

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1230

"I went to ask a media source, and they said it was revealed by an insider. I asked what an insider was, and they said they also heard about it." Chad said this and exhaled heavily, "They read the news from the "A Morning Post", so they followed the trend. The source of the "A Morning Post" was sent back by their reporters in Yonroeville."

Chad was reluctant to believe this news, but when he heard that the news came from Yonroeville, he was struck by lightning.

"Listen to what you mean, is this news true?" Mike's face was ashen, he couldn't believe the result.

Although Avery did not return to Aryadelle together, once the news spread, it would soon reach her ears.

How could Avery accept such bad news?

"I haven't seen my boss's de@d body, how can I be sure that the news is true?" Chad said with difficulty, "It's just that my boss may really be in Yonroeville, and now the news comes from Yonroeville, so I'm a little panicked."

"Don't panic, I'm going to check the news of Yonroeville now." Mike finished and hung up the phone.

Hayden stayed in the living room the whole time, listening to Mike's voice on the phone clearly.

Ever since Mike sprayed water, he'd pricked up his ears, wondering what was going on.

"What happened?" Hayden immediately asked after Mike hung up the phone, "Elliot is in Yonroeville, did something happen to Elliot?"

Hayden didn't hear what Chad said on the phone. He only heard Mike talking about Yonroeville, so he guessed that it had something to do with Elliot.

"The domestic media are reporting that Elliot is dead. I don't know if it's true. So I'm going to check the news from Yonroeville." Mike strode towards his room and continued, "Headache! Mom knows this news, but she doesn't know how sad she should be. You probably don't know that the two of them quarreled this time because your mother concealed him, which caused him to misunderstand, so she made the matter of giving up the equity."

"Your mother has always been Very self-blame. If the misunderstanding is not explained clearly, he will die, and your mother will suffer for a lifetime." Mike added.

When Hayden heard the news of Elliot's death, the expression on his face suddenly froze. His emotions are very complicated. Even if he hates Elliot again, considering the emotional changes of his mother and sister after Elliot's death, he would rather Elliot live.

After Mike went to the room, Hayden also returned to his room.

Hayden opened the notebook, and after connecting to the Internet, a news pop-up window popped up——

—The end of a generation of business legends! Click to view Elliot's ups and downs.

A black and white photo of Elliot was attached to the pop-up window.

Hayden looked dazzling. But he couldn't help but click in.

This was a press release. The content of the manuscript summarized Elliot's bizarre and magnificent entrepreneurial experiences.

Hayden couldn't recognize so many words, so he turned directly to the bottom comment.

——[Candle] This incident shows that no matter how much money he make, he can't spend it without life.

——He is still so young, why can't he think about it?

—The news did not say that he committed suicide. I think he definitely didn't commit suicide. Who committed suicide and went abroad to commit suicide? Most of them were assassinated abroad.

——Since he knew that someone abroad was going to kill him, he should stay at home. How chaotic is there in Yonroeville, you can find it with a casual search on the Internet! In the end, it was his destiny. D*mn it.

—Didn't he just get married not long ago? Where is his wife?

——He has run out of money, of course his wife ran away. As the saying goes, husbands and wives are birds of the same forest, and when disaster strikes, they fly separately.

——His wife Avery is also one of the top entrepreneurs in the country. Even if he collapses, Avery will have no problem raising her.

——Do you think she could have been so successful without Elliot's help? You are too naive. Just wait and see, Avery will definitely have bad luck next.

Mike entered the network of Yonroeville and searched for Elliot's name.

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1231

It turned out to be all kinds of news about Elliot in Aryadelle.

Mike had an idea, typed Kyrie's name, and a series of related news immediately popped up. The latest news about Kyrie is a photo of him wearing a black suit to buy chrysanthemum flowers at a flower shop.

This posture, at first glance, is to go to the funeral. Could it be that he was going to attend Elliot's funeral?

Mike glanced at the news time, it happened yesterday. Therefore, Elliot died yesterday, and today the news came back to Aryadelle...

Mike took a screenshot of the news and sent it to Chad.

Chad replied with a long list of periods.

After seeing the news, Ben Schaffer immediately bought a plane ticket to Yonroeville.

Tammy dialed Avery's number immediately. At this time, the time of Bridgedale is late at night.

Avery took half a sleeping pill and fell asleep.

Tammy didn't get through the first time, her heart hung in her throat, and she dialed her number again.

When such a big thing happened, Tammy had to let her know immediately.

Avery was awakened by Tammy's third call. When she woke up, she checked the time first, and then answered the phone in confusion.

"Avery, Elliot is dead. Domestic news has spread all over the country." Tammy exclaimed, "He died in Yonroeville. Of course, this is all from the news. And the news only contains text, no photos. Ben Schaffer has already rushed to Yonroeville. Look at you..."

Avery stared blankly at the dimly lit room, before he could say anything, tears fell first.

"Avery, did you hear what I said?" Tammy raised her voice when she saw that there was no response from the phone.

“Elliot is dead? You said he was dead?” Avery clutched her phone tightly, got up quickly, and turned on the room light.

“Yes, that’s what the domestic news said. We have to go to Yonroeville to confirm the details.” Tammy said, “Why don’t you wait for the news from Ben Schaffer.”

“How could he die... ..Kyrie has a good relationship with him... Chad said so, saying that they have known each other for many years, longer than he and Ben Schaffer have known each other...Kyrie How could you kill Elliot...”

Avery cried and got out of bed, quickly walked to the closet, and looked for clothes to change.

“Avery, don’t worry, it might be fake news.” Tammy listened to her cry and felt very sad, “I don’t think Elliot can’t identify danger. How could such a shrewd person die so easily?”

“I’ll go find him...I’ll go find him now.” Avery hung up the phone and quickly changed her clothes.

Within ten minutes, she came out of the villa. She drove out and headed to the airport.

The car drove forward rapidly, and her tears kept falling. She had long seen that Kyrie was not a good person. That’s why she strongly discouraged him from interacting with Kyrie at that time.

Who knows, he finally ran to find Kyrie.

His death was definitely murder.

Even if Elliot hates Avery, it won’t kill by himself. After all, he still has three children, how could he ruthlessly abandon everything to seek death?

He’s not that merciless, he’s not.

Aryadelle.

After the news of Elliot’s death spread, people could be heard talking about it everywhere.

Eric didn’t tell Layla about it, but when Layla was in the bathroom, she heard others talking. She came out of the bathroom and came to Eric, unable to hide the grief on her face. “My father is dead?”

Eric was a little surprised. For a while, he didn't know how to answer her question.

"I was in the toilet and heard two aunties say that my father died." Layla's eyes were red, "Why did my father die? I don't want him to die."

Eric immediately picked her up and walked towards the car Go over there.

"Layla, it's not clear whether this is true or not. The news came from abroad, and your mother has gone to confirm it now. I'll let you know when I have the exact news."

There were two lines in the corner of Layla's eyes: "I don't want my father to die. Although he always quarrels with my mother, he is very good to me. He is also very good to my mother, otherwise he will not quarrel and win against my mother."

Eric: "Well, I know he's good. Don't cry yet, what if he's all right? Let's wait for news from your mom, okay?"

Layla: "I want to call mom."

Eric: "She's now in the plane, the phone was turned off."

Layla: "I want to call my brother."

Eric: "Okay, I'll call him now." Eric held her in one hand and dialed Hayden's number with the other.

Hayden quickly answered the phone.

Layla: "Brother, woohoo!"

Hayden knew why his sister was crying, so he calmly said, "Dad is not dead."

Layla: "Really? Brother.

Hayden : "Well, I didn't see his body, so he didn't die. When his body is brought back, you won't cry."

Layla: "..."

"You stay with Uncle Eric, don't come back." Hayden continued, "I'm very busy with my studies, so I don't have time to take care of you. You can come back when your mother comes back."

Detention Center.

Gwen came to visit Nathan.

Seeing Elliot's news today, she felt a little down.

Elliot was dead, and his father was going to die soon. It felt like this family was just scattered.

Originally, she had no feelings for her family, but before that, the family broke up when she broke up. Maybe it was because Avery was kind to her, which led her to have fantasies.

Before today, Gwen had been looking forward to Elliot's return. In this way, Avery can keep in friendly contact with her all the time because she is Elliot's sister.

Who would have thought that Elliot would just hang up like this.

"Gwen, What did you say?" Nathan's eyes bulged when he heard the news of Elliot's death.

"It was on the news. The news said Elliot died in Yonroeville. Ben Schaffer has already gone to Yonroeville to find him." Gwen lowered her head and continued, "I came here to tell you. In case you don't know the news until you die."

Nathan blushed and roared, "You stinky girl. You are deliberately mad at me. You have hated me since you were a child, and now I am dying, you can't let me die without regrets?!"

Gwen raised her head: "Yes, I'm just here to anger you. Although I hate you so much, I have already contacted the staff of the crematorium for you. They will drag you to be cremated by then. I will let them Throw away your ashes, after all, I don't have the money to buy you a cemetery, and I don't have a house to store your ashes."

"You..." Nathan trembled with anger and coughed violently.

"Would you like to tell me before you die, who is my mother?" Gwen asked the question that was hidden in her heart.

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1233

"I can't even remember who the mothers of your two brothers are, how can I remember who your mother is? Don't be delusional, the women I played with when I was young were all the meanest chickens, if you ran away You won't get any benefit by recognizing relatives, but you will be sucked blood by your trash mother."

Gwen felt a chill in her heart after hearing his father words.

“Everyone has the right to hate me, but you and your eldest brother have no right. How can you two survive until now?” Nathan still thinks he has a clear conscience for these two children.

“Visit time is over.” After the police spoke, they took Nathan away.

Gwen looked at Nathan’s slightly hunched back, his eyes couldn’t help but get wet.

Nathan is no longer the tall, violent and frightening man in her eyes. He is not a qualified father. He has never loved her like a normal father, but it is undeniable that she was raised by him.

Gwen lied to him when she said she would throw away his ashes just now. She did not contact the crematorium staff at all. She said that on purpose to make his father angry. She wanted to see if he would be frightened and came to beg her.

After coming out of the detention center, Gwen stopped a car on the side of the road and reported the address of Ben Schaffer’s home.

After she told Ben Schaffer that she wanted to go to school, Ben Schaffer found her the admission brochures of two universities and let her choose.

Although she has been quarreling with Ben Schaffer, Ben Schaffer took what she said to heart, which moved her very much. She was determined not to live the same life as before. Avery said that life is yours, and the path you choose to take is entirely up to you.

Back at Schaffer’s house, Gwen entered the door code. After the courtyard door opened, the black car parked in the courtyard attracted her attention.

This was not Ben Schaffer’s car.

When Gwen came out of the house, the car was not in the yard. She crossed the yard anxiously and walked to the door of the villa.

Before she could press the code, the door was pulled open from the inside. A man with kind eyes and facial features like Ben Schaffer appeared in front of her.

Gwen immediately guessed that this was Ben Schaffer’s father.

Gwen: “Hello, uncle.”

“You are Gwen, Come in.” Russell Schaffer invited her into the room.

After entering the house, she saw Juniper sitting on the sofa and was drinking tea.

“Gwen, come here.” Juniper glanced at Gwen calmly, “I came over today with your uncle and saw a woman’s luggage in the guest room, we didn’t know you lived here, Ben Schaffer last time Said that after you moved out, you didn’t tell me that you moved back again. So I accidentally flipped through your luggage and saw this.”

Juniper picked up a color ultrasound form from the coffee table.

This is the color Doppler ultrasound that Gwen did when she went to the hospital for an examination. It was confirmed that there is a gestational sac in the body.

“Auntie, this is mine.” Gwen walked over and took the ultrasound form.

“Well, your name is written on it. Gwen, can you tell me about the child in your womb...”

“I can’t tell you.” Gwen didn’t want to lie to her or tell her frank.

Her relationship with Ben Schaffer was too embarrassing. If Ben Schaffer knew that the child belonged to him, he would definitely be tougher to let her get rid of it.

“Oh... Does Ben Schaffer know about this?” The smile on Juniper’s face disappeared.

“he knows.”

“He knew you were pregnant, and he let you live in. It seems that you are pregnant with his child. Haha! That’s great. I knew you two were having fun.” Juniper laughed excitedly, suddenly remembering the news of Elliot’s death, “Hey, I heard about your brother, don’t be too sad, don’t move the fetal gas. If you give birth to this child, everything in Ben Schaffer will be your child’s in the future, and your child’s will be yours.”

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1234

“Auntie, no, I didn’t want to use the child to get his property. Everything was an accident.” Gwen seemed to be on trial. She had never been so ambitious.

“You two are alone in the same room, of course accidents are prone to happen. Hahaha!” Juniper couldn’t hide her joy, “You are Elliot’s sister, and his father and I will definitely not treat you badly. I know You have suffered a lot in the past, and we will take care of you as our own daughter.”

Gwen looked at the kind faces of Juniper and Russell, the rebuttal words were on her lips, and she could not say them.

She had never felt such warmth from her elders. She seemed to be drowning in a honeypot and was reluctant to come out.

She knew it was bad, but She couldn't control it.

Yonroeville.

Ben Schaffer went to and from several times and found one of Kyrie's subordinates.

"Mr. Foster died in a car accident."

"Did in a car accident? Are you sure it was an accident and not a murder?" Ben Schaffer was furious, "Bring Kyrie here. I want to confront him."

His hand lowered his head: "Mr. Schaffer, Don't embarrass me. After Mr. Foster's accident, Brother Kyrie was heartbroken, and now he is in the hospital."

"Are you sure he is too sad, not hiding in the hospital and afraid to come out?" Ben Schaffer roared.

The subordinate said, "This is Brother Carrier's territory, and Brother Carrier is not afraid of anyone. Brother Carrier and Mr. Foster are friends, how could he murder Mr. Foster? Besides, didn't Mr. Foster already take over the Sterling Group's equity in the company been transferred out? What benefits will Brother Kyrie get from murdering him at this time?"

Ben Schaffer couldn't answer.

"Mr. Foster came here by plane. It means that in his heart, he still regards Brother Carrier as a friend. And there is no interest between them for a long time. How could Brother Carrier attack Mr. Foster?"

"Mr. Schaffer, I understand that you are very sad and also We are too." The man's face was heavy.

"Where did he get into the car accident? Where is his body?" Ben Schaffer thought for a while, and it was true that Elliot and Kyrie had long since lost interest.

Kyrie shouldn't kill Elliot.

"Mr. Foster was involved in a car accident on the winding mountain highway. That day, Brother Kyrie invited Mr. Foster to listen to the scriptures on the mountain. Because Mr. Foster was in a bad mood, Brother Kyrie specially invited a high-ranking monk, hoping to make Mr. Foster feel better. It was raining lightly that day, and the road was a little slippery, so there was an accident.”

Said his subordinates, and took Ben Schaffer out.

“That section of the winding mountain road is a bit steep, but it’s no problem for an experienced driver to drive. Brother Kyrie goes up the mountain to listen to scriptures every half a month, and has never had a problem.”

Ben Schaffer heard a burst of pain in his heart: “Has his body been found?”

“Not yet. You can see why after seeing that mountain. “

His subordinates drove Ben Schaffer to the place of the accident.

The railing next to the winding mountain road was knocked off, and standing on the side, you can see obvious traces of the car rushing down.

At the bottom of the mountain, there were endless rocks and abyss.

This mountain was relatively high. Falling from here, there will be absolutely no possibility of surviving.

And because of the special geographical location, it was difficult to carry out search and rescue work.

“Brother Kyrie asked several groups of rescuers to search and rescue. The person in charge of the search and rescue work said that there are too many dead corners below. If you unfortunately fall into a dead corner, there is no way to find the body. Unless the entire mountain is razed to the ground. But This is unrealistic. The temple on this mountain is one of the oldest temples in Yonroeville, and it can’t be moved at all.”

Today’s weather in Yonroeville is very gloomy, and there is a dull feeling that the mountains and the rain are about to come and the building is full of wind.

Ben Schaffer loosened his neckline, but still felt that he could not breathe.

“Mr. Schaffer, let’s go back first. It’s going to rain heavily.” The subordinate reminded, “The weather is too bad, it will be very inconvenient to drive. There was only a car accident here, let’s be careful.”
