1534

Stepping into the Enlightenment Stage at the age of twelve, I wonder if there is such an existence in the history of the Flying Cloud Sect.

Omi said, "Sister, let me help you refine and absorb it now."

"Mm, good." Tang Huan was busy nodding, only, she was a bit embarrassed inside, after all, Omi had almost helped her cultivate, and she didn't even know how to repay him in this life in order to repay such a great favor.

In the end, with Omi's help, it took Tang Huan ten minutes to refine two second grade spirit stones as well.

Tang Huan's realm had soared from the fourth stage of body refining to the eighth stage of body refining.

"Sister, you're already at the eighth stage of Body Tempering."

"Wow, it's really hard to even think about it." Tang Huan said in surprise.

"Congratulations sister, promoted to the eighth stage of Body Tempering." Omi said with congratulations.

However, Tang Huan's eyes drooped.

"Uh, Sister, what's wrong? Suddenly your eyes drooped, promoted to the eighth stage of Body Tempering, you should be happy."

Tang Huan suddenly said with deep affection, "Brother, a month and a half ago, I was only a person at the third stage of Body Tempering, who was still unable to even succeed in the Inner Circle disciple assessment, but in less than a month and a half, I was promoted to the eighth stage of Body Tempering, it's all thanks to you, I don't even know how to repay you for such a great kindness." "Uh, sister, why are you suddenly so incendiary, you're my sister, who am I helping if not you."

"Although I'm your sister, but, there are many sisters in the world, and not necessarily everyone is like that, in any case, your kindness, my sister can't repay."

“Silly sister, what are you talking about repaying ah, don’t say that anymore.”

Tang Huan pouted with a pampered face, a cute young girl’s appearance, it was heartwarming to watch.

In fact, Omi did not feel the need to be so grateful, because, Omi’s ability to be promoted so quickly was also thanks to the Nine Daoist Demon King, and to be grateful, he was also grateful to the Nine Daoist Demon King.

It was just that now that Omi had reached the First Class of Enlightenment, the amount of spirit stones consumed in the future would be even greater. Moreover, the improvement of first class spirit stones to Omi immediately became very limited, and to continue to improve so quickly, it would have to be second class spirit stones, but the difficulty of obtaining second class spirit stones was significantly more difficult than first class spirit stones, because the higher the spirit stone, the more difficult it was to obtain, and the greater the rarity.

Omi said, “Now that I’ve raised my realm to the first stage of Enlightenment, I don’t know if my ability to refine talismans has improved a bit. And wait for me to try it.”

After saying that, Omi immediately tried his talisman refining ability.

As expected, Omi’s realm had improved, and his body had fewer of the many restrictions on talisman refining, making his ability stronger.

Ten minutes later, Omi refined a talisman.

“Brother, how is it? Have you improved your talisman-making skills? What level is this talisman you’re refining right now?” Tang Huan was busy asking.

Omi smiled heedlessly and said, “Sister, I can now refine talismans of the second and third grade, which means that the talismans I’m refining now can be effective against people of the third grade of enlightenment at the highest.”

“Wow, brother, so you’re a second-grade talisman refiner now?”

“Yes.”

Tang Huan’s eyes were full of adoring little stars.

Brother is truly all-round talented.

Omi said, “Now, we can feel free to do business on the outer perimeter of the Flying Cloud Sect. I won’t be afraid if there are inner-periphery disciples coming to cause trouble.”

“Why?”

bsp; Omi said with confidence, "Because, below the fifth stage of enlightenment, I don't think anyone is my opponent, even the sixth stage of enlightenment, I have the confidence to spike."

"Wow, brother." Tang Huan couldn't describe Omi anymore.

The next day, Omi and Tang Huan, went to the city beneath the Flying Cloud Sect's mountain and purchased talisman refining materials with 1,000 spirit stones.

The talisman refining materials purchased with these 1000 first class spirit stones could refine 2000 talismans, and if they were all sold, they could make 3000 spirit stones.

Tang Huan asked, "We still have over 3,000 spirit stones left, why don't we buy more raw materials? Save it for the next time you have to come down the mountain to buy it."

Omi smiled, after all, Tang Huan was a sixteen year old girl, thinking too simply.

Omi said, "Sister, the number of outer disciples of the Flying Cloud Sect, the first and the second combined, how many?"

"Less than 20,000 people."

"Yeah, our market is just twenty thousand people, and those twenty thousand people only have the ability to buy at most two, or even one, amulets per month. In other words, our market is only holding up to 20,000 talismans per month. And now there are already several talisman sellers on the periphery of the Flying Cloud Sect, and we have to compete with them, so we still don't know when we will be able to sell the 2,000 talismans we have. So, there's no need to purchase so many, lest we accumulate them in our hands."

Tang Huan smiled apologetically and said, "Brother, these 2,000 talismans will take you at least three months to finish practicing, it's too hard for you."

Omi said, "Sister, I'm a second-grade talisman refiner now, so when I refine first-grade talismans, each one becomes less consuming to me, so now, every day, I can refine at least 200 first-grade talismans. Of course, if I refine two-grade talismans, then I can only refine 20 of them per day."

"Wouldn't that mean that you can easily refine these 2,000 pieces you're purchasing now in ten days?"

"Yes. For the next ten days, you're in charge of selling talismans and I'm in charge of refining."

"Mmhmm."

For the next ten days, Omi refined 200 first-grade talismans every day, more specifically, first-grade eighth-grade talismans. (The strongest talisman that could deal with whatever level it was, for example, a First Grade Eight Tier Talisman was the strongest talisman that could deal with Body Refining Eighth Tier, or a Red Grade Eight Tier Demonic Beast.)

Tang Huan was in charge of selling talismans, because the reputation of Omi talismans was gradually playing out.

Therefore, quite a few people came to buy talismans every day, and Tang Huan could sell about 100 talismans every day.

Omi, on the other hand, could make 200 talismans per day, temporarily in a situation where the supply exceeded the demand.

But there was no need to worry, Omi's talismans, the fame hadn't been completely beaten out after all.

In a blink of an eye, a month passed.

The 2,000 talismans Omi had refined were all sold out.

In total, it took a month to sell out 2000 talismans.

Late night.

Tang Huan was tallying up the month's income.

"Brother, this month, we made a total of 3,000 spirit stones, plus the 3,500 spirit stones we had deposited, we now have 6,500 spirit stones la." Tang Huan said happily.

Omi said, "Sister, now let me help you raise to the Enlightenment Stage first."

"Eh." Tang Huan was stunned, she didn't even dare to think of letting her mention the Enlightenment Stage so soon.

Omi took out 2000 spirit stones and helped Tang Huan refine them.

Ten minutes later, Omi helped Tang Huan finish refining, and Tang Huan soared from the Eighth Stage of Body Refining to the First Stage of Enlightenment in one fell swoop.
