Chapter 1341

Yuri didn't expect him to be so relentless and unreasonable. At that time, tears welled up in her eyes, but she still bit her lip and no tears fell.

However, the tears made her eyes rather red. She couldn't hold it any longer and eventually let tears stream down her cheeks.

Yuri desperately wiped the tears on her face with the back of her hand and she bit her lip hard to stop herself from crying.

Seeing Yuri's reaction, Susie's heart ached. At the same time, she had feelings of resentment towards Emma and Hampton. She said, "Mr. Hsia, are you really going to do this?"

Hampton's face was filled with pride. "Those that don't comply will be destroyed."

His words were proud and overbearing, as if Yuri was just one of his toys.

Upon hearing this, Susie's gaze darkened. She patted Yuri's shoulder and consoled her, "Yuri, don't be afraid of them. I'll think of a way to help you."

After that, Susie looked at some insiders who had greeted her before. There were high-level personnel inside the company, well-known superstars and high level executives of other entertainment companies.

However, in the face of Susie's gaze, all of them picked up their glasses and turned around, pretending nothing ever happened.

It was obvious that they didn't want to get involved in this matter. After all, there was no benefit to be had in helping either side.

In such a situation, Susie couldn't help feeling a little desperate. At the same time, she felt even colder when she thought about the fickleness of the people in the circle.

Seeing this, Emma sneered, intent on revenge, and said, "Now, do you know how powerful our Skyton Entertainment and Young Master Hsia are? I gave you a chance before but you didn't cherish that deal. No one is at fault here!"

After that, she and Hampton laughed arrogantly.

Yuri wiped the tears from her face, looked at Susie and said, "Sister Song, it's okay. I'll change my school. At the worst, I'll move out of Capital City. Our country is so big and the world is even bigger. I don't believe they can come after me for that long."

"Really? You can have a try and see if I can do that," Hampton said as he looked at Yuri proudly.

She bit her lip and did not reply.

At this time, Fade gently held her hand, looking natural and calm, and said, "Yuri, don't worry. With me here, they can't kill you off."

"Brother Chen, I... I'm fine. You don't have to comfort me." She nodded.

Susie glanced at Fade and didn't say anything. Obviously, they all thought that his words weren't anything much other than words of comfort.

On the opposite side, Emma and Hampton obviously also thought so, and they couldn't help sneering at him.

"Haha, a nobody can stop my plans. I'd like to see how you can do it!"

"Susie, are all the people you've made friends with these kinds of people who brag without thinking?"

Fade ignored their sarcasm and glanced at them. Then, he took out his mobile phone and was ready to call Dante to explain the situation. After all, he was also in the industry. Fade believed that, given Dante's attitude toward him now, it was not a problem for him to help Yuri.

Moreover, even if there was a problem on Dante's side, the Luo family and Chung family could take action. Even if Fade used force, he could allow Kaeran from Szeto Academy and White Claw, whom he had just subdued, to involve themselves. Hence, it was not a problem for Fade to deal with the scene the Hsia family is making.

Just as Fade was about to call someone for help, a burst of footsteps came and then a loud shout sounded. "Come on, arrest that guy for me."

In an instant, there was a loud sound. A group of people who looked like bodyguards in black rushed towards Fade and were going to catch him.

Fade, who was about to make a phone call, had no choice but to put down his phone and deal with this threat.

As soon as they saw the people coming in, Fade and Susie's eyes suddenly narrowed because behind these bodyguards were none other than Loren and Jonas.

Loren was just rather throwing a tantrum just now, but they did not expect that Jonas would return again.

Needless to say, the conflict between Loren and Susie and between Jonas and Fade had not been settled in Bay City.

Jonas still remembered that he was guarding the hotel at that time, waiting for Susie to come in for a night together, but then, the sudden appearance of this person called Fade, ruined his plan. Not only did he get beaten up, but he was also stripped and thrown to the bed naked.

This matter made Jonas feel disgusted and angry, and he had been looking for a chance to take revenge on Fade.

This time, Loren called and informed him of the matter of her side, so Jonas could rush over to teach him a good lesson.

Seeing the appearance of the two and the fierce bodyguards, Fade quickly understood the purpose of the other party. In the face of this, he was indifferent and said coldly, "What, you still want to take another beating? Haven't you learned any lessons from our previous encounter?"

Jonas's face fell as soon as he heard Fade's remark. His expression was pale and fiercely ordered his guards. "Beat him. Beat him hard. Beat him to death."

The bodyguards rushed up and were about to fight. Fade's eyes narrowed and he was ready to fight back.

Seeing this, Susie stood up with a gloomy face and shouted, "Jonas, today is a great day for Dante Entertainment. Are you sure you want to make such a scene here? In a while, Mr. Jee will be out. Do you really want to do this?"

Those words were loud and powerful, which stunned Jonas. After reflecting on his decisions, he waved his hand and ordered his bodyguards, "Come back!"

After all, although the Hsia family was powerful, Dante was not easy to deal with. Their father might be slightly stronger than Dante, but as a junior, he was still rather young in front of Dante.

After calling back the bodyguards, Jonas looked at Fade with a proud look and said, "For the sake of Mr. Jee, I won't do anything here. When this event is over, however, we will settle scores."

"Really? I'm also looking forward to that moment!" Fade did not back down.

Jonas' gaze turned cold. He didn't continue the banter with Fade any longer. Instead, he looked at Susie and said, "Susie, you know what I want of you. I'll ask you one last time, would you like to be my girlfriend?"

Susie was slightly surprised as she didn't expect Jonas to confess his feelings on such an occasion. She was stunned for a moment before she rejected it. "I'm sorry, Young Master Hsia," she said.

Jonas' face darkened. Without saying anything, he sighed and said in a voice that was almost the only thing she could hear, "So be it then. Don't blame me for what happens next."

Chapter 1342

Others couldn't hear what he said, but Fade caught it keenly. Fade's face fell and he stared at Jonas coldly.

At this time, Hampton and Emma also came to Jonas and Loren's side.

When the two brothers met, they seemed to be a tad bit surprised.

"Hampton, you're here too?"

"Jonas, why are you here?"

.....

Hampton then pointed at the gang of three they were opposing and whispered something to Jonas.

Jonas looked over after hearing this. When he glanced at Yuri, he was stunned, but then he nodded and said, "I see. Since some people are so ungrateful, let's teach them a lesson then!"

Looking at the time, Jonas said, "There's still five minutes before the party, so I'll wait a little longer. I'll talk to Mr. Jee later so that some unqualified people should not be allowed to continue to stick around in the entertainment industry."

Jonas' words immediately caused an uproar. Everyone present turned to look at Fade, Susie and Yuri with expressions of sympathy, gloating and regret in their eyes. The sounds of discussion were starting up again.

"Young Master Hsia has said it himself. Now, it's all over for Yuri."

"Yes, Young Master Hsia and Young Master Hampton have joined forces. Even if the gods were here, she can't be saved."

"Not only Yuri, I'm afraid that even Susie would be affected by this as well. Who knows, she might get killed off as well!"

"Susie, no way. She is now a top singer, one of the best stars of Dante Entertainment! How can they allow her to be killed off in such a way?"

"Dante Entertainment may be reluctant, but in the face of pressure from the Hsia family, what do you think Mr. Jee would choose to do? Is an artist more important than a well-known family like the Hsia family?"

"This..."

For a moment, almost everyone in the hall was sure that Yuri and Susie were doomed. From now on, they would be done for in the industry.

Hence, almost everyone couldn't help but stay away from them, for fear that they would be caught in the crossfire as well.

When Yuri and Susie saw this, their faces sank and they were rather sad.

However, Fade still looked calm at this moment. He then comforted the two women, "Sister Song, Yuri, don't worry. With me here, they can't kill off the both of you."

When these words sounded in everyone's ears, they sounded exceptionally absurd. No one thought that a nobody like Fade would be able to change the Hsia brothers' decision.

Just when everyone was talking about the situation, a burst of music rang out. The spotlight hit the stage and the host went on stage.

Everyone knew that the anniversary celebration banquet was about to begin. The discussion stopped and everyone's eyes then focused on the stage.

Susie suppressed the feeling of hopelessness in her heart and pulled Yuri to the stage. She then said, "Wait for Mr. Jee to come out to toast later. At that time, I will talk to him again. Maybe things will turn around."

"Well, thank you, Sister Song!" Yuri nodded and thanked her, but she didn't hold much hope in her heart.

On the other side, the two brothers, Jonas and Hampton, came to the front of the stage under everyone's compliments. They were very proud of themselves and put big smiles on their faces.

The host briefly introduced the agenda of the banquet and thanked the guests. Then, he stepped aside and announced loudly, "Next, let's welcome the president of the Dante Entertainment Company, Mr. Jee. Dante, step up here and give us a few words."

Clap! Clap! Clap! Clap!

In an instant, there was thunderous applause at the scene. Almost everyone was clapping their hands excitedly. Even Jonas and Hampton were also applauding and cheering at this moment.

After all, Dante's status was so high that no one at the scene dared to disrespect him.

However, there were still some people who couldn't help but focus on Fade, who was on the periphery. Instead of applauding, he sat on a chair, skewered a piece of steak and ate it unceremoniously.

Seeing this, they could not help but shake their head and sigh.

"You are so rude to Mr. Jee. You are just asking for death to come!"

"That's right. We were originally relying on Susie. Maybe there was still a slight chance with the Jee family. Now, there's no chance at all."

"Hehe, eat, eat. When death comes, you won't have a chance to eat it anymore."

"He's just a fool! He got Yuri and Susie into trouble!"

.....

Amidst the warm applause, Dante, whose face was blushing red and who was in high spirits, stood up, overseeing the crowd and he greeted them with a smile.

During this period of time, Dante felt like a new man and was in a good mood.

One reason was that his illness of many years had been cured by Fade. The other reason was that the matter concerning Gabriel had been solved by Fade for him. The third reason was that the company's performance was booming. These events were music to his ears.

The constant influx of good news recently really made Dante's day, and it was all thanks to Fade.

At the thought of Fade, Dante could not help but feel a surge of extreme gratitude towards him. Such a young man was more than meets the eye.

Needless to say, he had also made friends with Young Master Luo. In terms of medicine, he was a doctor who was more excellent than the national medicine masters. In terms of martial arts, even Kaeran of the Szeto Academy had to submit to him, which was really quite shocking.

Dante had made up his mind that after this celebration, he must find an opportunity to invite Fade and treat him to properly thank their newfound friendship. After all, he was his greatest benefactor.

"Mr. Jee, please say something to the guests!"

The host's reminder made Dante come back to reality. He gently coughed and then said with a smile on his face, "Thank you for your coming. Today is the anniversary of Dante Entertainment. Here, I..."

After the speech, the crowd burst into a round of warm applause.

Then, Dante picked up a glass of champagne and walked down the stage, ready to propose a toast to everyone.

Jonas and Hampton, who were standing in front of them, were the first to walk over. Naturally, no one dared to compete with them. Dante also saw them. Although he was a little surprised by the arrival of the two Hsia brothers, he still walked over with a smile.

"Jonas, Hampton, you two are here!" Dante said with a smile.

"Mr. Jee, congratulations." The two of them also toasted with a smile.

The two of them clinked their glasses. Dante said a few words of compliment and was about to proceed with the event.

However, at this time, Jonas stopped Dante and said, "Mr. Jee, there is one thing that we brothers would like to ask you for a favor. I wonder if you..."

"Oh, what's the matter? You can tell me," Dante stopped and asked.

Jonas and Hampton looked at each other, and then looked in the direction of Fade and his friends. Everyone immediately made way for them, letting the trio be within Dante's line of sight.

Chapter 1343

"Mr. Jee, it went down like this. Just now, we and the other guys..." Jonas pointed in the direction of Fade and said to Dante.

However, before he could finish his words, Dante looked in the direction of Jonas' finger. When he saw the figure over there, he couldn't help but tremble, and then he became excited. Dante had little care about Jonas and Hampton, and he quickly marched over to the group with a glass of wine.

"Uh, this..." Jonas and Hampton were stunned.

The eyes of the people around were also filled with surprise and there were puzzled looks on their faces.

"What's wrong with Mr. Jee? He's so excited."

"Does Mr. Jee also have a grudge against that kid?"

"No way. Is that guy a jinx? Did he offend so many people in such a short time?"

"Maybe. The person who just said those kinds of arrogant words, why can't he do anything?"

"Let's wait and see. There's going to be a good show."

.....

Everyone's gaze was puzzled and they kept curiously looking over.

11:28

At this time, Fade was still sitting on the chair and eating the steak, looking as if he didn't care about anything. This situation caused a heated discussion to erupt once more.

"What's going on with that kid?"

"You are too bold to be so disrespectful in front of Mr. Jee!"

"Haha, he is looking for death! You can now confirm that he has indeed offended Mr. Jee."

.....

At the back, Jonas and Hampton looked at each other with a smile. "It seems that there is no need for us to ask. Mr. Jee is going to deal with that guy by himself!"

Almost everyone thought that Dante was going to throw a fit with Fade.

Instead, he ran to Fade with a glass of wine, and then with a smile on his face, he greeted him respectfully, "Mr. Chen, why are you here too?"

After Fade finished chewing the food in his mouth, he glanced at Dante, then pointed to Susie and said, "Sister Song asked me to come here together. Yuri is also here, so I came."

Hearing this, Dante glanced at Susie next to him, then looked at Yuri with a smile on his face. He said, "Miss Zhang, you're here too. I wonder if you've considered the matter of asking you to sign the contract of our Dante Entertainment last time?"

Yuri was stunned. After a few seconds, she came to her senses. Then, she shook her head and responded in embarrassment, "Mr. Jee, I, I haven't decided yet."

Dante did not look angry at all. He nodded with a smile and said, "Don't worry, just think about it slowly. Miss Zhang, whenever you want to visit us at Dante Entertainment, our door will be open for you at any time."

"Thank you, Mr. Jee!" Yuri thought that Dante was being polite, so she didn't expect him to actually be so serious.

At this time, all the people around were stunned when they saw this scene. They were like giraffes trying to get the highest leaf; they stretched out their necks in order to get a good look at the both of them.

"What, what's going on? It seems that Mr. Jee knows that Chen kid?"

"It's more than just acquaintance. It seems that their relationship is very good. It can even be said that Mr. Jee has a lot of respect for that kid!"

"And Yuri, Mr. Jee actually invited her to sign the contract in person. This, this..."

"Now, Jonas and Hampton won't be able to kill them off!"

.....

At this time, Jonas and Hampton were lost for words. They honestly didn't expect that Dante would make such a move.

For a moment, the two men's faces sank and then they stepped towards Dante.

Even if he knew Fade and Yuri, they were still confident that relying on their status, it was not a problem for them to suppress them.

"Mr. Jee, what we just said..." Jonas came over and said.

Dante was a little dissatisfied with the people who had interrupted his conversation with Fade and he frowned. However, when he saw that the other party was Jonas and Hampton, he then gathered his thoughts and said, "Jonas, Hampton, I'll talk to you later."

"Mr. Jee, this..." Jonas and Hampton were unwilling to give up.

Dante was already a little annoyed.

At this time, Fade smiled and said, "Mr. Jee, it seems that they can't wait. They must discuss this with you in front of me."

"Uh, this... Mr. Chen, you..." Dante didn't expect Fade to know Jonas and Hampton, and he was surprised.

Fade continued, "Mr. Jee, the two young masters of the Hsia family want to talk to you about how to kill off Susie and Yuri, and how to deal with me!"

"What!" Dante heard this and was shocked at such news.

Jonas and Hampton, on the other hand, began to explain themselves to Dante.

"Mr. Jee, this is what happened. This Yuri and Fade, yes..." The two people added fuel to the flames and narrated the grievances between them and Fade.

Then, seeing that Dante's expression was not looking rather well about this situation, Jonas added, "Of course, you, Mr. Jee, will help us and our Hsia family will naturally remember it and thank you well."

Obviously, this was for the exchange of interests.

When everyone saw this scene, they began to think about how Dante was going to make a choice. As a successful businessman, the answer seemed obvious in the face of such a question.

Choosing to cooperate with the Hsia family was the best choice. After all, Fade, Yuri, and Susie were not worth mentioning in front of the Hsia family.

Jonas and Hampton were also full of confidence, and they thought that Dante would side with them.

However, after hearing their words, Dante was silent for a moment. His face was grim and he didn't say anything.

Jonas thought that Dante was considering the conditions, so he added, "Of course, if you have any concerns, we, the Hsia family, would be forever grateful."

However, as soon as he finished speaking, Dante glared at him with a face full of anger and he roared, "Don't ever refer to me as Mr. Jee. Get out, you two, get out of here!"

"Ah, Mr. Jee... Mr. Jee, you..." Jonas and Hampton's faces were full of shock. They did not understand why Dante had suddenly become furious.

The people around were also surprised.

Dante glared at the two of them and gritted his teeth. "It's impossible for me to wrong Mr. Chen and his friends."

"Mr. Jee, you..." Jonas and Hampton frowned. They were both puzzled and dissatisfied, and their tones weren't pleasant. "Mr. Jee, you really want to do this for them? Do you want my father to talk to you about this?"

This was using the Hsia family's head's name.

However, Dante did not back down. He shouted, "Don't try to threaten me with your father. Even if he, Fallon, is in front of me, I would give the same answer."

11:29

"You want me to deal with Mr. Chen and his friends? You, the Hsia family, should just give up!"

"Mr. Jee, are, are you sure you really want to do this?" Jonas and Hampton gritted their teeth and narrowed their eyes; their expressions were a little ferocious. "This could be considered an act of war against the Hsia family!"

"So what? If your Hsia family dares to attack Mr. Chen, I, Dante, would be the first to refuse." Dante thundered, then waved his hand and ordered, "Security, come here. They are not welcome here. Please drive them out."

Chapter 1344

In an instant, a group of security guards rushed over and then chased Jonas and Hampton out.

The two people's faces were extremely down. Emma and Loren, their female companions, were also stunned at this moment. They were surprised and did not know what to do for a while.

Fade noticed them and said faintly, "I almost forgot you two. Mr. Jee, these two are with them."

Needless to say, Dante understood what Fade meant. He looked at the two of them and then said coldly, "As for the company, Loren will be blacklisted immediately, and as for Emma and her Skyton Entertainment Company, there would be no place for them wherever Dante Entertainment is found."

As soon as he finished his words, Loren and Emma's faces turned pale in an instant.

Loren was a member of Dante Entertainment. His words had just killed off her career, which meant that for the next few years, she would have no chance to show up in front of the public. This kind of 'cold shoulder treatment' was even crueler than a direct cancellation of the contract.

After all, if the contract was cancelled now, she might still be able to go to a small company, relying on what little fame and popularity she still had left to make a living.

However, if she was directly killed off, then her career was doomed.

11:29

As for Emma and Skyton Entertainment, Dante said that Dante Entertainment was at odds with them. This also meant that as long as there were entertainers of Dante Entertainment at any concert, theatre, or party in the future, it would be impossible for artists from Skyton Entertainment to ever make an appearance.

After all, in the choice between Dante Entertainment and Skyton Entertainment, it was self-evident what everyone will choose.

The future of Skyton Entertainment looked rather bleak at the moment.

The two women suffered such a blow and looked pale. They almost collapsed to the ground and they were speechless.

This result was something that no one expected at all.

No one expected that Dante would have a fallout with the Hsia family for Fade.

For a time, all kinds of speculations were heard. Many people were pointing and guessing at the relationship between Fade and Dante. Some people even thought that Fade was Dante's illegitimate child, which was why Dante was kind.

Not to mention the others, even Susie and Yuri, who were beside Fade, looked at him with surprise.

Susie looked at Fade and Dante and said, "Fade, Mr. Jee, how could the two of you..."

"Mr. Chen, he is my benefactor, my life-saving benefactor," Dante said proudly.

"Savior, what, what happened?" Susie was even more curious.

At this time, the surrounding people also gathered, and many people even began to take the initiative to say hello to Fade, ready to make friends with him. After all, it was not easy for Dante to look highly on someone.

Fade was not interested in these benefits, so he said to Dante, "Mr. Jee, let us discuss this behind closed doors!"

Dante understood what Fade meant, and then took him to his presidential suite. Susie and Yuri followed them.

In the suite, Susie and Yuri heard the story of Fade and Dante from Dante himself. They were shocked and sighed with emotion about Fade's strength.

Susie was relieved for now. She patted Fade and said with a smile, "Well, Fade, you had such a relationship with Mr. Jee and you didn't bother to tell me earlier. You made me worry about you for so long."

Standing next to him, Yuri also looked at Fade with a bitter face.

Fade touched his nose and said, "Didn't I tell you this already? I'm here. Don't worry."

"I thought you were just trying to comfort me. Who knew that you were actually telling the truth!" Susie rolled his eyes at Fade.

Fade was speechless.

Dante was surprised to see that Susie and Fade were so close, and then he smiled and said, "Well, Susie, don't argue with Mr. Chen. This time, it's my fault that I didn't notice these things in advance."

"Mr. Jee, you are too kind," Susie said. Then, she thought of something and her face darkened. She looked at Dante and asked with concern, "Mr. Jee, will we really be fine after offending the Hsia family this time?"

"After all, the Hsia family is so powerful. If the time comes for them to deal with us at Dante Entertainment, I'm afraid..." Susie said worriedly.

Hearing this, Dante burst into laughter. He waved his hand and said, "You don't have to worry about this. I don't think Fallon will fall out with me because of his sons' trivial matters. Even if he does, I am not a bully. When the time comes, I'll go meet him."

He patted his chest and said these words with a heroic look.

Then, he turned his head, looked at Fade and said, "What's more, isn't Mr. Chen here? It's just the Hsia family. Mr. Chen can easily handle them."

Dante was telling the truth. Fade nodded and said lightly, "That's right. Sister Song and Yuri, you don't have to worry about the Hsia family."

Susie and Yuri had heard about Fade from Dante, talking about the Szeto Academy and the Earth Level experts, but they still had no specific concept of the strength of martial arts. Now that they heard that Fade could destroy the Hsia family at will, they were shocked.

After chatting with Dante for a while, Fade immediately got up and left.

Because the anniversary party was not over yet, Susie stayed and continued to attend the party. Yuri and Fade left the hotel with Dante after they bid farewell to each other.

Fade sent Yuri to the entrance of the music school, waved goodbye, and was ready to leave home.

However, just as Fade was about to leave, suddenly, from the shadows of the trees on both sides of the school, a group of people rushed out and surrounded Yuri.

Yuri was so scared that she screamed out.

Fade, who was about to leave, also looked over with his eyes darkened. When he saw the faces of this group of people, his expression sunk.

This was because the leaders of this group of aggressive people were Jonas and Hampton, who had just been at the party. At this moment, the two of them, together with more than 20 strong men, were looking at Fade and Yuri with a triumphant sneer. "What are you going to do?" Yuri asked nervously.

Jonas sneered and looked at Yuri. He said in a cold voice, "Back at the banquet, you treated us like that and cost us our dignity. Now, we want our revenge."

Hampton had a wicked smile at the corner of his mouth as his gaze swept over Yuri. He licked his lips and said, "Other than getting some revenge, we also want to have some fun with you!"

"Don't worry. By that time, we'll play with you together. I promise we won't let you die," Jonas's eyes also lit up, and he added.

Chapter 1345

Hearing this, Yuri was helpless. She bit her red lips and became nervous.

At this point, Fade came over and gently held Yuri's shoulder. He comforted her softly, "Yuri, don't be afraid. I'm here."

Immediately, Fade's cold eyes swept over Jonas and Hampton, and his tone was as cold as ice. "It seems like you guys haven't learned anything back there!"

When the two saw Fade, their eyes were filled with hatred. They steeled themselves and glared fiercely at Fade.

"Stinky brat, we're going to take revenge on you soon."

"Kneel down or we'll kill you."

.....

Fade shook his head slightly and strode towards the two of them. His face was cold with a sharp oppressive aura.

The two of them were shocked by that striking momentum and felt a little scared. Their bodies couldn't help but tremble.

After taking a few steps back, the two brothers immediately called their guys out.

"Go, go, beat him to death!"

"Take a good look at that brat. You've provoked the Hsia family. You're courting death."

In an instant, more than 20 strong hatchet men surrounded Fade fiercely.

As soon as these people started, Fade noticed that they were a group of warriors. Their strengths were between the late-stage of the Yellow Level and the peak of the Yellow Level. They were extraordinary by normal standards.

More than 20 people attacked together aggressively. Each of the strong men were like a gushing wave that could drown Fade completely.

On the outside, Jonas smiled and looked at this scene proudly. Hampton had already turned his eyes to Yuri, licking his lips. In his mind, he had begun to imagine his own enjoyment with the little beauty.

However, at this time, the brawny men who had surrounded Fade made a sudden thunderous sound.

Then, under the surprised gazes of Jonas and Hampton, more than 20 strong men were thrown out like sandbags by Fade. They flew like an arc in the air and landed on the ground.

In this way, after a burst of noise, more than 20 thugs brought by the brothers of the Hsia family were actually defeated in less than three minutes. Fade had thrown them all to the ground.

For a moment, they were stunned. When they realized that Fade was walking towards them, Jonas and Hampton began to feel helpless.

When they saw Fade's cold expression in front of them, they couldn't help shivering and shaking violently. They were retreating step by step and were trying to escape.

However, before they could even move, they were frozen in place by Fade's cold voice. "You want to escape? Did you think you could do that?"

The two brothers' faces froze. They looked around at the scattered bodyguards on the ground and the bitterness in their faces became apparent.

Even those professional martial artists were not worthy to be Fade's opponents. They were but powerless playboys; how could they go against Fade?

"You... What are you going to do?" The two of them were so nervous that their voices began to tremble.

Fade sneered and said, "You two sent people here to kill me. What do you think I'm going to do?"

While speaking, Fade raised his fist.

Jonas and Hampton were so frightened that they began to tremble. They had witnessed with their own eyes that Fade was able to send peak Yellow Level thugs flying with a punch.

If they were hit by Fade, they would be seriously injured, if not dead.

Immediately, the two started to beg for forgiveness.

"We're sorry, we know we were wrong. We won't do it again."

"We're willing to compensate you, no matter how much you want or whatever you want. whatever it is, we'll definitely compensate you!"

"Compensation?" Fade sneered. He looked at the two of them and said coldly, "What if I want to kill both of you?"

11:29

When the two heard this, they felt a chill all over their bodies. Their faces changed, and they mumbled their words, "I, we..."

Fade had no time to waste with them. He strode towards them and the pressure emanating from his body was getting stronger and stronger.

Jonas and Hampton wanted to escape, but when they moved, they found that their bodies seemed to have become much heavier and their legs seemed to have been fixed into the cement ground. It was almost impossible for them to move.

At this time, Fade was less than a meter in front of them. He raised his right hand, and a stream of force was circulating in his palm, making a pumping sound.

In Jonas and Hampton's ears, it sounded like the chanting of the God of Death.

"No, don't..." The two cried out in horror and pleaded for mercy.

Fade turned a deaf ear to their words and slammed his palms towards them with great strength.

"Ah!" A scream rang out. Fade's strength slammed into Hampton's legs, shattering them in an instant. He collapsed to the ground and let out an extremely miserable howl.

"My leg, you broke my leg. Ah... I... My leg..." Hampton screamed in pain and anger.

At this time, Fade struck again. Hampton's arms were also broken and two more sad howls rang out.

Jonas, who was watching from the side, looked pale. He was trembling with fear.

As a member of the young master of the Hsia family, he would be the heir of the Hsia family in the future and would be a famous and rich man in Capital City. He didn't want to become a mere disabled man.

His intense fear and anger made him grit his teeth and stand up. He tried to roll and crawl away, trying to escape.

However, behind him, Fade stepped over with a cold look in his eyes. "Want to escape? Did you think you could?"

With Fade's cold words, he shouted loudly and hit Jonas' legs. In an instant, Jonas fell to the ground and his legs were broken. He let out a crying wail.

Then, Fade stepped over and targeted Jonas' arms next.

Jonas was in extreme pain and frightened. He glared at Fade, gritted his teeth and shouted, "You ruin us and you won't die a good death. We, the Hsia family, will not let you go easily. Our Hsia family must tear you to pieces. I..."

Jonas was still shouting but Fade ignored him. He threw out two beams of Qi light to disable Jonas' arms.

"Ahh!" With a blood-curdling scream, Jonas immediately fainted.

Fade turned around and came back. He comforted Yuri and sent her back to her dormitory.

When he reached the school gate, the brothers and those thugs had disappeared. It seemed that the Hsia family had already known what was happening there.

In this regard, Fade didn't pay any attention to it. It was just the Hsia family and he didn't care much.

His blow on Jonas and Hampton's limbs were but a warning as well a lesson. If the Hsia family really couldn't differentiate between good and bad, Fade wouldn't mind teaching them a lesson to let them know just how capable he was.

Chapter 1346

After the banquet, there were no classes scheduled for school the next day. Fade, who rarely took time off, went to the branch company of Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc to check up on the company's situation.

Dressed in casual clothes, Fade walked into the company.

The receptionist of the company did not recognize him at first sight and almost drove him out. Fortunately, an old employee recognized Fade and respectfully welcomed him into the company.

"President Chen, is there anything important about your visit? Do you want to convene the company's senior management for a meeting, or to inspect it, or..."

Fade waved his hand and said faintly, "It's alright. I just have some free time, so I came to have a look around."

"By the way, is Miss Meng here?" Joey's senior and friend Yankee, was assigned to be the general manager's secretary in the company by him, so he casually asked.

"Miss Meng is on the top floor. President Chen, if you wish to meet her, I will inform her right away..."

Fade waved his hand and said, "No, I'll go and meet her myself."

Then, he took the elevator to the manager's office on the top floor.

He went to find Yankee in the office, but he could not find her. After asking about her whereabouts, he learned that Yankee was in the meeting room; she seemed to be entertaining some guests.

Hearing that, Fade wanted to wait outside for Yankee's meeting to end. After all, he did not want to interfere in the company's affairs, nor did he want to disturb their work.

However, before Fade sat down, Yankee rang him up.

"Uh..." Fade was shocked and then answered the phone. "Yankee, what's the matter?"

On the other end of the line, Yankee's tone was very respectful and professional. "President Chen, I'm at the company. There are some reporters here who would like to have an interview with you. I wonder if you have time..."

"An interview!" Fade was not interested in these things instinctively and was about to refuse.

However, at this time, on the other side of the phone, Fade heard a cry, "Miss Meng, tell Mr. Chen that my name is Lydia. We have met before."

"Lydia?" Hearing this name, Fade thought for a moment. He had a vague impression of it, but he couldn't remember it for a moment.

"President Chen, the reporter said that she has met you before. Her name is..." On the other side of the phone, Yankee was about to repeat what she said. However, Fade went straight to the conference room and said, "I'm in the company. I'll be right there."

In the conference room, Yankee had just hung up the phone in astonishment when she saw Fade push open the door of the conference room and walk in.

"President Chen, you're here!" She immediately stood up to welcome him.

Fade waved his hand and said, "Yankee, you don't have to be so polite."

Then, Fade's eyes fell on the guests on the opposite side.

There were four people in total, two men and two women. They wore vests and were looking at cameras and other equipment. At first glance, he could tell that they were reporters.

Among them, the leader was a female reporter who was about twenty-five or twenty-six years old. She had short hair and a beautiful face. She looked refreshing and jovial, giving people a feeling of cheerfulness.

Seeing this female reporter, the memory in Fade's mind suddenly came back and he greeted her with a smile. "Lydia, Miss Zu, it's you!"

Lydia, the reporter, once met Fade in Dragonville City. At that time, in autumn, Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc's cosmetic products were maliciously contested by their opponents. There was also a member of the inspection team deliberately making things difficult for Fade. In the end, Lydia reported the relevant information and helped Fade through her father's help.

In this regard, Fade had a deep memory and could not help but thank her. "Reporter Zu, thank you so much for what happened last time."

Lydia shook hands with Fade with a smile and said, "President Chen, you have both your hands busy now. It is really difficult for me to see you!"

He waved his hand with a smile and said, "No, no. Miss Zu, what can I do for you? I'll be wherever you need me to be with just a call."

After exchanging a few words of greetings, Lydia immediately got to the point and explained why she was there to him, "Mr.

Chen, our magazine has recently set up a series of interviews with well-known people. Their main subjects are big shots set in Capital City, recording their experiences, as well as some in-sights into their life and their views."

"The entire column mainly talks about the sides of these important figures and showcase a more authentic and realistic side of them to the common people, letting everyone understand and admire them more."

Fade nodded and understood what Lydia meant. Then, he laughed and played a joke. "I see. However, interviewing people of my level will not lower the rank of the column, right?"

Lydia smiled and said, "President Chen, you are now a well-known figure emerging from Capital City. You used to work with the Chiang Medical Center. The dispute over medical centres has attracted a lot of attention. Also, your status as a professor at Capital City University is also very surprising. In addition, your old business, Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc, the cosmetics and Life Elixir Wine produced are hot topics as of right now!"

"Miss Zu, after hearing what you said, I'm starting to think that I might really be someone," Fade said with a smile.

Lydia smiled and the female reporter next to him also laughed.

On the other hand, a big-bellied, bald male reporter glanced at him out of the corner eyes and sneered in disdain.

Although this expression happened in just a split second, Fade was keenly aware of it. He frowned slightly and his expression was somewhat unhappy.

After all, he and Lydia were relatively familiar with each other. He did not say anything and continued to chat with her, pretending that he did not see anything.

Afterwards, Lydia told Fade some interview processes and general contents, installed the camera and recording equipment, and then began the interview.

"President Chen, can you talk about the history of the Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc? Many people are interested in it," asked Lydia.

Fade thought for a moment and answered in a straightforward way. He said that his company started from cosmetics and the Life Elixir Wine.

Then, Lydia asked about Fade's Sincere Medicine Center pharmacy and being a college professor in Capital City.

Fade also answered all of them, but the answers were too plain as there was nothing remarkable about it.

Lydia frowned slightly and then said to Fade, "President Chen, in order to attract the attention of readers, we need some 'spicy' news. Do you understand?"

"There are a few questions that I want to ask in detail. Is it alright for you to answer them?" Lydia asked.

Fade understood what she meant. He nodded and said, "I'll try my best!"

Lydia said, "President Chen, some people are suspicious of your sudden rise in power. They want to know why you can possess such a superb medical skill at such a young age and suddenly take out the Life Elixir Wine with the cosmetics to make Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc rise in one swift action?"

"Well, I..." Fade was stunned for a moment. He really didn't know how to answer as he couldn't reveal his identity. He could only respond, "My medical skills and formulae are my own creations and there are no problems with them. As for their doubt, it is their own problem.

Chapter 1347

"This..." Lydia was stunned and continued to ask, "Mr. Chen, can you tell me more about how you got the position as a college professor in Capital City? There is a rumor about some behind-the-scenes manipulation at the university. Care to elaborate?"

As for this question, Fade had a headache and couldn't answer it at all. He couldn't just answer that he had really found a connection secretly and asked the university in the capital to specially hire him!

After thinking for a while, Fade had to be thick-skinned and said, "Regarding this, it is only because of my excellent medical skills that Capital City University specially appointed me as a professor."

"Er... That..." For a moment, Lydia was at a loss for words. She did not know what to ask next.

Lydia looked a little embarrassed. Fade waved his hand and showed an apologetic smile. It was not that he didn't want to accept the interview, but there were some things that he really couldn't reveal.

The two people were silent for a while and the atmosphere turned a little awkward.

At this point, the bald reporter beside Lydia stood up and said to Fade, "Mr. Chen, since it's not convenient for you to answer those questions, I'll ask you a few others."

Lydia saw this and quickly introduced to Fade, "Mr. Chen, this is my colleague Samuel Wei, who is working with me on this interview column."

Fade nodded, looked at Samuel and said, "Mr. Wei, please continue."

Samuel glanced at Fade and immediately said, "I have learned some information about you, Mr. Chen. I know that you seem to have a good relationship with women in Capital City University. I know you spend a lot of time with the two beauty queens of Capital City University, Joey and Jasmine. Moreover, you seem to have a very close relationship with them."

"What's more, someone even revealed that your secretary, the general manager of your company, is also a student of Capital City University!"

"It's not appropriate for you, a professor in Capital City University, to have such a close relationship with so many female students. Besides, someone said that you have done some indecent things to them with your identity as a professor."

Hearing the words, Fade's expression suddenly became a little cold, but after all, Samuel was Lydia's colleague. He did not get angry and explained coldly, "What you said are all nonsense speculations. I do know them, but we are just friends. There is nothing special about our relationship as friends."

Lydia saw that Fade was angry, so she stood up and wanted to change the topic.

However, Samuel didn't give up and continued to ask, "Mr. Chen, you denied everyone's speculation, so can you tell us more about how you met these female students and what happened in the process? It's better to provide some evidence. In this way, we can avoid any unnecessary misunderstanding. If you don't mind, you can start with the manager of your company, whom I think looks quite pretty."

Samuel deliberately said so with a hint of sarcasm in his words, which suddenly made Fade's face gloomy.

He couldn't stand it anymore at this time. He glared at Samuel and snapped, "What do you mean? Why do you want me to explain it to you? Was this based on your opinions or are you just relying on speculations? If you don't want to do the interview, you can leave!"

"Mr. Chen, about this..." Lydia stood up and tried to explain.

However, Samuel snorted at this moment, stood up with a disdainful look and said rudely to Fade, "Haha, I'll gladly leave. You're just a small boss. Do you really think you're a big shot?"

"If it wasn't for the fact that the Hsia family's patriarch, Fallon, suddenly refused our interview, you wouldn't have been given this. Our section is full of well-known people in the capital. It'd be your honor to have the interview in line with them."

"However, you've messed up big times by answering your questions with vague details and not revealing anything else. Since that's the case, then we'll just change to another candidate! There are a lot of people in this segment who want to take part in this anyway."

Fade frowned, looked at Lydia with a cold expression, and then said, "If that is the case, you can interview the people who are willing. I won't be seeing you off!"

He was going to drive them out.

Samuel's attitude was unpleasant. He snorted, got up and walked away. The two young reporters also got up and packed up their things to follow him.

Only Lydia, with an apologetic look, came to Fade and apologized, "Mr. Chen, I'm sorry. I didn't expect this to happen."

"It's okay. It's not a big deal," Fade waved his hand and said coldly.

Lydia knew that Fade was really angry. She continued apologizing and explained, "Mr. Chen, it's all my fault that this happened. This interview suddenly needed a new candidate and so I proposed to interview you. Samuel has been competing for a promotion position with me. He has always maintained a neutral relationship with me. This time, it's also because of me that he deliberately made things worse for you. Mr. Chen, I'm really sorry..."

"It doesn't matter, I didn't..." Fade said. Before he finished his words, a phone call came to Fade's phone.

Fade saw that it was a strange number. He frowned slightly, paused for a moment, and then answered the phone. "Hello..."

Before he could finish his words, a burst of gloomy laughter came from the other end of the phone. "It's Fade, right? Yuri and Susie are in my hands. I'll give you half an hour to get to the No. 7 warehouse in the north of the city. If you're late, you know what will happen."

"You..." Upon hearing this, Fade's expression became cold and he became nervous.

At this time, two women's shouts came from the other end of the mobile phone. Hearing that, Fade found that it was really Yuri and Susie's voices. "Yuri, Susie, you..."

However, the other party did not give him a chance to speak at all. He said gloomily, "The countdown has already started. There are still 29 minutes left."

After that, he hung up the phone.

After taking down the phone, Fade's face was dark.

Lydia immediately asked, "Mr. Chen, what happened? Is there anything I can do for you?"

11:30

Fade said, "I have something urgent to attend to. Miss Zu, I won't be able to entertain you any longer."

After that, he rushed straight out.

Lydia frowned slightly, with a trace of regret in her face. Originally, she had a pretty good relationship with Fade. However, after what had happened that day, she was afraid that they would become strangers in the near future.

Lydia wanted to explain properly to Fade. But now, he obviously had something urgent to do. She didn't have the chance to properly apologize to him at all.

With a sigh, Lydia was ready to leave.

However, as soon as she walked out of the conference room, Samuel, who had left first, came over and said to Lydia, "Where is Fade going? Did he encounter some problem?"

"I don't know!" Lydia shook his head and responded. Then, she stared at Samuel and frowned. "What do you want to do? Don't do anything stupid!"

Chapter 1348

Samuel curled the corner of his mouth and said with a smile, "I'm not going to do anything. I just want to do our interview work."

After that, despite Lydia's puzzled look, Samuel guided the other two young reporters and said, "Get ready to follow Fade."

"You... Samuel, what are you doing?" Upon hearing the words, Lydia's face sank and she was upset.

Samuel said, "Lydia, didn't you hear Susie's name when Fade was on the phone? Susie's a top female singer in the country. Besides, she's low-key and rarely accepts interviews. If we take advantage of this opportunity and interview her, what would the outcome be?"

"This..." Stunned, Lydia shook her head. "That won't work either. This is the private matter between Mr. Chen and Miss Song. We can't interfere."

"Hehe... Lydia, when will you stop being so timid?" Samuel said coldly, "Besides, this interview was arranged by you and it went really bad by the end of it. Tell me, how should we explain this to our superiors!"

"You have a dad who can help you, but we are not as lucky as you. Once the task is completed, we would still be punished. You can leave safely so you don't have so much to worry about," Samuel ridiculed her.

Although the two young reporters next to him did not speak, their facial expressions indicated that they agreed with Samuel's statement.

This time, Lydia was also at a loss for words.

Samuel simply ignored her. He waved his hand and said, "If you don't want to go, you can go back by yourself. This time, the three of us can handle it."

Seeing that they were about to leave, Lydia gathered her courage, caught up with them and said, "I'll go with you!"

The reason why she followed was that, firstly, she wanted to take the opportunity to meet Fade and explain everything clearly. Secondly, she could act like the mediator for both sides. If the two sides started to fight again, she could help alleviate the situation.

Seeing this, Samuel smiled and immediately took the lead to go downstairs.

On the other side, Fade drove away from the company and headed for the No. 7 warehouse in the north, which was mentioned by the other person.

At the same time, Fade took out his mobile phone and called Gentro, Wilton, Dante, Kaeran and even White Claw, asking them to investigate the matters of Yuri and Susie.

After the phone call, Dante called and confirmed the news with Fade. "Susie is really missing. An hour ago, she was practicing singing at home alone, but now, there is no one there."

Soon, news came from Gentro that Yuri, at the School of Music in Capital City, had also suddenly disappeared.

This made Fade even more nervous. With a gloomy face, he could not help but to speed up.

Samuel and the others followed him in a hurry. When they saw Fade driving very fast, they had to keep up with his speed to follow him.

Seeing that the speed of the car had already exceeded 100 mph, Lydia felt nervous and she said, "You're driving too fast. Samuel, slow down."

Upon hearing this, Samuel didn't intend to slow down at all. Instead, he continued to speed up and said at the same time, "Fade drove so fast and is in such a hurry. There must be something urgent. Maybe it's big news."

While speaking, Samuel's expression became more and more excited. He focused his eyes, controlled the steering wheel and followed Fade's car closely.

Fortunately, in Capital City, the road was congested and Fade's speed was hindered. Therefore, Samuel could keep up with him all the way.

In front of them, in Fade's car, about a quarter of an hour later, there was news from Kaeran. He said to Fade, "Mr. Chen, it is very likely that the Hsia family kidnapped Miss Zhang and Miss Song."

"Hsia family! Jonas and Hampton!" Fade's expression turned cold.

Kaeran said, "Our people have investigated that in the past two days, the Hsia family have been soliciting warriors from Capital City and they have spent a lot of money. Earlier this morning, someone saw that more than ten convoys came out of the Hsia family residence and went to the northern suburbs of Capital City."

"I see!" Fade's face fell, and then he ordered, "You send people there, and then..."

After issuing the order to Kaeran, Fade immediately got through to Gentro and Wilton's numerous mobile phones and asked them to send their people there.

Hanging up the phone, Fade stared at the front with a cold expression. He gnashed his teeth and said, "The Hsia family, Fallon, Jonas, Hampton. You'd better hope that Yuri and Sister Song are alright. Otherwise, I will let you know the true meaning of death!"

At the same time, in the warehouse in the No.7 in the north that was full of cobwebs and rusted steel pillars, a middle-aged man with a square face who was in his fifties looked at the two women in front of him with a cold face. He said in a low voice, "So, it is because of them that my two sons are now handicapped."

On the side of the middle-aged man, two young men in bandages, sitting in wheelchairs, stared at Yuri and Susie, who were tied to the steel frame in front of them. They had extremely gloomy faces and were full of resentment.

"You wh*res, you will soon know the consequences of offending my Hsia family."

"And that Fade guy will die alongside the both of you!"

.....

Yuri and Susie were tied firmly to the steel frame at the moment and their mouths were stuffed with cloth so they couldn't move or talk at all. However, their eyes were full of anger and they glared at the few people in front of them.

"You dare to stare at us? Come on, beat them. Beat these two b*tches hard," Hampton ordered with anger in his eyes.

Suddenly, two servants came forward and slapped Yuri and Susie a few times.

Jonas was not satisfied with this. With a sinister look, he stared at Susie and said, "Take off all of her clothes for me. I want this b*tch to know the consequences of rejecting me."

On the other side, Hampton was also full of excitement when he heard this. "Do that to Yuri for me too. I want to humiliate her!"

Looking at his two sons, Fallon didn't say anything. In his mind, let alone stripping the two women, even if they were killed, it would not be worth the harm to his two sons.

After all, they were the Young Masters of the Hsia family. They were not allowed to be treated like this.

The servants stepped forward. Under Yuri and Susie's angry and panicked gazes, they were about to strip off of their clothes.

In front of them, Jonas and Hampton became rather lustful. They licked their tongues, awaiting for the two women to be stripped down.

However, right at this time, a loud 'boom' sounded from outside, making everyone jump in fright. All of their movements stopped, and they looked forward.

"What's going on?!" Fallon bellowed, his face grim. "What's going on? What happened?!"

Chapter 1349

As soon as his voice fell, a servant rushed in panic. "Master, there's bad news. Someone rushed in."

"Who's there?" Fallon's face darkened as he walked out of the room.

When he came to the door of the warehouse, he saw the scene in front of him. His eyes narrowed, but his expression turned cold.

That was because the iron gate of the huge warehouse, which was originally locked, had completely collapsed and several guards were pinned beneath it.

On the steel gate, a smoking, off-road vehicle was roaring like an angry beast.

Looking at the deformed front of the car, one could easily guess that it was the cause of the collapsed gate.

"Who are you?" Fallon asked, his face sullen as he peered at the vehicle.

At this time, the door opened and Fade came out with a cold face. He jumped and landed gently on the iron gate.

"It's you!" Seeing Fade, Fallon frowned.

At this moment, Fade also turned his eyes to the other side and said, "Sure enough, it was you, the Hsia family!"

Then, he saw Jonas and Hampton who had just arrived in wheelchairs. He demanded coldly, "Where are Yuri and Susie? Hand them over."

Jonas's eyes were full of resentment, and he said, "Fade, how dare you be so arrogant now? Later, you will know what regret means."

Hampton also gnashed his teeth and said, "Fade, if you still want those two women, I can tell you now, they have been messed up by us. That feeling was rather pleasant, tsk tsk..."

"You..." Hearing Hampton's words, Fade's face sank. He glared at him and shot out a stream of Qi saying, "You are looking for death."

Hampton did not expect that Fade would dare to hit him in such a situation. In addition, he was sitting in a wheelchair, so there was no way for him to dodge at all. He could only watch the whistling air blade stabbing towards him. He was so scared that his pupils contracted and sweat broke out on his forehead.

Fortunately, at the crucial moment, an elder with a hunchback flashed across and stood in front of Hampton to block the blast of Qi for him.

Seeing that his son was safe and sound, Fallon heaved a deep breath.

Then, he glared at Fade with cold and angry eyes, and said in a low voice, "Fade, even now, you still dare to do this. Yuri and Susie, don't you want them to live anymore?"

Fade looked at him and said coldly, "Release them now and I'll spare your lives!"

"What an arrogant fool!" Fallon's eyes darkened as he scoffed, "I know you've been doing well in the capital these days, young one. I see that you've made quite a bit of a name for yourself."

"But you have to know what kind of a person I am! I am none other than Fallon, the Master of the Hsia family, and the Hsia family is not something that you can deal with!" He bellowed, his voice deep and hollow.

"Now, I will give you a chance. Kneel in front of my two sons, bow and apologize to them, and then have your arms and legs crippled. Perhaps then, I would consider sparing your life," Fallon ordered Fade in a condescending tone.

Hearing that, Fade narrowed his eyes and stared at the other side. He was silent and did not speak.

.....

At this time, Samuel managed to catch up with them when he was driving outside the warehouse.

Lydia and the other two young reporters in the car almost spun out. When they got out of the car, they couldn't stand still.

However, Samuel was very excited. He rushed up with the photography equipment and urged at the same time, "I almost caught up. Hurry up, don't miss the important contents."

The three people behind gathered their focus and then followed him.

The warehouse number seven was right in front of them, and the warehouse's door was open at this moment.

However, they came here to take a sneak shot, so they couldn't approach it from the front. Therefore, they secretly went around from the side, found a gap, and pointed the camera at the warehouse.

At the same time, they also held their breaths, focused their attention, and looked at the situation carefully.

The first target, of course, was to find Susie, whom Fade mentioned just now.

However, they failed to find her. Instead, the first scene they saw was the roaring off-road vehicle, the fallen iron gate, as well as

Fallon going against Fade.

At the sight of Fallon, several of them couldn't help but exclaim in surprise.

"That's... That's the Master of the Hsia family, Fallon Hsia. Why is he here?"

"He refused our interview before. Didn't he say that he was going abroad to do business? Why is he still here? And he contacted Fade?"

"Look behind, that's Jonas and Hampton, right? They're sitting in wheelchairs and it looks like they're injured? The rumors from a few days ago seem to be true."

.....

Samuel and the two young reporters were surprised to find that a big shot like Fallon was in high spirits at this moment. They adjusted the camera and secretly took pictures of him.

At this moment, Lydia's gaze was focused on Fade. She vaguely felt that something was wrong and began to feel uneasy.

At this time, the conversation between Fade and the people of the Hsia family in the warehouse was heard clearly by Samuel and the others.

After listening, they could not help but be stunned. Looking at each other, their faces were full of excitement and tension, and they began to whisper to each other about what was happening.

"According to their conversation, it seems that there is a conflict between the Hsia family and Fade!"

"It's not just a conflict. It seems that Fade was the one who injured Jonas and Hampton. That's why Fallon wants revenge."

"Besides, they also mentioned two women. Yuri, we don't quite know, but Susie is the big star isn't she?"

.....

During the discussion, Samuel seemed to have found something. He moved a distance away and discovered a hole in the wall and began to get some pictures through it. While shooting, he was very excited. "Big news, big news! This time, I really hit the jackpot to get such exclusive news!"

Lydia and the two young reporters who followed looked over in confusion. When they saw the scene in the warehouse, they were shocked.

That was because in the depths of the warehouse, two women were tied to the steel frame and one of them was Susie, a big star.

"What, what's going on? Did Susie get kidnapped?"

"Who kidnapped them? The Hsia family?"

"Why? Why did the Hsia family kidnap Susie? This is a huge deal!"

.....

Several reporters became excited and worried, and their expressions became tense.

However, Samuel was very excited. He continued to shoot excitedly and whispered, "In any case, we have dug up big news, one-of-a-kind news. Now, we are going to be famous, really famous in one shot!"

Lydia was a little worried. No matter Susie, a big star, or a big family like the Hsia family, the forces involved were not what they should interfere with.

Feeling worried, she could not help but to remind them, "It seems to be a little dangerous. We, we'd better leave!"

11:30

Chapter 1350

Hearing this, Samuel was immediately dissatisfied and he said, "The big news is right in front of us. If you leave now, Lydia, are you willing to give up on this chance to become famous?"

Lydia knew that she could not persuade Samuel, so she looked at the other two young reporters and said, "This involves kidnapping. Are you not afraid of the dangers?"

The two young reporters showed hesitation on their faces.

At this time, Samuel said, "You have to think clearly. If you miss this opportunity, you may never be able to make a name for yourselves in the future."

In the face of the temptation of fame, the eyes of the two young reporters flashed. They nodded to Samuel and said, "Mr. Wei, we'll follow you."

He nodded with satisfaction and smiled. Then he looked at Lydia and said, "If you don't want to be a reporter, you can leave. However, the credit of this interview is all ours."

Lydia's face sunk slightly. Her mouth moved a little as she wanted to say something. However, she eventually sighed and turned around to leave.

Samuel ignored Lydia's attitude, excitedly commanded his two followers, and constantly peeped at the scene inside the warehouse from all angles.

"From this angle, I can get a clear picture of it."

"Aim at Susie's face, you must make sure to get a clear shot at her."

"And there's also Fallon Hsia of the Hsia family. Get him in the photos too."

.....

While Samuel was shooting excitedly, Lydia's voice suddenly rang out, "Samuel, Samuel..."

Samuel replied impatiently, "Lydia, weren't you leaving? What's the point of coming back? You want to steal our credit again."

"No, Samuel. Someone..." Lydia said in a hurry.

However, before Lydia could finish his sentence, a muffled groan could be heard.

Frowning, Samuel turned his head around. Just as he was about to scold her, he saw a few black-robed bodyguards coming over. She had been subdued by them.

"F*ck, we've been found." Samuel's heart skipped a beat. Knowing that things were not going well, he quickly got up and wanted to escape. When he escaped, he did not forget to hold the camera tightly in his hand.

However, his escape was of no use in front of professional bodyguards.

Before he could run more than ten meters, Samuel was already pinned to the ground by them. His body hit against the sharp stone, and blood gushed out, making Samuel scream in pain.

On the other side, the two young reporters were also quickly subdued.

Soon, the four of them were led into the warehouse. A bodyguard came to Fallon's side and whispered something to him.

Upon hearing this, Fallon's face darkened. He glanced at Fade and said, "Bring them here."

Soon, the four reporters were all tied up tightly and brought to the front of Fallon.

As soon as he saw Fallon, Samuel hurriedly explained, "Master Hsia, it's me! Samuel, a reporter of the magazine. A few days ago, I visited you at the Hsia family home. I..."

Something reminded Fallon of him and he recognized Samuel. His face darkened and he asked, "Why are you here?"

Hearing this, Samuel could not help but be silent. He glanced at Fade.

At this moment, Fade also saw the four reporters. His eyes fell on Lydia, and he had doubts on his face.

With an apologetic look, Lydia explained to Fade, "Mr. Chen, we didn't mean to follow you. It's just that we wanted to get some exclusive news, so..."

Hearing that, he frowned slightly and didn't say anything more.

At this moment, it seemed that something had occurred to Fallon. He looked at the four of them and asked coldly, "What have you guys witnessed?"

The four people's faces changed and they quickly shook their heads and waved their hands, saying, "Nothing, nothing! Mr. Fallon, we were just..."

Before they could finish their sentence, some of the guards had already opened their cameras and video cameras. Soon, they caught sight of the photos in the cameras and showed everything to Fallon.

Upon seeing this, his face became grim. He threw the camera on the ground and said in a deep voice, "It looks like you've found out a lot!"

Hearing this, Samuel hurriedly explained, "Master Hsia, we will not disclose this matter. We will keep our mouths shut and we will not say a word."

"Is that so?" Fallon asked as his eyes scanned through the four of them.

Samuel and the two reporters nodded quickly, as tears and mucus streamed down their faces. They were terrified for their lives. "Sure, sure!"

However, Fallon shook his head and said coldly, "I want to believe what you said, but I believe in the dead more. Only the dead would keep their mouths shut."

"Get rid of them!" Fallon commanded, waving him off with his hand.

"Yes!" One of his subordinates immediately moved, dragging the four of them towards the outside.

The four were so terrified that their faces turned pale. At this moment, the two young reporters were filled with immense regret. They regretted having not followed Lydia's advice and becoming involved with the dangers in this place. They should've left this place ahead of time. As a result, it had gotten to the point where it was now, and it was the moment where they'd die there.

They had no doubt that Fallon would kill them. After all, the criminals were people who dared to kidnap Susie, a big star. It would be an easy task for them to kill just a few reporters.

For a moment, their faces were full of despair. Samuel was so scared that his whole body was shaking and he looked lost.

Lydia's expression changed and her gaze fell on Fade.

Seeing that they were about to be dragged out, Fade gently waved his hand and the force hit the bodyguards, saving Lydia and the other three.

Fallon's eyes darkened. "What are you doing, Fade?" He asked, his voice icy.

Fade looked coldly at him and said in a deep voice, "Release Yuri and Susie. We'll let you off right now! I'll let you live!"

A sneer broke out on Fallon's face. "Boy, your own death is just moments away, yet you dare to speak wildly. This courage you possess is rare!"

"Since that's the case, I'll have my men make quick work of you first." Fallon's eyes darkened. He then waved his hand and pointed at Fade, ordering his men, "Attack!"

In an instant, with a crashing sound, dozens of bodyguards in black came to surround Fade. All of them were fierce, holding various weapons in their hands. They fought with their full strength and had no intention of holding back at all.

Seeing this scene, Samuel and the other reporters were scared silly. Although they had reported a lot of social news and they were very knowledgeable, this fierce scene happened less than ten meters in front of them; they had never seen such a thing before.

Seeing that a group of black-robed bodyguards had rushed to have Fade surrounded, they almost could not see him anymore.

Samuel and the others' expressions looked ugly. They seemed to have foreseen the tragic scene of Fade being minced down to mere meat sauce.
