

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1445 - 1450

Chapter 1445

Mr. Foster seems to be injured, but I don't know how. It was the vice president who treated him and kept the whole process confidential. Something happened to the Jobin family, you should be careful. Let's go." The doctor approached Avery and whispered.

Avery got up from the chair, and said, "Elliot is injured, I can't ignore it. Thank you for telling me this. I'll see you next time."

The doctor sighed again, "Will you live well? You have to toss. I've never seen you so afraid of death."

Avery: "Don't worry, I can't die."

After Avery finished speaking, she went to Vice President Lewis. But unfortunately Vice President Lewis was not in the hospital today.

Avery had no sleepiness and didn't want to go back to the hotel, so she called Nick and visited his house.

After Nick received her call, his shocked tone was no less than the doctor's reaction just now.

After the two met, Nick looked at her as if he were looking at a creature from outer space.

"Didn't I tell you not to come?" Nick had a headache.

"Isn't Kyrie dead?" Avery put the bought fruit on the coffee table, "Nick, can you accompany me to the hospital? If you go to Rebecca, she won't rush you. Let's go?"

"What if I don't agree to you?" Nick deliberately made things difficult for her.

Avery: "If you don't agree, then I'll come to see you tomorrow."

Nick frowned, "Are you threatening me? Do I owe you? Do you have to find me?"

Avery said: "You don't owe me, I owe you."

"Come on, I'll accompany you on a trip. If this trip doesn't yield anything, don't bother me next time." Nick took a sip of tea.

Avery: "Okay, thank you. Your kindness, I will keep it in my heart."

Nick: "Don't put a high hat on me. If it weren't for your medical skills, I wouldn't bear you."

Avery: "I don't think you are such a person. In the relationship between you and Elliot, you will definitely help me."

Nick: "Ah, you woman. I told you not to wear a high hat."

"Okay, Nick, let's go to the hospital now." Avery Got up from the sofa, walked up to him and took his arm.

As if struck by lightning, Nick immediately pushed her away: "Don't do anything to me. That trick you did to Elliot is useless to me."

Avery: "Would you like to call the hospital first?"

Nick glared at her and said, "What are you calling for? So that Rebecca will know in advance that we are going there and stop us at the hospital gate?"

Avery was stunned: "Is the hospital belongs to the Jobin family?"

Nick: "Yes! The Jobin family is the major shareholder of that hospital."

Avery felt a little pain in her head. How did she dare to operate in that hospital? If the Jobin family wanted to harm her at that time, they could kill her in minutes.

"Nick, you said on the phone that after Rebecca killed her father, she seems to have changed. What is the specific change?" Avery was more curious. Because she will inevitably have direct contact with Rebecca next.

Nick said, "What was Rebecca like before? You have come into contact with her. She has a bit of a shadow of Kyrie now. Maybe the second brother succeeded in brainwashing her. In short, don't underestimate her now. Kyrie is dead. After that, everything in the Jobin family fell into her hands."

"Kyrie gave her all the inheritance?" Avery was a little surprised. Because Kyrie didn't pay much attention to Rebecca's attitude before.

Kyrie prioritized sons over daughters. His attitude towards Elliot and Lorenzo during his lifetime was better than that of Rebecca.

"Yes, it must be for his own daughter. And Rebecca is pregnant, and the child will have the surname of the Jobin family." Nick said.

Chapter 1446

Speaking of the child, Avery's eyebrows wrinkled involuntarily: "Nick, do you know whose child is in her stomach? Is it Elliot's?"

Nick strode outside and said, "How do I know this? I didn't install Camera on their bed. When you see Elliot, you can ask him this question directly."

Avery: "Elliot told me that the father of the child was picked by Rebecca in the hospital sperm bank. "

Nick: "Then why do you still ask if it's Elliot's?"

"Rebecca said on the phone that the child belongs to Elliot. It was a serious statement, and it made my daughter cry." Avery followed Nick and got on the car.

Nick thought it was a trivial matter, So he said, "When Rebecca's child is born, you will know whether it is Elliot's."

"I don't think Elliot will lie to me. But I don't think Rebecca needs to tell such a clumsy lie. Because you don't need to wait for her child to be born to know whether the child is Elliot's." After Avery finished speaking, Nick was stunned.

Nick: "How long does it take to check?"

Avery: "You can check after three months of pregnancy. Through amniocentesis..."

Nick: "Oh. Rebecca's child should be almost three months old."

Avery didn't answer.

If Rebecca dared to tell Elliot that the child was his, Elliot would definitely do DNA test with the child.

The biggest question now is how serious Elliot's injury is.

The car drove towards the hospital. After being silent for a while, Nick said to Avery, "I'll go in first. If I can see Elliot, you don't have to go in."

Avery said, "But I really want to see him with my own eyes."

Nick: "Don't you just want to confirm his condition? You see him, it will do nothing but make Rebecca angry. If Elliot is awake, I will tell him you are here. If he is unconscious, it's no use seeing him."

Avery retorted, "What if I can treat him? If he is really hurt that badly, the doctor here may not be able to cure him."

Nick: "Okay, I'll go check the situation first."

"Nick, how are you going to explore?" Avery was afraid that he would be closed.

Nick narrowed his fox eyes and said one word: "Cheat."

Avery: "???"

When Nick arrived at the hospital, he inquired about the floor of the inpatient department where Elliot was, and went immediately.

The elevator reached the floor and opened.

He came out of the elevator, and two bodyguards stopped him immediately.

"I'm here to find Rebecca. Go and tell Rebecca, and say I have something important to look for. It's about the interests of the Jobin family." Nick said to the Jobin family bodyguard.

Hearing the words, the bodyguard immediately went to report to Rebecca.

After a while, Rebecca came out.

"Second Master, what do you want to say to me?" Rebecca looked cold and distant, "Why don't you just call me directly?"

"Can you get through? I called you last time, but you didn't take my call." Nick said teasingly, "Aren't you going to invite me to sit down? I came to you today, not because I have a good relationship with you, but because I saw Elliot's face."

Rebecca thought about it, and then invited Nick. The two were going to the ward.

The two bodyguards followed immediately.

Arriving at the ward, Nick saw Elliot lying on the hospital bed at a glance.

The relaxed expression on Nick's face suddenly froze.

"What did Lorenzo do?"

Rebecca sat down on the sofa and said, "Well. When Elliot is healed, I will naturally punish Lorenzo. My father just left, and I still need Lorenzo to help me. Second Master, you want to follow me say what?"

Chapter 1447

Nick took his eyes away from Elliot, frowned, and asked without answering, "Did the doctor say when Elliot can wake up?"

"No." Rebecca was reluctant to talk about Elliot's condition.

Nick: "It seems that the injury is too serious, so the doctor can't estimate when he will wake up."

Rebecca did not answer this question, but said angrily: "The doctor said that his life is not in danger."

Nick: "He went abroad to seek better treatment?"

Rebecca: "I thought about it but the doctor said that he is not suitable for transfer now."

"Oh...then why didn't a better doctor come to treat him?"

"The doctor said Elliot's illness is not serious enough to ask a doctor outside." After Rebecca answered this question, her tone became impatient, "Didn't you say you have something to tell me? If it's just an excuse to come to see Elliot, you have also seen Elliot now..."

There was a commotion outside the ward.

"Elliot!" Avery's voice came from exhaustion.

Rebecca heard her voice, and a cold sweat broke out on her back.

-Is it her hallucination?

-How did she hear Avery's voice?

Rebecca quickly walked out of the ward and saw Avery who was stopped by the bodyguard.

"Avery! Why are you here?" Rebecca's voice was deafening.

Rebecca thought she would never see Avery again, but unexpectedly, Avery is here again.

Nick saw Avery come over but he was not surprised. He didn't want to help her, but couldn't help speaking for her.

Nick said to Rebecca, "Rebecca, did you forget that Avery is a relatively good doctor? Avery heard that Elliot was sick, so she wanted to come over to see his condition. Let her go see Elliot Right. Elliot is a living dead now, and he can't see her, let alone go with her..."

Rebecca looked at Nick and said, "You brought her here, right? You said fake to ask me for something, but it's real to bring Avery here. You do this, it really makes me sad."

"Rebecca, since you are pregnant with Elliot's child, why are you afraid of me?" Avery said excitedly, Pushing her bodyguard away, "I just want to see Elliot's condition, in case I can help him and let him recover quickly, okay? You keep saying that you love her, then you shouldn't stop me from going. Look at him."

Nick teased, "Rebecca, be generous. She said you were pregnant with Elliot's child, if that's the case, Elliot will definitely be responsible for you and the child."

Rebecca was entangled in her heart. Before she came back to her senses, Avery had strode past her and broke into the ward.

Nick followed her into the ward.

The two stood by the hospital bed and looked at Elliot, who was bloodless and motionless on the bed.

Elliot's entire body was wrapped in white gauze except eyes. It's hard to imagine Elliot so much suffered before.

Nick saw Avery's eyes were scarlet and tears fell, so he took out a pack of tissues from his pocket and planned to hand tissues to her.

Unexpectedly, Avery turned around and walked in front of Rebecca.

With a 'pop' sound, a loud slap sound came.

She slapped Rebecca in Rebecca's territory.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1448

Nick was stunned.

Rebecca was also stunned.

The Jobin family bodyguards rushed up immediately when they saw their master being beaten.

Nick walked over and stopped them.

“Don’t worry about their women’s affairs, you two gentlemen. Go to the elevator to guard, don’t let unrelated people break in.” Nick said, and took the two bodyguards out.

The door of the ward was closed, and only Rebecca, Avery and Elliot were left in the room.

“You hit me?” Rebecca covered her face with her hands, her eyes flashing with unbelievable anger.

“Miss Jobin, how did you let Elliot become like this? How dare you use his mobile phone to show off your power with me, and how dare you hide his illness? What are you putting on in your mind? Is he dead? Now, you can still occupy his body and tell me that you two are very loving?”

Rebecca put down her hand and clenched her fist tightly: “He is not dead. The doctor said he will recover. It just takes a little time. That’s it.”

“Who beat him up like this? Is it Lorenzo?” Avery’s eyes flashed with deep hatred, and she asked her, “Why did he beat Elliot? Rebecca, What were you doing? Why were not you stop him?”

Rebecca said, “I didn’t stop Lorenzo.”

“Why do you occupy him now? What face do you have to occupy him? Don’t you feel guilty?” Avery Gritting his teeth.

Rebecca said, “Elliot is not dead. When he recovers, I will treat him well and I will make up for him. If you question me here, how good are you to him? If you are good to him and you are not wrong to him, why would he abandon you and your children to come here? Anyone can accuse me, but you are not qualified.”

Rebecca’s rebuttal made Avery suddenly calmed down.

Now arguing about this was useless.

“Where’s his inspection report? Give it to me.” Avery reached out to Rebecca.

Rebecca’s stiff pestle stayed on the spot and didn’t move.

“I asked you to give me his inspection report. If you can’t speak, get out.” Avery raised her voice a bit and her fingers clenched tightly.

Rebecca blushed when she scolded her face to face: “The inspection report is in the cabinet in front of you. Avery, don’t think that I dare not..”

“You are going to kill me?” Avery glanced at her coldly, then opened the cabinet and took out a stack of examination reports, “Rebecca, are you addicted to murder? If you can’t control yourself, I suggest you go to a psychiatrist. “

Rebecca slammed the door and left.

Nick smokes outside the ward. Seeing Rebecca coming out, he immediately grabbed her.

“Rebecca, I know you don’t want to see Avery, but Avery’s medical skills are really good. Let her stay here and treat Elliot.” Nick persuaded her nicely, “Lorenzo hurt Elliot like this, If there is any root of the disease, it will be miserable.”

Rebecca: “I want Elliot to wake up and see me, not her.”

Nick laughed and said, “Then why don’t you stay in the ward all the time. In this way, Elliot wakes up and sees two of you. I really envy Elliot, the two women are fascinated by him.”

Rebecca: “I’m annoyed when I see Avery.”

Nick: “Avery is even more annoying when she sees you. She can bear it and you also bear it.”

Rebecca: “...”

“By the way, isn’t the child in your belly a test-tube baby? Why did you tell Avery that it was Elliot?” Nick asked this question in a low voice, “Elliot told me personally that your child is not his.”

The corner of Rebecca’s mouth raised a mocking smile: “Why do you think I dare to kill my father in a desperate attempt to kill my father? Because the child in my womb belongs to Elliot. Even if Elliot doesn’t love me, he will still be there for the child in my womb.”

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1449

Chapter 1449

Nick didn't think Rebecca was joking.

–Is it true?

–If true, that would be interesting.

Nick should have watched the fun, but his temples hurt.

Elliot and Avery had a conflict. If it was in Aryadelle, it had nothing to do with Nick.

But obviously, their next conflict will be troubled here. They were fighting here, and he certainly couldn't eat melons like the others standing with akimbo.

Avery took Nick one at a time, calling him as affectionate as a brother.

At first, Nick was annoyed by Avery coming to him, but then for some reason, he seemed to get used to it, so he didn't think she was too annoyed.

“Since you have a child in your womb to threaten Elliot, why are you afraid of Avery? Just let her stay here. Let's wait until Elliot recovers.”

Rebecca held back her anger: “You said so. I want to kill her.”

“If you kill her, Elliot won't let you go. Don't think that if you are pregnant with his child, you will get the gold medal. Rebecca, you are not like your father. If you kill people with ruthlessness, you are still not your father. Don't blame me for speaking badly, I just hope you can cherish the life that you can control and don't kill yourself.”

Rebecca gradually calmed down: “I know... ..I know where Elliot's bottom line is. I just want to keep Elliot by my side, as long as Avery doesn't rob me, I won't hurt her.”

Nick laughed and said, “If you can't rob her, you treat Elliot as a commodity. When Elliot wakes up, he can go wherever he wants, and you can't do anything at all.”

“If he wants to leave, will you help him leave?” Rebecca's eyes narrowed and wet.

Nick said, “Not only will I help him, but your second and fourth masters will also help him.” Nick looked at her lost face with scheming eyes, “One mountain can't hold two tigers. Elliot and we are not the same kind of people. And he is too capable. If he stays here, it is a hidden danger for your second master and fourth master. If you cannot become the same kind, you will become opponents.”

“As you say, if Elliot leaves here, Would you attack the Jobin family?” Rebecca’s heart went cold.

“Elliot has already negotiated with them. Some of the benefits your dad swallowed will definitely be spit out. As for the Jobin Industries, we promised that Elliot would not move. What you need to do in the future is to keep the Jobin Industries from outsiders.”

Rebecca lowered her head, tears streaming down her face.

“Do you regret killing your father?” Nick asked.

“So what if I regret it, he won’t survive again.” Rebecca turned her back.

Nick: “Rebecca, listen to my advice again, don’t break up with Lorenzo over Elliot. In case you can’t keep Elliot, it’s not bad to keep Lorenzo. At least he’s here, It can be much easier.”

Rebecca: “Got it.”

Avonsville.

In the minimalist villa, the smell of traditional medicine permeates the entire space.

Jun couldn’t stand the smell of medicine, so he went up to the second floor.

As a result, the second floor is also this strong strange smell.

Distraught, he glanced at the sky outside.

It was getting dark, but Tammy hadn’t come back yet.

It has been half a month since Tammy took over the Lynch Group.

In the past half month, she has been home late for at least ten days.

For at least a week, she spent drinking with others outside.

Because of her new appointment, major dealers and customers invited her to dinner one after another. She couldn’t refuse, so her dinner was scheduled a month later.

Jun went to accompany her when he was free, but he also had his own things to do, so it was impossible to accompany her every day.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1450

Chapter 1450

So the two of them often quarrel over this matter.

The medicine that the nanny downstairs boiled was bought by Tammy after she went to seek medical treatment, and she drank it three times a day in the morning, noon and evening.

Tammy insisted on drinking for two days, and today was her third day to drink the medicine.

She didn't come back for lunch today, and she didn't know how late she would stay up tonight.

Jun stood on the balcony to breathe while dialing her number.

The phone was dialed, and it took a while to get through.

"Husband, I can't leave now... I'll be home later. You can eat alone and don't wait for me." Tammy's answer made Jun feel angry.

"Didn't you say you need to prepare for pregnancy? You didn't drink your medicine? You didn't drink it at noon today." Although Jun was angry, he didn't dare to speak too harshly.

Since Tammy was kidnapped, he dared not allow himself to lose his temper with her.

"I wanted to go back to drink medicine at noon. You said that fatigued driving is not good, so I stayed at the company to rest... You said it's okay to drink less." Tammy argued with him.

Jun said, "I mean it's okay to have one less drink, but you can't come back tonight to drink, so drink less."

"Then can you bring it to me? Are you at home now?" Tammy asked back.

Jun took a deep breath and said, "Okay! Send me the location and I'll send it to you."

After speaking on the phone, Jun went downstairs and asked the nanny to pack the boiled traditional medicine in a heat preservation box.

While packing, the nanny muttered in a low voice: "Master, you are too indulgent to Tammy. Which woman preparing for pregnancy drinks outside every day? You can't drink when preparing for pregnancy."

Jun: “Tammy said she didn’t drink. She drank all the juice.”

The nanny: “But the clothes she changes every night smells of alcohol.”

Jun frowned, “Other people drink alcohol and it smells like medicine. I don’t know about this medicine. Does it work? It’s so unpleasant to drink. If you put it away before, Tammy will never drink it.”

The nanny: “Young master, you are soft-hearted. Tammy socializes outside every day. If your parents find out about this, you will definitely be angry.”

“Don’t talk to me. My parents said. Just wait until Tammy has been busy for a while.”
Jun took the insulation box from the nanny and strode out.

A high-end restaurant, private room.

Jun carried the insulation box, pushed open the private room door, and saw a fat middle-aged man holding a glass of wine and forcibly pouring it into Tammy.

The insulation box in Jun’s hand fell to the floor with a ‘bang’.

Hearing the movement, Tammy immediately saw Jun, and immediately pushed the man beside him away.

“Husband!” Tammy blushed embarrassedly and explained, “I...I...”

Tammy wanted to say ‘I didn’t drink’, but the truth was that she had just been given a sip liquor.

“Have you been drinking?” Jun strode in front of her and smelled a strong smell of wine.

Jun wasn’t sure if Tammy drank or not, but her dodging eyes betrayed everything.

“Drink a little. Just a sip.” After Tammy finished speaking, Jun immediately shook off her arm and strode away.

“Husband. Wait for me.” Tammy grabbed her bag and quickly chased out.

In the parking lot outside the restaurant, Jun stopped.

Tammy chased after him——

“Husband, today’s guests are special.”

“I’ll just ask you, can I drink alcohol to prepare for pregnancy?” Jun frowned and shouted angrily, “Either you don’t tell me that you want children. You really want children, and you can talk to these old men every day. fooling around outside? Your family does business by relying on women to accompany others to drink outside? Is your mother like this?”
