Chapter 1261

Immediately, she was excited and surprised. "My legs are back to normal. I'm fine now. What... What happened? Mr. Chen, what did you do?"

At that moment, Madam Liu and all of the students in the classroom were looking at Fade in shocked silence.

"Is she completely cured? This... This is simply unbelievable!"

"Look at the time. Only eight minutes have passed. Mr. Chen has really cured Madam Liu's leg within ten minutes. He's not bragging."

"Mr. Chen, you are too awesome. You are so amazing."

"Mr. Chen, how did you exactly do it?"

.....

Many of the students exclaimed excitedly while Faber and the other two students' faces suddenly became gloomy and cold.

"How is this possible?"

"This is impossible. He must have cheated."

"I don't believe it."

03:47

Fade gave Faber and the other two a blank look and said, "Never doubt other people's capabilities if you are not good enough. That will only make you look even more pathetic."

Then, Fade held the excited Madam Liu and explained, "Madam Liu, the root cause of your leg illness is not physical but psychological. It was more like a psychological trauma."

"A psychological trauma?" Madam Liu asked in a perplexed tone. She could not understand Fade's words. Many of the students also had a curious look on their faces.

Fade continued to explain slowly, "Earlier, you told me about you and your husband. Your leg was broken by your husband. After the treatment at the small clinic, it left you with some minor side effects which caused some discomfort in your right leg. This slight discomfort, coupled with your fear of violence had magnified the degree of this discomfort. You began to walk crookedly with your right leg and eventually it turned into a lame leg."

"The side effect can be easily treated if you can overcome your psychological trauma. Actually, we have gone through that just now," Fade said with a smile, "Madam Liu, you can walk normally now."

After listening to Fade's explanation, Madam Liu teared up as she recalled her sad past and how overjoyed she was at finally triumphing over her difficult situation. She did not know what else to say to Fade other than thanking him profusely. "Mr. Chen, thank you, thank you for curing my leg. If it wasn't for you, I really didn't know I..."

Fade helped Madam Liu up and escorted her out of the classroom as their conversations faded away into the corridor outside.

After that, Fade returned to look at Faber and the other two students and smiled, "Do you concede defeat? Do I need to state the obvious?"

Hearing this, Faber's face sank. He gritted his teeth and said reluctantly, "You, you have won."

Fade nodded and said, "Since I have won, then it's time for you to fulfill the agreement!"

Their faces changed upon hearing that, especially the two students who supported Faber. Both of them were extremely shocked.

According to their agreement just now, the three of them would be expelled from Capital University in the event Fade won. This might not be a severe punishment for Faber considering that his family is well off and he could find another place elsewhere in an instant. However, the two by his side did not have such privileges and were rooted to their spots in disbelief.

"Mr. Chen, this..."

"We have done wrong. Please give..."

"I..."

Looking at the faces of the three of them, Fade said coldly, "There's no need for you to say anything further. You have agreed to the condition, so it's time to fulfill the agreement. From this moment onwards, the three of you are no longer students of Capital University. Please leave my classroom now."

"No, Mr. Chen, I can't be expelled. My family..." One of the students started to beg for mercy.

"Mr. Chen, please give me another chance. I will repent." The other student also cried out.

Faber's face was also gloomy. He glared at Fade and said through gritted teeth, "Do you know who I am? You dare to expel me?"

I..."

Fade looked at them with cold eyes and shouted, "Do you want to go back on your words?"

"If you don't want to get out on your own, I can personally send you out too," Fade said and slammed his palm on the solid wood desk loudly.

The three of them had turned pale with fright upon seeing this. Gritting his teeth, Faber turned around angrily and said, "Let's go." Hearing that, the two students had no choice but to stand up and leave the classroom with Faber.

After the three of them left, Fade's face returned to normal. He looked at the remaining students in the classroom and asked, "Now, would all of you be willing to attend my class?"

"We're willing to!"

"Mr. Chen, you're so amazing. We couldn't be happier!"

"Mr. Chen, I'm sorry I doubted you just now."

"Mr. Chen, you are too awesome."

Quite a few students exclaimed while a smile flashed across Jasmine's face. The students who had previously stepped forward to support Faber earlier but returned to their seats later still had a lingering sense of fear in their hearts.

They were grateful for their decision to change their stances at the last minute. Otherwise, they would have followed the fate of the three students who weren't in the classroom anymore.

Fade made a gesture and looked at the students, "Okay, it's now time for us to continue our lesson."

Then, Fade began his teaching.

The students listened attentively to his lecture.

Meanwhile, Faber was filled with rage. He took out his mobile phone and made a phone call. "Dad, it's Faber here. I was expelled from school."

"It was a newly hired teacher at the university. He mistreated me..."

The bell rang signaled the end of the class. Fade tidied up his materials and prepared to leave the classroom.

Just when Fade was about to leave the room, Jasmine dashed towards him and shouted, "Mr. Chen, please wait a moment."

"Jasmine, what's the matter?" Fade asked.

Jasmine was blushing. She looked up at Fade but immediately lowered her gaze and said, "Mr. Chen, there's something that I would like to speak to you in private."

"Speak to me in private... This..." Fade was a little surprised but still nodded his head and said, "Okay, come with me to the office then!"

"Okay!" Jasmine replied with a nod and followed Fade out of the room.

The remaining students were all shocked when they saw this scene.

"What... What's going on? Jasmine and Mr. Chen left together."

"Did I see wrongly? Jasmine took the initiative to speak to Mr. Chen in private. Could it be that she's confessing her feelings for him?"

"That's not appropriate. A student and a teacher. It's bad news."

"What's wrong with that? What era is it now? Why is your thinking still so old-fashioned? Besides, even though Mr. Chen is our teacher, he's just a few years older than us. It's no big deal even if Jasmine and him are together."

"But, this should only be the first time they've met each other. That can't be it. That's too fast!"

"You can only blame Mr. Chen for being too charming."

.....

Chapter 1262

Fade and Jasmine were not aware that the rest of the students were talking about them. They walked side by side to the office. On the way, Jasmine looked a bit tense. She was walking with her head bowed low while tugging on the hem of her shirt. Seeing this, Fade chuckled and said, "Jasmine, if you keep walking like this, you'll step on my feet."

"Oh..." Shocked, Jasmine took a step back with blushing cheeks.

Seeing this, Fade waved his hand and said with a grin, "Jasmine, don't be so nervous. You don't have to treat me as a teacher after the class. You can say whatever you want!"

"Uh, I..." Jasmine stammered.

Taking a deep breath, she mustered up her courage. "Mr. Chen, I-I would like to apologize to you."

"Apologize?" Fade paused and asked in confusion, "Why would you need to say sorry to me?"

Jasmine blushed with embarrassment and replied, "Mr. Chen, I-I have misunderstood you on the school bus a few days ago. I even sneered at you. So, I... I would like to apologize to you, Mr. Chen."

Upon hearing this, Fade immediately smiled and replied, "Oh, that? It's okay. It wasn't a big deal. Furthermore, it's normal that you assumed that I was deliberately approaching you. It's fine."

03:47

As she heard that, Jasmine's face grew even redder. Lowering her head, she continued, "I thought too highly of myself. I'm sorry that I misunderstood you, Mr. Chen."

"Don't worry, it's really no big deal. You are the campus belle. I have even heard your name in the office. You are always being pursued by many guys, so I think it is normal for you to think that way," Fade responded.

Hearing Fade praise her as the campus belle right in front of her, Jasmine blushed and she was too shy to even respond.

Just then, the two of them arrived in front of the teachers' office building. Fade was preparing to go upstairs.

Seeing that, Jasmine gathered her courage and said, "Mr. Chen, in order to express my apologies, I... I would like to treat you to a meal."

"Treat me to a meal!" Fade repeated in surprise.

"I would like to apologize. If you don't agree, I'll stand here and wait," Jasmine insisted with a determined look on her face.

"If that's the case!" Fade thought for a moment, then nodded his head and agreed, "Okay, then wait for me for a while. I'll go upstairs and put my things away. After that, we will have a meal together "

"Oh... Thank you, Mr. Chen!" Jasmine did not expect that Fade would agree so readily. She was stunned for a moment before she nodded with a smile.

Fade then headed upstairs and did as he had said. Then, he came down again and walked side by side with Jasmine. "I'm done. Let's go."

Jasmine nodded and led Fade to the food street outside the school. "Mr. Chen, can you take spicy food? There's a restaurant outside the school that's famous for their spicy food. Let me treat you there!"

"Sure, I like spicy food very much," Fade replied while nodding, and the two of them walked out of the school gate together.

However, many students on the campus had seen the two of them behaving intimately. Thus, they took photos and videos of them and posted them onto the school's forum, which immediately caused a heated discussion.

"Headline, headline! Campus belle, Jasmine Zhuo has a boyfriend!"

"Jasmine and a man were seen talking and laughing while walking out of school together."

"Isn't that man the Campus Belle Hunter? Since when did he hook up with Jasmine Zhuo?"

"Campus belle Hunter? You mean the guy who has an intimate relationship with campus belle, Joey Chen?"

"D*mn it, hooking up with Joey Chen wasn't enough. Now, he even hooked up with Jasmine. This guy is going too far!"

"Is the title of the Campus Belle Hunter really going to be true? That's so cruel to us. The rest of the campus belles, please hide yourself. Don't get hunted by this guy."

"Who is able to investigate the background of this Campus Belle Hunter? It's only been a few days since the school started, but he has already been with two campus belles in our school."

"I know the inside story. His name is Fade Chen, a newly hired teacher in our university..."

Meanwhile, Fade and Jasmine, who were sitting in the restaurant, were not aware of the heated discussions on the forum.

03:47

After they were done ordering a few dishes, the blushing Jasmine, who sat opposite Fade, politely said, "Mr. Chen, so sorry. The restaurant is a little shabby."

Fade waved his hand and said with a smile, "Don't worry. I can eat anywhere. I'm not very picky about it."

"Also, since the class is over, you can relax a little. You don't need to be so reserved. Don't treat me as a teacher. I can be your ordinary classmate or friend," Fade continued.

"Oh, I..." Jasmine blushed as she was unable to adapt to the change. "I only wanted to apologize to you, Mr. Chen. That's why..."

"If you are still being so polite, I'm not going to accept your apologies," Fade deliberately said with a straight face. "Let's do it this way. You don't have to address me as Mr. Chen after class. You can either call me by my name, or Brother Fade."

"Try calling me now!" Fade continued with a smile.

"Fade, I... Brother Fade." Jasmine stammered before she finally called him.

Hearing this, Fade laughed and said, "Isn't this better? In the future, you can call me Brother Fade after class. I will also call you Jasmine."

"Okay!" Seeing Fade's relaxed attitude, Jasmine also felt much more relaxed.

Fade started eating without hesitation right after the dishes were served. Upon seeing Fade's true self, Jasmine also gradually relaxed and the two of them began to chat.

While chatting, they naturally came across topics related to Chinese Medicine.

Jasmine was still shocked when she recalled how Fade had cured Madam Liu in ten minutes during class just now. "Brother Fade, how did you cure Madam Liu's leg so quickly? That was really amazing. How did you do it?"

Fade smiled and replied, "Didn't I already explain it in class? Madam Liu's leg was caused by psychological factors."

Jasmine nodded and said, "I understand that. It's just that when it comes to psychological problems, the treatment will generally take a rather long time. Even when supplementary medication is used, it'll generally take a few months or even a few years for it to be effective. Brother Fade, how did you manage to cure Madam Liu in just a few minutes? That is so amazing."

Of course, Fade knew that it was not easy to treat psychological problems. Under normal circumstances, it would actually take months or even one or two years to cure Madam Liu's illness.

However, Fade was not an ordinary person. When he was treating Madam Liu, he had used his positive energy cultivation to catalyze Madam Liu's spiritual consciousness, which sped up the process.

However, it was difficult to explain these things. That was why Fade only briefly mentioned it in the class without explaining it in detail.

Now, he did not expect Jasmine would take the initiative to ask him about this. However, he could also tell that Jasmine had a talent and an astute sense for Chinese medicine.

As a result, Fade gave Jasmine a simple explanation of positive energy, spiritual consciousness and all other things.

Chapter 1263

Jasmine listened earnestly and nodded repeatedly. With a slight frown, she pondered over what Fade had just said.

When he noticed this, Fade thought that what he had just said was too profound and Jasmine could not understand him. Hence, he waved his hand and stated, "Jasmine, you don't need to go into the things I said seriously if you don't understand."

However, to Fade's surprise, Jasmine shook her head and replied, "Brother Fade, it's not that I don't understand what you're talking about. It's just that I feel that what you're talking about now is somewhat similar to what my master had taught me."

"Your master?" Fade repeated in a surprised tone.

Jasmine suddenly thought of something when she realized this. She could not help but cover her mouth with her hand in shock.

Seeing this, Fade waved his hand and said with a smile, "I'm just casually asking. If there is anything inconvenient for you to tell me about, then forget it."

"Brother Fade, I, I..." Jasmine said awkwardly. After hesitating for a moment, she mustered up her courage and continued, "Brother Fade, actually, it's nothing confidential. I think it's fine to tell you."

"Is it really okay to tell me?" He asked.

"Yeah!" Jasmine nodded and immediately explained, "Brother Fade, the master I'm talking about is the teacher who taught me Chinese medicine."

03:47

"The teacher who taught you Chinese medicine? Aren't you self-taught?" Fade asked as he thought of what Priscilla had said to him back in the office.

Jasmine shook her head. "Actually, I have a teacher. My father brought back a guest when I was 16 years old. The guest said that I had a talent in Chinese medicine and asked if I was willing to acknowledge him as my teacher."

"Originally, I didn't know a lot about Chinese medicine and I wasn't very interested in it but my father urged me to learn from him, so I studied under that guest for a while."

"However, I didn't expect that I would have some talent in Chinese Medicine and I would be interested in it as well. Thus, I studied under my master for three years and that's how I have attained my current standard."

"I see!" Fade nodded his head. "However, to have attained such a standard in only three years is excellent enough."

Jasmine continued, "Because I was interested in Chinese medicine, I applied for the relevant majors at the Chinese Medicine School of Capital University after my college entrance examination. That's how I ended up here."

"Although the industry of Chinese medicine is a little unpopular, it's still good if you learn it well. But, about your master, why did you purposely hide it from everyone? I don't think the school will care about these things either," Fade asked.

"I don't know either. After I became his student, my master told me not to mention anything related to him to outsiders. When I left home and came here to study, my father also instructed me several times not to mention a thing about my master to anyone. I asked them the reason for that, but they refused to tell me. I also don't know why," Jasmine replied in a bewildered tone.

After listening to Jasmine's explanation, Fade responded, "So that's how it is. Jasmine, will your master and father be okay if you told me all of this?"

Jasmine replied, "I think it should be okay. Ever since I started university, my master rarely came to visit me. My father is also not in Capital City, so they probably don't know anything about me. Furthermore, I don't think there's any reason to hide this.

After saying that, Jasmine smiled and picked up her drink, preparing to propose a toast to Fade.

However, right at this moment, a black figure quickly approached them and came to their table. He slammed his palm down on the table and bellowed angrily, "Jasmine, do you know what you're doing now?!"

Shocked by his bellow, Jasmine and Fade immediately turned their heads to look at the figure beside the table.

Fade caught a clear glimpse of the man. The man who was glaring fiercely at Jasmine was about 40 years old and he was wearing a black suit with a bracelet on his hand.

"You..." Fade's face fell. He stood up and looked at the man in alert.

Shocked, Jasmine instantly put down her drink and turned to the man. "Dad, why are you here?" She asked in surprise.

Upon hearing this, Fade couldn't help but be stunned. He looked at Jasmine and inquired, "Jasmine, he's..."

Jasmine nodded with certainty and confirmed, "Brother Fade, this is my father, Abbott Zhuo. Dad, this is..."

Jasmine was about to introduce Fade, but was interrupted by Abbott's cold voice. He glared at Jasmine and barked sternly, "I'm asking you, do you know what you're doing now?"

Hearing that, Jasmine's expression grew grim. "Dad, I, I didn't do anything. Why are you so angry?" She asked softly.

"How dare you ask why I am angry?" Abbott glared at Fade and continued to shout at Jasmine, "Have you forgotten what your master and I have instructed you? Also, why are you associating with such dubious people? What is your relationship with him?"

Just what... "

Jasmine became a little agitated when she realized her father had described Fade in such a way. She immediately stated, "This is Brother Fade. He's not a dubious person. Also, about my master, I don't understand why I need to hide it from everyone. Didn't I study under him for three years? Why can't I let others know? What's there to hide..."

Seeing Jasmine's agitated expression, Abbott scanned the surroundings before he rushed over and grabbed hold of her arms. "Keep your mouth shut. Don't mention anything about your master," he whispered to Jasmine.

"Why can't I talk about him? It's not like it's too embarrassing for me to acknowledge him. I don't understand..." Jasmine insisted.

Abbott then hurriedly said, "Alright, let's not talk about this first. Let's talk about him then. Who is he? Didn't I tell you that you're not allowed to have any contact with the opposite gender, let alone a boyfriend, during your university days?"

While speaking, Abbott turned his gaze to Fade and gazed at him dubiously.

Jasmine explained, "Dad, you have misunderstood. Brother Fade isn't my boyfriend. He's my teacher. There isn't any romantic relationship between us."

"He is your teacher?" Abbott repeated skeptically.

Fade immediately showed his teacher ID card and said, "Mr. Zhuo, you have really mistaken. I'm really Jasmine's teacher. This is my teacher's ID card. We just met each other and simply came out to have a meal together."

Abbott relaxed a little after taking a glance at Fade's ID card. However, he still said in a hostile tone, "You are calling my daughter by her name even though you have just met each other. You even came out and are having a meal together. Are all the teachers at Capital University so frivolous?"

03:47

Upon hearing this, Fade's expression grew solemn as he explained, "Mr. Zhuo, I'm about the same age as your daughter. That's why I called her by her name. There's absolutely nothing between us."

03:47

Chapter 1264

Holding Abbott's hand, Jasmine said, "Dad, you're thinking too much. Mr. Chen and I came out to eat because I wanted to apologize to him. There are no other intentions."

"Apologize? Why do you need to apologize?" Abbott frowned and questioned.

Jasmine then quickly updated Abbott about what had happened on the bus. Only then did Abbott's expression relax a little.

He glanced at Fade before saying to Jasmine, "Even if there's nothing going on this time, you still have to be careful. You're not allowed to come out alone with any guys in the future."

"Don't turn a deaf ear to your master's words and my words. Don't think that you can do whatever you want when we're not around you," Abbott looked at her sternly.

Jasmine could not help but feel a little uncomfortable when she heard his words. She pouted as she said, "Dad, I'm already nineteen years old. I'm already an adult, so I can do what I want. There's no need for you to worry so much."

"What do you mean you're an adult now? What do you mean you can do what you want? Are you going to go against your master and me?" Abbott snapped.

His stern expression made Fade feel a little uncomfortable. He could not help but frown while reminding Abbott, "Mr. Zhuo, you should probably tell Jasmine nicely if there are any problems, especially when Jasmine is already an adult. Some things..."

03:47

"There's no need for you to worry about my daughter," Abbott interrupted Fade and glared fiercely at him. "Since you're a teacher, you should focus on doing your job well in class. You don't have to worry about anything else outside class."

"Uh..." Fade's expression fell as he heard Abbott's words.

"I'm sorry, Mr. Chen," Jasmine said hurriedly while giving Fade an apologetic look. She then turned her gaze to her father and continued, "Dad, why are you speaking so rudely to Mr. Chen? He was just being nice. Why are you..."

Abbott waved his hand impatiently, stood up and said, "Alright, let's not talk about this now. Your master is in the city. Why don't you come meet him with me?"

"Huh, Master is in Capital City? Did something happen?" Jasmine asked in a curious yet surprised tone.

Abbott replied, "You'll know when you get there. Alright, stop talking. Let's go now."

After saying that, Abbott immediately grabbed hold of Jasmine's hand, preparing to leave.

Jasmine couldn't help but frown, but she could only wave her hand to bid him goodbye. "I'm sorry, Mr. Chen. I have to leave first," she said to Fade.

Fade looked at this strange father-daughter pair and replied, "It's alright, go ahead. If there's anything you need, you can contact me. I've already given you my contact information in the class."

"Yes, I will..." Jasmine nodded in agreement, but before she could finish her sentence, she had already been pushed and shoved out by Abbott.

When the father and daughter walked out of the restaurant, Abbott even turned his head to glare at Fade sternly before leaving.

03:47

Fade shook his head gently and went back to the school after finishing all the food on the table.

There were no classes in the afternoon. Fade was sitting and sorting out the lesson plan in the office. Realizing that it was getting late, he packed up his things and left the office.

However, Joey had come looking for him before he could leave.

Ignoring the gazes of everyone, Joey went straight to Fade and intimately called him "brother" while wrapping her hand around his arm.

In an instant, Fade felt that everyone's gaze was like countless sharp arrows, watching him sharply.

"Joey, you're going to get me into trouble! Can't you see the gazes of those boys? It seems that they can't wait to eat me alive!" Fade couldn't help but complain.

However, Joey did not let go of her hand on his arm. She pouted and said, "Brother Fade, don't make excuses. Even without me, the eyes of those boys will still be the same."

"How could that be?" Fade shook his head.

Joey immediately took out her mobile phone and showed it to him. "Why would they not? Brother Fade, look. This is the hot topic on the school's forum. Everyone is saying that you are a highly efficient campus belle hunter. It's only been a few days since school has started, but you have already gone out with the campus belle, Jasmine. So, even without me and because of Jasmine, those boys will still treat you the same way."

Fade fell speechless as he scrolled through the comments on the school forum.

Alas, he did not expect that he would become the common enemy of all the boys in Capital University just a few days after he came to the school.

Joey pulled Fade's arm and said with a grin, "Brother Fade, stop sighing. Let's go eat."

"Again?" He frowned.

"The last meal we had was ruined by Wilton and those guys from the Szeto Academy. Brother Fade, please treat me again!" Joey said while looking at Fade with pitiful eyes.

Fade's heart immediately softened upon seeing her pitiful look. He patted his chest and said, "Joey, what do you want to eat? Just tell me. I will take you anywhere!"

"Great, I can eat some expensive food again," Joey cheered. After saying that, she took out her mobile phone and made a phone call while explaining to Fade, "I'll ask Yankee to come with us. Let's eat together."

The phone was finally connected only seconds later. Joey smiled and asked, "Yankee, have you gotten off work? Let's go out and have a meal together. Brother Fade will be treating us today, so we can have a good meal."

"Ah, I'm sorry, Joey, but I still have something to do. I can't get off work yet so I can't eat with you. You can go without me," Yankee replied in a hoarse voice.

"Why haven't you gotten off work yet? Are you so busy with your work?" Joey could not help but pout.

Just then, the sound of yelling and screaming could be heard on the other side of the phone. "How do you do things? Who allowed you to talk on the phone during work hours? Get over here now!"

03:47

Then, the phone call ended.

Joey and Fade's faces darkened as they looked at each other.

"Brother Fade, did you hear that? Yankee seems to have encountered some trouble. Why don't we go over to check on her? I'm very worried about her," Joey said.

"Okay, let's go," Fade agreed with a nod as he walked out of the school with Joey. "Joey, is Yankee's family situation bad? Why is she working when school has just started?"

Joey nodded and replied in a low voice, "Yankee came from the countryside and she is the eldest daughter in the family. She has a younger brother. Originally, her family wanted her to get married after finishing high school so that they could obtain a sum of dowry money for her younger brother."

"But later, because Yankee's college entrance examination grades were good and she was ranked first in her state, the school awarded her a sum of money. Furthermore, with Yankee's insistence, her family had no choice but to allow her to come to Capital City to attend university."

"It's just that, the money was only enough for the tuition fees. Yankee's family actually refused to pay for her living expenses so she has been working part-time to earn her living expenses during her university life all these years."

"However, Yankee's younger brother has gotten a girlfriend this year and is preparing to get married. Therefore, he needs money for the betrothal. Yankee has not graduated yet so she can't earn much money. Besides that, her family also heard that Yankee majored in archaeology, which is a very unpopular course that doesn't make a lot of money. Because of that, her family became even more opposed to her continuing her studies."

"Recently, her mother has been calling her, urging her to go back home and get married. She wanted her to marry a local nouveau riche who is nearly 40 years old, in exchange for her brother's betrothal gift money."

"Of course, Yankee refused to do so but her family is pressuring her to accept it. They told her that if she doesn't want to go back and get married, then she has to bring 50,000 dollars back for her brother when she goes back home during the school holidays next time."

"In order to earn money, Yankee has to work multiple jobs outside school. Besides working, she still needs to attend classes in school. She has a really hard time."

Fade fell silent after hearing Yankee's story. He did not expect that Yankee would be faced with such enormous pressure from her family.

Fade almost had the urge to just take out a sum of money to help Yankee solve her problem when he thought of this.

However, Joey seemed to have seen through Fade's thoughts. Thus, she immediately said, "Brother Fade, don't ever think of giving Yankee money. She is a very stubborn person, so she will never accept other people's money for no reason."

Fade understood and nodded. "We can talk about these things later. Now, let's head over to Yankee's workplace first."

"Okay, I know where she is working," Joey responded.

Immediately, the two of them rushed to the place where Yankee was working.

Half an hour later, the two of them arrived at the factory district. Passing through the rumbling processing plants, they finally came to a dilapidated factory at the corner.

The factory was not big, but the business was good at the door. There were trucks constantly going in and out. The workers were busy loading the trucks with goods. Once fully loaded, the trucks would leave one after another.

Most of the movers were sturdy middle-aged men. Among these middle-aged men, there was a weak but strong female figure.

Fade's heart skipped a beat when he saw Yankee carrying boxes of goods with gritted teeth. He felt so sorry for her.

Joey, on the other hand, was about to rush forward as tears welled up in her eyes.

Meanwhile, Bobbie Loo, a man in his thirties, with a beer belly, walked out of the factory with his hands behind his back.

His gaze swept the area and landed on Yankee. He frowned and yelled, "Yankee, what's wrong with you? Stop dawdling and move faster. When will you finish moving at this rate?"

Gritting her teeth, Yankee quickened her pace and walked towards the truck while carrying a box of goods on her shoulder.

As for Bobbie, he was scanning Yankee from head to toe. Then, he slightly raised the corner of his mouth and walked over to Yankee's side. He continued to shout and urge her, "Hurry up. Originally, I didn't want to hire a girl as a mover but I accepted you because you were begging me. Is this what you mean by you can do it?"

While he was shouting at Yankee, he reached out his fat hands and touched Yankee's butt.

Yankee was about to unload the box of goods onto the truck when she felt a hand touching her.

Shocked by his touch, Yankee instinctively dodged to avoid his groping hand.

However, her dodging action had caused the goods on Yankee's shoulders to lose their balance. With a thud, they fell to the ground and smashed into pieces.

A whole box of glass bottled beverages instantly shattered, causing the drinks to flow all over the ground. The entire scene looked terrible.

Seeing this, Bobbie's face immediately fell as he started shouting, "How did this happen? You have broken all the goods. What are you going to do?"

Yankee was looking very shocked at this moment. She looked at Bobbie and said in an angry yet aggrieved tone, "It's, it's because you touched me. That's why..."

"That's bullsh*t! When did I touch you? Don't slander me," Bobbie barked angrily. Then, he coldly waved his hand at Yankee and continued, "You can get lost now. Don't come to work anymore."

Yankee's face fell upon hearing that. She wanted to explain herself but was at a loss for words. Breathing a sigh of resignation, she reluctantly took off her work uniform and stood silently beside Bobbie.

03:47

Seeing this, Bobbie frowned and bellowed, "Why are you still standing there? Haven't you heard what I said? You will be fired! Get lost now!"

Yankee bit her lip and said, "Boss, m-my salary."

"Your salary? You still want to be paid? Do you know how much the box of goods is worth? You should be thankful that I didn't ask you to compensate me. Don't you think it's ridiculous to ask me for a salary?" Bobbie mocked her scornfully.

"But, I have worked here for three and a half days. You promised to pay me three hundred dollars per day so three days will be nine hundred dollars. Even after deducting the cost of the goods, there should still be some extra money left," Yankee insisted.

"Extra? Are you kidding me? I am already very kind enough to let you go without asking you to compensate me," Bobbie sneered.

"I deserve to be paid. If you don't pay me, I won't leave," Yankee stated firmly, standing there.

Bobbie was getting a little impatient. With a wave of his hand, he called the security guards over and ordered, "Take her away."

Immediately, two burly security guards approached Yankee and tried to take her away by force.

However, Fade stepped out at this moment, and shouted, "Stop!"

Startled by his voice, Bobbie immediately looked over and asked with a frown, "Who are you? Why are you meddling in my business?"

Fade and Joey walked to Yankee and gave her a comforting look. Then, they looked at Bobbie and said, "We are Yankee's friends. We're here to uphold justice for her."

"Uphold justice?" Bobbie gave them a disdainful sneer and mocked sarcastically, "I'd really like to see how the two of you can uphold justice for her."

Fade replied in a deep voice, "We want you to pay the salary to Yankee and then apologize to her for what happened just now."

"You want me to pay her, apologize and admit my mistake? Haha, you must be dreaming!" Bobbie laughed. "Didn't you see that she has shattered my goods? She should be thankful that I didn't ask her to compensate me, but you still want me to pay her a salary. It's extremely ridiculous."

"I believe you should know very well what had really happened just now," Fade stated coldly.

Joey also took out her mobile phone and said, "I have already recorded what you have done with my phone. If you don't admit it, I will go to the police station to report you."

Seeing this, Bobbie frowned and his expression fell.

Then, he instantly called out to all the security guards and workers in the factory with his stern voice. "Come out, everyone. Someone is here to make trouble."

Chapter 1266

Immediately, twenty or thirty people walked out of the factory and surrounded the three of them.

Yankee also looked at Fade and Joey in surprise and asked, "Brother Fade, Joey, why are you here? I..."

Joey held Yankee's hand and stood beside her. "Yankee, don't be afraid. With Brother Fade here, nothing will happen," she comforted Yankee.

"But this..." Yankee was still feeling a little worried.

"Yankee, don't worry. Everything will be fine," Fade comforted Yankee and gave her an encouraging look before sweeping his gaze coldly towards Bobbie, the approaching workers and the security guards.

"Is this how you do things? Is this a factory or a mafia den?" Fade questioned coldly.

Bobbie looked at Fade with a disdainful sneer and snapped coldly, "No matter what kind of place this is, it's none of your business. However, I can assure you that you won't be able to leave today."

"We won't be able to leave? Do you plan to beat us up?" Fade asked in a deep voice.

"It's not just beating you up. The girl beside you is a beauty. I'll have some fun with her later," Bobbie stated as he smiled at Joey lewdly.

Fade's expression instantly turned cold upon hearing his words. Before Bobbie could react, he rushed over to him and gave him two slaps in the face, which caused his cheeks to turn red and swollen instantly.

Bobbie had not come back to his senses yet, but he could feel a burning pain on his face.

Incensed, he glared at Fade and snapped through gritted teeth, "You dare to slap me? I can assure you that this matter will not end easily now."

"All of you, move. Go and give them a good beating," Bobbie barked ferociously.

Immediately, twenty or thirty security guards and workers dashed towards the three of them.

Yankee was slightly afraid when she saw this scene. "No, don't fight. It's not a big deal. I don't want my salary anymore," she shouted.

"Don't want your salary? Now, it's not about paying you anymore. Not only will I not pay you a single penny, but you will also need to compensate me."

Twenty or thirty people had already surrounded them while Bobbie was talking. Among them, there were a few burly security guards who were holding and thrusting the rubber rods in their hands towards Fade.

However, before they could make a move, Fade had already dashed into the crowd. After a series of clanking sounds, all the twenty or thirty factory workers and security guards were defeated and they were seen laying on the ground.

Seeing this, Bobbie, who had been arrogant, immediately looked frightened.

Fade strode over and asked coldly, "Were you planning to kill us?"

Seeing Fade approach him, Bobbie stepped back in fear and said, "D-Don't come over. I'm warning you. If you continue to come towards me, I'll call the police."

As he spoke, Bobbie took out his mobile phone, preparing to call the police.

"Huh!" Joey sneered. "Didn't you just say that it's useless to call the police? Why are you afraid now?"

Bobbie's face immediately fell. "I'm not afraid. It's you who will be in trouble. You don't know what you have done," he said, forcibly trying to keep a serious tone.

"Let me tell you. This is a public assault. Moreover, the beverages that Yankee broke just now are worth a great deal of money. Be prepared to pay for them."

Upon hearing this, Yankee immediately retorted indignantly, "You are the one who assaulted us first. Furthermore, the cost of the beverages is only a few dollars. How could they be valuable?"

"A few dollars?" Bobbie repeated with a sneer. "Yankee, you have no idea what you have just broken. Let me tell you. That box of beverages were Fei's Life Elixir Wine, a highly-sought beverage that is served by most of the upscale venues in Capital City."

"It's hard for you to get your hands on a bottle of Life Elixir Wine even with ten thousand dollars. There were twenty-four bottles in that box. Do you still think that those beverages are still worthless now?" Bobbie said with a sneer, "You just wait and compensate me."

"Ten thousand yuan per bottle. This, this is impossible..." All the color drained from Yankee's face when she heard this. After all, for a penniless girl like her, that was a shockingly high price.

"Impossible? Haha, you can go and find out how much a bottle of Fei's Life Elixir Wine costs," Bobbie said triumphantly, "I have nothing more to say now. You will first need to pay me two hundred and forty thousand yuan for these beverages."

"I..." Yankee's face immediately turned pale upon hearing his words.

However, at this moment, Fade stepped out and scanned the goods on the truck. "You said that these are the Fei's Life Elixir Wine?" He asked coldly.

"Yes, what's wrong?" Replied Bobbie.

Fade continued, "As far as I know, Fei's Life Elixir Wine does not have a production plant in Capital City. All their products are produced in Dragonville and then shipped to Capital City."

"So, how did this small factory of yours manage to get your hands on Fei's Life Elixir Wine?" He asked.

"What are you implying?" Bobbie asked, "Are you suspecting that my Fei's Life Elixir Wines are fakes?"

Fade replied blandly, "I'm not suspecting, but I'm certain of it. Your so-called Fei's Life Elixir Wines are all fakes. Let's not talk about compensation. You will need to address this issue first."

Bobbie's eyes flickered for a moment when he heard Fade's words. He then calmed down and said, "How will you prove my products are fakes? My uncle is the branch manager of Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc in Capital City. I am liaising directly with him for the products supplied to various major hotels in Capital City."

"Your uncle is the manager?" Fade asked, squinting his eyes.

"Yes, my uncle is Roomis Loo. If you don't believe me, you can go and check it out yourself," Bobbie replied with a proud and serious expression on his face.

Upon hearing this, Fade's face fell. Without saying a word, he immediately picked up a box of Life Elixir Wine from the truck and smashed it on the ground, shattering it into pieces.

"W-What are you doing?" Bobbie barked, in a stunned voice.

However, Fade did not stop. He continued to smash all the Life Elixir Wine in the truck into pieces.

"Do you know how much all these Life Elixir Wines cost? You will not be able to afford to pay if you smashed all of them," shouted Bobbie.

"Really? This is just the beginning." Fade said and strode into the factory.

Bobbie immediately became anxious when he saw that. "What are you planning to do?" He asked Fade.

He would soon know what Fade is planning to do.

Heading straight to the factory warehouse, Fade threw out his fists and swept his legs out when he saw the piles of Life Elixir Wines.

Chapter 1267

Immediately, the sound of glass breaking could be heard from within the warehouse. Dark red wine flowed out, flooding the ground of the entire warehouse.

"Y-You actually..." Bobbie hurriedly rushed over. He was extremely surprised and furious when he saw this scene.

However, as he faced Fade, he did not have the ability to stop him. He could only watch his goods be smashed into pieces.

"You're done for. I'm telling you, you'll be dead," Bobbie snapped, gnashing his teeth. After saying that, he proceeded to make a call on his cell phone. "Uncle, someone came to make trouble at my factory. He has smashed all the goods here. Please come over quickly. By the way, bring more people with you. This guy is really good at fighting."

Bobbie immediately withdrew into a corner after hanging up the phone. His eyes were filled with hatred.

Meanwhile, Yankee and Joey also came inside the factory. Both of them were utterly surprised when they saw the mess inside.

Yankee looked at Fade and said worriedly, "Brother Fade, you are too impulsive. What should we do now? If Bobbie calls the police, we..."

Fade, on the other hand, looked relaxed. He smiled gently and said, "Don't worry. It'll be fine. Bobbie won't dare to call the police."

"But what should we do if he calls someone here. There are so many goods here. It'll be expensive. We..." Yankee trailed off, looking extremely worried.

03:48

However, Fade replied in a relaxed tone, "Everything will be fine. Even if I smash the entire factory, he won't dare to say a word."

Although Fade looked confident and relaxed, Yankee was still feeling extremely worried and anxious.

About 20 minutes later, rapid braking sounds could be heard at the factory entrance.

Immediately, Fade and the other two girls walked out of the factory upon hearing the braking sounds. A black BMW was seen stopping right in front of the factory entrance. There were a few vans following behind the BMW and dozens of people were getting down from them.

A man in his fifties, dressed in a suit, stepped out of the BMW.

Upon seeing that, Bobbie immediately rushed over with a smile and said, "Uncle, you're here."

The identity of the man in the suit was obvious. He must be Roomis Loo, the branch manager of Fei Enterprise Holdings Inc whom Bobbie had mentioned earlier.

Roomis nodded, looked towards Bobbie and asked, "Bobbie, what happened?"

Bobbie glared at Fade fiercely and replied, "Uncle, they came to the factory to make trouble and even smashed all of our goods."

Then, he pointed to the messy ground and the factory, and continued resentfully, "Uncle, look. These were all their doings."

"Huh, the three of you..." Roomis's face fell when he saw the mess and anger was written all over his face. He had the urge to get into a fist fight with Fade..

However, Bobbie quickly held him back and said, "Uncle, that guy has some skills. He has beaten all the twenty or thirty people in our factory up. Did you bring some people here?"

03:48

Roomis pointed to the dozen people behind him and introduced, "I have hired these people from the Sawyer Gang. They are all very good fighters."

Bobbie's eyes suddenly lit up. "Sawyer Gang. Is that Sawyer Xu's Sawyer Gang?"

"Is there any other Sawyer Gang other than this one?" Roomis rolled his eyes.

A sudden rush of excitement came to Bobbie's face when he heard Roomis' words. He continued, "Sawyer is a martial arts master from the Black Level's middle stage. All his men are martial artists as well. The strength of one man is equal to ten men. That troublemaker will be done for this time."

Roomis nodded and replied, "I only hired the people from the Sawyer Gang because you told me that the situation is bad. But now, I realized that there are only three people, and two of them are women. It looks like I've over-prepared!"

Bobbie smiled and said, "I will thank you later after we get rid of that guy."

"You're only good at flattering others," Roomis said and rolled his eyes at Bobbie before turning his gaze to Fade. "Boy, are you the one who is causing trouble in my factory?"

Fade did not answer his question. Instead, he scanned Roomis from head to toe and asked, "Are you the branch manager of Fei Enterprise Holdings Inc in Capital City?"

Squinting his eyes, Roomis nodded and replied, "Yes, I am. What's the matter? Do you have any opinion about me?"

Fade replied, "As a staff of Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc, you have allowed counterfeit products to be supplied to the market, affecting the reputation of Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc. Tell me, how should the company punish you?"

03:48

Upon hearing this, Roomis frowned and then said in a cold voice, "How can you prove that my goods are fake? Even if they are, what can a nameless brat like you do to punish me? Do you think you have the ability to do that?"

"You'll soon know whether or not I have the ability to punish you," Fade responded with a snort. Fishing out his cell phone, he gave Lily a call. "Sister Lily, I'm Fade. There's something I would like to ask you."

"Here's the thing. In Capital City, I have met..."

Meanwhile, Roomis felt a little uneasy when he saw Fade talking on the phone.

Bobbie, on the other hand, did not feel anything strange. Instead, he said to his uncle urgently, "Uncle, we don't need to waste our time arguing with this kid. Just ask the people from Sawyer Gang to get rid of him right away."

"Besides, the two girls standing next to that kid are quite pretty too. Both of them are full time students of Capital University, especially that little beauty. She looks great," Bobbie commented while looking at Joey with shining eyes. Then, he continued with a lewd smile, "Uncle, look at that appearance and that figure. Why not later, I'll let you enjoy her first, then it'll be my turn to..."

Roomis then turned to Joey and his eyes glinted. He was obviously amazed by her beauty and he was getting excited.

After pondering for a moment, he waved his hand and ordered the Sawyer Gang's thugs, "Sorry to trouble you guys. Please help me teach that kid a lesson."

Upon receiving Roomis's order, a dozen thugs from the Sawyer Gang immediately dashed toward Fade in an overbearing manner.

Bobbie lifted the corners of his mouth and looked at Fade with an arrogant and cruel smile on his face.

Fade quietly looked at the thugs with a calm smile on his face. There was no hint of panic on his face at all.

Seeing this, Bobbie could not help but frown. "You're still putting on an act. You won't be able to smile soon."

Just as the thugs were about to make a move, Roomis' cell phone rang.

Roomis fished out his mobile phone and was surprised when he saw the caller ID. He instinctively glanced at Fade and immediately answered the phone with a respectful tone, "Hello, Miss Wei. I am Roomis, the company branch manager in Capital City. Do you have..."

Lily did not wait for Roomis to finish his words, and immediately stated coldly, "Roomis, what did you do at the branch office in Capital City? Come clean about it now."

"Miss Wei, I-I didn't do anything!" Roomis hurriedly defended himself.

Chapter 1268

Lily snapped in a cold voice, "You're still lying. Do you think that I have no idea what you've done in Capital City? You've secretly colluded with your nephew and established a factory to produce fake Fei's Life Elixir Wine. You have used your power for private purposes, selling these counterfeit wines at the best price. How will you explain this?"

"Oh, Miss Wei, I-I did not. I don't know where you heard this news from. I can tell you with certainty that I didn't do these things," Roomis quickly denied.

"You're still refusing to come clean," Lily roared. "President Chen just called me and told me what is happening in Capital City."

"President Chen? Who's President Chen?" Roomis asked in a daze.

"President Fade Chen, the husband of President Lin," Lily snapped angrily.

"Oh, that president Chen. How would he..." Roomis was shocked when he suddenly thought of something. He immediately turned his gaze to Fade and the other two girls, and he stood frozen on the spot.

Lily continued on the phone, "President Chen is at your factory right now. He is just standing right in front of you. How else did you think he knew? You'd better watch yourself."

Lily hung up the phone angrily after finishing her words.

Roomis, on the other hand, looked at Fade in shock and murmured, "A-Are you president Fade Chen? This, this is too..."

03:48

Meanwhile, Bobbie had already given the order to the Sawyer Gang's men to attack Fade.

Roomis couldn't help but be shocked when he saw this. He quickly shouted, "Stop, all of you, stop."

Upon hearing this, the men from the Sawyer Gang stopped at the last moment.

Bobbie looked toward Roomis in complete bewilderment and asked, "Uncle, what are you doing? Why did you order them to stop?"

Roomis shot Bobbie a glare and said through gritted teeth, "Do you know that you've caused some serious trouble? You've offended a big shot."

"What big shot?" asked Bobbie with a puzzled expression on his face.

Roomis pointed to Fade and answered, "This is President Fade Chen. He is the president of Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc."

"What? He's President Chen? T-This can't be. Did you make a mistake?" Bobbie asked incredulously.

"Miss Wei has called me just now. Do you still think that this is a mistake?" Roomis muttered through clenched teeth.

"B-But this is too..." Bobbie still found it hard to believe.

Roomis, on the other hand, came over to Fade with a smile. "President Chen, I didn't know it's you. T- This is a huge misunderstanding."

"Misunderstanding?" Fade let out a cold snort and pointed to the shattered Life Elixir Wine on the ground. "Are these things also a misunderstanding?"

"President Chen, I... I was unaware about this. My nephew did all these alone, right behind my back. I..." Roomis explained, trying to shift all the blame to Bobbie.

However, Fade refused to listen to his sweet talking and replied coldly, "You don't have to say anything more. Just wait to be fired. On top of that, I've also called the Department of Commerce and the police station. They will come to investigate the case very soon."

Hearing this, Roomis' expression changed drastically. He started begging Fade for mercy, "President Chen, I have made a mistake. President Chen, please give me another chance, I..."

Fade snapped coldly and shook Roomis' hands off, "You have already lost your chance the moment you started doing these things."

"I, I..." Roomis' face turned pale as he almost collapsed to the ground.

At this moment, Bobbie was shocked as he finally believed Fade's identity. He immediately came over to Roomis' side and held him up. Gritting his teeth, he muttered to Roomis, "Uncle, that Fade is too much. He wouldn't even give us a chance. Why don't we ask the men from Sawyer Gang to teach him a good lesson?"

Roomis looked at Bobbie and replied, "That's President Chen. He's not an ordinary person. I can't..."

"Uncle, you are in such a bad situation now. Why are you still being so overly cautious?" Bobbie said persuasively, "That brat named Fade will definitely fire you. Furthermore, both of us will end up in jail if the case is filed."

"This, this..." At the thought of this, Roomis' expression turned a little brutal, but he was still worried. "But President Chen is a martial arts master. I heard that he is very famous in Dragonville," he said.

"How powerful could an owner of a company be? It must be that his employees are bragging about him," Bobbie cast his doubts.

03:48

"Besides, this is Capital City, not Dragonville. The men from Sawyer Gang are also not easy to deal with. Fade may not be a match for the Sawyer Gang even if he is a martial artist."

"But, I..." Roomis was still a little hesitant.

Bobbie stated, "Uncle, if you continue to hesitate, we will not have a chance if the police and the people from the Department of Commerce arrive. Let's do this quickly. Perhaps we might still have a chance to overturn this situation."

Roomis instantly clenched his teeth hard when he heard this. Mustering a cold gaze, he said with a nod, "Let's do it!"

Overjoyed, Bobbie turned his gaze immediately to the men from the Sawyer Gang and ordered, "Go. Teach that kid a lesson. Beat him to a pulp."

Upon hearing this, Fade's gaze turned cold. He turned toward the two of them and asked in a cold voice, "Are you sure you want to make a move?"

Roomis did not dare to speak as he bowed his head low. Bobbie, on the other hand, glared fiercely at Fade and snapped, "You d*mn b*stard, don't be too happy yet. This is not your territory. It doesn't matter if you're the boss; you have to bow down to me when you're in my territory."

With a wave of his hand, the men from the Sawyer Gang immediately swarmed towards Fade and started fighting.

Fade shook his head and stated coldly, "I've already given both of you a chance. It seems that it's still too light of a punishment for you two to only go to jail."

After saying that, Fade dashed forward and met their attacks head-on.

03:48

Even though he was surrounded by a dozen martial artists from the Sawyer Gang, Fade was like a ferocious lion, savagely attacking these lamb-like opponents.

It did not take more than three minutes for these so-called martial artists to end up with the same ending as those factory workers and security guards earlier. They were all lying on the ground howling and groaning, having completely lost their ability to fight.

As for Fade, he clapped his hands, looking extremely calm and relaxed.

"H-How is this possible?" Bobbie turned to Fade in disbelief.

Roomis' body went limp and he collapsed to the ground upon seeing this scene. "I'm done. Everything is over now. It's over," he murmured to himself.

Bobbie's eyes turned cold. He gritted his teeth while holding Roomis up and said, "Uncle, there is still a chance. Quickly contact Sawyer Xu. This kid has beaten the men from the Sawyer Gang up. Sawyer has always been protective of his men. He won't let him go easily."

Roomis' eyes lit up upon hearing his words. He immediately fished out his phone, made a call, and hastily said, "Is that Mr. Xu? I'm Roomis. Yes, there's something I want to tell you..."

Fade looked at the duo who were making their last struggle. His face was cold as he shook his head and said, "It seems that I have underestimated your resilience."

After saying that, Fade threw punches and kicks at the two of them repeatedly. A while later, Roomis and Bobbie, with badly bruised faces, were both seen lying on the ground groaning in pain.

Chapter 1269

Not long after, a group of people arrived at the factory in several vans.

Twenty or thirty people quickly got out of the cars and immediately surrounded the entrance of the factory with great haste.

Roomis and Bobbie, who laid groaning on the ground, were excited when they saw the incoming men. Enduring their great pain, they struggled to get up and went over to them.

The leader of the group was a bald and muscular man. He was around 40 years old with bold eyebrows and he looked like someone that you wouldn't want to mess with.

"Mr. Xu, you're here." Roomis came to the man's side and spat out bitterly.

The bald man was the gangmaster of Sawyer Gang, Sawyer Xu. He was extremely shocked when he saw Roomis' bruised body and asked hurriedly, "Mr. Loo, how did you become like this? Who dares to beat you up?"

Roomis pointed in Fade's direction and said, "It's that kid."

Bobbie also added, "Director Xu, that kid not only beat both of us up but also knocked all your men out cold."

Sawyer's expression immediately turned frozen when he saw his disciples laying on the ground. Stepping forward, he looked at Fade and asked in a calm voice, "Are you the one who has beaten them up?"

Fade studied Sawyer before saying lightly, "This has nothing to do with you. It's better for you not to get involved."

03:48

"It has nothing to do with me?" Sawyer said with a cold snort. "Kid, let me tell you, Director Xu is my friend and you've beaten my men up. So tell me, does this still have nothing to do with me?"

Fade replied faintly, "That's because they deserved it."

"Deserved to be beaten up?!" Sawyer barked angrily and gave Fade a fierce glare before continuing through clenched teeth, "Then, in my opinion, you should also be beaten up."

Sawyer rolled up his sleeves which exposed his thick muscular arms and closed in on Fade.

Seeing this, Fade frowned then shook his head and sighed. "Originally, I didn't intend to make a move, but since you are asking for trouble, then come on."

"Hurry up. I don't have time to waste on you," Fade said, giving Sawyer a signal to go ahead.

Sawyer immediately bulged with rage when he heard Fade's relaxed yet disrespectful words. His eyes were blazing with anger as he let out a loud battle cry and stomped forward. With his burly body, he charged towards Fade.

"You're digging your own grave. Eat this."

Sawyer had exerted almost all of his strength into this move.

The momentum of a Black Level martial artist burst forth and came crashing down on Fade.

Even Roomis and Bobbie, who were standing behind Sawyer, could feel an unstoppable momentum. Their expressions changed as they exclaimed, "Is this the strength of a Black Level martial artist? He's as strong as what we have seen in movies."

A look of delight passed across their faces and their eyes were filled with excitement.

"Fade is done for. There's no way he can survive this!"

"Hmm, let's see how he can compete against Mr. Xu."

Just when the two of them and a number of Sawyer Gang's disciples were feeling extremely excited, Fade stretched his right arm and braced when he saw Sawyer's incoming attack.

Squinting his eyes slightly, Fade threw his arm out with impeccable timing.

Fade's fist struck Sawyer's body and sent him flying back.

Sawyer's face changed drastically as a stream of blood gushed out of his mouth. He fell heavily to the ground as his face instantly became pale.

Such a scene was absolutely beyond everyone's expectations.

For a moment, Roomis and Bobbie as well as the rest of the Sawyer Gang were all dumbfounded. They were looking at the fight with their mouths agape and their faces were full of disbelief.

One among the crowd came to his senses a few seconds later and called out, "Mr. Xu" before rushing to help Sawyer up.

The rest of the crowd also turned to glare at Fade fiercely.

Wiping away the blood at the corner of his mouth, Sawyer looked at Fade with a pale face. He gritted his teeth and said, "You, who the hell are you? Why are you so strong?"

"You dare to fight me when you don't even know who I am. I don't know whether you are reckless or stupid." Fade said while shaking his head. He then pointed to Roomis and continued, "Who am I? You can ask him yourself."

Sawyer turned his head and looked at Roomis.

Roomis panicked and said, "Mr. Xu, this... This guy is Fade Chen. He's from Dragonville and is the general manager of Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc. I heard that he is quite a renowned figure in Dragonville."

"Fade Chen from Dragonville, Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc!"

These few words kept rolling in Sawyer's mind as he tried to piece the information together.

Suddenly, Sawyer thought of something which caused his expression to change drastically. He looked at Roomis and furiously cursed, "Roomis, f*ck! You want me to beat Master Chen up! Are you trying to kill me?!"

Saying that, Sawyer immediately bowed and apologized to Fade. "Master Chen, I... I didn't know it was you. I'm really sorry for offending you. I admit my mistake. Thus, I'm willing to accept any punishment you have for me."

Before Fade could open his mouth to speak, Roomis looked at Sawyer with a stunned expression on his face and asked, "Mr. Xu, what's going on? Is he very famous?"

Sawyer glared at Roomis and barked angrily, "Roomis, you're a f*cking branch manager of Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc in Capital City and you don't even know who Master Chen is!"

"I know he is the manager of the head office but what's the big deal about an owner of a company?!" Roomis exclaimed, still feeling puzzled.

Sawyer was about to explode with anger at this moment. "Just an owner of a company? Roomis, you're such a f*cking idiot," he bellowed.

03:48 [battery icon]

"Master Chen is a famous martial artist in Dragonville. He was known as the number one martial artist in Dragonville and has no rivals when it comes to fighting skills. Even the Sun family, the renowned number one family in Dragonville is of no match to Master Chen."

"You're just a d*mned manager of a small branch company. Who do you think you are in front of Master Chen? How dare you oppose him? You're signing your own death warrant."

Roomis was dumbstruck when he heard this. He did not expect that Fade had such a powerful identity and strength as well as being the manager of the company.

The top martial artist in Dragonville. Even the Sun family bowed down to him. This showed that Fade's martial arts strength was at an advanced Black Level or even the Earth-level Realm.

To Roomis, this was a level that he could not even imagine. After all, even an intermediate Black Level martial artist like Sawyer could already dominate him anytime in a fight.

If what Sawyer said was true, Fade's skill sets and standards were something incomprehensible to him.

Chapter 1270

However, just a few moments ago, he didn't know who this guy was and actually wanted to compete against this master. He was certainly out of his depth.

Roomis stood frozen with fear when he thought of this. He immediately knelt down on the ground, kowtowing to Fade repeatedly and apologized, "Master Chen, I have done wrong. I didn't know that it was you. Please be magnanimous and forgive me."

Although Bobbie still didn't understand Fade's identity and strength, he did not dare to say anything more when he saw Sawyer and Roomis bowing down to Fade. He knelt on the ground straightaway and kowtowed to Fade, begging for mercy as well.

Fade was quietly watching the three of them. After moments of silence, he said, "I can spare your life but you can't escape punishment."

Stunned, the three of them looked at Fade and said, "Master Chen, thank you very much. We will accept it."

Fade's gaze first landed on Bobbie and said lightly, "Let's talk about things one by one. My friend is working at your factory. Can you pay her wages now?"

While speaking, he led Yankee out.

Bobbie was stunned but nodded quickly and said, "Yes, yes, I'll pay her right away."

He immediately fished out a thick stack of three or four thousand yuan cash and gave all of them to Yankee. "Yankee, please take all this money."

Stunned for a moment, Yankee then took out 900 yuan from the stack of cash and returned the rest of the money to Bobbie.

"Yankee, these are all for you. Consider these as my compensation," Bobbie said with a smile.

Yankee shook her head and responded adamantly, "I'll only take what I deserved."

Hearing that, Bobbie put the money away as his face grew gloomy.

After that, Fade continued, "Now, the two of you, tell me what the hell is going on in this factory right now!"

The two men's faces changed. They did not dare to keep silent and could only confess all their doings to Fade in full detail.

The entire thing was actually very simple. It started when Fei's Life Elixir Wine grew extremely popular in Capital City and there was actually not enough supply to meet the demand. However, production capacity in Dragonville was limited so it was impossible for them to supply more products to Capital City.

As a result, the price of Fei's Life Elixir Wine had been increasing steadily in the super affluent social circle at Capital City. Where the retail price starts at 5,000 yuan per bottle, there would still be buyers even when the price was inflated to 50,000 yuan.

With a temptation to earn a huge profit and taking into account a huge undersupply situation gave Roomis, who was working in the branch, a sly idea. He colluded with his nephew, Bobbie, and privately set up a small factory like this to produce counterfeit Fei's Life Elixir Wine.

Using Roomis's connections, the counterfeit products were mixed with the genuine products and supplied to the market. He would even contact the customers directly and sell the counterfeit products to them in private transactions.

Being counterfeit Fei's Life Elixir Wine, they did not taste as good nor work as well as the genuine ones. However, since there were many people who had never drank Fei's Life Elixir Wine before, the demand for the product was very high. That was also why their sales were very good.

Furthermore, the affluent who could afford to buy the Fei's Life Elixir Wine would simply discard the counterfeit products and would not pursue legal actions against the makers.

This had given the two of them an even better chance to expand their scale of production.

Due to the rapid expansion, they had encountered a shortage of workers. Therefore, they had offered a high salary which was what attracted Yankee to work there in the first place.

After hearing this, Fade looked at the two of them coldly and said in a deep voice, "Roomis, I'm immediately dismissing you from the branch manager's position in the company. Besides that, you also have to personally provide an explanation to the media about the counterfeit fraud, turn yourself in to the police and hand over all the fraud money."

"Er..." The two men found themselves in a bit of a dilemma as their faces sank.

Seeing this, Fade snorted coldly and said, "If you are planning to play any tricks, then don't blame me if I see to solving this myself."

The two of them couldn't help shivering when they heard this. They shook their heads and said in a panic, "We won't dare to. We'll turn ourselves in immediately!"

Fade snorted and turned his gaze to Sawyer.

Before he could open his mouth to speak, Sawyer had said agitatedly, "Master Chen, I am willing to turn myself in to the police. I am willing to..."

"Did I say that I want you to turn yourself in to the police?" Fade asked lightly.

"Then, Master Chen, you..." Sawyer asked in bewilderment.

Fade said, "Although I'm in Capital City, I don't have time to manage the company. So, I want you to take care of the security and some other private matters of the company. I don't want the company to be harassed by the so-called underground members. Do you understand this?"

Hearing this, Sawyer immediately nodded and hurriedly said, "I understand, I understand. I will ensure the safety of the Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc's branch office. I will definitely do a good job."

"I will look for you if any problem arises," Fade said.

Then, he turned to Yankee and said with a slight smile, "Yankee, my company will need to undergo a huge manpower restructuring now. If you are free, do you want to come to my company and help me?"

"Ah, this... But, I don't know..." Yankee stuttered.

Fade smiled and said, "If you don't know, you can learn it slowly."

"But, I..." Yankee was feeling a little embarrassed because she felt that Fade was purposely helping her.

However, Fade patted her on the shoulder with a smile and said, "Yankee, you don't have to feel embarrassed. Although you are my friend, I will still deduct your salary if you don't do your job well in the company."

Hearing this, Yankee felt relieved. She nodded and said seriously, "Brother Fade, don't worry. I will definitely work hard and do a good job."

"Okay, that's good. Yankee, please come to the company with me. I'll make the necessary arrangements now," Fade said.

Yankee nodded and walked by Fade's side.

As for Joey, she suddenly pouted and said with a dissatisfied face, "Brother Fade, you only care about Yankee. You don't care about me at all!"

Fade patted Joey on the head and said, "Okay, okay, I care about you as well. Come with us. If you would like to work, I'll arrange a job for you too."

However, Joey pulled a funny face at Face and said with a smile, "I don't want to go to work. It's too tiring. You guys go ahead. I'm going back to school."

Saying that, Joey turned and ran towards the direction of the school. After a few steps, she turned back and shouted at Yankee, "Yankee, see what I have told you. Brother Fade is pretty wealthy. You must seize the opportunity!"

With that, she ran off without giving Yankee a chance to respond. This made Yankee blush with embarrassment and she did not dare to look up at Fade.

Fade smiled gently and said, "It's okay. Joey just loves to joke. Let's go, Yankee."

"Okay..." Yankee responded and caught up with Fade's pace.

They arrived at the Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc branch office and Fade proceeded to restructure the manpower. Without a moment's hesitation, he fired all the staff members who were either connected with Roomis or who were involved in the counterfeit fraud.

After that, he promoted a competent deputy manager to be the general manager and arranged to have a general manager's intern position for Yankee. He offered Yankee a monthly salary of 5,000 yuan so that she could have a stable job. This way, Yankee would not need to travel around for her part-time jobs like before.

Once Fade was done with all the arrangement at the company, he returned to school.
