

Chapter 4380

At this time, Duncan downstairs lost his interest in drinking,

And he waved to Hogan and said: "Boss, I have put the money on the table for you."

Hogan stuck his head out, glanced at the stack of hundred-dollar bills on the table, and said quickly,

"Inspector Li, can't take that much money, you can keep it. One bill is enough."

Duncan said: "I didn't give this money, it was given by my friend,"

"How can I put it in my pocket, you can keep it, I'm leaving."

After that, he stood up, wiped his mouth with a piece of paper, turned, and walked out.

When Hogan saw him go out, he was really relieved.

He was not afraid that Duncan would find out his identity as an illegal immigrant,

But he was just afraid that he would realize that he had met with him,

And then link Randal's disappearance to himself.

Charlie and Sara have been to his store more than once,

And once he is exposed, Duncan can find Charlie along the way.

The case of Randal's disappearance was not seamless.

Duncan couldn't find any clues, just because the clues were well hidden,

But once he found the clue and grabbed a rope, he could lead the whole case coming out.

Just as he thought about it, he saw Charlie and Sara also walking down,

He hurriedly stepped forward and said, "Young Master Wade, why did you come down?"

"That Inspector Li just went out. I guess he hasn't gone far yet."

Charlie hurriedly said: "Uncle Chen,"

"We have to leave first because of a little urgent matter. Come back to you!"

As soon as Hogan heard that Charlie was in a hurry, even if he didn't want to hold back,

He first walked to the door and took a look. Duncan had already got in the car and left, so he said,

"Inspector Li's car has left. If you are in a hurry, you can leave now. If you need me, just give a word."

"Okay Uncle."

Charlie and Sara After saying goodbye to Hogan got into the car and rushed towards the airport.

At the same time.

Over 10,000 meters above sea level in continental Europe.

Douglas and Stella were sitting nervously in a Gulfstream business jet.

In the cabin, Karl and Ruoli were both closing their eyes and resting,

While the old man and Stella were staring at the darkness outside the window in a daze.

After the helicopter arrived in Colombo, the capital of Sri Lanka, they had no idea where they were going next.

When they boarded the plane, no one told them what the destination of the plane was.

At this time, the plane was flying above the thick clouds,

And it was impossible to distinguish the direction and position,

So the old man and his grandchild were even more uneasy in their hearts.

Douglas stared out the window for a long time, and couldn't help asking Stella in a low voice:

"Stella, where do you think Mr. Wade is going to arrange us?"

"The plane has been flying for several hours."

"If it is going to Syria, it should be coming soon. Right?"

Stella nodded, recalled the world map carefully, and said,

"It should take at least six hours to fly from Sri Lanka to Syria."

"It has been seven hours since we took off. If we were to go to Syria,"

"The plane would have already started to go down."

"But now the plane is still cruising normally, I guess we are still far from our destination."

Douglas frowned and asked: "At this speed, no matter which direction you go,"

"I'm afraid it will be out of Asia... Mr. Wade no longer intends to let us go to Syria,"

"But has other arrangements for us?" Stella nodded in agreement:

"It's definitely possible to go out of Asia, but it's not clear where out of Asia..."

She looked at Douglas and said seriously:

"Grandpa, don't worry too much, Mr. Wade will definitely give us a proper arrangement."

Douglas nodded, but still said melancholy:

"I am sure I believe in Mr. Wade, but this kind of unknown feeling is still a little uneasy,"

"I am not afraid that something will happen to me,"

"I am afraid that you will be implicated by me and be in danger."

"No." Stella said very firmly: "Mr. Wade is now that helping us,"

"We will never be in danger again!"

"No matter where this plane flies, even if it flies to New York, I'm not afraid of Mr. Wade!"
