as she eyed Fade.

At the same time, Faded was unmoving as the two men surrounded him.

The men were aggressive and they did not hold back. Anyone could tell that the two men had ended many lives before that.

Currently, they were attacking Fade viciously.

However, Fade merely kicked the two men instinctively. Suddenly, the men screamed and landed a few feet away. They hit the floor and fainted.

Immediately, the smile on Wallece's face vanished. He stared at Fade in disbelief and muttered, "My bodyguards are experts from Torteland. How did you..."

Before he could finish his sentence, Fade strode to Wallece.

"You... What are you doing?" Wallece was shocked and frightened. He shouted hurriedly, "I'm Wallece Soo and if you lay a finger on me, I'll not let you go..."

Fade paid little attention to Wallece. On the contrary, Lauren leaned over and whispered to Fade, "Master Chen, Wallece is a member of the Soo family and he's Momo's cousin. Well, you..."

Fade was astonished to hear that.

Following that, he stopped his attack and exclaimed coldly, "Get out of my sight!"

Immediately, Wallece was relieved. Although he was furious, he dared not stay after witnessing Fade's strength. In the end, Wallece turned around and left dejectedly.

Lauren watched as Wallece left and she bowed to Fade respectfully. She began apologetically, "Master Chen, I'm sorry. I made you..."

Fade waved his hand and replied, "It's okay, you don't have to apologize. I'm hungry, so let's eat."

"Okay!" Lauren nodded and led Fade to the restaurant.

In the restaurant, they discussed about Wallece and Fade got a grasp of the situation.

Wallece was a member of the Soo family but he was not part of the main division disciples like Momo. He was a subdivision disciple in the Soo family.

When Wallece was younger, his family lived in the Soo family. Wallece and Lauren were peers, hence they knew each other. Back then, both families even tried to arrange for their engagement but Lauren's father, Andrew, refused.

After all, Wallece was just one of the many subdivision disciples in the Soo family. Moreover, he did not stand out. Naturally, Andrew did not want Lauren to marry an unfavorable descendant from the Soo family.

A few years later, Wallece's father, Zegger Soo, established an export trading company. Unexpectedly, his business grew and he gradually earned a place in the Soo family.

After that, Zegger and his family moved abroad because of his business. Years later, he managed to expand his business and he was doing better than ever.

Zegger's success made Wallece an important member of the Soo family. Initially, Wallece was a subdivision disciple but currently, he was just second to Zarriah. Wallece even held a higher position than Harper, who was a hopeless main division disciple.

Chapter 1203

Since Wallece had been mixing well, he kept his attitude particularly high profile during the Soo family's New Year's Eve dinner party which he had been invited to upon returning from abroad.

As soon as he returned, he asked Lauren out, trying to show himself off. At the same time, he kept hinting on how people from other countries were open-minded, how much he missed Lauren, and that he wished to keep their relationship going.

But Lauren was not a fool. When she heard this, she naturally knew Wallece's intention. He just wanted to play around with her. Lauren definitely would not agree to it. Hence, she found an excuse to reject Wallece's invitation.

She did not expect to run into him at the mall that day, at such a bad time. It was why the incident happened.

Upon hearing this, Fade couldn't help but shake his head and sighed. The Soo family was a great family and had a high status. However, there seemed to be no potential in the younger generation of the family.

Harper was a spoiled rich kid, so there was not much to say about him. An heir like Wallece, who was not bad at mixing around, also had the same kind of attitude. So he was definitely unfit for the position.

The only one who was fit for the position was young master, Zariah. He was not bad in all aspects, but he could be too rigid and timid. When he was faced with people with great power, he would try to be in their favor. When he encountered those with little power, he would disregard them. He only favored benefits that he would gain and could not make his own decisions.

This kind of person might be able to protect the Soo family's fortune. But if they wished to advance further, it was practically impossible.

When Fade thought about this, he secretly planned to come up with a backup plan for Momo. She had to at least have a plan in case she couldn't survive in the Soo family.

After the meal with Lauren, Fade left for home.

The next morning, Momo personally drove over to Fade's house to pick him up.

Fade got in the car wearing the outfit from the previous day. When Momo saw him, her eyes suddenly lit up and asked, "Fade, why are you looking handsome today?"

Fade glanced at the little girl with a smile and said, "What are you talking about? Are you saying that I was not handsome before?"

"Of course not. You used to be handsome, but now you are more handsome." The little girl knew how to sweet talk.

"Alright, don't flatter me. Just concentrate on driving!" Fade laughed.

"Yes, Fade!" Momo laughed and then drove off.

Along the way, she explained the details about her family to Fade. She also said that her Grandfather seemed to have something to announce at the dinner party.

They soon arrived at the Soo family's house.

After Fade got out of the car, he held Momo's arm and they walked into the house together with a smile.

06:00

The servants and relatives of the Soo family showed respect to Fade. The situation was completely different from the previous time when he was there.

After all, everyone in the Soo family now knew that Fade was Master Chen.

When Momo and Fade stepped into the lively living room, at first glance, they saw a lot of people chatting happily and laughing. There even were faces that Fade did not recognize. They looked like relatives of the Soo family who came back from other countries.

Fade and Momo walked in intimately, which caught the attention of the relatives. They all looked over curiously.

Momo was about to introduce Fade.

Someone called out in a surprised voice at that moment, "Pretty boy, why are you here?"

Suddenly, Fade's attention was side-tracked. After looking around, he realized that it was Wallece, who was beaten up by him the previous day.

Wallece stared at Fade with a face full of surprise and dissatisfaction. He frowned and said, "You, how can you and Momo..."

"Fade..." Momo looked at Fade with a puzzled expression.

Fade explained in a low voice, "I met your cousin in the mall yesterday and we had a little conflict."

"It was....." Momo did not expect that to happen. She was about to persuade them to reconcile with each other.

However, Wallece had already shouted, "Everyone, come take down this pretty boy for me!"

Suddenly, everything turned into chaos. There were people who tried to stop them and there were few who looked confused, asking about what happened.

Wallece glared furiously at Fade. As he called for the guards, he said, "This pretty boy beat up my two bodyguards in the mall yesterday. Not only that, he even tried to hurt me. I want him to pay for it!"

When Momo heard what he said, she said coldly, "Wallece, this is Fade, my boyfriend. So, watch what you say."

"What? Momo, you..." Wallece was a little surprised. He didn't expect Fade to be Momo's boyfriend.

However, he was still unhappy and said, "Even if he is your boyfriend, that doesn't mean he can hurt me!"

Momo said straightforwardly, "If Fade tried to hurt you, then it must be your fault. You should apologize."

"You....." Wallece didn't think that Momo would protect Fade so much. He became more furious.

At that moment, Wallece's father walked over and saw the situation. His face fell and he looked disappointed.

Zegger looked at Momo's father, Ernest, and said discontentedly, "Ernest, do you not care at all that Momo has such a boyfriend?"

Wallece added further, "When I saw this guy in the mall yesterday, he and Lauren were flirting with each other and they were intimate. They seemed to be more than friends."

When Zegger heard this, his face changed and said to Ernest, "Momo is still young, and it's very easy for her to be cheated on. As a father, you can't ignore this! I think it's better to throw this scum out of our Soo family."

Wallece, who was next to him, said fiercely, "We not only have to throw him out, we also have to teach him a good lesson."

After the father and son duo finished, they glared fiercely at Fade. They looked proud as if they had already defeated Fade.

However, when Momo and Ernest heard what they said, there was no sign of anger on their faces, which was very unexpected. Instead, they smiled and said, "We believe in Fade. He won't do such a thing."

"Ernest, Momo, why are you..." Zegger frowned, puzzled at their response.

At that moment, Somoset, Lyla and Zariah quickly interrupted by pulling Zegger and Wallece aside and winked at them.

"Zegger, Wallece, stop talking."

"Otherwise, you will be in big trouble if you provoke Fade."

When Zegger heard what they said, he looked at them with surprise.

He really didn't understand why the Soo family was so protective over Fade despite the fact that he was so despicable. Even Somoset and Lyla, who used to have a bad relationship with Ernest, were on his side, "Why are you guys...What's so great about Fade? Why are you guys protecting him like this?"

Wallece was also confused and said, "That pretty boy is a playboy and a liar! We can't let him trick the Soo family. We have to teach him a lesson."

Chapter 1204

Somoset, Lyla, and Zarriah were all shocked. They quickly pulled Zegger and Wallece aside and begged, "Stop talking, please stop talking."

"What..." Zegger and Wallece were baffled.

Somoset said, "Zegger, there's something you don't know. Fade is not just an ordinary person. He's Master Chen!"

"What Master Chen?" The father and son were still in shock.

"It's Master Chen, the one who is very powerful and popular in South Bay City recently. We told you when we were on the call!" Somoset said.

The two of them finally remembered. Normally before they returned to their home country, they would inquire about what was happening in the country. They heard all kinds of rumours about Master Chen. In short, they said that Master Chen was very powerful and should not be provoked.

However, they thought that Master Chen was a middle-aged man or even an elderly one with white hair. They did not expect that Master Chen whom everyone was talking about was only a young man in his early twenties. Moreover, he had become the Soo family's son-in-law.

However, all they heard were just rumours. They were still doubtful of Master Chen's capability. Zegger could not help but frown and said, "Even if Fade is Master Chen, we are the Soo Family of South Bay City. Is there a need for us to please him?"

Wallece agreed, "That's right. Master Chen might be famous, but our Soo family is even more famous. Besides, he's a lying scum. It's not good for Momo to be with him."

Somoset waved his hand quickly and said, "That's not true. Master Chen is much more capable and powerful than you can imagine."

"Let's not talk about Master Chen and Lauren's relationship. Even if it is real, Ernest is still willing to allow Momo to marry Master Chen as a mistress. You don't know about Master Chen's current status in South Bay City because you just came back. Many families want to offer their daughter to Master Chen as a mistress, but they don't have the chance to do so. Momo is considered lucky to be in Master Chen's favor."

Lyla's eyes were beaming. She sounded sour as if she was regretting not having a daughter which could have been chosen by Master Chen.

Zegger and Wallece were stunned by Lyla's attitude. They could not imagine what kind of person would be willing to offer the Soo family's lady to become a mistress.

The father and son were both confused and dissatisfied with what they heard. They wanted to investigate further.

At that moment, the Old Master, Egbert appeared, which marked the official start of the New Year's Eve dinner.

The Soo family was a huge family. Many people attended the dinner, and there was table after table which were all set up to cater to everyone.

The main table, of course, was placed in the middle of the hall.

Those who were eligible to sit at the main table were considered as the most important members of the Soo family.

Egbert was naturally at the main seat, followed by his three children, Somoset, Ernest, and Lyla. Zegger's status had been elevated as his business grew, so he was seated next to Lyla.

Zariah, Harper, Momo, together with Wallece and Fade, the special son-in-law, also occupied the main table.

When the dinner commenced, Egbert personally raised his glass and started a toast while the rest followed.

The New Year's Eve dinner began merrily.

The focal point of the main table was different from the previous years. It was no longer on Egbert, or Somoset. It was instead focused on an outsider, Fade.

Somoset, Lyla, and the others kept complimenting him while offering him wine and food. They were very enthusiastic.

Zegger and Wallece's faces fell at the sight of this, and they looked terrible.

Fade was not on good terms with them yet he was treated respectfully and well-entertained by Somoset.

This made high-profile Zegger and Wallace who had just returned fill with frustration and unhappiness.

The father and son couldn't help but look at each other. They then took the opportunity to raise a toast to Egbert before they started bragging, "Master Soo, in the past few years, our business has been doing very well. Our business has scaled up by 20% and the annual turnover rate has reached three billion yuan. Wallece has been doing a good job and has become my right-hand man. In the future, I will be responsible for the Southeast market while Wallece will take over the European and American market."

Their eyes kept glancing over at Fade as they spoke. Obviously, they wanted to show off how great their business was.

However, Fade was not interested in them at all. He lowered his head to eat and ignored them.

Wallece's attempt to provoke Fade was a failure and he felt horrible. He couldn't resist another attempt. "When I came back from abroad, I heard that Mr. Chen is very famous in South Bay City. I wonder what is it that you do, Mr. Chen? Do you have a family business?"

Fade replied faintly, "I have no business in South Bay City."

Wallece decided to take the opportunity and fire at him. Somoset and the others immediately glared at him, trying to warn him.

However, Wallece acted as if he didn't see them. He looked at Fade and continued, "No business? As the son-in-law of Soo family, it's hard to get by if you don't have any capability in making a living! Well, if you don't mind, Mr. Chen, I could bring you along for business abroad."

"You can easily earn a few millions and even billions in a year. It's possible. What do you say, Mr. Chen? You should think about it!" Wallece said proudly.

Fade rolled his eyes and said lightly, "There is no need. I'm not interested in business."

As Fade continued to be calm, Wallece felt more certain that Fade's so-called reputation was exaggerated, which led him to become proud of himself. He responded sarcastically, "If you are not interested in business, what would you like to do then? There are still vacancies for security guards, cleaners and drivers in my company. If you don't mind, I could help make arrangements-"

Wallece was crossing the line but Fade did not get angry. On the other hand, Somoset and the others were so nervous that they were about to jump out of their seats at any moment.

Upon hearing this, Somoset could not help but interrupted Wallece, "Wallece, Mr. Chen has his own business. So, you don't have to worry about all that."

"Business? What kind of business? Didn't Mr. Chen say he has no business in South Bay City?" Wallece was obviously in disbelief.

Zegger also spoke up to help his son, "A young man who does not have results or achievements to show isn't the most terrifying thing. The most terrifying thing is that not having the desire to advance and progress. If that's the case, then you'll be completely doomed."

Somoset quickly glanced over at Fade. He worried that he would get angry, and said immediately, "Zegger, Wallece, you have made a mistake. Although Master Chen has no business in South Bay City, he does have business in Jade City."

Lyla added, "The famous cosmetics company in Jade City, Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc, as well as the Sincere Medicine Center, are all Master Chen's business."

Chapter 1205

"Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc and Sincere Medicine Center, are they very famous?" Zegger and Wallece seemed to have heard of these two names before, but they still sounded somewhat unfamiliar.

Zarriah immediately said, "It's not the matter of fame. The branches of these two companies in Jade City alone are worth billions of yuan. Most importantly, Master Chen owns half of the Li family's shares in Jade City."

When Zegger and Wallece heard this, they were stupefied.

"The Li family from Jade City. The richest family in Jade City?"

"Half of the Li family fortune is worth hundreds of billions!"

"How, how is this possible? He-"

.....

Harper directly said, "I have been to Jade City to inquire further. I'm very certain that those businesses belong to Master Chen."

Zegger and Wallece were so stunned that they became speechless. They looked at Harper in disbelief.

Wallece especially, who had flaunted his business successes, was in a state of shock. When he thought about it, he felt extremely embarrassed and a wave of anger slowly built up inside of him.

Zegger didn't look too good either. He glanced over at his son who was speechless, and immediately knew what he was thinking.

He quickly nudged his son lightly and gave him a wink.

Wallece immediately understood what he meant. He smiled and picked up his wine glass and said to Egbert, "Master Soo, you mentioned last year that you wanted to find a martial arts teacher for the young children of the Soo family."

Somoset, Ernest, and Lyla looked on blankly as he brought up the matter. They did not seem to recall this being mentioned.

Master Soo nodded his head and said in a deep voice, "Hmm, yes, I did mention this during last year's festival."

When Somoset heard what the Old Master said, he remembered that the Soo family had a conflict with a martial arts group last year. Although it was not a big deal, the opponent leveraged on their martial arts skills to make the Soo family pay a hefty price in the end.

It wasn't a big deal to the Soo family because the amount didn't matter to them. However, it had caused quite a bit of stir in the Soo family and had angered quite a few people. Due to that incident, the Old Master suggested that the young children of the Soo family learn martial arts.

At that time, many people were in agreement to the suggestion. However, the Soo family didn't have anyone that could teach martial arts. Everyone had directed all their focus and efforts into growing their business in the last few years. Therefore, as time went by, everyone seemed to have gradually lost interest in the matter until it was eventually forgotten.

Who would have thought that when Wallece mentioned it again, the Old Master still remembered it.

For a moment, Somoset and the others looked at each other with surprise in their eyes. They gestured to each other and said,

"Does the Old Master really want the young disciples of the Soo family to focus on martial arts?"

Just when everyone was guessing, Wallece smiled and continued, "I've always thought about this. I recently met a martial arts master in Torteland. I remembered what happened last year, so I personally invited him to be our martial arts teacher."

"Oh!" Master Soo nodded his head lightly, "Wallece, you are so considerate."

Zegger also said, "Wallece has always had this matter in his heart. He visited a lot of places in Torteland before he could finally find the right martial arts master. After paying him a visit and explaining the situation to him, he finally agreed to be our family's martial arts teacher."

Zegger's added praises immediately elevated Wallece's image. The Old Master nodded again and praised, "Not bad. It's all thanks to you, Wallece."

Wallece seized the opportunity and said while smiling, "I'll send someone to escort the master from Torteland here right away!"

Lyla and the others looked sullen. Their status would eventually diminish as Wallece won the heart of Old Master by pulling this arrangement off.

As for Zegger and Wallece, they felt immensely proud of themselves. Their smiles swept away the dejectedness and embarrassment they had just felt from the whole Fade fiasco.

Heart filled with pride, Wallece shifted his gaze to Fade. In an attempt to salvage his reputation, he rolled his eyes and said, "Since Mr. Chen is Momo's boyfriend, he is considered a part of the Soo family as well. So, if you would like to learn martial arts, Mr. Chen, you could learn it from the martial arts master too."

Fade said faintly, "There's no need."

Wallece squinted his eyes slightly and said, "Mr. Chen, it's better for young people to learn martial arts for self-defense. I've also learned some skills from this master. Think about it, no matter how rich a person is, if he can't defend himself, he's just an easy target that can be slaughtered by others."

There was no doubt that Fade could sense Wallece's sarcasm and hostility. He was not angry. He just glanced at Wallece and said casually, "If your so-called self-defense is what you used previously in the mall, then I think this so-called martial arts master is not that impressive at all."

As soon as he brought up the mall incident, Wallece's face immediately fell, and his expression turned grim. He glared at Fade, and said through gritted teeth, "That was because I didn't go all out."

Zegger spoke up to help his son and said in a low voice, "Mr. Chen, you may be very successful in business, but you are only an amateur when it comes to martial arts. So, stop talking about things you have no knowledge of. The master who Wallece invited is well-known in Torteland and if he heard what you just said, you would be in trouble."

Fade didn't care. He waved his hand and said, "If he hears it, then so be it. It's no big deal. I'm not worried about any martial arts master."

"You-" Zegger's face darkened and he said unhappily, "You're so ungrateful!"

Wallece got more furious. He glared fiercely at Fade, and said through gritted teeth, "You'll know just how wrong you are when the martial arts master arrives."

As the atmosphere tensed, Somoset quickly attempted to defuse the situation, "Guys, stop it. There's been a misunderstanding. Master Chen is also a martial arts practitioner himself. In fact, he is very skilled in martial arts."

06:00

Upon hearing this, the two were taken aback and seemed to be a little surprised.

They frowned to show their displeasure, shock, and disbelief.

They were not happy about the fact that Somoset spoke up for an outsider instead of their own family. They also didn't believe what Somoset said about Fade's skills and experience in martial arts.

Zegger snorted coldly and said with disdain, "There is no shortcut in learning martial arts. If you want to be skilled in martial arts, you need to have at least ten years' worth of experience. How long has Mr. Chen been practicing martial arts, I wonder?"

Wallece instantly said in a sarcastic tone, "Some people think that they know martial arts once they know how to take a few punches and kicks. Once my martial arts master arrives, they would understand that they have only barely grasped the basics of martial arts."

Chapter 1206

When Fade heard what they said, he frowned lightly and did not utter a word.

As for Somoset and Lyla, they were worried that Fade would get angry, so they took the initiative to explain, "Please stop talking. Master Chen is not just an ordinary martial arts practitioner. He is a real master. Do you know the Martial Dragon List that was announced some time ago? Master Chen ranks first on the Dragon List."

"What's a Dragon List?"

"Someone like him can rank first?"

Zegger and Wallece looked like they were full of doubts. As Somoset and others were about to explain, a guard came in together with a thin man.

The man looked like he was in his early thirties. He was not very tall, tanned but his eyes were sharp and fierce. and had dark skin. It was obvious that he was not one to be provoked.

When Wallece saw the man's arrival, he immediately walked over and introduced him with a smile, "This is Phichai, the martial arts master that I have invited from Torteland. Phichai is very powerful and has reached the middle stage of the Black Level. He will join the Soo family as a martial arts teacher and will definitely have a great impact on us."

Zegger also quickly added, "Master Soo, Phichai is a real master in combat. He has defeated more than 100 martial artists in Torteland. He is truly a real master."

Zegger and Wallece thought that by introducing and bragging, the Soo family would respond enthusiastically and welcomed him warmly.

However, they did not expect the reaction that they got after introducing Phichai. Somoset, Lyla, and the others were not impressed at all. They did not look surprised and their faces showed disgust.

Even Master Soo, who initiated the idea of having a martial arts teacher, seemed to be a little unsympathetic. He just nodded at Phichai and said, "Thank you, Phichai. It must be hard for you to come all the way here."

Their unsympathetic and cold attitude caused Phichai, who was full of pride, to frown and sulk.

Zegger was puzzled and unhappy. Of course, he didn't dare to be angry at Master Soo. He could only target the juniors like Zariah, Harper and Momo. He said, "From now on, Phichai will be your martial arts teacher. As juniors, you should all come over and greet him."

Even after hearing what Zegger said, the three juniors had no intention to move at all.

At that moment, Zegger and Phichai felt embarrassed and said, "Why are you-"

"Zegger, Zariah is going to take over the family's business. I'm afraid that he doesn't have the time to learn martial arts," Somoset explained it in a way that did not embarrass Zegger.

Lyla also said immediately, "Harper can't take any hardship, so just forget about learning martial arts!"

Zegger's face looked ghastly when he heard it. He looked upset and tried to suppress the anger within him. He turned his gaze toward the last junior, Momo, and said, "Momo, what about you?"

Wallece added, "Momo, it's necessary for girls to learn martial arts to improve their self-defense skills. I'm afraid that others would not be reliable if you depend on them."

As Wallece was speaking, he purposely looked at Fade. Obviously, he was mocking him for his lack of capability.

Momo initially wanted to find an excuse to avoid humiliating them. However, when she heard what he said, she didn't try to hold back and she said directly, "Sorry to trouble Wallece and Zegger, but if I wanted to learn martial arts, I won't need Phichai as my teacher because I can learn from Fade. Fade's capability is unmatched."

As soon as Momo said that, Zegger, Wallece and Phichai's faces dropped.

"It's better to learn martial arts from a professional master!"

"That's right. If you learn from an non-professional, you may not learn anything and hurt yourself instead."

Phichai looked coldly at Fade, "My capability can't compare to his? Do you want to give it a try?"

Upon hearing this, Wallece and Zegger immediately chimed in, "Aren't you very confident, Mr. Chen? You said you know a lot about martial arts, so why don't you compete with Phichai?"

As they finished, the three of them glared fiercely at Fade. They looked like they wanted to challenge him.

Fade frowned and his eyes flashed with anger.

Somoset could sense that the tension was rising quickly. He immediately stepped forward and winked at Zegger and the other two, and said, "Zegger, Wallece, we are all a family. Let's not fight and just call it a day."

06:01

Lyla also said, "Master Chen is ranked first on the Dragon List, and has the capability of the Earth Level. He also defeated many masters in Jade City, so he has the title of the Martial Soul of Jade City."

However, even after listening to what they said, Zegger and Wallece did not intend to stop. On the contrary, they did not believe it and began to talk sarcastically.

"It's not considered fighting and killing when martial artists compete and learn from each other. Besides, Phichai has a sense of propriety when he strikes, so he won't hurt him."

"What do you mean he ranks first on the Dragon List? I've never heard of such a thing. Could it be a useless list?"

"An Earth Level expert? How old is he? How is it possible for him to reach the Earth Level? Lyla, don't over exaggerate!"

.....

The father and son were full of doubts and disbelief. They stared at Fade ridiculously, and then said to Phichai, "Phichai, you should spar with him. You don't have to take it seriously. Just teach him a lesson."

The two did not even finish their sentence in the end.

At that moment, Phichai's face, which was initially full of pride, turned into terror. His body trembled as he looked at Fade and said, "You...Are you Master Chen of Jade City? There was a Martial Arts Convention at the Sunset Mountain of Jade City a month ago. Were you there?"

Fade said faintly, "I was indeed in Jade City a month ago."

Upon hearing this, Phichai was shocked. He knelt down and bowed to Fade, his head almost touching the ground, "Master Chen, please forgive me. I was ignorant and didn't know that you were my superior. Please forgive me for my disrespect."

Zegger and Wallece were both dumbfounded when they saw Phichai kneeling down and begging for mercy. They had no idea what was going on.

"Phichai, what's wrong with you?"

"He's just a poser. Why are you....."

Before they could finish, Phichai glared at them and shouted, "Shut up and stop talking. This is Master Chen, the Martial Arts Master who was in Jade City a month ago."

"He's a Martial Arts Master?" Wallece and Zegger found it a little hard to believe.

Phichai continued on, "The leader of the Blood Blade Killer Organization from the Asian region, Song Khan from Torteland, died in the hands of Master Chen."

Upon hearing this, Wallece and Zegger finally came to their senses. Their expression changed immediately.

When they were doing business in Torteland, they were unfamiliar with the local martial artists. If Phichai was just a top master in the city, then Song Khan was considered as Torteland's top master in the martial arts world.

Since Song Khan was the leader of the Blood Blade Killer Organization in the Asian region, his status in the Torteland martial arts world had also been elevated.

With his martial arts skill and high reputation, Song Khan was one of the top ten figures in the Torteland martial arts world.

Chapter 1207

Even a top martial art master from Torteland died in the hands of Fade. This just showed how deadly Fade's capability was. Harper, who was standing next to them, looked up the Martial Dragon List from his phone and gave them a brief introduction of what was stated.

When he finished reading, Zegger and Wallece's faces were full of shock, and they were not able to stop trembling.

"Master...Master Chen, we...we know we were wrong. Please..." The two men's faces turned pale. They were about to kneel in front of Fade to beg for mercy.

After all, they were still relatives of the Soo family, so he had to show them some respect. He waved his hand and said, "Ignorance can be forgiven. Get up!"

The two quickly thanked him and then stood up straight.

Fade glared at Phichai and said coldly, "At the Martial Arts Convention in Sunset Mountain, I've said before that foreign martial artists should never cross the border and enter our land. It seems that you didn't take my words seriously!"

"No, I....." Phichai wanted to explain, but he thought of something and stopped mid-sentence. He bowed to apologize, "Master Chen, I know I'm wrong. This won't happen again."

Fade said coldly, "I can spare your life, but punishment is inevitable. I'll cripple your arm."

Just as his voice faded away, Fade raised his right hand, shot out a ray which flashed across Phichai's left arm.

A stream of blood came out and his left arm slipped and fell to the ground. Phichai let out a horrifying scream. He clenched his teeth and did not dare to make a sound.

Fade saw the situation, waved his hand lightly and said, "That's enough. You can leave now."

"Thank you, Master Chen!" Pichai expressed his gratitude. He got up, picked up his broken arm and left the hall quickly.

Zegger and Wallece, who witnessed what had just happened with their own eyes, were completely stunned. When they looked at Fade again, they were terrified. Their bodies trembled and they did not dare to look at Fade in the eyes. They stood on one side and did not dare to be near Fade at all.

They were really shell-shocked.

When Ernest saw the bloody scene, he said, "Well, now that the matter is settled, let's continue our dinner!"

Fade nodded with a smile. The atmosphere in the room was finally at ease.

Everyone drank and raised their glasses to toast one another. Somoset and the others kept toasting to Fade and complimenting him.

Even Zegger and Wallece forced a smile and toasted to Fade respectfully.

After a couple of drinks, Lyla looked at Master Soo. She had a feeling that the Old Master wasn't very pleased.

She thought of something and suggested, "Dad, since you want the juniors of the Soo family to learn martial arts, and Master Chen is highly skilled, why don't you just let Master Chen teach the juniors?"

"Of course, but Master Chen himself has to agree to it!" Lyla added, looking at Fade.

Fade said lightly, "Those who are interested to learn from me can tag along when I'm teaching Momo."

Lyla was filled with joy when she heard that. She immediately looked at her son, Harper and said, "My son is interested to learn."

Somoset immediately clapped his hands and cheered. He said excitedly, "My son, Zariah is also interested. It's a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to learn martial arts from a master like Master Chen!"

Ernest also laughed and said, "This is such a great opportunity for our Soo family!"

Even Zegger and Wallece forced a smile at that moment. They wanted to compliment him.

To everyone's surprise, just as they were about to speak, Old Master glanced at Fade and said faintly, "Master Chen's martial arts is exceptional and he is not an ordinary person. He must have a lot of things to do. In my opinion, it's best if we don't bother Master Chen."

Upon hearing this, Somoset and the others were surprised.

"Dad, Master Chen has already agreed. We can-"

"That's right, Dad. An expert like Master Chen is something that is hard to come by even with a lot of money!"

.....

Egbert stood his ground despite his children's persuasion. He said coldly, "There is no need to worry about this. I've already hired another martial arts teacher."

"Dad, how can the teacher you hired be compared to Master Chen?"

06:01

"That's right. This is a great opportunity and we can't miss it!"

"Dad, why are you doing this? You're so muddleheaded!"

.....

In a moment of desperation, the three of them began to speak harshly.

They really couldn't understand why the wise Old Master would give such a great opportunity up and looked for another martial arts teacher.

In fact, when they tried to convince the Old Master to make Momo and Fade's marriage official a few days ago, the Old Master was evasive.

It confused the three children. Was the Old Master losing his senses? How could he make these reckless decisions?

"Dad, let's..." The three of them continued to persuade him.

The Old Master slammed onto the armrest and said harshly, "There's no need to say more, I have made up my mind."

With that, the three of them didn't say anything anymore. The atmosphere suddenly became a little tense and awkward.

Fade narrowed his eyes and glanced at Egbert. Then he sat down and said lightly, "Since Master Soo has already invited someone else for help, then let's follow his wishes."

These words somewhat calmed the situation.

Somoset and the others quickly cast a sympathetic look at Fade. They raised their glasses and toasted to him as though to show their apology.

At that moment, the butler went to the Old Master's side and whispered something to him.

After the Old Master heard what was whispered, his expression instantly changed into shock. He immediately stood up and looked very excited. "He's here? Quick, I must go and welcome him."

The Old Master dashed out as he said this.

When he reached the door, he thought of the people in the house. He turned his head and said, "An honored guest is coming. Everyone, get ready to welcome him."

Everyone was stunned and puzzled by his words.

"What kind of honored guest is this? Why is Father so excited?"

"I know that Grandpa invited a distinguished guest."

"Could it be that the honored guest is the martial arts teacher that the Old Master has invited?"

.....

Just as the Soo family was in a state of confusion, the Old Master smiled happily as he walked into the hall together with a man.

The man looked like he was in his early thirties. He was tall and handsome. He wore a long gorgeous, custom-made, robe that had an ancient charm which looked fashionable. It made him look even more dashing.

The man had his hands behind his back and his head was slightly raised. His eyes were filled with pride and a hint of disdain. It seemed as if he did not care about the people in the hall at all.

Even with such an arrogant and uncomfortable attitude, Master Soo was extremely respectful. With a big smile on his face,

Master Soo bowed as he walked behind the man.

He then invited the man to be seated. He even used honorifics when talking to him, "Mr. Yang, please take a seat!"

06:01

Chapter 1208

Everyone in the hall was surprised when they saw the scene. Their faces were full of confusion and shock.

Somoset and Ernest didn't understand why the Old Master treated Fade, the person who ranked first in the Dragon List so indifferently, yet treated the other man so respectfully.

"Father, who is this gentleman?"

"Father, what's going on? Why are you..."

.....

Egbert's children tried to ask, but before they could finish their sentences, Egbert's eyes glanced over and he shouted, "Shut up. Mr. Yang is here. Come and greet him immediately."

Somoset and the others were bewildered and their faces were full of doubts. But when they saw the Old Master's fierce eyes, they went forward and bowed to greet him, "Greetings, Mr. Yang."

Master Soo immediately approached Mr. Yang in a fawning manner and said, "Mr. Yang, these are the descendants of our Soo family. This is my eldest son, Somoset. This is my second son, Ernest. This is..."

Master Soo wanted to continue with his introduction, but Mr. Yang looked impatient. He waved his hand and said, "Forget about these introductions. Let's get down to business."

"Yes, yes!" Master Soo hurriedly nodded his head and then looked around the room. Zarriah, Harper, Momo and a few other youngsters said, "This is Dacia Yang. I have specially invited Mr. Yang to be our Soo family's martial arts teacher."

Upon hearing Master Soo's words, the Soo family were all shocked.

"He's really the martial arts teacher."

"What on earth is Grandpa thinking? Why didn't he invite a professional like Master Chen but instead invited an outsider?"

"Father, we..."

The room was filled with noise. Master Soo's face fell as he heard what they said, and he shouted, "Shut up. The Soo family is fortunate and honoured to have Mr. Yang as our martial arts teacher. What nonsense are you talking about?"

"But, Father..." Somoset was still puzzled.

However, Master Soo glared furiously at him and shouted, "Do you know Mr. Yang's identity?"

After a pause, Master Soosaid in a low voice, "Mr. Yang is a disciple of the Wushuang Tower, one of the four Heaven Level forces."

Everyone at the scene was bewildered when they heard it. Their expressions changed and immediately an intense discussion took place.

"Wushuang Tower! It's the Wushuang Tower!"

"Is it true? The disciple of Wushuang Tower, one of the four Heaven Level forces, has actually come to our family to be our martial arts teacher. This...this..."

06:01

"Grandpa, you...how did you do this?"

.....

As Master Soo was about to explain, Dacia waved his hand and looked proudly at the excited Soo family members. He said in a deep voice, "The Soo family is part of the South Bay City family and Wushuang Tower happens to have business here. Master Soo has sincerely and personally asked for help. So I, Dacia, have made time for the Soo family to teach you martial arts."

Upon hearing Dacia's words, everyone in the Soo family was astounded. It was confirmed that Master Soo had invited a disciple from the Wushuang Tower. At the same time, they were also guessing how much sacrifice Master Soo had made to invite Dacia over..

To be able to have a disciple of the Wushuang Tower as a martial arts teacher was a good thing for the younger generation of the Soo family.

In an instant, several juniors surrounded him.

"We are honoured to learn martial arts from you, Mr. Yang, a disciple of the Wushuang Tower, "

"Mr. Yang is from the Wushuang Tower, so he must be a master of martial arts. This is so fascinating!"

In the midst of the discussion, Zegger and Wallece finally understood why Master Soo had been so cold toward Phichai, whom they had invited. It turned out that Master Soo had secretly invited such an exceptional disciple from the Wushuang Tower, which obviously made him look down on Phichai.

06:01

At that moment, Zegger and Wallece also surrounded and flattered Dacia.

Even Somoset and Lyla, who doubted Master Soo, abandoned Fade and went to Dacia's side to compliment him.

However, only Momo's father, Ernest continued standing by Fade's side, looking as if he was in an awkward position.

Momo didn't think much too much and felt sorry for Fade for her own family's sudden change of hearts. So, she pouted and said, "All of you supported Fade a moment ago, so why did you change your mind so quickly? Besides, is that so-called Wushuang Tower's disciple as powerful as Fade?"

Momo's remarks agitated Master Soo, Somoset, and the others.

"Shut up, Momo. Don't talk nonsense."

"Mr. Yang is a disciple of the Wushuang Tower. Do you even know what this means? It s ridiculous to even compare Mr. Chen to the Wushuang Tower."

Momo was still dissatisfied, "I know that the Wushuang Tower is one of the four Heaven Level forces, but that doesn't mean that every disciple of the Wushuang Tower is powerful!"

Master Soo's face immediately turned red and he was furious when he heard Momo's rude comments. With a stern shout, he raised his hand and was about to hit her, "Stop talking..."

Dacia, who was in the main seat, heard what Momo said. He shifted his eyes toward Momo and looked at her carefully. His eyes landed on her delicate and lovely cheek, his eyes lighted up and a smile appeared.

He waved his hand at Egbert who was enraged and faintly said, "Master Soo, there is no need to be angry. It's normal for young people to have an attitude. This is..."

Master Soo quickly nodded and bowed, "Mr. Yang, this is my granddaughter, Momo."

"Momo, hmm, not bad, not bad!" Dacia smiled as he nodded his head. He then looked at Momo and asked, "You don't want me as your martial arts teacher?"

Momo looked at Dacia's eyes and felt very uncomfortable. She couldn't help but frowned and held onto Fade's arm, "I have Fade as my martial arts teacher. This would suffice."

"Him? As your martial arts teacher?" Dacia glanced over at Fade and saw how close Fade and Momo were. He narrowed his eyes slightly.

However, he didn't lose his temper. Instead, he looked at Momo with a smile, "I am a disciple of the Wushuang Tower. Do you think that I'm not as good as he is?"

When he finished, Dacia glanced at Fade and sneered at him.

Momo wrapped herself around Fade's arm and nodded, "That's exactly what I think. You are not as good as Fade."

"Oh..." Dacia narrowed his eyes and his expression turned grimmed.

When Master Soo saw this, he immediately gave Momo a look and glared at her. At the same time, he said to Dacia submissively, "She doesn't know much and does not have an understanding of things. She's just talking nonsense. Please don't mind her, Mr. Yang."

06:01

Chapter 1209

As soon as Master Soo finished his sentence, Momo pouted and said in anger, "I'm not talking nonsense. Fade is ranked first on the Dragon List. What about Mr. Yang's ranking on the list?"

Upon hearing this, Egbert's eyes darkened and he glowered at her fiercely.

Dacia's face darkened as well and there was a look of surprise on his face. He looked at Fade and then shook his head. He obviously didn't believe him and snorted, "Young girl, don't talk nonsense if you don't know much. What does it matter if he's ranked first on the Dragon List? That's just an Earth Level expert."

"I, Dacia, am in the final phase of the Black Level. Even my senior brother from the Wushuang Tower, Callum Sim, is only ranked thirty-eighth on the Dragon List despite being in the Earth Level his whole life. Fade is merely an amateur. He ranks first on the Dragon List? Don't be ridiculous!"

Dacia looked up and burst into laughter.

He thought that the Soo family would laugh with him after he exposed Fade's identity.

Unexpectedly, the Soo family's faces fell and there was a weird look on their faces after hearing what he said.

At that moment, Dacia couldn't help but frown. He looked at Master Soo, who had a weird expression on his face, and said, "Master Soo, don't you agree with my statement?"

"No, that's not what I meant. It's just..." Master Soo was at a loss for words for a moment.

Fade was ranked first on the Dragon List and he had verified it a few days ago. The message from the relevant websites showed that they undoubtedly confirmed Fade's identity.

However, Dacia didn't know about this, so he thought that Master Soo and the others were biased toward Fade. He got angry and said in a low voice, "It's just what? Spit it out."

Upon hearing this, Master Soo choked and had no choice but to tell him the truth, "Mr. Yang, this...this Mr. Chen, is also known as Master Chen. And he is indeed ranked first on the Dragon List."

"What!" Dacia was shocked, and his face was full of incredulity, "He's ranked first on the Dragon List? How is that possible?"

The Soo family did not dare to speak. Momo took out her phone and clicked on the official website of the Dragon List. She showed the list to Dacia and said, "Look carefully, who is in the first place? There is also a comment from Galeno Zhu. Just take a look."

Dacia took a closer look and realized that the photo on the ranking list was really Fade. Suddenly, his face dropped and he went silent for a long while.

Master Soo's face was anxious and furious when he saw this. He glared fiercely at Momo and hurriedly said in an ingratiating manner, "Mr. Yang, the Dragon List is only a ranking. Although it is credible, it might not be very accurate."

Somoset, Lyla, and the others quickly chipped in their agreement.

"That's right, the ranking is just a list. Most of the rankings are based on one's realm of strength. It's still uncertain who will win or lose in a real battle."

06:01

"Furthermore, many disciples of the four great clans like you have yet to make an appearance, so not many people know about all of you. It is only normal for many masters to not be listed in the ranks."

"So, this list is just a reference. It doesn't hold much value for a master like you, Mr. Yang."

"Moreover, Mr. Yang, you're a prominent disciple. If you become a martial arts teacher, you're definitely going to be stronger than an ordinary self-taught master."

.....

After being flattered by the Soo family, Dacia calmed down. He gave Fade a hard look, then looked away and said, "Since the Soo family knows the truth, I won't say more on the matter."

"Well, I'm still willing to be the Soo family's martial arts teacher."

The Soo family let out a sigh of relief, and Master Soo's face broke into a smile.

Momo, however, curled her lips and whispered to herself, "I still won't learn from you. Hmph!"

Master Soo waved his hand to signal Zariah, Harper and other juniors over to pay their respect and honor Dacia as their master.

However, Dacia interrupted Egbert and said to him, "Master Soo, there is no need to rush. They can honor their master later. I have one more thing to announce."

"Eh! Mr. Yang, you have an announcement to make?" Master Soo's face was a little perturbed as he said respectfully.

Dacia's gaze shifted toward Momo. He said, "I have been observing Momo for a while and realized that her bone structure is excellent, and that she has extraordinary talent. She is definitely a martial arts prodigy. Therefore, I would like to accept her as my disciple and join me at the Wushuang Tower. Does your family agree to this?"

When they heard it, the Soo family were stunned and then their faces changed. They instantly became excited.

"Yes, of course!" Master Soo said hurriedly while nodding his head. His cheeks were flushed as he was extremely excited.

Somoset and others immediately were thrilled and hurriedly waved to Momo.

"Momo, why are you still standing there? Come over here!"

"It's such a great opportunity to be able to become Mr. Yang's disciple and join the Wushuang Tower. Come over!"

Even Ernest, who had always supported Fade, showed some excitement at that moment. He looked at Momo happily. It was obvious that he also hoped that his daughter would succeed in becoming a disciple of the Wushuang Tower.

After all, becoming a Heaven Level disciple of the Wushuang Tower, was a once in a lifetime opportunity. If Momo practiced well and succeeded, the Soo family would be unstoppable in the future.

Even if Momo's talent and strength were mediocre, the Soo family would definitely have much to gain with the Wushuang Tower name backing them.

Members of the Soo family looked at Momo excitedly and urged her to pay her respect to Dacia as a disciple.

Momo was the only one who wasn't very willing to do so. It was because she could sense that Dacia only had a greedy desire to possess her, and had no real intention of taking her as his disciple at all.

She also thought that even if he was a disciple of Wushuang Tower, he would not be as good as Fade.

"I don't..." Momo wanted to reject.

But before she could finish her words, Egbert and the others rushed over, looking agitated.

"Momo, do you know that this is a great opportunity? Hurry and accept his offer now!"

"Just quickly accept it. This is not only about you, it's a great opportunity for the entire Soo family as well!"

"Momo, listen to me, just hurry up and accept his offer."

.....

Her family's persuasion left Momo at a loss for words, "I, this... this..."

Dacia continued to tempt them with a smile, "Don't worry, Momo is talented. When I accept her as my disciple, I will do my best to teach her with all my heart and soul."

"Momo, you heard Mr. Yang. Hurry up and accept his offer!" Master Soo and the others urged.

Momo was pushed to the point where she could no longer decide for herself. She was then dragged and led towards Dacia.

Chapter 1210

When he saw Momo walking towards him, Dacia smiled and he licked his tongue, revealing an avarice expression. He thought to himself, "Such a delicate, pretty little girl like her is rare. I can enjoy myself."

At that moment, Fade shouted coldly, "Wait!"

The Soo family were stunned. Fade seized the opportunity to grab Momo and pulled her back to him with an invisible force.

When the Soo family saw this, their faces darkened with complete shock.

Egbert became even more infuriated. He looked at Fade and said through his gritted teeth, "Master Chen, what's the meaning of this?"

Fade said lightly, "I don't agree with Momo being apprenticed to him."

Hearing Fade's words, Egbert became even more furious. He held back his anger and glared at Fade, "Master Chen, this is our family matter. We can make our own decisions."

Somoset, Lyla, and the others also spoke up one after another. Although they did not dare to lash out on Fade, it was obvious that there was dissatisfaction among them.

"Master Chen, joining Wushuang Tower as an apprentice is something great."

"This is a great opportunity for Momo. Master Chen, do you really have the heart to ruin this for her?"

06:01

"Master Chen, since you have feelings for Momo, shouldn't you be thinking more about her future?"

.....

The Soo family comments filled the room.

Dacia, who was about to speak, shut his mouth and smiled proudly. He looked down at Fade, with a threatening gaze.

Fade glanced at the Soo family, patted Momo gently, and gave her a comforting look.

He then said loudly, "I understand where everyone is coming from. If Momo succeeds in becoming the Wushuang Tower's official disciple, it would be great, and I wouldn't stop her either. However, looking at the current situation, I must stop her."

The Soo family frowned, not understanding what he meant.

"Master Chen, what do you mean by that?"

"Succeeds in becoming Wushuang Tower's official disciple? Are you saying that Mr. Yang..."

.....

Dacia, who was at the main seat, suddenly had a cold look on his face when he saw Fade ruining his plan. He slammed on the armrest and showed a token, shouting angrily, "Are you doubting my identity as a disciple of the Wushuang Tower? Look carefully for yourself, what is this?"

As soon as the Soo family saw the antique token with the twin towers symbol on it, they immediately knew that it was the token of the Wushuang Tower.

Everyone's expression changed. Master Soo stepped forward hurriedly with the token in his hands and said in a flattering voice,

06:01

"Mr. Yang, we certainly didn't mean that. Fade's words are merely based on his own opinion, we have no idea what he's talking about. Of course, we believe you, Mr. Yang. We will immediately bring Momo over and begin the apprentice ceremony."

Egbert personally wanted to bring Momo over, "Momo, come over."

But Momo shook her head and said, "Grandpa, I don't want to acknowledge him as my teacher! I want to be with Fade."

"Momo, you..." Master Soo was about to take action again as he was frustrated and angry.

At that instant, Fade groaned and stopped Master Soo.

However, his action caused the Soo family to be puzzled and even more resentful. After all, in their eyes, it was a great opportunity for Momo to join the Wushuang Tower. Needless to say, they were displeased that Fade was ruining her shot.

Even Ernest looked at Fade at that moment with a strange expression.

When Fade read the room, he glanced at the members of the Soo family and explained, "I know you are all confused and may even hate me. But I will explain now, why I stopped Momo from being apprenticed to Dacia."

Everyone looked at Fade when they heard what he said.

Fade glanced at Dacia and said, "First of all, the way Dacia looked at Momo was wildly inappropriate and his mind was filled with ill intentions. If he takes Momo as his apprentice, we are uncertain of what he has in mind and what his intentions are."

"Nonsense, I..." The look in Dacia's eyes changed as he shouted angrily.

There was an odd look on the Soo family's faces, tinged with slight anger.

However, Fade immediately continued, "Even if we disregard this, you, Dacia, also made a huge mistake."

Hearing this, Dacia's expression changed and he looked wary.

The Soo family were even more confused. Ernest could not help but ask in a low voice, "What mistake?"

Fade pointed at the token that Dacia showed a while ago and said, "It's made of refined iron. The bottom is black and the twin towers are in silver grey. This token is the token of the outer disciple of Wushuang Tower, correct?"

The family members' faces were full of doubts when they heard Fade's remarks while Dacia's expression changed to shock, "How did you know that? Hmph! So what if I'm an outer disciple of the Wushuang Tower?"

Fade sneered and said, "So what? Since you're an outer disciple of the Wushuang Tower, you should know that the personal disciples, internal disciples, outer disciples and factotum disciples of Wushuang Tower are divided into four levels. Those who are qualified to recruit a disciple must at least be an inner disciple."

"As an outer disciple, you are unqualified to recruit a disciple, and even more unqualified to bring Momo into the Wushuang Tower. Therefore, what did you mean by recruiting a disciple a moment ago?"

Fade's question left Dacia dumbfounded. He didn't expect Fade to know so much about the Wushuang Tower. For a moment, he froze looking dejected.

Members of the Soo family were completely taken by surprise by this revelation. They were surprised to hear that there were so many levels of division and rules for the disciples of the Wushuang Tower but were also amazed by Fade's knowledge and shocked by Dacia's deception.

"Mr. Yang, this..." Master Soo looked disappointed as spoke to Dacia.

Dacia looked nervous and he immediately calmed himself as he suddenly thought of something. He said in a low voice, "Fine, I'll tell you what's going on now. According to the rules, I, Dacia, as an outer disciple of the Wushuang Tower, have no right to recruit disciples. But this time, I'm here to recruit on behalf of my senior brother, Callum, who is an inner disciple. If Momo joins the Wushuang Tower, she will be under Callum."

Upon hearing the explanation, the Soo family, who was doubtful, immediately became excited and delighted once again.

"An inner disciple recruiting a disciple!"

"This...this is even better than before!"

"This is great! This is really great! The Soo family will rise above!"

Dacia was full of pride as he looked at the Soo family who were extremely excited. Fade snorted coldly and interrupted their cheers, "Recruiting disciple on behalf of the inner disciple?"

"I can't say whether this is true or not. Even if it's true, I still do not support Momo joining the Wushuang Tower."

This stunned the Soo family and they all looked at Fade in confusion, feeling displeasure rise in their chests.

Master Soo not only looked at Fade with disappointment, he was also beginning to feel resentful towards him.

He suppressed his anger and said through gritted teeth, "Master Chen, this is our family affair. You don't have the right to interfere!"
