"Ah." Tied to the side, Yang Ziyun was also dumbfounded, Nima ah, this is still not a human being doing this, Yang Ziyun looked at the demonic Omi and was terrified.

Soon, Quan De and Wei Lang's punishment was finished.

"Boss, the punishment is complete."

Omi nodded his head and said, "Everyone, I'll let you off today, remember from now on, don't provoke me, I'm not someone you can provoke. I know you guys are disgruntled in your hearts, but I must tell you, don't doubt my words, otherwise, it will only get worse. Those of you who are thinking, trying to beat me down, trying to get back at me, will only make it worse and worse for you, remember, forget about this, it's your best option. You can go now."

Except for the unconscious Quan De and Wei Luang, all of them walked away in a mess.

None of them dared to utter a word, and they probably wouldn't say anything about what happened today, after all, they were also in the top twenty of the Enlightened First Order list, it would be too humiliating to say anything.

"Boss, what about these two?" Tang Unknown pointed at the unconscious Quan De and Wei Lang on the ground.

Without looking at them, Omi said, "Throw them to the nearby garbage pile."

"Yes."

Tang Unknown commanded two of his men to carry Quan De and Wei Lang to a nearby trash pond and throw them into it.

At this moment, at a certain mentor base of the Flying Cloud Sect. One second to remember to read the book

"Mentor Jeonji, there's someone outside looking for you." A male mentor said to another young mentor.

"Who's looking for me?"

"They've been waiting outside the main gate all night, and they seem to have been sent by your brother."

"My brother? Quan De, why did he send someone to find me in the middle of the night." Saying that, that mentor called Quan Chi, immediately came to the gate of the mentor base, and indeed saw several disciples.

"Hello, are you Mentor Quan-ji?"

"Yes, I am."

"Mentor Allwise, you've finally come out, and if you don't, the boss is going to die."

"The boss? Are you my brother's men?"

"Yes, now Boss Quan De is in danger, he was beaten unconscious and hung up by a man named Omi. I can't believe it anymore, what kind of torture is being inflicted on the boss, so you should go and save him."

"Who is Omi? Could it be that Omi that I heard about earlier, who dared to humiliate Elder She Jun during the outer disciple assessment?"

"Yes, yes, it's him, this Omi is truly a genius, only entering the inner circle, he became the first in the First Order of Open Light, your brother is no match at all."

"How dare you touch my brother." The All Wise Tutor was furious.

"Lead the way." Mentor Quan Zhi bellowed, those disciples panicked and led the way to Omi, they were all excited, the boss's rescuers had finally arrived.

Omi was eating breakfast under Lu Yuxi's wait.

Omi was just like a young master, enjoying the days when he was clothed and fed.

"Alright, Yu Xi, eat yourself too."

"Yes, Young Master Minister."

"Boss, it's not good." At that moment, Tang Ming ran in to report.

Omi snorted, "Don't tell me who's bothering me again."

"Boss, how do you know?"

At that moment, an indifferent voice came from outside, "Who is Omi? Come out, I'll give you three seconds." At the same time, a murderous aura pervaded.

Omi snorted in disdain, "A mere heart illuminating one step, he even dares to come looking for shit."

That's right, Quan De's brother, Mentor Quan Zhi, was a newly promoted Mentor of the First Order of Heart Illumination.

Omi's true realm was also at the First Order of Heart Illumination.

Therefore, Omi sensed Quan Chi's realm while he was still in the back room.

Omi was very disdainful.

Omi slowly walked out of the back hall and went to the front yard, where a man who couldn't see his age was standing there full of anger, appearance couldn't judge a person's age anymore, because the lifespan of immortal cultivators was thousands of years, thirty years old versus eighty years old, even versus three hundred years old, in some cases, it couldn't be distinguished.

However, looks couldn't be judged, but one could roughly sense age through the other person's essence.

Right now, Omi sensed that this All Wise Tutor, he should be almost seventy years old.

A person who was almost seventy years old had only cultivated to the first stage of Heart Illumination, Omi simply didn't care.

That Total Wisdom Mentor, seeing Omi said, "I gave you three seconds to appear, but unfortunately you only came out for a whole minute, so you can't blame me for being rude."

"How rude?" Omi sneered.

"Where's my brother?" Quan Chi asked angrily, not having the time to play games with Omi at the moment.

"Your brother? Oh, Quan-Te? I had him thrown into a nearby dumpster after he'd eaten and drank his fill, but now go look for him, he should still be turning up."

"You're looking for death." Quan Zhi's face screwed up, killing Omi, he had never wanted to kill someone as strongly as he did today.

Omi certainly felt the killing aura, but unfortunately, Omi's eyes were filled with disdain.

However, such a lowly opponent, Omi did not intend to kill him, because such a lowly opponent, he was not worthy of being Omi's opponent, talk about raising a tiger, now he was not even a rival, and in the future even less of a rival, so it was better to kill him than to humiliate him viciously.

Of course, if it was the kind of talent that was so great that it would bring hidden danger to Omi in the future, then kill it.

A few of Quan De's men immediately ran to a nearby trash heap to look for someone.

Sure enough, within a short while, they turned up two people in the trash pile, it was Quan De and Wei Lang.

"Boss, wake up."

After wasting a lot of effort, they finally woke up Quan De and Wei Luang.

"Where am I?" Quan De rolled over and climbed up.

"Boss, you're finally awake, you've been thrown into the trash by Don."

"What? I got thrown in the trash." Quan De suddenly remembered that he had been knocked unconscious last night, and then he hadn't known anything.

At that moment, Quan De sniffled and said, "Why does it smell like piss?"

"Boss, it's probably ugly in the trash."

"Right boss, we've gone to find your brother, Mentor Quan Chi, at the moment your brother is at Omi's, I'm sure at the moment, Omi has been flattened by your brother." One of the men said.

"What? My brother has gone to find Omi, great, let's go, I'm going to brutally maim him this time." Quan De gritted his teeth, then rushed to the Light Cloud Alliance.

Soon, Quan De rushed to the entrance of the Light Cloud Alliance, before Quan De entered, he shouted, "Brother, fuck him up."

However, when Quan De rushed into the main entrance, his entire body froze, only to see his brother lying on the ground, with Omi's foot on his brother's head, and his brother unable to move.

"What." Quan De was silly, he thought that Omi had already beaten his brother to death, but what he saw was his brother being held down on the ground by Omi stepping on his head and unable to move.
